

THE LOCKNEY BEACON

Dedicated to the Interests of This Section, That No Good Cause May Lack a Champion

VOLUME 35

LOCKNEY, FLOYD COUNTY, TEXAS. FRIDAY JULY 24 1936

NUMBER 46

WATTERGRAMS BY JEANE SUITS

While all of my friends are in California, New Mexico, Colorado, and the Centennial writing back those am-havin'-a-good-time-wish-you-were-here cards, I sit before my wheezy typewriter beating out monotonous tones to the invariable drip, drip of perspiration from my leathery chin. When I think of some of my pals in the mountains enjoying that mellifluous, pure, unadulterated atmosphere mingled with the pungent aroma of mountain side daisies. I am possessed with a burning desire to cast this old trusty piece of machinery in the waste basket with all of the free political publicity thrown in there the last two weeks, and just do a bit of peregrinating myself.

My torpid surrounding of news papers, dusty table and desk tops, and hap-hazard files, is quite a contrast to the postcard night scenes of the Dallas Exposition brilliancy or the tall, majestic pines of Red River Valley.

The only consolation is to think that perhaps the postcard took advantage of my ignorance and exaggerated the scenes. I learned long ago that nothing is ever so magnificent or perfect as it is represented. You always thought the empire State Building was "tops" in the business world. But I read the other day where it is untenanted above the 40th floor except for two offices. Lights are kept burning on the 45th floors to keep the building from looking unbalanced at night. Birds fly against the empty lighted window panes and die. That's all that ever happens in the upper half of the building. And yet postcards depict the structure as a busy, bustling business center all the way up when in reality it only goes half way down.

Advertisements must be catchy and clever today to rivet the attention of speeding motorists. It must be so worded that a fleeting glimpse will convey a distinct thought about the product. But somebody who planned a recent filthy gag advertisement lost this idea entirely by turning out one of the most inane insipid pieces of work I ever saw. I've been studying the thing for thirty minutes every day for three weeks and haven't extracted an idea from it yet. (Maybe that's the point). The fault may be mine, but even if it is national advertising agencies should give people of my intellect a little consideration by constructing an ad that can be understood.

Why sensible people will keep a clock sitting around in the house when its hands will no longer point out the hour, is a big psychology problem for you. For an ornament? Perhaps, if it is of a superior or unique design but the disadvantages are too great even in this case.

American homes have more old heat-up, worn-out, all-in-clocks with not enough tick nor tock in the whole coboodle to lift a little finger much less two hands. Battered, balky clocks hog more space in the average home than old magazines and newspapers. They deceive the guests and misinform the iceman.

Lets clean up the clock situation at our house. This is a good-lovan (all campaigns have 'em) "There is no time for an old timer that has no time for me!" Out with yesterday's time. Let's wind up and start every day off in plenty of time with confidence in every tick and tock.

Now can you beat that? The King of England answers his own telephone! So would I if I had one. But I know some rural folk who not only answer their telephone but all of their neighbors.

Mr and Mrs A R Kennison and two daughters and Rachel and Esther McDowell of Amarillo and Mr and Mrs Roy Teeters of Silverton were here Sunday as the guests of Mr and Mrs Bob McDonald and family.

POLITICS BOIL WITH ELECTION IN SIGHT JULY 52.

Polls To Open At 8 O'clock Saturday Morning and Close At 7 O'clock

ANTICIPATION RUNS HIGH

Governors Race Gains Momentum This Week in Shadow of Democratic Election

Turning on of last minute high pressure heat by candidates has made the county and state politics boil briskly this week in anticipation of how votes will be cast in the first democratic primary election Saturday, July 26.

The polls will open at 8 o'clock Saturday and close at 7 o'clock in the evening. First returns on the county should start coming in soon after the closing time. The first state report will probably be a little later. Full returns will be given by the merchants at the Beacon office Saturday night.

The two boxes in Lockney will be under the chairmanship of J. J. Harris and A. R. Meriwether, each have secured several helpers.

Mr Meriwether will be at the west box 18 at the high school building, and Mr Harris at the east box 5 at the city auditorium. All voters west of Main Street must vote at the west box, and those east must cast their vote at the east box.

Excitement is expected to run high in the heat of the county race. There will be many defeated and fallen candidates Sunday morning with only a small percentage of them cashing in on their arduous efforts of the last few months.

The governor's race between five candidates has been gaining momentum this week. Discussions mostly in this race have been based on the old age pensions and the possibility of a thriving textile industry in Texas. Everybody is wondering whether it is going to be Allred, Hunter-Fischer, Brooks, or Sanderford?

CO. HOUSING LOANS ARE $35,879.53

Loans of $3,241,595.08 Made In 113 Counties of North and West Texas

Latest figures reveal that 44 loans amounting to $35,879.53 have been made in Floyd County under the Modernization Credit Plan or Title I of the National Housing Act, according to a statement today by P. S. Luttrell, Associate Director of the Northwest Texas District of the Federal Housing Administration.

The Northwest District of Texas with headquarters in Fort Worth comprises 113 counties of north and west Texas. During the 20 months operation of the Federal Housing Administration there has been a total of 9,610 loans amounting to $3,241,595.00 made under Title I throughout this district, states Luttrell.

Title I or Modernization Credit Loans are made by banks and other financial institutions approved by the Federal Housing Administration; the loans are made for repairing, altering, (Continued on Back Page)

THOUSAND ACRES OF VEGETABLES FOR CARLOT SHIPMENT

Committee Draws up Chart of Estimated Vegetable Statistics For This Territory

The Planning Committee of the Hale and Floyd County Irrigation project has estimated that these counties should plant about a thousand acres in vegetable crops this year so as to create a carlot shipment and at the same time to induce wholesale production concerns to operate in the section.

The committee has drawn up a chart estimating the time to plant in the locality and the possibilities of marketing vegetables so that a uniform supply could be maintained which would be sufficient for carlot shipment.

The estimated prices and yields have been very conservatively estimated by this committee composed of men who have had quite a bit of experience in the field of vegetable growing.

It is estimated that 1-2 lb. of cabbage seed planted to the acre at the estimated price of $1.50 per pound should be planted around July 10 to August 10. The yield from this crop is approximately (Continued On Back Page)

MORE ON TEXAS AGED ROLL THAN OTHER STATES

Texas Has More on Rolls First Month Than All Other States Except Two

Although Texas began payments to Old Age recipients July 1 as provided by law, she had more on her rolls (45,000) the first month than any other state in the union with the exception of New York and Ohio, both of whom have a larger population than Texas," K. A. Osburn, supervisor of district 7 of Texas Old Age Assistance Commission said this week in giving a comparison of this state's pension plan with that of other states.

In addition to these two states being larger in population, their old age assistance laws have been in effect longer. New York's law dating back as far as 1931.

Mr Osburn said that no state in the union allows assistance to the aged whose property holdings are as high as in Texas. The $5,000 property qualifications, if single, and $7,500, if married, for out strips the majority of states. The maximum allowed in most states is $3,000, and even in the instance some states such (Continued On Back Page)

Woman Evangelist to Start Methodist Meeting Sunday

A unique experience for Lockney occurs next Sunday when the Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Flowers of Denton, woman general evangelist, begins the two weeks Methodist summer revival by preaching at the morning and evening hour. Her husband, the Rev. R. L. Flowers, will also preach during the meeting.

Mr and Mrs Flowers are not new to this section, having held a revival here eighteen years ago. They will be remembered by the people who were here at that time.

A. J. Crager, who heard them when they were here before, said "Mr and Mrs Flowers are splendid people and excellent speakers. You should not miss hearing them both preach."

They are general evangelists and have held meetings together all over the United States. They are a widely known pair for their honest and sincere work in the church.

Seats will be constructed Friday afternoon on the west side of the church so the evening meetings can be held out-of-doors. Volunteer workers from the church will erect the improvised open air tabernacle. The morning services will be in the main auditorium of the church.

The evening service will be at 8:45 and the morning service at 10 o'clock," the Rev. H. H. Hamilton, pastor, stated here Tuesday.

He further stated "We plan to have special music of quartets, solos, and duets at every meeting."

Mr Hamilton is personally acquainted with the evangelists and recommends that you hear them while they are here. He made his home with them in Dallas for three years while attending school and feels that he is capable of knowing their abilities. He extends a special invitation to everyone in the community to attend and assure you that every service will bring out a profitable and constructive message. Mr and Mrs Flowers are closing a meeting at Seymour this week.

ing a two weeks meeting assisted

TO THE VOTERS OF FLOYD COUNTY, TEXAS:

It has been my hope and desire that I might see and talk with everyone in the County, but I had a job at the Massie Wholesale Grocery and needed every dollar that I could get, therefore, I worked too long for me to be able to make it over the entire County. But I want to say to you that I have been unable to see that the only reason that I have not seen you is that it was impossible for me to do so, but no man could appreciate your vote more than I would.

Carl C. Hardin Visits Lockney
 Thursday

Carl C. Hardin of Stevenville and former state senator and present candidate for nomination for state railroad commissioner was a visitor in Lockney last Thursday.

Hardin said in a speech here
 "Cheaper gasoline and oil for all of Texas can be brought about by increasing the allowable on production in the Texas fields.

"And when we increase the allowable," he continued, "There will be more tax money which would meet the demands of the old age pension and have some left for our state schools and colleges. Increasing the allowable will make it possible for the small refineries to re-open, putting many to work."

Hardin predicted that he will lead the ticket in the first primary and will have an easy run-off victory because the people of Texas
 "are tired of the manner in which our railroad commission is operated."

WALTER TRAVIS ASKS TO

J. L. SUITS, PUBLISHER
JEANE SUITS, EDITOR
MARGARET HAGE, ASSOCIATE EDITOR

Entered April 14, 1902, as second class matter at the postoffice at Lockney, Texas, by act of Congress, March 3, 1879.

Any erroneous reflection upon the character, standing or reputation of any person, firm or corporation which may appear in the columns of The Beacon, will be corrected gladly upon its being brought to the attention of the publisher.

This government race has just about reached the putrid stage with each candidate digging a little deeper to unearth something smelly that the other fellow thought was safely buried. Some of the things that they are unearthing may be true but at least we can say this for the present incumbent. He might be getting his share but at least he is getting it in a quite and refined way without the publicity that we have had in the last few administrations. While he is dedicating lilly ponds (as they say) he is also bringing the friendship of other sections of the country and giving our state a spot in the lime light that it hasn't had in several decades in fact since our honored forefathers put us on the map. A little friendly admiration will be a lot to over come some of the humiliation that has been brought to the state by some of the former candidates for governor, who went out of their way to make us a laughing stock for the rest of the nation. There may be dirty work going on at our capital at Austin but what capital can say that they are immune from such things. At least this administration keeps it under their hat and what you don't know wont hurt you.

When our President put the Social Security Act before the people no one foresaw the results that would come from it. The idea that was born in the minds of all the people was that this act would bring security to all aged dependents over a certain age. The originator of the idea cannot be blamed. After it has been hashed through the legislatures of the states and ground and re-ground in this mill the results were different from what we expected. When the people went to the polls and voted for old age pensions they voted or a monthly payment for all men and women over sixty five years of age and were lead to believe that they were furthering the security and happiness of thousands of older people who were dependent upon their children and other relatives for a home. But the legislature of the states felt the necessity of drawing a line somewhere and they drew too fine a line leaving us in practically the same condition as before and bringing disappointment to the old folk. The idea of the old age pension should not be condemned on this account, but it, like many other important questions, will take time to bring perfect results.

which will bring to light many such traitors.

This is the first time that a person has been convicted of treason during peace times in our country, though common sense would know that such things go on in our country the same as in foreign countries. This is just another proof of our trusting disposition here in the United States, that we have never investigated these matters before.

The government is placing J. Edgar Hoover as head of the investigation. If the trailing of such suspects proves as successful as his war on gangsters and the hard ended criminal, spys will soon be stamped out of the United States.

And speaking of J. Edgar Hoover, reports have been circulated that agents of the Secret Service are investigating his department, the one department of this government that has truly proved its worth. All of which goes to prove that our government doesn't regard merit as a standard for reward.

Is there a shortage of note paper in Europe? Those notes that were so frequently being delivered from one country to the other are sadly being missed.

The drought is seen as an aid to the farmer—After all we're glad to get this information that we might show greater appreciation for this drought.

Here we go again laying the blame for the origin of Communism on Russia and some of the other countries when it really had its origin in our land The Kee-Too-Wahs, a select band of the communists in the world. Back in Cherokee Indians, are the oldest the distant past, long before the white man came to this country, this tribe shared their crops and their game. The food was placed in a common fund and all who worked could share. They still follow this communal mode of life.

We have read of the most interesting life of a lino-type operator, B. H. (Moon) Mullins, of Palestine, who is somewhat of a mystic. Slight-of-hand tricks are his real hobby which he pursues with professional zeal. Anyone that can comprehend the mysteries of a lino-type machine doesn't have much more to learn in this mystic business.

According to Attorney General McCraw's statement recently, "A government is just as good as the people who interest themselves in it." After reading some of the inside dope about those people that are interesting themselves in it, we needn't expect much.

EDITORS IN HEAVEN

An Oklahoma editor tells of an old Indian who came to his office to subscribe for a paper. The editor took the money, but the Indian wanted a receipt. The editor tried to talk him out of it but the Indian insisted on getting a receipt. After making out the receipt the editor wanted to know why the Indian was so persistent about wanting such recognition. The Indian said: "Me die some day. Go to big gate. St. Peter ask if I had been good Indian. I say, yes. He say 'Did you pay editor paper?' I say yes. He say, 'Where is receipt?' I no have it... I have to run all over place to find you and get receipt." —Comanche Chief.

ANOTHER SCRAP OF PAPER

By LOUISE EVANS

Over in Geneva, Switzerland, there is the sound of tearing paper—the destruction of another covenant by which men have agreed to live.

Just as surely as Germany in-adviseedly spoke of a treaty as a "scrap of paper" are the other great nations of the world declaring that the covenant of the League of Nations has no strength when it restrains, for the moment their self-centered plans.

The great adventure in human co-operation, in adult consideration of problems rather than childish murder of individuals, has failed.

There is something pathetic about the appearance of Emperor Haile Selassie, King of Kings, Lion of Judea, in the austere halls at Geneva. Like a child reproaching his elders...

His nation kept the covenant of the League of Nations. One of the reasons why he so quickly suffered at the hands of the Italians was his lack of ammunition kept from him by the very League, to which he subscribed.

Had he looked at the earlier spectacle of the Manchurian situation, when the League of Nations allowed Japan to scuttle China, he should have known that no help would come to him.

But he kept the dignity of his position. His name was on a scrap of paper, to which the names of the heads of the great white nations of the world were also subscribed. He made continued efforts to settle the Ethiopian-Italian dispute by arbitration.

He failed. The League shilly-shallied. Its indecisive efforts, too, failed. World opinion, with the Negus during the early part of the conflict, shifted. There was idle talk—"The Ethiopians are just another bunch of savages. They need the civilization Italy will bring."

Apparently no one saw the absurdity of admitting that the Ethiopians were the weak nation, and then condemning them for that weakness.

So we've the spectacle of the emperor in the halls of Geneva, much like a bewildered child, asking his elders why the destruction of his country was allowed. With a child's lucidity and simplicity, he has put his finger on the exact heart of the trouble—the disregard for the sacredness of a covenant, the infernal "diplomatic" policies of the modern world.—Amarillo Daily News.

Jimmy Allred is being lambasted from one end of Texas to the other by his opponents for reelection as governor and one would think, after hearing "Trottering Tom," "Big Fish" and some of the others orate, that the Governor was actually against the Texas Old Age Assistance law.

Allred was the first Texas governor to recommend old age pension legislation to the legislature and his record stands forth as one of leadership in an honest, sincere effort to secure for the old people of this state, an adequate protection against need and want during their declining years.

Allred has a record of trying to do something for the old people. His opponents have a record of nothing but talk, and you know it is always easier to talk than to do it. It is easier to make plans than to execute them.—Ochiltree County Herald.

PLAINS RESULT NOT IN DOUBT

About the only governor that ever thought the panhandle or the plains area existed is Jas. V. Allred, who is running for his second term. The others, nice fellows everyone doubtless have fired all their shots at thickly settled regions. Even a step-child likes to be counted once in a while, and the West Texas stepchildren, proud that cognizance has been taken of them, will walk up to the polls and vote for Mr. Allred, who seems to include us among those present.—Floyd County Hesperian.

Black and white retains top billing in the season's fashion revue. Smart young women about town have found that nothing looks cooler, crisper, and generally more fetching on hot days than the clean contrast of this combination.

Black linen is one of the best bets of the season. It's featured in suits and simple tailored frocks with starched white accessories.

The classic black linen suit depends for its effectiveness on careful tailoring, perfect fit, and spotless accessories. It's grand with a chalk-white blouse, one of those crownless, washable white linen or pique hats, with white gloves, bag and shoes. The black linen shirt waist dress fastens all the way down the front with big white pearl buttons. It has short sleeves slightly puffed, and dramatizes the whole effect with a white patent belt.

For more dressy occasions, girls at Texas State College for Women (CIA) suggest a white mossy crepe frock with a black yoke of the same weave. Three medium white patent buttons fasten the yoke up to the tiny collar, and a black and white woven belt gives further contrast. White ground prints with black motifs are also good for summer sheers. They are shown in jacket and tunic styles with bright accessories.

If you happen to have a short sleeved black crepe dress left over from spring, you can turn it into a brand new summer costume by adding white accessories and one of those chalk-white swagger jackets of cool slippery sharkskin. A single bright color contrast in a flower will be especially effective at the neckline.

GIP HUDSON, Secretary
Sworn to and subscribed before me this 3rd day of July, 1936 (Seal) MARGARET COLLIER, Notary Public.

To the Voters of Precinct No. 2, Floyd County, Tex.

This letter is to express my appreciation for the courteous treatment and splendid co-operation you have given me while I have been serving as your commissioner.

During my time in office I have always found the people of precinct No. 2 to be willing and anxious to co-operate with me in anyway for the betterment of the community. This has been very gratifying and made me feel that my efforts were appreciated.

Regarding Government Projects: This phase of the work has required a great deal of time and expense in order that I might become familiar with the work. The experience that I have had in handling this work, my connection and acquaintance with the W. P. A. officials should be quite an asset in handling future projects of this nature.

I feel sure that the citizens of Precinct No. 2 are familiar with the method used in building and maintaining these roads. With past experience I believe that in the future more and better roads can be built at less expense to the tax payers.

I have endeavored to fill the office to the best of my ability and if you see fit to return me to office you have my assurance that I will continue to serve the people of Precinct No. 2 to the best of my ability.

E. R. HARRIS
Commissioner Precinct No. 2

To The Citizens of Floyd County:

For the past eighteen months I have served the people of Floyd County, in THE COMBINED OFFICE, AS ASSESSOR & COLLECTOR OF TAXES.

As you well know the RESPONSIBILITY and the IMPORTANCE of the Office was increased when these two offices were combined.

Both myself, and my Deputies have endeavored at all times to handle the affairs of the office in Honest, Fair, Impartial and Conservative manner being at your service either day or night.

Having known and dealt with the most of you during the past 25 years that I have been constantly before the Public, I feel I need no introduction to you, and to those whom I have known on short acquaintance, I trust that you have made diligent inquiry of me, both as a man and as to my qualifications to fill this most important office.

So I am going to say to you, that if you feel that I am qualified to fill this most important office if you feel that I have lived the kind of life in your community for the past 30 years, that is up to your standard of living, if you feel that I have dealt with You and Yours, and your neighbor in an honest, satisfactory, straight-from-the-shoulder manner, I certainly will appreciate your vote in the Primary Election next Saturday.

I am, yours truly,

Frank L. Moore
