Lewis Ends Contract With Government; Strike Looms

Cisco Peewees, Ranger Pups at Chesley Tonight

The Cisco Peewees, or future Lobos as they like to be referred to, will engage the Ranger Pups in a football game at Chesley Field at 7:30 tonight. Both teams are expected to put their best efforts into tonight's battle.

Players of both teams are ward school students and a weight limit permits the use only of boys weighing 100 pounds or less.

The Peewees have been working for the past three weeks under Mac Harrelson, who says they have shown excellent improvement and should give a good account of themselves tonight in their first appearance against a visiting team.

Admission will be 30 cents for adults and 15 cents for students. A Cisco grammar school team played Eastland grammar school last night, the latter winning by the score of 16 to 6.

San Angelo Judge Halts March of Electric Pickets

SAN ANGELO, Nov. 15. — San Angelo's first postwar picket line which has been marching for five days was halted today by a temporary injunction.

District Judge John F. Sutton yesterday issued the injunction restraining members of Local 898, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (AFL) from picketing the $150,000 C. A. Duncan apartments project here.

The petition was filed by C. A. Duncan, owner and builder of the apartment, who said five caretakers had left the project because of the pickets but that there had been no violence.

E. E. Murphy, attorney for the union, gave notice of appeal.

HOG PRICES ADVANCE

FT. WORTH, Nov. 15. — Trade in cattle and calves at Fort Worth today was moderately active with prices about in line with Thursday's levels. Low grade offerings made up the bulk of the receipts in all classes. Mature steers were absent. Hogs were in active demand with butchers steady at Thursday's best prices or 50c above that day's close.

TEXAS HEREFORD WON

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 15. — Polly Michief, owned by Jim and Fay Gill, Coleman, was named reserve champion female at the Eastern National Polled Hereford show here Thursday in competition with a large number of Polled Hereford cattle brought here from a wide area.

By United Press. WASHINGTON, Nov. 15. — John L. Lewis today terminated his contract with the government in an action which apparently means that 400,000 soft coal miners will leave their jobs next Thursday.

The United Mine Workers' chief announced termination of the AFL union's contract with the government, effective at midnight Wednesday, shortly after President Truman had appealed to him to keep coal production going.

The President disclosed that Lewis had rejected a government plan for returning the mines, placed under federal control after a 50-day strike last spring, to their private owners. The mine operators had accepted the plan.

The government wanted to get out of the wage negotiations and turn them over to the operators and the union. When Lewis rejected this plan, Mr. Truman appealed to the union to reconsider.

Lewis' answer to that plea was to announce termination of the present union-government contract.

In terminating his contract with the government, Lewis denied the president's declaration that this contract is binding for as long as the mines are federally operated.

Nevertheless, the prospects were that UMW members would stop mining soft coal at midnight, Wednesday. Their long standing rule is -- "no contract, no work."

The union always has contended that refusal to work without a contract does not constitute a strike. It may rely on this contention in the conceivable event that the government takes action against Lewis under the Smith-Connelly Act.

That act makes it a criminal offense to instigate a strike of employes in a government-seized plant or industry.

Abilene Oil Men Air Pilot Strike Building $200,000 Ends in Arbitration Agreement

NOVICE, Nov. 15. — Hunter & Hunter Oil Co., Abilene, is completing a $200,000 repression plant a mile and a half south of Novice, which will soon be in operation.

The plant takes gas from strong wells, pressures it into weaker oil producers to make good flow, it was said. As a result, it is stated, few oil wells in the Novice field have to be pumped.

Most crude goes by pipe line to Baird for the Octane Refinery.

Reds and U. S. A. Serve Notice on Little Nations

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Nov. 15. (AP) — Russia and the United States defended the big power use of the veto today, and Andrei Vishinsky warned the little nations that their attempt to revise the United Nations voting procedure was "doomed to failure."

Vishinsky told the political and security committee that if the veto battle was "a campaign of the little nations against the great nations," the general assembly should close down as fast as possible.

The American position was set forth in a 9-point program by Sen. Tom Connally (D-Tex.), first representative of the big powers to reply to the attack on the veto which was launched in the general assembly's 51-member political and security committee yesterday by six small nations.

Connally warned bluntly that "division between the great powers over intervention or the use of force might result in war instead of peace" but declared that the veto must not be used to "frustrate" the functioning of the council.

He did not mention Russia by name, but in what appeared to be a reference to the frequent use of the veto by the Soviet union he declared that the permanent members of the council "have no right to cast a vote in any narrow or nationalistic or selfish interest."

"Let there be no embellishment of power by the security council or by any member," he said.

Connally declared flatly that "any amendment to the charter is impossible at this time" but expressed the hope that agreement among the five big powers "may make it possible in the future to modify" the use of the veto.

Teachers Invite Internal Revenue Governor Jester Collections Drop To Dallas Meet 5.5 Pct in Texas

DALLAS, Nov. 15. — Governor-elect Beauford H. Jester has been invited to attend the annual meeting of the Texas Teachers Welfare association, Inc., in Dallas Saturday, December 14, to discuss his program for increasing the pay of Texas teachers. The governor-elect is pledged to raise the pay of teachers.

The recently chartered Texas Teachers Welfare association, a militant organization of teachers pledged to work for the general improvement of the teaching profession, is now conducting statewide campaign to inform the public of the grave shortage of teachers in Texas schools and to bring about an increase of pay which they declare is necessary to halt the wholesale exodus of teachers from the school-rooms of the state.

Dr. Joe P. Harris, Dallas county school superintendent, secretary of the association, and other members of the executive committee are arranging the program for the Dallas meeting, at which a legislative program will be discussed.

Amendment of the Rural Aid Law lifting the ceilings which this law imposes on teachers in Rural Aid Schools is first on the program now being sponsored by the Texas Teachers Welfare Association. A minimum of $2,400 a year for beginners, instead of the $1,215 maximum for beginners now allowed under the Rural Aid Law, is proposed by the association.

REFORMING CONGRESS.

When the dying 79th Congress passed the Legislative Reorganization Act last July to "improve" congressional procedure, reform did not automatically come about. The next Congress, newly elected, is going to have a lot of work, and much inter-rank opposition on its hands before any real streamlining of House and Senate will be apparent.

The reorganization plan is backed by strong public support, including the National Planning Association and the small but vocal and intelligent League of Women Voters. Nevertheless the suggested consolidation and elimination of committees is opposed by many able men who fear committee consolidation will lead to concentrated political power.

Some see in a unified military affairs committee too much work for one group to handle, though this probably is an expression of the army-navy merger disagreement. Congressmen are worried, too, over the reform plank that would reduce constituent contacts. While this is a back-breaking job for all congressmen, it is their touch with the voters at home, which of course they don't want to weaken.

The American people will do well to watch what the eightieth Congress does with the reform of itself.

After all, the law has been passed and must be obeyed. Congress has become so unwieldy that its efficiency has been greatly reduced.

Reorganization is necessary, whether legislators want it or not.

RAMPANT HINDUS.

Americans in general have favored independence for India, but Hindu leaders in southern India have opposed it. Thereby hangs a tale which is a sad one for American missionaries. The Hindu leaders in southern India are now prohibiting the teaching of the Christian religion in the schools of that region. The medical and educational work is welcomed by the natives, but it has grown more difficult to find churches which may be used for the spread of the Christian gospel.

Proselyting, or "conversion" as Americans generally call it, is growing more difficult. And to some extent, at least, this attitude seems to create a new and more difficult situation for missionary work. How far it will go, and what changes it will make in the long desired merging of East and West, is difficult to say. But certainly the "poor benighted Hindu," as so many of us used to call him, has taken on a new and more dignified attitude than our western observers have been accustomed to.

He cannot be so easily pushed around any more. And what this may lead to is something that world statesmen are worrying about, along with their troubles nearer home.

THOUGHTS BEFORE SLEEP.

SEARCH well through epic works of centuries. Written by those judged great and you will find.

No record of the midnight agonies.

That coursed the wakeful silence of their mind.

Perhaps it is as well such thoughts are kept.

Wrapped in the darkness of the long ago.

What torments may have come before they slept.

Too filled with trembling grief for us to know?

What rolling thoughts, what deep and sparkling qualms.

Were Dante's on some olive-covered height?

What underlying passion of the Psalms.

Throbbed in King David's mind within the night.

Before he rose to radiance of dawn.

The long night past, his searing anguish gone.

Back-stage Behind the Curtains... In every organized business, large or small, there is a mass of preparation, work, skill, experience and expense before any thought can be given to profits from the finished product. For example, the cost of typing a 100-page abstract is a trifle compared to that of assembling, classifying and posting the records day after day in preparation for your next order. The abstract, therefore, can't be cheap like dirt, but always there is the element of safety and a saving in including it in every real estate transaction. WORN OUT FROM GETTING UP NIGHTS?

• If you get up nights—have frequent desire to pass your water—yes, and have backache, due to excess acidity in the urine, be glad you're reading this! Three generations ago Dr. Kilmer, a famous doctor, found hundreds of his patients with this trouble. So he made a medicine of 16 herbs, roots, vegetable, balsams. He called it "Swamp-Root." Millions of men and women have taken it—often with amazing results. Swamp-Root goes right to work to flush out kidneys... increases flow of urine, helping relieve excess acidity... so the irritated bladder gets a good flushing out, too. Many report getting a good night's sleep after the first few doses. Caution: take as directed. For free trial supply, send to Dept. R, Kilmer & Co., Inc., Box 1233, Stamford, Conn. Or—get full-sized bottle of Swamp-Root today at your drugstore.

Duncan is out of the dog-house!

MRS. DUNCAN has just finished her Fall housecleaning, and Duncan is welcome in his own home again.

Curtains, crisply ironed, hang at the windows. Rugs are bright and clean. Blankets, sweetened by the sun and suds, loll contentedly on the beds. Everything's fresh and shining. Mrs. Duncan is tired, but happy. Mr. Duncan is happier. The dog is happiest of all.

Once housecleaning was the housewife's horror. Now, with modern gadgets powered by electricity, the semi-annual cyclone is finished in half the time, with half the effort.

And not only housecleaning—but all the household chores—are easier, simpler, when electricity lends a willing hand. This versatile servant cooks, cleans, washes and irons, brightens the home, guards health, scoops entertainment from the very air—and all for the cost of a bar of soap daily.

This greatest of household bargains comes to you through the practical experience of your friends and neighbors in this company, under sound business management.
