TERRAPIN RACE FOR NEXT "FELLOWSHIP DAY"

Gather Up Those Turtles And Bring Them To The Big Race Beats A Horse Race

"We have gotta have more excitement next 'Fellowship Day' so says the program committee, so they have decided to have a 'Terrapin Race.' Boy, oh, boy, what will be plenty of fun, for we have some high-stepping turtles in this community. Gather them up right now and begin to train them. You will be surprised how fast they can run when trained properly. A big ring will be drawn on the pavement down on the street between the Pennington Motor Co. and the Baker hotel, terrapins will be placed under a tub in the middle of the ring. Each turtle will have a number on his back. The tub will be raised and the big race will be on. The preliminary event will be held at 11 o'clock, and the first three turtles crossing the line will be declared winners in this first heat. The final race will take place at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, when the three turtles will be placed under the tub and the first that crosses the line will be declared winner and the second one will be second best and the third, well 'he just also ran'."

First prize in this race will be five dollars and second two dollars and fifty cent.

At 3 o'clock $50 will be given away in the cash contest. That is real money, so be here with your tickets. Somebody is going to get a thrill.

JESS MITCHELL, CANDIDATE FOR REPRESENTATIVE HERE WEDNESDAY

Jess Mitchell, newspaper editor at Muleshoe in Bailey county, was in Lockney Wednesday greeting friends and supporters of his candidacy as the next Representative of the 120th Legislative district, and while here was a pleasant caller at the Beacon office.

Mr. Mitchell has, for several years past, been doing considerable work for this section of West Texas. He was the author of the resolution which gave President Roosevelt the idea of supplementing the CCC work in reforestation and flood control districts with highway construction, thus bringing to Texas last year the sum of $24,000,000.

Mitchell was also the man who initiated the investigation of the $8,900,000 drought relief money appropriated by the federal government for this part of West Texas, three counties of this district being included in the emergency area, and he, along with others who later became interested in this important matter, last week succeeded in obtaining final completion and designation of this relief fund which is to be used mostly for highway construction in this area through the FERA relief department.

Mitchell has been sent to Washington, D. C. two times this spring by citizens of this area, those of Lockney contributing to this laudable enterprise. The first time he went to the Capitol city was to secure a more equitable version of the Bankhead cotton production control bill which, as originally introduced was for the particular benefit of the old cotton producing states east of the Mississippi river and which also placed such a penalty on the South Plains cotton producing counties as to virtually put them out of the cotton growing business. While the requirements of this law are still very drastic as to this area, yet without the changes made through Mitchell's efforts conditions for this section would have been much more serious.

Mitchell's second trip to the Capitol city was in behalf of securing a higher valuation of the South Plains lands for farm loan purposes, in which he was eminently successful, many farms having already been re-appraised and larger loans having been granted.

BURTON THORNTON ELECTED VICE-PRESIDENT GRAIN EXCHANGE

Meeting Held at Plainview Saturday, J. H. Hohlaus and Bob Muncy Elected to Board

Nearly 50 South Plains grain dealers and wheat farmers met at the Hilton Hotel at Plainview Saturday night in preparation for the coming wheat shipments, to secure an interpretation for the new grain dealers' code and as members, to hear the annual report of the Plainview Grain Exchange.

The principal item for discussion was the pending charge for storing grain in elevators. The code calls for a minimum of 48 hours free storage, and the per bushel rate for time beyond that was discussed although no action was taken. Harry L. Kerns of Amarillo explained the clauses of the new act to members of the profession, and is expected to return to further interpret the act before grain men of the territory some time this week.

The gist of opinion seemed to be that the charge finally fixed for this district would range between 1-20th and 1-30th of a cent per bushel for each day in storage.

After hearing several Hale County farmers and elevator men of the Plainview Grain Exchange, Secretary J. B. Wallace read the financial report for 1933.

Following the reading of the report, new officers for the Exchange were elected by acclamation. They were: C. D. Byrner, Dimmit, president; Oscar Dinwiddie, Hart, vice president; Burton Thornton, Lockney, vice president; and Harold Hinn, Plainview, secretary-treasurer.

The following directors were chosen: W. C. Cowan, Tulia; Ben Smith, Plainview; Bob Muncy, Lockney; A. M. Medlin, Abernathy; Henry Edwards, Floydada; W. E. Cates, Floydada; and J. H. Hohlaus, Lockney.

DON'T BE ALARMED IF YOU HAVE ATTEMPTED TO COMPLY WITH WHEAT CONTRACT

In a conference with Mr. John R. Edmonds, Special Agent of the Wheat Section for Texas, on Monday June 11th, County Agent, Glen A. Lindsey obtained the following information of interest to the wheat growers of Floyd County.

1. If a producer has harvested his wheat before it was measured by the supervisors there is no reason for him to be alarmed if he has attempted to comply with his contract. If it is found that he has harvested a small excess acreage of wheat by mistake he may comply with his contract by furnishing the County Allotment Committee an affidavit that he will feed the wheat from this excess acreage at home. This rule applies to a small overrun which would come within the limits of accuracy of measuring the land. If the producer has harvested a large excess acreage of wheat he will either have to destroy the excess wheat or have his contract cancelled.

2. The Wheat Section has modified the regulations concerning the contracted acres to permit the planting and harvesting of all forage crops except corn and grain sorghums. This regulation does not permit the harvesting of any kind of grain or planting and harvesting of grain sorghums in the form of bundles, Sudan, millet and cane may be planted and harvested for forage or sudan may be planted for grazing.

WHEAT HARVEST IN FULL SWING IN LOCKNEY COUNTRY

Yield Per Acre Is Better In Some Instances Than Expected—Testing Around 63

Harvesting of wheat is getting well underway in the Lockney country this week. Combines are running in almost every wheat field, and by Saturday night things will be humming. All roads leading to elevators are lined with wheat trucks hauling the golden grain. Elevator men at Lockney, Barwise, Sterley, South Plains, Whitely, Muncy and Aiken report plenty of wheat moving to their elevators.

The weather has been good for harvest, although threatening clouds prevail each night but blows over without doing any damage, however, it keeps wheat farmers on the "anxious seat" for fear that a hail storm might visit this section of the country.

The yield is better than expected in a good many cases, and we are still holding to our prediction that the north half of Floyd county will average 15 bushels to the acre. But don't believe the county over will average over 8 bushels. Eight or fifteen bushels is not a big crop by any means. It will only about pay expenses of the crop, with perhaps a small margin over.

The price is not so good, around 70 cent today. It took a nose dive Wednesday and dropped from 73 to 70. Very little of the wheat is being sold, as in the past, it will be held until a farmer finishes harvesting and then he will market it if the price is right. They are busy now getting it out of the field and in storage out of the weather. This year the test is away above the past few years. As any elevator man put it "when tests below 60 it is punk in this year." It is averaging about 63 and some as high as 65.

WE HAVE IT ALL BY OURSELVES

Our chief editor, Jeane Suits, is attending summer school at Tech, and we have it all by ourselves now, and we are sure having a lot of misery trying to hustle up a little bit of news for the Beacon. Don't forget to phone us news items or hand them in at the office, for it sure will be appreciated.

"BRAIN JEWELS" FROM OUR EXCHANGES

Our Government under the leadership of a great President is making a determined effort to restore property to the people. Much has been done toward helping the wage earners, laborers, farmers home owners, business, industry and commerce. Debts have been scaled down, extended, and interest charges have been reduced. It is almost inconceivable that we can continue this start on the road to recovery without the Government having control over its own media of exchange. This insurance and distribution of money is a governmental function. It never should have been farmed out to private corporations; since it has been, the Congress should immediately reassume this great privilege and exercise it in the interest of the people. Our slogan should be: "Get the Government out of private business and get the private corporations out of the Government's business." The first step should be for the Government to take over the 12 Federal Reserve banks.—Claude News.

The Cleaners and Dyers of the nation are somewhat curious to know why the NRA government should discriminate against them in connection with the code provisions. The Cleaners Code was one of the codes which Clarence Darrow found no fault with, so where and what is the cause, of all the trouble, the cleaners are asking. If investigations were made into the very base of the trouble they would likely find that the fact cleaners and dyers are not buying anything which is produced in the factories of the big business concerns whose influence is controlling the government is the base of the trouble. Barbers don't buy a great deal of materials from those big concerns and they, too, come under the head of the concerns which are being offered no protection by code law. Farmers were denied code protection because the big business set-ups want to control the farmer and they couldn't control him if he were protected by code law. Big business is exercising control in every way. They get what they want and what they don't want usually steps back.—Community Weekly, Plainview.

The news has never been crazy about the Bankhead law. We do not know any too much about it however. It may turn out to be the finest thing yet, but we're a little leary. We think the plow-up campaign last year was a great help to farmers and business men of the south. We think the acreage reduction contracts signed this year will result in a great reduction of the acreage and probably a great advance in the price of cotton this fall. But, if we understand anything about the Bankhead law, after a Lynn county farmer has reduced his acreage 35 per cent, the Government may come along this fall and take half the value of all the cotton he sells above a certain number of bales. This tax may be levied on only a few bales or on the major portion of his crop or on none at all, depending on the yield. But, if his yield should be heavy, it is probable that he will be required to pay the tax on half or even two-thirds of his production. This paper has often expressed its doubts as to the advisability or the constitutionality of the Bankhead bill before it became law, when most of the farmers seemed to be for it. We predict that there will be a howl from farmers against it this fall that will be heard from California to Maine. Still, we sincerely hope that our fears are unfounded.—Lynn County News.

---and the Worst is Yet to Come

cleaning. I would suggest that you let it collect and when the storms have ceased, rake it all out and enjoy peace and cleanliness. Now, take that advice from an old head who isn't a house wife but an observer.

Well, we missed another good chance for rain Saturday night—Woe is us! Dark threatening and apparently juicy clouds passed over this vicinity without even so much as a drop upon our thirsty lands.

The action of that cloud reminds me of some candidates—while electioneering they seem to be capable of so many things and promise the voter everything but a trip abroad and upon election just "fizzle" out and do nothin' Nope, I don't charge a thing extra for that comparison.

Since the freeze didn't get the fruit this year there will be an abundance of peaches, apples, cherries, and plums. I already have several orchards "spotted" and am getting acquainted with the owners so "I can come up and see them about that time." If acquaintances are started early they'll never suspicion what you're working up to, and fruit freshly plucked from the tree may be yours during the entire season. Not so dumb, eh?

I was reading an article in the Colliers the other day which stated that Mae West's famous "come up and see me sometime" was a lot of hokey 'cause the interviewer had to wait for days in the lobby of her hotel and sign three or four papers before getting to see her. The article also revealed the fact that she isn't a large woman as her pictures would indicate but only weighs one hundred and twenty pounds. Now, I guess that'll put a damper on some of these men around here who have been longing to hitch-hike it to sunny California for months just to see how much of an angel she isn't!

I just thought I'd tell you women that you don't have much competition after all and it will be perfectly okay for your husbands to go to California unaccompanied.

WEIGHT REDUCED FROM 180 to 137

"Wonderful," She Says

Here's to-day's story of a woman who knew she carried too much fat and decided the right way to get rid of it—just a few words that wise fat folks should heed—worth reading.

"I use Kruschen Salts to reduce its wonderful. Take it daily and eat what I want and still lose. I did weigh 180, now 137. Want to get down to 125." Mrs Leonard Bass, Ft. Atkinson, Wis., Feb. 6 1934.

When you take one half teaspoon of Kruschen in a glass of hot water—you not only lose in weight but you put healthy activity into your whole body—you feel younger and look it—get it at any drugstore in the world

WOMAN'S COLUMN

(BY JEANE SUITS)

Floyd County song birds burst forth with melodious chirping and singing in the dew of the morning Sunday in the City auditorium in an all day session plus dinner on the ground. Singers were present from surrounding counties with special songs and novelty numbers for music lovers. . . . Yes, they were all there —pa and ma, John, Mary Jim Jenny and Jack—all arose early prepared their lunch, and came to town for the big musical event of the year. Then near the close of the day each journeyed homeward feeling happier for having come and thankful for the splendid entertainment.

Grab your mops, dust pans brooms, paint brush and a cake of soap—All aboard for house cleaning. Most every housewife declares general house cleaning at least once a year and some even twice and thrice. Personally I prefer only once and that is immediately following the "dark ages" of West Texas—meaning sandstorms! One of the unpardonable sins is to attempt house cleaning while they are raging—it only leaves more room for more dirt and that means more

The Texas Bond Commission sold $3,750,000 in State unemployment relief bonds to Donald O'Neal and Company of Dallas at par accrued interest and $22,875 premium.
The Dallas Company submitted the only bid for the entire series. One other bid for a $500 bond was received.

Funds from sale of the bonds will be expended in relieving destitution resulting from unemployment.

During Trades Day last Monday folks gathered here from all over this section of country. On main street a large woman with a dog on a chain met a gentleman friend she hadn't seen for some time and they stopped for a friendly chat. The dog sniffed at the gentleman's new tan shoes and he moved to one side. The dog sniffed and the man nervously shifted his position again. "Never mind," said the lady, "he won't bite you." "Oh, I wasn't afraid he would bite me, but he raised his foot and I thought he was going to kick me."

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

Start talking about facial expressions and the bridge party will stop business and listen. Women are tremendously interested in the subject.

There's no better exercise than yawning. What you didn't know one can yawn a will? Not much of a trick. Do a counterfit yawn and along comes a real yawn. Throw the head, make a try. Along with a yawn is a deep in take of air, and that's good for the neck, if it has started to sag or get stringy. Yawning destroys the double-ness of a chin that has expanded beyond reason. Back up the exercise by anointing with a heavy cream, rolling the flesh between thumb and fingers. Slap on an ice cold compress. Bimeby where two chins lived only one will be.

Sailor collars on cotton wash frocks, silk sailor braid, stars and anchors for trims on everything from slacks to evening dresses is quite the newest—with this sea-going note especially noticeable among the younger fashionables. And—when you go down to the sea for that sun tan don't forget that a blue linen pajama beach ensemble made with a backless vest and a collar forming that tricky halter neckline, will bring gobs—of compliments.

Design: 1 in Sizes: 14, 16, 18, 20, with 32, 34, 36, 38 bust. Size: 18 requires 4 1/4 yards of 39 inch material with 1/2 yard contrast.

DRAPED NECKLINE

Pattern 8219: The young miss between the ages 14 to 20 will like this frock for its soft collar with ruffles and neckline draped high in front and ending in a bow at back. The panel which extends above the waistline in the front gives a tall slim effect to the wearer and the belt may end in a bow instead of a twist, if desired.

This frock may be made in figured voile, or in figured chiffon. The color suggested is white with yellow flower motif and a pale yellow or white caplet.

For PATTERN, send 15 cents in coin (for each pattern desired) your NAME, ADDRESS, STYLE NUMBER and SIZE to Patricia Dow, (Lockney Beacon) Pattern Dep't., 115 Fifth Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Floyd County Tax Payers NOTICE

This is to remind you that the law provides that taxes due County and State for 1932 and all previous years draw only 6 per cent penalty if paid by June 30, 1934, but if not paid by that time, they will draw 10 per cent penalty and 6 per cent interest from date they became delinquent.

Example: $100.00 due in 1924 can be paid for $106.00 on or before June 30, 1934. If not paid by that date, $170.00 will be due on the same amount. This does not take into consideration the statutory cost. This applies to all Counties in Texas, and if you owe any such taxes you can save money by paying the same by June 30, 1934.

Why a Bank Turns Down a Loan

There are four reasons in this article another one will follow next week

Reason No. 1 and 2 Have Already Been Printed

Reason No. 3 Follows:

"Because the applicant is unwilling to furnish sufficient and proper information on the basis of which the bank can intelligently judge whether or not a loan is a good risk. Many people do not yet realize that taking one's bank into one's full confidence when seeking to borrow is just as essential as telling one's attorney everything when seeking satisfactory legal service. It is perfectly natural for anyone not accustomed to borrowing at a bank to think it is 'none of the bank's business what the money is wanted for' or what the applicant's true financial condition is. But experience has proved that a bank cannot safely lend money without full information as a guide. No well managed bank can therefore be justly blamed for refusing to risk its depositors' funds in a blind loan.

than Persian or gaily colored rugs laid over polished surfaces, but much of the pleasure in looking is lost in the thought of the danger of slipping. If you sew on the backs of your rugs four nonslip corners, all such risk is averted.

When serving eggs on toast to children, cut the toast into cubes, leaving the slice in its original shape. Place the egg on the toast in the usual manner. Children will find it much easier to manage when served in this manner.

To prevent scum from forming on cocoa or chocolate, beat with an egg-beater until a frothy foam forms on top. The foam prevents the scum from forming.

Warm your pie plates on top of the oven before putting the crust in to bake. This will prevent a soggy crust.

In cooking candy, preserves or sugar solutions of any kind, grease the inside of the pan near the top in order to prevent boiling over.

Butter 2 slices of bread. Place them face to face and toast the outsides as you would a single piece of toast. The butter will melt, leaving the inside soft and delicious while the outside can be toasted to a nice golden brown. It's a good variation on just plain toast.

In place of an egg beater, rinse a fruit jar with cold water to prevent sticking, break your eggs in, to the jar and shake. It's simple and satisfactory.

Take the vinegar and spices from your sweet pickles and preserve them until you are making a salad dressing. You'll find it gives your dressing a new and delicious flavor.

CHEVROLET DELIVERS MANY CARS IN MAY

A total of 83,839 units was delivered by Chevrolet dealers during May according to figures released by William E. Holler, general sales manager of the Chevrolet Motor Company. This total includes Canadian, export and domestic deliveries and represents a substantial increase over the same period of 1933 when 69,125 units were delivered.

"Deliveries of commercial cars and trucks were especially significant," said Mr. Holler. "The commercial car and truck total for May of 15,134 units over-shadows the excellent figures reached in May, 1933, when 10,879 units were delivered. Sales of passenger cars and trucks improved greatly during the last ten-day period of May and accounted for the impressive retail sales for the month."

Retail sales the first five months of this year now total 364,872 as compared with 253,263 for the same period a year ago, an increase of over 110,000 units. Domestic truck deliveries for the five months nearly doubled last year's figure, 68,207 units being delivered against 34,372 units in 1933.

HERE'S ONE REASON why long distance calls are fast

Within its own boundaries, this company, like each of the 24 Bell System associated companies, operates its own long distance system. But A. T. & T. trunk lines (shown on map) link these 24 separate systems into a nation-wide unit, over which skilled operators can send your voice almost with the speed of a local call to the remote reaches of the country.

Such nation-wide service would be virtually impossible without equipment built to the same designs and used in the same way... without operators trained in the same methods... without, in short, a nation-wide organization behind it.

How effectively A. T. & T. meets this need is shown by the fact that today 9 out of 10 long distance calls go through while you hold the line; by the constant pushing back of the frontiers of the voice until 92 per cent of the world's telephones are now within your reach; by four reductions in long distance rates, made voluntarily in recent years.

Here you may see the workings of a fundamental Bell System policy, adopted because we believe it to be a policy that works. In an organization planned like the telephone service for the long pull, we feel that what is best for the telephone user becomes in the end the course that will bring us the sounder, more certain success.

Mix your powdered sugar with mashed ripe strawberries, to which a tsp or two of granulated sugar has been added to bring out the colorful juices. Then add melted butter to complete flavor and make the icing firmer after spreading. This is especially good on angel food or white cake.

Strawberries can be kept fresh and handy to use for icings, short cakes, bavarian creams, ice cream or other frozen or molded desserts, or sauces for one week or two weeks in any refrigerator, and a month or two in an electric refrigerator if they are well mashed and mixed with plenty of granulated sugar, equal quantity or more, and kept in fruit jars—thus extending our short strawberry season.

That big Ford V-8 engine, which is capable of a generous 80 per, is miserly when it comes to fuel. It consumes less gasoline than many engines with less cylinders and less power.

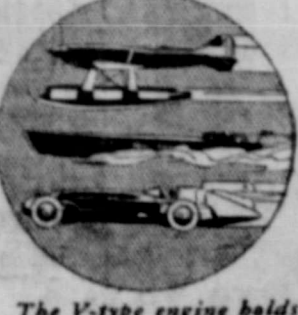

Aluminum-alloy pistons minimize carbon formation. Tungsten steel valve seat inserts virtually let you say "good-bye forever" to valve grinding.

The Ford V-8's dependable springs—which give you free action on all four wheels—have shackles that require no lubrication. And the whole car is so reliably built that you will never be plagued with repair bills.

Before you buy any car at any price, drive the Ford V-8.
