

Congressman Connally Spoke Here Tuesday

Candidate for United States Senate Had Good Audience at Isis Theatre Tuesday Morning

The Honorable Tom Connally, present congressman from the Waco district, and one of the six candidates for United States senator from Texas, to succeed Senator Mayfield, who is standing for re-election, spoke at the Isis Theatre in Lockney beginning about 10:45 Tuesday morning. A fairly good audience was present, and really a big crowd for the time of day the speaking took place.

Judge J. N. Stalbird made the introductory speech, stating that he had thoroughly investigated Mr. Connally's record, and had found him to be "the equal of any man in Congress." He stated also that Congressman Connally was one of the best and most useful members of Congress ever received from the State of Texas.

Mr. Connally began his talk by stating that he recognized many of the audience as old friends and acquaintances from his district, that he had known in his early boyhood, and in other sections of the state, and paid tribute to the wonderful advancement and progress that was manifest in the Western part of the state. He spoke of the securing of the new railroads in this section of the state, and said that he heartily endorsed the progressive movements that were going forward, illustrating the progress with a story, which ended with the thought that he did not believe the development would ever stop in this section of the country.

He stated that he had been a member of congress for the past twelve years, and that he had made political speeches on all the paramount issues that had been before the people since he had been a congressman, and that he was a Democrat in every sense of the word.

Favored Law Enforcement
He touched on the enforcement of the 18th Amendment, stating that it was a part of the Constitution of the United States, and that he stood for the honest, efficient and rigid enforcement of this amendment. That he had always been a prohibitionist, from the days of local option to the present time.

He stated that he was a Democrat and would vote with the party on all questions and for all candidates nominated by the party.

Opposes High Tariff
He was emphatically against high tariffs, and the platforms of the Republican party, but as the Republican Party had secured legislation for the protection of the manufacturer, he favored an export tariff to protect the cotton and wheat farmers, so that outside competition from other countries could not come to America and compete with them on their own products. He stated that he was favorable to the export tariff that would close the ports of this nation against the importing of cotton and wheat, for the protection of the farmers and ranchman of our country, and would fight for such a tariff, if elected. He stated that the farmers must pay a high tariff tax on all manufactured goods, yet when he ships cotton and grain he receives no protection. He has a bill which he expects to introduce for the creation of an export corporation by the government, for the purpose of taking care of the cotton and wheat farmers, stating that it will save the growers 3c per pound on cotton, and 21c per bushel on wheat, and that the products will reach the manufacturers when needed and as the demand for these staples makes it necessary. He also has another bill which he proposes to introduce that will regulate the Cotton Exchanges.

Mr. Connally stated that he was opposed to high freight rates, and he opposed to all legislation that would give the Interstate Commerce Commission more power in the making of freight rate and the control of railroad building.

He expects to deal fair with all sections of the state, if elected, and will show partiality to no certain section, representing the entire state in a fair and impartial manner at all times.

Opposes Immigration from Europe
He went on record as opposing immigration from the European countries, and favored a rigid immigration bill that would limit foreign immigration to a minimum, and would drive Bolshevism from the country, or keep such immigration from entering this country. He said he was a member of the Committee in the House on Foreign Affairs, and opposed the Republican Administration in the stand pursued by President Coolidge in the Nicaraguan Revolution, being opposed to the sending of troops to that country to help one faction in that country against another faction.

Discussed Mayfield's Record
At this juncture of his talk he attacked the record of Senator Earle B. Mayfield, stating that Mayfield had no claim for a second term on a sound basis, reciting cases where he claimed that Mayfield had voted with the Republicans on certain questions. He designated several bills fostered by Mayfield, and for which he said Mayfield claimed the authorship, and discounted all claims that Senator Mayfield made in the premises. At this time he discussed Mayfield's K. K. K. record, stating that he claimed to be a Ku Klux part of the time and denied it part of the time making many false statements in regard to same.

He closed his speech by stating that the outstanding issue of the campaign was corruption in office, brought about by the Republican reign in the National Capitol, such as the Tea Pot Dome, Veterans Bureau and Election scandals, and pledged himself if elected, to fight the Republican party and all corruption in the senate, as he has done in the house in the past, submitting his candidacy to the voters of Texas for an honest and active representation, if they see fit to make him their choice in the coming election.

Congressman Connally went from Lockney to Floydada, to speak at 2 p. m., after which he went to Lubbock to speak Tuesday night, and from there followed an itinerary that carried him back down into the state.

Church of Christ Meeting Closed Sunday

Fifty-One Names Added to Church Roll in 15 Days Meeting Held in Lockney

Elder Cleddie Wallace closed a fifteen days meeting at the College auditorium in this city, Sunday night, for the Church of Christ.

Large crowds were in attendance at each service, services being held each morning and night during the week days, and three services each Sunday. There were fifty-one additions to the church, forty coming into the church through baptism, and eleven by transfers of membership.

Strong sermons were preached each day and night by Mr. Wallace on the New Testament, and he was ably assisted in the revival work by Mr. R. M. Morgan of Floydada, who had charge of the singing. This is said to be one of the greatest meetings ever held by this church body in Lockney. The church at this time is under the pastorate of Elder Earley Arceneaux.

Work on the new church building for this denomination is well under way, and will be ready for occupancy in about sixty or ninety days. The new church is being built of brick and concrete materials, and will be one of the best church structures in this section of the country when completed.

Elder Wallace left Monday for Clovis, N. M., where he will begin a meeting this week. He will return to the county on May 20th, and begin a meeting at Floydada for the Church of Christ of this city.

PLAINS RAILWAY BATTLE IS SET FOR MAY 21

Santa Fe's Application for Parnerton-Hale Center Line Come up, to Be Heard in Lubbock

The South Plains will be the scene of another battle between two great railroad systems on Monday, May 21, when the Interstate Commerce commission will have a hearing on the application of the Santa Fe to build a new line from Hale Center to Parnerton.

The hearing will be held at Lubbock and the outlook is that it will rival in attendance and interest the famous hearing at Plainview two years ago when the Fort Worth & Denver, Santa Fe, and Texas Panhandle & Gulf battled for permission to build new lines on the South Plains.

The new road would be sixty-six miles long. It would leave the Lubbock-Amarillo main line at Hale Center, extend northwest through Olton, to Parnerton, on the main line between Amarillo and Clovis. It will traverse a section of the country ideally adapted to agricultural purposes and which is now sparsely settled.

The Fort Worth & Denver has filed a protest to the application and will contend that the line it is now building from Plainview to Dimmitt will adequately serve the territory.

The Santa Fe will contend that the construction of the new line will open a rich section of territory and that it is needed in order that the South Plains may be served properly.

A number of officials of the Santa Fe are expected to participate in the hearing which it is thought will last several days.

DON'T BE IGNORANT

Many of the people of Texas, and especially West Texas, are quite ignorant on just what the selection of such men as Gov. Al Smith, of New York, Senator Walsh, Jim Reed, or Senator Ritchie, as presidential candidates on the Democratic ticket will mean. If Al Smith or Senator Walsh should be chosen, and the people of the United States should elect them to office, then you have placed our country, our government and our religious freedom in the hands of the Catholics, and can expect nothing more or less than a civil war in this country within the next four years. Free thinking, free born American protestants will not allow Catholicism to rule this country, and if through ignorance of the voters these dictators are placed in power the protestant believing people of this country will be forced to take up arms for protection and rid the country of the minority which will have charge of the land. The strong support of the Catholics will be thrown to Smith in the beginning, because linked with the whiskey delegation of the country, he has a better chance to win the nomination, likewise the president's seat, therefore, his chances of delivering the people into the hands of the Catholics and the Pope at Rome is much stronger than any other aspirant for the office. Senator Walsh is their second choice, as he is a Catholic, however being dry, he would not command the liquor vote, and would stand very little chance of winning in the general election.

Senator Reed and Senator Ritchie are "wets" and could be depended upon to refuse to enforce the law in regard to the liquor traffic, and do not believe in our constitution as it is now written, for they have fought the enforcement of the eighteenth amendment ever since it has been on the statute books, and have failed and refused to stand by the constitution, which as senators they were sworn to do.

The people of Texas, and especially West Texas do not, as a whole, realize the menace that confronts them in this election. People who are not associated with Catholics, who have very few, if any, Catholics in their vicinity, know nothing of the meaning of Catholicism, of the penance, degradation, and slavery that goes to make up the Catholic faith. The Catholics are very shrewd, and all that the people of this country knows of Catholicism is the better side. Take your history of ancient actions of the Catholic church and you will find where they have been in power they have forced the people to submit to their belief. They oppose free speech, free schools, free press, freedom in every since of the word, even forcing in their marriage vows the parents to agree that all children should be taught Catholicism that were born to that union. Look to the country where Catholicism has ruled, there you will find ignorance galore, there you will find the machinery of government subject to the dictations of the Catholic church, there you will find penance, slavery. So far as we know the Catholic church is the only organization in the world that uses spirituous liquors for their sacrament, they are the reason that the paragraph in the Eighteenth Amendment allowing whiskey for sacramental purposes was allowed to stand. They are naturally in league with the liquor interests for they use the liquor, they prey off of the liquor interests, they believe in drunkenness, and receiving pay for praying away the sins of the drunkard. The priest has unlimited authority, and uses it to the advancement of himself and church, and to allow a man of such faith as Al Smith to be a ruler over our nation would mean ruination forever, internal strife, religious wars, which are the worst wars ever engaged in, civil war in our own country, and the complete downfall of our protestant structure and the deterioration of America for all times to come.

We beg of the intelligent people of our section of the state to think well, do their duty, go to the precinct conventions on May 5th and send an instructed delegation to the County Convention, which meets in Floydada at 2 p. m. May 8th, opposing Smith, Wash, Reed and Ritchie or any other man that stands for Catholicism and liquor, and see to it that Floyd county sends a delegation to the District that is also instructed against these men. You can now win a battle without the use of powder and lead, if you fail now, you will probably later on have to use powder and lead to save your-

TEXAS MAN BECOMING MORE IMPORTANT

Jesse Jones, the man who landed the Democratic National Convention for Houston, is getting more into the limelight as a possible choice of the Democratic Party as the presidential candidate as the days pass by. Mr. Jones is nationally known, and has a good following among the bosses of the party, and he may cut some figure when the convention assembles at Houston on June 26th.

MAYFIELD IS FRIEND TO WEST TEXAS

Senator Earle B. Mayfield has proven himself in the five years that he has been a member of the United States Senate, to be a genuine friend to the people of West Texas. In every instance where West Texas has had an interest in the actions of United States Senate, at Washington, Mayfield has stood four-square for this section of the state, and it is to the vital interest of West Texas that Mayfield be returned to the senate for another term. Never before in the history of the country has West Texas had a man in the senate that championed their cause as Mayfield has done in the years that he has served in the senate. He is a member of the two committees of the senate at this time, that are of most vital interest to West Texas, they are "The Transportation Committee" and "The Agricultural Committee," and his efforts in our behalf have been untiring at all times with these two committees. He has not had the opportunity to give us real service in the senate as yet, for this is the first term he is serving in Washington, and all sensible people know, no man can be sent to Washington as a senator, and get himself in position in one term to serve his people as well as a man that has been there long enough to become familiar with all the ins and outs of the law making body, and very few men that we send to Washington ever get to a point where they have a great deal of real worth to the sections of the states where they are working for. Mayfield has made a good record, has helped us in many ways unasked for, has fought without fear or favor for the building of railroads in West Texas, helping us to get permits for the building of our railroads; has done everything in his power for the advancement of our agricultural possibilities, and has just reached the stage where he can be of real service to us in the six years, which will constitute his second term, if he is returned to Washington as a senator from Texas. Mayfield was elected the first time under adverse conditions, and his political enemies have harassed him in every way, yet he has been big enough, to go on and work for his state, without preference to any certain section, fighting for things that he believed to be best and most needed in his state. The voters of Texas, we believe, will make a serious mistake if they fail to return Mayfield to the senate for another term.

SHOULD HAVE A 5c GASOLINE TAX

No man should object to taxation, provided that taxation was fair and just. Taxation in most ways is unjust. The man who has property is ridden by taxation, and he has very little come-back, unless he swears a lie when he renders his property for taxation. Laws that force men to swear lies in their rendition, in order to pay their taxes when they are due are unjust, and should be wiped off the statute books of our state, and these laws are many in Texas today. The right and just way to raise taxes is to make each man and woman in the state pay their part, according to the property they own and use. Therefore, there is only one way to arrive at a just and fair tax on automobiles and the use of automobiles, and that is a gasoline tax that will take care of all upkeep of both state and county highway departments, to be used for the opening, building and maintaining of all roads. A 5c gasoline tax, we believe, would be sufficient to take care of the needs of Texas, to be divided 3c for state highways and 2c for county roads, and every road tax or automobile tax should be abolished, with the exception of a charge of $1 per year for registration fees on cars and trucks, in order to force the registration of all motor vehicles, or in other words a charge of $1 per year for the numbers that should be on each motor vehicle.

Such a bill should be introduced in our legislature, and the people of the state should vigorously insist that the measure become a law. This would mean that Mr. Tourist living in Kansas, Arkansas, or any other state in the Union, that traveled Texas roads would help to pay for the roads of our state, which is just and fair. Every person in the whole country should be willing to pay his just part on the roads that he uses, and if he is not willing to do so, should be forced to do so. Taxation that forces people in a certain locality to go to a big expense to secure roads for themselves, when it allows free use to others that contribute nothing to the building and maintaining of such roads, is unfair and unjust. With such a law, and such a tax, every person would pay in accordance to the amount they used the roads, no more nor less.

Floyd county went wheat wild last fall and practically every acre available in the county was sown to wheat, and a great many tenants were forced to leave the county, in order to find land they could rent to plant to cotton and feed crops. But it doesn't look so promising to the wheat farmer at this time. While there are many good wheat crops in the county, that have stood up well under the dry spell, and will probably make some wheat, there are many fields that have reached the stage beyond redemption, and some fields have already felt the tickle of the plow as "what might have been" is turned under to make room for row crops that are to be planted. Of course, we all feel bad when the crop fails to mature, for we want every man to prosper and raise all that can be raised from the efforts and seed that he spends, but you know Floyd county had too many acres of wheat, for its own good this year, and the Lord's probably looked at it that way. If all the wheat planted had made a mature crop, there would have been a small feed crop in the county, and the cotton crop would have been exceedingly short, but since the elements have refused to allow it that way, possibly we will still have a normal cotton acreage in the county, and maybe the gin men of the county can save the interest on their machinery this fall. We are strong believers in making a living at home, and planting your surplus ground in wheat and cotton. We believe that a two crop country is far ahead of a one crop country, and as here on the Plains we have a two crop country, we don't hesitate to say we are in favor of a smaller acreage of wheat, a normal acreage of cotton, and plenty of feed, cows, sows and hens and having smaller farms, with an irrigation well on each farm in the part of the county where shallow water is available. More farmers are making a good living in Floyd county now from their cows, chickens and hogs, than ever before, and these families can tide over the dry spell better than those who have sunk their money on a lost wheat crop. Diversified farming proves its value when the rains are few and far apart, irrigation of large wheat acreage is not profitable, but irrigation of small tracts of alfalfa, cotton, vegetables, etc., will pay well. What we need in Floyd county is smaller acreage, more people who know how to farm, better diversification and more wells putting the water on the land when it needs moisture.

SO DO WE

We wonder if the merchant who thinks he is advertising when he litters the streets with circulars ever attempted to count the number of people passing his door with bundles of newspapers under their arms and the number with bundles of circulars under their arms. One dollar spent for advertising space in The Lockney Beacon will reach as many people as five dollars spent for circulars—and an advertisement in The Lockney Beacon goes directly into the homes.

WITH OUR EXCHANGES

It may be the best way to work for a better nation is through the old line political parties, but this much is certain: The morals of America are of more concern than the life and success of any party.—Clarendon News.

We think if the Texas Democrats are going to allow Al Smith to be nominated for president they should put Jim Ferguson on the ticket for vice. Might as well have a match team.—Lubbock Avalanche.

A Dallas man pokes fun at West Texas for always talking about rain. He believes that Panhandle folks get along about the same year after year regardless as to rain or no rain. As a matter of fact there is a good deal of truth in what he says. Ever since this became a farming country every year there is the terrible suspense of "when will it rain." Some how or other it has always rained just about fifteen minutes before it was too late.—Canyon News.

It is reported that the reason that a certain young husband in Lubbock will not buy his wife as nice things as her parents did, is because he said that the parents were dressing her up so that she could catch some guy, and he is trying to keep her from catching some one. We doubt if she is looking for another, if that is the way she is being treated.—Lubbock Avalanche.

Yep, it's true that people who have lived here on the plains all their lives know little of hilly country where they have lots of rivers and creeks. A story it told round the square of a teacher in a local school who was trying to convey the idea of devotion to a bunch of "Nativ Plains Youngsters." "Now suppose" she said, a man working on the river bank suddenly fell in. He could not swim and would be in danger of losing his life. Picture the scene—the man's sudden fall, the cry for help. His wife knows his peril and hearing his screams rushes immediately to the bank. Why does she rush to the bank? "One little clod-hopper who had never seen a river in all his life answered: "Why to draw his insurance money, of course."—Floydada Hesperian.

Wheeler county voted a million dollar road bond last Saturday and with a few votes to spare. Some months ago Wheeler citizens voted a million dollar road bond issue, but some irregularity in the election caused the proponents to decide to call a new election and vote again rather than wade through long drawn out legal difficulties. Their wisdom is established and the roads will be theirs sooner by their choice of another election. Paved roads are coming as certainly as the judgment day—and like the judgment day, sooner for some than others.—Clarendon News.

Our nation was founded on the motto, "United we stand, divided we fall," and every community in the land today exists on that principle. Together we can accomplish anything, divided, with each person suspicious and working against the other, we get nowhere. We should emulate the "Three Musketeers," "One for all, and all for one." You can't beat that kind of a partnership. Co-operation makes successful and happy communities. When each man helps his neighbor, the difficulties which attend the securing of public improvements fade away like mist before the sun. So when we are asked to put our shoulder to the wheel for the public welfare, let's respond with royal good will.—Lorenzo Tribune.

THERE IS ONLY ONE FRIGIDAIRE

THIS IS A PRODUCT OF GENERAL MOTORS

IN the Frigidaire cabinet everything is fully enclosed. There is no unsightly machinery sticking out like a sore thumb. Take a good long look at the Frigidaire Cabinet then close your eyes and your mental picture will be one of grace and harmony. There are no unforgetful irregularities to mar the picture.

For a number of years a certain automobile manufacturer producing a good car tried to make the public appreciate a new design of the hood. But unfortunately the design was such that seeing it once you could never forget how it looked. This always a mark of ugliness. You would not want anything like that in your home.

You will look at your Frigidaire many times every day for many years. You have a right to demand the beauty of a Frigidaire cabinet.

Agent work had done for their homes and community. Mrs. Potter gave this advice to the pupils assembled: a wealth of information, take this "When an expert comes to you with expert's advice and use proper co-operation, and you will profit by his counsel." Mrs. Potter also spoke of a meeting she attended recently at Dallas on International Relations at which time the subject of "Peace" was discussed. She spoke of the Mexican Consul who gave a glowing tribute to Col. Lindberg for the wonderful results obtained by his visit to Mexico City. The Mexican Consul's eighty-year-old mother traveled 200 miles in order to see Lindberg.

Dr. Horn of Tech College, Lubbock, spoke briefly to the student body on the three sources of education, using good books, the experience with people and the education to be gotten from a study of material things. Mrs. Otis Truelove of Amarillo, accompanied by Mrs. L. R. Smith, of Amarillo, delighted the students with several musical numbers.

The noonday luncheon Wednesday was sponsored by the ladies of the Methodist church, who used the basement and equipment of the First Baptist church. Mrs. T. V. Reeves, Canyon, presided and presented "The Applied Education" program.

Mrs. W. I. Whitsel, Canadian, chairman of the Street and Highway Safety Committee, presented a miniature electric train, together with modern electric appliances that are being used on street railway crossings for the safety of human lives. The equipment was furnished through the courtesy of the Finklea Electric Co., of Amarillo.

Mrs. W. H. Meador, Lubbock, chairman of the Thrift Department of Applied Education, presented a short talk wherein she spoke of 52 million dollars of the seventy-two billion dollars received annually in pay checks being spent by the housekeepers of the nation. Mrs. Meador stressed the idea that each mother ought to start planning and saving for the education of her child in their infancy.

Henry Earl Fuqua, twelve year old musical prodigy of Amarillo, and his compositions. Mrs. R. E. Fry and mother, presented two of his musical Miss Tennessee Malone also contributed to the noonday luncheon program. Ruth Martin, Dalhart, delighted the visitors with a dialect reading.

Dr. Horn, president Tech College, Lubbock, delivered the principal address of the afternoon session, entitled "The Relation of Women to Our Educational System." Dr. Horn spoke of the importance of the humidifier, which has made cotton-spinning and cotton cloth weaving possible in Texas, using this as an example; making atmosphere what it ought to be and gave the comparison of the problems that are up to the club women of Texas in making attitudes and conditions what they ought to be in communities where their clubs exist. Dr. Horn dwelt on the inferiority complex and stated that such a condition is impossible where people will study their local condition and plan for the building of community interests that are making the state of Texas what it ought to be. Mr. Horn spoke of the development recently among the people of the scientific attitude, using four conditions that contribute to this attitude, namely: An eager desire to know new truths, seek systematically for new truth, render unbiased opinions and to distinguish between facts and inferences. That only by following the scientific attitude toward present day problems may the good women and the Federated Clubs of Texas develop lines of straight thinking. Dr. Horn did not get to spending much time in Dalhart as a meeting of the Board of Regents in their inspection tour was being held in Lubbock, which necessitated his going back at once.

All visitors were entertained at the Dalhart Country Club at 5 o'clock with a tea, which was the courtesy of the Dalhart Women's Literary Club.

Mrs. J. H. Jernigen, Childress, chairman of the Fine Arts Department, presided over the Fine Arts evening program, which was held in the high school auditorium. A feature of the program was a one act play entitled "On the Other Side of the Moon," directed by Mrs. E. H. Rowley, Amarillo. Mrs. Lester Boykin, accompanied by Miss Fray Stallings, both of Clarendon, rendered violin solos for the entertainment of the Fine Arts audience. Miss Ada Clark and the Dalhart Choral Club contributed songs with a piano solo by Mrs. Albert H. Mahaffey, of Childress.

Mrs. G. J. Nunn, Amarillo, is scheduled to appear on the program Thursday morning in an address on "Historical Spots and Buildings." Mrs. Phoebe K. Warner, Claude, widely known club woman, will appear on the Thursday afternoon program with an address entitled "The Bread Basket."

Snyder won the 1929 convention.—Dalhart Texan.

Lockney P. T. A. is a member of the Federation, and her delegate, Mrs. A. B. Cox, reports Dalhart an excellent hostess. All clubs, Boy Scouts, Girl Reserves, Men's Clubs, High School Clubs, and Women's Clubs, co-operated in making the entertainment of the Seventh District a wonderful success.

JONES BOOM FOR PRESIDENT ON

Austin, April 30.—Realizing the need of a choice for president upon whom Texans can unite, there is a rising tide in favor of the Texas support being thrown to Jesse H. Jones of Houston for the Democratic nomination.

Jed C. Adams, national committeeman from Texas, came out for Jones in a statement last week in which he said that "Jesse Jones has been a prohibitionist all his life. He is a member of one of the great Protestant churches. And it seems to me he is fitted in every way to be the choice of the democracy of this nation for the presidency."

Mrs. J. T. Bludworth of Ft. Worth, national committee woman, also came out in support of the Houston man with a statement in which she said: "As a Texan, knowing the turbulent, divided condition in Texas Democracy with some in each group who want to find a common point of agreement, I believe Mr. Jones to be a man on whom all of those could unite. He is a man for whom all can instruct at Beaumont and thereby follow the advice given by Gov. Moody when he said 'If you instruct, let it be for and not against.'"

Many of the prohibition leaders realize that when they ask the voters not to support the Smith movement the voters are entitled to ask, "What have you to offer?" and it is this realization that is turning them to Mr. Jones as the outstanding democrat of national prominence in the state. vote and practice, a Protestant. A He is a lifelong prohibitionist, by Southerner, familiar with the affairs and troubles of the agricultural sections, and at once is one of the largest real estate operators in New York and familiar with the needs of Eastern industrialists.

Voting for Jones would not of necessity be a gesture, according to men wise in the ways of politics. The point out the likelihood of Smith being unable to muster the two-thirds majority necessary to nomination and then a hopeless deadlock. In that event, they point out, to what democrat could the convention turn for a compromise? He would have to be a dry and acceptable to the Eastern industrialists. In the person of Jesse H. Jones the convention would find the man who could come nearer pleasing all elements than any other.

Always a dry, he is not fanatical; always a Protestant, he is tolerant; a native of the South, he is familiar with the problems of the North; from an agricultural section, he is a financier and industrialist. With all his business experience and intimate knowledge of his own country he has the world outlook of his friend and preceptor, Woodrow Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. June Simpson spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Blanton. Mr. Geo. Blanton is spending the week with his parents. The little shower that fell Thursday helped the wheat some, but not as much as a real shower would. There is very little sickness in the community this week. Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Howell and family, Mrs. W. T. Glass and family, and Dewey Sparks, enjoyed a fishing trip last week.

HARMONY

May 1.—Mrs. O. M. Tinnen, who underwent a major operation in the Lubbock sanitarium recently returned home Friday. Her condition is very much improved. Messrs. L. A. Williams and R. B. M., Thursday by the sudden death of her brother, Chas. Bickham. She was accompanied to Portales by her son and daughter, Clifford and Christine Trowbridge. Mrs. H. M. Miller, who has been in a very critical condition for several weeks, was carried to Lubbock Saturday, where she underwent an operation Sunday.

We hope to have a good crowd go along. Miss Helen, Ruth Reeves of Plainview and her niece, Little Miss Maurine Boswell of Lubbock, spent last Thursday with their aunt, Mrs. W. E. PRAIRIE CHAPEL

April 25.—Our school closed last week. Wednesday night the seniors presented their play, "Lighthouse Nan." The primary and intermediate pupils did not have their program because so many were ill with measles. About twenty pupils had the measles before school closed, and we suppose there are others by now. Prairie Chapel had six Grammar school graduates this year. Those given diplomas Thursday were: Olga Carthel, Reva and Oleta Harrison, Hugh Griffith, E. J. Golden, and Melvin Allen. Diplomas were also given to five pupils who were neither absent or tardy the entire school year. They were Retha and J. R. Bell, Rosa Lee and Melvin Allen, and Pauline Weathers. Prof. and Mrs. Crowley plan to go to visit relatives in the central part of the state as soon as their son recovers from the measles. When they return they will move on a farm in the Providence neighborhood. As Prof. Crowley's health is bad, they will not teach anywhere next year. Prof. Nicholas will be superintendent at Prairie Chapel next year. He was our superintendent year before last, but taught at Lockney this year.

Our new trustees are John Belt, T. H. Boedecker, J. B. Teaff and Clayton Weathers. The three members remaining on the board are Frank Jones, Glen Griffith, and Taylor Golden. Don Griffith and family of New Mexico are here visiting relatives. Mr. Griffith brought peanuts, sweet potatoes, and beans to sell to his old neighbors. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rutherford of Kress spent Wednesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wood. Tuesday evening while on the last few miles of the trip from Fort Worth to visit with relatives here, a sister of Mmes. E. M. Whorton and Belle Byars, was instantly killed when the car in which she and her family were making the trip turned over at a railroad crossing this side of Floydada. The lady's grown daughter also died before they got back to Floydada. We understand the husband and son escaped without serious injury. We deeply sympathize with the family in their great sorrow.

McNeill and Mrs. Molly Parks, the latter's sister, went to Plainview last week-end for a visit with Mrs. Minnie Mangus, who is a daughter of Mrs. Parks. Mr. and Mrs. McNeill returned home Sunday, but Mrs. Parks will remain there for a while. H. L. Handy and family left Friday for Wellington to visit with a brother of Mr. Handley's, who is in bad health.

BRAIN LEAKS

Once men were known by their deeds. Now it's their speed. They seem to be having a lot of dam trouble out in California. State inspectors went out sniping and found 85 crooked filling stations out of 112 they examined. That is going some for a set of Texas filling stations. Judging from that it seems that there are several "Sinclair" dealers.

SEPARATE STATE INSTITUTION URGED FOR CRIMINALLY INSANE

A state institution for the criminally insane as advocated by the jurisprudence committee of the Texas State Bar Association, would be a step forward by the law to keep pace with the march of civilization. This assertion was made Saturday by Sam Sayers, president of the Fort Worth and Tarrant County Bar Association.

association, in endorsing the plan of the State Bar Association.

Sayers pointed out that the criminally insane is a classification apart from that of the mentally deranged who should be committed to our present asylums and from that of criminals who should be sent to the penitentiary. To commit a person who is criminally insane to either of those places is not only archaic but also is unjust and contrary to the purposes of the law itself, Sayers said.

Defect of Present Plan

First of all, Sayers said, before any bill is submitted to the Legislature for an institution of the criminally insane, a plan should be worked out to insure its operation for the best interests of society and the inmates. Both the State Bar Association and the State Medical Association should unite in working out this plan, he declared. Also, Texas should benefit by the experience of those states which already have institutions for the criminally insane.

One defect of the present system enabling an offender to escape punishment was pointed out by Sayers. In this instance, a man is sane when he commits a crime. At the time of his trial he pleads he has become insane since the crime and is so adjudged. The man is sent to the asylum, treated say for a year, then adjudged sane and released.

In Texas, Sayers pointed out, this man gains his liberty, and is never tried again. Under the present system it would be possible only by setting aside the verdict of insanity. Sayers declared the law should provide that the man be sent back for trial on the criminal charge after he is released as sane from the asylum. The law should specifically require this co-operation between the district attorney and the superintendent of the asylum.

Regarded Great Reform

"If stripped of politics, an institution for the criminally insane would be a great reform for Texas," Sayers declared. "It would mean the dawning of a new era, in which the law recognized and availed itself of modern science which has taken amazing strides in the last 50 years."

"Primarily, the law providing for such an institution would mean greater protection for society in the segregation and isolation of the criminally insane. Society would no longer be guilty of punishing in prisons a special type for whom it is not just to impose punishment. Finally, with an able corps of physicians directing such an institution, the procreation of the criminally insane would be reduced, and treatment and cure of such unfortunates would be achieved whenever possible."—Star Telegram.

McDuffee's Wash House Burned

The wash house of D. F. McDuffee, tailor, was found to be on fire late Saturday afternoon, and the quick action of the fire department saved the structure from being destroyed. Considerable damage was done to the house, but very little damage to the machinery on the inside of the house. The building which was in the alley on the west side of Main street, was supposed to have caught from a trash pile which was burning near by.

COOLIDGE STEPS IN TO AVERT STRIKE

Board Created to Investigate Dispute Between Employees and Operators Walk-out Had Been Scheduled

Washington, April 23.—Acting under the provision of the railway labor act, President Coolidge created today a board to investigate and report to him within 30 days regarding the dispute between the Kansas City, Mexico & Orient railroad company and its employees.

The membership of the board was not announced.

The president entered the case upon notification by the board of mediation that it had been unable to bring about a settlement satisfactory to the disputants.

The board declared the controversy threatened "substantially to interrupt interstate commerce in the state of Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas along the line of said Kansas City, Mexico & Orient railroad and its connecting carriers."

The board will consist of "five persons not pecuniary or otherwise interested in any organization of railway employees or any carrier."

Unions Agree to Put Off Their Walk-Out

Wichita, Kans., April 28.—The scheduled strike of four railway brotherhoods on the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient railway has been postponed pending investigations by the special board appointed by President Coolidge, officials of the unions announced tonight.

The dispute of Orient employees with the railway began with a wage agreement made in 1923, when, on the plea of officials of the road, the railway labor board granted the Orient permission to operate on a wage scale lower than that of other "Class one" railroads in this country. The Orient, passing through a receivership, contended it was operating at a loss under standard wages. At that time, the operators and union officials agreed that when the Orient was put on a paying basis, standard wages would be restored.

On Aug. 23 of this year the unions asked that wages on the road be restored to the standard scale, but the operators refused. Officials came to Wichita in February and on April 2 began a canvass of employees to determine whether or not a strike should be called.

GAS TOWNS BEING TALKED

Dallas, April 30.—Lockney and other Texas cities which have received natural gas in the last year are attracting attention of gas men throughout the country who will attend the convention of the Natural Gas association of America here May 7 to 10.

More than 150 towns of Texas were added to the pipe lines which now form a net work over the state and these pipe lines will form the basis of many discussions at the convention.

Gas experts of the North and East are looking to this state to solve many problems for them in long line construction and factories are engineering about the gas development as a source of prospective cheap fuel.

Because of the prominence during the past year of this section of the country in gas expansion, it is expected that the convention in Dallas will be the largest ever held by the association. The exhibit of gas appliances and machinery will be held in the Manufacturers building Texas State Fair grounds, one of the largest exhibit buildings in the Southwest. The meetings of the convention will take place in the Fair Park auditorium. About 1,000 delegates are expected from all parts of the United States and from Canada to the meeting.

C. E. WHITE SEED CO. PLAINVIEW, TEXAS

Dallas Gas Company and chairman of the committee on arrangements for the convention, in speaking of the more serious parts of the program said:

"Once it was only the large centers that had the benefits of the quick clean fuel, gas. Now, especially in this part of the world, we are taking gas to all the smaller cities, the towns even the little communities, so that with their cheaper taxes, their abundance of space, they can compete on more equal terms with the cities for big industries of all kinds."

FLOYD NOW HAS BULL CIRCLES

Floydada, April 28.—Floyd county's first bull circles have been organized. Combination Lone Star, young bull from the Syd Payne herd of Swisher county, was purchased by J. D. Christian of the Blanco community, seven miles southwest of Floydada, and Allen Premier's Buster, 2-year-old bull belonging to the Christian herd, was bought by R. B. Gary of the Harmony community.

Belonging to the same blood line as the Stansell & Sims herd of Floydada which won many premiums at the Panhandle-Plains dairy show, the two new bulls will be exchangeable after a short period and will be of double value to the two communities. The Gary bull is sired by Allen Premier, which heads the Stansell & Sims herd. The Swisher county bull is in the same blood line, being sired by Masterman of Oakland.
