Fiddlers' Contest Will Be Held Friday Night

Concessions Being Sold for Plateau Singing Convention—Will Entertain More Rural Communities

At the Chamber of Commerce meeting Monday at noon a very busy hour was spent in discussing the entertainments on the program for the next few months of the organization.

It was voted that a large delegation of the residents and business men, join with the people from the rural communities of the county and attend the Panhandle-Plains Dairy Show, to be held at Plainview on April 7 to 10, in a body.

The secretary reported that several concessions for cold drink and food stands have been sold the past week for the Plateau Singing Convention, which will meet at the city auditorium in this city on Saturday and Sunday, June 13 and 14, and that he expected to sell all the concessions for this gathering within a short time.

A resolution was passed by the organization thanking the Home Demonstration Club and the people of Roseland for the entertainment last Friday night at the Roseland school house, when sixteen couples from Lockney were invited to a forty-two party at that place.

It was decided that the Chamber of Commerce send invitations to the people of Sand Hill, Aiken, and Providence, to attend three forty-two parties at the city auditorium in Lockney, to be held on three different nights during the month of April, also to arrange for a party to be given to the members of the graduating class of Lockney High School on some night between now and the close of school.

The "Old Fiddlers' Contest" will be held at the City Auditorium tomorrow (Friday) night, at which time three prizes will be given to the fiddlers winning 1st, 2nd, and 3rd places. The first prize will be $12.50 in cash, 2nd, $7.50 in cash, and 3rd, $5.00 in cash. There will be a good number of entrants in the fiddlers contest, there will be singing by the audience, and a general good time is expected. There will be no charge for admission and everybody, both in the rural communities and the town are invited to attend.

Fay Guthrie, secretary, made a report on the road problems of the precinct.

Several from the Chamber of Commerce were asked to attend the Cotton Growers meeting to be held at Plainview, Tuesday afternoon, March 18th.

WOMAN FOUND, HEAD CRUSHED

Body Is Discovered in Pasture Four Miles From Fort Worth

Fort Worth, Texas, March 16.—Mrs. Pearl Voss, 30, Fort Worth rooming house employe, was beaten to death by what officers believed was a claw hammer in a pasture near here. The body was found Sunday and the head had been crushed.

The body was found by R. M. Andrews and L. J. Frady in a pasture on the Burford farm about 200 yards from a road after they had gone there to look at some junked automobiles some one had put there recently.

Investigators were unable to determine whether she had been taken to the pasture and killed there, after a struggle, or had been killed some other place and the body then taken to the pasture. Police incline to the former theory, as the woman's hat was found near the path through the pasture and about 100 yards closer to the highway than where the body lay.

One severe blow had been struck on the back of the head, apparently with the claw end of the hammer. The marks of the two prongs were cut through the scalp and were deep into the skull. Police believe this was the first blow struck, and that she was struck down by some one standing behind her. Several other blows were struck, beating in the front and top of the woman's skull, all evidently with the blunt end of a hammer. The body bore only a few bruises, one on the left temple and a few smaller ones on the right leg.

All theories of robbery were discounted, as the officers found two small diamond rings and an octagon-shaped gold wrist watch on the body. The watch had stopped at 10:30 o'clock.

PARTY AT ROSELAND LAST FRIDAY NIGHT

In response to an invitation extended to the members of the Lockney Chamber of Commerce, a number of Lockney men and their wives, went to Roseland school house Friday night of last week, where they were entertained by the Home Demonstration Club and others of that community with a forty-two party and a social hour.

Those attending from Lockney were: Messrs. and Mesdames Floyd Huff, P. E. Shick, L. D. Harris, T. B. Brooks, Arleigh Cooper, H. B. Adams, Robin Baker, Yarbrough, Leslie Gilbert, J. E. Lee, Edd Whitfill, A. C. Blank, Drs. Colvern and Mary M. Henry, Dr. and Mrs. C. J. McCollum; Mrs. Lizzie Schmitt, Mrs. E. M. Cornelius, Messrs. Zack Riley, Artie Baker, Fay Guthrie, Ray Wall, and Carl McAdams.

A number of games of forty-two were played, after which refreshments were served by the Roseland Home Demonstration Club, and then the party was turned into a "Sing-Song" and a number of songs were sung by the audience, and several quartet numbers were rendered.

The following members of the Roseland Home Demonstration Club staged the party and served the refreshments: Mrs. S. M. Lester, president, Miss Anna Sims, vice-president, Mrs. G. C. Hilburn, secretary; and Mesdames C. V. Ford, H. L. Barton, P. L. Marble, Frank Roberson, Guy Sams, T. J. Gilbert, W. A. Whitlock, Bruce Whitlock, Irvin Bennett, W. B. Stevenson, Delbert Bybee, C. H. Brown, and Miss Lola Barton.

Others present, who live in the Roseland community were Messrs. W. A. Whitlock, Will and Paul Sims, S. M. Lester, H. L. Barton, Frank, Arthur and Carl Brown, Guy Sams, F. L. Marble, Horace and Hugh Marble, Frank Roberson, Frank, Allen, and Lin Roberson, T. J. Gilbert, C. V. Ford, Richard and Raymond Ford, Buster Whitlock, Delbert Bybee, and Miss Ruth Brown.

The occasion was one of the most enjoyable that has been given in this section of the country for a long time, and the people of Lockney are looking forward to many more such parties to be given in the town and country surrounding. The Lockey people entertained the Roseland people at a party at the city auditorium several weeks ago, and the ladies and gentlemen of that community in turn asked them to the entertainment last Friday night.

Aleino Farmers Diversifying

Mr. J. W. Ginn, merchant of Aleino, informed the editor Monday of this week, that a great many of the people of his community had begun to make progress in the diversification of crops, and that on an average now his store was receiving each week about 20 coops of chickens, 6 to 10 cases of eggs, and from 6 to 8 cans of cream. The people of the community are becoming more prosperous, and can pay for their needs at the store more easily when they have some thing to sell every time they have occasion to go to the store. We are glad to know that the people of this good community are beginning to diversify and raise poultry and cream for the market, as it will pay, no matter what the market prices might be.

Good Rain Fell Last Friday Night

Inch and 16-100 Rain Fell According to Weather Gauge, Snow Fell Tuesday

A good rain fell over all the Plains country Friday night of last week, ranging from one-half inch to one and one-half inches, according to reports from different parts of the Panhandle-Plains country. Canyon reported the heaviest rainfall, and the report from Lockney came second in the amount of water reported falling that night. The rain in this section fell very heavy and there was considerable wind with it, and a good season is in the ground for the present crop needs, and will carry the wheat crop a long way toward maturity.

Tuesday was cloudy and cold, and throughout the day small flurries of snow fell over this section, being sufficient in places to wet the ground. On Sunday local showers fell at several points in the county, the heaviest rain fall being reported in the South Plains and Providence sections of the county.

The condition of wheat is good over the county at this time, and the moisture will be of great benefit to those who expect to do early plowing for their row crops.

Texas Leads Country With Cottonseed

Commercial Products of One Time Waste Averages Third of U. S. Total

Taft, Texas, March 19.—Texas normally leads every other state in the Union in the manufacturing of cottonseed products, and usually averages about one third of the total of the United States, W. L. Weber, of Taft, vice president of the Texas Cottonseed Crushers Association, declared here today.

Mr. Weber said that the figures showing this fact are from the latest report of the U. S. Department of Commerce.

Establishments engaged primarily in the manufacture of cottonseed products, according to the report, showed a total output in the United States, valued at $275,650,510.00.

"This report," Mr. Weber explained, "embraces only establishments with total products of $5,000 in value, engaged in the manufacture of cottonseed oil, cake, and meal, hulls, linters, notes and grabbets. It does not include those which are classified as 'fertilizers,' and those factories which use cottonseed products only incidentally."

According to the report, Texas also led in the number of establishments classified as "cottonseed products industry," having 174, with Georgia second with only 54 mills. The total in the country of these mills is 538, according to the government statistics.

Texas has ginned 3,900,000 bales of cotton during the past season and has handled 387,000,000 pounds of crude oil; 500,000 tons of cake and meal; 390,000 tons of hulls and about 270,000 running bales of linters, totalling about one third of the production of the entire country.

"The cottonseed in Texas is now third in importance in agricultural products," Mr. Weber said, "being led only by cotton and live stock. The cottonseed industry has reached this prominence during the last two generations, there being men alive today who can remember cottonseed as a waste product, one which was a problem of disposal. Today cottonseed runs in a constant thread throughout our lives."

"We eat the product in one form, cook with it, feed it to our cattle, fertilize our land with it. And the by-products of the seed are without number. They appear in the linoleum with which we cover our kitchen floors, in the artificial silk that our women wear, in the make-up that they apply to their faces to enhance their beauty, in the record that we play on our phonographs, the films we use in our kodaks."

"The official report from the government concerns itself only with the actual cottonseed products, but its ramifications are beyond tracing thru the realms of civilized life."

PRAIRIE CHAPEL WINS FLOYD COUNTY CHAMPIONSHIP

The B and C class basket ball teams met at Lockney, March 8. The C class played their tournament in the morning and McCoy won first place.

Then the B class started their tournament in the afternoon, with five teams present, Prairie Chapel having to play three games. The first one with Irick, Prairie Chapel winning by the score of 31 to 18. Then Prairie Chapel played the second game with Dougherty, the score being 26 to 19 in favor of Prairie Chapel. That evening Prairie Chapel and Aiken played the finals, Prairie Chapel winning by a high score of 58 to 23.

In the three games there were 115 scores made, Grace Teaff making 94 and Reva Harrison 21. We are also proud of our centers they got tip off in every game. Our little guards stayed right in there, if they could not reach the ball when it was in Aiken's hands, Juanita Bybee stayed with them until the coach had to carry her off the court.

We thank all of the officials, especially Mr. Reid.—Contributed.

$2,000,000 ASKED IN APPROPRIATIONS

Austin, Texas, March 16.—Petitions for emergency appropriations amounting to $1,208,178 for the year ending Aug. 31 and for $718,058 for the next year are before the Appropriations Committee in the House. Chairman John Wallace of the committee said Saturday. The totals do not include a $50,000 emergency requested for the prison system for the remainder of the fiscal year, nor for an estimated $500,000 or $600,000 that may be appropriated for improvement of the system. These would increase the total requirements to more than $2,000,000.

By action of Mr. Wallace's committee Saturday, the Legislature will be privileged to pass these appropriation bills before adjournment Thursday if the subject is submitted by Gov. Dan Moody. The committee held a brief session and voted out a bill by Mr. Wallace providing $409,674 for summer schools for 1930 and school contingent funds, for 1930 and 1931 amounting to $349,559. It was these contingent funds that Governor Moody vetoed a year ago.

Under the term of the Constitution the Legislature may not consider any bill not reported out of a committee at least three days before the date of final adjournment. However, since the one bill has been reported out it will be possible to add all other appropriation items by amendment to one omnibus bill.

What subjects will be submitted by Governor Moody remains to be determined, but that and the number of items he will veto will depend on the number of revenue measures sent to his desk. The three bills that have been counted on most for passage would yield about $2,500,000 a year, according to the author's estimate, provided a sulphur tax of 75c a ton is passed, and that appeared unlikely Saturday.

The bill by Representative R. M. Hubbard to tax a large number of public utilities operating in smaller towns has gone to the Governor. The sulphur tax bill is in a deadlocked conference committee and the revised franchise tax that may yield anywhere between $400,000 and $1,000,000 is still in the Senate and has been set down as a special order for Monday.

In the list of estimates furnished to Chairman Wallace by department heads and the Board of Control, there are requests for sums ranging from $980 to $200,000, the latter for a dairy plant in Austin for the State hospital.

The Adjutant General's Department wants $20,000 for this year and $70,000 for next. The largest item on the list is $288,825, asked by the Comptroller's Department to pay the costs of court cases in various counties. The eleemosynary institutions are asking for a total of $239,170. Other departments that have needs are the Attorney General, Banking, Board of Control, Educational, Supreme Court, Health, Industrial, Accident Board, Insurance Department, Land Office, Railroad Commission, Treasury and Board of Water Engineers.

Heads of eight of the educational institutions signed a statement to Mr. Wallace that they will be content with the sums set out in the bill he has been prepared. They said also that Governor Moody has agreed generally to the requests they have made. The signatures included those of A. W. Birdwell, J. A. Hill, C. E. Evans, H. W. Morelock, H. F. Estill, R. L. Marquis by Birdwell, S. H. Whitley by Hill and T. O. Walton. Dr. Walton telephoned Mr. Wallace that he would ask an additional $15,000 for extension service.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Shaw and little daughter of Petersburg spent Monday with her mother, Mrs. Kate Collier.

Mr. and Mrs. V. Lee Matney and little daughter of Plemons, Texas, spent the week-end with Mrs. Kate Collier.

Trustee Elections in April Over County

The district school trustee election will be held on April 5, and supplies for the election were mailed out this week, so Price Scott, County School Superintendent informed us this week.

He stated that this election affected all the trustees of the common and independent school districts in Floyd county.

In the common school districts there will be from one to two trustees elected, according to the expirations of the terms of the preceding officers. The election will be held in each district school building and the same rules and regulations that have governed the preceding election will govern this one.

Mr. Scott makes a direct plea to the people of this county to study the importance of electing the right man. He states that this is one of the most important officers in the county and he hoped that the people would devote time and attention to pick a man of moral character, ability and a man with the ability to act as his conscience directs him.

There will be three county trustees elected on April 5, also. The terms of J. H. Upton, precinct No. 3, and W. N. Jones, of precinct No. 4, expires in May. The term of L. B. Maxey, county trustee elected at large, also expires in May. All of these vacancies will have to be filled.

Here is some information supplied by Mr. Scott that will give the average layman the magnitude and importance of selecting the right trustees: There are 30 rural schools, not counting independent schools, in Floyd county. The scholastics in these 30 schools number 2,158. There are 37 women and 29 men teachers in the rural schools of Floyd county. There are 23 brick buildings, 20 teachers homes, and the total value of the rural school property in the county is $346,185. The average length of the school term is 160 days. Mr. Scott stated that this would probably be raised to 175 days for the coming year. Floyd county receives a sum total of $134,174.50 to be spent each year by her rural school trustees.

This was Miss Strange's regular meeting with us and she gave a demonstration on jelly making, including the pectin test with the eppom salts. She also made Parker House rolls and nut loaf bread. These demonstrations were truly interesting to all.

In connection with the regular study, the time, place, and ways of entertaining the South Plains Club members were offered at this time.

Our next meeting will be April 11, and every one must be sure and come.—Reporter.

UNFAIR TAXATION IN FLOYD COUNTY

The people of Precinct No. 2 Floyd county have been trying to get the road along the Denver railroad from Lubbock to Silverton and Quitaque opened in Floyd county for about two years, but no headway has been made on account of the Commissioners' Court refusing to open the road. They give as a reason why they do not open this road is because they have no money to pay the expense of opening same, but they are able to issue warrants on the road and bridge fund of the county, or transfer a certain part of the road and bridge funds to other building funds, at any time they want to for other roads or paving purposes. They think nothing about issuing warrants for the paving of the square around the court house, or to build large concrete culverts, etc., in other precincts and on other road projects, but when they are asked to open the road in Precinct No. 2 they are so financially embarrassed that they just can't do a thing toward opening the road. We believe that the real reason why they do not open the road is purely and simply discrimination against Precinct No. 2 in all road matters. Since we have been in the printing business in Floyd county the Commissioners' Court, has at least part of the time intentionally, and for all the time, intentionally or unintentionally, boycotted the Beacon office in Lockney, in the way of giving them any of the county business, this office receiving less than $100 worth of printing from the county the entire six and one-half years we have been in the county, and we frankly say that by not dividing the business, or giving this office a chance to bid on the business, they have paid many hundreds of dollars of the peoples' tax money for printing that could have been saved, but what do they care about saving the taxpayers any money, as they can make the tax rate according to what they desire and the law allows, and if they pay extra profits to some one for the things the county needs the taxpayers are the ones that suffer and not the officials of the Commissioners' Court. We don't give a darn whether we ever get one red cent out of the county for printing, and we have never begged them to give us any business, our editorial columns are not for sale and when they refuse or fail to give us any business, it leaves us under no obligations to the court, and therefore we have no fear of loss of business when we wish to tell the people a few facts concerning their actions. But we say, and will prove what we say if given an opportunity, that they have paid more for their printing in this county than they should have paid if they had been fair and square with the Beacon man and let him bid on the county printing. But we are in Precinct No. 2, therefore, we don't expect anything worthwhile from the Commissioners' Court of this county, notwithstanding the fact that we are taxpayers just as same as the people who live in Precinct No. 1 and the other precincts of the county. There are two road opening programs in Precinct No. 2, the road along the Fort Worth and Denver railroad across the county, and the Lee Highway, or Highway 28, from the county line on the west, along the Santa Fe railroad into the town of Lockney, and if the Commissioners' Court has the right to issue warrants for the paving of the square around the court house and the building of an expensive culvert on the Floydada-Ralls road, and the right to take money out of the Road and Bridge Fund, and issue warrants against the Road and Bridge Fund in payment for same, they have the same right to issue warrants against the road and bridge fund to pay the expense of opening the roads that are necessary in Precinct No. 2, and the taxpayers of Precinct No. 2 have just as much right to their pro rata of the road and bridge fund as does any other precinct in the county, especially when the taxable values in Precinct No. 2 have increased more in the past three years than the valuations in any precinct in the county. The election is at hand this year, the primary will be held in July, and a new set of officers can be elected in the November election. It behooves the people of Precinct No. 2 to know who they are voting for in the race for County Judge, and be sure what their commissioner stands for in Precinct No. 2, and at the same time be sure that county judge stands for a fair deal to every part of the county, and that their own commissioner will fight every improvement program in the county in other precincts, until the commissioners of the other three precincts are willing to give Precinct No. 2 a fair deal in the road and other matters of the county. It is one thing to discriminate against a precinct, and another thing to rub it in, and that is just what we consider has been happening to Precinct No. 2 for the past six years in Floyd county. Since we have been in the county there has not been an unfair proposition presented to the Commissioners' Court from Precinct No. 2, that we can call to mind, and if there has been an unfair proposition presented it is not known to the people of this precinct, all we have ever asked is a fair and square deal, and every time what we have asked for has been rejected by the court in regard to the two highways that are essential to the welfare of this precinct, and the only way we see to remedy this unfair practice is to use our vote and influence at the ballot box for men that we can count on being fair to us in all business pertaining to the operation of the county affairs, and in the Commissioners' Court, which is composed of the county judge and a commissioner from each precinct lies the matter of whether or not we get a fair, square deal for the money that we pay into the county for taxes to help maintain the county and take care of the road propositions of the county. By the people of Precinct No. 2 staying together, voting for the same men, and giving the candidates to understand that we expect and intend to have a square deal in the disbursement of the county money, and expect and demand that we get our roads opened and put in shape the same as other roads in the county, we can and will get a square deal. The trouble in the past has been we listen to a lot of tommyrot, and split our voting strength. We expect within the next few weeks to ask the men in the race for commissioner of Precinct No. 2 a few pointed questions as to how they stand on certain subjects, also ask the men in the county judge's race where they stand on certain subjects and we will publish the answers, and any that refuse to answer will be considered against the things that are for the best interests of the people of Precinct No. 2 and the voters in this precinct can be governed accordingly.

people living on the Plains, more chance for a crop failure that will badly handicap the country and retard progress, and more financially embarrassed farmers, who have tried to play the farming game on a big scale and have lost. The planting of large acreages to wheat should be discouraged, instead of encouraged, just as planting of large acreages to cotton. Plan smaller acreages to all crops except feed, have more than one harvesting season this year, and the country will develop twice as fast as it will under an all wheat, all cotton program. It is very doubtful when the wheat harvest is in this year that the amount of bushels will exceed 25,000,000 or 30,000,000, and maybe not that much, and why cut the throats of the farmers of this section by estimating a bumper crop, clear out of proportion, just for a lot of publicity.

FARMERS GIVING THEIR QUOTA FOR TEXAS PROSPERITY

Undismayed by low prices of their staple products, Texas farmers and stockraisers are planning in 1930 to make their full quota in the campaign to make Texas prosperous, and even the casual reader of Texas newspapers cannot but be impressed with the time and thought and effort the farmers are giving to their part.

They will materially reduce their acreage in cotton, in line with the thought of crop and economic experts, and strive to improve the quality through the planting of better seed. Victor Schoffelmeyer, farm editor of the Dallas News, asserts that Texas is planting the largest feed crop in its history, basing his assertion on reports from every section of the state. Not only is this a contribution to reducing cotton acreage, it is pointed out, but it is a further help to the increase in dairying, poultrying and diversified farming.

Back of it all is a stern determination "to live at home." Reports from over the state show that those farmers who raised enough feedstuffs for their dairy herds, hogs, beef cattle and poultry are "in pretty fair condition." And there have been many cases in which the profits from dairy cows, livestock, truck farming and other diversified products met the deficit resulting from cotton. From all over the state comes reports of farm activities along these lines and of some experimentation in search for other profitable crops.

Wichita Falls with its irrigated district will have several acre-plats planted to baby lima beans, heretofore largely grown in California where yields of as high as 3,500 pounds to the acre have made it a very profitable crop. It is adapted to hot, dry climates where irrigation is available.

How general the movement is some briefs from over the state show. . . Waco packing houses are paying out $1,000,000 a month for poultry in McLennan and adjoining counties. . . Swisher county has an annual income of $1,500,000 from dairy products with 5,000 dairy cows. Growth of the industry started there in 1922 with organization of the first bull circle in the state. Nacogdoches county is going in for 70 acres in blackeyed peas, using what is known as "poor, wormout sandy soils that are not fit for anything else," believing that the pea legume will rebuild the lost fertility. Wise county is starting a 10-year demonstration on the value of legumes as soil-builders for wornout farms.

The Borden plant at Waco, built less than a year ago, is receiving 60,000 pounds of milk a day and wants to reach 100,000 by May 20, its first anniversary! Ballinger is shipping two cars of eggs a week to Eastern markets and expects a $50,000 income from that one source during the spring season. Slaton is running two hatcheries with a combined capacity of 600,000 eggs and is expecting a profitable season.

Cooke County, seeking 300 dairy cows for a co-operative creamery, has 200 of them already pledged. Cold frames in East Texas have millions of tomato plants for the big acreage to be devoted to that crop this year, following the profitable season of 1929. McLean has established a big new incubator handling 150 dozen eggs and is expecting to put out a big poultry crop this spring.

The instances cited are but few of the scores that might be listed. They are mentioned only because they are typical of what many other sections and areas are doing this year. It's great to be a Texan!

WHEAT PROSPECT IS GOOD NOW

The recent rains have put the wheat crop in good condition for the time being, but we are not as optimistic as Henry Ansley of the Amarillo News, and we will believe that this year's wheat crop is 51,000,000 bushels when the wheat has been cut and marketed and the government announces that is the amount of the yield. When Henry made his predictions he must have been talking to the wheat speculators and wanted to run the price down, and due to the fact that there never was that many bushels of wheat raised on the Panhandle-Plains of Texas, we don't look upon his forecast as being very profitable to the farmers who have wheat in their granaries at this time, nor for the farmers who are growing wheat this year, and while the rain coming at this time gave the farmers a chance to make a good crop, it is a long time until harvest, and there are a thousand things that could happen to cut the yield down, therefore, his forecast, as we see it is a deriment to the wheat grower in any light you might take it, at this time. There is just one thing the matter with the Panhandle-Plains country today, and that is that they have too many acres planted to wheat for their own good, it means fewer

JOHN DEERE No. 5

Built in 10- and 12-Foot Sizes)

A New John Deere Combine with Wide Tread-Balanced Draft-Light Weight-Hinged Platform-Three Wheels in Line

Be sure to see the new John Deere No. 5 Combine. It has these features that mean money to you:

- 1. DEPENDABILITY-The John Deere No. 5 will give you that same dependable, low-cost service for which other John Deere machines have become famous. It will stay on the job when time means money and do good work for years.
2. BALANCED DRAFT-Combine hitches directly behind tractor-wide tread main wheels straddle the tractor's wheel tracks. High, wide wheels provide more wheel area than any other combine of its type. These features, along with light weight, mean LIGHTER DRAFT.
3. THREE WHEELS IN LINE-This construction insures flexibility for good work on uneven ground. Platform is hinged to the combine frame.
4. EASY TO OPERATE-From the convenient operator's platform one man has instant and practically complete control of his machine. Simplicity of design makes it easy for most anyone to do good work with a John Deere.

- 5. SAVES, CLEANS THE GRAIN-Cutting, elevating, threshing, separating and cleaning units do good work in varying conditions. In every part, the John Deere is designed to save the grain and deliver it clean to the grain tank. The easily controlled header and reel, the roomy feeder house, the clean-threshing cylinder and concaves, the efficient separating devices, the extra long separating shoe and the sieve in the tailings elevator all contribute to its exceptionally good work. Plenty of capacity in all units to handle heavy crops.
6. HIGH-GRADE BEARING EQUIPMENT-Anti-friction roller and ball bearings, Dorex oil-retaining bearings, high grade bronze and oil-soaked maple bearings used at all main friction points, according to requirements, reduce draft and lengthen life.
7. GREASE GUN OILING-Every bearing equipped for thorough, quick-oiling from outside machine with grease guns.
8. POWERFUL MOTOR-Plenty of reserve power to maintain correct operating speed in heavy grain. Clutch, throttle levers and a handy switch for instant stopping are located on the operator's platform.

COMPARE VALUES BEFORE YOU BUY AN AUTOMOBILE

Low charges for distribution of the new Ford save you at least $50 to $75 in addition to the many savings in making the car

THESE are days when every dollar counts. The period of reckless spending is over. People are going back to the good old-fashioned principles of thrift and economy. Value is again being carefully considered.

Nowhere is this more important than in the selection of an automobile. For the purchase of a car represents a considerable investment. It should not be decided on hurriedly, but only after analyzing every important factor that concerns cost, value and performance. The time to do this is before buying—not afterward when it is too late.

ON THE basis of cost, performance and the actual comparative worth of every part, the new Ford is a value far above the price you pay. It is made of better materials and with greater care and accuracy because of the recognized efficiency and economy of Ford manufacturing methods.

The value of these methods is known and understood by millions of people. It is not generally realized, however, that these same principles of efficiency and economy are applied also to every step in the distribution of the Ford car. The low cost of selling, financing time payments, etc., means a direct saving to you of at least $50 to $75 in addition to the money saved by Ford economies in making the car. Here are three reasons why this is so.

(1) The Ford dealer does business on a smaller margin of profit because of the greater number of cars he sells. His discount or commission is the lowest of any automobile dealer. The difference in your favor, ranging from 25% to nearly 50%, comes right off the price you pay for the car.

(2) The Ford charges for financing are low.

(3) No expensive extra equipment is needed when you buy a Ford. The car leaves the factory ready for use. The f.o.b. price includes a Triplex shatter-proof glass windshield and an extra steel-spoke wheel, in addition to four Houdaille double-acting shock absorbers and fully enclosed four-wheel brakes. Any accessories you may wish for your individual taste are sold considerably below the usual prices. None of these charges for selling, financing or accessories is marked up or increased to cover a high trade-in allowance on a used car.

Get all the facts, therefore, before you buy and figure out just what you are getting for your automobile dollars. Go beyond the f.o.b. price and find out how much more you pay the dealer than the dealer pays at the factory. Analyze the used-car allowance. Compare all charges—item for item—value for value.

WHEN you do this you will have a new appreciation of what the Ford Motor Company and Ford dealers are doing to keep down the cost of Ford cars. You will also know why it is possible to put so much real value into the new Ford and still retain the low price. The money you pay goes for value in the car. It is not wasted in excessive costs in manufacturing or selling.

CENSUS BUREAU GIVES GOVERNMENT'S IDEA OF WHAT IS TERMED FARM

Farmers of the Panhandle, who beginning April 1, will have several hundred questions to answer before they fill out the complicated census form used especially for agriculturists, will have the word "farm" defined for them in fairly clear terms so that they will at least know what occupation they are in.

It is the intent of the present administration and the census bureau to make the farm census more comprehensive than ever before, due in part to all the talk about farm relief that has been made within recent years. An exact knowledge, it is believed will enable some real constructive steps to be taken toward solution of the farmers' problems.

The exact definition of a farm was necessary because of the need for comparison of the number of farms from one decennial period to the next. This is obviously the only way in which such a comparison could be made—to keep the standard of description the same.

The last census, 1920, revealed some interesting facts concerning the number of farms and proportion of farm land in Texas. For purposes of comparison, it will be interesting to note the figures when they are completed this year.

Texas 70 Per Cent Farms

The last census showed that 70 per cent of all Texas land was farmed. There are 167,934,720 farms in the state, and 114,020,620 in-farms on that date. There were 436,033 farms in the state, and the average value of all farm considered was $39.01 per acre. In the Panhandle, it is estimated, the average value of all possible farm land is somewhat less than that.

A farm, according to the census bureau, is all the land farmed by one person, whether it is three acres or three thousand acres.

The amount of farm land owned by one person has nothing to do with the definition of a farm so far as the census bureau is concerned. The question is not how much land does he own but how much does he operate or farm. A man who owns 300 acres might farm half of it himself and rent the other half out to three tenants, 50 acres to each. This would go down on the census records as four farms, because the land farmed each man is considered as a unit.

On the other hand, one man might rent various tracts of land from 10 different owners. He might rent a few acres on shares, a few more from somebody else for money rent, and the rest from other people on different terms. The different pieces of land might be widely separated. If they were all farmed and operated by one man, however, they would all be put down together as one farm. If, however, a separate manager were hired to supervise a certain portion of the land, that portion would go down as a separate farm.

It's Complicated Matter

No tract of land less than three acres will be registered as a farm unless it produced more than $250 worth of farm products last year. In the census of 1920 if a piece of land of less than three acres was farmed by a man who gave his entire time to the task, it was listed as a farm regardless of how little it produced, but this year none of these small tracts will be counted unless they produced $250 worth of products, regardless of how many people spent their full time cultivating the area. (It is estimated that approximately 5,000 tracts of less than three acres in the United States are farmed by individuals who give their full time to the occupation.) This change in the classification of farms is the only difference between the census enumeration in 1930 from those of 10 years ago.

There is necessarily a borderland between what is a farm and what is not. Small places on the edge of towns and villages are often the homes of city workers who undertake to keep a cow, some chickens, and probably cut a little hay or raise a large garden or small crop. If the agricultural products from such a place amounted to more than $250 in 1929, it will be returned as a farm, regardless of how much or how little time the city worker gave to his farming pursuits, and regardless of how small the tract of land tended. Indeed, if a man living on Fifth Avenue in New York City raised more than $250 worth of strawberries or asparagus on a lot 50 by 100 feet, his place would be returned as a farm. The value of the agricultural products is the criterion.

On the other hand, a large country place of 10, 15 or 20 acres may not necessarily qualify as a farm. Actual farming or agricultural operations must be carried out before any tract of land will be classed in this category. A large country estate of a retired capitalist is not a farm if all the work done around the place consists in mowing the lawns and clipping the hedges. If the estate is of more than three acres, however, a very small amount of agricultural products could give it the rank of a farm, regardless of whether the products amounted to $250 or not. In such a case as this, it would be up to the judgment of the census enumerator to decide whether agricultural operations were being carried out. Farm land is considered "operated" not only when cultivated crops are raised on it, but also when it is used to any significant extent for pasture or for cutting hay.

A number of agricultural pursuits not usually considered by the average person as farming comes within the census bureau's definition. All market and truck gardens, fruit orchards, nurseries, greenhouses, poultry yards, places for keeping bees, and all dairies in or near cities, even though little land is employed, are, for census purposes, farms, provided they produced in 1929 agricultural products of the value of at least $250. If such places are of more than three acres, they are farms regardless of the value of their produce.

In 1925, the last year in which a farm census was taken in the United States, there were 15,151 farms of less than three acres. The total number of farms in the nation was 6,371,640.

'Probably Ends Hope of Prison Reform,' Governor Declares

Austin, Texas, March 16.—"The Lieutenant Governor has betrayed the majority vote in the Senate on the prison bill, and probably has ended the hope of substantial prison reform for this session."

This was the burden of a statement made Saturday by Gov. Dan Moody occasioned by Mr. Miller's appointment Friday, before leaving for Abilene, of a new conference committee on the prison bills that included four Senators who have voted against establishing any new unit of the system. Though the majority has been small, the Senate has voted consistently in favor of such a plan of prison reorganization. The statement of Governor Moody follows:

"In appointing the free conference committee on the prison bill, the Lieutenant Governor betrayed the majority vote in the Senate on this bill and he probably ended the hope of substantial prison reform for the present."

"It is the established precedent of both branches of the Legislature for the presiding officer, in appointing free conference committees, to name a majority of the committee from among those who have voted with the majority on the bill to be considered by the free conference committee, and to give the minority on the measure fair representation. But Friday the Lieut. Governor, in appointing free conference committees on the prison bill and on the sulphur tax bill, departed from this custom. He appointed a free conference committee on the prison bill with a majority of four out of five of its members named from among those who have been voting with the minority in the Senate on this legislation.

The Good OLD DAYS

—When we equip office and workshop with invention and power that shorten the working day;

—When electrical servants in the home free the day of its ancient tasks—

Modern industry has presented to us the gift of leisure hours.

There is no chorus from industry that our civilization is too highly mechanized, nor from the emancipated workers of America that the craftsmanship of former times is being destroyed. There is no insistence from the women of America that we return to the domestic era of the wash-tub, the stifling range and the dusty broom.

Twenty million homes connected for electric service evidences no desire for "the good old days."

Texas Utilities Co.

Your Electric Servant

"Entitled to Representation." "I have not a word to say against any individual appointed by the Lieutenant Governor. I attribute to each of them absolute sincerity in their convictions and they are entitled to their convictions, but the majority of the Senate favoring prison reform was entitled to a majority representation on the free conference committee and this was not given by the Lieutenant Governor in his appointments.

"The efforts that have been put forth for substantial prison reform in this State and the expense that has been incurred in an effort to solve the vexing prison problem were probably dashed against the ground by the biased action on the part of the Lieutenant Governor. The majority of the Senate favoring prison reform has made concession after concession, but the minority was given superior voting strength on the free conference committee.

"And a conference committee on the sulphur tax was appointed with all except possibly one member favoring only a 50c tax.

"Nothing can be expected now except a bill providing either for the construction of a prison plant on one of the penitentiary farms or the appropriation of money to patch up existing properties. Neither will reach the cause of losses, amounting to millions of dollars, which the people of Texas have sustained in the attempted operation of the present prison system. While the present properties at Huntsville are used as a prison system there are some needed repairs that should be made, but to go beyond this in undertaking to patch up the prison plant at Huntsville and make a modern institution out of it would only be sending good money after bad.

Not Friendly, He Says The attempt to build a modern penitentiary plant on one of the lower farms, subject to the overflows of Oyster Creek and the Brazos River, would be a reckless expenditure of funds which had been advised against by a vast majority of the people who have investigated.

"I have known all the time that the Lieutenant Governor was not friendly to the prison reform I have advocated and which was endorsed by a majority of the Prison Centralization Commission, appointed under the act of the Forty-First Legislature, and voted for by the majority of the Senate, but I did not expect him to deal it what it appears to be a mortal blow by the use of his power as a presiding officer in the appointment of a free conference committee."

She Hath Done What She Could Maggie Enla Srysum was born on Dec. 21st, 1860 and died March 15th, 1930, being 69 years, 2 months, and 22 days of age. She was married to Thomas Jefferson Graham Dec. 21st, 1880. To this union was born fourteen children, eight are living.

The following children survive her: Rev. Y. E. Graham, Amarillo, Texas; R. H. Graham, Vernon, Texas; P. E. Graham, Mangum, Okla.; W. B. Graham, Ima, N. M.; L. M. Graham, Floydada, Texas; H. H. Graham, Floydada, Texas; Mrs. Annie Duck, Cameron, N. M., and H. E. Graham of Oklahoma City, Okla.

Mrs. Graham was converted at 12 years of age and united with the Methodist church and has been an active member all her life.

She leaves her husband, T. L. Graham with whom she walked these nearly fifty years, her children that live to cherish her memory, and the grandchildren, besides a host of friends, and one sister Mrs. Bert Hale, of Clarendon, who was present for the funeral.

Servant of God well done Thy glorious warfare's past The battle fought the race is won. And thou art planned at last.

Let faith exalt her joyful voice And now in triumph sing O, Grave where is thy victory, And, where, O, death, thy sting.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. H. Strong.

KNOW TEXAS

During 1928 Texas set a new high record of charters issued, 2,630 corporations with capital of $285,612,000 being organized. Permits to 329 outside corporations were granted, making a total of 2,959 new enterprises entering business in the state during the year.

Building permits issued in thirty-five principal cities during 1929 totaled $114,502,000. Construction and engineering projects totaled $217,000,000.

Texas has many good hotels, is going to have more. The new $120,000 Hotel Gregg, Longview, was opened in February. A $300,000 hotel at McAllen has reached the project stage. Dallas capital will spend $125,000 on a new fireproof hotel at Quanah. The Heising, Beaumont, is to be remodeled into an apartment hotel at a cost of $150,000. Belton is to have a completely remodeled and modernized hotel at a cost of $125,000. The Marshall will be opened at Marshall in April. Contract has been let for a $280,000 hotel at Stephenville.

And schools!... Lubbock is to spend $650,000 on a new high school.

Plainview will spend $120,000 on increasing its public school facilities. Plans are being drawn for a $300,000 high school at Mercedes. Crystal City has let contract for a $60,500 high school building. Much of the new public building program in Texas for 1930 is in new school and equipment.

Echoes of the mud-bound conditions that obtained during January in a few Texas counties are heard in road improvements projected or arranged for during 1930. El Paso sold $700,000 of its 1928 road bonds for 1930 road work. Dawson county will vote April 8 on $600,000 highway bonds. Moore county is planning a vote this summer on $366,000 worth of the same kind. A new highway from Oklahoma City to El Paso via Carlsbad Caverns is projected by different counties along the proposed route. And that some attention is being paid to the esthetic improvement of Texas highways is indicated in a Tyler story announcing that the Smith county council of women's home demonstration clubs has started a campaign for planting redwoods and dogwoods along all Smith county roads.

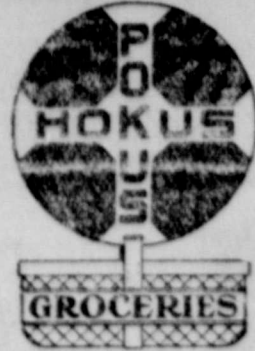

The Denison shops of the Katy will build 500 70-ton coal cars for that road. Of the $6,250,000 improvement budget for 1930, the Katy will spend more than a third on its Texas lines.

To take care of present and near-future needs of the Big Bend country, a 11-kv line of 23.7 miles long is being built between Marfa and Fort Davis by the Central Power & Light Co. Over two-thirds of the quicksilver produced in the United States comes from this district, and Fort Davis is developing materially as a popular summer resort.

A comprehensive city plan for Houston has been completed by the City planning Commission after three year's work and contemplates the future of Houston as one of the major cities of the United States. Carrying out of the plans will cost around $9,000,000 and includes division of the city into zones of development, widening, straightening and opening of streets and acquisition of parks and parkways as major features.

Cherokee county is setting out for fewer acres and a better staple in cotton. Tomatoes, pasture grasses, more cattle and hogs, more dairy products and the feedstuffs on which to produce them, more gardens, more chickens and soil conservation are high points in that East Texas county's campaign for agricultural prosperity.

Again Konjola Gives Proof of Amazing Power

Ten Years of Rheumatism Are Ended When New Medicine Is Given A Chance

MRS. G. H. COLEMAN

What cheer and encouragement are to be found in the many victories of Konjola, the new and different medicine of 32 ingredient. Take, as a typical example of Konjola at work, the case of Mrs. G. H. Coleman, R. F. D. No. 3, Ft. Smith, Ark. imagine her happiness when she was able to say,

"When I look back and think how I suffered from rheumatism and kidney trouble for ten years I can hardly believe that I am well and happy as I am today. And all this glorious change is due to Konjola. For ten years I endured awful agonies. At times the pain in my limbs was so severe that I could not get around. Every night I was up many times, and the loss of sleep and rest told on my general health. A friend urged me to try Konjola, and what good advice that proved to be. In four weeks I was without a sign of rheumatism, and my kidneys were as good as ever. No wonder Konjola is the most talked of medicine in America. It should be in every home throughout the land."

Konjola is sold in Lockney at Stewart Drug Co., and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

Floyd county will have two judging teams at the show. One from Lockney directed by D. Turner, and one from Floydada directed by O. T. Williams.

Two new buildings will be ready for the Third Annual Show. One will house the first farm machinery exhibit show on the Plains.

A Pure Food Show at the City Auditorium will help entertain the ladies.

Wheeler county will send a large delegation to the show. The Shamrock Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the trip.

A Dairy Short Course at Lamesa under the supervision of W. W. Evans, county agent, will precede the show at Plainview.

Terry county and Collingsworth County will probably be represented with a County Herd this year, at the show.

A two-day herd improvement school will be held at Canyon on March 28-29.

Briscoe county will be represented by a number of entries and a large group of farmers, according to W. M. Gourley, Vocational Agriculture Teacher.

Lamb and Castro counties plan a special day at the show.

Swisher county will storm the show one day, and will again capture the majority of the prizes, according to R. C. Mitchell, prominent Jersey breeder.

Twenty Guernsey entries have been received from Carson county and at least ten more are expected. Geo. P. Grout, vocational agricultural instructor at Panhandle, is sponsoring the dairy exhibit from that county.

SIDELIGHTS

By Marvin Jones, Member of Congress from Texas.
Southward, as well as westward, the star of Empire takes its way.

We have reached the end of an epoch in the history of our country.
New England industry is on the wane. The South and Southwest have been growing and building.

The coming decade will witness the greatest development in the Southern and Southwestern States that has ever taken place within the borders of America.

In making this statement I am not merely expressing my own views. It represents the viewpoint of practically every one who has studied these conditions.

What are the influences that are bringing about this new development? Why are men of experience advising young men to seek their fortunes in this fast growing section?

Here is the reason:—
The South and Southwest today possess much of the reserve supply of the natural resource of America, the raw material out of which so many thousands of articles are being made.

The South has a large reserve supply of timber, coal and iron.
The Southwest has a large reserve supply of the world's oil, natural gas and hydro-electric power.

Our portion of the Union has, in large measure, a natural monopoly on cotton, cotton seed and cotton seed oil. We have the finest wheat lands in America.

In addition to all these advantages, the Southwest has a climate and a fertile soil with which no other section of the world can compare.

If properly utilized, her coal, oil, natural gas, and water-power will give her a tremendous advantage over New England—that of cheap power with which to transform her raw materials into the finished article. By saving the freight charges from New England to the Southern States, our factory owners would prosper, our laborers could be well paid, and our section would grow wealthy.

When the fact becomes generally known in Texas and surrounding States are practically free from tuberculosis among the cattle, while the cattle of the Northern States, and especially the Northeastern States, are infested to a dangerous degree, the demand for our dairy products will be greater than can be supplied.

According to the Department of Commerce, our industries have tripled in the last decade.

As a dairying section, we are destined to lead the Nation. Our soil, climate and abundance of feed materials give us advantages with which other sections cannot compete.

The South has passed through the stress period that followed the Civil War, and a new day is dawning. She is destined to lead the world in the triumphant march of future progress.

THE GIFTS

(By Daisy Arbor)

One day Betty came home thrilled with excitement. She told Harry that there was to be a great art contest in the city and that the winner would receive twenty-five thousand dollars. The winner would be the person who produced the best work of art. Betty, who was now seventeen, assured Harry that she could win it if she could only secure the material. Harry was equally as interested as Betty, and he promised her that he would, in some way, obtain the money necessary for the purchase of the material. Seeing no other means of getting the money, he took his watch, which he prized very highly because it was his only token from his mother, to a prominent jeweler and sold it. He asked the jeweler to keep the watch so that he might regain it when he was able.

After Betty began her work on the project, she stayed in her room, alone most of the time that she was at home. She often went to the park, but she never asked Harry to accompany her. He marvelled at her strange actions but refrained from speaking about them. Betty worked days and days and at last she completed her work. She seemed very pleased with it, but she would not allow Harry to see it. Each hour she contemplated her joy if she should be the winner. At last the day for the contest arrived and Betty carried her painting to the great Art Hall. There she saw many beautiful paintings made by the other contestants, but none like hers, she thought. Hordes of people were passing up and down the long hall looking at them. Each work was carefully examined by experienced artists and finally they made their decision.

Her dreams came true. Betty Lamar received the twenty-five thousand dollars! Her painting was a masterpiece which had never been equaled. How happy she was that evening as she went home and waited for Harry. When she heard his footsteps, she ran forward and held out the check. "Harry this will repay you a small part for what you have done for me." "Oh, Betty, how proud I am of you! The whole city is talking about it. Take me to see it."

They walked swiftly to the art hall. When Harry looked at Betty's masterpiece, he was greatly shocked. There before him was the exact reproduction of the spot where he had met Betty. There he stood holding out his dime to a timid little girl who had a bouquet of wilted flowers. As he looked at the picture, he imagined that the actions were really taking place once more.

After leaving the art hall, they knew not why, but they walked to the old house where Betty once lived with her grandmother. They were surprised to see a light inside the old house, but they could hear no noise. Entering cautiously they saw a drunkard lying on the floor in one corner. He was breathing heavily. Near him was a broken bottle. There was the same bed and chair but a layer of dust covered everything. Harry noticed that the old decayed mattress was raised in the center. Lifting it up, they saw several bottles of liquor, evidently put there by the drunkard. While lifting up the mattress, one corner split, and Betty saw something inside. She pulled out several papers which were yellow with age. They examined them and found that one was a will left by Betty's grandmother. Hearing the noise of approaching footsteps at that time, they left the old house, taking the papers along with them. When they reached home, they examined them more carefully. They were shocked when they read the will which said that Harry Chesterfield and Betty Lamar were to receive three thousand dollars each. The mystery was explained by a note, which said that Harry Chesterfield was the son of the grandmother's only daughter, who had died many years before. The note further stated that the last request of the grandmother was that Betty should seek to find Harry and give him his share of the money.

"So Betty, you are my cousin, said Harry. "Now we are neither one without relatives." "How glad I am!" exclaimed Betty. "God has given me two gifts; the gift of an artist, and dearest of all, He has given me you." (The end)

Don't forget the night classes in Agriculture and Home Economics at the school building Thursday night at 8 o'clock. Be there!

My Main Street

The fog is a veil for the city's eyes. The moon is a dream-born face. The sounds from the street where a deep mist lies Are drifts from a far off place.

Somewhere beyond the wall of now, In a village deep in the hills, Twilight will come—you remember how?— With the fluting of whippoorwills.

Crickets will talk as the night comes down, And after the sweating day, Friendship will drone through the little town, And I half the world away!

On the village street where elms swing low Lovers will saunter by, And a tender light that I used to know Will filter the moonlit sky.

There's a fog on the city's walls tonight, The moon's a forgotten face, But the mists that drift down its shadowed light Are ghosts from my heart's own place. —S. Omar Barker.

Trade Winds

Oh, I have listened to the wind That blew upon the hills, But never its song the same as that At sea when a white sail fills.

Shore winds are part of the incense, With a breath o'rose and musk— But give me the seaweed tang that drifts Abroad in a tropical dusk.

I'm longing for the ocean's song, And the trade wind's steady sigh— For the wind that smoothes and steals away The note of a sea gull's cry. —Cristel Hastings.

Signs by Which Sophs Are Recognized 1. Wild noises in the corridor. 2. Disorder in the study hall. 3. Silly conversations. 4. Perpetual yawning. 5. Loud-voiced girls. 6. Rough-neck boys. 7. Sour grape expressions. 8. Conceit amusing to upper classmen.

St. Patrick's Day

The Shamrock, sweet, is blooming, Away across the sea. This little bit of Ireland Blooms in my home for me.

Our hearts are gaily singing, For spring is on the way So let us all be merry This bright St. Patrick's Day.

We'll greet our Irish brother In fellowship serene, And all go out together, A-wearin' o' the green! —Anonymous.

HIGH SCHOOL P. T. A. PRESENTS DRAPERIES TO DEPARTMENT. The High School P. T. A. presented the Home Economics Department with draperies for the dining room windows last week. The draperies are of old rose back ground with yellow gold figures and will be hung on a harmonizing curtain rod. Foods Class Serving Luncheons. The Foods Class started serving luncheons this week. This is a very light meal consisting of two or perhaps three courses and it is very often served cold. The girls are inviting their own guests and they are responsible for the preparing and serving of the meal as they have planned it. The class will next take up the study of dinners. They will first consider the foods to be used in a more elaborate meal and then plan and serve the dinner menus.

Agriculture Judging Team to Lubbock

The agriculture plant-production team of our high school will go to Lubbock to judge grain sorghums and small grains, to grade cotton and to do grafting and budding in competition with several other teams from surrounding high schools. This team is composed of Andrew Moore, Harold Griffith, Fred Corder, and Kline Nall. Another team will go also to judge dairy cattle. The boys to compose this team will be selected this week. This contest will be held in Lubbock Monday, March 24.

LOCKNEY HIGH SCHOOL BASEBALL. The girls base ball team was defeated by the grammar school team Thursday, and Friday Sand Hill defeated them. They were beaten by a large score, but considering the practice, the high school girls did well. With some drill these girls will be hard to defeat. Several more girls have started playing recently and a team for the county meet will be selected this week. We feel sure there will be enough to select from to have a winning team. Those working with Miss Boedeker are: Agnes Cooper, Evelyn McDonald, Lela Comer, Lois Good, Esther Mae Hodel, Opal Floyd, Mildred Ramsey, Elsie Anderson, Vada Teaver, Ineta Wilkinson, Kathryn Miller, Nettie Mae Wilkinson, and Kathryn Harris.

6A GIVES DISTRICT TRACK MEET

For chapel program, Tuesday morning of this week, room 6A presented a district track meet.

The room had divided themselves into four schools, Plainview, Lockney, Lubbock, and Floydada; and had met in Lockney for the meet.

Each school had an organized pep squad, with colors flying; and one or more representatives in every game. Mr. Huff of the Piggly Wiggly gave the class the materials for decorations and school colors. They were a great help to the success of the program.

The following events were scheduled and took place in due order. Hurdle race, Bone of Contention, Vical High Jump, Pot Shoot, Hunker throw, hunning high squeal, newspaper race, bawl game, draft race, cracker race, feather blow, shoe scramble, peanut race, blind high hurdles, and water drinking relay.

M. L. Wodworing was athletic director. Other officials were R. C. Dyer and H. F. Brotherton.

Each player winning a first place was decorated with a huge medal, somewhat resembling silver in appearance.

The Lockney school having won the highest score, was presented with a sumptuous sweepstake cup of a silvery-white metal.

All of the contestants came back to realities by getting together and giving fifteen rabs for their teachers. They closed the program by singing the following song, to the tune of 'Long, Long Trail.'

It's a short, short time 'till track meet; So let us work while we may, With a zeal for every moment Of the while bright day. There's no use of looking gloomy, We can win at the fair; If our skill we'll all be training, In this short, short time to spare.

But make them keep a memory Of an all round fight.

It's a short, short time till that day; But we'll not shed our tears, We'll beat 'em no matter they've ever been, For more'n three dozen years.

SAND HILL GIRLS LOSE TO LOCKNEY GRADE GIRLS

Thursday afternoon the Sand Hill girls' base ball team met the Lockney grade girls' team in a most interesting base ball game. The final score was 24-4 in favor of the Lockney girls.

These two teams had played one game previous to this one, in which Sand Hill was the victor. The Lockney girls used their heads and played far better base ball in the last game than they did in the first.

We feel sure now that we shall be able to defeat any team at the fair.

The pupils are to bring their charts to school each Monday morning for four weeks to receive credits. If the record is good the pupil is rewarded by receiving a gold star posted on his chart.

A class room honor roll will be kept and each child will be graded according to the excellence of his records. Pupils having the best records for all four weeks will receive Merit badges.

"NEWS" BRIEFS

Alice has made a complete study of birds—so has Verner.

The world's record for fast chewing of gum was set by Ronald Monday morning in his first class. The funny part is he didn't seem to realize he was chewing till a "friendly" jibe from across the aisle nearly caused him to jump out of his seat—and worse yet, choke on his gum!

The window shades have such long cords on them—convenient to tie Estelle and other "little" girls to their desks just when in a hurry to leave class at the end of the period.

June lost a shoe in Civics class the other day. The lost article was found and returned quickly by Howard.

Let's not tell tales out of school, but Dr. Greer should watch his charge account for "Little Doc" is running the bill on five cents every day for chewing gum. Proof—look on the ground under the Civics room windows.

What is that? Where did you get it? When did you get it? Who went with you? How much did it cost? I want a bite? Where?—Just a Foods class.

When Mr. Jones announced that we were to have a period for chapel, the whole study hall was a buzz. Miss Boedeker said—"Get quite; you're not released yet." Wayne Greer—(Who had been studying industriously) replied—"I know it, but we're relieved."

Passing burning paper is not so easy, especially when a teacher is supposed to come in any moment. Hogue didn't get burned badly though!

Fortunately the history teacher wasn't looking when Y. F. tied Ray's scarf to the desk, causing her to fall when she started from the classroom.

Rexine had a birthday Tuesday and she received congratulations plentifully all day.

When asked in geometry class what the most difficult part of geometry is, Duane said, "The answer."

c Quien es muy inteligente? No es la clase le espanol!

Sir Walter Raleigh here? Yes, in history class! The flowers need water, so Leon gallantly offered to bring the water in. But now Mrs. Halthcock has a large bucket and only one trip is necessary. Gallantry disappearing? Slightly!

SCANDAL

Boogin looks and acts so lonesome. Miss Angel says that there are only two seniors who have any brains. Now, of course, we all know better.

We understand that Miss Thomson is going to have all the fences moved from around the gold course. Let us make a suggestion—how about a gate between each post?

How many letters did Carelton write Monday?

A good tennis team—Pop and Coach. Plain and fancy dish breaking, reasonable rates—See Evon Griffith.

JOKES

Mrs. Reid—I heard a noise and got up, and there under the bed I saw a man's leg. Neighbor—Good heavens! The burglar's?

Mrs. Reid—No, it was Coach's. He had heard the noise, too.

George K.—Would that I were a star in your heavens. Glenna—I'd rather see you a comet. George—Why? Glenna—Then you'd only come around every fifty years.

Boogin—When I was young, the doctor told me to stop smoking or I would become feeble minded. Wayne G.—Why didn't you stop? Boogin—

Today's Health Hint When you are excited never run and hide under a folding bed.

POPCORN FEAST IN THIRD A ROOM

The third A pupils have been studying about corn in geography. Popcorn proved to be their favorite kind of corn. So Monday morning the youngsters spent a happy time pppping enough lovely white corn to fill three dishpans. Then in the afternoon the second B and third B pupils with Mrs. Gilbert were invited to share their feast with them.

Savory Church Suppers That All Will Enjoy

By JOSEPHINE B. GIBSON
Director, Home Economics Dept.,
H. J. Heinz Company

PLANNING meals for a large group of persons, possibly a hundred or more, seems difficult to most of us, for it means thinking in much greater quantities than those to which we are accustomed. Yet church and community suppers require that someone be able to plan menus and estimate carefully the quantity of food needed.

Since these suppers usually are for the purpose of raising money, they should be as simple and inexpensive as possible, while furnishing ample quantities of nourishing and appetizing food. Below will be found two carefully planned menus, with complete recipes and the approximate quantities of food required to serve 150 people. If you will slip these suggestions into your cook book or recipe file, you may find them exceedingly helpful when you are called to serve on the entertainment committee.

Menu I

- Baked Ham
- Oven Baked Beans, Vegetable Stuffing
- Hot Rolls
- Cole Slaw
- Fresh Cucumber Relish
- Fig or Plum Pudding with Sauce
- Coffee

Baked Ham
1 ham (10 lbs. each), brown sugar, 5 cups pure cider vinegar, 5 whole cloves, 1/2 cup crumbs.

Cook the ham until tender. Peel off the skins, arrange in baking pans, and stick cloves over the surface of the hams. Make a syrup of the brown sugar and pure cider vinegar, and pour over them. Sprinkle with crumbs, and brown in a hot oven.

Baked beans may be purchased, if you do not wish to prepare them, in institutional sized cans, usually termed Number 10 Cans, which hold about a gallon each, and serve from 28 to 30 persons. Therefore, 5 or 6 of these large cans will be sufficient for 150 people.

Cole Slaw
12 lbs. cabbage; 1/2 cup chopped pickles; 1/2 cup chopped green pepper; 2 1/2 cups mayonnaise dressing; 1/2 cup pure cider vinegar; 1/2 cup sugar; salt, pepper.

Slice the cabbage and let soak in cold water one and one-half hours. Just before serving, drain off the water, mix the cabbage with the other ingredients, add dressing and serve.

Order a gallon of pickle relish to serve 150. A large can fig or plum pudding is enough for 12 to 15 people, so for 150 provide one dozen large puddings. Allow 2 rolls to each person, or 300 in all, and three pounds of butter cut in a butter slicer. Four pounds of coffee will be required for this number of people.

Menu II

- Beef Loaf
- Tomato Sauce
- Scalloped Potatoes
- Buttered Green Peas
- Queen Olives
- Mince Meat Pie
- Coffee

Beef Loaf
2 1/2 lbs. chopped meat; 3 qts. bread crumbs; 10 eggs; 2 1/2 qts. milk; 8 lb. onion; 6 green peppers; about 8 tablespoons salt; 2 tablespoons Worcestershire Sauce.

Chop the onions and seeded green peppers together quite fine. Add the meat, together with the breadcrumbs and salt. Beat the eggs slightly, add the milk and combine with the meat. Add salt to taste, and mix thoroughly. Weigh out into loaf pans which have been well greased, pressing well into the corners. This quantity makes about 7 five-pound loaves, cutting twenty-four slices each.

Tomato Sauce
2 institutional size cans cream of tomato soup; 2 1/2 cups flour; 1 1/2 cups fat. Melt fat in a large pan, add flour, and stir until well blended. Add tomato soup, and stir until thick. Cook for several minutes and serve. This makes a delicious tomato sauce and is quickly and easily prepared.

4 to 5 institutional-size cans of peas will be needed, or if ordinary number 2 cans (the size usually purchased for families) are used, 25 cans will be required. Two one-gallon cans of Spanish Queen olives will be sufficient.

Mince Meat Pie: Pastry
9 quarts flour; 10 teaspoons salt; 8 cups lard.

Mix flour and salt. Add lard, and blend thoroughly. Moisten to a dough with cold water, being careful not to use too much. This amount will make 26 pies. Each of these can be cut in 6 pieces, making 156 servings. To fill the pies, 5 or 6 institutional cans or about 14 two-pound jars of mince meat will be needed.
