SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHER, Joan Smith, of Bellmore, L.I., smiles triumphantly as she is awarded the "Miss Stardust of 1946" title in New York City. The slim, blue-eyed blonde believes the idea a Sunday School teacher must never smile and wear horn-rimmed glasses is outmoded.

Jim Mayhew, Good Lutheran Mission Citizen, Will Be Festival at Lake Buried Here Today

James C. Mayhew, 70 years of age and a highly respected citizen of Cisco for more than 45 years, died at his home here at 12:15 Saturday morning. He had been ill and a sufferer for several years, but bore his physical ailments with fortitude until the end.

The funeral will be held at Thomas chapel at 4 o'clock this afternoon, with burial in Oakwood cemetery. Officiating ministers will be Rev. Allen A. Peacock and Rev. C. S. Moad.

Pallbearers will be S. H. Nance, J. T. Elliott, James Flournoy, Claude Blackburn, A. L. Clark of Cisco and Charles Kessler of Abilene.

Mr. Mayhew, a barber by trade, was born April 2, 1875, in LaFette Springs, Miss. He was united in marriage to Miss Anna Houston at Jonesboro, Tex., 47 years ago.

Survivors include the wife and three children — Earl Mayhew, Cisco; Mrs. Merle Johnson, Mrs. Douglas Jones, Abilene; four grandchildren and one great grandchild. A brother, Lewis Mayhew, lives in Hico and a sister, Mrs. A. C. Stephens, is a resident of Ft. Worth.

Deceased, a brother of the late Aaron Mayhew of Cisco, also has a half brother, John Mayhew, who resides at Dumas, Texas.

21 Members Present at Credit Association Session

The Merchants Credit Association of Cisco held its regular monthly meeting Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in its office at 205 Reynolds building, with twenty-one members present.

Several important matters came before the merchants, one being the agreement on holidays which the merchants would take for the remainder of the year.

It was unanimously agreed to close November 11, November 28 and December 25 of this year, and at the beginning of next year all legal holidays for the year will be submitted to the merchants by January 25 for final action.

Another important item brought before the group was a warning by Charles A. Spears of check forgers and frauds that had been perpetrated in Cisco recently. "More of these can be expected within the next few years," he said, and merchants were warned not to cash checks or accept checks in payment of merchandise unless positive identification of party presenting the check is established.

The membership was urged to call the secretary of the association if a forgery was detected, so that such might warn other merchants.

A committee composed of F. D. Wright and Tom B. Stark was appointed by H. S. Drumwright, president, to draw a constitution and by-laws for the association and present it to the membership at the next meeting for approval.

An advertisement committee composed of Nick Miller and Charlie M. Burke was also appointed by President Drumwright. An advertisement of the association appears elsewhere in this issue of the Daily Press.

CISCO WELFARE BOARD.

Cisco Welfare Board will meet Tuesday morning at 9:30, at the chamber of commerce. There will be a report from the nominating committee composed of Rev. Allen A. Peacock, Mrs. W. D. Hazel and Mrs. Fred Scott. All churches, clubs and other civic organizations are urged to have representatives present, said Mrs. B. S. Huey, executive secretary.

dining hall at the Presbytery encampment grounds and if the weather permits the meetings will be held in the open air chapel at the encampment.

Cisco and Stephenville Tied in Friday Game

The Cisco Lobos and the Stephenville Yellowjackets fumbled themselves into an inconclusive 12-all tie on a rain-soaked Chesley Field Monday night, but in doing so they entertained the spectators for their money's worth.

Neither team was content to play a conservative game, but each went all out for scores and was still going for the count when the pistol ended the game.

The Lobos had something the better of the statistics, and once got down to the one-yard line for what looked like a certain touchdown, but the slippery ball proved the decisive factor and the Lobos lost possession in a fumble that yielded it to Stephenville on their 16.

Similarly Stephenville got down within a few yards of the Cisco goal in the fourth period, only to lose the ball on a fumble. At the end of the game Cisco was in possession.

Don Johnson, making his first appearance as a starting regular, was the offensive star of the evening, sharing the spotlight with his bigger teammate, Stanley Williams. Don figured in both touchowns. It was he who set up the score with a 15-yard run to the one-yard line early in the second quarter, after Williams had raced 17 yards to within the Jackets 20-yard zone. From the one yard line, Smith ploughed for the count. Peane missed the kick for point.

Early in the third quarter, after the Jackets had tied the score at 6-all, Johnson personally chalked up the Lobos second counter with a neat 24-yard break and cutback over his left tackle.

Dunn, No. 77, was the big noise for the invaders. He scored both Jackets touchdowns, the first in a 24-yard canter around right end after Johnson had punted poorly out of bounds on Cisco's 24, and again in the third when Johnson fumbled on Cisco's 25 and Stephenville recovered. The Jacket's formation worked like a machine to push the ball to the three from which Dunn carried over. Neither team was successful in a try for point.

Fumbles were frequent on both sides and were made by all ball-handlers. The slippery leather was elusive, but despite the fact, each of the elevens played a straight-forward defensive game and refused to be conservative. The Cisco spinner play was never fully solved by the Jackets, but the Lobo line, which held like a wall against Cleburne, found the T formation troublesome. But it wasn't the T that caused them the most grief. It was a sneaky back with hard running qualities by the name of Dunn.

Noble, Rendall and Hill stood out in the Cisco line, with Cleveland playing a bang-up blocking back spot and Don Johnson and Williams carrying the offensive spotlight.

Statistically the game reads as follows:

Cisco.	Stephenville.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—President Truman is continuously canvassing the meat situation, White House Press Secretary Charles G. Ross said today.

"No angle is being overlooked," Ross said.

Mr. Truman's continuing interest in the meat shortage was disclosed as the agriculture department called upon farmers to produce 58,000,000 pigs next spring as insurance against another meat shortage next year.

The goal is approximately 13 per cent larger than last spring's actual production of 52,404,000 pigs.

But the department emphasized that such a crop would not be reflected in larger pork and lard supplies before the last three months of 1947.

Ross told reporters that the meat shortage was discussed extensively at yesterday's cabinet meeting.

He said he was not prepared to talk about the conclusions reached.

Ross confirmed that the president received a telegram from New York's mayor William O'Dwyer in which O'Dwyer asked for an FBI investigation of the meat industry.

Ross said the telegram may be referred to the FBI.

Attlee Says Truman's Palestine Statement Hasty

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—Here is outlook, one month before election—Democratic high command is rattled, inefficient, torn by internal dissension.

Yet Democrats have better than even chance to keep Senate and fighting chance to keep House.

Liberals, labor, with no place else to go, will fight to elect Democrats to Congress, may turn tide in close districts. Most active campaigning will be done by this group.

The spokesman repeated the British position that the political aspects of the Palestine problem must be settled before an agreement on immigration can be reached.

Democratic organization relies on city bosses, can't agree on which speakers, among meager supply, will win votes. Committee chairman Hannegan, apparently on way out, works at arm's length with White House. Democratic House Leader McCormack's break with President over meat to save his own skin symbolizes party confusion.

As everyone knows, no business enterprise as large as that of a city of 7,000 people, is without a manager, who directs the various departments and sees that they run smoothly and economically. This manager is, of course, responsible to his board of directors.

We all know the constant burdens in time and effort that are put upon our city commissioners and mayor in the daily conduct of their various departments, so why not have all these resolved into one head?

It seems to us, and we believe to be the history of practically all of the cities which have adopted this plan, that the economies effected and the more satisfactory condition regarding delinquent taxes, for instance, have cut governmental costs.

It is said that four of every five cities which have drawn up new charters in recent years have adopted the manager plan.

This letter is not intended as criticism of this or any former city commission or mayor, but is written with a desire to see Cisco get the benefit of the experience of many cities which have undoubtedly profited by the plan proposed.

We realize this letter does not explain the plan in full, but this can be done later. Our object is to get the matter into discussion and let our citizens be thinking of it.

We, the undersigned, would gladly support such a plan. (Signed) J. L. Thornton, Homer Ferguson, A. L. Osborn, G. M. Stephenson, Jack Anderson, E. G. Lawson, P. R. Warwick, Nick Miller, J. D. Porter Admits Inflation is Making Headway Rapidly

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5. (UPI)—Price Administrator Paul Porter said today that "valuable ground has been lost" in the past three months in the fight against inflation. The danger of losing the battle has never been greater than now, he said.

He said, however, that he believes that price rises under the wage-price policy adopted last February have been virtually completed and that labor leaders have learned that precipitous wages do not necessarily result in increased standards of living.

At the half way period the large lights were turned off and the band, with small lights on caps, marched and played in an unusually impressive manner, bringing roars of applause from the audience, as well as from the Yellowjackets and the Stephenville fans, who were here in generous number.

Praise for Cisco's jaunty Lobo band and its capable director, Fred Baumgardner, was voiced by practically all those present at the game.

26 Citizens Think City Manager Plan Would Help Cisco

Editor Daily Press
Cisco, Texas.

Dear Sir: A number of our citizens have read of the advantages of the Council-Manager form of government, and are persuaded that such a plan could be used in Cisco.

Under the plan, which by the way was recently voted upon and adopted by the city of Abilene, the voters elect the city council, which functions in determining policies and which hires a trained manager; who administers the policies and plans of the city council.

It is said that four of every five cities which have drawn up new charters in recent years have adopted the manager plan.

This letter is not intended as criticism of this or any former city commission or mayor, but is written with a desire to see Cisco get the benefit of the experience of many cities which have undoubtedly profited by the plan proposed.

RETURN TO REALITY.

SNAIL-LIKE, I bore a shell of dreams,
With walls of air and floor of cloud,
It shimmered in the early light
Complete, and proud.
I dragged it through the foxhole's slime
To shelter me; it served me well—
Its airy walls impervious
To battle's hell.
Regretfully, I lay aside
To crumble in a lonely spot
My shell of dreams — for I have grown,
And it has not.

CHAPELS FOR SALE
CAMP BARKELEY.

The Corps of Engineers, Office of the Division Engineer, Southwestern Division, Dallas, Texas, gives notice that eleven chapels at Camp Barkeley, Abilene, Texas are available for disposal. The buildings are numbered T-9062, T-10066, T-11287, T-12278, T-13254, T-14267, T-17027, T-18043, T-19099, T-20107, T-21021, and are Mobile Type CH-1, size 37' x 81' plus 14' x 19' boiler room. The buildings are of wood frame construction with concrete foundation, 1' x 6' sheathing and siding. Celotex wall board finish, 2 x 6 center match roof deck, and composition shingles.

In connection with the sale of these chapels, the Division Engineer makes the following statements:

(1) First consideration shall be given to their sale for use as shrines or memorials, and second consideration to their sale for use as denominational houses of worship, and the use after disposal shall be restricted to such purposes.

(2) Sale price of the chapels will be a price equal to fair market value in the light of conditions imposed relating to future use and the estimated cost of removal. Pews, plumbing and heating systems, and electrical equipment are included in the sale. The Hammond organs have been removed from the buildings and are not for sale.

(3) Application should include the name, address, denomination, if any, and purpose for which the chapel is being obtained. Applications should designate a specific chapel by building number and contain an agreement that the property will be used for the purpose for which it is being obtained.

(4) All applications received will be submitted to the Chief of Chaplains, U. S. Army, Washington, D. C., who, with the advice of representative church groups, will recommend the person or organization to whom disposal shall be made.

(5) Terms and conditions of sale and all necessary information concerning the buildings and preparation of applications will be available on and after 7 October 1946, at the U. S. Engineer, Real Estate Project Office, Camp Barkeley.

(6) All applications should be filed in triplicate during the fifteen (15) day period beginning 7 October 1946 and ending 22 October 1946. Address all applications to: U. S. Engineer, Real Estate Project Office, care Post Engineer, Camp Barkeley, Abilene, Texas.

Deafened People May Now Hear Clearly

Science has now made it possible for the deafened to hear faint sounds. It is a hearing device so small that it fits in the hand and enables thousands to enjoy sermons, music, and friendly companionship. Accepted by the Council on Physical Medicine of the American Medical Association. This device does not require separate battery pack, battery wire, case or garment to bulge or weigh down. The tone is clear and powerful. So made that you can adjust it yourself to suit your hearing as your hearing changes. The makers of Beltone, Dept. 3573, 1450 W. 19th St., Chicago 8, Ill., are so proud of their achievement that they will gladly send free descriptive booklet and explain how you may get a full demonstration of this remarkable hearing device in your own home without risking a penny.
