BALLOON RACES TO BE FEATURED NEXT "FELLOWSHIP DAY"

Forty Will Be Turned Loose During The Day.— Prizes Attached To Each One

The Program Committee has arranged for a Balloon Race next Tuesday, "Fellowship Day" in Lockney. Forty of these will be turned loose during the day beginning at 11 o'clock from the tops of buildings in the business district. To each balloon will be attached a cash prize of 25c each. This is going to be plenty of fun for the kids, so bring 'em along and let them have their fun. If you capture a balloon you will have 25c cash for your days spending money. If you are lucky and grab off a couple or half dozen, the more money you can jingle in your pocket.

The big cash contest takes place at 3:00 o'clock. This contest consists of $75 cash. That is enough money to take you on a vacation to California or make a land payment with, to say nothing about paying the grocery, dry goods or drug bill, or how ever you may want to spend it.

Tell your neighbors about this big time for everybody next Tuesday and don't fail to be here early for the beginning of the balloon races. Bring along your tickets so you can participate in the cash contest, and when you make purchases in Lockney call for your tickets.

GEO. MAHON SPOKE HERE LAST THURSDAY

Voiced Eternal Opposition To Tax-Exempt Securities; Favors Bonus.

Speaking here to the largest crowd that has greeted any candidate for office here this year, Geo. Mahon of Colorado, made his appeal to the voters of Lockney for the office of congress in the newly created 19th district on the streets here Thursday of last week. He was listened to most attentively by the crowd and many of them met and congratulated him following the address.

"I do not believe that any man who has gone down a cotton row and felt the prick of a cotton burr, who has not worked in the maize fields and felt the sting of the maize chaf, who has not toiled in wheat harvests and felt the chafing of the bearded grain, can fully appreciate the hardships and the problems of the farmer," Mr. Mahon said.

"Ours is an agricultural country," he continued. "Ninety per cent of our problems in this district are problems of the farmer. I do not claim to be a man of superior powers standing head and shoulders above my fellow men. I do not claim to be a magician that can wave a magic wand and sweep away all the ills that beset us. I claim to be an ordinary man on a level with the people, who understands the problems of the common man, for I have never lived among or associated with any other kind. If elected it shall be my purpose not to be a master but a servant of the people."

Pointing out that 56 per cent of the cotton raised in Texas is exported and that a larger per cent of other farm products in Texas are exported, he declared that farmers must have a foreign market for their cotton and other commodities. He pledged himself to support and vote for such tariff schedules as would help the farmers of Texas, and to bring about such trade relations with other peoples as will encourage international trade and provide a better market for farm products in this country.

Mr. Mahon also voiced eternal opposition to the issuance of other tax-exempt securities. These securities are always purchased and held by those who are best able to pay taxes, he said, and yet they escape such payment.

He further vigorously declared that he favored the full and immediate payment of the "bonus" or adjusted compensation due to ex-service men. He felt that an injustice was being done them in withholding payment.

NOTICE TO THOSE WHO WANT SANITARY PIT TOILETS INSTALLED

The work of installing these units begins next Wednesday at Lockney. Those desiring one of these toilets installed at your farm should leave word at the Relief office located upstairs in First National Bank Building and in charge of Joseph Nall.

Your request for these units will then be taken care of as fast as Mr. J. B. Allen, Sanitation Work Supervisor, can get them.

CARS ARE BEING PARKED IN ORDERLY MANNER

People Willing To Co-operate In The Handling Of Traffic In Lockney

Did you notice how much nicer cars were parked last Saturday and Tuesday in Lockney? All lined up at the curb in an orderly manner, thereby eliminating practically all chances of a serious accident. Officers handling the traffic stated to us they sure did appreciate the splendid co-operation given them in handling traffic and getting cars lined up and parked in the proper manner, and ask that you continue to park your cars in this manner, so it will be unnecessary to fine anyone for violating traffic ordinances. They cannot stand out on the street all the time, and tell you not to park in the middle of the street. So let's heed this warning and observe this traffic ordinance every day in the week and not just on busy days, for it applies every day just as well, and if you park your car in the wrong position you are liable to draw a ticket to the city judge.

This writer sure does appreciate the attitude of our people in this parking business. Our street looks so much better. One could cross the street in safety, children could cross from one side of the street to the other without an escort. Members of the City Council and the Mayor ask that we express to you their thanks for your splendid co-operation.

MOST OF THE BEACON FORCE IS ON VACATION

Tom and Jeanie Suits, accompanied by their mother and baby sister, Jerry Nell, and cousin, Gordon, Suits, of Tahoka, left last Friday for the mountains of New Mexico on their annual vacation. Tom and Jeanie are the backbone of the Beacon force and are working under great difficulties this week in an effort to get the Beacon to you on time. Jack Gilbert came to our rescue the first part of the week and everything is getting along hunkydory. Jack is a good printer and hard worker.

Harold Huggins is manipulating the linotype in Tom's absence and is performing like a veteran operator.

There has been established in the Grand Jury Room, at the Court House, in Floydada, an office where applications for Emergency Feed Loans will be received, Field Supervisor, Fred N. Warren, announced.

Applications for loans will be from farmers and Stockmen for the purchase of feed for farm and range livestock forage crops in Floyd County, which has been designated as emergency drought relief area. W. L. Fuller is in charge of the office and the assistant is W. E. Rhoades, foreman, W. R. Rhoades, foreman, Clifford Rhoades.

In discussing the regulations the Field Supervisor pointed out that applications can be accepted only from applicants who have no means or other source of credit enabling them to undertake the production of a forage crop or crops or to produce feed for their livestock.

Loans will be advanced in monthly installments, with a supplemental application necessary for each month's requirements.

The lien securing the promissory note given will be subject to non-disturbance agreement to be executed by lien holders, if anyone must agree to take no steps to enforce the payment or collection of any claim against the borrower nor dispossess him of any property until January 1, 1936.

THE LOCKNEY BEACON

Published Every Thursday

TOM SUITS, PUBLISHER
J. L. SUITS, EDITOR
JEANE SUITS, ASSOCIATE EDITOR

Entered April 14, 1902, as second class matter at the postoffice at Lockney Texas, by act of Congress, March 3, 1879.

Any erroneous reflection upon the character, standing or reputation of any person, firm or corporation which may appear in the columns of The Beacon will be corrected gladly upon its being brought to the attention of the publisher.

It is mighty hard to compare the cowboy of western fiction with the man who works from darkness to darkness, seven days a week, for his grub stake rope and thirty dollars a month. He does not wear a black satin shirt with white buttons half way from his elbow to the edge of his cuff and whipcord riding trousers that fit like a high-ranking army officer. Nor does he have to unbuckle a wide cartridge belt in the holster of which a large pearl-handled six-shooter swings when he wishes to squat down to eat his dinner. If he has a complete shirt it is usually blue denim and he is lucky to have one button on each cuff. If he has been doing much riding it is doubtful if over half of the shirt tail is tucked in side the loose blue, or brown or yellow pants. If he has a gun of any kind it is in his bed-roll at the chuck-wagon or a shot-gun at home. Employed on the Matador Ranch, is a man who has devoted about a half a century of his life to the saddle and has, perhaps, broken more truly outlaw horses than any man living, yet he does not even wear spurs when breaking broncs. He does not require assistance of anyone from the time the horse feels the rope about his neck until he is broken and trained for cow-work. It would be difficult for a fiction or screen writer to use a western character who wore neither satin shirt, gun or spurs. His employment would be work instead of romance, and that, gentle reader, is exactly what the life of a cowboy consists mostly of—work.—Matador Tribune.

We have called the West our home for some hundred odd years, and we have yet to see a cowboy dressed up like these fiction story writers have them pictured. We don't believe that one out of a hundred of these writers was ever on a ranch or even got a squint at a cowboy. Some ballyhoo writer started that stuff about six-shooters, black satin shirts and white buttons. They are the biggest bunch of "bunk" writers ever turned loose on the public.

Well, Dillinger is no more. Officers shot him down as he came out of a theatre in Chicago. They were tipped off that he was in the theatre so they waited for him to come out and then filled him full of lead. One desperado was wiped out but down at Huntsville the same day Raymond Hamilton escaped from the death house of the Texas penitentiary and now is at large roaming around over the country. Hamilton was a sidekick of Clyde Barrow and Bonnie Parker when they were at large. A convict by the name of Frazier engineered the wholesale delivery. In some manner he became in possession of a six-shooter and liberated Hamilton. Blackie Thompson, and Joe Palmer from the death house by holding up a guard. Also Whitey Walker made a dash for liberty but was shot down, and Frazier was wounded and recaptured. Hamilton, Thompson and Palmer made good their escape. It seems that it makes no difference where you put these hardened criminals they will escape. Now what is worrying us is this, where did Frazier get that six-shooter? Looks like he had a friend on the inside who helped him out. Also Walker had a six-shooter. Who handed them these guns? Time will tell, and don't be surprised if it was not an inside job. It looks as if officers in a great many cases have their price.

The War Department's special aviation committee sounds the warning that the "next great war" will take place in the air, and recommends the building of an Army Air Corps second to none. We would stop to ask, "What great war and who is going to do the fighting?" Our people are fed up on wars. We were tricked into entering the late World War by munition manufacturers, and now they are working again trying to start a fuss and have no doubt influenced this special aviation committee to make just such a recommendation to the War Department. Anytime this country builds a lot of battleships, army planes, submarines and maintains a large standing army backed up by an enormous navy, we are going to have war. It is just like a man grooming a race horse, he wants to see if he can run. It is the same way with Uncle Sam. He wants to see if he can fight a successful war with all this splendid equipment. Manufacturers of Guns and Ammunitions prod him along to try his hand, and the first thing we know we have a good sized war on our hands. It would be a good idea for Uncle Sam to take over the manufacture of munitions and then we would do away with this outside "pressure" for war. If you take the profit out of war we will not have any wars in the future.

The new chairman of the National Republican party should be booted across the continent for criticizing the Democrats for the lack of patronage for Republicans, when there are hundreds of hungry Democrats still looking through the cracks at Republicans who are still at the pie counter and after eighteen months of New Deal rule. Have the Republicans outdealed us?—Terry County Herald.

Q. All the gall of this Republican chairman. What does he want the present administration to do, give 'em the whole works. Good Democrats are not going to be good Democrats much longer unless they can shove up to the pie counter. Jim Farley, chairman of the Democratic party, is sure putting the damper on his party by not looking after this patronage proposition. Democrats every where are getting out of humor and they are going to bust loose some of these days and tell a few things they have on their chest and will it be easy to understand.

Saturday is election day when you vote for state, national and county officers. You paid $1.75 to vote for who you pleased whether it pleased any one else or not. We will cast our vote for men and women that in our judgment, is best qualified to discharge the duties of the office to which they aspire regardless of friendship, relative or acquaintance. We believe it is bad practice to vote for a man because he is an old friend if he is not qualified. We must elect men that are capable and broadminded and progressive.

Leave out professional politicians, you can't depend on them, they will promise you one thing and do another. Texas people are fed up on that kind of business. We must elect straight shooters.

An agricultural agent in Donley county received a letter the other day from the Department of Agriculture at Washington and upon opening it it contained exactly "nothing." We were under the impression that most of the letters from Washington were of that kind, so why say anything about it.

We notice in the papers where some of the citizens of Lubbock met at a local church and prayed for rain, but they did not take their umbrellas along with them. No faith there.

What kind of memorial stamp have they designed in case Mr. Farley happens to make a nice low golf score?—Dallas Journal.

Mrs. John Broyles and daughter, Mary Elizabeth, of Houston are here visiting the former's sister Mrs. Watt Griffith.

Stirred by growing tendency of his fellow townsmen to use the newspaper for everything but advertising, a South Dakota editor recently asked them pertinently, in a page one box: "If a member of your family died, would you send out the obituary in a circular letter? If your wife entertained, would you run a slide on the screen of the movie show? If you were to enlarge your store, would you tell folks in the hotel register? If you were to have a wedding at your house, would you tack the news on a telephone post? Then why in heck don't you put your advertising in the newspaper, too?"

POOR COUNTRY EDITOR

The paper received this letter: "Please send a few copies of the paper containing the obituary of my aunt. Also, publish the enclosed clipping of the marriage of my niece who lives in Lewiston. And I wish you would mention in your local column, if it doesn't cost anything, that I have two bull calves for sale. As my subscription is out, please stop the paper, as times are too hard to waste money on newspapers." —Newville Star.

LILY MAY TAACK ON TOUR WITH W. T. S. T. C. STUDENTS

Thirty-nine students and teachers of W. T. S. T. C. left Tuesday July 17 for a five weeks tour in western United States.

The first night we camped at Goodwell Okla., on the campus of the A. & M. College. Our camp consists of eleven tents, most of which have two beds, and kitchenet.

Wednesday we went through the college and chapel. At twelve o'clock we left Goodwell, heading for Lamar, Col. Part of that country certainly resembles a desert.

Thursday morning, after class, we visited the flour mill at Lamar later we went to Rockyford, Col., and went through the canery. I never saw so many beets and cans of tomatoe juice.

Friday morning we had a lecture on Sugar Beets. We learned many interesting things about the industry. Then we spent about three hours in the steel mills.

Saturday we spent most of the day traveling. We were informed of a beautiful mountain drive to Cripple Creek, and of course we didn't want to miss anything; therefore we spent the entire afternoon just sight seeing.

Sunday we had a rest day or "do as you please" day. Some went to church while others went sightseeing.

Monday we are to break camp at 5 A. M. and go to Denver. We had four telephone calls from the University inviting us to luncheon Monday. We accepted the invitation with pleasure.

Monday we are to break camp at 5 A. M. and go to Denver. We had four telephone calls from the University inviting us to luncheon Monday.

I sincerely hope that every reader of these short notes, of my pleasure the last few days, will begin to save money and make this trip sometime.

I sincerely state that I am having the time of my life. Lets do our best to make this an annual affair at W. T. S. T. C.

Chevrolet's production maintained a steady pace during the early part of July. Figures released by company officials today showed that domestic and export production for the week ending July 11 totaled 23,089 units, a better daily average than was achieved in June.

Chevrolet's record-breaking sales continued their advance in June, shattering all monthly records since May 1931, and achieving the highest June total since 1929, officials of the Chevrolet Motor Company announced.

Retail sales for the month, as compiled from dealer's reports, were the basis of the announcement.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

Designed in Sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44. Size 38 requires 3 1/2 yards of 35 inch material.

A BECOMING FROCK

Pattern 8221: Women who make their own clothes will appreciate the style and value in the design pictured here. Most of us have to spend a certain amount of time doing house work and need a dress which combines charm with unity as this one does. The cutting and making can be accomplished in a few hours, by following the instructions step by step as they are written.

Printed percale is first choice for a dress of this type for it is a material which comes in pretty designs and colors and stands up well under much tubbing. Gay buttons and belt buckle to match make a nice trimming.

For PATTERN, send 15 cents in coin (for each pattern desired), your NAME, ADDRESS, STYLE NUMBER and SIZE to Patricia Dow, (Lockney Beacon), pattern Dept., 115 Fifth Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Heavy aluminum frying pans or griddles will clean up most easily by placing them over a hot flame. Grease or burns and the worst stains will come off and the pans will clean up brightly.

Sticky, soiled leather on furniture may be best cleaned by rubbing with a piece of cheesecloth moistened with banana oil and followed up with a clean soft cloth.

Keep bamboo furniture in good condition by going over it occasionally with equal parts linseed oil and turpentine.

An easy way to polish windows is to rub them with a chamois dipped in full strength or strong solution of rubbing alcohol.

If you like your bronze ornaments cleaned and polished, rub them with a little furniture polish and wipe them clean with a dry cloth.

A decidedly attractive way of preparing baked potatoes is to remove them from the shell after cooking, mash them with butter, salt and pepper and a well beaten yolk of an egg. Then replace them in the half-shells and brown them in the oven. They taste better and they're much more easily handled at the table.

Even the most delicate fabric may be cleaned of ink-stains with a tea-spoonful of lemon salts diluted in a saucer of hot water. Soak the fabric a short while, paint over it with a brush dipped in a solution of glycerine and water and follow that with a few drops of ammonia solution.

Save time and trouble in washing a stack of dishes by passing each dish under the hot water faucet before washing. The worst of the grease goes down the drain and the washing is much easier, requiring fewer changes of water.

When roasting lamb or beef, shake a pinch of cinnamon on the bottom of the oven before putting the meat in, and allow it to remain while the meat is cooking. You avoid the heavy odor of the oven usually associated with cooking either of these two meats.

Individuality Is Keynote to Beauty

Individuality is what every woman strives for. In dress, manner and makeup, each girl wants to stand out from the crowd.

Realizing how important individuality is, the wise girl decides to set herself a part from the average type of beauty that is currently popular. When every one gets finger waves and marcel, she tries out a coiffure style that requires straight or loosely waved locks and when her best friends are using rouge with a lavish hand she affects a comparatively pale makeup. This summer, many girls are going in for that make-up less, scrubbed, schoolgirl look.

DROUTH RELIEF CATTLE BUYING PROGRAM IS UNDERWAY

Purchase Price Varies From $6 To $14 For Two Year Old's And Over

C. W. Barns, assistant state drouth relief director, explains that under the government plan producers must put the cattle in the corral for inspection by the government veterinarians and appraisers; separate them into three classes—two years of age and over, and from one to two years, and under one year; sign a preliminary work sheet for the county farm demonstration agent giving the approximate number of cattle to be sold, and the name of the lien holder if any.

Barns emphasized that the signing of the preliminary work sheet puts the producer under no obligation. After this sheet has been signed, the appraiser and veterinarian come and appraise the cattle and select those to be condemned. If the producer and lien holders do not wish to accept the appraisal they may reject it. If they accept it, however, it becomes final.

After appraisal sheet has been signed, the producer delivers his cattle at the shipping point designated by the Relief Commission and receives a receipt to be turned over to the county farm demonstration agent who sends it to Kansas City. Checks for payment return within a period of about two weeks.

The appraised value of the cattle is divided up into the purchase price and the benefit payment. The benefit payment is set at $6 for cattle two years old and over $5 for cattle between one and two years old and $3 for cattle under one year and this payment never varies. It is paid for cattle bought and those condemned, and is always paid directly to the producer.

The purchase price varies from $6 to $14 for cattle two years old and over, from $5 to $10 for cattle between one and two years and from $1 to $5 for cattle under one year. The minimum price in each class is paid for condemned cattle. This purchase price is paid to the lien holder if there is one and to the producer himself in case there is not.

In the case of cattle condemned, not because of disease but for thinness, the owner is allowed to use the meat for home consumption or for home canning but is not allowed to use it for any commercial purpose or for relief canning. Hides of condemned animals are given the producer to pay for burying carcasses. They can be used at home or can be sold.

No allotment has been made for Texas nor for the individual counties in regard to the the number of cattle that will be bought. How many head may eventually be bought and how long the buying will continue can not now be determined. According to Dr. E. W. Sheets, Federal director of the drouth relief service, "It depends upon conditions as they develop, including inclination of the individual farmer those hard-pressed in the drouth to sell. We are planning relief to areas and expect to continue buying and processing as long as the situation warrants."

NOTICE

For the past six months I have tried to see each of you personally at home asking for your help in my race for District Clerk. If I have failed to see anyone the oversight was not intentional, but I want your help also in this race. I have tried to run a clean race, and take this means to thank you in advance for any support you see fit to give me. I promise if elected to do my best to make good a hand.

SHERIFF ARTHUR OF SPUR SHOT FIVE TIMES BY McADOO MAN

Jenks Yarbrough, Dickens County Farmer, Charged With The Shooting

W. J. (Jenks) Yarbrough, Dickens county farmer charged with the shooting of Sheriff W. B. (Bill) Arthur, 47, of Dickens county, was placed in the Lubbock county jail Monday night for safe-keeping.

Sheriff Arthur, struck by five bullets and seriously injured, is resting in Lubbock sanitarium. He has a strong chance for recovery his physician said.

Yarbrough Surrenders Yarbrough, whom the victim named as his assailant in the shooting at McAdoo, in northwestern Dickens county, surrendered to a posse of officers from three counties. He was captured without resistance in a canyon about 23 miles northeast of Floydada.

Armed with an unloaded .25 caliber automatic pistol and two shotguns, Yarbrough was cutting cedar brush and piling it on his small coupe. He was about a half a mile north of a graded country road.

Violence Feared Officers in Dickens county expressed fear of violence if Yarbrough were returned to that county. After being held in Floyd county jail at Floydada, Yarbrough, who is about 6 feet tall and weighs about 220 pounds was transferred to Lubbock.

Although hit five times, Sheriff Arthur was not felled, said Harvey Hines, of 2 miles north of McAdoo, who accompanied the sheriff to Lubbock sanitarium in the sheriff's automobile.

Alize Sheriff Arthur had told the farmer he must surrender a pistol, if he was carrying one, as had been reported, the man drew the weapon and fired. As the sheriff, wounded in the side but still on his feet, attempted to draw his gun, he was hit by four more bullets. The sheriff fired once.

Left Arm Broken The sheriff was wounded in the left forearm, which was broken, the left thigh, twice in the buttocks and the right chest. Only bullet to emerge was that which struck the arm. The others were not removed.

No lung penetration was suffered, a surgeon said. Mrs. Arthur, who remained at his side related the sheriff's story of the shooting.

Encounters Farmer He went to McAdoo early Monday to serve civil papers. While there he was informed Yarbrough was carrying a gun. Sheriff Arthur encountered the farmer in the filling station and called him outside to talk to him about the report.

The sheriff "shook hands with me, asking him to the back of the filling station and asked him about the gun," Mrs. Arthur said. "Yarbrough stepped back, jerked out his gun, and started shooting. "Bill said he pulled his gun and Yarbrough started running. He shot at him once and Yarbrough fell. Bill thought he'd hit him, but the man got up and started running. Bill said he leveled on him again, but saw some men standing in the way and rather than shoot an innocent man he put his gun in his holster."

Carrying Another Gun Arthur was carrying a gun owned by Fred C. Haile of Spur. He was unfamiliar with the weapon, it was said.

Deputy sheriff J. H. Dobbins of Dickens county, a member of the posse which found Yarbrough, credited Riley Wooten, Arthur Lay, and John Alexander, all McAdoo, with tracking Yarbrough's automobile and making the arrest possible. Other members of the posse included Forrest Edwards, Sheriff A. A. Payne of Cottle county; Jack McCully, constable at Spur; Charley Ensley, Spur; two highway patrolmen from Childress.

The gunman escaped in his car, which he supposedly had left at the station for repairs, which had not been affected. The car was believed to have been parked at the south side of the station, which is on the north side of the east-west street.

BIG VS. LITTLE CROPS

Three years ago Kansas turned out a record wheat crop of 236,000,000 bushels. This year the crop is but 80,000,000 bushels. But gentlemen with industrious pencils have found that the 1934 crop is bringing Kansas just about the same income as did the 1931 crop. The average price in 1931 was 25 cents, and farmers are now getting about 75 cents.

For a normal crop, 75 cents is a good price. It is profitable when the individual farmer does not have to abandon a considerable part of his acreage. There is, however, more profit in a big crop than a small one regardless of the price—but not to the farmers. Railroads and millers and middlemen, all of whom figure in the wheat situation, may obtain as good profit from 25-cent wheat as from 75-cent wheat, and of course their gross earnings are greater accordingly as the crop is larger. In 1931 the wheat growers worked for the profit of others. This year they are working for themselves also. There is point, however, to the statement of a wheat farmer that "you can't get rich selling what you haven't got, no matter how high the price is."—Star Telegram.
