TEN IN CONTEST

Ten comely lassies have entered the Sixth Annual XIT Reunion rodeo advance ticket sales contest, the winner to get a beautiful paint horse, "Chief," donated by President W. H. Coon of the chamber of commerce.

Deadline for entries was 6 p.m. yesterday. Sales will open today. Tickets are $1.15, and will be good for either Aug. 4 or 5, the XIT Reunion dates. If a person wants one for both days, he simply buys two tickets.

COKE STEVENSON COMING

B. N. Richards, pioneer Dalhart attorney and currently president of the Lions club, said this morning that Coke R. Stevenson plans to attend the Sixth Annual XIT Reunion in Dalhart Aug. 4-5.

Stevenson, who has been lieutenant-governor and who has already or who will succeed Gov. O'Daniel, recently elected U. S. senator, was also at the Reunion last year with Senator Weaver Moore of Houston, a former Dalhartan.

Stevenson's visit this year will mark the first time that a governor has attended the celebration.

TO CANYON CELEBRATION

Chairman Dan Spencer of the General XIT Committee this morning appointed Elmer Elliott chairman of a special XIT delegation to Canyon Sunday afternoon at 2:00.

The entire Panhandle has been invited to gather in Canyon at that hour for ceremonies opening construction on a new two-story wing to the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum. WPA workers will start on the project Monday morning.

The ceremonies also will pay tribute to the more than 31,000 Panhandle folks and institutions who have donated bricks or money making the new wing possible.

The new wing is essential because without it countless exhibits that are being offered the museum, cannot be housed. One of the most important displays the new wing will house will be the collection of paintings by the old masters donated by Judge James D. Hamlin of Farwell. It is valued at more than $60,000.

Judge Hamlin, incidentally, is president of the XIT Association, parent of the Annual XIT Reunion which this year will be in Dalhart Aug. 4-5. He is also a past president (Turn to Page 11, Column 3)

Exceeding their estimate of 100 women by at least 50 the "All-Girls" XIT booster trip left Dalhart this morning promptly at 9 o'clock headed for Hartley, Dumas and Amarillo, where they were scheduled to present a varied program under the direction of Mrs. Elmer Elliott and Mrs. Dan Spencer.

It was a colorful group that gathered in the chamber of commerce office this morning. Costumes of pioneer days and Western regalia of all descriptions were seen as the ladies and girls entered into the spirit of the occasion in grand style.

Mrs. B. N. Richards had charge of the girls trio; Mrs. Dick Miller of the square dancers and Mrs. C. W. Beene the all-girls' band. In addition the red-headed twins, Mrs. Bill Nite and Miss Beatrice Pierce, and the nine Rangerettes were present.

At Dumas Mrs. Dan Spencer had charge of the program and at Amarillo Mrs. Helen McDowell made the invitation to the XIT at the street program. At noon the trio, the twins and the Rangerettes appeared on a radio program and the invitation was extended by Mrs. Elliott.

Oil For Britain Day To Be Aug. 10

Austin—The Texas Railroad Commission today said the Texas Oil-For-Britain day would be Aug. 10, one of the days originally scheduled for a shutdown under the pro-ration program.

The Texas oil man suggested program under which Texas will give a day's oil production to England. If the whole state cooperates, Britain will get about 2,000,000 barrels of oil valued at $2,500,000. Oil is $1.15 per barrel.

Grains Continue Today Making Solid Advances

Chicago grains, that advanced yesterday, made another solid gain today.

Wheat at noon was a cent to a cent and a half higher: September $1.06 1-8. Corn was up a quarter to a half: Sept. 75 3-8. Oats were five-eighths to a cent higher; Sept. 37 1-2.

Cotton in New York was 5 to 22 points higher, and in New Orleans was up 6 to 19 points.

New York stocks dropped. Industrials in the Dow-Jones average were down 27 cents at the end of the fourth hour. Rails were down 3, utilities were off 11, leaving the entire list down 10. Fourth hour volume was 470,000 shares.

Fireman Starts Stove Fire

Newton, Mass. (UP)—Mrs. Edward W. Breaux turned the tables on the local fire department. "I can't start a fire in my stove," she telephoned fire department headquarters. Fireman Willard White was dispatched to her home, and soon had a cheery blaze crackling in the kitchen range.

Japan, poised over French Indo-China, was sharply criticized by the U. S. today in a note worded by Acting Secretary of State Sumner Welles.

He said Japan has no valid ground for occupying Indo-China, or even taking new bases there, and said any such program can be described only as wanton aggression.

Furthermore, he said, such a move threatens U. S. defense supplies (presumably from the Dutch East Indies) and is a direct threat to the Philippines and Western hemisphere and American security.

However, he did not indicate whether the U. S. would take economic or other reprisals against Japan.

A British spokesman today said the U. S. and Britain were jointly watching Far Eastern developments and hinted that the two nations might move together in applying economic and fiscal reprisals. A total trade embargo was talked.

Observers generally, however, could not understand Britain's reported position today that a Japanese thrust into Indo-China would fail to menace the big English naval base at Singapore.

Britain last night said Singapore and other Oriental and Pacific outposts had been forewarned and forearmed of Japanese intentions; and that RAF reinforcements had been distributed throughout that area.

Chinese intelligence sources last night said 30 Japanese troop transports, guarded by three warships, moved southward past Hongkong five days ago. Japan several days ago also assertedly sent seven big battleships, three aircraft carriers and 55 destroyers from Japanese waters southward, presumably toward French Indo-China.

The Vichy-French government, presumably under both German and Japanese pressure, last night announced an "understanding" with Japan concerning French Indo-China. Vichy denied it was acting under the prod of an ultimatum though many qualified sources believed it was.

The French parroted the same story that Japan has been telling: That English, Free French or Chinese forces, or a combination of all three, were planning to invade Indo-China and that Japan had to move because it had guaranteed Indo-China's borders.

Vichy said its failure in Syria had caused it to modify its position that all French colonies would be defended only by French forces.

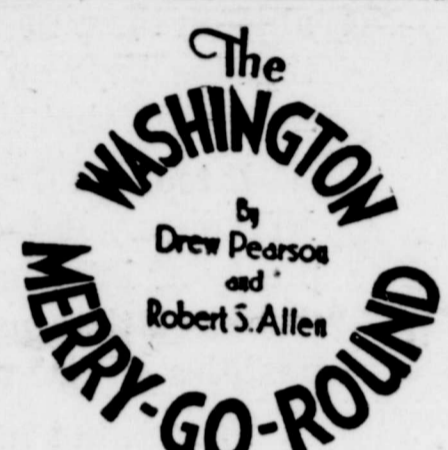

Independent observers see in the Japanese move the beginning of a series of new aggressions aimed first at Indo-China, then at the Dutch East Indies; then perhaps at the Philippines.

The Indo-China adventure will give Japan new bases, closer to Singapore, the Dutch East Indies and the Philippines and will aid Germany by diverting some English and U. S. attention to those areas.

Since Japan, under its new government, has given unmistakable signs of having aggression ideas, Russia may have to weaken its resistance to Germany in order to bolster its Siberian frontier against a possible Japanese thrust.

How far Japan goes likely will depend in large measure on how soon and how hard the U. S. and Britain crack down.

The Russo-German war today seemed to be running against the Nazis, who assertedly had lost the offensive on the central front, leading to Moscow, as a result of fur-

WASHINGTON. — Those present are keeping mum about it, but Administration leaders almost had to call out the riot squad to get the Senate military affairs committee to report out the War Department's "draft property" bill. The compromise bill was approved only after what one Senator privately described as the "wildest committee meeting I have ever attended." He wasn't exaggerating.

For a time, while debate was at its hottest, the closed-door session seemed like a waterfront brawl. Members threw senatorial dignity to the winds and all but slugged it out over the Army's demand for authority to draft property for defense.

Two Democrats, Sheridan Downey, California's "yes and noer" on foreign affairs, and "Happy" Chandler, militant anti-isolationist Kentuckian, almost did throw punches.

It started when Wayne Coy, head of the Office of Emergency Management, came from the White House with a draft of the property-seizure bill, which, it developed, was a virtual facsimile of the War Department's drastic original bill. There was a brief pause after the bill was read—and then the battle began.

All the Republican members and three Democrats, including Downey, jumped from their chairs hotly charging that the War Department was trying to put over a fast one, and demanding that Coy take the bill back to the White House. Ordinarily reserved, Senator Warren Austin of Vermont, a strong supporter of the President's foreign policies, wrathfully declared that he would not "go along" on this legislation, "giving the President blanket powers to seize property."

'FIGHTING WORDS'

Senator Styles Bridges of New Hampshire, another GOP anti-isolationist, exclaimed:

"If the President wants national unity and support from Republicans, he'd better give this bill back to the War Department."

Downey and several others also joined in the attack. Meanwhile Chandler, in charge of the legislation, kept shouting at the top of his voice:

"Property is no more sacred than human life. If the President has power to draft men for the Army, he also should have the right to draft property."

The big blowoff came when (Turn to Page 4—Column 1)

Drug Store Cowboys?

Maybe they're not much cowhands. Perhaps all that rigging they wore when they had their pictures made felt as uncomfortable on them as it would on you, but at the same time we'll say that the boys on the XIT General Committee have a lot of the same stuff that the cowboys of the XIT were made of.

It took a lot of patience to rope and brand a calf back in the XIT days. It took a lot of nerve to ride a bucking horse and plenty of intestinal fortitude to stop a stampede. But the boys who drew their pay checks from the XIT either had to have those qualities or else the work on the entire ranch slowed up.

There's not much difference in the patience it takes to rope and brand a calf than required to rope and brand a fellow who ought to be willing to serve on a particular job. That's what the XIT Committee has to do.

The same nerve that is required in riding a bucking bronc or heading off a stampede is needed when some of the workers in a civic affair stray off to themselves and start the ball rolling the wrong direction. The nerve to tell the folks what they need to know and lead them in the right direction, despite criticism from all sides, is much akin to the nerve a cowboy uses when he mounts a Brahma steer.

So this week we want to use this space to say to Dan Spencer, Charlie Coombes, Jr., Willis Stewart, J. C. Parker and Allyn Finch that we think they are doing a wonderful job and that while some of us are pretty hard to round up and we do a little private bucking on the side, that when the time comes we'll be in the harness, meek and mild, and not only looking for their leadership, but asking for it.

And if the XIT General Committee wants to ride a FARM-ALL down the main street of Dalhart we'll provide them with one of the newest and most popular farm tractors that is manufactured today.

Downey yelled, "This bill means revolution."

"I'm surprised," shot back the truculent Chandler, "that a responsible member of the Senate would make such a wholly irresponsible and absurd statement. I don't think a man in your position should be loosely predicting revolution. Such remarks stir up unrest, and there's already too much agitation in the country."

"I'll say what I please," screamed Downey, blazing with fury, "and I'll have you know that I have the interests of this country at heart as much as you."

"You haven't when you make statements like that," retorted Chandler.

For a moment the stocky, square-jawed Kentuckian and the map-haired Californian glared fighting mad at each other. Then Downey sat down and the committee voted out the compromise bill favored by Chandler.

NOTE.—Senator Downey is the Senate's chief advocate of the Townsend old age pension plan and was elected with considerable Ham-and-Egg support, a movement charged with the indirect conscription of property.

BOOMING LEWIS

Evidence continues to pile up that John L. Lewis has his cap set for a comeback as CIO president.

Latest incident to set CIO insiders buzzing occurred at the state convention of the Indiana CIO at Muncie. Ora Gasaway, former president of District 8, (Indianapolis) United Mine Workers, and now a Lewis henchman at the UMW headquarters in Washington, was making a speech. Suddenly he startled the gathering with this crack:

"The time has come for us to have a native-born American for president of the CIO."

For a moment you could have heard a pin drop. Then almost to a man the 700 delegates broke into a roar of angry boos. With a hasty gulp, Gasaway changed the subject.

NOTE.—CIO President Phil Murray was born in Scotland.

U. S. BASES IN SOUTH AMERICA

It hasn't leaked out yet, but through diplomatic negotiations with Latin America, the way is being paved for our possible entrance into the war as a belligerent. In an earlier day we were thinking only of neutrality, and together with the other American nations we laid down rules to prevent the belligerents from using the facilities of our ports more than a certain time.

But now, if the U. S. becomes a belligerent, we would be barred, by our own Inter-American regulations, from using the ports or landing fields of Brazil, Uruguay, Argentina, including the very ones which we are building at great cost, as announced by General

Marshall last week. These fields, of course, remain the integral territory of the country where they lie, and we have no claim to them.

Uruguay has already taken the initiative to solve this odd situation by yielding rights to the U. S. As a matter of fact, the United States foresaw the difficulty and discussed the matter with the Uruguayan Government. In reality Uruguay was selected for this first move because of her traditional liberal position in such matters.

It is hoped that the Uruguayan example will be followed by other countries. If it is not followed, the United States will be shut out of the southern continent.

UNIQUE ANNIVERSARY

December will mark a unique milestone in the life of stately William Tyler Page, clerk to the Republican membership of the House. It will mark his 60th anniversary as a congressional employe—the second longest continuous service on record.

Many changes have come over the nation and the Capitol since Page first went to work at the age of 13, as a House messenger in 1881. The population of the country was a sturdy 52 million. The automobile was a figment in the brain of C. E. Duryea, its inventor. Alexander Graham Bell and his new-fangled telephone were still a laughing stock.

Congressmen had no secretaries or offices, and the Capitol was lit by gas. But the thing Page likes most to talk about in comparing the America of today with the era in which he made his debut on Capitol Hill is the change that has come over government finances.

"The burning question in Congress when I first went to work," he recalls with a grin, "was what to do with a $250,000,000 surplus in the Treasury. The government was making more money that it knew how to spend, but there was a terrific furore when some congressman suggested that the surplus be used for public works.

"The revenue of the government then wouldn't amount to a good excise tax now. It was about $300,000,000 a year, but that was still too much, as Congress was spending at the rate of only $250,000,000 a year. So it was voted to reduce taxes."

MERRY-GO-ROUND

Price Defense Administrator Leon Henderson is planning to go to England for a first-hand study of wartime price regulation — after Congress has enacted his control bill. . . . Incidentally, certain Administration chieftains could learn a good lesson from Henderson on how to broach legislation. Instead of peremptorily throwing a bill at Congress, he has astutely conferred with Senate and House leaders on what should go into his measure. . . . Here is a graphic example of how overcrowded Washington is today. When the ornate Justice Department building was completed in 1932, it housed a total of 900 officials and employees, who rattled around in the huge structure like dice in a shaker. Practically everybody, from messengers up, had a private office. Today, the Washington personnel of the Department is over 7500 and office space is so scarce that many of the corridors are being used for offices.

LAFF-A-DAY

"She's our bottleneck. The boys won't ask us to dance until Susan decides with whom she is going!"

Beginning Saturday The Texan will follow the course of practically every other newspaper in this country. In line with the national defense program we will conserve all the newsprint possible. This means that we are going to have to crowd our material into less space. Since we have to publish Saturday's paper by noon we will reduce it to eight pages from its regular twelve. Whenever possible we will cut down the other papers.

This doesn't mean that you will miss any of our regular features. All the comics, columns, etc., will come to you regularly and all the news that is news will be published as heretofore. There will be less ad space available on Saturdays, but we will attempt to see that none of our customers are mistreated. We do ask that you get your ad and news copy to us as early as possible. Thanks, folks, and if this emergency lifts anytime in the near future, back we'll go immediately to our regular schedule of 72 to 76 pages each week. For some time now we've been getting suggestions about saving on news print. The paper companies want to keep their customers, but do not want excessive amounts of paper used. We believe we are following the best course and one that has already been adopted by all newspapers coming into Dalhart.

Bill Roper brought in a grasshopper yesterday that is bigger than Ham Scott after a hard grown dinner. Bill says the grasshopper turned his tractor over and captured him before he started the house. The "old man" may be seen in our insect window.

Bob Chatelain and Arthur Stens heard the women were leaving town today, so they were fishing.

With all the women in town gone to Amarillo, there's not much to write about today and practically no readers.

THE ARMY NOW!
WHY AND HOW
S. T. Williamson

A soldier speaks of an Army. When he speaks of "the supply," he means the supply of the administrative branch of the Army. When he speaks of "the planning," he means the planning of the Army. The Arms and Ammunition branch of the Army carry out the staff's plans. The biggest "arm" is the close-quarters. Equipped with such hand weapons as rifle, bayonet, pistol, and light machine gun, the soldier is trained to fight with such easily portable weapons as heavy machine guns, anti-tank guns, the close-quarters. "Close quarters may be a distance from a mile or more to hand. Infantry are the who get mostly shot at during war. They may get a ride in trucks but they fight on foot. They number more than half the Army; and a soldier speaks of "dough-brothers" means infantrymen. Cavalry is the mounted arm. Lists of horse cavalry (and the horses ride in trucks in battle line) and mechanized units which is equipped with tanks and other mechanized units. Roughly it corresponds to the Infantry. When a soldier speaks of "yellow legs," he means those whose dress uniform trousers have yellow stripes. The close quarters fighting is the Armored Force. Its equipment is the same as the cavalry's. It includes tanks and heavy tanks, which are the Army's land battleships. A soldier speaks of a "gas mask," he means a member of the Armored Force. While what's in the mail? E. Q. Does an album filled with Stamps automatically become a Bond that will pay interest and mature in 10 years?

A. No. The completed album must be exchanged for a Bond. Regardless of the amount of money you have invested in Stamps, it will not bear interest until it is in the form of a Bond or Bonds.

Q. Why should children be encouraged to buy Savings Stamps?

A. Because by buying Stamps they write their names on a Roll of Honor of Americans who are doing their part to show the dictators that united America will

Anybody Or Any Association Can Buy For Defense

Austin—Defense savings stamps and bonds can be bought by any individual, or any organization, Frank Scofield, state administrator, emphasized today.

He said he had just learned that a number of fraternal organizations, and unincorporated associations such as lodges, churches and societies have been refused the right to buy bonds because of the character of their organization. "Stamps or bonds," Scofield said, "can be purchased by any private corporation or association, whether incorporated or unincorporated; any partnership, trust funds, retirement or pension funds, any sovereignty, such as a state, county, city, town, village or school district, or any duly constituted body such as a board of commission.

"The funds of Masonic bodies, county organizations, Lions and Kiwanis clubs have already been invested in defense bonds, and many advisors are recommending these bonds for investments by trust funds and estates," Scofield said.

Winifred Jones has returned from Artesia, N. M., where she visited her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Prentice Freeman. Her mother, Mrs. L. W. Jones is also home from a visit with friends in Pratt.

Line Shows Aluminum Need

Heavy national defense demand for aluminum is sharply increasing the automatic refrigerator electric lines, according to General Electric Refrigerator Co. space for six aluminum metal pan accompanies two spaces. The refrigerator are empty. GE portable radio, however, is a radical departure from former dry cell portable one has what is an "airplane storage acid from which doesn't regardless of the position is in. New radio can be run off 27, or can be plugged in any electric socket. While into the socket, and play-radio battery can be re-charge.

Aid Solicited Aluminum Campaign

Station, July 24—Several farm people attending course here last week dig out scrap aluminum for national collection, July 21-29. Suggested for donation include pans, refrigerator electrical appliances, kettles, boilers, radio parts, and jar caps. Aluminum collected will be for defense purposes, they informed that the government discards or uses what can be spared for replacements. Approximately 500 county extension agents in College Station for national conference at headquarters were urged by Director Williamson and other leaders Extension Service to assist

XIT Dipping Vat Aid To Hay Fever

That XIT dipping vat in the downtown section, for soothing all men and women who fail to meet XIT regalia requirements laid down by the General XIT Committee may have unsuspected properties, believes L. What U. S. Court Of Claims Does

Many folks have asked to what court Marvin Jones of Amarillo was appointed by President Roosevelt, and what the court does. The tribunal is the U. S. Court of Claims, second only to the U. S. Supreme Court. Among other things, it decides on all cases where the government is sued by individuals, corporations, states of the Union or foreign nations.

Living Habits Going Up Instead Of Cost

(By ROGER BABSON)

Babson Park, Mass., July 24.—We hear much talk about the increased cost of living. Thus far this is largely propaganda issued by labor leaders and men in Washington anxious to get more authority and create more government jobs. As Al Smith used to say: "Let's look at the record." Here are the official figures. The U. S. Index is based on the 1935-1939 average as equal to 100.

Year	U.S.A.	Canada
1926	126.3	121.8
1927	124.7	119.9
1928	122.3	120.5
1929	122.5	121.7
1926-1929 Av.	123.9	121.0
(July, 1941 living costs are still 10 per cent below June, 1929 costs while wages are 10 per cent higher.)
August, 1939	99.6	100.8
April, 1941	102.2	108.6
July 15, 1941	105.0 Est.	111.0 Est.

This table shows that although there has been an increase in Canadian prices of about 10 per cent since the war began, there has been an increase in U. S. prices of only about 5 per cent. This increase has been almost wholly in food-stuffs and that largely in cities. Agricultural communities, in which 60 per cent of our people live, have seen no average increase. In fact, the only portions really suffering are the Defense Areas and their increases have been more than offset by wage increases.

A study of the Canadian figures also shows that in Canada there has recently been a decided slowing down in the rate of increase. It is very probable that the rise in U. S. prices will, likewise, slow down after the present excitement is over and farm prices reach parity.

What About Rents?

The cost of building has gone up 9 per cent over a year ago; but 70 per cent of this increase went to labor and taxes, not to material costs. This means that—with the exception of the Defense Areas where rents will be pegged—there will be rent increases. Most landlords during the past ten years have barely got enough rent to pay taxes, insurance, and repairs, leaving almost nothing for interest or for themselves. They are entitled to a "break."

There also will be increases in metal goods, including toys for the children as well as automobiles, both new and used cars. Clothing will increase some until the prices of cotton and wool reach parity. But these increases are not due to the war, nor to the manufacturers. These increases are due to artificially-controlled prices for cotton and other agricultural products forced upon us by Southern and Western politicians. This is not saying that the cotton, wool, grain, and fruit growers are not entitled to more than they have been getting—but let us not blame the war or inflation for such increases. The 8 per cent rise in food prices, the 1 per cent rise in clothing, and the 5 per cent rise in coal this July compared with July, 1940, are due to politics.

Use Sense Buying

The honest answer to this entire cost of living question is this: If we insist upon having the SAME things in the SAME amounts as before September, 1939, then our cost of living will go up considerably. If, however, we will be satisfied with certain substitutes which are nearly as good and perhaps healthier and will cut out waste, we have nothing to fear. Of course, in saying this I assume our politicians will not foolishly start to print fake money. I also assume installment buying is to be curbed. The present figure of $5,000,000,000 tied up in installment credit is too high.

During World War I, the women of my family spent more time darning socks and mending clothes and less time playing bridge. We had more pot roasts and fewer sirloin steaks. I cut out golf and had a good vegetable garden for exercise instead. We saved on gasoline and waited until after war prices became normal again before buying a new car and fur coat. My wife threw less in the garbage pail. Our total expenditures, however, did not go up and we were happier and healthier than ever before. Pepper and spices will soar in price; but why use them?

Don't Forget Surpluses

Latest reports are that U. S. wheat and corn crops for 1941 will each exceed by 100,000,000 bushels the crop for 1940 and that Canada will, likewise, raise more wheat and other cereals. These big crops will further add to the large surpluses now in storage. The same reasoning applies to most manufactured articles now containing rubber, metals, and certain textiles. Thirty per cent of the items in the forthcoming catalogs of the big mail order houses will show no price increase; while the total average increase will not exceed 5 per cent.

We shall have gradual inflation. Prices will go up, but this does not necessarily mean that the cost of living need go up. Although the paper-money prices during the German inflation were terribly high, there was very little increase in living costs for the mass of German workers. Potatoes were "priced" 50 million marks per bushel, yet every farmer was glad to give a bushel to any husky man for a good day's work. It was the retired city people who had their money in banks and bonds—rather than in farms and good common stocks—who suffered.

Where the Shoe Will Pinch

However, look for real growing pains in the defense effort. Controls will soon begin to grip. Expect virtual elimination of civilian uses for many non-essentials. Supplies of luxuries will shorten, merchants will be unable to re-stock. Rail priorities will be enforced, when necessary, by the ICC. Electric power and gasoline will be rationed in some areas. There will be further demands for simplification and standardization of consumer items. Baruch was planning in 1918 to require that styles be eliminated, but even this need not increase the honest COST of living which is very different from the HABITS of living.

Bricks, as indicated above, cost $15 per 1000, or $5 for 333. Everyone, said Flynn, the Amarillo field worker, who will donate from one brick up, new or used, or new or scrap lumber, or cash, is asked to bring their contributions to the chamber of commerce office on West Third street.

"And be sure to leave your name," he said. "The Museum wants the names of all donors in a big bound volume that will be among its most cherished treasures. It will list those who made this new wing possible, and already carries more than 31,000 entries."

Dalhart, along with other Panhandle towns and cities, is going to have as many trucks as necessary to take contributions from this area to Canyon Sunday. These Panhandle trucks will start unloading at the Museum Sunday at 2 p.m. in a great Victory Observation. News reel, press association and newspaper photographers will record the event. Entertainment will be highlighted by massed concerts by the West Texas State college band of Canyon and the Amarillo high school band.

'Blondie' And New Roy Rogers Picture Form Weekend Fare

"Blondie Goes Society", at the Mission; "In Old Cheyenne", and a new 12-chapter Buck Jones serial, "White Eagle", at the La Rita. That's the Friday and Saturday film fare in Dalhart.

The La Rita will be showing the first chapter of the Buck Jones serial. And Buck Jones, one of Hollywood's brightest stars, has told the La Rita theater to give every child who attends the show either tomorrow or Saturday a free candy bar.

"We'll have the bars on hand," said J. C. Parker this morning. "And they're being given by Buck Jones."

In the picture "In Old Cheyenne", opening at the La Rita tomorrow, Roy Rogers is cast as a cowboy-newspaper reporter assigned to ferret out the leader of a wholesale cattle rustling and bandit gang.

Brother Of M. K. Kromer Is Dead

M. K. Kromer, employee of the Terry Thompson ranch in Hartley county, was called to Mangum, Okla., yesterday by the death of his brother, Arthur Kromer.

Arthur Kromer was an uncle of Henry and Merle Kromer of Dalhart but at noon today they had learned no details of his death or when the funeral would be held.

CHAMPIONS COMING

The Annual XIT Ranch Reunion rodeos, offering more than $1400 in prizes, always draws some of the top hands of the Southwest Rodeo Association, and the Rodeo Association of America.

The Sixth Annual XIT Ranch Reunion, which includes XIT rodeos each afternoon, will be held in Dalhart Aug. 4-5.

Among topnotchers who will be here, according to Allyn D. Finch, Dalhart rancher who heads the XIT Rodeo committee, is Homer Pettigrew, Grady, N. M., world's champion steer wrestler in 1940.

Another, he said, will be Andy Curtis, El Reno, Okla., who last year won the All-Around Rodeo event, annually a highlight of the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show at Fort Worth.

Gene Ross, Sayre, Okla., world's champion steer wrestler in 1931 and again in 1937, will probably be here. So will his brother, Roy Ross, who was at the XIT last year. Another brother, Bruce, has definitely said he would be on hand.

MANY SPECIALTY ACTS

The Sixth Annual XIT Ranch Reunion rodeos in Dalhart Aug. 4-5, using the famed Beutler Bros. stock of Elk City, Okla., and action-packed in themselves, will be further "souped up" with a variety of bang-up specialty acts.

These will include Cecil Cornish, Waukomis, Okla., with his high school horse; his Palomino Roman team; his educated Brahma bull which jumps over a car loaded with people, and that Cornish drives to a racing sulky.

Cornish, along with Ruth Marion of Ranger, Texas, and Paul Bond of Carlsbad, N. M., will do trick riding and roping. Rodeo clowning will be done by Buddy Reiger, Woodward, Okla., who long ago earned his spurs in this work.

Huntington, Ind. (U.P.)—A pear tree, believed to have been nearly 100 years old—one of the oldest in this section of the country—was blown down by a storm. The tree, which reached a height of 40 feet and was 9 feet around, never failed to bear fruit.

Mrs. T. J. Potts, former Dalhart resident, is seriously ill in Shamrock. Her granddaughter, Jeanne Potts, went to her bedside last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Walker are in Amarillo today on business.

Aluminum Canvass In City Tomorrow

Boy Scouts, under the general direction of Earl McIlroy, Rev. R. H. Campbell and Chester Dunlap will canvass Dalhart tomorrow afternoon for scrap and used aluminum to bolster the national defense program.

The canvass will be part of the Dallam county aluminum campaign, which in turn is part of the state and national drive to get any aluminum that anyone can spare, including American housewives.

The national defense aluminum shortage has steadily become more acute.

The shortage is particularly dangerous because it cuts down production of planes. These are needed desperately by Britain because, if she has them, she can now strike deadly blows at Germany while Hitler is occupied with Russia.

The U. S. OPM hopes to get enough aluminum in the way of pots and pans from American homes to build 2000 planes.

Earl McIlroy has been named by Gov. O'Daniel and County Judge Floyd McNeill as Dallam county chairman of the campaign. Rev. Campbell is scout commissioner for the Dallam-Hartley counties district; and Dunlap is field scout executive.

A postman will accompany each scout group in his territory so that no homes will be overlooked. McIlroy, Judge McNeill, Rev. Campbell, Dunlap and all others interested have emphasized that no piece is too large or too small. They are all desperately needed.

Persons, if they like, can put the aluminum on their front porch tomorrow morning and scouts can pick it up without disturbing the household.

Step-Father Of Hobart Barnes Is Dead In Alhambra

Hobart Barnes yesterday received word that his step-father, John P. Kay, 70, had died Tuesday of a paralytic stroke at his home in Alhambra, Calif. Mrs. Kay died in 1933.

Funeral details were not learned but burial, it was said, will be in Rose Lawn cemetery at Pasadena.

Survivors, beside Mr. Barnes, include six sons, John, Jim, Woodrow, Nathan, Paul and Ervin, of Alhambra; two daughters, Mrs. Gladys Edwards, Alhambra; and Mrs. Frank Peters, San Bernadino; two step-daughters, Mrs. John Hig-ious Red counter-drives. There were strong evidences that Germans were being thrown back in that sector.

Action on other sectors of the 2,000-mile front was not clearly depicted either last night or today by either side. The German high command spoke only in broad generalities. Reds claimed successes in Bessarabia, and said its air fleet was effectively blasting German troops and airdromes.

Steady RAF blasting of vital German areas in the West undoubtedly has forced Chancellor Hitler to move heavy Luftwaffe reinforcements back to that front.

Nazis claimed to have shot down 54 RAF planes over the Channel the past 24 hours, and to have lost three. It said it also had bombed the east and west English coasts.

The RAF last night and today dynamited Frankfort, Mannheim, Ostend, LeHavre, Boulogne, Calais and other points. Germans said they did no appreciable damage.

An indication that the German air force in the East is weakened, was seen in the Russian report that for the third successive night the Luftwaffe failed to break through Moscow defenses, except for a few scattered planes.

Observers today construed as significant the German announcement that Hitler would return to French owners all boats under 300 tons. A year ago Germany was assembling a fleet of small boats to invade England, and observers believe this latest German announcement indicates that the invasion idea has been given up. However, the announcement could be a ruse to throw the British off guard.

Germans today began leaving Iran—many thought in a wholesale exodus—for Istanbul, Turkey. The exodus could be to elude the British, or it could be preliminary to a drive on Turkey.

Foreign Minister Eden today warned Spain it must be more friendly or lose British aid.

Italians today claimed extensive air and naval successes against a

British convoy in the Mediterranean.

Trouble flared again last night and continued today between Peru and Ecuador. Some 3000 ground troops reportedly are engaged.

Secretary of War Stimson in Washington today bluntly accused Senator Wheeler of sending postal cards to soldiers asking them to protest U. S. entry into the war. He said he had some of the cards Wheeler sent. He said such actions come very near to being subversive activities against the U. S. if not actual treason.

General Marshall yesterday said efforts to get civilian soldiers to protest an extension of their training is nothing less than "sabotage."

NOTICE OF SALE OF REAL ESTATE

WHEREAS, by virtue of an order of sale issued out of the District Court of Hartley county, Texas, on the 21st day of April, 1939, in cause No. 1717, styled the State of Texas Vs. R. T. Williamson, et. al. and to me delivered commanding me to seize and sell at public outcry the following described real estate to satisfy a judgment rendered in said cause for the sum of $479.92 and in favor of the State of Texas and other taxing units of Hartley county, to-wit:

All of Block No. 176, in the city of Dalhart in Hartley county, Texas, as shown on the map and plat of said city filed by the Dalhart Town Co., same being a fractional part of Section No. 32, in Block No. 48, H. & T. C. Ry. Co., original grantee.

AND WHEREAS, I did, on the 6th day of June, 1939, after giving due notice thereof as required by law, offer for sale and sell said real estate above described to the State of Texas, for the sum of $490.72, being the amount of taxes, interest, penalty and costs against said land for the year 1930-1936, both inclusive, and that being the highest and best bid, and thereafter on the 21st day of June, 1939, I executed and delivered to the State of Texas a deed to said above real estate which deed is of record in the deed records of Hartley county, Texas, Vol. 66, page 576, and

WHEREAS, none of the defendants have offered to redeem said real estate from said tax sale, NOW THEREFORE, I, Ralph Queen, sheriff of Hartley county, Texas, by virtue of the authority vested in me under the laws of the State of Texas, will offer for sale at public outcry at the court house door of said Hartley county in Channing, Texas, on the 5th day of August, 1941, between the hours of 2 o'clock P. M., and above described real estate. DATED, at Channing, Texas, 7th day of June, 1941.

Without Painful Backache

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.
