House Votes 2-Term Limit on Presidency; 285 to 121

By United Press

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6. (U.P.)—The house today passed and sent to the senate legislation proposing a constitutional amendment to limit the presidency to two terms. Passage came on a vote of 285 to 121—more than the two-thirds majority which was required.

The resolution now requires passage by a two-thirds majority of the senate to place the issue before the states. It was sponsored by Chairman Earl C. Michener, R., Mich., of the house judiciary committee.

To defeat the constitutional amendment, house opponents would have had to muster 135 "no" votes. They only got 121, failing to beat back the GOP-sponsored amendment by 14 votes.

The house defeated two proposed changes in Michener's bill, which had firm Republican backing.

One of these would have substituted a limitation of a single six-year term in office for president. This was killed by voice vote.

The other would have required ratification by state conventions in three-fourths of the states instead of by their legislatures. It was voted down, 134 to 74.

Passage followed several hours of debate in which Democrats charged that the proposed amendment would shackle the future will of the American people.

Republican members insisted it would provide for better government and insure against the perpetuation in office of any one man.

C. OF C. HITS UNIONS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6. (U.P.)—The U. S. chamber of commerce today recommended to congress a sweeping 16-point labor legislation program calling for bans on compulsory union membership, industry-wide bargaining, secondary boycotts and jurisdictional and sympathy strikes.

ARNOLD APPROVED.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6. (U.P.)—The senate finance committee today approved the nomination of Herbert Arnold, Dallas, to be internal revenue collector for the northern district of Texas. Sen. W. Lee O'Daniel, D., Tex., has objected to Arnold on "personal" grounds, but has not given the committee any reasons.

CIO UNION WARNS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6. (U.P.)—Sen. Ralph E. Flanders, R., Vt., warned his colleagues today that an immediate 15 per cent rent boost might touch off industrial troubles. The New England senator testified before a banking committee which is drafting rent control legislation. The subcommittee earlier heard a warning from the textile workers union—CIO—that a general rent increase might cause "serious industrial strife."

GOING HOME—Harold Bernhardt, right, 18, who was run down and lost a leg just after leaving a Marine recruiting station in New York City last September, leaves the hospital on crutches. Accompanying him is Marine Capt. Coburn Marston who accepted Harold's application for enlistment in the Corps.

Chas. J. Kleiner Gives Views City Managership Plan

Editor Cisco Daily Press: I thought at one time that I would say nothing and keep my peace pertaining to the city managership plan proposed for the city of Cisco, but I notice that no one seems to be saying anything except those in favor of this so-called magic setup.

I, personally, cannot see where it will make any material change in the workings of the city, political or otherwise, for the managership will be under the influence of the mayor and the commissioners of the city.

No commissioner or the mayor can dedicate his powers and responsibilities to the so-called said city manager, as they will be held responsible for the results just the same as the set-up of the city commission that we now have, and it will be no better than the integrity and ability and the financial resources at their command, so far as I see it, for the carrying on of the city.

I believe that a lot of the people do not realize that functionings of a political body are quite different from that of an established individual or corporation who are doing business as individuals and as corporations.

To my knowledge, the city had approximately six years of good business administration, the result of which did a great deal for the city of Cisco and in time of distress.

To my knowledge the city of Cisco has an exceptionally good and capable secretary who is capable, in my opinion, of carrying on all of the functions that a so-called business manager could carry on, and with the backing up of the mayor and city commissioners, can do just as good a job as any change in the administration by changing over to the city manager plan.

I would like to further say, from my six years of experience in the city commission that I would not trade the good judgment of five commissioners and the mayor in the purchasing of the supplies for the city of Cisco, especially, if it was carried on as it were while I were in there, for the judgment of one individual; that I would not wish to change the passing of the current liabilities of the city from the supervision of the commissioners and the mayor, to any one individual.

If the mayor and the commissioners are functioning properly under the system that we now have, they are alert at all things and are well informed pertaining to the purchasing and payments of the current and past liabilities of the city as a whole.

I am going to prophecy that if the city manager plan is voted and put in operation that in a few years the people will realize that the things that I have said in this article are true and correct.

CHARLES J. KLEINER.

COLD HITS BRITAIN. LONDON, Feb. 6.—Intense cold continued to grip Europe today, closing more factories in fuel-short Britain, France and Germany and halting food shipments on snow-blocked highways. More than 100,000 Britons were reported temporarily jobless as industries shut down because of an acute coal shortage, and the ministry of fuel warned of an imminent reduction in gas service.

GOP CHEERS OPA.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—House Republicans cheered the OPA today for the projected 10-pound increase in domestic sugar rations, but demanded that it be raised to 15. Housewives can collect the first installment of the almost-certain bonus on April 1, when a new sugar stamp will be validated a month ahead of time. Its number has not been announced.

German-Born Gerhard Eisler Off On Wrong Foot

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6. (U.P.)—German-born Gerhard Eisler was cited for contempt of congress today for refusing to testify before a house investigating committee and was threatened with prosecution on four other charges, including a Communist conspiracy to overthrow the government.

Protesting shrilly that he is not the "boss of all the Reds" in the United States and wants only to go back to his native Germany, the bald excitable little witness was hustled away by federal agents after his brief but explosive appearance before the house committee on un-American activities.

He was scheduled to be returned to Ellis Island, N. Y., to await the outcome of the contempt citation, which may land him in jail for a year, and of the far more serious revolution charge.

Anton White of Boss Plant Entertained Rotary

President Bill Hogue announced that Ernest Hittson had the Rotary program today and Mr. Hittson presented Anton White, manager of the Boss glove factory as the speaker. E. P. Crawford presented Rev. Otis Strickland his Rotary pin of membership and inducted him into the club.

President Hogue asked about development of the Lobo banquet and was informed that details would be announced later. B. A. Butler announced that Cisco Junior College basketball team at Eastland Saturday night, 7:30.

Mr. White introduced Mrs. Frances Monk and Daisy Poyner as two of his key workers at the factory. He then had these ladies pass a pair of Boss gloves to each person present with the compliments of his factory, following which he gave a brief history of the founding of the company.

He said that about 60 years ago H. H. Perkins invented a steel corn husker which gradually developed into the present glove. In 1889 the company was organized. As an incident in the history of the company, Mr. White stated that a boy who began work in the factory finally became president and retired as chairman of the board only in the past few years. This and the further fact that many workers had been with the company for 40 years or more showed the company was evidently a good concern to work for. He then told of how women of the town aided in the evolution to making gloves through the fact that they bought cotton flannel and made mittens for corn huskers.

Mr. White then went into more or less details of glove manufacture, which is too intricate to explain in this short article. He said there were 17 factories in the United States, with only two in Texas and the southwest. They are at Breckenridge and Cisco. They came to Cisco in 1944, and are now turning out at the Cisco plant alone about 1,000 dozen pairs per day.

The manager went into the details of making gloves, which is too involved for the present story. He showed a machine which cuts 25 dozen at one cut, and gave interesting figures on how much walking a man did in cutting these gloves. He said they sold to wholesalers only, but that the local plant had nothing to do with either buying or selling.

DIPS AND PEAKS.

Practical economists view the business outlook in terms of peaks and valleys. They have come to accept the ups and downs of the charts as interpretation of the myriad factors indicative of trends that may take place in our changing, dynamic economy. But the query is put: How can we avoid depressions? Must we take these periodic back-sets for granted? Is there not danger for America in depressions?

These questions are sometimes honestly asked by critics of what they call "boon and bust" capitalism. We might wish to avoid the effects of every kind of business recession, but to say that we desire to give up freedom of individual opportunity for a regimentation so thorough that we can avoid depressions would be to swap temporary set-back for permanent disaster.

Level Road?

America's economy is a changing economy. It is dynamic. And its direction, always, has been upward toward the mountain peaks of a higher and higher standard of living for all her citizens. It is just possible that we could stay in the valley, finding a level road that would be smooth and easy. Some folks mistakenly call this "security." But if we would have the mountain peaks of higher and higher standards of living, then we must be prepared for the brief plateaus, or even the dips, of readjustment for the climb ahead.

This need be no bitter revelation. The price of no depression would mean accepting a static economy. We can have "no depression" along with "no depression."

A static America, however, would not be a progressive, inventive, virile America. There are freedoms which thrive in the dynamic economy, and not the least of them is freedom of opportunity.

Prices Too High.

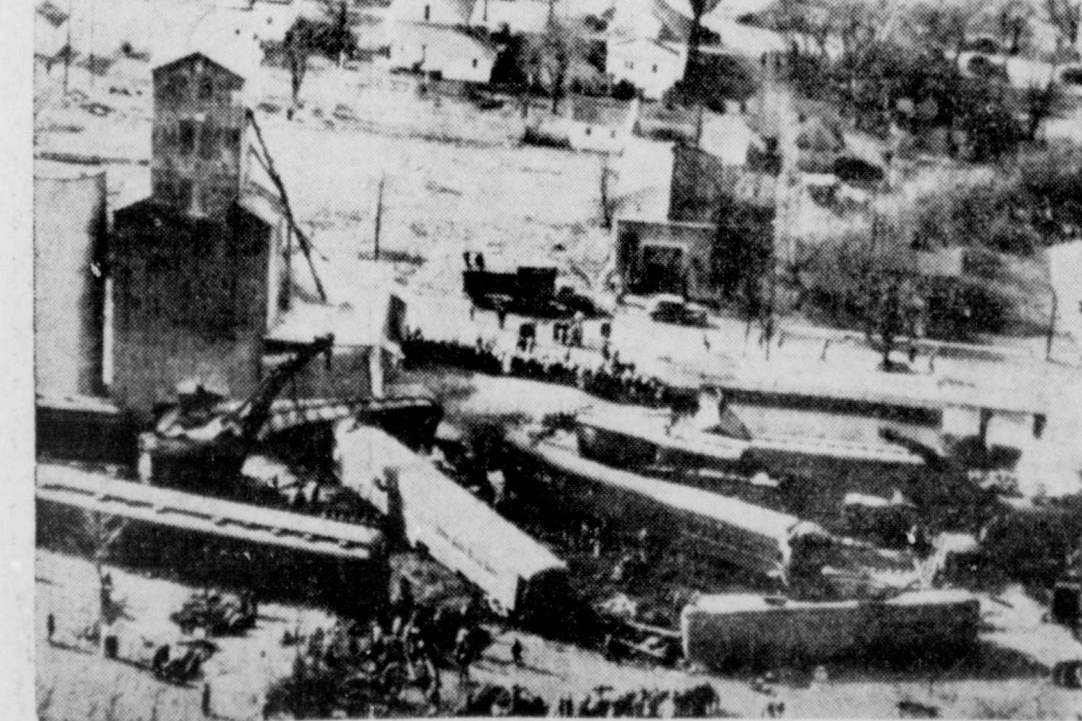

In the continuous depression of the Orient life moves along all ways the same, measured in centuries. Living improves slowly there, if at all. In Soviet Russia every citizen is guaranteed a full-time job, but at wages that are approximately one-fifth of our own wages. State socialism desires to become your protector. You may have full and continuous protection — if you care to turn over to the state the job of deciding how many jobs there will be, what will be produced, who'll take the jobs, and at what wages. But we know the price of this protectorate is too high.

Almost within our own generation the working man has had his hours cut nearly one-third. Real wages of the "undiscovered" common-man have tripled in many industries. Secondary school enrollments have increased ten times, and college education is available to everyone. The physical comforts and the luxury goods consumed by America's common-man is the envy of the whole world. All this has taken place, despite depressions.

Upward Still.

This is not to say that America should accept serious business recessions without making any effort to cushion their effect. A wealth of experience from the uncertain Thirties should enable Congress to meet future emergencies with more success. We shall be able to avoid the mistake of blaming overproduction, for we now know that to admit overproduction is to admit that we can offer a higher standard of living than our people can accept. We shall know too, how to use public works to better advantage in cushioning future recessions.

America can keep going ahead

CLEARING THE TRACKS—Wrecked cars of a Pennsylvania Railroad passenger train lie across the tracks at Walton, Ind., as wreckers work to clear the right of way of debris. Four persons died in the wreck when the speeding train hit a bale of fencing wire lying across the tracks.

CHILDREN ESCAPED UNINJURED—School children who escaped injury when this 40-passenger bus overturned near Rotterdam, N.Y., on a snow covered road, cluster around the wrecked vehicle. One woman passenger was hurt at the same time that the 30 children escaped.

COLLEGE COMMENTARY.

By ROBI ROBINSON and SPIES.

Seems that we failed to mention the name of Ruth Guthrie when we reported our new students. She's an ex-G. I. too—was in the WAVES. Sorry we missed you, Ruth!

Who stood up whom? One of my spies posed this question when reporting a feud between Billy Parks and Owen King. Tell me, don't ask me!

Here's news about a new club getting under way. Quite a number of kids showed up at 10:25 Wednesday to discuss starting a Choral club at college. Mr. Webb introduced F. D. Baumgardner, who is director of the band and the choral club at high school. Mr. Baumgardner then organized us to the extent of electing officers as follows: Hope Starr, president; Bobbie Tullos, vice-president; Jim Tom Warden, secretary-treasurer; Robi Robinson, librarian—dog catcher.

Though Mr. Baumgardner couldn't get anyone to commit themselves on the type of music they preferred the songs to be studied will probably vary, including folk songs, hymns and light operatic selections. This will be an excellent opportunity for those who like to sing to develop their talent; or if you're like me, to try and create one. By the way, we could use about ten more girls in the club.

At the meeting of the Veterans club (11:45 Wednesday) our president, Dick Wynn, told us not to throw our cigarettes on the floor. After this subject (and the floor) had been covered, a discussion was brought up about having a Valentine Day dance. Everyone liked the idea and told Lee Guthrie, Brindley Thomas and Sherrill Smith that they are a committee of three to see to all of the details. Good luck, guys! I'll tell you more about those details when the committee comes out of its huddle.

R. N. Cluck, president of the college, also spoke, offering college vets part-time jobs helping in the operation of moving some buildings here.

Incidentally, through great mental and physical strain, I have obtained the names of the officers of the Veteran's club. Besides Dick Wynn, the president, we have Jimmy Cooper, vice-president and Billy Beth Bacon, secretary-treasurer.

Here's a note to the businessmen of town: There is still some advertising space left in the 1947 annual. So, if you are in business and could use a little extra publicity, here's your chance. As most of the affairs of the annual are being brought to a close the early part of next week, it would be well to get your ad in as soon as possible.

In closing, I want to remind you again of the basketball game Saturday at Eastland high school gym. We're expecting you!

NOT LIKE MOTHER'S, BUT NOURISHING—These six English bull pups were brought into the world via Caesarean operations, and their mother, Sally, was unable to feed them. Mrs. Ruth Stanton Cogill, Atlanta Constitution Dog Editor, turned down all offers of foster mothers for the pups and rigged this method of feeding them with a special formula. The pups are thriving and will probably continue to eat like this until they are old enough to handle canned dog food.

Backache, Leg Pains May Be Danger Sign Of Tired Kidneys

If backache and leg pains are making you miserable, don't just complain and do nothing about them. Nature may be warning you that your kidneys need attention. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day. If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Make This Home Recipe To Take Off Ugly Fat

It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy - no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barcinate (formerly called Barcol Concentrate). Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back. Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly blight disappears - how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active.
