

WESTCOTT RULER

CHATTERGRAMS BY JEAN SUITS

In the spring a housewife's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of flowers. (Chasing on the poet) Deciding definitely that the wintery winds will not display any of its icy blizzards and storms so characteristic of the season, the housewife has dropped her pots and pans so spick-and-span in the kitchen to delve in to the elements of the earth by planting numerous flower seeds in the freshly dug bed. Of course she plans to cuddle these little bits of life by watering them every so often (ignoring the fact that it has rained here and might again) and protecting them from the big bad sandstorms by coverings of some sort.

The housewife, clad in checked dress and apron, bonnet, and gloves can be seen in Lockney putting about in the yard and garden raking up this and scattering out that. She is making ready for a beautiful yard and flowers this spring so you and I can gaze upon them and sigh with contentment for having the privilege of living in such splendor and beauty.

That reminds me. If the human race could only be as happy and contented while it exists as the flower is during its brief period on earth, what a world this would be! Flowers never fade until they are severed from their source of life, such as the roots. As long as they remain in the yard on the vine, there is life and vitality within their petals, petals that spray the atmosphere with essence of loveliness. The wind may blow them hither and yon but they bravely struggle on with bright visions and aspirations always just one day's growth ahead.

And what do we do? Some of us wither and dry up at the age of 50 or 60, while others fold their waives and go home completely whipped at the early age of 30 or 40. One may live on and be attached to the vine of life for years and years after one has given up hope, dreams and accomplishments, and yet be as dead to the world as Herbert Hoover is today. As for the sweet perfume of the roses, some people are so rotten and foul that they should be dumped into the slop bucket, but don't forget to strain them out before feeding to the hogs.

Well, folk, we've got it. We may be living in a one horse town but we've still got opportunities. Its something just like Lum and Abner have over the radio—A matrimonial bureau with all of the fixings! We give our clients a chance to see a life size picture of their prospective wives in action around the kitchen cooking food to please their palatable taste and slinging hash on the table with a smile. This little bureau is called the Cozy Cafe and claims the record of having married off more girls to the year than any other establishment in town including one of the proprietors.

It seems that nearly every girl who has worked behind the counter at the cafe makes such a sensational hit with her customers that nothing but the altar can stop her! Now, don't rush girls for the job is taken up for the next ten years by hundreds of applicants before you—I oughta know!

I am just c-r-a-z-y for the girls' basketball tournament to get started for I am gonna chew all of the gum I want to, crunch all of the peanuts I can buy or find, even if I am asked to sit in the gallery, and holler as loud and as long as I am able for the team that's ahead! It'll be more fun than a county fair.

1935 Cotton Reduction Contracts Are Ready

Producers Will Have Choice Of Renting From 25 to 35 Per Cent Of Base Acreage

All persons who were parties to a 1934-1935 Cotton Reduction Contract will keep their contract in effect by signing a supplement in which they state the number of acres they wish to rent to the Secretary of Agriculture. Such producers will have their choice of renting from 25 to 35 per cent of their base acreage.

Any producer who did not sign a cotton reduction contract in 1934 but who operates or controls a farm on which cotton was planted in 1933 and or 1934 and on which cotton will be planted in 1935 may sign a contract for 1935. The following regulations cover the determination of the base acreage and average yield for these new contracts:

1. Cotton was planted in four or five years of the base period 1928 to 1932 inclusive. In such cases the base acreage shall be determined by dividing the total acreage planted to cotton on the land now in the farm during the base period by four or five as the case may be. The average production will be determined in the same manner.

2. Cotton was planted in only three years of the base period 1928 to 1932 inclusive, one of which was either 1931 or 1932. (Continued On Back Page)

FORD AND BUSBY TO HAVE NEW BUILDING

The Ford and Busby Motor Company will have a new sheet iron building in a few weeks located just east of the McCollum building. Construction started the first of the week.

Jim Hamilton, who has been manager of the Lockney Poultry and Egg Co. has moved to Lubbock where he will work for the same company in the Lubbock house. Mr. O. L. Head of Clovis, is now manager of the Lockney house and has moved his family here.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Baker, February 6th, at Plainview Sanitarium, a son.

Lockney Ball Club Will Become Member of an Independent League

Meeting Held Saturday, Tom Weeks Elected Manager, Hervey Champion, Sec-Treas.

Lockney baseball players and fans in the Baker Hotel lobby Saturday afternoon and perfected an organization for the coming season. Tom Weeks, who piloted the team the latter part of last season, was again elected as manager and Hervey Champion was selected as assistant manager and secretary-treas.

Lockney will likely become a member of the South Plains Independent League that has been organized recently, or at least a temporary organization has been formed. The League will be composed of teams from Petersburg, Plainview, Cotton Center, Olton, Lockney and Hale Center. A 24 game schedule is being worked out with a split season of 12 games each. The season will open May 1 and close September 1 under present plans.

The Texas League is lending its moral support to this new independent League, and will watch its progress with much interest. As we understand it, no team will be asked to pay their players a salary, games will be played as in past seasons but will follow a definite schedule.

BASKETBALL FOR GRAMMAR SCHOOL

Upon investigation we find that we do not have any basketball equipment at the grammar school for the youngsters to play with. Basketball is good exercise for both boys and girls and we believe these youngsters should be furnished equipment.

We notice quite a bit of interest is manifested in basketball in Lockney. To produce extra good basketball players, in our opinion, and from watching other schools, we believe the youngsters in grade school ought to begin tossing the ball around when they enter that school, and then when they enter high school, we would really have some good players to select a team from.

Of course we realize that the Athletic Fund of the school is all but depleted, but some arrangement should be made to take care of those youngsters needs in basketball. If the citizenship of this school district will donate a dime each plenty of equipment can be purchased. Let's do it, the kids will appreciate it.

FLOYDADA AND LOCKNEY TO PLAY OFF CHAMPIONSHIP

Floydada and Lockney will play off the county championship games beginning Monday night at Floydada to determine the winner of the two class A schools. The best two out of three matches will be the champions. The second game will be played here Wednesday night at 7:30 at the gymnasium. If a third game is necessary a coin will be flipped to determine the place for the match.

Lockney has already won over Floydada once this year and it is believed that they can do it again. Both teams are pretty evenly matched. J. W. Jones, school superintendent, states that the end of next week will just about wind up the basketball season for both the boys and girls.

February 5, a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank McNeill.

Eight Leading Teams Of The South Plains Have Been Invited

A Girls' invitation tournament here at the gymnasium Friday and Saturday, Feb. 8 and 9, promises the basketball fans of Lockney and surrounding communities plenty of peppy, clean enthusiastic bouts beginning at 3:30 Friday afternoon under the direct supervision of J. W. Jones, superintendent and coach of the Lockney girls' team.

Only Good Teams Invited

All of the teams coming to the tournament have played at some time during this season on the local court with the high school team. Jones has invited only those schools which he thinks will make a good showing and give their opponents plenty of competition. He has observed each of the schools technique of playing and is anxious for you to see them in action against the odds and from all angles. All will have an equal chance since the players are familiar with the size and type of floor.

Trophies and Basketballs Given

Ten gold basketballs will be given to the girls winning first place in the tournament. Gold awards to be presented to the teams winning second and the consolation tournament. One of those gold basketballs is something which any girl would be proud to show her grand children in her old age as proof of her sportmanship and skill. The trophies are about twelve inches high and feature that ultra-modern streamline effect!

Preliminaries to Start at 3:30

The preliminary games will begin at 3:30 Friday afternoon with Finis Vaughn of the Plainview Junior High School officiating. The drawings have already been made and the games will be played in order as follows: Erick and Lorenzo at 3:30; Liberty and Gasoline at 4:30; Aiken and Silverton at 7:30; Lockney and Sudan at 8:30.

AN IDEAL GOVERNMENT

If we were asked to depict an ideal social organization, we would say, off hand, that it would be one under which any able-bodied, intelligent man or woman could always find work at wages sufficient to provide for the necessities of life and lay aside something for old age, and after forty years of work be able to retire on his or her savings.

We think that a Government which concentrated on those objectives and on nothing else would come pretty near to being an ideal Government. Its corollary functions might well include provisions for the security of the thrifty individual's savings, and such regulation of terms and considerations of employment as would at least not impair the worker's chance of living to enjoy the fruits of a life's work, and would protect him on the one hand against unfair competition by the workers of any foreign nation in which a lower standard of living prevails, and on the other hand against exploitation by unprincipled employers.

Such an ideal Government would protect every man in his right to keep what he has earned, and as an essential part of that protection, would be administered as economically as possible, in order that the burden of taxation might rest as lightly and as equitably as possible upon all its citizens.

This ideal Government would make it its first concern that every child had an opportunity to obtain the best education of which it was capable. If, in spite of that education, it persisted in making a fool of itself as it grew up, we do not believe that is any part of any Government's concern.

That is not to say that Government should permit the swindler to roam unchecked; it should not tolerate impositions of any kind upon the ignorant and the unwary. But we do not conceive it part of Government's business to recompense the victims of their own foolishness and extravagance.

The ideal Government would neither pamper its criminals nor allow such conditions to exist as tend to make crimes against the body politic alluring to the young. It would be a Government of few laws, and those restrictive upon individual liberty only as the exercising of that liberty infringes upon the liberty of others. It would be adequately policed and its laws would be rigidly enforced.

We do not expect ever to see such a Government, either in the United States nor anywhere else. We believe that what we have set down represents in a large measure what our Government is striving for. We think that there are too many people who want Government to do a great deal more than the simple essentials which we have outlined, and that progress toward economic recovery is being hampered by too many lawyers and uplifters having a finger in the pie.

WHY WORRY ABOUT THE NATIONAL DEBT?

Our citizens are hearing a lot of talk about the national debt, the unbalanced federal budget and all that and, of course, wondering what is going to happen to the country in the long-run. Not one out of a hundred realizes that only once in a hundred years has this country been out of debt. That was on New Year's day 1835. Two years after that there was a surplus in the U. S. Treasury which congress distributed to the states on the basis of representation. The money was to be returned by the states if congress ever demanded it, but no such demand has ever been made.

Since that time there has never been a year when Uncle Sam wasn't in debt. The debt piles up, and a new generation comes along and reduces it. Still another decides it has to have a war, so up goes the national debt again. One hundred years ago we didn't need a giant navy and a vast standing army; we didn't have to spend millions annually in coast guard defenses and in airplanes, submarines and torpedo boats.

The country has grown tremendously since 1835—and it is going to keep growing. Possibly never again will there be a time when there isn't a big national debt. But at that it's lower per capita than that of any other great nation, while Americans are richer per capita than any other people. There are far more serious worries needing attention than the national debt. And some of them are closer home.

Everything is getting better and better in every way. People are beginning to build "Aircastles," and figure on doing this and that if you are skeptical just step into a cafe and watch the patrons that come and go. The first thing they will do when they sit down at a table or counter is to reach for a napkin and then unhoister their pencil and begin to figure and argue. Many a fortune is figured out on a napkin at a cafe. All kinds of plans are drawn and wild dreams are allowed to run wild. It takes just that kind of stuff to get back to our old stride of doing things. We must have a vision or we will never accomplish anything. If you have a vision you have a little "vinegar, vim and vigor" in your system and you will go places and do things, if not you will sulk in your cage and growl. Sharpen your pencil, go to some cafe, get a cup of coffee, grab a napkin and figure something out. It will do you good.

Carter Glass, Senator from Virginia, and a power in banking legislation, seems to be just a little "set" in his ways. He will oppose any changes in the Federal Reserve Act that he practically wrote back in 1913 when he was chairman of the banking committee. In this fast moving age, a vehicle that was ok in 1913 would perhaps be more or less of little use now. But the fire eating old Senator always turns thumbs down on any amendment to the Federal Reserve Oct. This is his brain-child and he will protect it as long as he lives. In our opinion the Federal Reserve Act has passed all usefulness. It was alright in its day but its day has passed. It is now controlled by big money interests and therefore is of no use to the rank and file as it was intended. Small member banks of the Federal Reserve receive very little benefits, so we say tack on a few amendments so it will be of some use or do away with it entirely.

Well it has hapened again, and we have been watching for it. We have reference to a bill being introduced in Congress to have all post office jobs placed under Civil Service. Senator Norris is the man that threatens to push it through. Really he is firing at Postmaster Farley. He wants Farley to either resign as Postmaster General or chairman of the Democratic National Committee. A bill of this kind is introduced at every session of Congress. It is just a lot of "hokey." Congress isn't going to pass any kind of a law that will cut out "patronage." They have to have it to keep the political machine organized back home and thereby re-elected to office, etc. No, this is just a "dead cat" as "Crack-down Johnson" would say, that is being tossed at Farley, and we hope it hits him. We don't like the way he has handed out patronage since he has been in the saddle.

The Texas Centennial commission with offices at Dallas, is and has been mailing out a lot of literature every week about the Centennial that is proposed to be held in 1936. Just how, and when this show is going to be held we fail to find out. The last called session of the State Legislature failed to make an appropriation for this East Texas show. West Texas tax payers do not care to help pay back an appropriation for a show to be staged around Dallas. It seems that these Dallas and East Texas fellows are determined to have a show anyway whether we want to or not, and then make us help pay for it. Well, we will see what we see.

and the Worst is Yet to Come

The dates of the Amarillo Fat Stock Show have been changed so as not to conflict with the annual meeting of the Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association at Houston. The dates now selected are March 4, 5, 6, and 7.

"BRAIN JEWELS" FROM OUR EXCHANGES

If there's a reader of the Turkey Enterprise who still believes that advertising is useless we invite attention to the things purchased by the non-believer. If this person will take an inventory of all the articles bought by himself he will be surprised to find how many of them are "advertised" goods.

"No man stands so straight as when he stoops to help a boy." With so many million of men out of work it is such an easy matter to become careless and pay no attention to boys. Men are doubly busy with the affairs of business and trying to figure out how they can live up to their codes. Worrying details occupy one's mind. Yet, all about us, are boys who need help—the help that comes from encouraging words, a helping hand, a little boost. All these helpful things take just a minute of any man's time—and yet they mean so much to a boy.—The Tulsa Herald.

This was written from Miami Beach, Florida, the land of sunshine, palm trees and pretty women. Three classes of people come here to spend the winter, namely, rich people, bums and those who are foolish. This writer comes somewhere in between the last two classes.—The Aspermont Star by Marshall Formby.

The public debt of the United States is $385 per capita. Over in England, the public debt is $991 per capita. It is not so much a matter as to the amount of the public debts as it is to what use the government put the money. If all of it has gone to European countries which are refusing to pay even the interest, the average citizen would have a real kick. But a large part of the debt has gone to fight the depression, and from every indication the battle is pretty nearly won.—The Canyon News.

Speaking of sandstorms reminds me that Roscoe Logue in his book just printed, "Under Texas and Border Skies," says in substance that we haven't had anything in the way of sandstorms in recent years. Now back in 1895, on the 14th and 15th of April, the Panhandle country really had a sandstorm according to Mr. Logue and the government weather bulletins. This sandstorm saw the wind attain a gale of velocity of 84 miles per hour. People were marooned. School children had to stay in the school houses. Sand in some localities drifted six feet and it was estimated that 5,000 cattle died, most of them smothering to death. Houses were blown down. People had to eat with a tablecloth over the table, reaching under the cloth for the food. The only sandstorm since which approaches this one registered 64 miles per hour. Of course 50 mile gales are not uncommon, except in recent years when statistics show that the sandstorms have been rather mild. In other words it hasn't been blowing wind so much as it has been blowing dust.—Dalhart Texan.

Progressive Texans, Inc., reports that a goatskin that brings 50 cents in Texas brings $50 after it is converted into a fur in New York.

"In other words," says J. Russell Wait, chairman of the Houston Port Commission, which annually ships thousands of goatskins out of the state, "the $49.50 value added by manufacturers' accrues wholly to the New York furrier and the 50 cents the Texas producer gets represents the entire share that Texas received from the bargain."—The Scurry county Times.

When you hear a man running down his home paper, or any other local industry, take a good look at him. Ten to one he will have a chin as long as a rail, an eye as shiftless as a horse thief, and he will hitch around his chair as though he had a touch of St. Vitus dance. Talk to him a while and you will discover that he has made a failure of everything he has ever tried (except being disagreeable), and nine times out of ten he is dependent on the public for favors or support; you will find him of a meddlesome, peevish, hateful and unreliable nature, a man who is always complaining, and although he has but little, if any, of his own, one would imagine to hear him talk that he had a quit-claim deed to the earth and a first mortgage on heaven. He knows everybody's business, and why shouldn't he? He has none of his own to take up his time. Such people, like mosquitoes, were not created in vain, but one fact remains staple, they do not add materially to the pleasures of conducting business.—Rochester Reporter.

The weather man is a peculiar being. His judgment just like the judgment of the average other man, is good just sometimes. Who is it that can comprehend the wisdom of the weather man in his plan to hold back the regular and natural cold weather through the first half of the winter and then turn it all loose at one time and freeze everybody to death here at the eleventh hour. The weather man must be connected up with Henry Wallace and Dr. Turwell. The fact that he has stored his cold weather away and rushed it out all at once, freezes cows to death by the droves, indicates that he is working with the new administration officials and is trying to get the old cows off of hand without paying for them.—The Plainview Community Weekly.

A third corn-hog contract compliance papers are now in Washington awaiting acceptance. Teachers College last summer. The tour proved so successful that there is a demand for a second one this summer. There are two tours planned, one embracing other six weeks and the other six weeks. Then the members of the tour will return via the Grand Canyon of Arizona and either Santa Fe or Carlsbad.

allowed members each... necessary to reorganize the Cotton Association and to elect new committeemen. For the 1935...

County will be allowed three committees of three members each. In order to meet this requirement the county has been divided into three districts of about 500 cotton farmers each. For the purpose of electing the committeemen each of these districts is divided into three groups and each group shall elect one committeeman. An alternate will be elected for each committee. The new local committeemen will elect the new County Committee from this membership. Whenever a local committee man is elected to the County Committee his alternate will take his place as local committeeman. Only persons who are parties to a 1934-1935 cotton acreage reduction contract on file in the County Agent's Office and who derive the principal part of their income from the farm under contract are eligible to serve as committeemen. Only persons who are parties to a 1934-1935 contract are eligible to vote in the election. All cotton producers whether contract signers or non-signers, landlords or tenants are strongly urged to attend one of the meetings scheduled below because in addition to the election of committeemen the 1935 cotton program will be discussed in detail. The table below gives the school district which have been grouped together, the meeting place at the time of meeting.

LOCKNEY GIRLS WIN AND BOYS LOSE HERE FRI. In the best game that spectators have witnessed this year the Lockney High School basketball girls nosed out on Aiken Tuesday night at the gymnasium with a score of 37-43. With the crowd ed lower and upper floor howling and booing on every play the teams kept the score tied up or one point ahead or a point behind until the last few minutes of the fourth quarter. It was that sort of battle that the people just lap up and holler for more! The high school boys claimed that fate was against them and did not intend that they should make one more point the last few seconds of the game thereby tying up the score. The first quarter of the game Aiken and Lockney couldn't hold the ball in a basket or ring a goal if the hoop was as big as a good size barrel. Both teams missed crisp shots, long shots, or any other kind of shots the first few minutes of the battle. During the second quarter they began to thaw out a little and in the third they were plenty hot and ready for big shots. The final score was 24 to 25 favoring the visiting team. One of the Lockney boys had a chance to pitch a free goal and make the extra point during the last play but the ball hit the backboard and fled to the gym floor discouraged.

If LINCOLN HAD OWNED A LAMP like this

New I. E. S. Better Sight is first study lamp specifically designed to safeguard eyesight

Abraham Lincoln, studying at the log fire, was handicapped by poor light. His tasks were made infinitely harder by the fatigue that comes from eye abuse. But Lincoln had no other choice. He had to use the light his times and his means provided. If Lincoln had lived today, his struggle for advancement would have been made infinitely easier by the I. E. S. Better Sight lamp—the first lamp specifically designed to safeguard eyes as they read or study. WHAT STUDY LAMP DOES The I. E. S. Better Sight lamp gives a soft, well diffused and glareless light for reading with greatest eye comfort. It reduces eyestrain, fatigue and nervous muscular tension. It makes it easy to see quickly and to read quickly. HOW STUDY LAMP WAS CREATED The I. E. S. Better Sight lamp is not the product of any single manufacturer. It is the joint creation of lamp designers, eyesight specialists, research men, MAEDA lamp manufacturers, physicians, scientists, and others concerned with the conservation of human vision. It has the sanction of the leading lighting authorities of the world. Specifications by: The Illuminating Engineering Society. Certified by: The Electrical Testing Laboratories. Endorsed for Lighting Effectiveness by: The Lighting Committee of the Edison Electric Institute, and by the National Better Light-Better Sight Bureau. STUDY LAMPS $5.95 JUNIOR FLOOR LAMPS $7.95 These lamps may be purchased with a small down payment and terms to suit your convenience.

CHISELS IN PROVAL AREA

MULESHOE—Scores of Bell county farmers are engaged in "chiseling," a process that their fathers and grandfathers used to call "sub-soiling."

"Chiseling" is a process of plowing deep into the soil, usually in the opposite way from which the prevailing winds blow, to conserve the moisture. The chisel goes deep into the sub soil, turning it up on top of the ground and creating a loose bed.

Huge chunks of sub-soil are thrown on top, that are not easily taken hold of by the wind. Later a harrow pulverizes these clods after they have absorbed moisture.

Local blacksmiths report that they have to make up several chisels ahead all the time to keep up with the local demand. Most popular depth for chisels here is 18 inches, some less than that and some more.

If you want to enjoy yourself on a long motoring trip never lift the up the lid to examine the contents of a roadside filling station sandwich.

GOOD THINGS TO EAT

Relax, Rejoice, Rely on Dried Fruits

"The daring young man on the flying trapeze" whose ease of motion had all the world singing about him, has nothing on the cooks who do their cooking with out cooking. Which, to the reader who "skips", will sound like a misprint but is really a very good trick if you can do it.

Like your bargain sweater, the secret is unraveled in time—it lies in concentrating on the uncooked dainties, which require no tending, no watching, no stove!

In Winter, Too

Past mistresses have conquered the art of summer time use, and let their refrigerators do the work. We should do the same in the winter time, only let the sun help us too, by supplying us with dried fruits which have already been "cooked by its heat." Apricots, dried peaches, figs, and raisins belong to this family, but the most versatile and most delicious dried fruit is the golden date, which will serve from breakfast through dinner in hundreds of ways. Once on a time we considered dates a luxury and ate them only during holidays but now their new low price makes them always available, and we recognize them as necessary to the regular menu for the vitamins and minerals they contain. Besides, they taste good!

Of, course in addition to the sundried fruits, the canned fruits and juices are always with us, and to help out with the main course there are a variety of pre-cooked meats and canned vegetables. Admit the self-impeachment of "lazy bones," enjoy being one while you try these "different" dishes.

Date Marshmallow Whip

- 2-3 cup pasteurized dates (sliced)
 - 1-3 cup nutmeats
 - 2-3 cup marshmallows
 - 1-4 teasp. vanilla
 - 8 lady fingers or strips of sponge cake
- Cut the dates and marshmallows in quarters with wet scissors; chop the nuts coarsely. Whip the cream; fold in the flavoring, dates marshmallows and nuts (which have been chopped). Chill thoroughly. Line stemmed glass serving dishes with lady fingers split in half or with sponge cake. Heap the cream mixture into the glasses. Top with a small piece of date or nut meat. 4 servings.

Cranberry Snow

- 2 egg whites
 - 1 cup cranberry sauce
- You will find it most economical to buy the 17 oz. can of strained cranberry sauce. Beat a cup of the sauce with a fork until smooth beat the egg whites until stiff; add the cranberry sauce gradually, beating after each addition. Pile the whip in tall stemmed glasses. Chill thoroughly. Serve with whipped cream. 6 servings.

Gingerale Fruit Cup

Arrange orange sections, slices of canned pear, diced canned pineapple and dice pasteurized dates in a bowl in the refrigerator for 1-2 hour, to allow flavors to mix thoroughly. When ready to serve arrange in glass fruit cups, pour gingerale in each cup and garnish with bits of preserved ginger.

Rice Dainty

- 2 cups boiled rice
 - 1-2 cup cubed canned pineapple
 - 1 cup whipping cream
 - 1-2 cup apricot pulp
 - 24 marshmallows
 - 1-2 cup chopped nutmeats
 - 1-2 cup sugar
- Shredded cocoanut
 Mix rice, fruit, marshmallows and sugar together and chill thoroughly. Add nuts and fold in whipped cream just before serving. Garnish with cocoanut and candied cherry or bit of pineapple or nutmeat.

Green Gage Cream Shurbet

- 12 canned green gage plums
 - 1-4 cup powdered sugar
 - 1-2 cup plum juice
- Few grains of salt

- 1-2 cup white karo
 - 1 cup heavy cream
- Drain plums and reserve 1-2 cup of the juice. Rub stoned plums through coarse strainer. Add powdered sugar and stir until dissolved. Combine the plum juice, karo and salt. Blend well, add to plum and sugar mixture and allow to stand for a few minutes. Add unbeaten cream in thin stream, stirring gently all the time. Pour at once into refrigerator tray and freeze quickly. 1 quart.

Frozen Fruit Salad

- 1 No. 1 can grapefruit
- 1 No. 2 can mixed fruit
- 1 cup sliced celery
- 1 cup sliced pasteurized dates
- 1 cup chopped almonds
- 1 cup mayonnaise dressing
- 1-2 cups heavy cream, whipped.

Drain the canned fruits thoroughly, cut in small pieces, then combine fruits, celery and almonds. Add whipped cream to the mayonnaise. Add the cream and mayonnaise to the fruits. Pack in the trays of mechanical refrigerator, or in a tightly sealed mold in a mixture of ice and salt, until frozen. Unmold. Serve on a lettuce leaf and garnish with a small amount of cream mayonnaise. 12-14 servings.

Giving a cocktail party? Well even if you aren't, you may have a buffet supper, and by all means get some of those gaily colored toothpicks, stick them into a big grapefruit until it looks like a porcupine and then impale green and ripe olives on the outer ends of the picks.

Electric appliance manufacturers are forever bringing out new gadgets for the table. The most recent one is an electric biscuit baker—six to eight at a clip, cooked right on the table!

For a simple prepared main course that may seem surprisingly fancy, prepare rice, and when partially cooked, drain it and fill a casserole to the depth of an inch or two. Small chickens or squab on top the rice, and roasted in the oven make the meal complete.

Of Interest To Women

Designed in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20; 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32. Size 18 requires 3 1/4 yards of 35 inch material for full length, and 2 1/2 yards for shorter length, and 1/2 yard contrasting.

TUNIC OR BLOUSE

Pattern 8391. There's chic in contrast this season. As clothes grow simpler, tunics grow more luxurious. Two of this year's smartest and most popular styles are the tunic and the overblouse, each of them entirely simple in design, but rich and glittering in fabric. The dark tunic sketched shot with metallic thread and trimmed with metallic belt and cuffs has a slightly cowl neckline, draped to one side and accented with a diamond or metal clip. The effect is very rich and smart and can be worn over a skirt of plain material.

The overblouse might give you at first into thinking it is something entirely different, but no, it is the same pattern cut off along the dotted line (in the pattern) with a bow added and cuffs omitted.

For PATTERN, send 15 cents coin (for each pattern desired), your NAME, STYLE NUMBER and SIZE to Patricia Dow, (LOCKNEY BEACON) Pattern Dept., 115 Fifth Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y.

A novelty in makeup for the very festive party is green eye powder and purple eye shade.

"I HAVEN'T HAD A COLD IN FIVE YEARS"

"In the old days I used to dread the coming of winter. I was always getting cold—feeling about half alive—trying to work with my body aching and every nerve on edge.

"Then a friend told me about McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets with their marvelous vitamins A and D. I started to take them five years ago and I haven't had a cold since that time.

"McCoy's tablets put new life in me; build up resistance to active germs, keep cold germs. They make weak, shivering people strong, steady-nerved and vigorous. They're wonderful!"

Get the genuine McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets from your druggist today. Don't waste money on imitations. Ask for McCoy's.

would take courage to wear it, but it certainly attracts attention.

Astrid, new Queen of the Bel-Air, was 28 last year, and can cook and take care of her husband's socks. Something new in royal domesticity.

Forget all the old "don'ts" about wearing diagonal and cross stripes even though you are under five feet tall. But remember that those "don'ts" go by the board only because of proper proportioning. If contrasting colors are used at the smallest widths of the body rather than at the hips, and vertical lines are used to heighten the effect, if jackets are short and well fitted you needn't worry about being short.

During the winter the importance of a fine, smooth textured skin is doubly important when arms and shoulders are exposed by low-cut gowns. Use one of those longhanded bath brushes whenever you bathe, and use a body lotion or an oil if your skin is inclined toward dryness.

CARD OF THANKS

In times of need is when Friendship proves true. So I want to express to our many friends of the different communities, Aiken, Plainview, Lockney and Floydada for the many nice things that they gave us. Words fail me in expressing our thanks, so may God bless you.

IF YOUR BREATH HAS A SMELL YOU CAN'T FEEL WELL

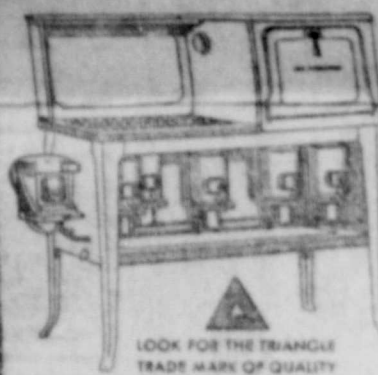

When we eat too much, our food decays in our bowels. Our friends smell the bad breath. We feel the poison of the decay all over our body. It makes us gloomy, grouchy and no good for anything. What makes the food decay in the bowels? Well, when we eat too much, our bile doesn't digest it. What is the bile juice? It is the most vital digestive juice in our body. Unless 2 pints of it are flowing from our liver into our bowels every day, our movements get hard and constipated and 1/2 of our food decays in our 28 feet of bowels. This decay sends poison all over our body every day.

...AT TODAY'S PRICE, THE BIGGEST WASHER VALUE YOU CAN BUY

When you compare Maytag quality and price with any other washer you see why the housewives of this nation have bought more Maytags in one half of 1934, than during the whole year of 1933. This is proof that American women today are insisting upon genuine quality. Visit the Maytag dealer and see this Maytag for yourself.

For homes without electricity, any Maytag may be had with Gasoline Motor at slight additional cost.

1935 CORN—HOG PROGRAM BEGINS IN FLOYD COUNTY

Contracts Are Now Being Prepared In County Agents Office. There Will Be 3 Groups

The 1935 Corn-Hog contracts are being prepared in the County Agent's Office at the present time. For the purpose of simplifying the work new contracts will be divided into three groups.

1. Those who signed 1934 contracts and are still operating the same farm as in 1934. In such cases the figures from the old contract will be copied on the new contract. The producer will merely have to sign the new contract in the County Agent's Office. Each producer is being mailed a notice when his contract is ready to sign.

2. Those who signed 1934 contract but who in 1935 are operating a different farm. In such cases the figures for hog production will be copied from the 1934 contract but the producer must submit the new figures covering the acreage of the farm he now operates. Such producers will also be mailed a notice to come to the County Agent's Office to aid in preparing their contract.

3. Those who did not sign a contract in 1934 but who wish to sign a contract in 1935. Such producers will have to fill out an application for a contract in which they submit proof of their hog production for the years 1932 and 1933. These applications will have to be examined and approved by the County Hog Committee and the State Board of Review before the contracts are written. These applications will be taken as soon as a majority of the old cases are finished.

The Corn-Hog program this year is similar to that of last year with the following exceptions:

1. The reduction will be 10 per cent of the base instead of 25 per cent. Payments will be made at the rate of $15.00 per head for the 10 per cent reduction.

2. There will be no restrictions on the acreage of any crop, except corn on the farm under contract.

BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

twice this year and last Saturday night Silverton beat the Lockney girls ten points at Silverton. Tuesday evening of this week the Aiken team gave Lockney its best game of the season by keeping the score either tied up or only two or three points ahead, but Lockney was finally victorious. Lockney beat Cotton Center here on their own court several weeks ago as well as Frick. Liberty and Gasoline have good teams that will play until the last whistle blows.

Games to Start 10 a. m. Sat.

The four losers of the preliminary bouts will play the first rounds of the consolation Saturday morning starting at 10 o'clock. Then at 2:30 in the afternoon the four winners of the previous day will play what is called the semi-finals and championship games. Finals of the consolation will begin with the whistle of the referee promptly at 7:30. At 8:30 the big game of the tournament will be played off to determine who gets to wear the gold basketball and who has to share a trophy between ten. It will be a battle of the wits, nerve, sportsmanship, and ability to get the job done.

COTTON REDUCTION

(Continued from Page One) In such case the base acreage shall be determined by dividing the total-acreage planted to cotton on the land now in the farm by three and the average production determined in like manner.

3. Cotton was planted in only 1931 and 1932 of the base period 1928 to 1932 inclusive. In such cases the base acreage and production shall be determined by taking the average of 1931 and 1932.

4. Cotton was planted in 1932 of the base period 1928 to 1932 inclusive and in 1933 but neither one, two nor three above are applicable. In such cases the base acreage shall be determined by taking the average of the years 1932 and 1933 but the production and the yield per acre shall be assigned by the Community and County Committee.

5. Cotton was planted in 1933 but neither one, two, three nor four above are applicable. In such cases the base acreage shall be the actual acres planted to cotton on the land now in the farm in 1933 but the production and yield per acre shall be assigned by the Community and County Committee.

6. Cotton was planted in 1934 and neither one, two, three nor four are applicable. In such cases the base acreage shall be the actual acreage planted to cotton in 1934 and the yield per acre will be assigned by the Community and County Committee; provided the base acreage allowed shall not exceed one-third of the cultivated land on the farm and provided further that the base acreage allowed is not higher percentage of the cultivated land on that farm than the percentage of cultivated land in cotton for the County as a whole.

The producer does not have his choice of the above regulations but shall be guided by the first one that fits his case.
