Frazer Features Safety, Comfort and Roadability

The new Frazer automobile embodies 1947 styling and engineering features designed to provide almost passenger safety as well as comfort and "roadability," says C. L. Hyatt of the Hyatt Motor Co., Cisco agent.

Now on display at 701 D avenue, Cisco, for the first time, the Frazer is powered by a 100-horsepower, six-cylinder Continental engine developed by Continental and Graham-Paige Motors engineers. Of L-head design, the high-compression engine has aluminum alloy pistons with a displacement of 226 cubic inches, and a bore and stroke of 3 5/16 and 4 3/8 inches, respectively. The compression ratio is 12:1.

An overdrive, providing a smoother, quieter ride with greater fuel economy, will be available as optional equipment on the Frazer. Other mechanical features of the new auto include a forged counter-weighted crankshaft with four main bearings, rubber engine mountings and automatic choke. The S. A. E. horsepower is 26.3.

Among its safety features are wide, five-inch wheel rims which provide greater steering safety and stability on turns at high speeds. Increased visibility is provided by the two-piece 765-square-inch windshield, which is approximately 100 square inches larger than the windshield areas of competitive models. The pillar posts have been moved back, increasing the angle of the windshield and providing greater side vision for the driver.

In addition to the fundamental safety features of the all-steel body with safety glass throughout, rigid box frame, and large self-centering hydraulic brakes, the Frazer has entirely new-type door handles which operate by gentle pressure on a "trigger" concealed in the inside curve of each handle. The door handles are designed so that there are no open ends to catch clothing.

Providing unexcelled riding comfort and enabling the driver to maintain more perfect control at high speeds, longer-stroke shock absorbers have been incorporated into the chassis design. The front wheel independent suspension is effected through helical-type springs, while the semi-elliptic rear springs are rubber mounted with rubber inserts between the leaves.

Both front and rear seat cushions in the Frazer are 62 inches wide, with the door-to-door width 64 inches.

With a 123 1/2-inch wheelbase, the Frazer has an overall length of

Edmunson to Open Revival at City Hall Friday Night

Evangelist and Mrs. M. E. Edmunson of California, who closed a highly successful three-weeks revival at Albany, Shackelford county, Sunday night, will open a meeting at Cisco city hall Friday night of this week. The Albany meeting was held in the Assembly of God church, of which Rev. R. E. Norman is pastor.

The California evangelist, who called at the Daily Press office yesterday to place advertising, recalled that he and Mrs. Edmunson had conducted a revival in Cisco fourteen years ago. Assisting in that meeting was Evangelist Bill Keller of Plainview. The meeting was held in a tent which stood on the lots now occupied by Cisco's Frozen Food Locker plant. There were big crowds and excellent results from that revival, Mr. Edmunson stated.

A cordial invitation is extended to all Cisco people to attend the services that will begin promptly at 7:30 each night.

34 Lions, 3 Visitors at the Lions Luncheon Today

Thirty-four members and three visitors were present today when President C. E. Paul called the weekly Lions luncheon to order, said Wallace Smith, chairman of the publicity committee. The visitors were Miss Norma Prange, Clyde Karkalits and E. L. Humphrey.

After general discussion, Cisco Lions placed the name of Lion Dodson of Decatur in nomination for the office of third vice president of Lions International.

Dr. Homer Ramsey, dental surgeon, was presented with his pin by W. H. LaRoque, past district governor. Dr. Ramsey is now a full-fledged Lion.

Two new Lion cubs — Homer Tompkins Jr. and Fred Baumgardner — were introduced to the club. They will receive all the initiatory trimmings four weeks from today.

Publicity Chairman Smith urges all members to be present at next week's meeting when, he said, there will be a very special program.

Commission's War Profits Claims Alleged Untrue

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25. (U.P.)—John A. McCone, president of the California Shipbuilding Corp., today joined industrialist Henry J. Kaiser in accusing the maritime commission of making "deliberately misleading" statements about the profits of wartime shipbuilders.

Testifying before the House Merchant Marine committee in the third day of the committee's inquiry into wartime profits of shipbuilders, McCone said net profits were .89 of one per cent of the $919,000,000 value of 467 ships sent down the ways of government-built California Shipbuilding Corporations yards, near Los Angeles.

The Maritime Commission reported to the committee that 19 companies which operated government-owned yards made an estimated profit of $356,006,612 on their own capital investment of $22,970,275.

TURKEY FOR WINNERS—Having lost an election bet, the members of a political club watch the right guessers wolf down a feast of turkey in Times Square, New York, at midnight. The five men were given a 25-pound bird.

Bales of Long Green Will Not Save Liquor Man

DALLAS, Sept. 25. — After a tortuous income tax fraud case that lasted for twelve days, a federal jury took only thirty-five minutes to find Alex Steinberg guilty shortly before noon Tuesday.

Federal Judge T. Whitfield Davidson, who heard the case, said he would pass sentence upon the wealthy Dallas whiskey man at 2 p. m. Friday following a plea by Defense Counsel John Erhardt that the defense wished to prepare a statement for presentation to the court.

Although attorneys were non-committal, it was believed that the case will be appealed to the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals.

In charging the jury, Judge Davidson said that it was not necessary for the government to prove the exact amount of tax evasion, which, according to government testimony, amounted to over $800,000. If there was an attempt to conceal any part of that amount, a conviction should follow, he charged.

If, however, the judge continued, it was found that Steinberg acted as a broker or agent and turned over all his receipts to another, less brokerage, as Steinberg testified, he should be acquitted.

Steinberg maintained a poker face when the verdict was given, but paced the hall while the jury deliberated. The case went to the jury at 11 a. m. and at 11:35 a. m. Deputy Marshal Charlie Young was informed by a knock on the door that the jury had agreed.

United States Marshal J. R. (Red) Wright took Steinberg to the marshal's office until a session at 2 p. m., when George and Julius Schepps, already on Steinberg's bond for $20,000, took an oath that they would continue on the bond until the sentence was passed.

While Steinberg was in custody, he was searched by the marshal's office and two purses bulging with $1,000 bills were found.

"It was just like breaking the wire on a bale of green alfalfa," one of the onlookers said in describing the purse.

Steinberg had testified that he always carried $50,000 to $75,000 in his pocket and that his safe usually contained $75,000 to $100,000, "maybe more."

In returning the verdict, the jury found the defendant guilty on all four counts alleged in the indictment.

PROSECUTOR—Capt. Earl J. Carroll, Jr., former prosecutor in the Army's Lichfield detention camp brutality trials, smiles in New York as he returns to the U. S. He resigned because of "flagrant mishandling" of the case.

FIGHTER—Little four-year-olds Gordon Burghardt, left, and his friend, Lynne Sonnenfeld, warily pet the rabbit, "Terror," at the Washington Park Zoo in Milwaukee, Wis. The seemingly tame pet is kept in a cage to herself because of attacking other animals in the zoo. She left behind her a trail of tattered goats, jittery deer and astonished zookeepers.

SHAMEFUL WASTE.

WELLINGTON, N. Z., Sept. 25. Thirty-one thousand bales of wool, valued at approximately $2,240,000, and a quantity of New Zealand air force equipment were destroyed today by fire which damaged the Wellington Exhibition building. The wool had been stored by the New Zealand wool disposal commission. Approximately 61,000 additional bales were saved.

NINETEEN KILLED.

HONG KONG, Sept. 25. (U.P.)—A Royal Air Force Dakota transport, taking off for Singapore, stalled and shattered itself against a huge boulder on a hillside today, killing 19 persons.

STILL DANGEROUS.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25. (U.P.)—More than 100 ships that entered Bikini Lagoon following the atomic bomb tests have been temporarily "quarantined" because they still are giving off poisonous rays two months after the tests were completed.

BOMB IN AUTO.

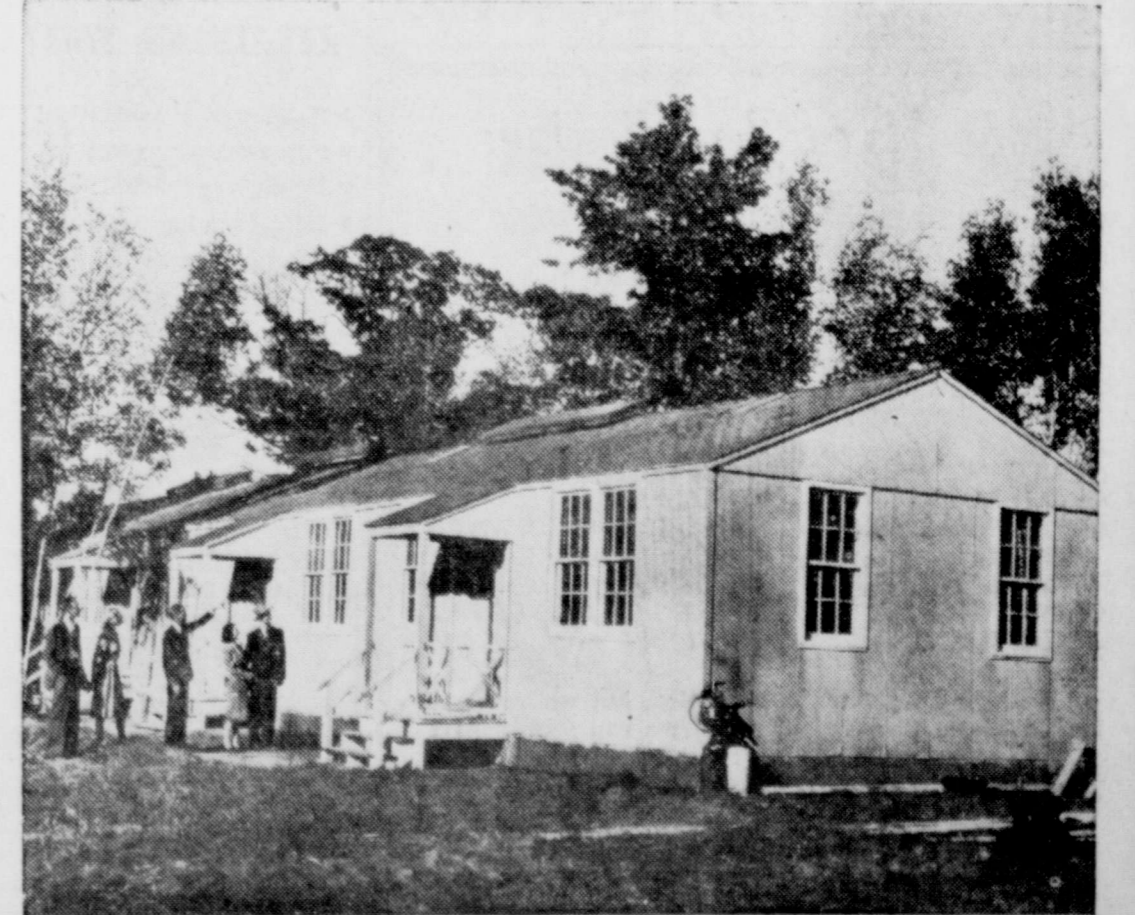

CHICAGO, Sept. 25. — A Chicago school teacher was critically injured today by the explosion of a bomb planted in her automobile. Mrs. Bertha M. Wilson, 46, a divorcee suffered cuts and burns. The explosion occurred when she stepped on the starter of her automobile, which had been parked in front of her home all night.

McNUTT TO RESIGN.

MANILA, Sept. 25. — The Evening News said today that Ambassador Paul V. McNutt soon would resign and return to the United States to enter the law firm of Joseph E. Davies, former ambassador to Russia.

HOUSTON AIRPORT.

HOUSTON, Sept. 25. — Plans for a $14,000,000 airport project, to be located on a 4,000-acre tract a mile west of Bellaire, were disclosed here today by a group of Houston business men headed by Glenn H. McCarthy, independent oil man.

GLORIFIED BARRACKS—Many ex-GIs will hardly recognize these homes as former barracks. Moved from Camp Shanks, N. J., these are some of the 50 apartments built by the Federal Public Housing Authority for students of Columbia University, N.Y.

DURATION AND SIX.

In the midst of rash talk about more war and general international confusion, it is just as well to remember that, technically speaking, World War II is not over for the United States.

It will not be over until all the peace treaties have been signed and the president issues a proclamation.

As for the "duration and six months" for which all servicemen were enlisted, the duration is still going on and the six will start after that.

That means that demobilization notwithstanding, ten million veterans are actually on inactive duty.

All it would take to put them back in uniform is a proclamation from the president, some telegrams from the War and Navy Departments, and a revival of draft organizations.

The last thing this country wants is to have to get into anything like that again, but before being either too glib about beating any nation down, or too smug about post-war plans, it is a good thing to realize that the United States is still in a state of emergency, with its finger on the world pulse.

GALILEE.

ON quiet days, from all the world set free,
Below the rugged slopes of Palestine.

Where limpid water touched by sunlight shine,
And storied hills look down upon the sea,

A Presence seems forevermore to be,
A form and face where strength and love combine

And eyes like stars, and healing touch divine—
Beside the waves of sweet, blue Galilee.

O, Saviour who hast heard the ages call,
O, Galilean who hast conquered all,

We hear Thy words of comfort, hope and cheer,
Thy shining presence makes the pathway bright.

Thy love sublime, than all beside more dear,
Transfigures all of life with heaven's light.

STYLE SHOW TUESDAY WAS A FINE SUCCESS.

Women of St. Ann circle, Trinity Episcopal church, presented a style show at the Laguna hotel Tuesday night, showing the latest fall and winter fashions for school age and misses. Fashions included clothes, hair styles and jewelry. Upon arrival the guests were ushered to their seats by Misses Lovell Paul and Carolyn Crofts. Models were presented on a stage elaborately draped in red, white and blue cellophane. Lewis Starr introduced the models and described their outfits.
