13 Inches of Rain Floods San Antonio; 12 Are Dead

By United Press

SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 27. — Looting of abandoned homes broke out in San Antonio today as a disastrous flood killed an estimated 12 persons and sent lowlands residents for 50 miles down the raging San Antonio river fleeing for their lives.

Six bodies had been recovered and Sheriff Owen Kilday said four military policemen were missing and believed dead and eyewitnesses had seen a man and wife swept off a roof at Saspanco, 20 miles downstream. Scores were injured and hundreds were homeless.

Military police and San Antonio officers patrolled West San Antonio, where looters entered homes in the wake of a six-inch overnight rain which deluged the city and sent the flood on its way.

Police Chief Bruce Weatherly issued orders for his men to "get tough" with anyone found entering evacuated homes.

Fire Commissioner P. L. Anderson said 50-foot high Olmos dam, built after a 1921 flood took 49 lives, had saved historic San Antonio.

Water was 35 feet high behind the dam, but the fire commissioner said wild rumors the dam might break were unfounded.

Rainfall of 13 inches was unofficially reported in the south part of the city, one of the sections hardest hit. The rain stopped at the weather station at 8:30 a. m., although showers continued in the downtown section until around 9:30 a. m.

Military personnel and sheriff's officers in rowboats, amphibious vehicles and motorboats were rescuing persons stranded on high ground, on rooftops and in trees.

Estimate of property damage ran into the millions of dollars.

Meat Control Must Remain, President Tells His Cabinet

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27. (U.P.)—President Truman moved swiftly and with apparent success today to bring the Democratic party's reluctant political bosses into line behind his announced policy of maintaining meat price ceilings and hoping for an early influx of livestock to break the meat famine.

The president called his cabinet into session for the first time in more than a month and laid down the law on the meat issue, which almost overnight has blown up into a major political crisis threatening the Democrats' intra-party unity and endangering their chances for victory at the polls in November.

Dr. Cox Warns of Aftermath of San Antonio Disaster

AUSTIN, Sept. 27. (U.P.)—Dr. George W. Cox, Texas health officer, said the aftermath of the San Antonio flood may become as serious as the flood damage itself unless extraordinary health and sanitary precautions are taken.

He advised boiling all water until laboratory tests announce the usual supply is again safe. Inspection of canned foods for puffs or indications of rust, disinfection of flooded basements, burial or incineration of drowned chickens and animals and large-scale insect control.

Gannett Says Stalin Busy Fixing For Another War

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 27. — Frank Gannett, newspaper publisher, said today that Stalin was preparing for war "to extend Communism to the rest of the world," and that "trouble" between the United States and Russia seemed virtually inevitable.

Addressing the New York state legislative board of the brotherhood of locomotive firemen and engineers, the publisher referred to Stalin's recent statement to the contrary.

But he added that "On Feb. 9 of this year, Stalin calmly announced in a speech to his own people that under a capitalist system of world economy, wars are unpreventable."

"In other words," Gannett interpreted, "all our efforts to promote peace are in vain. In Stalin's opinion the UN will not be able to prevent war."

"I don't expect war with Russia immediately," the publisher said. "Stalin is not ready for it—but he is busy with preparations."

WILL TRY AGAIN. PITTSBURG, Sept. 27. (U.P.)—A meeting of striking power workers has been called for tomorrow night to consider the latest contract changes offered by the Duquesne Light Co., Mayor David L. Lawrence announced today.

NEW OCEAN RECORD. SOUTHAMPTON, England, Sept. 27. — Officers of the British liner Queen Mary claimed a new record for the trans-Atlantic crossing upon her arrival here today from Halifax, saying she had made it in three days, 15 hours and 48 minutes.

Meat Dishes in Restaurants to Be Upped Soon

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27. (U.P.)—The OPA announced today that it soon will grant price increases on meat dishes served by restaurants. OPA said the new ceilings for meat dishes will be based on June 30 ceilings, plus an increase factor.

The exact amount of the increase has not been figured out yet, will be announced next week, OPA said.

Whisky Merchant Gets 8 Years and Fine of $24,000

DALLAS, Sept. 27. (U.P.)—Alex Steinberg, millionaire Dallas wholesale whisky merchant, was sentenced to eight years in federal prison and fined a total of $24,000 today on his conviction of defrauding the government of income taxes on almost $1,000,000 in illegal black market liquor revenue.

BACK TO THE TRIALS—Associate Justice Robert H. Jackson of the U. S. Supreme Court boards plane in Washington to return to Nuremberg to hear the International War Guilt Tribunal's verdict.

SIX BY TEN—The 10 six-footers here are all members of St. Louis' "Tip-Topper" club. They are shown with little Mrs. John Roberts (5 ft.-2 in.) just for contrast. Left to right, John Roberts, Hildegard Richter, Joyce Schmollinger, Phyllis Armstrong, Evelyn Scott, Mrs. John Roberts, Bill Randolph, Virginia Krutzman, Mary Froehlich, Doris Abernathy, and Elaine Meyer.

LOST—Julia Banks, left, and Shirley DeWitt look forlorn as they sit on their luggage on the campus of the University of Wisconsin. Having roomed in the school's men's dormitory for three years, they were ousted as "manpower" returned to the campus.

MIKE FLEMING, CISCOAN SINCE 1900, IS DEAD AT 92; FUNERAL HERE AT 2 P. M., SATURDAY

Michael Holland Fleming, former Ciscoan and highly esteemed by all who knew him, died at 11:10 last night at the home of his son Charles H. Fleming in El Paso, where he had resided for the past several years.

He was born in New York City, October 12, 1854, and would have been 92 years of age next month. Word of Mr. Fleming's death was received here this morning by Connie Davis, who stated the body would arrive in Cisco Saturday morning and that funeral services would be held at Thomas funeral chapel at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, with burial in Oakwood cemetery beside his wife and two children, who died many years ago.

Father John Donnelly of Ranger will be the officiating minister, deceased having been a conscientious, life-long member of the Catholic church.

Mike Fleming, as he was familiarly known to his many Cisco friends, came to Texas in 1880, first locating at Milano, Milam county, where he began work as a section hand on the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe railroad. He was soon promoted to roadmaster and remained with the Santa Fe and International & Great Northern at Milano until he was transferred to Cisco as section foreman for the Texas & Pacific, in April, 1900. He continued in that connection until 1915, and made Cisco his home continuously until he moved to El Paso to be with his son and family.

He led a more or less retired life after leaving the railroad, but was always a progressive citizen and held the office of city commissioner and other positions of public trust with honor to the city and credit to himself until failing eyesight forced him into complete retirement.

Deceased was united in marriage to Miss Maggie Molyneux on Dec. 24, 1874, in the city of Albany, N. Y. Four children were born to them, two of whom are living—Charles and Francis Fleming of El Paso. There are also two grandchildren, Miss Maggie Fleming and Charles Fleming Jr., both of El Paso.

PASTORS EXCHANGE PULPITS

Rev. Cecil Stowe of Abernathy, Tex., has arrived in Cisco and assumed the pastorate of the Church of the Nazarene, succeeding Rev. L. H. Clegg, popular pastor here for the past five years. In turn, Mr. Clegg succeeds Mr. Stowe as pastor at Abernathy. The Stowe family consists of the minister, Mrs. Stowe and two daughters, both of school age. Their first impressions of Cisco are very pleasing, the new pastor stated today during a brief call at the Daily Press office.

Canadian War Vet 17,000th Enrollee Texas University

AUSTIN, Sept. 27. — Enrollment at the University of Texas reached 17,000 yesterday. The 17,000th student to enroll was John S. Hayes, a Canadian war veteran who formerly attended the University of Toronto.

Also among the registrants was Edith Shakuntala Devanese from India, formerly a student at St. Joseph College at Madras University.

STREET SERVICE SATURDAY

Rev. R. E. Norman, pastor of the Assembly of God church at Albany, will attend and assist in the Saturday night service at Cisco city hall, stated Evangelist M. E. Edmunson of California, who is in charge of the meeting. The Albany pastor will also help in a gospel service to be held on the streets of Cisco at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, weather permitting. The revival will start at city hall tonight, 8 o'clock. The city hall auditorium will seat about 500 people. There will be good singing by a large choir, with piano accompaniment, and the public is cordially invited, the evangelist said.

SPOT OF TROUBLE—While his master, S/Sgt. Ralph J. Marone, faces a probable courts martial for sending him from Europe, "Spot" becomes acquainted with his new family, Ralph's son, Ralph Jr., three, left, and daughter, Catherine, nine, in Hartford, Conn.

HARVEST ROYALTY—Ann Watkins, four, and Patrick Murphy, five, grin happily amid ears of corn on their city rooftop "farm" in New York City. They grew their vegetables in old butter tubs.

MITCHAM CATTLE SALE DRAWS MORE THAN 400 BUYERS FROM MANY PARTS OF UNITED STATES

Auctioneer Earl Gartin's hammer fell to close the first sale at 1 o'clock this afternoon, and dispersal of one of the finest Hereford Foundation Herds in west Texas was under way.

In 10 minutes ten individuals out of the G. P. Mitcham herd of more than 600 registered individuals were knocked down to the highest bidders among more than 400 buyers who came to Cisco from almost every cattle section of the United States to attend the sale.

The average price paid for those ten animals was almost $900.

Bidding was brisk and the sale moved ahead rapidly under the expert management of Mr. Gartin and his assisting auctioneers, J. W. Shaw of Memphis, Tenn., and Walter Britton of College Station, Texas. Gartin is from Indiana. He has been the auctioneer at all previous sales at the Mitcham ranch.

Sale of the Mitcham herd was determined upon by Mr. Mitcham before his death early in September and F. W. Alexander of Albany, well known Hereford breeder and ranchman of that section, agreed to handle the sale. Mr. Alexander spent several months in planning the sale.

Bidding, which began at 1 this afternoon, will continue through Saturday.

Buyers and visitors attending were fed a luncheon at noon under a large tent erected opposite the barns where the sale is taking place. Lunch will also be served at noon Saturday.

A close observer of the proceedings in the auction ring is Mrs. G. P. Mitcham, widow of the man who founded and developed the herd now being sold.

Because of the large number of cattle to be sold, bidding is kept moving rapidly, but prices for which the animals are being sold are uniformly high.

The Mitcham Foundation Stock Ranch is 12 miles northwest of Cisco. Signs along the roads leading to the ranch mark the route clearly.

The sale Saturday will start at 10 a. m.

Dallas Co. WCTU Wants Congress to Declare war Ended

DALLAS, Sept. 27. — The Dallas County Women's Christian Temperance Union yesterday called for official termination of World War II and of the government agencies created under war emergency powers.

A resolution adopted at a meeting in the Dallas Gas company auditorium mentioned specifically the Office of Price Administration.

It said "the nation is now ready to assume its normal economic path" and asked congress to declare an immediate date for the official termination of the war and its attendant government agencies. Mrs. George Sessions, recording secretary, reported.

RESCUE STORY.

The story of the Belgian plane which crashed in the wilderness of New Foundland, and how the survivors were rescued, is one of the moving dramas of the year. The minute word came that the plane was lost, the search began. Coast Guard air men, long practiced in the technique of air-sea rescue, covered the area, mile after mile. They found the plane wreck and saw five persons apparently alive, then the real rescue job began.

Army medical men approaching by land reached the party, administered first aid, and requested food, blankets and medicines of the planes cruising above. The flying boats were unable to land in that wasteland of woods and soggy terrain, so two helicopters were packed aboard planes in New York and flown up to the air base at Gander. They were reassembled for the risky job. The PBYS dropped timbers near the scene of the wreck and a platform was built for the helicopters to alight on. One by one the 18 injured and burned air liner passengers who had survived the accident were gently placed aboard and flown to the nearest hospital in Gander.

This was an elaborate operation performed by the Army and Coast Guard together. It called for skill and judgment, on the ground and in the air. The survivors, in spite of their ordeal, had nothing but praise for the men who took care of them and got them out of their helpless position in the isolated, mosquito-ridden spot in the forest. They knew that without question they owed their lives to the expert-ness of these men, who turned wartime experience to such important peacetime use.

REACHING.

I SHALL not reach too high
Nor dig too deep,
For I have a faith to keep
With little things.

I'll not ignore a flower
To touch a star,
Divinity is where we are;
It glows and sings.

—John D. Engle Jr., in Florida Magazine of Verse.

MOUNTAIN CLIMBING IS BACK—Neglected during the war as a sport, mountain climbing is appealing to hundreds of climbers who take it seriously. Here at the spectacular Bugaboo Glacier in the Purcell Range of British Columbia, hundreds of keen mountaineers from all parts of North America gather to scale the rugged heights. The Canadian Rockies are believed by many to be more difficult to climb than the famed Swiss Alps. Getting a rocky start, lower right, these Alpinists wear cleated crampon shoes and carry rucksacks and alpenstocks. Roped four to a party, lower left, and under expert guidance, this climbing group skirts a crevice 10,000 feet above sea level. Six miles distant in the background are the snow-capped peaks of the Purcell Range. Weird shadows and shapes take form in snow of Bugaboo Glacier, upper right, as a party makes its way across a crevice. This picture was taken in bright sunlight at four o'clock in the morning. The complete climb takes 12 to 14 hours. Nearing the peak of Bugaboo, upper left, the going gets tougher. These climbers crawl over glacial rock formations while moving upwards. Though ice is all around, the sun is warm and the work of climbing, hot. The prime assets in mountain climbing are plenty of nerve, smartness, caution and patience.

"The Big Sleep," New Warner Drama, At Palace Sunday And Monday.

Raymond Chandler's best-selling murder mystery, "The Big Sleep," opens at the Palace Theater Sunday as one of Warner Bros. top feature offerings for the 20th Anniversary of Talking Pictures.

A Howard Hawks production, with a cast headed by the screen's most sensational couple, Humphrey Bogart and Lauren Bacall, the film also starlights lovely newcomer Martha Vickers, and Dorothy Malone plus an outstanding cast headed by John Ridgely, Elisha Cook, Jr., Peggy Knudsen and Charles Waldron. The film is a tense, exciting story of murder and blackmail, pursuit and love.

Adapted for the screen by William Faulkner, Leigh Brackett and Jules Furthman, the film also boasts a thrilling score by Max Steiner and expert direction by Howard Hawks.

Getting the Cart Before the Horse--

... is the popular way of saying that we act before we think. It is a state of mind not confined to the ignorant, nor to the mentally ill, but to all classes of people, some at times, others at all times. For instance, we buy property without an abstract. We spend several thousand dollars for improvements. Along comes a buyer who thinks before he acts and offers to purchase but wants an abstract first. How about your title, Mr. Seller?
