STRIKES.

Up to a certain point almost any labor strike may be tolerated, because labor, like capital, has a right to put its case before the public for judgment. But in a great nation like ours, with enormous interests at stake and with ever-present possibilities for tragedy and destruction, the time limits of tolerance grow steadily less. It becomes necessary to step up the speed of constructive efforts for settlement, before irreparable damage occurs.

When it comes to a situation as delicate as the recent coal strike, involving not only a powerful labor leader, but a great nation, whose civilized efforts at peace are frustrated by arrogance and pride, it is almost a task for supermen. But surely intelligent Americans can work out a way to give labor its just due without interfering with production or endangering services which are a matter of life and death to thousands of people not party to the dispute.

OLDEN EAGLE.

BOLD as the storied crags you love,
Swift as the stormy winds in flight,
You build your airy nest above
Where sycamore and sky unite.

You nurse your young with tender care;
The downy fledglings wait their turn,
Eager to hunt their daily share
And from the older eagles learn.

The hazard of the waiting sky
A time will come when they will soar
With restless wing and bravely fly
To worlds they never knew before.

Church of Christ.
Eastland County First Sunday singing is at the Cisco Church of Christ this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Everyone is invited. Bible classes begin today at 10 a. m., with the young folk meeting again at 8:30 p. m. Class rooms are well heated so there is no reason to not attend. Preaching services are at 10:50 a. m. and at 7:30 p. m. This is the first Sunday in the year. Let us start it right by attending the worship of the Lord. Mid-week Bible Study is at 7:30 on Wednesday. G. S. WESTBROOK, Minister.

Christ Lutheran.
No services this afternoon. Ladies Aid meets at Mrs. Oscar Reich's home tonight at 8. Next Sunday: Bible class at 3 and service at 8:30 in the afternoon. G. T. NAUMANN, Pastor during vacancy.

Grace Lutheran.
"The Light of the Knowledge of the Glory of God in the Face of Christ Jesus" will be the subject of the Epiphany sermon this morning. Sunday school and Bible classes will meet at 10 and service will begin at 11. Holy Communion will be celebrated in this service. The voting members of the congregation will meet for its first quarter meeting this afternoon at 2:30. The election of officers and the setting of the budget for 1947 will be on the docket. Plans for moving the newly acquired army chapel will be formulated. The Grace Lutheran school will not reopen until Thursday morning, because Pastor Naumann will be attending a pastoral conference at Mart, Texas, the first part of the week. G. T. NAUMANN, Pastor.

First Christian.

A cordial welcome awaits you at this friendly church. Sunday school at 10 a. m. Morning worship and the Lord's supper at 11. The Christian Youth Fellowship will meet in the church basement at 5:30 p. m. Evening service at 7. The official board will hold its January meeting in the church basement Wednesday at 7 p. m. RICHARD W. CREWS, Minister.

First Methodist.

This church offers you a church home. The church school opens at 9:45, with Jerome Grayum, general superintendent, in charge. The worship service begins at 10:50, the pastor speaking on "Action, Not Resolutions, Needed." The choir will bring a special message in song. At the evening hour the pastor will speak on the following subjects: "Four Kinds of Hearers." Start the new year right by attending the church of your choice. The W. S. C. S. meets at the church Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in a business meeting. The choir will meet Wednesday evening at 7 for rehearsal. Monday evening at 7:15 the board of stewards meet in regular business session. Welcome to the First Methodist church. ALLEN A. PEACOCK, Pastor.

FROUD PAPA—William Rothlander, Brooklyn, N.Y., gets his first look at triplet boys born to his wife, Sally. The babies who were born prematurely and doing nicely in humidicribs were born within five minutes. The youngsters weighed, at birth, two lbs., four ozs. each.

At Home on the Range

In less than three minutes, Dot Lind and her husband Ernie, Westera Winchester exhibition shooters, complete this "drawing" of an Indian head. Winding up their first postwar coast-to-coast tour, the Linds cooperated at each exhibition in this outstanding feat of marksmanship. Here Dot feeds Ernie magazines of loaded .22 cartridges. An average of 250 bullets are used in each "drawing."

Don't Be Sorry — Be Safe ...

... is good, sound advice well worth taking especially in those cases where heavy risks are involved. One of these risks is buying real estate without an abstract. Most buyers in these modern days don't take risks — they get an abstract. And if the seller is about to convince you that his title is good and you don't need an abstract, better play safe. The abstract, among other things, reveals the condition of the title and is always worth far more than it costs.

DID YOUR BOY KNOW? THE "FRIEND OF THE TEN MILLION"

Was he among the legion who needed nursing care during the war? Or was it his buddy who was wounded or ill? Maybe it was your neighbor's boy across the street. Remember?

Here is an opportunity for YOU to do YOUR part NOW in a tribute to them, our War Nurses, and help these "Angels of Mercy" by giving to the

NURSES NATIONAL MEMORIAL

This practical Memorial will be built in honor of the Army, Navy and Air Force nurses and medical women who served in World War II. Through all the years our war nurses have had no place for rest or study or recreation which they could call their own. So this carefully planned Memorial will provide a "home" and social center for these women. It will have a lounge, library, assembly rooms, dining and kitchen facilities and sleeping rooms for at least 300 nurses. Upwards of 100,000 women who have or are serving with the armed forces are eligible to use the Memorial. They want and need a nurses center.

With Your Help this project becomes a reality.

Give NOW. Add Your Name to the Nurses National Memorial ROLL OF HONOR, to be kept in the Memorial as a permanent record.

Fill out the coupon and send in your contribution.
