

Top corn yields reported

Most local elevators reported this week that the corn harvest is more than half finished, and this year's crop promises to be one of the best ever.

But price of corn Tuesday was $4.88 per hundredweight, compared with $5.95 a year ago.

J. R. Brown of Flagg Grain reported that the corn harvest "is 85 percent finished in our area. I believe this is the best crop I ever remember, and the quality of the corn is very good."

"It's awfully close to the best crop ever, if it isn't the best ever," said Ricky Byers of Sunnyside Grain and Supply. "We are 95 percent finished in this area."

Ronnie Truelock of Farmers Grain in Hart reported, "In this area we have probably 80 percent of the corn crop out. I don't know yet if it will be as good as a crop two years ago, but it is one of the best crops ever. It is real good quality corn as far as worm damage and things like that."

Bill Gregory of Castro County Grain Co. estimated that 40 to 60 percent of the corn crop was out in his firm's service area.

"The quality is excellent," said Gregory. "The test weight is real good, and the yield. The acreage is down some, but the yield would equal or be a little better than any year I've ever seen. With the weather and everything cooperating, we should be through in a couple of weeks."

"We are about 60 to 75 percent finished," said Lynn Ehly of Star Grain in Nazareth. "From what I've heard, the yield is fantastic and the quality of the corn is really good. Next week should take us off the peak point."

"We got our first load of milo in last week," Mrs. Ehly added, "and it's coming in pretty steadily now."

"It looks like a pretty good corn crop, quality wise," said Eddie Matthews of Easter Grain. "We are about 25 percent finished in this area."

Bill Clark of Dimmitt Agri Industries, Inc., reported "very good crops, good quality. It's an above average crop."

The yield is ranging from 8,000 to 12,000 pounds per acre, said Fred Bruegel Jr. of Bruegel & Sons.

"Some is yielding 13,000 pounds per acre. The quality is excellent and the moisture is rather high," Bruegel said.

JUDGE JACK MILLER [right] is congratulated by Appellate Judge John T. Boyd after being sworn in as the new judge of the 64th District Court Friday afternoon. Miller told the audience that his new post "carries with it the greatest challenge I've ever faced," and later quipped, "As of this moment, I have made no mistakes as a judge, and this is the last time I'll ever be able to say that."

Simpson, Ronnie Parker, District Attorney Jimmy Davis, and Miller's longtime law partner, Russel Moran. Miller told the audience that his new post "carries with it the greatest challenge I've ever faced," and later quipped, "As of this moment, I have made no mistakes as a judge, and this is the last time I'll ever be able to say that."

US leaders from Dimmitt on same bill

Congressman Kent Hance will be the featured speaker at American Legion National Commander Jack Flynt's banquet for the Legion National Executive Committee Oct. 14 in Indianapolis, Ind.

He is a native of Commander Flynt's home town of Dimmitt, and, as representative of Texas' 19th Congressional District, also is now the National Commander's congressman. As a youth, Hance was a citizen of the American Legion's Texas Boys State.

The National Commander's Banquet for the NEC will be a highlight of the Legion's fall meetings in the national headquarters city. The annual Commanders' and Adjutants' Conference will be conducted Oct. 12 and 13, the same days the organization's major commissions and committees will be in session.

New grain deal offered to USSR

Secretary of Agriculture John Block was expected Wednesday to make a supply offer to the Soviet Union of up to 25 million metric tons of American feed grain.

The offer has been spurred for the past two weeks by the Texas Corn Growers Association, the US Feed Grains Council and Congressman Kent Hance.

Block left Washington Tuesday for Moscow, and was scheduled to meet with Soviet leaders Wednesday or Thursday.

Those backing the deal were hoping that Block, with the Administration's backing, would offer a no-embargo assurance in return for a Soviet commitment. The US is already providing the USSR eight million metric tons annually with a no-embargo guarantee.

TCGA President Carl King of Dimmitt predicted an immediate rise in the market prices of corn and milo if the USSR signs the offered contract. A 25-million bushel deal would take up almost half of the nation's 1979-80 feed-grains reserve of 52.4 million metric tons.

"We don't know how much grain Secretary Block will offer, or how much the Soviets would be willing to talk about," King said, "but the Corn Growers, the US Feed Grains Council and Congressman Hance have all requested that 25 million metric tons be offered."

He added, "We're trying to get a commitment out of the Soviet Union. It's a problem to get them to sign on the dotted line, especially since the 1980 embargo. But they're in trouble over there, and we hope they need it badly enough to sign."

The USDA has estimated the Soviets' grain importing capacity at 40 million tons a year. Canada and Argentina have already agreed to supply the USSR with 14 to 17 million tons.

"I don't believe any other country could offer them 25 million tons," King said. "We are the most reliable supplier to the Soviets, as long as they are assured there will be no embargo."

Ken Stephens, trade serving director for the USFGC, said he thinks the Soviets could import up to 45 million tons of grain in the coming year — and that they will need to because of another short crop.

"There are indications that they have been expanding their importing facilities, and that they will crowd those facilities with as much grain as possible," Stephens said. He is urging the USDA to seek a 25-million-ton contract.

A round of phone calls two weeks ago kicked off the action that led to the new offer. At the request of the USFGC and the TCGA, Hance met first with President Reagan, then with Secretary Block about the proposal. He then drafted a letter request- [See GRAIN DEAL, Page 14]

County calls for info for redistricting study

Any person having information that would affect the redistricting of Castro County's four precincts should present it to the Castro County Commissioners Court at its Oct. 12 meeting, according to County Judge M. L. Simpson.

"This information would need to be included in our regular post-census redistricting report, which must be submitted to the US Justice Dept. the latter part of November," Simpson said.

Simpson added that the redistricting will not be in effect for the Nov. 3 general election, and would mainly affect Pct. 3.

The court will meet Monday with Dennis McGill for advice on whether any additional changes would need to be made after the last decision handed down by Federal District Judge Mary Lou Robinson in the TRLA-filed lawsuit against the county last year. McGill represented the county in that case.

In other business, the court heard a report from County Tax Assessor Collector Billy Hackleman on information he received from KMK Enterprises, Inc. of Plainview concerning the inclusion of jury selection as a function of the computer services the county receives from the company.

Hackleman said the company reiterated that there would be no additional charge for the programming, but that the county would be expected to cover the cost of envelopes and postage.

County/District Attorney Jimmy Davis noted that each district court judge would need to be notified to give their final approval of the selection process.

The commissioners also heard a report and invitation from Castro County Child Welfare Board member Linda Maxwell concerning the CWB's Town Hall meeting set for Oct. 13 at 7:30 p.m. in the County Expo Building.

Town Hall meeting called to focus on child abuse

Oct. 13 is the date set for a Town Hall Meeting to enhance public awareness and cooperation concerning child abuse — its causes and cures.

The meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. in the County Expo Building.

The Castro County Child Welfare Board (CCCWB) is sponsoring the meeting, according to Board President Angela Acker.

"Just letting people know where they can go for help or more information is one of the biggest steps in preventing child abuse," Mrs. Acker said. "Also, the community needs to be aware that there is a problem right here in Castro County."

Department of Human Resources Area Supervisor Homer Ann Hooper cited 51 cases of child abuse or neglect reported in the past year, and three cases were reported in the last month for this county.

Topics to be presented at the Town Hall meeting include: "What's the Problem?" presented by Mrs. Acker;

"How We Are Dealing With the Problem," with Mrs. Hooper discussing the role of DHR, Jimmy Davis talking about the legal aspects of abuse, Linda Maxwell presenting the role of the child welfare board, and Mildred Washington representing the viewpoint of the foster home; and

"Your Role," things the average citizen can and should do about the problem of child abuse, led by Pat Bagley, with additional information by Genell Craig, outreach caseworker for the Central Plains Mental Health/Mental Retardation Center.

Refreshments will follow, along with an informal question-and-answer session.

Board members are asking various service clubs, organizations and church groups to allow them to present at a regular meeting of each group a short "public service announcement" concerning the Town Hall Meeting.

Several board members, as well as local caseworker Carla Major, area foster home licensing worker Debbie Ferriter, and Mrs. Hooper would be willing to present a program on the subject of child abuse for any group, Mrs. Acker said. Mrs. Major can be reached at the DHR building at 647-4181, and will be able to contact the others.

The Town Hall Meeting plans were formulated at the CCCWB's September meeting. The board also voted to allow 20 cents per mile reimbursement for members driving to out-of-town meetings.

The board will have its regular meeting today (Thursday) at 10:30 a.m. in the DHR building to finalize plans for the town hall meeting and all members are urged to attend.

Flynt's homecoming schedule announced

Amarillo's Hilton Inn will be the site for the homecoming of the new national commander of the American Legion, Jack Flynt of Dimmitt, Oct. 9 and 10.

The homecoming activities will start with a reception and buffet Friday evening, Oct. 9, for 150 guests from 50 states and some foreign countries. Ray Cliver of Amarillo is the homecoming chairman.

On Saturday, the group will embark on buses for Cal Farley's Boys Ranch, 40 miles northwest of Amarillo. The Legionnaires will see some of the 4,000-acre home and school for boys.

Next, the Legion caravan will travel to Vega, where the Vega Legion Post will roast a steer on a spit to serve the Legionnaires a western barbecue.

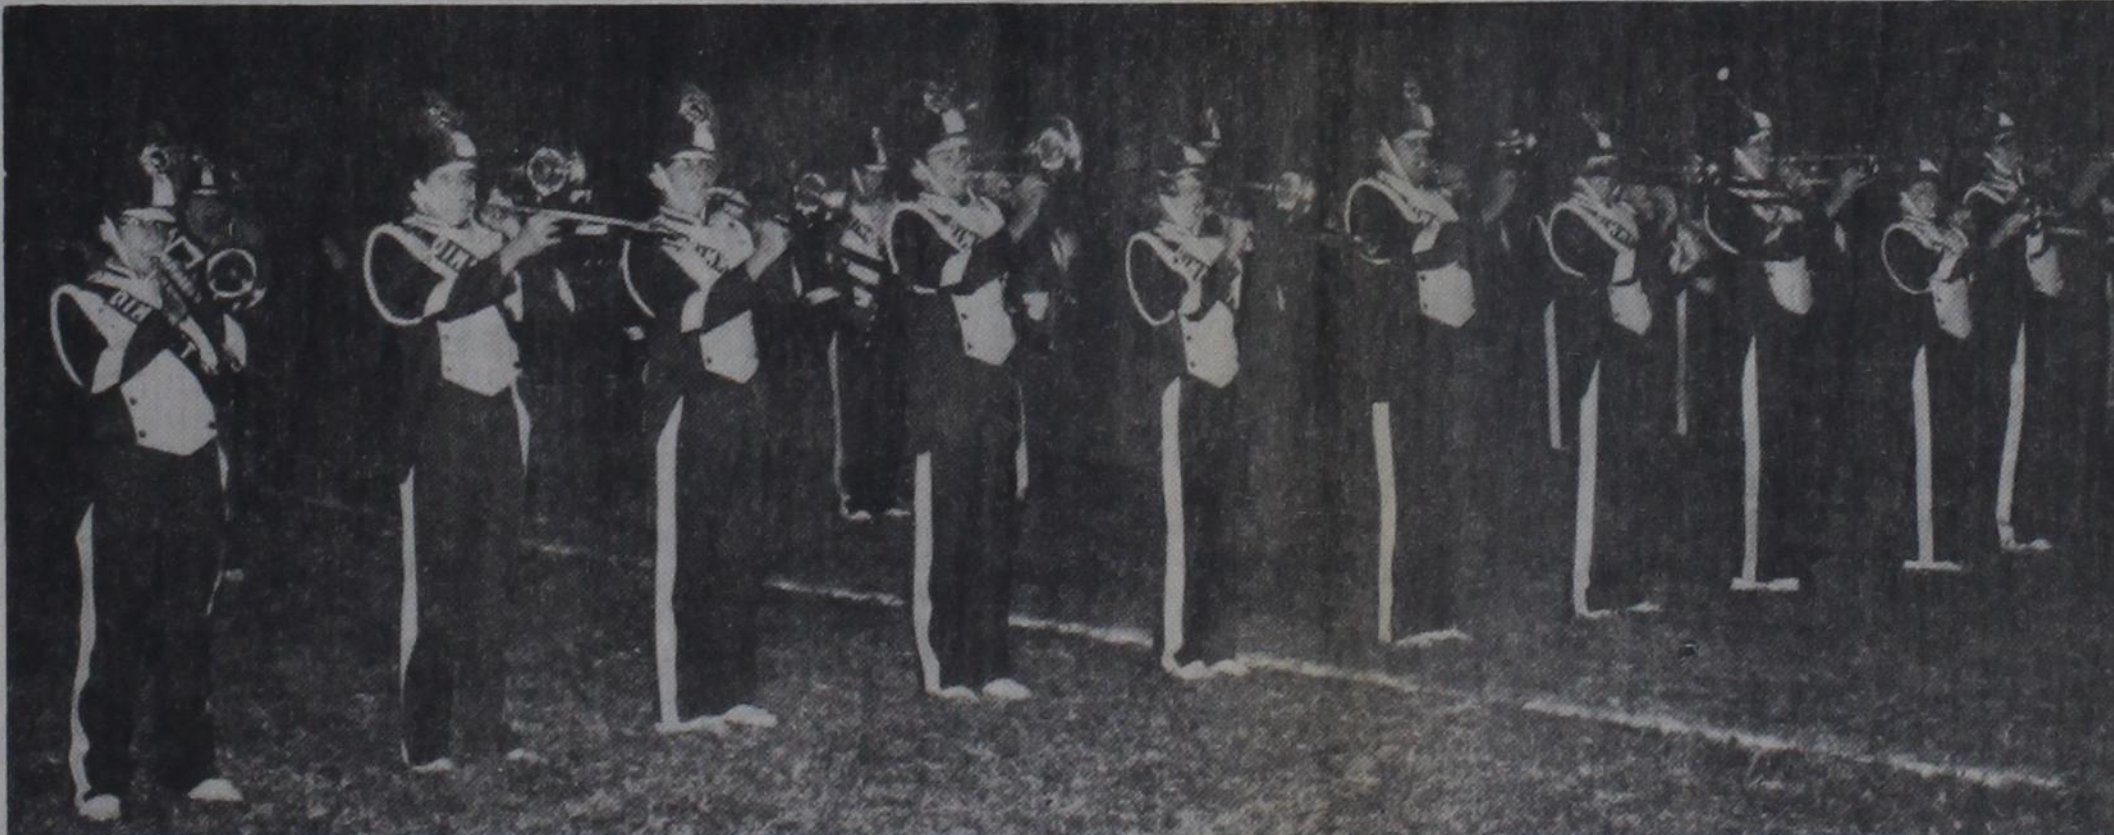

Then the buses will return the group to Amarillo for the homecoming reception and banquet at the Hilton Inn. Past National Commander Joe Matthews, also a Texan, will be the emcee.

Commander Flynt will introduce his special guests. The principal speaker will be Justin Wilson, the Cajun humorist.

At 6 a.m. Sunday, Oct. 11, the guests will board a chartered plane for Indianapolis for the annual fall meetings of the Legion leadership at the national headquarters building in downtown Indianapolis.

Commander Flynt, a 30-year member of the Legion, was elected national commander at the Honolulu convention of the American Legion and took office Sept. 3. Flynt was featured in a story in the October issue of the American Legion magazine.

SLIDE, KELLY, SLIDE!—The trombone section steps front and center to perform a fast-paced arrangement of "Lassus Trombone" during the Bobcat Band's halftime show at Frenship High School's Tiger Field Friday night. The trombonists got a standing ovation from the FHS Homecoming crowd after their rousing performance.

NHS Homecoming begins; Dimmitt, Hart preparing

Nazareth High School's Homecoming activities begin today (Thursday) with a pep rally, taco supper and the crowning of Homecoming royalty.

The school will begin its activities with a pep rally at 7:30 p.m. During the pep rally, the Spirit Queen and King will be crowned. The Student Council is sponsoring a taco supper from 6:30 to 9:30 tonight.

Friday, the Swifts will host Anton in their Homecoming game. Prior to the game, the Homecoming Queen will be crowned and at halftime the Band Queen and King will be crowned.

Dimmitt High School will begin Homecoming activities Monday, with a variety of events scheduled during the week.

Monday through Friday has been designated as Spirit Week. The Oct. 9 Homecoming game will be against the Boys Ranch Rough Riders.

Class of '61 sets reunion

There will be no doubt about who will win the traveling trophy when the Dimmitt High School Class of 1961 holds its 20th-year reunion at Homecoming Oct. 9.

Pia Nasman Moberg, who lives in Grankulla, Finland, plans to attend the reunion. She was Dimmitt's original American Field Service exchange student in 1960-61.

Approximately half of the class's 61 members have indicated they will attend the reunion, according to Beth Odom, Maretta Smithson, Kenneth Frye, Jack Thompson and Stanley Nelson, the class's reunion committee.

This will be one of two reunions planned by the class during the current school year. Another get-together is being planned for Dec. 26.

The Homecoming reunion of the Class of 1961 will be at the Country Club following the Dimmitt-Boys Ranch football game Oct. 9. The class also will be honored at a reception following the afternoon Homecoming pep rally Oct. 9.

The reunion will be open to all who wish to attend and visit with class members and their spouses.

The Dimmitt Class of 1961 will hold its 20th year reunion Oct. 9 at the Country Club. The class will be honored at a reception following the Homecoming pep rally before the game, and will meet at the Country Club following the game.

Local members of the Class of 1961 will gather in the Rhoads Memorial Library community room after the Dimmitt Boys Ranch game to make plans for a class reunion during the Christmas holidays. Those with yearbooks and current addresses of class members are asked to bring them to the meeting.

Hart High School is planning a special activity for each [See Homecoming, Page 14]

Adult classes to begin here Tuesday night

Enrollment for adult education classes will be from 7 to 10 p.m. Tuesday at the Dimmitt High School auditorium.

The classes will help adults who need to read, write and speak English; improve mathematics, receive citizenship training or prepare for the GED test.

Instructions, supplies and books are free. The classes are sponsored by Region XVI Education Service Center and Dimmitt Independent School District.

For more information call 647-3105.

Sheffy's Chatter

Louise Kemp vacations in Tahoe

By MYRTLE SHEFFY
Louise Kemp is home from Cardemadre, a town north of San Francisco, where she visited her daughter LaDawn and Tom Reichling. Katie went back with Louise. While there, all went to Lake Tahoe for 10 days of boating, skiing, all those fun things. Louise says that lake is the deepest and clearest water in the world. You can see rock layers below. They rode horses up to the Cartwrights (the TV series) to the Ponderosa Ranch, and went to a little church and saw a real wedding. I believe the horse ride was up the hills where they had breakfast. The wedding was another day.

remember her, and maybe she can see Kent and Carol Hance. Opal Bearden, Ceal Carlile, and I and all the Wootens went to see Faye and the new baby girl of Randy and Joyce Bills. Carrell West and his wife Nancy have moved here from Kirkland, Wash. Carrell has retired from the navy and will stay with his mother Cora until they find a house. The Wests have three sons, Alan 19 years, Mark 12 years and Rob 22, who is still at Auburn, Wash. Carrell's dad Raymond West died a few months ago.

Myrna Cowser is home from a visiting trip. First to Dalhart to visit Ronnie and Carol Farris and the two grands, then on to Vernon to visit brother Pie Montgomery, back by Plainview to see Norma and Harold Gladman. We saw her and Norma in Plainview, and at the cafeteria we chatted with Tom and Juanita McGill of Sunnyside.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Guerra are the great grandparents of a new baby girl, born Sept. 12. Her name is Briget Pearl and her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ricky Pompa. They live at Grand Prairie.

Jim and Margie Drake of Carlsbad have been here to visit Margie's sister Louise Kemp. Jim is a retired Methodist minister.

Willie and Mae Hammonds of Granbury were weekend visitors of their daughter Joan and Jerry Blackwell and friends. You know Willie had a severe heart attack before they moved from Dimmitt. He seems to be stronger since the big surgery.

Nancy Hays of Hereford was hostess Friday to a group of friends from here with lunch at the Country Club, then to her house for visiting and their needlepoint work. Guests were Shirley Stephens, Esta Vandiver, Carole Dyer, Myrtle Lois Moran and Sue Merritt.

In trying to get news, the answer is, "We are trying to get the corn cut." If it stays sunny, the farmers will finish up this week, we hope. Clara Vick and friends from Hereford, went to Galveston recently to attend the Legal Secretaries meeting, nice banquets, many talks to hear. The did take a sightseeing trip over the island.

Josie Bradford spent the weekend in Amarillo with her nephew J.T. Boswell and Mrs. Boswell. Jo Ann Montgomery and Decimae Dennis, both of Midland, were here last weekend visiting Jo Ann's aunt Myrna Cowser and Decimae's parents Morgan and Geneva and brother Edgar and family. Both ladies are with the Lee School at Midland. Jo Ann Montgomery also visited Harold and Shirley Stephens and Monette Montgomery, and Hattie Webb who lives at South Hills Manor.

June L. Carrell of Lubbock was here last weekend visiting her brother Eules Waggoner and Hazel and the family. I and friends saw her at the restaurant Sunday. June is called "Jiggs" by her friends. She was in school a few years ago when Ted Sheffy and Bill Birdwell were. Hazel Waggoner and June will go to Sulphur Springs to visit Alice and Larry Gamblin, then to Dallas to see the town and they plan to see some shows.

Jack and Stevie Griffin of Los Banos, Calif. spent the week with Eddie and Cindy Adams. Jack is employed by Valley Grain in Merced, Calif. and is working for a few weeks at their Muleshoe elevator. Eddie Adams is with Amstar.

Milt and Dorothy Draper and girls of Tahoka visited the Donald Wrights and friends here Saturday. Jean Bradford and Diane Love received their degrees in the capping and convocation ceremony at WTSU at Canyon Friday night. Going from here were mother Mildred Bradford and Susie, grandmothers Josie Bradford and Grace Lust and Diane's parents Barry and Stephanie Love. The girls are nurses now.

You do not need to leave Dimmitt to see a pretty tree. Look at the big colorful maple on the east side of Mrs. Sadler's house on Jones Street and Cleveland and Maple Streets are colorful. Esta and Charles Vandiver were hosts to the Dinner Bridge group recently with a barbecue beef dinner and all the trimmings. Guests were Sue Merritt, Aural Davis, Ted and Dorothy Sheffy, Ralph and Avis Smith, Goldman and Carole Dyer, Russel and Myrtle Lois Moran and Harold and Shirley Stephens.

Babe Scoggin had the family in for last weekend, son Larry and Sue Scoggin and daughters Lisa and Jennifer from Midland, and daughter Cindy and son Damon and the newest member is one-month-old Heather from Amarillo. Major Ballew, the dad, had to work. All visited grandmother Lois Bartlett and the dad Howard Scoggin.

Percy and Margaret Parsons and the mother Alice Parsons went to Friona Sunday for dinner and a visit with daughter Rhonda and Jim Murphree.

The craft show at the Armory building in Tulia Saturday was a big success. Hundreds of booths, fine oil pictures, wood, tin, glass, dolls, pinecone owls, many things. Ted had a booth of his handmade wood articles. His girl Virginia Malone and Beth Wallace helped him. Some of the Dimmitt people there were Helen Richardson, Cleo Forson, Weldon and Ruth Skinner, I saw Martha Jo Dannivek and Betty Touchstone and Mr. and Mrs. Percy Hart from Hart. I met my sister Mrs. Roland Moore from Vigo at the show. We talked with Tommy Keener, a former Dimmitt school teacher. He has a convenience store in Tulia.

Brook Jarecki of Amarillo spent a few days with grandparents Ruth and Jim Hays while her parents were in El Paso.

Kay Snider of Amarillo was a Sunday guest of her mother Opal Bearden. They, Myrna Cowser, Ann Montgomery, Blanche Ginn and I had dinner together at the restaurant Sunday. "And we talked," someone said.

Mary Burnham of Albuquerque is here for a visit with her dad, B.M. Nelson and brother Don, Verbie and Nathan.

Brenda Andrews was hostess to the Saturday evening bridge players. She served a dessert and coffee to Fred and Ramona Annen, Kenneth and Ruth Jackson, Cheryl Glidewell, Faun Welker, Joannis Robertson, Carolyn Jones, Tina Rawlings, Virginia and Cecil Crum. And I hear that Cecil beat everyone there. They like to win over him. The other men were cutting corn.

The Wednesday Duplicate Bridge met at Senior Citizens party room for games and dinner.

Jeannie Miller and Susie Reeves were high score winners. Others are Genevieve Howe, Ramona Annen, Tina Rawlings, Murna Miller, Cheryl Glidewell, Bessie Elder, Carlee Warren, Bobbie Damron, Katie Ivey

PREPARATION
Thousands of Christians throughout this great nation spend hours of serious study, searching the scriptures and commentaries written by scholars who have dedicated their lives to the task of seeking out the full meaning of God's Word.
These willing workers, teaching from the Bible feel that their work is vital to the fulfilment of your spiritual life.
Won't you accept the invitation to attend church as offered by the sponsors of this space, and receive the benefits offered by these willing teachers.
EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE
The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Top corn yields reported

By TEENY BOWDEN
A trace of moisture was received Wednesday and Thursday, but not enough to stop the corn harvest. Those who have completed the harvest report good crops, with a few saying it made better than ever before for them.
Rev. Glen Price, a senior in Wayland Baptist University, spoke to the church Sunday morning in behalf of TANE. Benny Villarreal gave his testimony and spoke in the Sunday night services. Benny, who has charge of the Mexican work of the church, was a bootlegger until 1968 when a man told him about Jesus. Since that time he has been telling his own people about Jesus because so many have never heard.

There was good attendance and participation in the pastor-led Church Growth Workshop Monday through Thursday nights.

Rev. and Mrs. Raymond Jones spent the weekend in Coleman with their sons, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Jones and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Wade Jones and family. He preached at Sidney, Texas Sunday.

Mrs. Lee Brown underwent major surgery in Methodist Hospital in Lubbock Thursday morning. Jason and Jared have been staying with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Brown. The family has visited with her several times.

Sonya Freeman, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Wilson was admitted to the hospital in Kermit Monday. The Wilsons went down and spent from Monday night until Wednesday with her and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Freeman and Angelia.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezell Sadler attended the Caps reunion near Abilene and visited with relatives Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Louder took their daughter, Mrs. Tom Messer of Houston to see her grandmother, Mrs. Nora Louder in South Hills Manor Tuesday. She and Tom went to Midland Wednesday before returning to Houston.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Brown and Lee and Lynn Brown attended the wedding of a nephew and cousin, Stan Woodward, and Treva Boyd in Lubbock Saturday after-

Girl wins sheep award

Jerri Ka Clark of Dimmitt has been named a silver award winner in regional competition for the FFA Sheep Production Proficiency Award. Jerri is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Clark and a member of the Dimmitt FFA Chapter.

Jerri became eligible for the regional runoff when she won the $100 state FFA Sheep Production Proficiency Award co-sponsored by the American Sheep Producers Council, Inc., Denver, Colorado and Carnation Company, Milling Division, Los Angeles, California as a special project of the National FFA Foundation. The award is one of 22 Proficiency Awards presented annually at local, state, regional and national levels to recognize FFA members for achievements in activities leading to careers in agriculture.

The regional winner was Allen Mouritsen of Wellsville, Utah.

Jerri was presented a framed certificate recognizing her placing in the regional competition.

What do Roy Rogers, Don Meredith, Johnny Carson, Charley Pride and Steve Cauthen have in common? They are among the 40,000,000 Americans from all walks of life who have been 4-H members.

SPS names Claude man to head Dimmitt office

Calvin O. Marsh, formerly Southwestern Public Service manager in Claude, has been named manager for the electric company in Dimmitt. The announcement was made Monday by Troy Waddell, district manager for SPS in Hereford. Waddell said the promotion of Marsh would become effective today (Thursday). Marsh succeeds Ralph Glover, who retired Wednesday. Marsh is a native of Kingston, Okla., and started his career with SPS in 1962 as an apprentice lineman. He became a journeyman lineman in 1966 and was named manager at Claude in 1970.

Ceremonies slated Friday for two firms

Ribbon-cutting ceremonies are scheduled Friday to mark the openings of two new businesses in Dimmitt, according to Chamber of Commerce Manager Delores Heller.

At 10:30 a.m., Electric Wires at 317 N. Broadway will cut its ribbon, with owners Rick Oldfield and Jerry Frazier present.

The business will include printing and iron-ons for T-shirts, as well as athletic clothing. Electric wires will also feature an arcade of video and pinball games. At 11 a.m., the Natural Figure Wrap at 111 NE Second St., owned by Jaqi Holcomb, will cut its ribbon.

Two women receive nursing caps

Dimmitt's Jean Bradford and Diane Love were among 67 junior level nursing students to receive caps in a Sept. 2 ceremony at Mary Moody Northern Recital Hall at West Texas State University at Canyon.

The receiving of caps indicate that students have completed basic courses toward the goal of a nursing career.

Ms. Bradford is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Bradford, and Ms. Love, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barry Love.

Insects of interest Medfly: a threat here?

By ALLEN KNUTSON Extension Agent — Entomology

The small Mediterranean fruit fly continues to make big news stories, and many have wondered if this pest could survive in the Texas Panhandle. Although there is little information available, it appears that the Medfly, a tropical insect, could possibly survive here by overwintering as a pupa in the soil, or as an adult.

sources, such as peaches and apricots. Also, if the Medfly became established in southern Texas, flies could be transported into the Panhandle region during the summer and infest area fruit. The Medfly is a serious pest because it feeds on many different plants and is very difficult to control once it enters a fruit. The Medfly feeds on at least 250 different fruits. Preferred hosts are all citrus and deciduous fruits, including peaches, plums, cherries, apples and pears. Medflies also infest grapes, strawberries, tomatoes, beans, squash, cucumbers, canteloupes, watermelons, pecans, bell peppers, oranges and even cotton.

The Medfly is slightly smaller than a housefly and looks like a typical fly. The body is yellow-brown with dark bands across the clear wings. Wings droop slightly on live flies.

Eggs are laid beneath the skin of the fruit. One female can lay up to 1,000 eggs during her 60-day lifespan. Eggs hatch into maggots that bore into and feed on the fruit. Ten to 12 maggots may be found per fruit. Decay organisms often invade infested fruit, causing it to rot and fall. Mature maggots, about one-third inch long, leave the fruit and burrow about one-half inch into the soil to pupate. The adult fly emerges in about 10 days. The life cycle requires about 28 days, and there can be 6 to 8 generations per year depending on the weather and available food.

The Medfly occurs in Hawaii, Central and South America, Africa, Western Europe and Australia. It has been discovered four times in Florida, three times in California and once at Brownsville, Texas, in 1966. Prompt control measures eliminated these infestations until the current California situation developed.

The Texas Dept. of Agriculture and USDA are conducting a Medfly trapping program to detect infestations. About 2,000 traps have been placed at major points of entry along interstate highways, major airports, the Texas Gulf Coast and Texas-Mexico border. Hopefully, these traps will permit rapid detection and eradication of Medfly infestations before they can threaten Texas' fruit.

Southwestern Corn Borers In Your Fields

DESTROY CORN STUBBLE BY JANUARY 15
Stubble destruction done before January 15 kills overwintering borers by destroying the stalk crown and exposing borers to fatal winter weather.

AREA WIDE COOPERATION IS THE KEY
One field left undisturbed produces borer moths that lay eggs in many nearby fields in the spring. Stubble destruction in every field will greatly reduce the total corn borer population.

FEWER CORN BORERS IN THE SPRING MEANS GREATER PROFITS AT HARVEST
STUBBLE DESTRUCTION HELPS YOU AND YOUR NEIGHBOR

Suggested Techniques of Stubble Destruction

The cornborer overwinters as a mature larva in a cavity at the base of the stalk crown, protected from winter weather and predators. A single discing or stalk shredding is very effective in destroying borers. Shredders must be set low on the bed to destroy each stalk even with the soil surface. Shredders or sweeps can be used where stubble is to be grazed as ears and stalks are not buried. Contact your Texas Agricultural Extension Service Office for more information.

Destroy stubble to get rid of borers

Texas Corn Growers Association urges all corn growers to destroy their corn stubble before Jan. 15 to aid in the effort to greatly reduce corn borer populations.

Allen Knutson, Castro County Extension Entomologist, said in a flyer sent to corn growers, "Area wide cooperation is the key. One field left undisturbed produces borer moths that lay eggs in many nearby fields in the spring."

He added that stubble destruction, if done by Jan. 15, kills overwintering borers by destroying the stalk crown and exposing the borers to fatal winter weather.

The cornborer overwinters as a mature larva in a cavity at the base of the stalk crown, protected from winter weather and predators, according to Knutson.

Suggested techniques of stubble destruction cited in the flyer called a single discing or stalk shredding

"very effective."
"Shredders must be set low on the bed to destroy each stalk even with the soil surface," Knutson said, adding that "Shredders or sweeps can be used where stubble is to be grazed, as ears and stalks are not buried."

Acreage cutback outlined

By CHARLIE HILL
County Executive Director
Secretary of Agriculture
John R. Block outlined last week the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture's reduced acreage and conservation plans for the 1982 wheat crop. Block said these decisions are contingent on the U.S. Congress passing a new farm bill which authorizes the actions.

Farmers who wish to become eligible for price support loans, target price protection and the farmer-owned reserve program must comply with all reduced-acreage requirements. There will be no payments for reduced plantings, Block said.

Participating farmers must reduce their acreage of wheat planted for harvest by at least 15 percent from their established wheat acreage base. The base will be the 1981 planted wheat acreage adjusted in cases where there is a regular crop rotation for wheat.

Secondly, farmers must devote to conservation uses an area equal to 17.65 percent of their 1982 wheat acreage planted for harvest (planted 1982 wheat acreage X 17.65 percent equals acreage devoted to conservation uses).

For example, a farmer with a 1981 planted acreage of 100 acres must plant no more than 85 acres of wheat for 1982 harvest to become eligible for the program. The 15 acres reduced (17.65 percent of 85 acres) must be devoted to a conservation use. If the farmer planted fewer than the allowed 85 of wheat acres, he or she would be permitted to devote fewer acres to a conservation use. For example, if this farmer planted only 50 acres of wheat, he or she could devote only 8.8 acres to conservation uses (17.65 percent of 50 acres).

The land taken from production and devoted to conservation uses must be eligible cropland, must be protected from wind and water erosion and may not be mechanically harvested. However, farmers will be permitted to graze this acreage except during the six principal growing months.

Farmers participating in the reduced acreage program on one farm must assure USDA that they are not exceeding the 1981 wheat base on any other farms they own or operate.

Farmers are not required to participate in the wheat program to qualify for program benefits on other crops grown on the farm, Block said.

Swifts blank Whiteface, 21-0

Calvin Schulte rambled for 186 yards and scored two touchdowns to lead Nazareth to a convincing 21-0 victory over Whiteface last Friday night in Whiteface.

Rodney Heiman intercepted a Whiteface pass in the second quarter, which led to the Swifts' first touchdown. The touchdown came on a 42-yard pass from Johnny Schmucker to Rodney Schulte with 2:04 left in the half. The kick by Calvin Schulte was good and made the score 7-0. The Swifts' second touchdown took them just 5 plays to drive the ball the 58 yards. With just 16 seconds left in the first half, Calvin Schulte scrambled 25 yards for the touchdown. The kick by Calvin was good and gave the Swifts a 14-0 halftime lead.

Calvin Schulte scored the last touchdown of the game on a one-yard run with 8:19 left in the third quarter. The kick by Calvin was good and made the final score 21-0.

The Swifts' defense was really tough against the Antelopes as they forced them to make six turnovers. The Swifts intercepted four of the Antelopes passes and recovered two fumbles.

Whiteface had 170 total yards gained while Nazareth had 178 yards in rushing alone. The Swifts gained 42 yards in passing which brought their total yards gained to 220. Whiteface had 92 yards rushing and completed 5 of 19 passes for 78 yards.

"Our defense and our improved passing attack was the difference in the game," commented Coach Ken Cole of Nazareth. "Our defensive ends, Marvin Schmucker and Rodney Heiman, played much better and were the key to our defense."

"This week, we expect to have a real tough game against Anton," said Cole. "I hope everyone will come out because I think we will do real well."

The Swifts, now 3-1, will host Anton for their Homecoming game Friday night. The homecoming activities will start at 7:45 and the game will get underway at 8:00.

JAY NELSON of Dimmitt takes Frenship's Comas Godfrey [33] and Ronnie Nelms [81] to the turf at the Dimmitt 28-yard line on the next-to-last play of the first quarter of Friday night's Bobcat-Tiger game at Wolfforth. At this point it was a 7-0 ball game, but the ax fell later as the Tigers romped to a 58-7 victory.

Schulte gets newspaper's player award

Nazareth's Calvin Schulte was named Globe News Class A Player of the Week Tuesday for his outstanding all-around performance Friday night in the Swift's 21-0 victory over Whiteface.

Schulte, a 6-0, 185-pound senior, rushed for 186 yards on 26 carries and two touchdowns from his running back position. On defense, he was in on 15 tackles (six unassisted), plus kicked three extra points and also punted effectively.

Dimmitt 8-A team ties Frenship, 8-8

Dimmitt's Dirk Wright intercepted a pass which set up the tying score last Thursday as the Dimmitt 8th grade A team fought to an 8-8 deadlock with host Frenship.

Frenship's touchdown came in the first quarter, and the two-point conversion put the Tigers ahead 8-0.

In the third quarter, Wright intercepted a blocked pass on the 45-yard line and ran it back to the 20. Dimmitt then got to within 10 yards, and Mark Smothermon carried the ball for the score. Woody Glass tied the game by running it over for the PAT.

Outstanding defensive players for Dimmitt were Dirk Wright, Mark Smothermon, Noe Castro, and Beau Bennett.

Outstanding offensive players were Woody Glass, Bernie Garcia, Blake Brown and Mark Shackelford.

The 8th grade record is now 1-0-1.

Kiwanians plan pheasant hunt

Plans are slowly going forward for the Dimmitt Kiwanis Club's annual pheasant hunt and breakfast set to begin Dec. 12.

Publicity material for the club's largest moneymaking project will show a cost of $50 for hunting permits on the club's game reserve, and a $3.50 charge for the breakfast, both the same as was charged last year.

At the group's Monday meeting, the price of the tickets to the Oct. 15 installation banquet was set at $5.

A thank you note from Bettye Huckabay of Dimmitt and Dr. and Mrs. Knut Berg of Norway, parents of injured American Field Service foreign exchange student Mia Berg, thanking the club for its $500 contribution to Mia's Fund, was read by Charles Richard, club president.

Cliff Oliver was named as the club's official representative to the Town Hall meeting Oct. 13, sponsored by the Castro County Child Welfare Board, on the subject of child abuse.

Bob Murdock, Cliff Lewis, Robert Benton and Richard volunteered to help deliver the Meals on Wheels this week.

Jimmy Davis and Jack Patton volunteered to be the club's representative at the Key Club meeting yesterday. Kiwanians were informed that the Key Club, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, now has 65 members, 35 of whom went to a recent training conference.

Fifteen members were present at Monday's meeting, along with the club sweetheart and one guest, Don Sheffy.

Pathways to the Future—this year's 4-H theme—reflects the 4-H mission of helping young people to become responsible, productive citizens.

7th graders lose by 30-0

Frenship's 8th grade B team romped to a 30-0 win over visiting Dimmitt 7th graders last Thursday, leaving the Dimmitt team with a 1-2 record.

Ruben Martinez and Joel Nelson were cited for outstanding defensive play for Dimmitt, while Jessie Gonzales was cited for his offensive play.

Tigers make it a long night for Bobcats, 58-7

By JOHN BROOKS

Frenship's Tigers showed a lack of compassion over the last 2 1/2 quarters Friday night, mercilessly downing Dimmitt, 58-7, at Tiger Stadium in Wolforth.

The season's longest game — a three hour marathon — was marred by 27 penalties, 11 turnovers, and injuries to two Bobcat footballers that required hospitalization.

Sophomore quarterback Dwight McDonald, seeing his first offensive action of the year, underwent surgery Saturday at Lubbock's Methodist Hospital for a compound arm fracture. He was released Sunday.

Senior tackle Ty Koch suffered a concussion. After spending Friday night at Methodist Hospital, he was released Saturday. Koch is on the questionable list for further action. Dimmitt was beset by nine turnovers, including three interceptions by the Tigers in the first four plays the Bobcats ran in the third quarter. The Bobcats did not run a complete series of downs in the second half until the last two minutes of the third period.

DAVID OGAS [85] leaps for joy in the end zone after catching a fourth-quarter pass from quarterback Tim Kenworthy for Dimmitt's only touchdown in Friday night's Bobcat-Frenship game at Wolforth. The TD play

Playing before a Homecoming crowd, Frenship used only six plays to drive 72 yards for its first score of the night. Tailback Comas Godfrey, who rushed for 110 yards on 16 carries and scored five touchdowns overall, put the Tigers on the board just three minutes deep in the game. Dave Melton added the extra-point kick.

The Bobcats lost 11 yards on their first three plays, and Paul Carroll's punt went only 14 yards, to the Dimmitt 23. However, Tiger quarterback Brent Davis fumbled on first down and linebacker Bill Johnson recovered for Dimmitt.

McDonald hit flanker Tim

Wales for nine yards on first down, but his second-down throw was picked off by cornerback Jay King, his first of four interceptions. However, Davis again bobbled the ball on first down, and Johnson again recovered for Dimmitt.

McDonald drove the Bobcats down the field with pinpoint passing. Two of his passes were knocked away by Tiger defenders who were whistled for pass interference. Dimmitt eventually worked its way down to the Tiger 6, but Frenship held on fourth down.

Dimmitt was not to get another real chance to score until late in the game, when the Bobcats — quarterbacked by sophomore Tim Kenworthy after McDonald was knocked out of the game — led the team 52 yards for its only score of the night. Kenworthy, who went 9-for-20 with five interceptions, hit David Ogas in the end zone from five yards out with seven minutes left in the game. Johnny Nino kicked the extra point.

In the interim, though, the Frenship juggernaut rolled up impressive statistics against Dimmitt's defense. The Tigers gained 340 yards rushing, with wingback David Payne chewing up almost 100 yards on misdirection plays, and fullbacks Raymond Green and Tony Guerrero accounting for 150 more yards.

But Godfrey was the one with the nose for the end zone. The senior tailback, who carried for 800 yards last season as a junior, scored twice from one yard out, three times more on carries of 2, 6 and 19 yards.

The most impressive score may have been the 19-yarder. Godfrey took a pitch from quarterback Davis and scooted through a hole over the right side, then broke two tackles on his way to the double stripe.

Godfrey's two-yard touchdown came after Davis, on fourth down at the Dimmitt 6, rolled out around right end. The quarterback appeared to be stopped at the 2, but Godfrey, the trailing back on the option play, was there for a lateral from Davis.

Dimmitt came ever-so-close several times in the ball game. The Bobcats rushed only 19 times, throwing the ball on 31 plays. Three of the interceptions came after Dimmitt receivers had tipped the football. However, the Bobcats were repelled by the untimely turnovers, and by an increase in penalty yardage over the previous week. Against River Road, the Bobcats had been whistled down only three times for 15 yards; against Frenship, the total went to eight penalties for 90 yards.

Coach Mike Major praised the protection given his quarterbacks by the offensive line. The Frenship defense sacked McDonald once and Kenworthy once. The Tigers were whistled for roughing the passer after McDonald had released the ball once; on the next play, the Tigers again hit McDonald late. No penalty was called, but it was the play where McDonald was injured.

Pronghorn season suspended

Hunting of pronghorn antelopes will be suspended this year in the northern Panhandle, according to big game program director for the Texas Parks and Wild Life Dept., Charles Winkler.

Winkler said fawn production and survival in the Panhandle during the past three years was below average, and fawn survival this spring and summer hit a record low of 14 percent, compared to the normal survival rate of 35 to 40 percent.

"We will issue about ten percent fewer permits for the important Trans-Pecos region, where the most antelope occur," Winkler said, adding that "it shouldn't have too much effect on the harvest."

Although adult populations are down slightly, Winkler forecasts an improved Trans-Pecos season for 1982 because fawn survival there this year has been excellent due to a rainy spring and summer.

The pronghorn antelope season for areas not suspended will be Oct. 3-11. Permits are issued by the department to landowners each year after surveys of antelope populations are completed.

Couple at home near Olton

Mr. and Mrs. Gregg Leon Griffin are at home on their farm near Olton, following their Sept. 4 marriage and a wedding trip to Ruidoso, N.M.

The bride is the former Shirley Ann Norris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Norris of Dimmitt. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Leon Griffin of Olton.

The single-ring ceremony was performed in front of the brick fireplace in the groom's parents' home. The groom's uncle, Frank Chambers of Amarillo, officiated.

The marriage setting was bedecked with Boston ferns and palms. Above the mantel hung a wreath of blue silk ribbon and baby's breath. On the mantel was an arrangement of baby blue and navy blue candles in brass candlesticks, surrounded by fresh ivy and baby's breath, accented by tiny blue bows.

The bride was given in marriage by her parents, and her father escorted her to the wedding altar. The groom seated the two mothers, and the bride presented each with a long-stemmed white rose from her bouquet.

A formal white wedding gown, featuring a wedding-ring neckline, was worn by the bride. A lace ruffle across the front formed cap sleeves, and matching Alencon lace was used for gauntlets.

Layered from the waistline, the skirt swept to a chapel-length train. The blusher veil of sheer lace, edged with matching trim, fell from a lace-caplet.

MRS. GREGG LEON GRIFFIN
... The former Shirley Ann Norris

The bridal bouquet of white rosebuds, daisies, baby's breath and fresh greenery was carried atop a white satin Bible borrowed from her sister, along with a handkerchief which her mother had carried at her own wedding.

Keeping tradition, for something new the bride wore a gold nugget, her wedding gift from the groom, and a gold necklace given to her by Mr. and Mrs. Ricky Farris. Something blue was a lace garter from her mother, and something old was an English sixpence placed in her shoe. The coin was minted in the year of her birth.

Carla Carpenter served as maid of honor, and bridesmaids were June Nierman and Janet Mays, sisters of the bride, and Dora Bonsal of Hart. The flower girl was Stephanie Farris of Hart, and Jaquita Hughes was the candle lighter.

Each bridal attendant wore a floor-length dress of baby blue polyester silk, belted at the waist, with white heart lace circling the neckline, sleeves and bodice.

Each carried a single long-stemmed white rose, accented with baby's breath and greenery, while the maid of honor carried two roses. Fresh baby's breath was worn in their hair. The flower girl carried a basket of silk flowers and leaves.

Serving the groom as best man was Craig DeBerry, and groomsmen were Jimmy Mandrell, Garry LaDuke and Dennis Mandrell, all of Olton. Eric Mays, nephew of the bride, was the ringbearer.

The groom wore a white formal tuxedo with tails, and a boutonniere of two white roses. Male attendants wore navy blue tuxes with baby blue shirts and white rose boutonnières.

Mandy Mandrell, sister of the groom, played "The Bridal Chorus" and "The Wedding March" on the organ. Jennie Lynn Hodges of Olton presented "Theme from Ice Castles," "Endless Love," and "Color My World."

Wedding guests were registered by Donna Griffin of Olton, sister of the groom. Rice attendants were Adrian and Alston Farris of Hart.

At the reception following the ceremony, the bride's table was covered with a white linen cutwork cloth and featured brass appointments. The cake was made of three heart-shaped layers, decorated with navy and white silk flowers and a lace, heart-shaped top-piece. Flowers were an arrangement of fresh daisies, greenery and baby's breath.

Pineapple punch and the wedding cake were served to guests by Suzanne Farris of Hart, Debbie Felts and Vicki Clary.

A floor-length navy cloth covered the groom's table, which also featured brass appointments. The groom's sisters, Mandy and Donna, served champagne, coffee, sandwiches, pinwheels and melon balls.

The bride chose an ivory crepe dress, with matching jacket, and a corsage of gardenias at the waistline for her going-away outfit.

The bride is a 1981 graduate of Dimmitt High School and had been employed at Somethin' Special.

The groom is a 1980 graduate of Olton High School and attended West Texas State University in Canyon. He is engaged in farming.

Police calls

Two juveniles were arrested during the week by city police in connection with two recent vandalism incidents.

The youths were arrested in connection with the recent vandalism of the school bus barn and of a house in Dimmitt. They have been turned over to juvenile authorities.

City officers also arrested a 20-year-old Dimmitt man for running a stop sign and failure to appear. The man was released upon payment of his fine of $23.50. Another Dimmitt man was arrested for driving while his license was suspended. His case is pending.

A 27-year-old man was arrested by sheriff's officers this week for theft of over $200. The man had originally been arrested on public intoxication charges, and was a trustee at the county jail. According to sheriff's officers, he was re-arrested and charged with theft of over $200 of the county's money.

Highway patrolmen arrested four men on misdemeanor DWI charges. All four posted bond and their cases are pending.

Three other men were arrested on DWI charges, and two paid fines of $350 and $325. The third man posted a cash bond and his case is pending.

City police and state troopers arrested eight men on public intoxication charges. Five paid fines and were released, and action is pending on the other three. One man posted a cash bond, and one man was also charged with disorderly conduct.

A 20-year-old Hereford man was arrested this week for driving under the influence of drugs. Bond has been set at $2,000.

Highway patrolmen arrested three men on drunk pedestrian charges. All paid $100 fines.

A 19-year-old Dimmitt woman was arrested on disorderly conduct charges and posted $50 bond.

One man was arrested for disorderly conduct and criminal mischief and paid a $275 fine, and a 20-year-old man posted $500 bond following an arrest for theft by check.

AHA to outline plans Oct. 13

The Castro County Chapter of the American Heart Association will meet at noon on Oct. 13 in the Plains Memorial Hospital dining room to outline plans for the new year, according to chapter secretary Jean Petty.

Carolyn Moore of Lubbock, Area II Director for the association, will attend the meeting. Preparations for the February Heart Month Campaign will also be discussed.

Statistics cited by the association show that America is far ahead of other countries in deaths from coronary attacks. Japan, Switzerland, Venezuela and Austria have the lowest death rates from heart problems.

"Our chances of dying from a heart attack or stroke are 50-50," the report revealed, adding that "heart death is largely an American problem and is a consequence of the way we live."

AFS committee elects, outlines year's plans

Dimmitt's American Field Service Committee elected new officers, presented three certificates of appreciation and made plans for the coming year last Thursday.

Hazel Nelson was elected president of the local chapter, succeeding Janice Bell.

Other officers elected or re-elected were Mildred Bradford, treasurer; Earline West, secretary; Doug Pybus, student selection coordinator; Pat Bagley, faculty advisor; Annie Calvert, Mildred Bradford, Gayle Ward and June Parker, family selection coordinators; Janice Bell, student-family liaison officer; and Don Nelson, publicity coordinator.

As the outgoing president, Mrs. Bell presented certificates of appreciation to last year's host families, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Pybus and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hrabal, and to Mrs. Bradford, who has served as chapter treasurer and interviewer for years.

The chapter voted to send a letter to all Chamber of Commerce members, asking whether they could provide free services or merchandise discounts to AFS exchange students.

Several Dimmitt businesses provide exchange students with free movies, haircuts or styling, photos, etc.

Mrs. Bell explained that each AFS student receives only $20 per month allowance from AFS International, and that free services and discounts would make the student's personal money go farther, and also would keep the program within the financial reach of more potential host families in the future. Also, she said, the policy would involve the community more in the student exchange program.

Mrs. Bradford reported that the Dimmitt United Way had funded the community participation fee of $975 to the local chapter, and that the money had been forwarded to AFS International.

She said the chapter treasury now has $200. Mrs. Bell noted that more funds will be needed during the year for such expenses as student trips, Christmas present, graduation gift, year-end shipping costs, etc.

Individuals and student organizations have provided these incidental funds in the past, she said.

"A lot of people think the community pays the full cost of the program, but it isn't that way," Mrs. Bell explained. "The community's participation fee is only a fraction of the total cost. It costs an exchange student's family an average of $3,000 for a full year and $1,800 for the Summer Exchange Program. This is paid by the student's country or by his or her family. And the host family has the added expense of an extra child."

She added that she felt the educational and cultural-exchange benefits made the program well worth the cost.

Mrs. Bell also reported that a Dimmitt girl has expressed an interest in becoming an exchange student to Australia.

The committee voted to establish as its regular meeting time the third Thursday of each month at 3:40 p.m., in the Homemaking Dept. living room of Dimmitt High School. All meetings are open to the public.

Robert Watson of Ireland, this year's AFS exchange student, and three members of his American family — Bobbi, Wendy and Mark Bruegel — met with the committee.

Committee members agreed to remain in touch with the AFS International office in New York and with AFS field representatives regarding the situation of Mia Berg of Norway, who is still hospitalized in Amarillo as the result of a pickup-motorcycle accident in August.

Grand Jury indicts nine defendants

Gene King of Hereford, former manager of Easter Grain, was indicted on three counts of theft last Wednesday, and eight other defendants were indicted by the Grand Jury of the 64th District Court in Dimmitt.

Three indictments were returned against King, with each indictment alleging a separate theft of more than $10,000. This was a reindictment of King who was originally indicted last May.

The Grand Jury also indicted Miguel Cantu of Easter on charges of aggravated assault in connection with the Sept. 3 shooting of Jose Sanchez near Easter. The defendant has not yet been apprehended.

Steven Gaylord Fellows, 49, of Dallas was indicted for theft and the unauthorized use of a vehicle. He was charged with one count of theft of a truckload of potatoes and one count of unauthorized use of truck and trailer. The defendant is incarcerated in Castro County jail. The potatoes were loaded at Durco and were never delivered and have been unaccounted for.

Arturo Garza, 17, of Mission was indicted for unauthorized use of a vehicle. The defendant pleaded guilty before Judge Marvin Marshall and was fined $150 costs, and ordered to pay $314 restitution, and reporting fees totaling $180. He will be on probation for one year. Domingo Carlos Garza, 22, of Hereford was indicted on charges of possession of a prohibited weapon.

Two Hereford men, Joe Lucio and Mike Castellano were indicted on charges of theft. And two Dimmitt men, Liborio Ortega and Ricky Newton were indicted on subsequent DWI offenses.

Four place in Lubbock fair

Three Dimmitt youth and a Nazareth youth have placed in livestock shows in the Panhandle-South Plains Fair continuing this week in Lubbock.

Dimmitt FFA member Corbin Connell's 248-pound Chester barrow was named champion over the Other Purebreds Class, as well as taking first place in the heavy-weight category of the same class in the barrow show.

Also in the same class, Dimmitt FFA member Kennen Howell's barrow placed first in the middle-weight category.

In the beef cattle show, Dimmitt FFA member Doug Nelson placed second in the early summer category of the junior Angus class.

Under the dairy cattle competition, Nazareth FFA member Roger Huseman placed second in the junior yearling category in the junior Jerseys class, and third in the junior yearling heifers category of the Jersey class.

King testifies before state sub-committee

"The Texas Corn Growers Association has put a top priority for the 1981-82 year on adopting better marketing strategies," Carl L. King, association president, wrote in a letter to the State Senate Sub-Committee on Agriculture concerning the sub-committee's hearings in San Antonio Monday.

King, a resident of Dimmitt, said in the letter, "It is my hope that the committee will consider formulating a marketing group to study orderly marketing for farm products, which includes foreign exports as well."

Other areas the association is concerned with include water availability, research, field demonstrations, loan guarantee funds, and field scouting.

King described the position of farmers as "at the brink of disaster because of the low farm prices on basic commodities."

Texas has quality products as the result of research and development, and the potential for food grade corn is enormous, according to King, if only markets can be developed. The recent gasohol legislation was cited as a step in the right direction.

In King's report, much credit was given to the state's extension service programs, especially in the areas of research for product improvement, setting up field demonstrations to educate individual farmers on these improvements, field scouting and other pest management programs.

In the area of loan guarantee funds, King said, "We still feel like some attempt should be made to disperse funds to young farmers so that they can be helped and can keep the land within the family."

King thanked the Texas Dept. of Agriculture, the Environmental Protection Agency and Texas Agriculture Commissioner Reagan Brown for their efforts in getting clearances passed on several insecticides.

Local residents win Tri-State Fair honors

Eight residents of Castro County were awarded 17 prizes in four areas of competition at the 1981 Tri-State Fair held last week in Amarillo.

Five people from Nazareth placed in the culinary and textile competitions, while three members of the Dimmitt FFA chapter took honors in the barrow and lamb shows.

Jarin Connell and his 246-lb. Chester White took Reserve Grand Champion honors of the barrow show and received $100. The animal also was named Reserve Champion of the medium weight division.

Lonnie Robb's lamb was named Champion in the fine wool cross, heavy weight division. Robb also placed second in showmanship.

Woody Glass showed the Reserve Champion in the fine wool lambs, light weight division.

Catherine Hochstein won six first-place ribbons, four in the culinary and two in the textiles divisions, as well as a second place in the culinary division.

Her awards were: pickles and relishes — beets 1st, peaches, 1st, sauerkraut, 2nd; preserves — pears, 1st, applebutter, 1st; sewing — formal/wedding dress, 1st, and child's dress, 1st.

Sharon Brockman won a first prize for a child's suit in the sewing class, textiles division; and a second place for her sweet cucumbers in the pickles and relish class, culinary division.

In the culinary division, preserves class, Patti Kern won a second place in the other preserves category.

Melissa Kay Brockman and Randy Hochstein competed in the junior culinary competition, with Hochstein rating a first in the other pickles category of the pickles class, canned products division, and Miss Brockman earning a second in the fancy pack class of canned products.

WT fund drive begins Oct. 4

Thousands of alumni and university friends will be contacted Oct. 4-30 by telephone to solicit contributions for the West Texas State University Student Foundation, which provides for many scholarship programs at WTSU.

Phone-a-thon Chairperson Katie McBride, a business major from Melrose, N.M. said the foundation was so pleased with last year's results of $30,000 in pledges, that this year the goal has been raised to $35,000.

Of the amount raised last year, $13,600 went for scholarships in 17 academic areas, $4,000 for a WTSU Student Foundation Honor Scholarship program for graduates of junior and community colleges, and $2,400 for an endowment for honor scholars.

Teams of callers will meet from 6:30 to 9 p.m. on Sundays through Thursdays throughout October. Teams will consist of members of the Student Foundation and also volunteers from campus organizations and residence halls.

Prizes will be awarded each night to the individual caller with the highest number of pledges. The organization with the largest combined pledges in one night will be given a travelling plaque to keep until next year.

As Bobcats face Tulia, who's mad as hornets?

By JOHN BROOKS

A recharged Tulia Hornet squad will host Dimmitt Friday night at 8, and the Bobcats are already mad as, well, hornets.

Coach Mike Major assures everyone the Bobcats will be there.

"Our players are just as mad as I am," exclaimed Major. "(Tulia) Coach (Bill) Martin told me a couple of weeks ago that Tulia wouldn't pull off, and they weren't taking any prisoners. I told him that would be nothing new to us, but it sure did irritate me."

Two weeks ago, Muleshoe took no prisoners in trouncing the Hornets, 34-7, after Tulia had lost several players the week before against state-ranked Littlefield. Last week, Tulia had everyone back, and took out their frustrations on Boys' Ranch, 47-0.

"Tulia has a case of the 'F's,'" said Major. "They are fast, ferocious, and fed. They are a better team than 2-2."

Any football coach would enjoy having a state-meet sprint relay team in their backfield, and that's just what Coach Martin is smiling about.

Wingback Chris Sperry (6-0, 170), tailback Roland Powell (5-9, 145) and the Amarillo Globe-News Player of the Week the first week of the season, and fullback Karl Travis (6-0, 195), were all members of the 400-meter relay team, and they'll all get a chance to prove their mettle Friday night on the ground, as Tulia has gone to the air very seldom the first four weeks.

Another member of that relay team, John David Wilks, was injured against Littlefield, but may be back in action this week. If he's back, Sperry will be at quarterback, with Wilks at wingback.

Coach Martin flashes a grin when he looks at his front line, too. The line corps is led by tackle J. L. Nolen, a 6-4, 250-lb. junior, and Melvin Johnson, a 6-5, 210-lb. senior. The offensive line, averages 190 pounds a man. That's not from tackle-to-tackle... it's from END-TO-END.

While scoring 47 points last week, the Hornets had only 223 yards total and just eight first downs. Tulia took advantage of every opportunity afforded by the Roughriders, including three turnovers and three poor punts.

Dimmitt will be searching for a winning combination this week with a mostly-junior-and-senior lineup.

Richard Guzman is expected to be back at the quarterback spot after missing three days of school with the flu last week. The Bobcats will open with Larry Espinosa at fullback and Johnny Gonzales at tailback.

"We're going to miss Dwight (McDonald, who suffered a broken arm last week), and Ty (Koch, who suffered a concussion last week). Jay Nelson is 'iffy' right now. He stretched some ligaments in his ankle and may not be able to go this week," said Major.

"Don't worry about these kids, or the coaches. We don't know anything but to just keep plugging away," said Coach Major.

"We'd like to win to Homecoming games in a row... this week at Tulia, and our own next week. We don't expect Tulia to throw the ball much. They have so many outstanding running backs they may not throw at all. Their slowest man runs a 10.2 hundred. I hope they don't beat us up too bad. Their line is tenacious. We could stand one of our guys on another 'one's shoulders and still not be as big, or weigh as much, as their line.

"We'll probably try our aerial game again," Major speculated. "Richard is a bit more seasoned than anyone we had at quarterback last week, and the receivers showed a lot of promise."

Game time is 8 p.m. Friday in Tulia.

I WOULDST thou didst itch from head to foot and I had the scratching of thee.

Don't Blame Your Age For Poor Hearing

Chicago, Ill.—A free offer of special interest to those who hear but do not understand words has been announced by Beltone. A non-operating model of one of the smallest Beltone aids of its kind will be given absolutely free to anyone requesting it.

Send for this model, put it on and wear it in the privacy of your own home. While many people with a hearing loss will not receive any significant benefit from any hearing aid, this free model will show you how tiny hearing help can be. It is not a real hearing aid, and it's yours to keep free. The actual aid weighs less than a fourth of an ounce, and it's all at ear level, in one unit.

These models are free, so we suggest you write for yours now. Again, we repeat, there is no cost, and certainly no obligation. Thousands have already been mailed, so write today to Dept. 15937, Beltone Electronics Corp., 4201 W. Victoria, Chicago, Illinois 60646.

Enjoying a get together at the home of Tommy and Raelene Hoelting on Saturday evening were the Norbert Hoeltings of Olpe, Kan., the Wert Hoeltings of California, Herman Birkenfeld's family, Jim Hoelting's family, Kenny Schulte's family and Sylvia Hoelting.

Funeral services were held Thursday morning for A. P. Hoelting at Holy Family Church in Nazareth with Father Stanley officiating. Burial was in Holy Family Cemetery. Coming for the funeral were his brothers Wert and wife Maureen from 29 Palms, Calif., Norbert and wife Mary from Olpe, Kansas; and sisters, Sister Norbert, O.S.B. from North Little Rock, Arkansas, and Mrs. W. J. Albracht from Hereford. Also flying in were four cousins from Lawrence, Nebraska; Lyle Hoelting, Edgar Buescher, Harold Schroer and

Bill. Congratulations to John and Cindy Backus on the birth of a girl Tamra Ann on Sept. 13 in the Canyon Hospital. Grandparents are Earl Backus and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Woods of Eagletown, Okla. Tamra Ann was baptized Sunday in Holy Family Church with Father Stanley Crocchiola officiating. Her Godparents were Francis and Bea Acker of Dimmitt. Those enjoying dinner at the John Backus home were Father

Stanley, Sister Celestine Marie, Earl Backus, Robert Verkamp's family, Francis Acker's family, Bert and Marie Venhaus, Helen Backus, Laurence and Mary Acker. Tamra Ann is the 72nd great grandchild of 95-year-old Mrs. Flora Backus who resides at the Rest Home in Dimmitt.

Glen and Jill Ehly of Wichita Falls were here for the weekend to visit with family and friends.

Congratulations to Tommy and Teresa Wethington on the birth of a son, Stanton, Sept. 17. Grandparents are Thelma Wethington and Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Jobe of Tulia.

Carroll and Denice Gerber were happy to return home Saturday afternoon. Carroll seems to be doing fine following surgery in Oklahoma City. He'll be under the care of Dr. Kelleher in Amarillo for some time. They thank everyone for the many prayers and cards during this past month.

The Albert Gerbers enjoyed a visit from Nub and Mary Hoelting on Monday morning, also George Bowers of Kansas and Bill Hoelting of Odessa Thursday afternoon.

Claude and Brenda Annen hosted a barbecue Sunday evening for a large number of relatives and friends. They all helped celebrate Brenda's birthday.

Deadline is Saturday for concert memberships

Membership deadline is 5 p.m. Saturday for the Hereford Community Concert Association.

The association will present a series of live, professional concerts at the Hereford High School Auditorium, beginning Oct. 26 with "Chanticleer." One of the features of the association is a children's reception for the children attending to meet the California Boys Choir following their performance on Feb. 7 in Hereford.

Another Hereford concert is scheduled for Jan. 21. It is "The Musical World of Shigem. Matsumoto," the leading soprano of the San Francisco Opera.

Five concerts are scheduled in Plainview. Lubbock will host three concerts. They are: Bohemian Virtuosi of Prague, Nov. 6; Branko Krsmanovich Chorus, Feb. 19; and Lillian Kallir (pianist), Apr. 3. The three Dalhart concerts will include: Max Morath (ragtime), Nov. 14; California Boys Choir, Feb. 8; Aspen Soloists, March 20.

Dues for the association are $15 for adults and $6 for students. Family memberships are available for $35. Attendance at concerts is by membership only. No individual tickets are sold. Business or service organizations may buy tickets for students to use.

Members will be qualified to attend community concerts offered in Hereford, Lubbock, Plainview, Dalhart and Borger.

Persons interested in joining the association are encouraged to call Dwight Joiner 647-2503, Chuck Braafadt 647-4567, or Betty Hoover 647-4302.

GED tests scheduled

Next Wednesday (Oct. 7) is the date scheduled for the first of a series of GED tests to be given in Dimmitt.

The tests will be given the first Wednesday and Thursday of every month at 8:30 a.m. in the Dimmitt high school counselor's office.

You asked for it!

Now we've got it! Standard Communications announces compact two-way radios with all the specs users ask for. Models 766L UHF and 866L VHF are the first in a new generation of mobile radios designed to meet your communication needs in the 80's. Ask for them at your local mobile radio dealer.

Two-way communications improved nine ways:

1. Four channel capacity. Order what you need. 2. Improved reception. 2-pole I.F. crystal filters and an 8-pole Hi-Q ceramic I.F. filter for clean reception and delivery. 3. Synthesized circuitry. You can change frequency without changing crystals. 4. Automatic level control. Compensates for declining voltage, maintains rated power output over greater primary range. 5. Larger heat sink. Reduces heat buildup and power slumps, even during long transmissions. 6. Time-out timer option. Automatically shuts your mike off if it's accidentally left open. 7. Tunable continuous tone-coded squelch system. Minimizes channel chatter and interference, using a special tone code for your fleet. 8. High power. You get 35 watt RF power output with the 766L UHF and 40 watts with the 866L VHF. 9. Convenient option plug. Lets you add other communication options.

Residential beauty spot

THE JIMMIE GEORGE HOME at 303 NW Seventh St. received the Residential Beauty Spot award for September from the Dimmitt Chamber of Commerce. Large trees and shrubs include a cedar border, willow and evergreens. Ivy graces the lamp post and the wall near the garage, and tubs of live plants accent the front porch. Earlier in the summer, the sidewalk was flanked by border flowers. The Chamber of Commerce names a Residential Beauty Spot each month during the spring and summer to recognize homeowners who lead the way in making Dimmitt a pretty town.

Myasthenia Gravis bazaar, clinic set

An Arts and Crafts Bazaar, which will benefit the Northwest Texas Chapter of the Myasthenia Gravis Foundation, is scheduled for Nov. 4 from 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. in the Muleshoe State Bank community room.

Chapter member Bessie Elder of Dimmitt said, "We're asking that anyone wanting to donate items for the bazaar should bring them to the chapter's Oct. 1 meeting at 7 p.m. in the First Baptist Church of Hale Center, or call me at 647-5350, and I'll gladly take them."

She added that the money raised by this chapter project will be used for research, distribution of educational literature and information, and the annual MG patient free clinics.

The 11th annual Melba Bandy Masters MG Free Clinic is set for Oct. 2-3, also in Hale Center, at Hi-Plains Hospital, conducted by Dr. J. E. Tether of Indianapolis.

Donations for the bazaar will also be accepted at the clinic sessions.

A patient must be referred to the clinic by a doctor, and an appointment is necessary. Gordon Russell, administrator of Hi-Plains Hospital, said appointments may be made by calling 839-2471, extension 36.

Myasthenia gravis is a neuro-muscular disease characterized by spells of extreme, sometime fatal, weakness. It is actually a failure of communication between healthy nerves and healthy muscles, and is extremely difficult to diagnose.

Dr. Tether is one of the world's foremost authorities on the diagnosis and treatment of myasthenia. This will be the 20th clinic he has conducted in Hale Center.

View from the library

By BRICK AUTRY

How nice is your library? It must be pretty nice. One of the Patel boys came by my place the other day saying he had nothing to do and had just come for a visit. I duly introduced him to my one-room apartment, the TV, the kitchen stove, my refrigerator, my dirty dishes, and whatever else a visitor might want to see in a bachelor apartment. After he looked the whole place over for a minute, he earnestly and sympathetically said, "This place is a real dump, isn't it? Better if you could live down at the library."

And that, folks, is how nice your library is.

Travel books have been a long-time favorite. Lately there have been several fine ones. Two of the latest ones have been mentioned previously in this column. One was the book "Patagonian Express" by an author who rode by train from New York to the tip of South America. The other was called "Going to Extremes," which the author did when he visited Alaska. The result of his travels was an amusing book which any Alaska Chamber of Commerce would gladly burn (cheerfully along with its author). Both books must have had some appeal because we lost them soon afterward.

Here's another travel book, and it's about the Mississippi River. "Old Glory: An American Voyage" by Jonathan Raban is not just another sweet, syrupy tribute to the American South. It is about the author's trip down the Mississippi on a small boat which he made a couple of years ago.

Mr. Raban, a British citizen, writes all about the people, the towns and the locks from Wisconsin to New Orleans. It's not all nice. In some ways the great river may be one of our most depressing areas to visit.

Nevertheless, Raban keeps his British sense of humor about it all and gives us a fine travelog which keeps one in suspense from event to event as he floats down the river.

Unfortunately, the book has no photos. Mr. Raban had his hands full just trying to get down the river in one piece.

Jonathan Raban also wrote a book on his travels in Arabia. It's in the library, too.

FHA barbecue set Oct. 9

The Dimmitt High School FHA club will hold its annual barbecue supper Oct. 9 from 5-7 p.m. at Richardson Elementary's cafeteria.

Barbecue beef and sausage with all the trimmings will be served, prior to the homecoming game with Boys Ranch.

Take out orders will be available. Tickets are $3.50 for adults and $2.50 for children, and may be purchased now from any FHA member.

Local students on honor rolls

Five students from Dimmitt and one from Nazareth were among the more than 2,300 students at Texas Tech University to qualify for the dean's honor rolls in the six colleges during the second term of the 1981 summer session.

Scott Armstrong, Clinton Dawson, Gregory Harmon, Susan Sadler and Cindy Sageiser of Dimmitt and Tony Brockman of Nazareth all qualified for deans' honor rolls.

To qualify, a student must have a grade point average of 3.0 or more on a 4.0 scale and must have taken at least six semester hours of work.

A Salute to Our 4-H Boys and Girls NATIONAL 4-H WEEK . . . OCT. 4-10

Pathways to the Future

Invest in our youth -- be a 4-H adult leader

If you're an adult who likes to work with youngsters, then 4-H and you can fill some of the many needs of youth today.

The needs vary, as do the youth. But one thing remains constant — the need for adult direction!

Or if you have children, maybe you would like to get them involved in one of the county's clubs, or help get a 4-H club started in your neighborhood or area. Just contact the County Extension Office in the courthouse.

What is 4-H?
It's an organization for all youth, ages, 9-19. It dedicates itself to the development of youth, encouraging them to recognize their strengths and weaknesses, and to build a better life, community and world.

Castro County's five clubs meet monthly for club business, recreation and community service activities. In addition, an individual 4-H member may choose one or more subjects to receive training in at special project meetings.

Adult leaders of Castro County's five community 4-H clubs are:

Dimmitt — Charlene Hunter, Yvonne Huffines and Susan Kaderly.

Bethel — Don and Carolyn Moke and George and Pat Bagley.

Flagg — Stanley and Connie Nelson, David and Retta Knox, and Dan and Jean Petty.

Easter — Ed and Rena Standlee, Beth Schulte and Sonia Wheelless.

Nazareth — Bill and Catherine Hochstein, Dennis and Catherine Huseman, and Louis and Gin Huseman.

County 4-H members can get involved in such things as:

- 50 different projects
- Music and drama activities
- Team and individual sports
- Public speaking
- Camping (winter and summer)
- Safety and health activities
- District, state and national trips
- 4-H Roundup

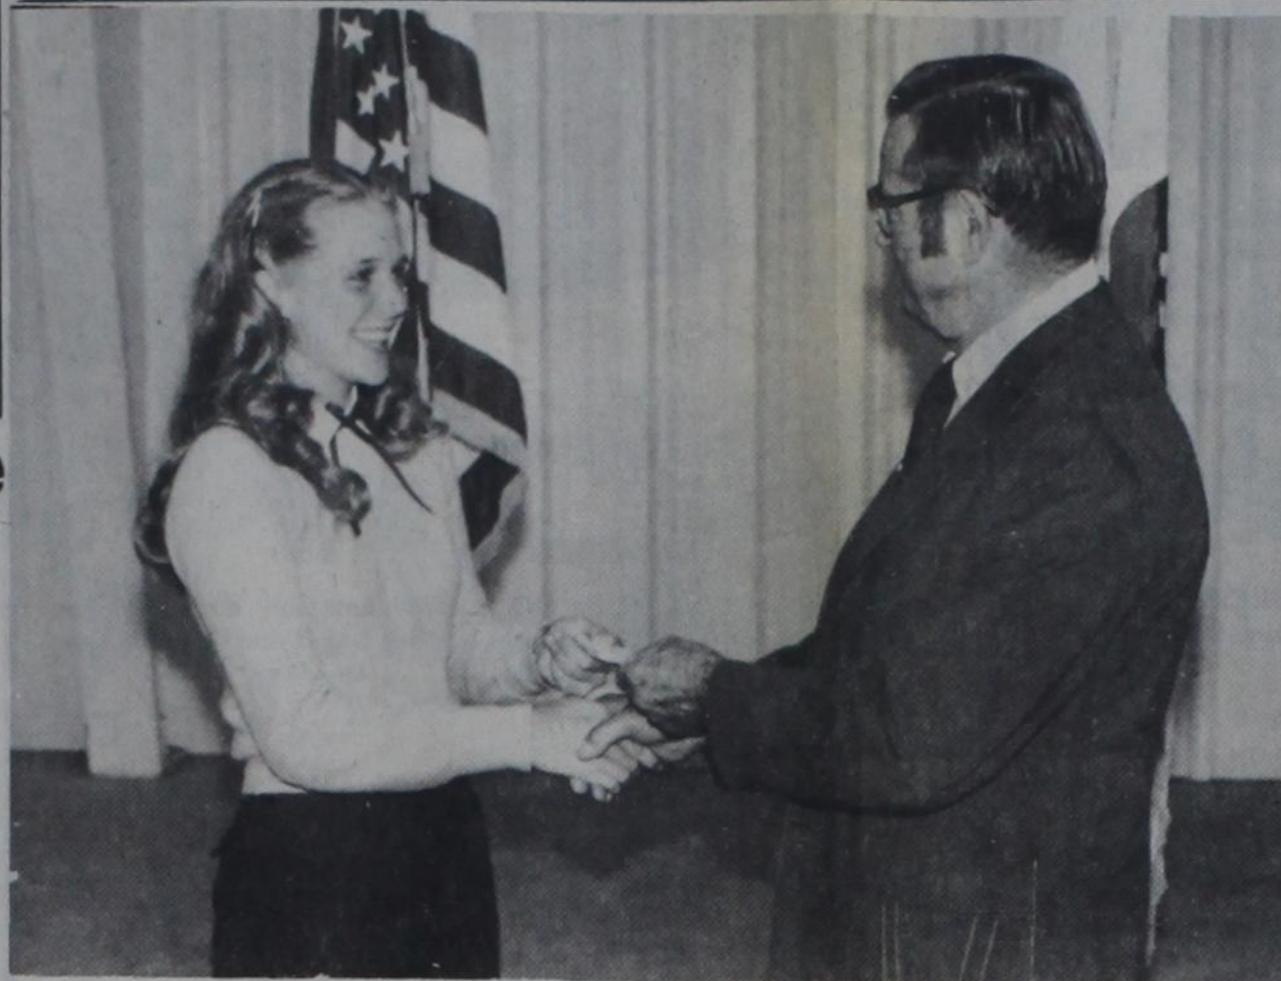

4-H enables a child to discover himself and, with adult guidance, to develop life skills important for a fulfilling lifetime. It provides him with a wholesome social outlet and teaches him new responsibilities. In full, new dimensions are added to many lives.

New dimensions can be added to your life, too, through active involvement in 4-H. Consider some of these possibilities:

- Be a friend
- Career counsel a youth
- Evaluate club events
- Be a parent helper
- Assist in fund raising
- Be a "4-H parent" to members whose parents aren't functioning
- Be a resource person
- Chaperone an event
- Provide refreshments
- Coordinate club activities
- Coordinate projects
- Teach for one meeting
- Be on a calling committee
- Assist in transportation

Or you may prefer more involved commitments, such as being a general leader of a 4-H club, or being a project or activity leader.

Regardless of your choice, you are contributing to a growing child, and to tomorrow's world.

GOLD STAR 4-H GIRL in 1980 was Laurie Sides, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Sides and a member of the Bethel 4-H Club. Here, she accepts her Gold Star Award from County Judge M. L. Simpson at the annual 4-H Awards Banquet last October. Miss Sides, a senior in Dimmitt High School this year, has served as president of her club and as an officer in the 4-H Junior Leaders and County 4-H Council. She took part in the Citizenship Heritage and Short Course Tour to Washington, D.C., last year and is active in school and church events.

GOLD STAR 4-H BOY for 1980 was Kenneth Howell, shown receiving his award from County Judge M. L. Simpson at the annual 4-H Awards Banquet last October. Howell, a member of the Bethel 4-H Club, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Howell. Although he is one of the youngest in years to receive the county's top boys' 4-H award, Howell is now in his seventh year of 4-H, and has been a consistent winner in swine, trapshooting, horse, sheep, riflery and beef programs, and also has carried projects in photography and parliamentary procedure.

What are our 4-H clubs doing?

Castro County's five community 4-H clubs are busy with practical projects — as usual.

Each club has the option each year of voting on a theme, or long-range project, for the year. In addition, each member can carry out his or her own personal projects from among the many available through the 4-H program.

Some projects can be carried out best by the team or group method, such as method demonstrations (twos), team judging (usually four to a team), etc. And some of these project areas have so many participants that special-interest clubs are formed, such as the Horse Club, the Trap Shooting Club, etc.

Still, the basic units in 4-H are the individual, the family and the community club, working in conjunction with the Extension Service and the county, state and national 4-H programs.

Castro County has five community clubs — Bethel, Dimmitt, Easter, Flagg and Nazareth. Every 4-H'er in the county is a member of one of these community clubs, in addition to any other 4-H project group or club he or she may be active in.

Here's what the county's five community clubs have been doing during the year:

Bethel

The Bethel 4-H Club's overall project or theme last year was health.

The Bethel Club had 4-H'ers in the following projects: arts and crafts, shooting sports, swine, small engines, sheep, steers, foods, livestock judging, and entomology.

This year the overall theme is safety. Bethel 4-H'ers are in the same projects as last year plus several are trying some new projects.

Regular meetings are planned plus tours, parties, and special programs for the Bethel community.

Bethel members are now getting their animals ready for the stock shows which will begin in January. Several club members entered the fair this month in arts and crafts, gardening, photography, foods and clothing.

Dimmitt

The Dimmitt 4-H Club has been very active this year and has many good programs planned for the coming year. They meet once a month in the basement of the courthouse and everyone is invited to attend. The leaders for the coming year are Charlene Hunter, Susan Kaderly and Yvonne Huffines.

Programs scheduled for the coming year include leathercraft, drugs, photography, foreign exchange student, a tour of Arrowhead Mills, a Christmas program and election of officers.

In addition to the regular monthly meetings, the 4-H'ers help with the Stock Show concession stand, do community projects and attend the County Awards program. Members of the Dimmitt 4-H Club carry projects in horse, sheep, swine, shooting sports, foods, clothing, as well as many individual self-taught projects.

Anyone living in the Dimmitt area is invited to join the club. Any interested youth from 9-19 can call one of the three leaders or the Extension Office for details.

Easter

Members of the Easter 4-H Club attended the county food and clothing shows during the past year. Several of the club members advanced to the district contest.

At Christmas, the club went caroling and presented members of the community with baskets filled with cookies. They worked in the concession stand at the Junior Fat Stock Show.

Some of their programs for the past year included a First-Aid class, a demonstration on Hydroponics, and an aerobics demonstration.

Some of the club members are active in the 4-H entomology program and the trap shooters. Several members had entries in the Castro County Fair and served refreshments and provided a rest stop for the Young Homemakers on their Walk-a-Thon.

Programs planned for 1981-1982 include animal, clothing, and food projects. The Easter 4-H'ers will help with the Fat Stock Show concession stand, go caroling, present cookie baskets, and participate in the County 4-H Food Show and dress revue again this year. Special features for the coming year will be a tour of Arrowhead Mills and a demonstration of leathercraft and entomology. The club plans a Spring cleaning for the community in May.

Flagg

The Flagg 4-H club had several members who excelled in some of their projects this past year.

Cindy Knox from Hart won a Reserve Champion sheep award in the Hart FFA show and also won the Showmanship Award. Scott Nelson showed the Breed Champion sheep in the Hereford Stock Show. Gwen and Melinda Wilson both from Hart won the County Dress Review and went on to district competition. Melinda Wilson won a "Best of Show" award at the fair for his yellow corn. Justin and Joel Nelson were in the District Horse Show and placed first in grade geldings and registered geldings. Justin Nelson had Reserve Champion gelding in the Five County Horse Show. Joel Nelson's team placed second in State in the Trap Shooting.

We had good participation from all our members in all of the county activities from the stock show to the food show and the fashion review. Scott, Lisa and Laura Nelson took their sheep to the Houston Livestock Show. Dennis and Kevin Petty won first places in jelly, vegetables and crafts at the county fair. Laura Nelson, Cindy and Shelly Knox, Gay and Holly Waggoner, Gwen and Melinda Wilson, Laura Waggoner all won blue and red ribbons at the food show. Ken Travis, Jana Upton, Camille and Carla Summers along with all the others won ribbons at the county stock show. Teresa Jackson, Cindy and Shelly Knox and Judy Mauk were also in the fashion review.

We had interesting programs through the year. Carl Neinaast, the Hart High School photography teacher, gave an interesting program on photography. Rita Knox, the Hart school nurse, gave a program on first aid. We went on a hay ride at Christmas to the South Hills Manor and took a basket of fruit. At the end of the year we had a family cookout at the Dan Petty home. This summer, Mona Merritt conducted a needlepoint class for Lisa and Laura Nelson, Camille and Carla Summers and Jan and Jill Nelson (of the Dimmitt club).

The Flagg 4-H had a full year in 1980-81 and are planning an exciting year ahead. Our club consists of kids from all over the county, including Sunnyside and Hart. We would be glad for anyone in these areas who are interested in 4-H as members or leaders to come to our meetings. We meet in different homes each month. This gives the members and leaders a chance to get to know all the families. 4-H is a family oriented club.

Nazareth

The Nazareth 4-H Club has been very successful in the past year, with 71 members contributing to its success.

Quite a few new members have joined the club and are learning many new things.

The annual club banquet was held recently and Janet Huseman was chosen "outstanding girl" and Roger Huseman "outstanding boy" of the Nazareth 4-H club. The participation and completion awards were also given out to all the members.

Plans for the coming year have been made and they include having a program at each meeting. For example, in February the program will be stock show plans, in April it will be method demonstrations, and in June and July the members will enjoy roller skating and swimming.

The members of the Nazareth 4-H club have worked hard in the past and will continue to do so in the future to make it another rewarding year.

Lamb project is a family affair

When Jan and Jill Kaderly moved to Dimmitt nearly two years ago, 4-H and sheep were not a part of their lives. Since then, the 10-year-old twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Bart Kaderly have joined the Castro County 4-H Club and have begun what promises to be a successful venture into sheep raising and showing.

On Sept. 21, Jan and Jill exhibited the Grand Champion ewe and the champion pair of ewes in the junior division of the National Hampshire Show at Albuquerque. Of the five sheep the girls took, one of their two yearlings placed second and the other third. And a yearling buck shown by the girls placed fifth in its class.

This was one of many shows the girls have attended, and this week they are showing at the South Plains Fair in Lubbock.

The Kaderlys moved to their Dimmitt farm from Galloway, Ohio, in January 1980.

"We started showing sheep about two years ago," says Jill. "We just thought we would give it a try to see how we could do. Also, we wanted to earn some money for college."

"When we get home from school we do our homework first," says Jan. "Then we go out and look over the sheep and see if everything is all right. Sometimes we walk the sheep. We feed them about 6 or 7 in the evening. Dad feeds them in the morning."

With the fifth-grade girls involved in band and Little Dribblers in school and cooking and sewing in 4-H, the sheep have become a family project.

"Mom does more than she had intended to do," says the girls' mother, Susan. "But, if you're going to have as many sheep as we do and be successful, everyone has to help."

"The show sheep have to be trimmed at least once a week during show season, and we have to watch their diet closely so they do not get too heavy."

"Before we show them we have to wash them with a special soap and blow-dry them," says Jan. "Then we card them out (puff the wool out) and even out the wool."

"Bart usually takes the sheep to the shows, then I bring the girls when they have to show so they will not miss so much school," says Susan, a 4-H leader for the coming year.

Dad doesn't mind the involvement at all.

"This is something our whole family enjoys doing together," Bart says. "And it's good for the girls. When they get home from school, and get their homework done, they go straight out and work with their sheep. We don't have to worry about whether they're making good use of their time."

Showing sheep has become a year-around business for the Kaderlys.

Following the Lubbock show this week, the Kaderlys will go to Dallas, then in mid-November they will attend the North American International Livestock Exposition in Louisville, Ky. Then in December they will begin making the market shows.

And it all started with a 4-H lamb project just two years ago.

A hamburger and ice cream party in the backyard of Gene and Sherri Bradley on Sunday, Sept. 13 ended the 1981 Castro County 4-H Horse Club activities.

Many trophies and ribbons were received by the 27 active members of the club this year. Participation in district and state horse judging, district and state horse showing, and Llano Estacado Horse Association were major activities for the year.

Senior, Junior and Pee Wee members stay very busy from March until September with their 4-H Horse projects. Senior members are those 14 years of age and older, juniors are those 9-13, and Pee Wee members are those under 9 years of age. Pee Wee members are not eligible for year-end awards in the Llano Estacado Association or for participation on the district level. However, they are able to gain much helpful experience at an early age and are the future of the Horse Club.

Beginning in March, officers and leaders were elected to serve for the year. Those elected were president, Kennen Howell; vice-president, Jerri Ka Clark; secretary, Jill Smith; and reporter, Kim Howell. Leaders chosen were Wesley and Norma Smith, Gene and Sherri Bradley and Bob and Sue Caddell. Under this leadership, the 4-H Horse Club had a very rewarding and successful year.

In April the horse judging teams went to the district contest in Lubbock. The senior team consisting of Kennen Howell, John Smith, Greg Odom and Stephen Bagley placed first and qualified for state, where they placed in the top 10. The junior team members were Joel and Justin Nelson, Chad Davis and Tod Bradley. This team placed second at district.

The Castro County Horse Club is a member of the Llano Estacado Horse Association. Other members are Bailey, Oldham, Lamb and Deaf Smith Counties. Each county has one show during the year. Excitement and anticipation grow as members compete at each show and accumulate points for year-end awards.

The year-end banquet was held in Hereford Aug. 29. Castro County members received 51 awards at this banquet. Norris Cole received the silver tray for the Grand Champion Mare and Morris Cole had the Reserve Champion Mare. Kim Howell had the Grand Champion Gelding and Justin Nelson had the Reserve Champion Gelding. Junior High Point Performance award went to Tod Bradley, while John Smith was the Senior High Point Performance runner-up. Buckles were given for first place in each class.

Another highlight of the year was the District Horse Show in Lubbock in July.

A dream and goal of each 4-H member is to qualify for the State Horse Show, which [See HORSE CLUB, Page 3B]

11 county 4-H members advance to State Roundup

By NEAL D. TINDOL
County Extension Agent
Eleven 4-H'ers from Castro County attended the Texas 4-H Roundup at Texas A&M University in June.

They earned the right to go to the state contest by winning the county and going to district, then winning district and going to state.

Four of the 4-H'ers went as a horse judging team. They won district by a landslide, and placed 10th overall at state. There were 28 teams at state, and all were district winners. These 4-H'ers had to judge horses at halter and performance, then give reasons before the judges.

The members of the winning team are John Smith, Greg Odom, Kennen Howell and Steven Bagley.

Castro County also had a dairy cattle judging team participating in the contest. They were Mark Huseman, Bart Huseman, Roger Huseman and Mark A. Kleman.

Mary Jean Huseman, who won her competition at district, competed in the Foods and Nutrition while her cousins, Karen and Janet Huseman, went to state with a method demonstration in health.

In addition to Texas 4-H Roundup, two Castro County youths participated in the Washington D.C. Citizenship Tour. This is a trip to Washington, D.C., by bus — touring and sight-seeing all the way up and back. While in Washington, the two 4-H'ers met with the Senate and House, as well as visited with local government officials. This trip is very educational and fun. Attending from Castro County were Rhonda Pevehouse and Johnny Hochstein.

Karen Huseman and Leigh Ann Huseman attended the Texas 4-H Congress in San Antonio. This is for older 4-H members to tour and meet with other 4-H'ers from across the state. Congress, as well as the citizenship tour, teach leadership to the 4-H members.

The cost to the federal government per participant in 4-H is only about $15. In contrast, studies indicate it costs as much as $17,000 per year to care for an adjudicated youth in a public institution.

was held in Waco this year. Norris Cole, Jerri Ka Clark and Jill Smith qualified this year.

Helping each other and working together is a must in the 4-H Horse project. Not only does the 4-H member stay busy upholding the 4-H Motto, "To Make the Best Better," but must have the help of his parents and other members. All pitch in to help groom, clean equipment, and keep the trailers clean and organized for each show.

Although the busiest season is over for most 4-H members, some go ahead and show in quarter horse shows the year round. The rest turn their horses out to pasture until time to put them in the barn to start another season.

4-H Council coordinates county work

By NEAL D. TINDOL
 County Extension Agent
 The governing and coordinating body of the county's 4-H program is the 4-H Council. It is composed of two 4-H members elected from each club, and two district council representatives.

The council met Wednesday to plan and discuss the Oct. 10 Awards Banquet. They will also elect officers for the coming year.

Members of the Castro County 4-H Council are Scott Simpson and Karen Huseman, representing the district council, Mark Standlee and Denise Schulte of the Easter 4-H Club, Mary Jean Huseman and Leigh Ann Huseman of the Nazareth 4-H Club, Scott Nelson and Camille Summers of the Flagg 4-H Club, and Beth Benton and Steven Bagley of the Bethel 4-H Club. The Dimmitt 4-H Club is represented by Karen Nelson and Sue Crozier.

The 4-H emblem is a green four-leaf clover with a white "H" on each leaf, symbolizing Head, Heart, Hands and Health.

As They Learn, They Serve... and the Future Is Brighter, Thanks to 4-H'ers

With pride, we salute our local 4-H Club members, for their efforts and achievements. Through their Head... Heart... Hands... Health program, they are learning better ways of farming and homemaking, better ways of working together, better citizenship for a brighter tomorrow. Valuable 4-H training for our youngsters means much to our community today... and will mean still more tomorrow, for experience shows that the worthwhile work, the aims and ideals of 4-H, do much to foster the priceless qualities of leadership. We take pleasure in congratulating our 4-H boys and girls, and wish them the best of success in all their projects.

JANET AND KAREN HUSEMAN

EDITH DURBIN AND CHRISTINE HUSEMAN
... Family Resource Management state qualifiers

Method demonstration teams qualify for state

Preparing and competing in "method demonstrations" is one of the main ways 4-H'ers can gain in-depth knowledge of a wide variety of practical subjects.

Working in two-person teams, 4-H'ers choose their topics, find and study research material, prepare a presentation, and either make or collect samples and visual aides to support their presentation. Then they present their programs to their fellow club members, parents, civic clubs, etc., for practice, and to judges for credit.

In this way, 4-H'ers can learn by doing, and can also share the knowledge they gain in their specific subjects.

Four Castro County senior 4-H'ers qualified this year to compete in method demonstrations at the Texas 4-H Roundup at College Station

June 2-3.

And three younger 4-H'ers captured first place in the junior division entomology contest at district.

Janet and Karen Huseman of Nazareth won first place in district competition with their method demonstration on health.

The county's other state qualifiers were Christine Huseman and Edith Durbin of Nazareth, who captured first place in the district with their method demonstration on Family Resource Management.

The district competition

"I learned a lesson about rewards for hard work that has stayed with me all my life. I have always known that whatever success I may have enjoyed is due, in large measure, to that fine 4-H leader, and my participation in 4-H."

—Roy Rogers, entertainer was held at Texas Tech, Lubbock.

Both of the method demonstration teams advanced to the Texas 4-H Roundup.

In junior division competition at district, Corbin Connell, Jay Gruhlkey and Troy Gross of Dimmitt teamed up to take first place honors in the entomology competition. They later were given a tour of Texas Tech's insect collections and facilities by Dr. Daryl Sanders, chairman of Tech's Entomology Dept.

The Dimmitt boys are members of the new 4-H entomology group that meets once a month. Allen Knutson, county Extension entomologist, is the group leader.

More than 300 4-H members from throughout the district competed in the District 4-H Roundup.

Other 4-H'ers placing in the district senior-level contests were Lonny Huseman and Mike Huseman of Nazareth, third in Mechanical and Hand Skills, and Robby Hottel of Dimmitt, third in Agronomy.

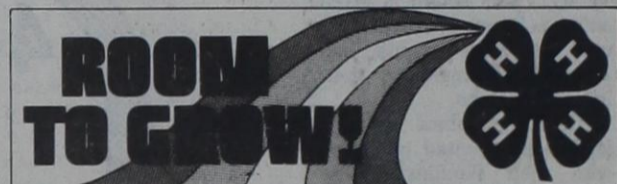

4-H offers young people from 9 to 19 a chance to learn by doing in a wide variety of projects, ranging from agriculture to electric energy and home management to wood science. 4-H is open to everyone. It's easy to join 4-H. Just call your county Extension office.

The annual 4-H Awards Banquet will be held Saturday, Oct. 10 at 7 p.m. in the County Exposition Building in Dimmitt.

The banquet will be hosted by the Castro County 4-H Council. Each 4-H member who has completed a 4-H project will receive a 4-H year pin. Included in the completion of a project are county record forms for each project.

Special award pins will be presented to those deserving 4-H'ers. 4-H adult leaders will also be recognized with leader pins.

Gold Star Awards will be presented to an outstanding 4-H boy and girl in the county. This award is given on the basis of leadership qualities, achievements, and active involvement in their individual clubs.

All 4-H members and 4-H leaders are invited to attend with their families. The banquet will feature a covered dish dinner, and each family is asked to bring enough to feed their family. The award banquet is a highlight of the National 4-H Week observance.

4-H'ers learn leadership

Seven young leaders from Castro County were among the approximately 175 4-H club members who participated in a three-day district teen leadership lab in Levelland in June. The annual three-day workshop for selected 4-H members was held on the campus of South Plains College, Neal Tindol, Castro County Extension agent, said. Adult leaders, Extension specialists and a team of older youths conducted the learning experiences for the 4-H'ers attending the lab. Participants took part in a variety of activities, from group learning and discussion sessions to game tournaments and special morning and evening ceremonies.

Training focused on teaching teen leaders to help others learn new projects and activities. Time for fun and relaxation provided the participants with the opportunity to make new friends.

The annual leader lab helps 4-H youths develop skills in working with younger club members, broaden their friendships and strengthen their leadership abilities.

4-H is a year-round youth program of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service which is open to all youths.

4-H trap team battles machines

By NEAL D. TINDOL
County Extension Agent
The Castro County 4-H Trap shooters started in May 1979, under the adult supervision of two award-winning local trap shooters, Lynn West and Ed Standlee.

The present trap shooters are still under the same supervision, except there have been several 4-H dads also helping with the many duties and responsibilities of teaching 30 4-H'ers how to shoot with proper safety.

In the three years since the project began, there has never been an accident of any kind. Very strict rules and regulations are adhered to, and any 4-H'er knows that if these rules are broken he or she will be asked to leave the trap range.

Twenty-five boys, ranging in age from 9 to 18, signed up for the project this year. Once a week they would pick up their shotguns and head for their new trap range northeast of town for coaching and practice.

"Trap" shooting dates back to the Middle Ages, when shot-gunners (usually royalty) would sharpen and match their skills by shooting at live pigeons under controlled conditions. A pigeon would be caged, or "trapped," and when the gunner commanded, "Pull!" the cage door would be pulled open to release the bird.

For obvious reasons, pigeons were replaced — first by glass balls, and eventually by the small, Frisbee-like clay discs that are used today. These "clay pigeons" are hurled into the air by a spring-loaded arm or chute, and simulate the angle of a rising bird as they sail across or away. The gunner still issues the "Pull!" command, and the launching device is still called a "trap."

In a match, the gunner goes through this motion five, 10, 100 or 200 times — depending on the kind of match — and accuracy is everything.

The Castro County youths started off the year on a rather shaky note. First, the trap had to be moved since the Dimmitt Gun Club was closed due to FAA regulations. The 4-H'ers had to locate a trap and then find a place to set up a new range.

A used trap was found at Hereford; however, the trap broke more birds than it threw. Every night for two weeks was spent trying to repair the trap, since it was the only one available that the 4-H'ers could afford to purchase.

By this time, the 4-H'ers were already more than a month behind in practice. The 4-H'ers had a very frustrating time trying to get in some practice before the competition began.

With limited practice, the Castro County shooters still competed in three trap shoots.

The first competition they went to was the district shoot, where the seniors placed second (lost by five birds). Members of the team were Robert Boozer, Todd Hatla, Kelly Ballard, Kent Kirby, Doug Schilling, and Danny Heard.

The competition for the seniors consisted of shooting three rounds, or 75 birds, apiece.

The juniors placed first in the competition, with each 4-H'er shooting two rounds, or 50 birds. Members of the junior team were Robby Hottel, Mike Stanford, Billy Patton, Bruce Wright, and Jerry Rickert.

The sub-junior team, consisting of Mark Standlee, Todd West, Dirk Wright, Joel Nelson and Chad Smithson, placed second. Also shooting on the sub-junior team throughout the year were Justin Nelson and Britt Boozer. There were 25 teams at the district competition.

After the district shoot, the 4-H'ers traveled to Big Spring for an invitational shoot. The 4-H'ers did very well against shooters from all over the state. The team placed fourth, and there were several individual honors received.

In August the trap shooters traveled to San Antonio for the state competition. The sub-juniors placed second, the juniors placed fourth, and the seniors placed sixth. The state 4-H trap shoot was nearly twice as large as last year, and every team was much improved over last year. The trap shooters had a very successful season, considering the many problems that faced them this year.

Where any other group of youth would have just said "Forget it," they kept on trying. Ask any one of them, and they will tell you, "We will get them next year!"

DISTRICT PLACER—Gwen Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Wilson of Hart, accepts the big blue ribbon that sent her from the County Fashion Revue to district competition, where she placed second in the 12-14 age group. Presenting the award is County Extension Agent Teresa Nutt.

Fashion winners place at district

Three Castro County girls took high honors at the District 4-H Fashion Revue held in Lubbock in June.

Melinda Wilson of Hart, in the 9-11 age group, won a blue ribbon for her dress and she was ranked in the top 25 percent.

Gwen Wilson, also of Hart, won a red ribbon in the 12-14 age group and Tammy Behrends of the Easter Community won a red ribbon in the senior group. Miss Behrends also won the wool award.

In the Castro County 4-H Revue last week, Tammy Behrends received the top score for her record book in addition to qualifying for district.

Cara Odom, of Dimmitt and Gwen Wilson, tied for the top score on their record books in the 12-14 age group. In the 9-11 age group, Bobbie Hochstein, of Nazareth, scored highest on the record book.

All the girls participating in the County Revue received either a blue or red ribbon.

You can be a 4-H'er, too!

If you are 9 to 19 years of age and are interested in joining a 4-H club, fill out this form and mail it to the Castro County Extension Service, Courthouse, Dimmitt, 79027. Or you may simply call the County Extension Agent's Office, 647-4115, and someone there will help you enroll. There's a lot of "scare" talk about America's youth these days. Every paper you read. Every time you twist a dial. You worry. Then, you start thinking about a great bunch of kids who make up 4-H. The kids who make up America. They've dedicated their growing-up years to learning and helping. Developed skills and put them to work — at home, in their communities. They're "hip" on strong bodies and strong character. They care about the world. Suddenly, the "scare" talk turns into "care" talk. And you relax. It's bright and hopeful again. Thanks, all you 4-H'ers. America's future belongs to you. You are America's future!
