Lockney Gin, Cotton Storage Blazes Tuesday Afternoon

The seed storage house at the Lockney Gin Company caught on fire Tuesday afternoon about 5 o'clock from an unknown source, causing about $20,000 loss. The fire truck and boys appeared on the scene within a few minutes after the alarm was in. When the fire extinguishers failed to check the fire, Edd Whitfill, manager of the gin, ordered the boys to turn the water on, and the fire was soon put out. The loss was covered by insurance.

Lockney Defeats Plainview In Polo Game Wednesday

The Lockney polo team defeated the Plainview team Wednesday night at the Lockney Roller Rink with a score of 12 to 14. Some game that turned out to be—some people say football is rough and this game on skates was the roughest and toughest you can possibly imagine. It was just one big crash after another.

Congratulations team! You just out-roughed them that's all. The Plainview team does not play by rules but by main force and plenty of brass. Miss Glenna Collins was the official.

Mother Of Tom Weeks Dies Wednesday Morning

The mother of Tom Weeks, Mrs. Etta Weeks died at her home at Wells Point Wednesday morning at 5:30. Mr. Weeks, who lives four or five miles west of town, was called to Wells Point last Saturday on account of her illness.

Mrs. Weeks is well known in and around Lockney having lived here about six years ago. She has visited here every year since moving away and has many friends in this section.

Bales Ginned Now 8,605,580

Cotton of this year's crop ginned prior to Oct. 18 was reported by the Census Bureau Wednesday to date totaled 8,605,580 running bales, exclusive of linters, counting 336,475 round bales as half bales and including 1,183 bales of American-Egyptian cotton.

To date last year 7,300,094 bales including 246,367 round bales and 2,526 bales of American-Egyptian, had been ginned.

Up until this evening (Thursday) he gins in the Lockney territory report 2,600 bales ginned. That report includes the two gins here in town and the South Plains gin. Last year approximately 4,000 bales were ginned in all and this year that number will be exceeded without a doubt, even though the farmers did plow up a portion of their crop.

The gins are running twenty-four hours a day and really turning out that fleecy white staple all bound up in bales which will mean more money for the farmers, the merchants, the cotton pickers, and the ginners. Every body should be happy and gay for 2,000 bales of cotton means about $150.

FLOYD CO. T. R. & R. C. ADMINISTRATOR HERE THURSDAY

Mr. Burd Bedford, Floyd Co. administrator of the T. R. & R. C. was here Thursday morning to see Mrs. Mrs. Smith, assistant administrator, about securing carpenters for the road project between Floydada and the Lockney county line.

V. A. Readhimer Is Freed By Jury

Vert A. Readhimer, 27 year old Floyd County farmer, was found not guilty of the slaying of Stokes Campbell, 19-year-old Floydada High School boy, on a street in Floydada last April 6, by a jury in district court at Lubbock.

The jury reached the verdict in less than two hours deliberation. His father, J. R. Readhimer, is also to be tried for the youth's slaying.

Longhorns To Open Conference Schedule Friday

The Lockney Longhorns are working hard this week in preparation for the opening of the Conference schedule Friday afternoon. The opponents will be Paducah and the game will be played there. Paducah has a strong team, having defeated the Floydada Whirlwinds 7-0 last Friday. Their passes worked against Floydada last Friday, but the Lockney boys are expecting to break up some of those this weekend.

Since school went on a short schedule Coach Cooper has been starting his workouts at 12:30 each day. He stated Tuesday afternoon that his squad looked good and if nothing happens the dope bucket may be upset before the season is over.

The Rotary Club of Lockney is sponsoring the trip to Paducah Friday.

They will furnish transportation for the team. Coach Cooper will probably take around 18 boys on the trip.

WHERE IS LOCKNEY'S CROWDS?

(By Jeane Suits)

Since visiting Plainview, Floydada, Lubbock, Tahoka, and other surrounding towns I have decided that Lockney isn't getting its share of the crowds on Saturday. The stores in the other towns are absolutely bulging with hundreds of people pushing in and out from 8:00 A. M. until 10:30 and 11:00 at night. At times it seems as if the walls will be compelled to expand or else just "burst" right out. Everybody seems to be in a hurry about something and believe me, you business is picking up!

What is wrong with Lockney? Why can't we get the crowds here? Oh of course more people come to town now and buy than a few months ago but nothing like they do in other villages. We are going to have to create some excitement of some sort and turn the noses of these West Texans toward the nose of our home town.

Why Not Send for The Fan Dancer?

I'll tell you, if it comes to a pinch, we will have to send for that famous fan dancer in Chicago to come out and perform for us, (and pray the cops don't "pinch" us) Oh, boy everybody would flock around like moths to a flame. Of course I realize that she is pretty high powered as far as salary is concerned but I really believe that Jean's contained nothing more than a few Indian copper heads!

Nevertheless, not only, but also, I had a grand time even though my pocket book was flat. Try dreaming and window shopping sometime 'cause its lots of fun. Oh, of course the awakening is disappointing but you'll have lots of the blues anyway.

It's President Roosevelt's day right just value your time and say he says we're going out of this one way or the other of the prevailing obfuscation. The same sort of spirit people need and when they something is bound to bust

I don't care to give a thing extra for that bit of information—just a matter of filling up.

Halloween is to be here Tuesday night and that wild frolics and strange mysteries spooks, ghosts, pumpkins, Jack-O-lanterns, drabs, black cats, witches, and a cynical moon. Strange people will dash back and forth, up and down the alleys, bark, and what not—unearthly yells, screams, groans, moans will travel through the air and behold—a human skeleton actually stalking up and down the main street. Pedestrians lead the way with the skeleton close behind popping his bones and clanking his teeth in staging a strong pursuit. The ole' lamp post on the corner which has always been so stanch, has begun to tremble and zig-zag in that modish lightning style—bang, crash! he lost his hat and now oh, how collegiate he looks without a sky piece.

Alas! dawn is here—all the mysterious people and strange happenings have vanished and all is calm on main street. Nothing so grotesque and uncanny will occur again until next Hallowe'en.

The funnest thing is that the City Council made the lamp post don another hat—said hatless, people were disrespectful. Well, maybe so, we'll not go into that just now but personally I think the idea a bit old fashioned.

For this week I say fair weather, sprinkled with a light shower, and perhaps topped with thin frosting ere the next Beacon reaches you. Some say it will surely frost by the first of November if not before then. Now, I'm not any quacker but if I were you housewives I would begin to snitch in those hot plants and dig up those choice flowers for it is better to be safe than sorry. Beware of the white coating which is bound to come!

Well, how's that winter wardrobe coming along ere now? Is you key color brown, black, navy, or neither? The editor of this column was in Amarillo not long hence, just speculating you know, and of all the handsome, handsome, wearing apparel directly from
