

REDS WIN WORLD'S SERIES, TAKING TODAY'S GAME FROM SOX, 10-5 SCORE

Winners of 1919 World Series Games

GRAND FINALE SEES BOTH TEAMS HITTING BALL ALL OVER LOT

COMISKEY PARK, Chicago, Oct. 9.—The Cincinnati Reds are the world's baseball champions. They won the deciding game of the series here this afternoon by a score of 10 to 5 in, by far the most exciting play of the series.

The Reds got away with the lead in the first session and led all the way, Chicago's only substantial rally coming in the eighth inning, when they put over four runs. The game was featured by heavy hitting. Eller went the route for Cincinnati, but the careers of the Chicago boxmen were short and far from pleasant.

First Inning.
Cincinnati—Rath popped out to Risberg. Daubert singled to center. Groh singled to right. Daubert going to second. Roush doubled past first to right field pavilion and Daubert scored. Groh went to third. James in warming up for Chicago. Duncan doubled to left field, scoring Groh and Roush. This was enough for Williams and Big Bill James went in to pitch for Chicago. Kopf walked; Neale fanned. Rariden lifted a Texas league hit over first. Duncan scoring and Kopf going to third. Rariden stole second. Eller ended the slaughter by flying out to Felsch.

Second Inning.
Chicago—Lieberd singled to left and went on to third when E. Collins doubled to the same garden. Ring warming up for Cincinnati. Weaver fanned. Jackson flied out to Kopf. Both base runners held their bases. Felsch fanned.

Third Inning.
Cincinnati—Rath struck out. Daubert flied out to Jackson. Groh singled to Gandil, who could not get to the bag in time. Roush doubled to left, scoring Groh. Roush was caught between second and third and touched out.

Fourth Inning.
Cincinnati—Rariden lined out to Gandil. Eller was hit by a pitched ball and trotted to first. Rath singled to second, Risberg managing to stop it, but could not prevent. Eller reaching second. Daubert singled to center and Eller was caught at the plate when Lieberd made a wonderful throw to Schalk. Rath reached third and Daubert took second on the play. Groh popped to E. Collins.

Fifth Inning.
Cincinnati—E. Collins got Roush's grounder and threw to Gandil for a outout. Duncan line-flied to E. Collins. Kopf tripped to right. Neale singled, scoring Kopf. Neale stole second. Risberg threw Rariden out at first.

Sixth Inning.
Cincinnati—Eller singled through the box. Every Cincinnati player has made a hit today. Rath walked. This finished James and Wilkinson went in to pitch for Chicago. Daubert bunted in front of the plate and Schalk threw wild in trying to catch Eller at third, Eller reaching third safely. Rath taking second and Daubert first. Groh fanned. Duncan doubled, scoring Daubert and putting Roush on third. Duncan took second.

Seventh Inning.
Cincinnati—Rariden flied out to Felsch. Eller struck out. Rath walked. Rath stole second. Daubert also walked. Groh hoisted to Lieberd.

Eighth Inning.
Cincinnati—Roush hit by pitched ball and went to first. Duncan sacrificed, Wilkinson to Gandil. Roush going to second. Kopf fouled out to Weaver. Neale walked. Rariden singled to left and Roush scored. Neale reaching third and Rariden second on Jackson's throw to the plate. Risberg threw out Eller at first.

Ninth Inning.
Chicago—Lieberd flied to Neale. E. Collins singled through the pitcher's box. Weaver doubled to the right field box seats, putting E. Collins on third. Jackson doubled, scoring E. Collins and Weaver. Felsch popped an easy one to Daubert and Jackson held second. Gandil tripped to right, scoring Jackson. Roush fumbled Risberg's fly and Gandil scored. Rath tossed out Schalk at first.

Tenth Inning.
Cincinnati—Rath singled out second. Daubert sacrificed, Wilkinson to Gandil. Rath taking second. Groh hoisted to Lieberd. Weaver threw out Roush.

Final Inning.
Chicago—Murphy, batting for Wilkinson, was hit by a pitched ball and walked to first. Roush made his second circus catch of the game on Lieberd's short fly. Murphy holding first. E. Collins singled, Murphy going to second. Neale grabbed Weaver's fly, but Murphy made third. E. Collins stole second. Rath threw out Jackson.

Chicago—449 013 010—10 16 3
Cincinnati—001 000 040—5 10 3

LABOR AGENTS WARNED AWAY FROM TEX. COAST

AUSTIN, Oct. 9.—Labor agents coming to Aransas Pass, seeking buyers for other sections, will be detained and put to work, according to a telegram to Governor Hobby from General Walters, in the devastated area. It is declared that the Aransas Pass section need every laborer, and it is asserted that any attempt to take men out of the coast will be severely dealt with.

"MEANEST MAN" STEALS SOLDIER'S WAR MEDAL
International News Service, COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 9.—The "meanest man" has been found again. A colored soldier entered a local tailor shop to have his uniform pressed. While the tailor was temporarily absent, someone entered and took the colored soldier's medal from his coat.

3 AVIATORS KILLED IN BIG AIR RACE

MINEOLA, N. Y., Oct. 9.—Three aviators have been killed, four of the sixty-two originally entered put definitely out of the running and the status of several others remained unknown early today when the army's great trans-continent air race over the 5400-mile course between Mineola and San Francisco was resumed.

Two men killed yesterday were Maj. D. H. Crissey and Sgt. Virgil Thomas who met almost instant death in a crash at Salt Lake City, and Sgt. William Nevitt, observer for Col. Gerald Brandy, whose plane crashed at Deposit, N. Y.

Leader Heads for Rock Island. CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—First Lieutenant Maynard, leader in the trans-continent air race, arrived at 12:40 o'clock today, making the trip from Des Moines—118 miles—in one hour and fifteen minutes.

LIEUTENANT MAY REACHES DES MOINES. OMAHA, Oct. 9.—Lieutenant Maynard, leading in the trans-continent air derby, arrived at 12:40 o'clock today, making the trip from Des Moines—118 miles—in one hour and fifteen minutes.

THIRTY MACHINES ARRIVE SAFELY. MINEOLA, Oct. 9.—Lieutenant Maynard led all aviators in the distance covered flying from Chicago to Des Moines this morning. Thirty of the forty-eight machines leaving here arrived safely at Buffalo today.

ASHTABULA, O., Oct. 9.—Airplane No. 45 in the trans-continent air race fell into Lake Erie east of here this morning. The two occupants were rescued. An attempt will be made to salvage the plane.

DES MOINES, Oct. 9.—Lieutenant Maynard landed here at 10:55 o'clock this morning.

CALL FOR AID IS FLASHED BY U. S. STEAMER

HALIFAX, Oct. 9.—A wireless appeal for aid from the American steamer Yakkah has been heard by the British station at Halifax, Nova Scotia. The vessel is disabled and in drift, according to the call. The steamer Anacoreis reports that she is about seventy miles from the disabled ship and proceeding to her relief.

NO DIMINUTION IN TRAFFIC INTO RANGER.

No diminution in traffic and passenger revenues have been witnessed in Ranger in the last few weeks, despite the statement made a few days ago that there was an apparent falling off in volume of passenger traffic. The above statement was made by Agent C. B. Jones of the Ranger office of the Texas and Pacific to a Times representative Thursday. In fact, Mr. Jones declared that if anything there was a great increase. Much of the traffic is now being carried by the Dallas Fair Special trains which have been put on in either direction. The schedule maintained by it seems to be more convenient than those of the other trains. They are serving to relieve the heavy passenger traffic at present so impossible in the oil fields.

THIRD WELL ON BROOKS PRODUCING

Ranger Central has the third producing well on the Brooks Heirs tract in the last ten days. No. 1 is making 800 barrels from the top of the black lime at 3,336 feet. Ocean Oil Company and the Southwestern Oil & Development Company both have completed their No. 1 wells, for around 1,000 barrels apiece. The Ranger Central ten acres lies north of Ocean's ten. The tract is seven miles west of Ranger.

Albers Oil Company on the Turner is getting 750 barrels from No. 2, which is in the black lime at 3,340 feet. Sinclair Gulf Oil Company shot J. E. Barnes No. 5 with 250 quarts from 3,236 to 3,342 feet and the well flowed eighty barrels and is erraying today. It is expected to be good for 250 barrels when cleaned. Harpool No. 6 was shot with 200 quarts at midnight last night, from 3,249 to 3,342 feet, but bridged and did not come out.

ASK SEARCH FOR 2 MISSING BALLOONISTS

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 9.—The Canadian government through the local British consular today was requested to begin a search for Captain Dammann and Lieutenant Vechesef, who have not been heard from since they left here ten days in a balloon race. The fliers are believed to have been lost in the Canadian wilds. They carried provisions sufficient for three days.

EASTLAND SECRETARY IS VISITOR TO RANGER TODAY.

Secretary Woodall of the Eastland Chamber of Commerce was a visitor to Ranger today. Mr. Woodall was installed a short time ago under the reorganization plan of the organization and has done very effective work since his incumbency. He was impressed with what he saw in Ranger.

Ranger Men Rally to Support of Railroad

Will Ranger pass up the chance to get the Hamon & Kell railroad? The railroad committee, confident that Ranger will rally to the financial support of the new railroad when the matter is put up to the citizens squarely, has called a mass meeting for Friday morning, at 10 o'clock, at the Liberty theater. The following letter is addressed to every business man in the city:

LOST TO RANGER—THE NEW RAILROAD?

There will be a meeting of the citizens of Ranger at the Liberty theater Friday morning at 10 o'clock sharp, for the purpose of determining whether or not the citizenship of Ranger will support the committee in securing a north and south railroad.

A neighboring city has offered to take the proposed road off our hands, and further than that, has offered strong inducements for the line to be built through its territory. Unless we, the citizens of Ranger, put our shoulders to the wheel in a firm, united effort we surely will lose an asset which we cannot under the circumstances afford to lose.

No utility of any value was ever acquired without effort. No city was ever built without co-operation and teamwork on the part of its citizens.

No city has ever had such need of a second railway. The time has come in the life of our city when its citizens must give some thought and some effort to community problems such as this and not trust wholly to a kindly Providence to thrust upon us all the good things of life.

Give this matter your very careful consideration and if you have the future welfare of your city at heart, do not fail to be present at the meeting promptly at the appointed hour Friday morning. Very cordially yours,

- M. H. HAGAMAN,
  - M. R. GHOLSON,
  - M. H. SMITH,
  - R. A. HODGES,
  - F. W. MELVIN,
  - M. R. NEWNHAM,

JAPS TOLD TO AID AMERICANS IN SIBERIA

YOKIO, Oct. 9.—Japanese forces in Siberia have been ordered to cooperate effectively with the American authorities in the operation of the trans-Siberian railroad, as a result of strong representations made by the United States government to Japan. The American government claimed that in the sections guarded by Japanese troops, the lives and property of Americans were inadequately protected.

FOREIGNERS ARE FLEEING FROM VIENNA

VIENNA, Oct. 9.—All foreigners are leaving Vienna by official order. Eight thousand persons from eastern Galicia already have departed and arrangements are being made to increase the number of trains to expedite the exodus.

FEDERAL AID FOR CORPUS IS NOW EXPECTED

AUSTIN, Oct. 9.—There is no provision in the Texas constitution which prohibits Corpus Christi borrowing from the federal government for reconstruction purposes, the attorney general's department told Representative Carlos Bee at Washington. The question arose over a proposed $5,000,000 loan to storm-stricken city.

EX-PRESIDENT OF SALVADOR IS DEAD.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Carlos Melendez, former president of the republic of Salvador, died here yesterday. It became known today.

BIG TOOL HOUSE MAY PLACE ITS PLANT IN CITY

A large hammer, spade, and tool factory of St. Louis is seeking a location in Ranger for a mammoth plant which would employ between 300 and 400 men, according to information given out by the Chamber of Commerce this morning. No definite action has yet been taken by the company, but it is understood that the interests are very much pleased with prospects here. The Chamber of Commerce is furnishing such information as would be desirable to the company upon which to make a decision.

The company is said to have recently owned a large plant in St. Louis, but to have sold out when a large corporation came that way. The company has since decided to come to this part of the state where business is brisk and there is a greater demand for such tools as they make. Accordingly Ranger has been looked upon as a very feasible location.

The company would manufacture all the smaller tools required by artisans, as well as have a factory for the repair of machinery and the like.

PROPOSE PLANS TO SETTLE ALL LABOR UNREST

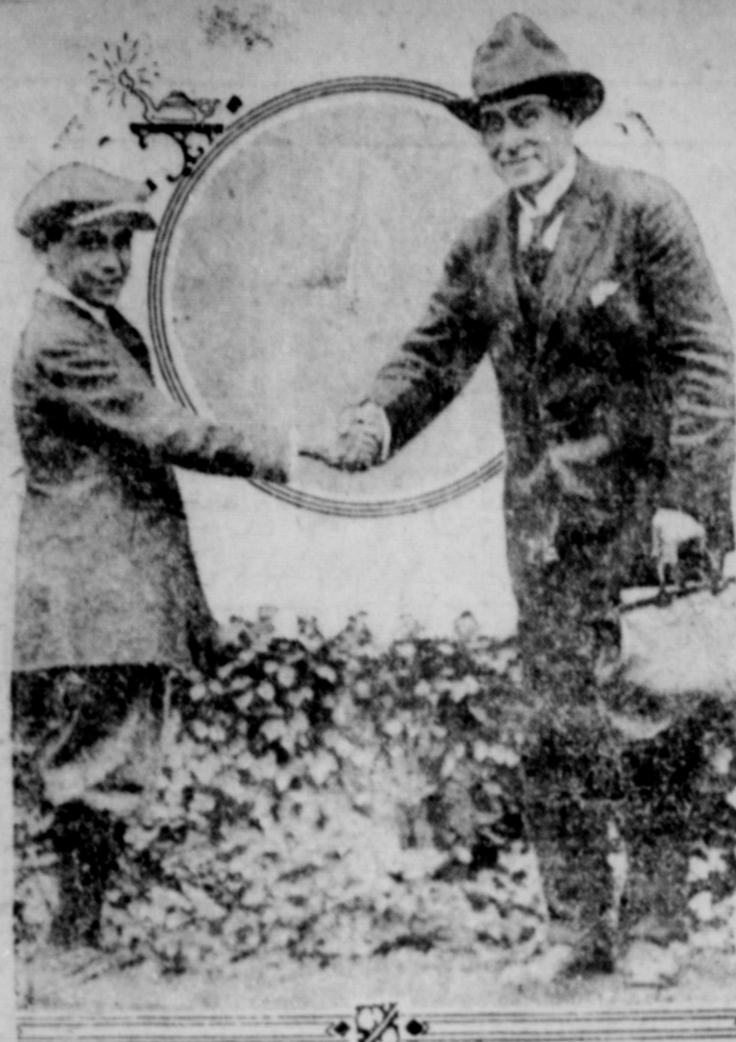

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—An immediate industrial truce to continue for three months; the creation of an arbitration board by the president and congress, and the immediate arbitration of the national steel strike were among the proposals made today to the industrial conference here.

The first two were presented by representatives of the public and the last by the labor representatives.

Bernard Baruch, chairman of the public group, made the proposal for the industrial truce, while Samuel Gompers, chairman of the labor group, proposed the immediate return of the steel strikers, pending the outcome of efforts to arbitrate the dispute.

The proposed permanent arbitration board, urged by Gavin McNab of San Francisco, provides that all living ex-presidents shall be members. Gompers' board of arbitration of the steel strike would be composed of six members, two appointed by each group in the conference—capital, labor and the public.

NEGROES AND FOREIGNERS IN BIG BATTLE

PITTSBURG, Oct. 9.—In a clash between negro workmen and foreign-born strikers at Denora today two men were shot and wounded and a number injured.

The crowds were scattered by the state police without serious casualties.

TRAIN DERAILMENT DELAYS PASSENGERS.

Westbound trains on the Texas and Pacific were delayed from five to seven hours this morning due to a derailment of a train at Weatherford during the early morning according to passengers arriving here.

So far as known no one was killed or injured in the accident. The local offices had no information to give out on it.

N. J. Novakovich & Son Are Building New Fish Market

N. J. Novakovich and son are constructing what promises to be the most up-to-date and best equipped fish and oyster market in the southwest. The new building is about half completed and with good weather should be finished by the first of November. It is of concrete block construction, 25,500 feet, and two stories in height. A large ice and cold storage plant, and an electric plant are features of the building.

The business of Novakovich and son is located on Walnut street, across from the Wilson hotel. The proprietors have been in Ranger seven months. They lost all their effects in the big fire last spring but this did not discourage them.

Mr. Novakovich handles a complete line of fish, oysters and other sea foods. He gets eighty per cent of his fish and oysters from his brother, who runs a line of fishing vessels at Galveston, and this insures a splendid quality of product.

The new building and equipment will cost from $18,000 to $20,000. The inner story will contain twenty rooms and it is planned to fit it up into a first class rooming house.

POLICE ACTIVE IN CASES OF CASINO THEFT

E. H. Bell, a former broker of Ranger, is under $3,000 bond, charged with theft of more than fifty dollars. Bell's arrest follows that of twelve others recently made by Ranger police in connection with the wholesale theft of casino and other oil well supplies, said to be worth $750,000.

The matter in which Bell is alleged to be implicated concerns a boiler stolen from the Sun company some time ago.

Bell was arrested in Dallas Monday and brought to Ranger by Tom Hays of the local police force. He has retained the three Mays—those of Eastland to defend him. They also are acting as counsel for nine others charged with theft of oil well supplies.

Local police are still working on cases unearthed recently and other arrests are expected to be made in the casino theft cases.

Postoffice Receives Interior Finishes

Alterations in the interior of the local postoffice have been under way for the last few days. McNelly Brothers, contractors, have had a force employed re-arranging lock boxes, putting up lattice work and otherwise placing the office fixtures and furniture in shape for the heavy demands made upon the service.

In the last two months there has been a wonderful improvement in the local postoffice facilities. New boxes and new fixtures which have arrived here afforded conveniences which were impossible with the old equipment.

ANOTHER BIG OIL FIRE IN THE WICHITA FIELD

Special Leased Wire.

WICHITA FALLS, Oct. 9.—An oil tank west of the city caught fire Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock after being struck by lightning. Twelve wells were threatened by the fire.

According to reports reaching here six persons were badly burned.

OIL FIRE LAYS WASTE PART OF WAGGONER CITY

By Associated Press.

WICHITA FALLS, Oct. 9.—Fire started when lightning struck an oil tank yesterday destroyed part of the new town of Waggoner City in the Burk Burnett oil field.

The loss is estimated at $75,000. All of one side of the town, which consisted of small frame buildings, was burned, and the flames were extinguished by a heavy downpour of rain.

BRT. MINERS WILL STRIKE IF UNHEEDED

LONDON, Oct. 9.—With the country not fully recovered from the effect of the railway strike, British miners take the stage today when a negotiation will call on Premier Lloyd George to press the demand for complete nationalization of the mines.

If Lloyd George reiterates his decision today and refuses to accept nationalization, and it is assumed that he will, a special trades congress will be convened to decide what action is to be taken.

PET PARROT BURIED WITH CIVIL WAR VET

International News Service.

SAWTELLE, Cal., Oct. 7.—In obedience to the last request of Phin D. Freeman, civil war veteran, who died at his home here, the stuffed skin of his pet parrot was placed in the casket with his body. Freeman's parrot died in 1912. The veteran had the skin stuffed and placed in a glass case on which was inscribed the name, "Polly Freeman."

OLDEN GROWS FAST; WILL GET NEW HIGHWAY

By LEROY A. WILKE. Special to The Times.

OLDEN, Oct. 8.—If the growth of Olden would stop it would be necessary for drillers to quit bringing in 2,000 barrel wells in this district. During the last week completions in the Olden district has jumped the production from 20,000 barrels daily to 30,000 barrels daily, and if it had not been for the heavy rains yesterday's completions this week might have jumped the production up to 40,000 barrels in the Olden district. Though drilling was not stopped on account of the hard rains, hauling of supplies has been delayed somewhat because of the bad condition of the roads.

The best evidence that Olden is to become the connecting link between Ranger and Eastland is the extensive operations of the Magnolia company. This company alone is putting in material supply yards, warehouses, dwellings and drilling wells to the extent of not thousands but of millions of dollars. That's the way Magnolia does business and if that company has enough faith in the Olden district to put that much money there, then it is sure to become the connecting link between the two cities in Eastland county.

Of course, Olden is situated on the new 18-foot highway which is to be built from Ranger to Eastland. This road will be constructed of concrete and will be one of a permanent nature and among the best to be found in Texas. This highway was recently authorized when the residents of Eastland county voted the expenditure of $4,500,000 for the purpose of building a highway in this county. During the week County Judge Starnes and county commissioners have been in San Antonio, Houston and other cities, going over with county commissioners there in the construction and maintenance of public highways. The committee, which was appointed at a mass meeting of the citizens of the county, will go over the details of the construction of these roads, after the commissioners have made their report and then a road engineer of undoubted ability will be employed to build the road. The first road planned will be the highway between Ranger and Eastland, passing directly through the city of Olden. The reason for making this road the first to be built is to give a direct connection between the two points, the transportation of material, which at present is necessary because of the congested condition of the railroads.

Olden also will be situated on the interurban line which is being built by Ranger business men to extend from Ranger to Eastland, to facilitate traffic between the two points. This line will parallel the Texas & Pacific.

The growth of Olden during the few months has been like a great springing up over night. There are now there are many fine homes in Olden to even attract the attention of those passing through the town. Today the town of Olden is one of the fastest growing in the world and will soon be a very wealthy town with Ranger the largest oil producing field in the world.

WIFE GIVES HUBBY SOUND SPANKING

International News Service. KANSAS CITY, Kan., Oct. 8.—A crowd on the way home from the theater the other night saw a man chasing a woman down Grand street. They stayed "for the rest of the show."

The man was overtaken at Eighth street and while the crowds cheered and whistled, the woman gave him a sound spanking. A patrolman arrested the couple and they gave their names as Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Baker. The receiver of the man said the trouble was that he had "an agreement to dis-

D'ANNUNZIO SAW HIS DESTINY IN A VISION

International News Service. NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—As a boy of twelve Gabriele d'Annunzio, the Italian poet who is writing the name of his country—Fiume—and himself large in history, had a vision; he saw himself as a great man, a leader, renowned beyond his fondest hopes.

Events soon are to prove whether the boy's dream of the childish mind conjured up is to come true, but Antonio d'Annunzio, only brother of the man who is holding Dalmatia's most important port in defiance of the powers of the whole world, believes the dream will be realized. Antonio is living in Brooklyn and teaches music. Unless his brother's character has changed since last they met, Antonio says, Fiume will become Italian territory and Gabriele d'Annunzio will be the greatest man in Italy.

"As a little tot only twelve years old Gabriele thought he was a big, big man," mused the brother. "He always said he would one day become a great man. He had a vision in which he was pictured as a person of power with tremendous influence over men. Gabriele was always as he is now—determined and relentless in his convictions. Once he made up his mind to do a thing it was always accomplished; and he was quick, even as a child, in reaching determinations."

"One time Gabriele went to Naples to say goodby to a friend who was leaving for Egypt. The friend, just as the steamer was about to leave the dock, said: 'Come along and Gabriele looked up quickly and answered 'Yes.' He had no clothing; he was breaking plans and arrangements, but it suited his whim and he went."

"When he determined to do anything there was nothing in the world that could stop him. He would carry his idea through every trial to the bitter end. The spirit he now is showing in Fiume is none other than the one which he had in childhood."

"Even then he was a patriot and even then he showed those traits which later made his life a universally known story. Of course, he did not exactly show his love for women, but he was a tremendous profligate. He got money fast and he threw it away.

"Fiume will be Italian and Gabriele will not be touched. What will come then I do not know. I am sure Gabriele will be unharmed, but I am afraid for his health."

"We were very close when we were young. Here in my desk are letters from him—beautiful, passionate letters and here are telegrams."

"One night I awoke in the dark to hear my bell ring. Going to the door I found a telegram from Gabriele with only these words: 'I long to see you.' When my mother told me of his death in Pescara in 1917 I enabled to my brother, asking him to kiss mother for me. Then he called back, 'I have kissed the madonna for you. Be courageous. As I write to you I embrace you.'"

Mr. d'Annunzio explained that he and his brother parted when they left for school. Gabriele went to a school at Toscani, near Florence, while his brother went to the Santa Cecilia conservatory in Rome to study music. After that the two brothers did not have much personal contact except through the family, living in Pescara.

CREEKS AS DUMP GROUNDS.

The discarding of newspapers, fetid matter, and other materials into the creeks of Ranger should be prohibited by a heavy penalty. Persons guilty of using the creek which runs near the Texas and Pacific station for this purpose should be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law. The waters of this stream empty into tanks, from which stock and human beings drink. Persons who wish to save by this method should be made to pay large fines.

Besides having a bad effect upon the appearance of the creek, the decaying matter is sure to start a contagion here and will be one of the best means of propagating the influenza against which we are now taking arms. It is not a very economical and safe way to combat the plague. It were better that the matter were dumped up on a wagon than that it should be left in the bottom of a creek to breed flies, to give out a stench, and to contaminate everything it touches.

Dumping of anything inside the city limits should be prohibited. The cars of the railroad company are used for the carrying away of much of this refuse. Because the car is to leave the city "empty" is no good excuse for using it for this purpose. The same car may return shortly with food-stuffs, or some other commodity may have to handle it.

Send your refuse to the incinerator!
A LONG-TIME FIELD.
The press daily bears news to its readers of the well-being brought in at Ranger. Not another oil field in the nation so frequently comes into the limelight.

Many other fields which come in like lions have gone out of lumps. Ranger came in without creating a great sensation, but its greatness grew with time. Today it is fulfilling every expectation of the fraternity, and has still more wonderful days to make.

The prediction may seem a little chimerical, but the hour is coming when Ranger will not only have a large oil field, but also a giant production area to the north and east. Big companies appreciate this. There's no one like keeping Ranger's name in connection with these territories. No other town has a claim to them.

STATION MAIL BOXES.
The Times suggests that the business interests of the city use their influence and efforts toward the installation either end of the Texas and Pacific platform of mail boxes, the contents of which are to be picked up by every mail train moving in either direction. The box for east mail should be stationed at the east end of the platform and that for the west mail at the west end.

Considerable mail is delayed because it cannot be expeditiously handled at the postoffice. A great convenience would be created and it would mean financial gain of thousands to those who use the mails.
A little letter to the postal department or to Hon. Thomas L. Blanton might bring about the desired ends.

MR. "FLU" ON ROAD.
While we are passing it might be well to remind the public that the "flu" with his "grippe" is on the road to Ranger. Make his reception unpleasant by cleaning up the premises, cleaning street sewers, creeks and generally tidying the premises. This is the only means you have at your command to restrict his visit.
Act today.

"THAT LITTLE GAME" --- A Hard Loser Never Admits He Is One

question a visit to the great exposition is worth the use and expense of any man. It should be possible for every pupil in every school to visit this great fair at least once every two years. The instruction is great. The mind of the student is broadened.

LANCASTER HERE.
Railway Director J. L. Lancaster yesterday paid a visit to Ranger to inspect the local yards and to get firsthand information as to the needs of local traffic. Mr. Lancaster has faith in Ranger's becoming a large city, which he attested by a statement he made to The Times.

The fact he has given assurance that everything will be done to improve the service here is to be accepted as gratifying, not that the company has been accountable for all the bad conditions which have prevailed, but because Ranger knows it has a friend in him.

The bad streets and roads are principally the fault with the oil fields, he declares. Until they have been thoroughly improved, not much relief can be expected, he says. Another factor which militates against quick service in spot-crop areas, he adds, is that many consignees receiving freight expect preferential placement of cars and do not take into consideration that others have priority because their shipments arrive earlier.

The meeting of railroad officials, representatives of chambers of commerce and the railroad commission, called to convene at Austin October 13, will be a conference at which all the multifarious problems of the oil fields and other parts of the state will be aired. Great news will come from it, The Times believes. It will serve to put the railroad situation clearly before the public. The suggestions and information brought out there will result in those things lacking being supplied.

THE GREAT 1920.

West Texas is about the wettest place on earth. Twelve months ago it was the driest. For many days the sun has not been seen. Though it working havoc on the matter of rapid gathering of the cotton crop, it is an ill rain that brings no one good. We predict that 1920 will lay 1919 "in the shade" so far as crop production is concerned. Now is the time to get a parcel of West Texas land.

BIG COMPANIES COME HERE.
It was not many months ago that the Waples Platter Grocery company, operating in two states, established a branch in Ranger. The officials saw it pertains to business opportunity. Confidence attracted this company to establish a large branch house here, and it has invested many thousands of dollars.

Quickly on its heels comes the Walker Smith Grocery company, with headquarters in Woodward and a chain of stores in Texas. It proposes to invest more than $100,000 here. A number of other wholesale businesses in Ranger are making improvements and enjoying a large volume of business. The big companies representing other lines have come to stay, investing thousands upon thousands of dollars.

All of which would convince the most skeptical that Ranger is the logical point in West Texas for new enterprises that bring greatest dividends. Come to Ranger.

The Latest 10-ton Model "CATERPILLAR"—the Most Highly Perfected Tractor Ever Produced—

It HAD to be. The demand of the entire Allied Armies was for a tractor with POWER—the "Caterpillar" has it. They demanded a tractor that would travel over ANY CONDITION OF GROUND—the "Caterpillar" does it,—lays its own tracks where roads may be only shell holes, or swamps, or mud hip deep, asking no favors (it has gone over ground where man could not travel). They demanded something upon which absolute dependence could be placed—the "Caterpillar" is built to keep on "keeping on," not only today but every day, year after year.

The "Caterpillar" was the choice of the Engineers of the Allied Armies to haul its biggest guns, its trains of trailers carrying tons of supplies; to help build its roads; to carry its logs from forest to mills. And now the "Caterpillar" has come back to help win the war on out-of-date, slow, more costly operations of hauling and transportation.

Holt "Caterpillar" Tractors working in the oil fields have reduced costs way under any other method. During spells of wet weather when the mud was so deep that not a wheel turned, the "Caterpillar" was the only motive power that DID operate—that COULD BE operated.

It went WHERE nothing else could travel. It traveled WHEN no else could move.

The motor in the "Caterpillar" never overheats. The used it, had its motor failed to operate under any condition or continuous, gruelling service. The "Caterpillar" has 7 automobiles)—consider the advantage this means on a "Caterpillar" for oil field work can be equipped with a with cable and a quick acting brake.

Try before the Holt Engineering Department all the facts of transporting operations, and ask them to advise you (with-out cost) can be used to reduce YOUR costs both in time-saving and operation.

ENGLAND ON VERGE OF REVOLUTION, IS TILLET'S BELIEF

Ben Tillett.

England is on the verge of a revolution of which the present rail strike is only a manifestation. This is the opinion of Ben Tillett, member of parliament and general secretary of the British Dockers' Union. He has returned to England after attending the British Trades Council convention, recently held in Hamilton, Ontario.

THEATERS

REX BEACH UNIT'S HUMOR AND LAUGHTER IN MOVIES.

A laugh now and then is enjoyed by everybody, and it is part of the pleasure of seeing Rex Beach's "The Girl From Outside," that you get a good laugh now and then in the midst of an absorbing story. The laughs are all in the right place, too. Some of them are due to the characters and some to the situations.

You can't help smiling a little at the five crooks and their great interest in their new ward, the orphan girl who came alone to Alaska. The wall-eyed crook who is deaf only when he wants to be is a sketch when he isn't a scream. The Chinaman has the smile that won't come off. But most of all you'll be tickled by the capture of the one cow in Nome to get milk for the girl when she is sick. The cow is handled a little roughly but all in a good cause.

Rex Beach has a fine vein of humor himself, as you know if you have read any of his books recently. His characters are always getting off racy remarks. Well, all the Beach humor is liberally represented on the screen in "The Girl From Outside" along with a story as entertaining as this master of narrative has told. It will be seen at the Queen Theater, beginning Friday.

"THE WESTERNERS" VIRILE ROMANCE OF BLACK HILLS.

"The Westerners," which will be the feature attraction at the Liberty

Theater, today and tomorrow, is a picture of Stewart Edward White's famous novel of the same name, produced by Benjamin B. Swann for United Artists Pictures, Inc., and enacted by such eminent actors as Rex Beach, Alfred Manning, Robert McKim, Wilfred Lucas, Graham Pettie and Mary Jane Irving. The story is laid in the Black Hills in the days of the gold rush and tells in an absorbing manner of the implacable revenge of Michael Lafond, a half-breed Indian, against Jim Buckley, scout, who caused Lafond to be driven from a wagon train for insulting one of the white women. Lafond rises to power in the hills, murders the white woman, kidnaps her daughter and raises the child as his own daughter, later using the girl as part of his scheme of revenge against Buckley.

Lafond plans to trap Buckley to his ruin and to force the girl, Molly, into the life of a dance hall woman. Here he finds Buckley, now a leading citizen of the settlement. The further scout has no recollection of the half-breed, and the latter lays his plans to ruin Buckley without intervention. Molly, the only woman in the camp, enjoys the adoration of the male population. Among them is Cheyenne Harry, a reckless young miner, who becomes her chief suitor. Meanwhile Lafond has succeeded in his scheme to disgrace Buckley in the eyes of his fellow men. He is forced to fight his way out of the settlement. Lafond, however, is recognized before leaving camp in pursuit of Buckley. How Lafond's plans are frustrated and Molly is saved by the man she loves while the half-breed meets his just deserts in a plunge down a steep embankment in a buckboard, bringing a scorching climax to an enthralling narrative.

HE WANTED BETTER PHONE SERVICE, BUT—

By Associated Press. DALLAS, Oct. 9.—On the ground that H. B. Harrison, a local merchant, has telephone service which is as good as the average in the city, Judge E. B. Moss in district court recently rendered an opinion denying an injunction asked by Harrison. Harrison demanded that his telephone service be restored with "reasonable service." "No injunction relief of any character is necessary, hence none will be granted," the opinion read. Costs of the suit were assessed against the telephone company.

HOUSTON COURT HAS 1,178 DIVORCE CASES

By Associated Press. HOUSTON, Oct. 8.—There are 1,178 divorce suits pending in the Eighth district court here, according to estimates of court clerks. Judge J. D. Harvey has set November 18 as next divorce day in that court. During the first seven months of this year Judge Harvey granted 1,176 divorces and dismissed 251 cases, according to the clerks.

FORGERY STILL IS CLOAKED BY MYSTERY PALL

Two checks amounting to more than a thousand dollars were cashed by a downtown bank upon which they were drawn, and the man whose name they bore, a casing crew foreman, disclaimed the signature and pronounced them forgeries. The police department, acting upon the advice of the bank, it is said, held the foreman for investigation. It was the opinion of somebody somewhere that he knew more concerning the signature to the checks than he was willing to tell. One of the investigators made the statement that he used several distinct handwriting samples in signing his name. The foreman stuck to his story, namely, that he had two checks forged for him. He then got picked up for it. The bank paid him the money and he was released. The police department and the foreman probably will remain a mystery.

Hunters, Beware! New Game Laws in Texas for Season

By Associated Press. AUSTIN, Oct. 9.—Attention of hunters is called to important changes, as well as differences, in state and federal game laws, in a statement by the game, fish and oyster department. Most important of these is that the federal law forbids the shooting of curlew, upland plover and quail. The state law allows a maximum of fifteen doves. The new bag limit for quail is as follows: three bucks; from November 1 to April 1, five; from April 1 to September 1, five; from September 1 to December 1, five; from December 1 to January 1, five. Doves, fifteen a day; September 1 to December 15, fifteen; Quail or Mexican pheasants, fifteen a day; December 1 to January 1, fifteen. Ducks, twenty-five a day; October 16 to January 31, fifteen. Geese, brant and sandhill crane, eight a day; October 16 to January 31, fifteen. A maximum of twenty-five is fixed for a day's bag limit, which would include any combination of birds listed above. Farmers may kill birds destructive to growing crops, by obtaining a proper permit, without regard to limit or season. Shooting migratory fowl from motor or sail boats is prohibited by federal law. All such boats carrying passengers must obtain a license from the game, fish and oyster department. The state law prohibits a hiring or employing of another person to hunt and makes it a misdemeanor to accept such employment. This prevents even the giving of a box of shells to a person to hunt for another. Game may be shipped without the license accompanying the shipment, but the license must be taken with an affidavit. These affidavits may be taken from game, fish and oyster department.

"IS WORTH MORE THAN A FORTUNE"

"I have gained in weight and strength since taking Orgatone Treatment and I consider the good I have received worth more than a thousand dollars to me," said Ernest Mason, a well known and popular barber in the Smoke House Shop, Ranger, Texas, a few days ago.

"I feel it my duty," continued Mr. Mason, "as well as a privilege to tell everybody what Orgatone Treatment did for me for it may be that my statement will help others who are in the condition I was before I took it."

"My health had been giving away for two or three years, and of course I took all kinds of medicines but I kept getting worse. My stomach was out of order and I had severe nervous trouble. I was in an awful shape and so lost in weight continually. I was so weak I could hardly walk around, much less do my work properly."

"The lightest of things to eat would hurt my stomach and cause me great misery. When it was most time to start for my meals it just seemed like I had to force every bite down. Finally I heard so much talk around the shop from people who had been taking Orgatone Treatment I decided to try it. Well, sir, I bought my first bottle and in just a few days after taking it I found that I had discovered the right medicine at last. I kept right on taking the preparation as per the directions and I soon felt strong enough to keep at my work and I noticed that I was not half as tired when night came as I was before. I was gaining in strength all the time and everybody soon noticed how much better I was looking."

"If anyone wishes to know more about how Orgatone Treatment has benefited me if they come to see me or write me I will gladly help them all I can. I prize Orgatone above all other medicines I know of and recommend it to all who are suffering from troubles like I had."

Orgatone is not a so-called "secret remedy" but a new treatment absolutely free of all harmful ingredients and is available exclusively by mail, under the special Orgatone Agreement.

THE TIMES' DAILY SHORT STORY

JUST PIE
 By Alice Pierce

In these days when the average edition of a city daily contains in one column such a startling item as the successful flight of an airplane across the ocean and the next records the safe delivery of a deceased aunt's remains to Mr. Blank of Blanktown via parcel post, at the trifling cost of 45 cents, one is compelled to describe Phoebe Huribut as an anachronism.

Long ago, when the whalers set sail from the little port, Phoebe's grandmother made most wonderful pies. Phoebe makes them just as delectable, and by the same recipe. Not the most noted man of science can suggest one improvement in the pies the old New England housewives concocted. Phoebe didn't try, and there-in lay her success.

Phoebe Huribut occupied a place in the sun not too close to forty at the time her romance began. Cousin Jane was close behind. Jane had all along intended it to be her own romance; but, somehow, in the last act the cues got twisted and John Bellayre walked into the Huribut kitchen where Phoebe, in an immaculate calico house dress was in the act of removing from the oven two crispy, fragrant apple pies, instead of into the orchard, where Jane had staged herself in an act worthy of Belasco herself. John stayed in the kitchen to have a sample, served with clotted cream, and stayed so long that finally Jane, all-unassisted, climbed down from the tree in which she was precariously seated.

It had been along about Christmas time when Jane met John Bellayre. He had been the guest of honor at a so-called Sunday morning breakfast party. As a matter of fact both "morning" and "breakfast" were misnomers, for the guests assembled at 1 o'clock and what they had to eat was a rather elaborate luncheon. Jane had written her country cousin about it and had kept her informed of the progress of the friendship. Jane liked to be called "clever" and it was with that adjective that the other women present at the breakfast described her manipulation of John Bellayre. But, to do Jane justice, she was an attractive woman, and Bellayre didn't need much managing to drift into a close friendship.

Things were at this stage when Jane wrote to Phoebe, asking if she might bring Mr. Bellayre down for a week. Jane usually exercised the privilege of inviting a friend or two to her cousin's two or three times during the year. Mrs. Huribut, who was something of an invalid, enjoyed the diversion; and nothing delighted Phoebe more than cooking for people who appreciated the results. Though Jane's friends were varied as to station in life, when it came to the primitive enjoyment of good food Phoebe usually listened-in on the conversations, now and then surprising everybody by putting in a brightly intelligent comment in exactly the right place. She presided over the houses—cool, competent, immaculate; but to all invitations to visit in the city she returned a polite but final declination. She didn't like cities.

It was here, in the charming old New England village that Jane had planned the crowning event of her life should take place. John Bellayre was dramatic critic for one of the city dailies. He knew many desirable people and he was himself an extremely likable man. Jane calculated that her oft-repeated statement that she would not give up her freedom before she reached the age of thirty-five would help, rather than hinder. Men preferred to have some obstacles to overcome—it tickled their masculine vanity.

It didn't suggest itself to Jane to take into consideration the time sense of values which a dramatic critic must possess to take him high in his profession. It never occurred to her that she looked as much out of place in Phoebe's home as an orchid would were it used in the stage setting of "The Girl from Home." She merely noted casually that John seemed to enjoy sitting on the veranda, where Phoebe always was to be found in the afternoon with her crocheting. He would sit there lazily by the hour, hardly speaking. Jane usually spent those hours in rest, that she might be more vivacious physically and mentally fresher later on. Of course, John was merely killing the time when she was absent.

On the last evening of her guests' stay some restless impulse foreign to her placid nature drove Phoebe to the kitchen. She explained to her mother that it promised to be a stormy morning and so she guessed she would do some baking before she went to bed. She had heard Jane's words to John Bellayre as her cousin went upstairs directly after the early supper: "I have some notes to write, John; I will meet you in the orchard at half past seven." Then, at 7, she had seen her cousin steal out of the side door, arrayed in a pale mauve gown, one Phoebe never had seen, one which struck her as almost indecent in its daring simplicity.

John Bellayre caught a whiff of the fragrant odor of steaming apple pie as he started down the path toward the orchard. Without in the least analyzing his motives, he retraced his steps, opened the kitchen door and walked in.

If it be true that the way to a man's heart is through his stomach, it is equally true that every woman's is at heart a born flirt—even the most placid. Anyway, when Jane returned to the house, after maintaining to no purpose her position in the apple tree, she had grown too dark for the lines of her mauve gown to show to their best advantage against the green of the trees, she found John Bellayre and Cousin Phoebe seated side by side on the kitchen steps, planning for the future—together.

When a mutual friend asked Jane rather frankly some time later what there was about that country cousin of hers to interest such a well-known critic as John Bellayre, Jane answered, rather sarcastically, what she admitted: "Just pie."

PORTER WHALEY VISITS RANGER BUSINESS MEN

Porter A. Whaley, secretary and general manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, with headquarters in Stamford, arrived in Ranger this afternoon to confer with Secretary George Hemmingson of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Whaley is likewise studying the traffic situation in the oil fields and in the western portion of the state to compile a general statement to be utilized at subsequent meetings when the matter of traffic conditions is to be reviewed.

Mr. Whaley has assisted in encouraging towns and counties in West Texas to display agricultural and other exhibits at the Dallas Fair. At the present time Chester T. Caswell, Mr. Whaley's right-hand man and who is publicity manager for the organization, is in the North telling the virtues of the great western country and interesting them in purchasing property and building up the country.

Mr. Whaley reports the West Texas Chamber of Commerce growing in membership and popularity. It has been found an indispensable part of West Texas, for whose interests it is working day and night. Much good has already been accomplished in bringing about results which previously had been denied because there was no unity of purpose and because there was lack of organization. This year West Texas is the banner section of the state from an agricultural standpoint and its all and other resources have made it the most prosperous section of the Southwest. New people are flocking into the country by the thousands, purchasing lands and locating, all of whom seem to be very much pleased with their new possessions and homes.

WATER PLANT NOW HAS ROCK LONG NEEDED

A small rock crusher, which was purchased by the city some time ago for the use of the waterworks department, has turned out about 150 cubic yards of crushed rock which will be used in construction of the filtration plant.

The completion of the plant has been greatly delayed on account of lack of gravel. Mr. Nelms of the waterworks department is of the opinion that the plant will be finished within a short time, now that crushed rock is available.

October 10 is the last day of grace in the matter of paying water rates and Mr. Nelms says payments this month have been exceedingly slow.

OFFICERS TAKE ALLEGED BANDIT FOR CRAIG, OKLA.

H. D. Short, who is said to be wanted in Craig, Okla., and Denver, Colo., was arrested last night by Patrolman P. H. and Abbot Hutchins, of the local police force, in a downtown cabaret.

A wire from the American Bankers' Association put the officers on the trail. They located him through the use of a clever ruse and now he is in jail at Ranger and officers have wired the news of his capture. It is alleged that Short is wanted for forgery and highway robbery.

GIN PRESSMAN HAS A FINGER CUT OFF

CISCO, Oct. 9.—William Hinton, pressman at the Cisco cotton gin, accidentally got his right hand caught in the endless cog chain while packing a bale of cotton Tuesday morning and before the machinery could be stopped the end of the second finger was snapped off. A local surgeon dressed the injury, amputating below the middle joint.

RANGER HIGHS TO PLAY CISCO FRIDAY, 4 P. M.

The first football game of the season in Ranger will be played at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon at the Dodge Park grounds, just a block west of the new Baptist church. The Ranger High School will meet the Cisco High School.

During the week the local boys have been trying out and some excellent talent has been developed. Members of the locals were out for practice on the grounds Wednesday afternoon. They are showing speed and strength and it is predicted for them that they will make short work of the Cisco aggregation.

The Ranger team prepared this morning is as follows: H. Galt, center.

- McCampbell-Dunkel, right guard.
A. Huffman, right tackle.
Hubbard-R. Jones, right end.
P. Potts, left tackle.
C. F. F., left end.
C. Mills, nose tackle.
Jack Hill (Captain), right half.
J. Clem, left half.
H. Blackwood, full back.

Though the Ranger boys are inexperienced this season they expect to put up a good game.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Bostaph have as their guests at their home in the Gholson addition Miss Media Bush of Columbus, Ohio, and Miss Mary Petty of Barnesville, Ohio, who is sister of Mrs. Bostaph.

Mrs. F. D. Bostaph and guests, Misses Media Bush of Columbus, Ohio, and Mary Petty of Barnesville, Ohio, were guests of Cisco friends the greater part of last week.

J. C. Hudman of Oklahoma City is in Ranger investigating prospects for a business location.

Miss M. W. Lewis and her sister of Arizona are here with the intention of locating.

C. B. Farnham, a business man of Dallas, is in Ranger looking on a business deal.

J. C. Heid, president of Heid Brothers, incorporated, of El Paso, Texas, spent the forepart of the week in Ranger looking after business interests here. His firm has opened a large branch here and deal in hay and grain.

Mr. Charles Heid is the local manager.

Attorney Lydon R. Taylor has returned from Las Cruces, New Mexico, where he attended the fall term of the district court. Mr. Taylor was called to Chicago while away and was away from Ranger longer than he expected. Mr. Taylor's family returned with him and they are now located in the Burger addition.

The Grange Produce Co. store room on Austin street is being converted into a modern cafe.

Newcomers Are Building Homes at Cisco Now

CISCO, Oct. 9.—A large number of newcomers are arriving in Cisco now from other states who are buying lots and building homes to live in. Some are buying residences which have recently been erected and have been rented to others. Each day brings in an additional number seeking permanent homes. Many new bungalows are now in course of construction throughout the residential section of the city. Several hundred new houses are badly needed here now to accommodate those arriving here.

The Cisco Chamber of Commerce is using every means possible to urge the immediate erection of modern residences and through its secretary is locating many new families each week.

STAMFORD PLANS FOR TEACHERS' INSTITUTE

STAMFORD, Texas, Oct. 9.—Plans for the tri-county teachers' institute to be held here Dec. 15 to 19 inclusive, are being rapidly perfected. Superintendent Holland of the city schools has advised from Miss Annie Webb Blanton, state superintendent of public instruction; Dr. Lovett of Rice institute, and Dr. Vinson of the University of Texas, that they will be here at that time.

Dr. Vinson's coming will be looked for with great interest, since it will be his first visit to this part of the state.

ROADSTER TAKEN FROM C. DEMPSEY OF OLDEN

Announcement

We wish to announce to the retail grocery trade of Ranger and the surrounding territory that we have bought the entire business of the Ranger Wholesale Grocery Co.

The new business is a link in a chain of twelve such successful houses in Texas. In addition to operating a wholesale grocery business we own and operate a modern peanut butter plant and Candy factory at Brownwood and an up-to-date coffee-roasting plant at Galveston.

We take pleasure in recommending to you our Pecan Valley Peanut Butter and other products.

To the retail trade we extend a cordial invitation to communicate with us. If in Ranger, drop in and let's get acquainted.

IF YOU BREAK YOUR TRUCK FRAME

There is Really Only One Way to Permanently Repair Broken Truck and Automobile Frames—the U. S. Army Method Used in Ranger by the Brown Welding & Machine Co.

General Pershing's Mexican expedition and used during the last war and now in the army shops without charge to the war department) accomplished this, viz: "The frame is built together at the break in such a way that the line of weld sets on a slant to the line of vibration. The weld is made so that there are no sharp edges for the vibrations to end suddenly at. The frame has a reinforcement built into it that divides the load strain in half and distributes it at two points instead of one. The work is guaranteed.

It doesn't pay to trust frame welding to amateurs. You know this. Respectfully, C. H. BROWN, Mechanical Engineer, Proprietor Brown Welding Company, Ranger and El Paso. (Advertisement.)

WHAT DO YOU LIKE IN PICTURES?

Horses? Indians? Adventures? Fights?

"The Westerners" treats of the time of such things. But there is no "faking" or ridiculous melodrama. In this story, the characters ride and fight and risk their lives as actual experiences having a historical basis. Yet no fiction could be as thrilling as
