

Herbert Hoover and Senator Curtis Both Chosen On First Ballots at G. O. P. Meet

Pennsylvania Delegation Is Important Factor at Convention

That Herbert Hoover is the Republican nominee for the presidency, with Senator Charles Curtis of Kansas as his running mate was decided at the Republican National Convention at Kansas City last week. Both men were nominated on first ballots, Hoover being nominated Thursday night while Curtis was chosen Friday in a landslide of even greater proportions than that in which Hoover's nomination was confirmed.

That Hoover would be nominated was a foregone conclusion from the opening of the convention on Tuesday, and his nomination became a reality long before the poll of the states was completed. The result of the convention's one and only ballot on the presidential nominee was as follows: Hoover 837; Curtis 64; Watson 5; Dawes 4; Coolidge 17; Norris 24; Goff 18; Lowden 74; Hughes 1 not voting 5.

The number necessary for a nomination, taking the absent into consideration was 542.

In the vote Friday to determine the vice-presidential nominee delegations from all parts of the nation united to give the honor to Senator Curtis, the swarthy Kansas, of Indian descent, a one time jockey who is now the leader of his party in the Senate of the United States.

Just who would be nominated for Hoover's running mate was uncertain until Friday when the movement to nominate the Kansan began to assume the proportions of a landslide. While Kansas was for Curtis from the beginning, perhaps the determining factor in his nomination was the boost given him by the Pennsylvania delegation that figured so prominently in turning the political tide for Hoover earlier in the week.

With a large number of candidates still in the field, at a meeting held Friday morning the Pennsylvania delegation went over to Curtis. New York, with the biggest delegation of all, followed in short order, to be seen followed by many other states.

The final vote was Curtis 1,052; Ekern of Wisconsin, 19; Vice President Dawes, 13; Hanford McNider of Iowa, 2.

Lubbock Man to Head Boy Scout Committee

W. G. McMillan Heads Camping Committee: Summer Camp Plan- ned for South Plains Scouts

R. J. Murray, president of the South Plains Area Council, Boy Scouts of America, announces the selection of W. G. McMillan, of Lubbock, to head the camping committee of the Boy Scouts of the South Plains. "The camping program is the most important part of our Boy Scout work," Mr. Murray says. It is in the great out-of-doors that the boy builds himself physically, mentally, and morally. Because of the importance of this part of our program the Executive Committee has given considerable thought to the selection of a man to head the camping program. In Mr. McMillan we feel that we have secured the right man. Mr. McMillan is an outdoor man, having had a great deal of experience in camping, hunting, and fishing. He took a very active part in the recent District Scout Leaders Training School at Lubbock. The outdoor session of that training course was held on the Boy Scout camp at Post. Here Mr. McMillan became interested in the possibilities for development of this camp. Mr. McMillan is a graduate of A. & M. College and is in the contracting business. His knowledge in construction work and camping should help us develop a real scout camp for the South Plains.

Mr. McMillan is now working on the development of plans for the Summer Training Camp for the Scouts of the South Plains. He has announced the dates of July 30 to August 8, as those for holding of the Summer Camp. It is expected that there will be such a large enrollment that an additional ten day period will be held following the first camp. Mr. McMillan plans to spend a couple of days at the Post Camp in the near future looking over the equipment and completing plans for the Summer Camp.

Anton Frenzel made a business trip to Plainview Wednesday morning.

South Plains Towns Represented at Meet

Fourteen Towns Unite to Form Delegation to W. T. C. of C. Convention

Fourteen cities of the South Plains United in sending a "South Plains of Texas" delegation to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention in Fort Worth this week, according to arrangements made by L. A. Wilson, Slaton Chamber of Commerce Secretary who was chairman of the South Plains delegation. Hundreds of delegates from these fourteen cities attended the meeting in Fort Worth.

Many Bands Go
Slaton, Lubbock, Plainview, Levelland, Littlefield, Olton, Ralls, Lockney, Floydada, Crosbyton, Post, O'Donnell, Tahoka, and Lamesa are the towns that sent delegations to the South Plains group. Six of these towns, Lubbock, Floydada, Plainview, Slaton, Tahoka, and Post, sent bands. Several towns sent groups of girl musicians representing their cities.

The Post Junior Cowboy Band led the South Plains' bands in the parade Tuesday, the other bands and delegations following.

South Plains Headquarters
General headquarters for the South Plains cities were maintained at Ellison Furniture Company in Ft. Worth. Committees from the various cities were in attendance at the headquarters at all times, greeting convention visitors and generally representing the South Plains section.

It is believed that this arrangement under which a number of towns united to represent a section is more productive of results. All delegates from this section wore arm bands with the words "South Plains of Texas," besides the individual banners and pennants that were displayed.

The members of the Quarterly Conference are especially invited to be at Whitfield Sunday afternoon. All are invited to attend these services.

To Market! To Market!

Celebration Staged At Townsite Opening

The Hart townsite was formally introduced to the public last Thursday when Harry Free, agent of the Hart Townsite Company, staged his opening. Hart is in Castro country and in the center of an excellent farming section which is being made more accessible by the opening of the New Denver road.

Hundreds of people from nearby counties attended the celebration Thursday, some to buy lots, and others to witness the opening of a town that seems destined to become an important one in this section.

An airplane from Amarillo furnished stunt flying and parachute jumping as an entertainment feature. Every person who bought a lot was given a free airplane ride.

BULL CIRCLE ORGANIZED IN LOCKNEY TRADE TERRITORY

Line Bred Bulls Are Purchased from Circles in Swisher and
Hale Counties

One step toward toward the more economic production of dairy products that is the work that has been completed the past week by the formation of the first bull circle in the Lockney trade territory.

Under the supervision of E. W. Thomas, manager of the Lockney Farm, nine miles northwest of here, and R. M. Milhollin, County Agent of Hale county, four men have purchased four line bred bulls from circles in Swisher and Hale counties. These four parties who have taken the lead in this work are: Herman Huffman, 10 miles northwest of Lockney; Olin Fry, five miles southeast of Lockney; Schacht Bros. four miles southwest, and the Lockview Farm of which Mr. Thomas is manager.

The four bulls that have been selected are grandsons of Mastermans of Oaklands, $25,000.00 bull of the Cap Rock farms. It is the aim of the purchasers to intensify this blood line as leading dairy specialists believe that there is none better.

Miss Willie Merie Trapp, a teacher in Lockney High School who is spending the summer at her home in Memphis, was in Lockney Monday and Tuesday visiting friends here.

Hale and Floyd County Dairy Men Will Pool Interests and Resources In New Enterprise

At a meeting in Lockney Friday, June 8, a committee from the Hale County Dairy Association discussed with the farmers of Floyd county and a few business men of Lockney the advantages of joining forces to establish a modern cooperative creamery of sufficient capacity to serve the dairy men of both counties. With plenty of capital and the tremendous volume of butter fat to be handled, success is assured.

It will be possible to sell the butter in carload lots, through jobbers on any of the large butter markets of the United States.

The wholesale butter buyers used to be prejudiced against southern butter but now 91 or 92 score butter from Texas commands as high a price as the same grade of northern butter.

It is the belief of the committee that development of the dairy indus-

Clock Weight Falls In Court House Dome

Floydada, June 14.—A thousand-pound concrete weight in the clock in the dome of the court house, crashed thirty-five feet to the ceiling of the district court room Tuesday afternoon, when the steel cable, used to support the weight, snapped. Janitor W. J. Browning was winding the clock when the cable broke and the steel thread went whirling through the clock mechanism pulled the heavy weight attached to it. He was uninjured except for an abrasion on the hand.

"I had often wondered what would happen if one of the weight cables on the clock were to break," Mr. Browning said later in the day. "And I found out. That whirling cable rope had me dodging and no place to dodge."

The weight cable that broke was the one that operates the striking mechanism. The other mechanism was not injured except for a bent shaft which Mr. Browning righted and put back in commission the next morning. Putting the striking mechanism back into commission will require a new cable and several horse powers to lift the concrete weight. The clock was installed in 1913 and has been in continuous operation since.

RILEY & BREWSTER INSTALL NEW FRIGIDAIRE SYSTEM

A valuable addition to their store equipment was made last week by the Riley and Brewster grocery store and meat market when a Frigidaire cooling system was installed in their refrigerator in which meat, eggs, etc., are kept. The store now uses electric refrigeration throughout, having installed a Frigidaire system in the display cases of the meat market last year.

Under the system now used refrigeration is done by means of cold water flowing through coils along the walls of the box. The motor is in the rear part of the store. A faucet on the outside of the refrigerator supplies cold water without ice in it to the store's customers.

Lockney merchants are all using the most modern equipment and are consistently building up their facilities for serving the public.

Congressional Race 18th District Tense

Marvin Jones Challenged by Judge Bell to Debate In Every County of District

The congressional race in the 18th district is warming up. Judge J. Ross Bell of Cottle county and Congressman Marvin Jones are the candidates. Both men are now speaking over the district. Judge Bell yesterday sent the following telegram:

Paducah, Texas,
June 12th, 1928.
Hon. Marvin Jones,
Amarillo, Texas.

I understand that in your speeches you take issue with me on your salary this issue and others. Wire me your lenge you to meet me in joint debate in every county of the district that the people may know the truth about this issue and others. Wire me your answer at once that we may arrange places and dates.

J. Ross Bell.
Both men are able speakers and since the challenge provides for a debate in each of the 53 counties of the district it is anticipated a real fight will develop and the supporters of both men are looking for further developments.

Jones Reply
Amarillo, Texas,
June 13th, 1928.

Hon. J. Ross Bell,
Paducah, Texas.

Dear Sir:
Your telegram received. There is no issue on the salary raise. Your suggestion that I voted for it all wrong. I not only voted against it, but gave my reasons for so voting. The Dallas News representative who saw me rise and vote against it published the following in the Dallas News of Feb. 21, 1925, page 3, column 5:

"The following members of the Texas Delegation stood and were counted among the ninety-three who opposed the adoption of the salary provision: Black, Box, Briggs, Connally, Garrett, Sanders, Lanham, Jones, Blanton, Mansfield, and Buchanan."

As to meeting you in joint debate, you have been campaigning for months while I have been at my post of duty. I have seven weeks in which to cover the fifty-three counties of this district. Manifestly I haven't time to listen to you speak.

In the limited time at my disposal I intend to make my report directly to the people and strictly in accord with the facts.

Sincerely yours,
(Signed) Marvin Jones

J. ROSS BELL WILL SPEAK TO LOCKNEY VOTERS JUNE 27

J. Ross Bell, of Cottle county, will speak at Lockney Wednesday, June 27, at 4 p. m., in behalf of his candidacy for congress as representative of the 18th Congressional District. Following his appearance at Lockney, he will go to Floydada, where he will speak at 5:30 p. m.

Judge Bell is the opponent of Marvin Jones in his campaign for reelection from this district.

PIGGLY WIGGLY INSTALLS NEW KELVINATOR IN STORE

The Piggly Wiggly grocery store added a valuable fixture to its equipment last week when a new Kelvinator was installed, insuring proper refrigeration at all times. The Kelvinator is said to be the oldest electric refrigerator on the market. Electric refrigeration is now being largely used by Lockney merchants and is meeting with the hearty approval of the public as well as relieving the merchants from trouble in preserving foods and the work necessary.

Much Publicity Will Be Given Southwest Dur- ing Convention

Houston, Texas, June 20.—Hundreds of those persons who followed the spoor of the Republican Elephant to Kansas City today are prepared to troop down through Oklahoma to Texas to see the Democratic Donkey cavort at Houston, after which many of them will invade Louisiana with New Orleans as the magnet.

The two major party conventions observers point out, will prove a great help to the Southwest in the general movement of the Democratic publicity committee to acquaint the rest of the nation with the possibilities in Texas, Louisiana, and Oklahoma. Already the eyes of the nation are shifting from Kansas City to Houston, it is revealed as newspaper men from all sections pack up at Kansas City and buy tickets for Houston.

Virtually every newspaper in the country will tell of the convention cities—and of the surrounding sections, for that is considered the "background" to the convention stories. Trooping down from Kansas City, many hundreds of newspaper men are coming through Oklahoma into Texas, and their observations are expected to form the basis for many stories that will be told in all parts of the United States.

Then, New Orleans, and the picturesque Arcadian Section of Louisiana, is looked upon as a magnet that will draw many of these writers to that state. Thus, the conventions while recognized as great political events, mean something else to the Southwest—a chance to let the rest of the nation know just what is being accomplished in these sections.

The hosts of Democracy will find that Houston is ready, even as Kansas City was ready for the Republicans.

More than 300 persons who have been busily engaged for the last several months in preparing for the Democratic National Convention today are checking up on all details. "Rehearsals" are under way. The housing committee has begun to function, getting its start by assigning members of the advance guard of convention visitors to their quarters. All of the "working newspaper men" who have arrived in Houston have been installed in hotels, and the machinery is tuned up for the care of all other visitors.

Bunting is beginning to flutter from store fronts, and flags are flying in the gulf breezes from the staffs on the Democratic Coliseum; typhoon fans are buzzing, the hospitality house is about ready, special traffic lighting systems are beginning to function, loud speakers in the convention Coliseum are booming away—everything is ready, even as Jesse H. Jones, Houston Chairman, national arrangements committee, promised when he obtained the convention for the national executive committee Houston.

Houston, it is learned, isn't the only city to be ready. Word has been broadcast from many communities in Oklahoma, Texas and Louisiana that all will help make convention visitors comfortable when they pass through on the way to Houston. Particular attention will be paid to caring for the automobile tourists enroute to Houston at convention time, it has been learned.

GAS—A MAJOR UTILITY

The story of gas is a modern epic. From its inauspicious beginning a little over a hundred years ago it has steadily progressed to the extent that John P. Mullen, of the Investment Bankers Association of America, recently said that the gas business and its securities show a stable value that entitles them to rank with the best of public utility issues.

The manufactured gas industry has not reported a decrease in annual sales or revenue in 21 years. Sales have increased 352 per cent in 25 years, in spite of a population increase of but 60 per cent. Sixty million people are now said to buy gas, and it has 21,000 industrial uses. Yet in industry it's life has barely begun; the future is beyond prediction.

WALTHALL TO BACK WEST TEXAS COLLEGES

Chairman of Board Says Expansion Quickest—Favors Aid to Colleges

Austin, June 20.—With the Board of Control now in the midst of making up its legislative appropriation budget, R. B. Walthall, chairman, Friday declared that he intended to give liberal support to all West Texas Colleges seeking funds for new building projects.

This program will include new structures for the Texas Technological College, Lubbock; Sul Ross College, Alpine; West Texas Teachers' Canyon; North Texas Agricultural, Arlington; College of Industrial Arts, Denton; North Texas State Teachers, Denton; John Tarleton, Stephenville. $35,000,000 Requested

The total appropriation requested by educational institutions will approximate $35,000,000, Walthall said, this after a survey conducted by Dr. H. H. Harrington, board member, and W. T. Gaston, board statistician. The Fortieth Legislature's appropriations to all educational institutions reached $17,000,000, this coming after the board sliced the requests in half.

"With the state growing and prospering it is certainly up to us to let our colleges and universities share in this advancement," Walthall said, "and I am confident the board will grant, or recommend many new buildings, especially for West Texas, since it is growing more rapidly. The Tech college at Lubbock has enjoyed such unusual progress that I am heartily in favor of supporting its regents' plan to ask $2,000,000 for structures. This college is anxious to complete its quadrangle and I shall do what I can toward this end.

Other Schools Growing

The schools at Canyon, Denton, Arlington, Stephenville, and Alpine also are growing healthily, and since their expansion means a great deal to Texas industrial and educational life, they will obtain my co-operation, and I believe that of the other members.

Legislative appropriations depend in a great measure upon the total property valuations and their ad valorem tax rate and this year, according to W. Gregory Hatcher, state treasurer, there will be an increase of about $200,000,000. For the 10-year period up to 1926, the annual increase in valuations was $75,000,000, but the gain in 1927 leaped to $273,000,000, unprecedented in Texas history and sending the total to $3,899,958,000. This year valuations will exceed $4,000,000,000. The general revenue fund now is more than $5,000,000.

For School of Mines

The state university regents plan to ask the board and Legislature for $600,000 for the School of Mines in El Paso, a branch of the main university. If granted, it will be used for new buildings and the amount is $400,000 less than anticipated. Sul Ross and John Tarleton are badly in need of additional buildings. The latter college this Fall will spend $125,000 for an auditorium and class rooms granted by the Fortieth Legislature, but even then the institutions will be handicapped for room. Dean Davis

The C. I. A. was allowed $150,000 for dormitory equipment and furnishings but the student body so increased that new buildings are necessary. Sul Ross got no building appropriation from the last Legislature, while the Canyon building fund was $275,000.

The state university is asking to increase President Benedict's salary from $10,000 to $12,500.

Salary Increases Uncertain

"If this is granted we will have to grant increases to the heads of all the other institutions," Walthall said. "I don't know what we will do about salary increases but I am in favor of the new buildings. Also, I am opposed to establishing any new state colleges. We have enough already, and with hard-surfaced highways and automobiles it is no hardship to reach any of them. If we improve the institutions we now have we will be doing well, and if we add more it will mean lessening the improvements all around."

At the last session the state university was given more than $3,000,000 for the biennial, leading all other institutions; A. & M. coming second with $1,985,000, Texas Tech third with $1,640,000. West Texas Teachers $803,000, John Tarleton $581,000, North Texas Teachers $508,000, North Texas Agricultural $502,000, School of Mines $220,000, Sul Ross $237,000. The Tech College, although only three years old, now has 1,800 students.

Will Receive Requests

Gaston Friday said that he would receive the itemized college requests by July 1, after the board will begin its pruning operations. Between $17,000,000 and $18,000,000 will likely be eliminated from these requests, Walthall said, but despite that a healthy increase over the last appropriations will be allowed. The recommendations then will be printed for presentation to the Legislature.

Appropriations of all kinds at the last session totaled $55,000,000. Even if the automatic tax board makes its proposed ad valorem reduction in June the state will be in position to increase this total, according to Walthall, because of the big gain in property valuations.

The same old thing has happened to the old chuck wagon in this country that has happened to nearly everything else when something else comes along to take its place. It used to be a common thing to see the big chuck wagon with four or six mules hitched to it, go rolling across the ranges, but it is an unusual sight now, and it has become one of the relics and rare things. We note now occasionally where some newspaper man of the western part of the state has enjoyed a meal at the ranch chuck wagon, while at one time since we have known West Texas it was nothing but common to hear a man say that he "enjoyed a meal at home a few days ago." This just goes to show that this country has undergone a wonderful change whether it be evolution or what not. The country is no longer a strictly cattle range. Neither is it a strictly cotton country, though it is running considerably in that direction. We now have the rich dairy products increasing every year, and the poultry industry that is rapidly coming to its own.

T. E. L. Social

The T. E. L. class of the Baptist Sunday school met with Mrs. Ed Whitfill with Mrs. Townsend as joint hostess on June 8.

The devotional was conducted by Mrs. Will Wofford, using the 14th chapter of John, after which the meeting was turned over to the president for a business session. Some good reports were given, especially by the chairman of the Lois Circle. We were all urged to visit the elderly ladies of the town and especially those who are sick.

We all miss our teacher, Mr. Biggers, who is in the sanitarium, and hope that he will soon be able to be with us again. A. A. Suits was elected assistant teacher.

Our attendance has not been as good as it should have been for the last two months. We want to urge all the absentees to come back. We need you and you need us. Come help us make our class what it should be.

After the business, the hostesses took charge of the meeting, and we all enjoyed the social hour very much. A feature of the program was the cracker and water race, Mrs. Will Wofford winning the prize.

Delicious refreshments consisting of sandwiches, iced tea, and cake were served to fourteen members.—Reporter.

Home Demonstration Club News

Providence Home Demonstration Club
The Providence Home Demonstration Club met June 12th in the club room. There were 14 members present, 3 visitors, and 3 new members.

Miss Bass was with us and gave a demonstration on simple desserts. She made and served macaroons and gave us a number of recipes for making simple desserts.

Miss Bass told us about her trip to San Antonio. We were glad she went as she always has so many interesting things to tell us about the trips she takes.

She talked about the picnic the Floyd county club women are going to have the latter part of June. Every one are to wear bonnets and aprons. We won't have another meeting in June, as we will go to the picnic instead. Our next meeting will be July 10th.

Mrs. C. W. Crouch will be hostess. Our lesson will be the "Emergency Meal." Miss Bass will give us a demonstration on an emergency meal.

After our demonstration lesson, our hostess, Mrs. W. M. Sammann, served Poppy Seed cake or the German wedding cake.

Everyone try and come to our next meeting as we are always interested in an emergency meal.—Reporter.

WILL TRY TO STABILIZE ADMISSION TO COLLEGES

Austin, Texas, June 20.—Dr. H. Y. Benedict, president of the University of Texas, last week was named a committee of one to investigate the scholastic records of the high schools in the state with the end in view of devising a method of stabilizing the admission requirements to the various senior colleges of the state. This action was taken at a meeting of the presidents of the twelve senior state supported colleges held at A. & M. last Wednesday.

CHURCHES

Baptist Church
We had a good day last Sunday. The Volunteer Band from Wayland College brought us some good messages at 11:00 a. m. and at 2:30 p. m. Bro. Marcellus Watkins, the Wayland College Evangelist, brought us a good message at the evening hour. We hope to make a religious survey of the town next Sunday afternoon. We would like to have the co-operation of every one in this. It helps to know how many people are members of the church, how many are in Sunday school, and how many have membership in some other locality.

It is just as necessary that you have a church home as it is that you have a place to eat and sleep. When a family move to town they either secure a place to call home before coming or immediately after they arrive, but those same people may stay here for months or even years without a church home. The old home in Texas, Oklahoma, or Arkansas will take care of your physical needs just as well as your old church home over there will take care of your spiritual needs. The parents would not think of making no preparations for the food for the family, yet many times they make absolutely no provision for the spiritual welfare of the family. Sometimes these same people wonder why their children become worldly. It would be a surprising thing if they did not become spiritual weaklings.

When we are run down physically it is easy for us to "catch" some disease (or it is easy for the disease to catch us); likewise when we are undemourished spiritually it is easy for sin to overtake us. The Word of God is food for the soul; service affords the exercise one must have if he has strength. Find a place where you can receive both of these, then get them regularly.

PLAINVIEW WILL HAVE EIGHT STORY BUILDING

Hilton Hotel Company of Texas Will Build and Operate New Hotel at Plainview

Plainview, June 15.—The Hilton Hotel Company of Texas, headed by C. N. Hilton of Dallas, which company now operates hotels at Dallas, Abilene, Wichita Falls and San Angelo, will build and operate an eight-story hotel at Plainview, according to the terms of an agreement reached Thursday afternoon between C. N. Hilton and a group of Plainview citizens interested in the building of a modern hotel at Plainview.

The immediate construction of the hotel is promised by C. N. Hilton. The company building the Plainview hotel will be known as the Hilton Hotel Plainview Company.

A site well within the best business section of Plainview will be used for the location of the hotel. And in addition to the hotel building a group of brick business houses will be erected on the same grounds acquired by the Hilton people. A small block of stock is being subscribed locally, but the major financing of the project will be handled by Hilton, it is pointed out by R. A. Underwood, one trustee for the local citizens interested in the project. This will be the first eight-story structure to be built in West Texas south of Amarillo.

"We feel particularly pleased that Plainview is to have a hotel, such as those operated by the well known Hilton Hotel Co., and believe that Hilton's interest in this instance shows the faith that outside capital has in the Panhandle-Plains section of Texas," Underwood said, in discussing the contract.

The hotel to be built in Plainview will be similar in operation, design and service to the hotels operated and owned by this same company at Dallas, Wichita Falls, San Angelo and Abilene.

CHILDRESS FARMER HAS MADE UNUSUAL RECORD
Proves Value of Farm Diversification and Practice of Making Living at Home

Childress, June 16.—E. C. Wilcox, Route 2, six and a half miles northwest of Childress, is a practical example of the success of farm diversification and of the practice of making the living at home. However, when H. D. Cuykendall field representative for the oil mill and creamery, called on Wilcox a few days ago, he found that planters were at work in the fields, putting in a cotton crop, to indicate that Wilcox has not given up raising a major crop in connection with his minor occupations.

Wilcox states that he has kept a herd of dairy cows for years, but up to two years ago they were only kept for home consumption of milk products. He did not begin selling cream until last year, when he had four good milk cows. He says that he made considerable money out of the dairy work last year, in fact almost as much money as he is making now off a larger dairy herd.

In October of last year Wilcox shipped in a carload of Jersey cattle that he bought downstate. He sold all of them but 11 had of the carload and added them to his herd, making a total of 15 milk cows. A queer fact is that the cows all brought bull calves four of them being sold to Henry Green for $80.

The books of the dairy department of the Wilcox farm show profits of $359.03 last year above the cost of feeding and of home consumption. Two of the cows were registered animals and the other two were good grade cows, giving better than four gallons of milk per day. He fed these cows cottonseed but he has now changed methods and is feeding his dairy cattle cottonseed meal and hulls for which he trades his seed each fall.

In the month of January the 15 cows he now has made Wilcox something more than $35 above the feed costs. They average a net profit of $30 to $40 through the winter months and more in the summer when there is native pasture to run them on and cut down the cost of high-priced feed.

Last fall Wilcox purchased 100 purebred Buf. Orpington hens from a Crowell farmer. Eggs sold on the market during the winter months brought a good profit. This spring he sold setting eggs for 4 cents each and this money paid for their own increase of flock. He now has 400 young chickens. The young roosters will be sold this fall on the market and the pullets kept for laying during the winter. The Wilcox family expects to make a good profit off eggs during the coming cold season.

Last year Wilcox had a sow and nine pigs when he began operating with a 15-cow dairy. He sold three pigs for $46 and killed six of them that weighed 300 pounds dressed. They were put up in cans and cured for home use.

Last fall Wilcox traded about three and a half tons of cottonseed for meal and hulls, in order to have feed during the winter months. He bought his meal at $2.10 and before he quit feeding that cheap meal the retail price had gone up to $3, making him a saving of 90 cents per sack. This coming fall Wilcox intends trading about twice that amount of seed for feed.

Amarello June 18.—The grade on virtually three miles of the highway between Canyon and Amarello has been completed, according to W. C. French, superintendent of the Panhandle division of the Texas Highway Department.

The contract for the first six miles of the road was let to the Tibbets Construction Company while R. B. Stroup has the contract for the remainder of the grading. Mr. French expects that the work of grading the road will be completed by Sept. 1.

It is expected that the paving contract will be awarded sometime next year depending on the amount of rain after the grade is completed. The setting of a new grade is an important factor in the paving, according to Mr. French.

WEST TEXAS C. OF C. WILL BE HELD IN AUGUST
McKittrick Canyon, the highest point in the United States east of the Rocky Mountains, will be included this year in the itinerary of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Motorcade in August.

According to those persons who have visited the place, the scenery of the region is equaled only by that found in the Rockies. Members of the motorcade, which is expected to number 150 persons this year, will spend a day and a night in McKittrick Canyon, going there from Carlsbad Overn, a distance of about 20 miles. In Carlsbad the Inter-Mountain District Convention of East New Mexico will be held.

Persons making the trip will be required to have camping outfits. One of the most interesting features of the trip will be the use of a chuck wagon.

NEW BUILDING IS BEING ERECTED NOW AT TURKEY
Turkey, June 14.—J. R. Young has let a contract to J. C. Boggs of Quitaque for the construction of a 25x10 brick building on the north side of Main street here.

FLOYDADA PERMITS FOR TWO DAYS TOTAL $17,820
Floydada, June 15.—Monday and Tuesday of this week proved big days in Floydada when City Secretary, Burl Bedford, issued building permits to the amount of $17,820. Of this amount $17,230 was for new homes now under construction or are to be started this week. This brings the total for the year to $160,850.00.

O. P. Rutledge secured the largest permit of the two days for his home to be erected in the New Home Addition in West Floydada. It will be an eight room brick veneer and will cost $7,500. B. P. Woody, druggist, let the contract for his home in Southwest Floydada which will cost $6,000. R. B. Hatley is building a residence in West Floydada at a cost of $2,000 and Otto Austin has under construction a four room stucco in Northwest Floydada at a cost of $1820. The remainder of the permits were issued for reconstruction work on the home of Joe F. Boothe.

Simple Poultry Remedies

A good, yet simple way to rid your setting hens and places where infected with mites, just common old cockle burrs, take leaves while fresh, place them under hens that are setting, also scatter thick where the mites are. Put fresh ones every day, but it doesn't usually take more than two applications to rid the spot of mites. If you doubt my word try it out and look for yourself between the dried up leaves, and you will find your mites, most of them already dead. I usually burn the leaves as I take them away, but it isn't really necessary.

Now here is my stick tight flea remedy: Get this devil's claw vine that grows so plentiful on these plains especially, but this isn't the only place it grows, cut them at the roots, take and scatter where fleas are, the sticky milk that oozes from the plant get the fleas and they have to stay there. When they dry out get more and keep it up until all are gone.—Contributed.

G. O. P. Nominee Has Had Varied Career

Hoover Has Engaged in Many Huge Enterprises in Public and In Private Life

Herbert Hoover, Republican nominee for the presidency, has had one of the most varied and colorful careers of any man in public life in the United States today. He has engaged in hard work through many years, in all parts of the world, and one difficult job after another has been his lot. It is notable that in all his undertakings he has shown a quality of tenacious persistence, an untiring energy, and a marvelous ability.

Unlike many of the men who came to the fore in public life during the World War, Hoover's power and prestige has expanded in the succeeding years of peace. Whatever luck may befall him in November, his career thus far has been one of triumph, leading consistently upward. However, he has not been unhampered in his work. Tremendous undertakings have been his lot, and seemingly insuperable difficulties have beset him.

Not only America has known Hoover, but all parts of the world, Burma, Australia, China, Russia, and the nations of Europe to whose people he meant food and shelter during the great world conflict. For the past eight years he has been in Washington, most of the time a cabinet officer, constantly in the public eye although he is unassuming and quiet.

Herbert Hoover was born in Iowa in 1847, the son of a blacksmith. His mother was a reader in a Quaker meeting house. He was orphaned at 9 and brought up by relatives in Oregon; he worked his way through Leland Stanford University; he worked with a pick in the mines, and later was assistant in the office of a San Francisco engineer.

At 23 he was manager of a large British mine in Australia; at 25 Director General of the Imperial Mines of China. He was a chief figure in the defense of Tientsin in the Boxer Revolution, and during the next fifteen years headed vast mining enterprises in various quarters of the world.

He purchased an abandoned mine in Burma and gave this up at the outbreak of the war because to keep it he would have had to become a British citizen. So at the age of 40 his public career began.

He won recognition as Chairman of the Commission for Relief in Belgium Upon America's entry into the war Hoover became the United States Food Administrator. After the war, he was appointed Chairman of the Supreme Economic Council of the Allies. He organized the American Relief Administration to save lives in Russia during 1920-21. Since 1921 Hoover has been Secretary of Commerce.

In addition to his work as a cabinet member, Hoover has a multitude of other tasks. He is Director of the Mississippi Flood Relief and various other national movements.

Hoover is six feet tall and of powerful physique. He makes a deep impression as a speaker. It is said that he is rather shy, very quiet and very modest. Though he is an exceedingly busy man, it is not difficult for anyone to secure an audience with him.
