Dimmitt has narrow escape

Tornado hits county

A tornado that first touched down southwest of Lazbuddie hopscotched across the county late Friday night, destroying farm buildings and damaging homes along a 28-mile path.

LUCKILY, the skipping tornado caused no deaths or injuries in Castro County, although several Put this one on for size when you are considering who to vote for in the Democratic primary for United States Senator. On two successive days the following headlines appeared in area daily newspapers:

"Yarborough, Bentsen Blast Nixon in Court Wrangling."

Then the next day:

"Yarborough Assailed For 'No' on Carswell."

Under the first headline Bentsen was quoted as saying "If President Nixon is sincere about appointing a Southerner . . . he should examine his own performance . . . and do a better job next time." The article went on to say that both Bentsen and Yarborough mentioned that 12 members of Nixon's own party voted against confirmation of G. Harrold Carswell. That's what Mr. Bentsen said one day.

Under the second headline quoted above, Bentsen had this to say, and we quote: "Sen. Ralph Yarborough should vote for Texas at least once in a while. The defeat was a combination of anti-South, ultra-liberal forces that think the Supreme Court is a place to write laws rather than interpret them." That's what Mr. Bentsen said the next day.

I ask you, "Is that the kind of logic and honesty that you would expect from a United States Senator?" I hope not. For Mr. Bentsen to criticize the President one day for the appointment of a Supreme Court Justice, whom he apparently considered unqualified, and then the next day criticize Sen. Yarborough for voting against confirmation is a glaring example of demagoguery.

Here's another sample of Bentsen type demagoguery: A story in Tuesday's Avalanche Journal quoted Bentsen as saying at Houston, "Yarborough's kind of folks are radical anti-war demonstrators who have the Viet Cong flag in the streets and who turn peaceful demonstrations into violence."

In making the above statement Bentsen had to be referring to everyone who in the past supported Sen. Yarborough, as well as those who have decided to support him in the current campaign. If Bentsen's statements and pronouncements are taken seriously, and they should be, it is hard to see how he would merit the support of a single voter in the state. To elect a man to the Senate who doesn't give other people a right to an opinion without classifying them as radicals would not only be a grave mistake but would be courting disaster in a time when men of sound judgment, tempered with tolerance, are sorely needed.

In a recent televised political announcement, Bentsen stated that Sen. Yarborough was the main, if not the only, issue, in the senatorial race. On its face this was an asinine statement. But if it is allowed to stand, then if Sen. Yarborough is an issue certainly his opponent in the race should also be considered as an issue. That would bring up the Bentsen history, most of which has to do with the Lower Rio Grande Valley, where, by the way, most of the major newspapers are supporting Sen. Yarborough. The Bentsen history in the Rio Grande Valley has to do with land sale promotional schemes that resulted in the fleecing of unsuspecting buyers from all sections of the country, some local citizens included. A little research would probably discourage Mr. Bentsen from making personalities an issue in this campaign.

The wind blew in Dimmitt Friday evening. The local gauge registered air movement up to 110 miles per hour. Following that blow the pollution in this area should be pretty well distributed.

families had close calls — especially the Clayton C. Graefs and the Milton Bagwells of Bethel.

The tornado was blamed for the death of Mrs. Alton Morris, Lazbuddie school teacher, who reportedly died of a heart attack after the night funnel slammed into the Morris home east of Lazbuddie. Her husband and daughter suffered minor injuries. Friday night's funnel was one of a battalion of tornadoes that unleashed the most devastating weather attack in the Panhandle's history. Two separate storm systems 35 to 40 miles apart cut parallel swaths 175 miles north-east through the Panhandle and spawned tornadoes that ravaged 12 cities and towns, killed 21 people and injured 200.

HARDEST hit was the Sherwood Shores mobile home fillage on Greenbelt Lake near Clarendon, where 15 people were killed. The tornado that struck there virtually wiped out the resort village as it destroyed 182 mobile homes.

Other communities and cities hard-hit were Plainview (39 injured, 131 homes demolished), Clarendon (15 killed, 10 homes destroyed), Cotton Center (two killed, eight homes demolished), Claytonville (two killed), Silverton (one killed, 12 homes and a grain elevator demolished), Pampa, (eight homes destroyed), Hale Center (15 homes demolished), Shamrock, Whiteface (11 homes demolished), Whitharral (one house destroyed), Kress (one home demolished) and Edmondson gin destroyed.

Plainview suffered the greatest economic loss, with preliminary

Weldon Allison dies in Amarillo

Funeral services are pending at Dennis Funeral Home for Weldon Allison, 38, who died at 6 p.m. Tuesday in Veterans Hospital in Amarillo.

MR. ALLISON, a former employee of Western Ammonia Corp. and Dimmitt Public Schools had been hospitalized for the past six months.

Burial will be in the City Cemetery of Levelland following funeral services here.

Mr. Allison is survived by his wife, Dolores, 602 Oak St.; three sons, Roger, 14, Larry, 11, and David, 8, of the home; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Allison of Stephenville; and a brother, Earl, of Stephenville.

History scholars win medals at WT

Four Dimmitt High School students won medals in a history contest sponsored by West Texas State University last Thursday.

MORE THAN 150 top history students, most from Class AAAA schools competed in the contest. The four Dimmitt students were the only ones from a small school to bring home medals.

In the American History division, Kent Bradford and Sharon Welch won gold medals for placing in the top five percent of all students entered, and Pam Barker captured a silver medal for placing in the top 10 percent.

Doris Elaine Strother was Dimmitt's fourth medal winner, earning a silver medal in the world history division.

damage estimates ranging from five to 10 million dollars. Total damage from the night of the killer tornadoes is likely to top $40 million through the Panhandle.

THE "Lazbuddie Tornado," after slamming into several farm homes east of the Farmer County community, invaded Castro County and cut a skip-line path of destruction from Bethel to Easter, causing moderate to heavy damage on four farms in the county.

An aerial tracking showed that the tornado, as it passed a mile east of Lazbuddie, was heading directly toward Dimmitt.

However, after hitting the Graef and Bagwell farms its path curved slightly to the north, jumped the Bethel Community Building, crossed Highway 86 one-fourth of a mile west of the George Sides home, hit the J. L. Hrabal farm, crossed Farm Road 1055 over the Robert Benton and David Cole homes six miles west of Dimmitt, scattered irrigation pipe on the Dan Bruton farm, then dipped again at the Wendell Markley farm seven miles north of the city.

IT WAS BELIEVED to be the city's closest tornado call since the early 1930s.

The tornado first hit Lazbuddie between 10:30 and 10:45 p.m., slammed into the Graef farm shortly before 11, reached the Bagwell farm about 11 p.m., knocked out the electricity at the Sides home at 11:05, struck the Hrabal farm moments later, and reached Markley's home about 11:30, carving out a 28-mile path in less than an hour.

Since the tornado struck in darkness and knocked out telephone lines at its victims' homes, it wasn't reported to officials until 11:19 p.m., when the Lazbuddie victims were brought to Muleshoe and the Bailey County Sheriff's Office was notified. Although a television station announced that a tornado had been sighted nine miles from Dimmitt, the Castro County Sheriff's Office was not notified immediately of the tornado and the first radio report of it didn't come until after midnight.

THE tornado apparently spent most of its time in the air. But when it stabbed the earth its effect was devastating. It uprooted huge elm trees and power poles that were sunk 12 feet into the ground, snapped off other power (See TORNADO, Page 11)

Victims of tornado count their blessings

"All this is just material goods," Clayton Graef said as he looked over his tornado-devastated farm. "We've still got our lives and friends. It's sure nice to have friends anytime, but especially at a time like this."

"I REALLY can't feel too bad about the damage it did to our place," Milton Bagwell said. "It could have been so much worse that I feel lucky we didn't lose our home or get anyone hurt."

These were the feelings of the two men whose farms were the hardest-hit in the county by the tornado Friday night.

They surveyed their losses and worried, but mainly they counted their blessings. The amount of damage to their farm property seemed to be a minor worry, considering that their families were spared.

FRIDAY night's tornado caused heavy damage to both men's farms, and lesser damage later to the farms of J. L. Hrabal and Wendell Markley.

The deadly tornado caught all its victims by surprise as it roared out of the darkness. The fierce windstorm that reached 100-mph velocity earlier in the evening had died down, and after a half hour of relative calm, they thought the storm was about over.

That's when the tornado struck. IT WAS sudden: "When it hit, it sounded just like every bit of furniture and all the dishes in the house hit the floor at the same time," Graef said. "Then, within 30 seconds, it was quiet."

During that 30 seconds the tornado carved a path of death and destruction 200 yards wide through the Graef farm, which is 17 miles southwest of Dimmitt.

On the south wing of the Graef's home, the tornado carried away a three-car garage and tore the roof from the utility room, but

It wasn't just a chicken house

A smashed chicken house caused a real twinge of sorrow for Fred Bruegel Sr. after Friday night's violent storm.

THE HIGH winds — or perhaps a twister — overturned two chicken houses and a 2,000-gallon water storage tank at the Bruegels' farm home six miles west of Dimmitt.

The rough treatment didn't even break the windows of one of the chicken houses. But the other — the one he cared most about — was completely smashed.

"That chicken house was my original home in Castro County," Bruegel said. "When we built our home place over near Farmer County, I made that little house into a chicken house, and when we built our present home place I brought it with me. It was a good chicken house, too. It was 14 by 28. I was proud of it, and kept it up good."

THROUGH the years Bruegel became one the county's biggest farmers, and later branched into the elevator business, bought commercial property in town and built a shopping center. But he always stayed within sight of his first Castro County home.

Now, after Friday night's storm, it isn't there anymore. "That's the last of the old home place," he lamented. "Now it's just kindling."

left most of the items stored there in place.

TWO HUNDRED yards south of the Graef's home the funnel picked up a small vacant house, carried it across the road and smashed it into a plowed field, leaving only a pile of boards.

As it ripped through the barns and other outbuildings southeast of the main house, it killed two horses and two calves, and crippled one cow so badly that she had to be destroyed later.

"I feel pretty bad about the animals," Graef said. "Especially the two horses — they were the grandchildren's pet horses."

THE TORNADO also destroyed a new hay barn and seven cotton trailers, tore up a grainery but left its stored cottonseed in place, and devastated an orchard south of the house.

Where once there was a tree row of evergreens as tall as the house along the front of the orchard, now are only four or five stumps. A large elm tree was ripped up by the roots from a tree row along the north side of the house.

But luckily, most of the Graef home remained intact under the tornado's assault, although the funnel tried to suck the ceiling through the rafters in one room and ripped several holes in the roof, which Graef quickly patched.

ONLY circumstance, fate or a miracle kept Mr. and Mrs. Graef from being killed or seriously injured.

Graef had gone to bed when the wind died down, and Mrs. Graef had stayed up to watch television, sitting in a recliner chair that was across the living room from the front door.

When the electricity went out, Mrs. Graef turned off the TV set and light switches and went to bed, also. Her husband was asleep and she had just gotten into bed when the tornado hit.

THE CHAIR in which Mrs. Graef had been sitting moments earlier was sprayed and pierced with broken glass when the solid-glass front door shattered. Bits of broken glass also were sprayed against the wall behind the chair, cutting into the wallboard.

And the Graefs will always be grateful for the big tree that stands outside the south window of their bedroom. When the tornado ripped the garage apart it threw one of the garage walls right at the bedroom. But the big tree caught the wall and held it up under the impact.

THE TORNADO reduced much of the Bagwell farm to a shambles (See VICTIMS, Page 11)

Horizontal pole on road means--

An odd thing happened to Donald Gilbreath of Bethel as he was driving his family home from the Roundup Talent Show Friday night:

HE RAN over a power pole that was lying across the highway.

It was one of the power poles uprooted by the tornado when it crossed US 86 Friday night.

It was about the last thing Gilbreath expected to find on the highway.

"EVIDENTLY, the pole had just gone down because we were the first ones to it, and there were cars coming from the other direction," said Gilbreath's wife, Jean.

Gilbreath didn't take time to worry after the wreck. After checking to make sure his wife and two children weren't hurt, he jumped from the car to warn the oncoming motorists.

The Gilbreath car was traveling about 60 mph when it hit the pole. Mrs. Gilbreath said the car's front bumper skidded over the pole, then the front wheels bounced over it and the car came to rest astraddle the pole, on the car frame.

"I DON'T think we moved that pole very far," Mrs. Gilbreath quipped.

Volunteer workers soon had the Gilbreath car freed from its obtrusive pole-climb, and moved the pole off the highway. None of the other poles uprooted in the area were tossed onto the highway.

Although the Gilbreaths' wreck was bad, the alternative was worse. "I think we just missed driving through that tornado by about four or five minutes," Mrs. Gilbreath said.

Students capture literary awards

Five Dimmitt High School students captured championships in the District 3-AA Literary Meet in Lockney Saturday.

DIMMITT also won a second and a third place in two individual events, qualifying seven students for the Region 1-AA Literary Meet in six events. The regional meet will be held Saturday on the Texas Tech campus.

Although Dimmitt placed second behind Friona in overall totals at the district meet, this was the highest number of DHS students ever to qualify for regional competition, according to Principal Ike Moore.

Winning district championships at Lockney Saturday were Mike Elder, poetry interpretation; Larry Langford, boys' persuasive speaking; Jerry Birdwell, ready for writing; Kent Bradford, science; and Fred Langford, slide rule.

Pam Barker with the district runner-up in number sense, and Fred Langford captured his second ribbon when he placed third in science competition.

DIMMITT youngsters also captured two first places and two thirds in the UIL District Elementary School meet at Lockney Saturday.

In the fifth and sixth grade division, Vera Patton placed first in spelling and plain writing.

In the seventh and eighth grade division, Libby Crooks placed first in story telling, Lee Cole placed third in boys' oral reading and Joyce Brady placed third in girls' oral reading.

Poll workers' school called

A school for all the county's election judges and clerks will be held Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the courthouse basement.

"IT'S VERY important that all election judges attend this instruction meeting and bring their clerks with them," said Carl King, county Democratic chairman.

Group from Dimmitt attends autograph party in Tulia

By MYRTLE SHEFFY Sunday afternoon was H. M. Baggarty Day in Tulia, when his many friends served cake and punch in the big cafeteria for an autograph party for his new book, "Texas Country Democrat," edited by Eugene W. Jones of Plainview. Sen. Ralph Yarborough was there for a while too. I have the names of the three men in my book.

MR. AND MRS. Dick O'Daniel were there, as were the Redmons and Judge Hale and Judge Driscoll, and many more folks of Tulia. The Dimmitt folks were Editor and Mrs. B. M. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Cleavinger, Ray and Mattie Astell, now of Earth, Sid and I.

SOS Tops Club reveals 'pals'

The April 6 meeting was opened by Jeanie Johnson, new TOPS leader for 1970. Twenty members were present to weigh in, and Leola Eldins was crowned "Queen of the Week" with a loss of 2 1/4 pounds. Secret pals for the last three months were revealed, and gifts were exchanged. New secret pals were drawn for another three months.

For those sitting in the "pig pen" the rule of silence was enforced, reminding them of a fine for each word spoken without permission from the leader. This money is put in the pig and will be given to the Six Months Queen.

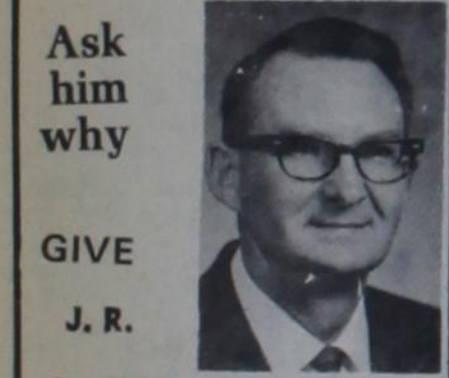

QUEEN for the week of April 13 was Frances Goodwin, with a loss of 4 pounds. Eighteen members weighed in with a loss of 2 1/4 pounds.

Jeanie Johnson, leader, asked Jean Petty, Tommie Petty and Sharon Strohmeier to work on the club's scrapbook. Arlene Oldfield is the contest leader and program leaders are Mae Hargrove and Leola Eldins. Next meeting night is Monday in the office of the Plainview Production Credit Association at 6:30 p.m. Everyone is welcome to join the Dimmitt S.O.S. TOPS Club.

Financial Facts

By Willis A. Hawkins, Jr. Do you know what is meant by "tight money"? Tight money is a financial condition. It means that the demand for money has become greater than the supply. What brings about tight money? One cause is the Federal Government spending more than ever before. Another cause is the great expansion of business. Record sums are being invested in new, more efficient plants and equipment. Also, individual consumers are buying unsurpassed amounts of goods and services. Moreover, their take-home pay is the highest in their working experiences. With these situations added up, you get a condition of tight money. The total demand for dollars has simply outrun the available supply.

Mr. Eugene Jones, formerly of Wayland, sent greetings to the Odorns, especially Margaret, Lometa and Deana. He remembers these fine basketball players. I met Mrs. James T. Harris, or Maria of "Maria's Malarky" in the Tulia Herald. She is also the regional editor for the Plainview Herald.

WE AND the Nelsons drove to Plainview to see the damage the tornado had done Friday night. It was a 100-foot wide swath, completely through town, near the Ford place on south to the 5th Ward addition on the north. Many big high line poles were broken off three feet above ground. Men were working on the lines. We came back by Orlon and visited a while with Maxine and Frank Struvie. Maxine is Sid's niece. They only had had straight winds, but not so hard as we in Dimmitt had. We did not have a tornado here in town. The Bagwells out west and the Clayton Craigs had much damage.

Dr. Carroll Gregory called his dad Jack, said that San Francisco had big headlines about the storm. Dr. Carroll says tell Shelly he had rather had the big waves off the Pacific, than our winds - but, Carroll, we have the finest weather in the world "most" of the time.

ALL OF the high school home-making girls, students of Mrs. Charles Hottel and Mrs. Bill Shinn, met for a social.

THE BETA Sigma Phi had a meeting at the Country Club Wednesday evening. Dwight Joiner gave a program on the works of Pucine, with film strips and records. Dwight is a teacher of music in the schools here. He is a very good organist. The 19 members will sponsor a summer cultural program this summer, teach Spanish, tennis and several other things. I forget just what all. Ask Dorothy Mayfield if you can help.

Mr. and Mrs. David Cole and boys were the surprised hosts at a housewarming Friday night. They have a new house west and north. Hosts and hostesses bringing food were the Danny Brutons, the Ray Nelsons, the Don Robbs, the Monty Boozers, the Glen Odorns, the Jerry Watts, and the Randall Craigs. Many other friends came in and put "green" leaves on a money tree to get something for the house.

MRS. W. R. Birchfield and daughters Linda, Susan, Paula, and Chris were weekend guests of the J. W. Birchfields, and the girl's friend Janet Smithson.

THE BIG wind came across the Plains Friday night. Many windows were blown out over our town, but no one was injured here. Saturday night the teenagers danced at the Nazareth Community Hall. The big-un's danced at the Hereford Country Club. The main event was the athletic banquet. All the kids and sponsors

Bible Thoughts THE CHALLENGE By RONNIE PARKER

Peter writes that Christ "left us an example that we should follow in his steps" (1 Pet. 2:21). The challenge is then:

- 1. To find out how Christ lived, and live that way too. 2. To find out what Christ lived for, and live for that same thing, too. 3. To find out what motive prompted Christ's life, and let the same motive prompt our lives.

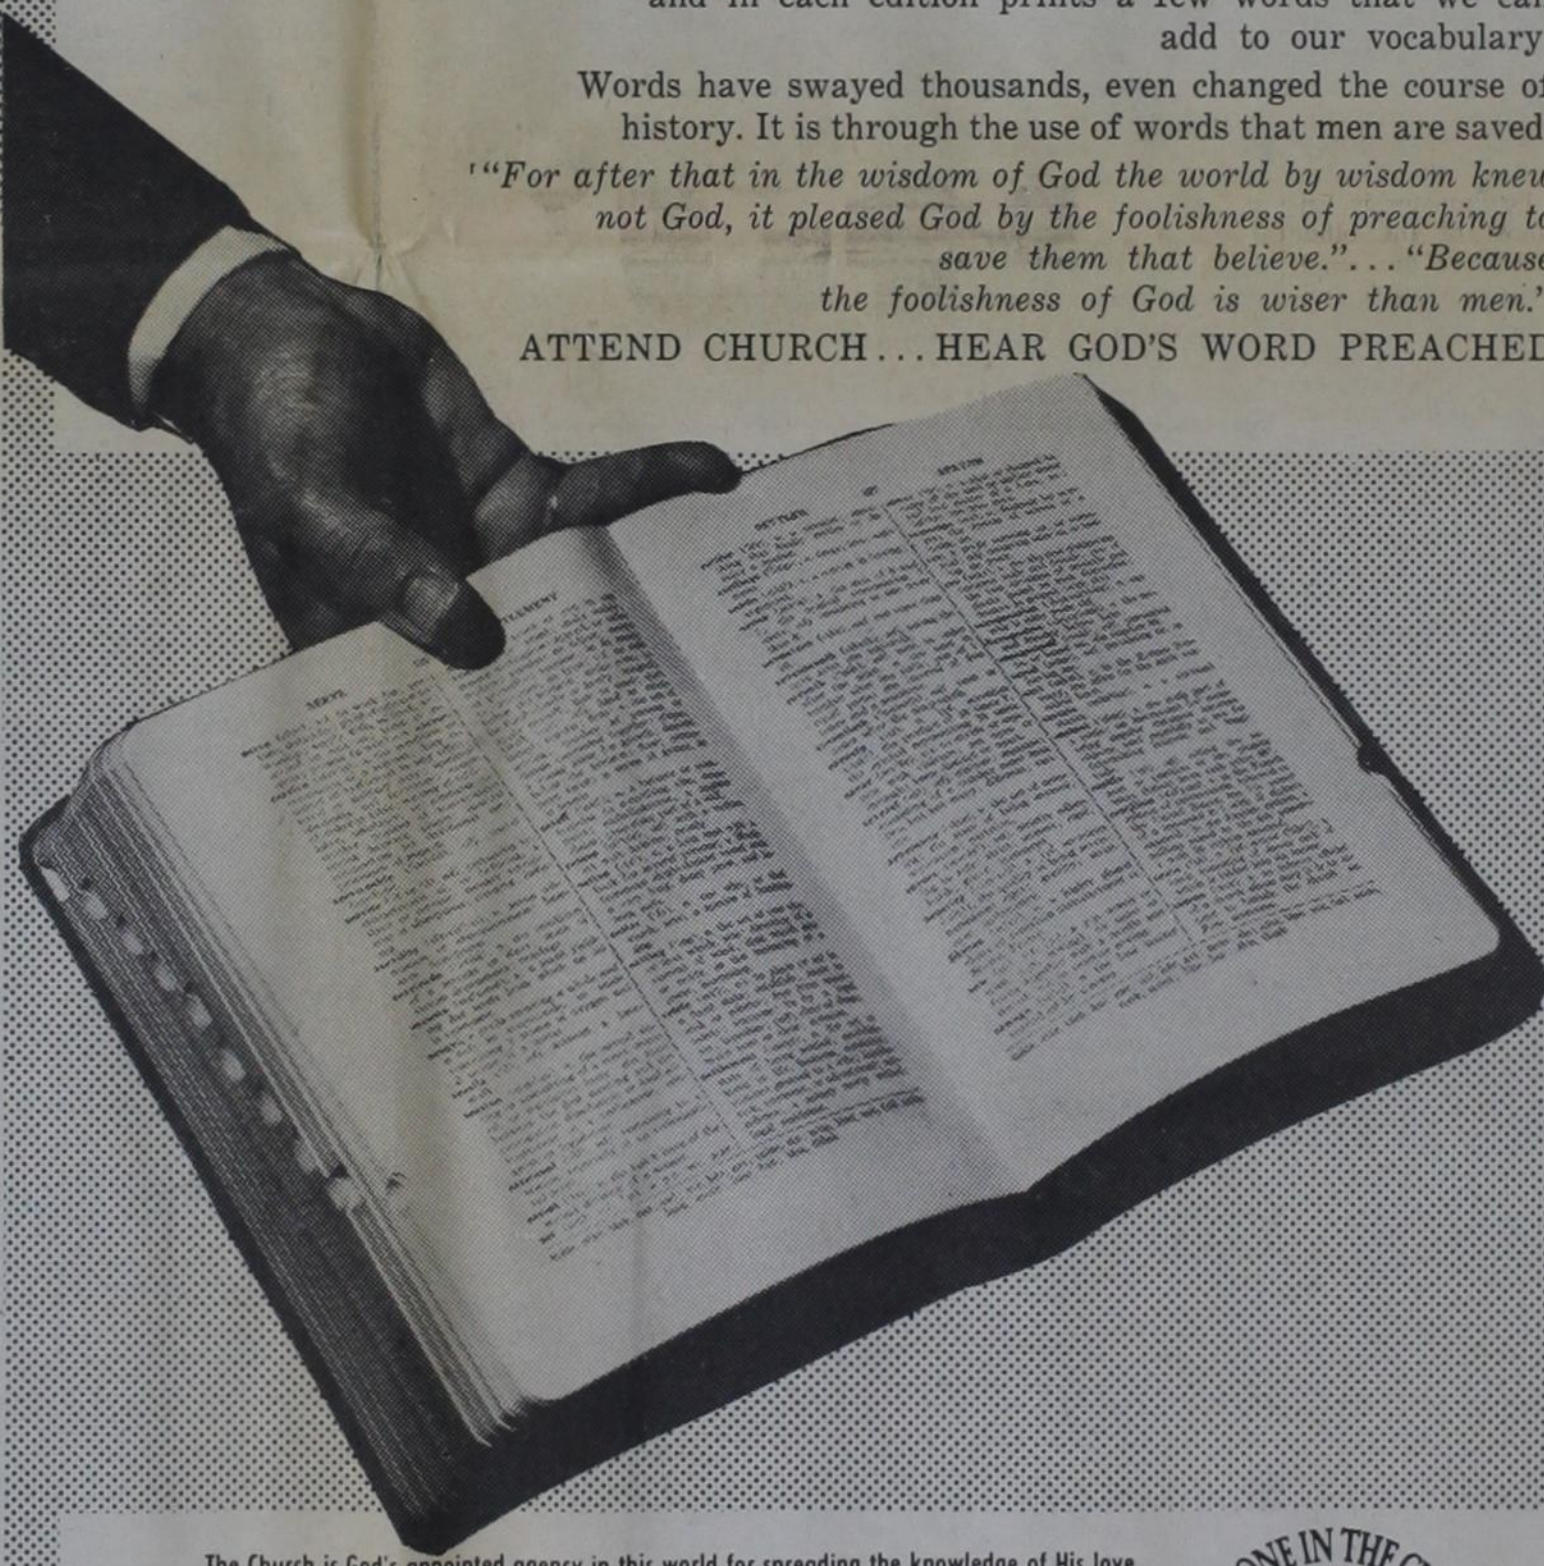

You might think that it was so easy for Christ to live right. It seemed so easy, but it wasn't. It was as difficult for him as it is for us. He was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sins" (Heb. 4:15) The secret of success for Christ is found in three verses. Luke 22:42 "Not my will, but thine be done" John 4:34 "My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work" John 6:38 "For I came down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him that sent me" Jesus lived to do God's will. We, like Christ, must bend our own will to conform to the will of God. The one important thing for your life and mine is the doing of God's will. Nothing else really matters. Christ did it! Now let's follow in his steps. FOURTH AND BEDFORD CHURCH OF CHRIST

WORD POWER!

One of our popular publications, encourages the learning of new words, and in each edition prints a few words that we can add to our vocabulary.

Words have swayed thousands, even changed the course of history. It is through the use of words that men are saved. "For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe..." "Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men."

ATTEND CHURCH... HEAR GOD'S WORD PREACHED

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God. Lady in Naples gives impressions

(Editor's Note: When Mrs. Betty Singer and her children moved earlier this year from Dimmitt to Naples, Italy, to spend "a year or longer," we asked her to write back to the News periodically so the people in her hometown can get a glimpse of what it's like for a Texas Plains family to live in a historic seaside metropolis on the other side of the world. Here is her first report.)

By BETTY SINGER
First of all, Naples has a population of approximately three million people. It is a mountainous city. I am told there are caves underneath the city, and occasionally a street collapses and cars will fall into these underground caves. Also, the buildings sometimes collapse.

It is a beautiful city with lovely parks and flowers blooming all year. The streets are kept clean, but it is a very dirty city from industry, which causes a lot of air pollution and smog.

We are not too far from a steel mill, and it is impossible to keep the apartment clean as we get a lot of soot from it. The balconies are always covered, no matter how often you sweep them. We have become accustomed to this now, but at first it was rather difficult for me to accept.

The villages in the outlying area of Naples are very clean and neat. They are beautiful beyond description, especially Amalfi, Sorrento and Capri.

THE WEATHER here is very cold to me, even though the temperature never drops to the freezing point. The weather also changes very rapidly. For instance, yesterday we had a lovely, sunny day for a while — then all of a sudden it was pouring down rain, and in the next minute it was sleeting. We don't have dirt storms or snow.

I have found the Italian people to be very friendly and very helpful. In most of the shops they speak some English, and if not, we have learned a little Italian so we manage very well.

Not too far from our apartment, there is a common market where you buy vegetables, fish, meat and dairy products. Also, little grocery shops are in this building. It is one large building and the people have little stalls or shops where you buy their particular products.

I HAVEN'T learned how much something costs in Italian money yet, so I give them a few hundred lire and if it isn't enough they let you know, and if it is too much they give you change.

There are separate shops for different things, though—you go to one shop to buy meat, another to buy vegetables, etc.

There are bars everywhere, too, but not bars in the sense that Americans know. In these, you can get espresso or pastries, chocolates, Cokes, beer or alcoholic beverages. Espresso is a very strong Italian coffee you get in a very small demitasse cup, with a lot of sugar (at least two spoons). I learned to drink it right away; it isn't bad at all—at least, I don't think it is.

THEN THERE are the tobacco shops. In these, you have to buy your postage stamps, salt and matches, because the government owns these items.

We find that there are a lot of American products over here.

Italy is a very poor country as far as resources are concerned. They depend on tourists a lot. There is a lot of American industry over here, and if it weren't here the country would be in sad shape.

GENERALLY speaking, I think the Americans are liked very well here.

In Naples—and I'm sure this is true of the whole of Italy—there is some kind of a strike every day. When there was a bus strike here, they didn't strike all day, but just the two hours in the morning when people were trying to get to work and then the two hours when people wanted to get home. The rest of the day, the buses were running.

The dope problem isn't as prevalent over here as it is in the States—at least, not among the Italian teenagers—but I understand it is a problem with the American students over here.

WE HAVE met a number of service people, and some are with American firms or industries over here.

The kids go to a private American school here in Naples—the John F. Kennedy School. There are about 108 students; 80 percent are American and the rest are from other countries—mostly from England. The headmaster is English, as are most of the other teachers. The classes are small and the student gets more individual attention.

We live about a mile from the school. The kids did walk, but since the weather is so unpredictable here, they now have a car that picks the children up.

NEXT SCHOOL year, in December, there will be a cruise which the school offers. It takes them to the Pyramids, the Holy Land, Ephesus and Athens aboard a school ship, the Uganda. They have regular classes aboard ship and the cruise will be between 14 and 17 days long. Of course, there is a special price for the students, and it is very reasonable.

The kids could have gone to an American school for military dependents, as there was space available for them, but since we weren't military we would have to pay tuition, and I found it to be higher than the private school.

This will interest the ladies, I'm sure: I find that the fashions here are far more fashionable than in the States. The Italian people dress well, and I haven't seen any slouchy or dowdy women on the streets. The men always have on suits, even to go to the parks and walk.

PEOPLE walk here, and on Sundays, if it is a beautiful day, all of the parks and the waterfront area are full of people.

The traffic here is something else. At the very busiest time, usually around 10 or 11 in the mornings, from the time you enter Naples off the Autostrad until you get to my apartment—which is about seven miles—you could drive from Rome to Naples in the same length of time or less. If you are going to downtown Naples it is better to take a bus. Hope you enjoy the letter.

IN 1970, Americans will use two hours and 43 minutes of their eight-hour workday to meet their taxes. This is nine minutes more than in 1969. In 1965, they worked two hours and 19 minutes to meet taxes, reports Doris Myers, Extension home management specialist at Texas A&M University.

Patrol reports 10 March wrecks

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated 10 accidents on rural highways in Castro County during March, according to Sgt. Vernon Cavthon, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

THESE crashes resulted in five persons injured and an estimated property damage of $12,639.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first three months of 1970 shows a total of 30 accidents resulting in 14 persons injured and an estimated property damage of $23,664.

The final entry in the 1969 Texas traffic records has been entered and closed. An all-time record of 2,551 persons killed, an estimated 223,000 suffered injuries, and an estimated property loss of $955 million was sustained.

SINCE the death count of 2,254 in 1960, Texas has gained steadily each year. The Sergeant stated, "If the number of deaths continue to increase as they have since 1960 by 1973 they will have increased 100 percent."

CRYOGENIC freezing? It is using below minus 100 degrees F. temperatures. New techniques in this field may soon provide us with frozen lettuce and salad mixes, reports Frances Reasonover, Extension foods and nutrition specialist at Texas A&M University. Hard to freeze foods such as tomato slices, melon and bananas are being experimented with now. Mushrooms, seafood and onion rings have been successfully cryogenically frozen.

Mrs. George is shower honoree

By MRS. OWEN ANDREWS Mrs. Larry George was the honoree at a miscellaneous bridal shower in the fellowship room of Frio Baptist Church last Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. George is the former Andrea Axe daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Axe. She and George the son of Mrs. Bobbie Vilas and the late C.E. George, were married March 31.

Hostesses for the shower included Mmes. Robert Dobbins, Clark Andrews, Earl Harkins, Frank Robbins, Annie Lee Dobbins, Charles Self, Floyd Cole, Richard Price, Clifford Hargrove, Ronnie Andrews and Dee Taylor of the Frio Community, and Mmes. T.E. Singer, Bobbie Dameron and Clyde Renfro of Dimmitt. Among out of town relatives attending were the groom's grandmothers, Mrs. Cletha George of Dimmitt and Mrs. Lillian Hcllister of Plainview; an aunt, Mrs. Jack Hollister of Plainview, and George's sister, Mrs. Gerald Summers and Kathy George of Dimmitt. Many other relatives from Vega, Dimmitt, Jumbo, Easter and Hereford also came totaling nearly 60.

Mrs. George is a student in Dimmitt High School, while George, also a native of Dimmitt, is in the Army, having recently returned from several months' duty in Germany.

FRIO Homemakers Club met Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Owen Andrews. The program on "Self Defense" was presented by a guest, Faye Woods, an officer in the Amarillo Police Department. She gave many suggestions on ways to protect person and property from various acts of violence and ways of meeting violence when necessary.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Andrews and Alma Andrews returned home Tuesday from a few days' visit in California with the Andrews' daughter, Doris Jean, in the San Diego area.

Acreage limits removed on beets

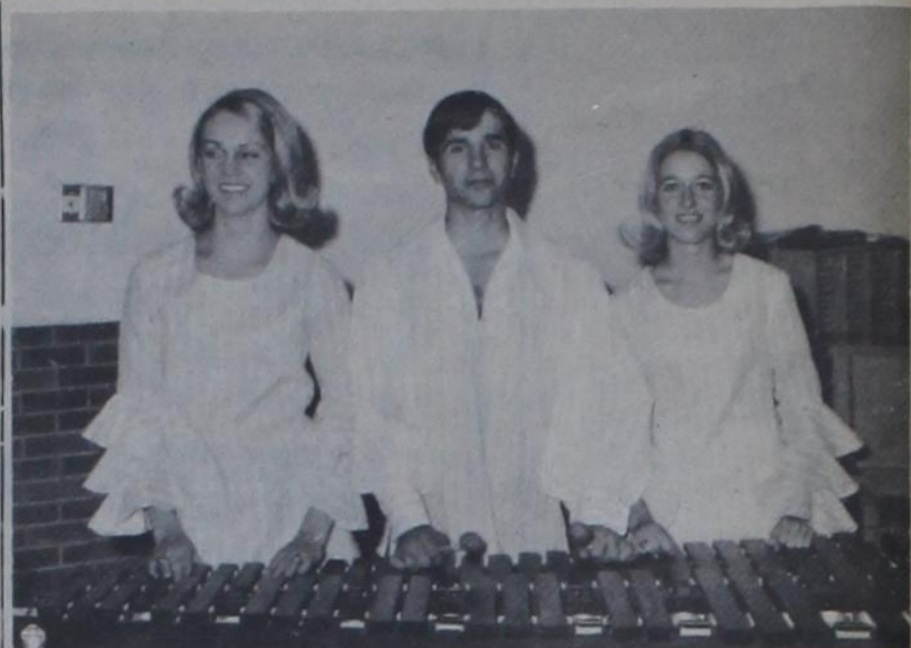

Removal of acreage restrictions on 1970 crop sugar beet plantings was announced last week by the US Dept. of Agriculture.

This action, USDA officials said, recognizes the continued lessening of sugar recovery from 1969 crop sugar beets, as well as some downward estimates of plantings for 1970.

Producers now can plant as many 1970 crop sugar beets as they wish. However, USDA pointed out that a producer cannot afford to plant more beets than a factory will contract to receive.

DIMMITT'S 'WINDBORNE TRIO' ... Ruth Dyer, Skip Skinner, Suzanne Merritt

Trio to sing at annual meet of Deaf Smith Electric Coop

Deaf Smith County Electric Cooperative is expecting over 1,200 persons to attend its 32nd annual meeting at the Bull Barn in Hereford, Thursday, April 30.

ELECTION for three directors will be held and over $140,000 in capital credits for 1968 will be distributed to members of the cooperative.

Directors whose terms are due to expire are Noel Gollehon of Dimmitt, Tom Draper of Hereford, and Sloan Osborn of Friona. Those nominated whose names will also appear on the ballot are Dale Maxwell of Dimmitt, Edgar Lemons of Hereford and Steve Struve of Friona.

Special entertainment will be provided by "The Windborne Trio" of Dimmitt. Members of this musical group are Ruth Dyer, Skip Skinner and Suzanne Merritt.

THE MEETING will begin at 12 noon with a barbecue lunch in the main Bull Barn. Hundreds of dollars worth of door prizes will be given to lucky ticket holders. Free cartoon movies for the children will be provided. High note of the meeting will be an address by Ken Loyd of Austin, sales promotion manager with Texas Electric Cooperatives.

Bradford makes UMC dean's list

Bob Bradford, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Bradford of Dimmitt, has been named to the Deas List for the fall semester at the University of Missouri, Columbia.

HE WAS one of 1,900 UMC students in the College of Arts and Sciences to attain at least a 3.0 grade average of a possible 4.0.

Winds spare community; former residents worry

By MRS. FLORANCE ALBRACHT The storm clouds with their tornadic winds which covered the Panhandle Friday and Friday night had most everyone here watching and listening to weather bulletins and praying. Our community was spared, as very little damage was done.

Many calls came from relatives and friends living away from here after hearing and reading the news as far away as Germany. The Les Boyles stationed in Germany called her folks, the Vincent Pohlmeiers, on Saturday morning after seeing a special on T.V. about the tornados.

DELEGATES and others from here who attended the deanery meeting of the Amarillo Council of Catholic Women in Plainview last Wednesday, were Mrs. Ethel Schmucker, Mrs. Mae Hochstein, Mrs. Florine Brockman, Mrs. Lucille Dreup, Mrs. Rosemary Wilhelm, Mrs. Leola Ramaekers, Mrs. Julein Gerber and Mrs. Dora Albracht.

The theme, "In the Spirit of the Gospel," was carried out throughout the day, with Bible readings and banners. Right Rev. Bishop De Falco was the speaker at the dinner. A workshop on the new baptismal ceremony was conducted by Rev. Hubert Halfman of Lubbock. One on Christian doctrine was conducted by Mrs. Kreter of Abernathy. Two men from the Amarillo police force showed a film and shared some of their experiences with drugs and addicts.

Nine clergy and over 100 women attended the meeting.

RELATIVES attending the wedding of Miss Nadine Gerber of Amarillo and Roy Behrends of Hereford in St. Mary's Church in Amarillo Saturday evening, and the reception at the Knights of Columbus hall on Western, were Mr. and Mrs. Tony Gerber, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Gerber, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Gerber, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Gerber, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Gerber, Mrs. Josephine Ball, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Backus, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hoelting.

Mrs. Anna Albracht and her sister, Mrs. Clara Niebur of Minneapolis, spent Friday visiting the Sonny Balls.

Mr. and Mrs. Greg Hoelting and Mrs. Ray Schmucker went to Lubbock Sunday to see Anna Beth and also to see a show at Texas Tech.

ENJOYING Sunday dinner with the Vincent Pohlmeiers were Father Stanley, Mrs. Anna Albracht, Mrs. Clara Niebur, Mr. and Mrs. Florance Albracht and Mr. and Mrs. George Brockman of Umbar-

ger. Mr. and Mrs. William Hochstien Jr. and Mrs. Lynn Ehly attended the state CDA convention. Mrs. Hochstien is grand regent of this court and Mrs. Ehly is district deputy of the Catholic Daughters of America.

Bernard Braddock entered the hospital in Amarillo the past week for more surgery on his arm and leg, which were badly injured in a pickup truck accident several months ago.

THE LAY Franciscans met in church Sunday afternoon with their spiritual director, Father Joel Byrnes of Clovis. The business meeting was held in the cry room, with election of officers.

Officers for the coming three years are Walter Kein, prefect; Paul Venhaus, vice-prefect; Mrs. John Schacher, secretary; and Frank Hoelting, treasurer. Leonard Melcher, son-in-law of the Ernie Brockmans, arrived in Vietnam, April 10 to serve a year with Air Force security. His wife, Shirley, is teaching school in Albuquerque.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Acker and Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Backus went to Umbarger Sunday for the Catholic Life Insurance supper.

Dimmitt girls' track team qualifies eight for regional Eight Dimmitt High School girls qualified for the regional girls' track meet last Thursday during the district meet at Hale Center.

ONE MEMBER of the DHS girls' track team, Terrie Newton, qualified for the regional meet in five events.

Dimmitt, coached by Bob Askey, finished third in team totals in the district meet with 92 points. Hale Center's girls ran away with the district championship with 198 points, while Tulia finished second with 122. Friona placed fourth and Lockney fifth.

The top three in each district event will go to the regional meet May 1 in Panhandle.

TERRIE NEWTON qualified for regional in three individual events and was a member of two relay teams that qualified.

She placed third in the long jump with a leap of 14 ft., 9 1/2 in.; third in the hop, step and jump with a triple leap of 29 ft., 4 in.; and third in the 80-meter hurdles with a time of 14.9 seconds.

Dimmitt's 880-yard relay team placed second at district, posting a time of 1:57.8. Members of the team are Miss Newton, Ann Lust, Sarita White and Patti Jackson.

THE SAME four girls placed third in the 440-yard relay with a clocking of 54.6 seconds, so they will get to compete at the regional meet in both sprint relay events.

Dimmitt's mile relay team also qualified by placing third with a time of 4:37.1. Members of the team are Doria Garza, Patti Jackson, Dawn Parker and Debbie Hansen.

Martina Dones was the only Dimmitt girl to qualify in a field event, placing third in the discus with a throw of 80 ft., 8 in.

DIMMITT girls won fourth-place ribbons in four other events, and will be alternates to the regional meet in case one of the top three finishers don't get to compete.

They were Lee Ann Merritt, fourth place in the discus throw with a distance of 79 ft., 3 1/2 in.; Martina Dones, fourth in the 880-yard run with a time of 2:52; Ann Lust, fourth in the 220-yard dash with a 29.0-second clocking; and Sarita White, fourth in the hurdles with a time of 15.0 seconds.

Other Dimmitt ribbon winners at the district meet were Doria Garza, fifth in the 440-yard dash, and Dawn Parker, sixth in the 440-yard dash.

'Most Valuable' athletes named

Roy Thomas, Ruth Dyer and Bill Sanders, who helped lead Dimmitt High School athletic teams to highly successful seasons this year, won a final honor for themselves Saturday night when they were announced as the school's "Most Valuable Players" for the year in the four major sports.

THEY WERE chosen for the MVP honors by their teammates, and will have their names engraved on an all-sports plaque that will remain on display permanently in the halls of DHS. Each also received an award certificate.

Thomas was a double winner, receiving the MVP award certificates for both football and track. As a football halfback, he made the All-South Plains and all-district teams two years and was one of the most dangerous runners in the district.

In track, Thomas is still running and winning. He has qualified for the Region 1-AA track meet in Lubbock Saturday in the 220-yard dash and as a member of the 440-yard and mile relay teams.

MISS DYER, who led the Dimmitt Bobbies' scoring attack for two years from her post forward spot, won the Most Valuable Player award in girls' basketball. She was captain of the team and named to the all-district honor squad.

Sanders, the shortest member of the Bobcat basketball team, won his teammates' votes for the MVP award for helping inspire the team to a 27-7 season, third best in the last decade.

THE annual Athletic Banquet was held in the South Elementary School cafeteria, with Ronnie Parker, minister of the Fourth and Bedford Church of Christ, as master of ceremonies.

DURING the banquet, players in all sports honored the school's coaches and their wives with plaques and personal gifts.

Main speaker was Dennis Walling, head basketball coach at West Texas State University. He said the basic ingredients in a good athletic program are school spirit, execution of play, opportunity for all youths, desire, self-discipline, teamwork and faith.

Miss Dyer was announced as the 1970-71 Football Queen during

V.F.W. NEWS

By GERALD BRADSTREET
Greetings, Comrades,

POST Commander Howard Cook has confirmed that Billie Dorris, department adjutant and quartermaster, will be the department representative at our District 13 convention to be held at the post home here May 16 and 17.

Florene Leinen, president of the Ladies' Auxiliary, reports that Diala Ords, department VA hospital representative, will be their department representative for the convention.

By the time this news is published we will have had our joint meeting with the Ladies' Auxiliary. The purpose of this meeting was to coordinate our convention plans and assign tasks and duties. Along with this, we will have selected a delegate to the Castro County Activities Committee. This committee meets once a month, and its purpose is to plan and coordinate county-wide activities, such as the Roundup Celebration in August.

LOYALTY DAY, May 1, is just around the corner. Therefore, I want to remind you once again that our Loyalty Day program will be presented on Radio Station KDHN at 10:30 a.m. Friday, May 1. Be sure and tune it in - I'm sure you'll enjoy it.

The installation of our officers will be as soon as possible after May 1 and before the convention. At this time I don't have the date or details, but I will next week.

Bud Griffin, our post custodian, has ordered the heavy plastic table service ware to be used at the convention. This is the same service ware that he presented for examination and approval at the February meeting.

I'D LIKE to mention that Omer "Yank" Mainsville, commander-elect of Post 5681 of Canyon, and his wife, Nell, district scrapbook chairman, along with Walter Cox, district quartermaster, and his wife, Mary, patriotic instructor, were present for Game Night activities last Wednesday. Our post is always proud and honored to have out-of-town visitors.

You members don't forget, Game Night is Wednesday, starting at 8:30. Please come on out and join us and bring a guest with you. See you then.

WE THROW away food! A recent survey shows that American families throw away an average of two-thirds of a pound of food a person a day, reports Wendolynne Clyatt, Extension consumer marketing specialist with Texas A&M University. Plan before you buy.

Bridge-42 party set Friday night

A benefit bridge and 42 party will be held Friday at 7 p.m. at the Country Club. The event is sponsored by the Presbyterian Women.

Admission is $5 per couple or $2.50 per person. A sandwich supper will be served, and a door prize will be awarded, as well as prizes for high man and woman and low man and woman in 42 and bridge.

Morris feels he can spur American Party defection

Robert Morris, Plano attorney and educator who is seeking the Republican nomination for the US Senate, said here last Thursday that he feels he can attract a large segment of American Party voters over to the Republican column.

Naval Intelligence officer and served as chief counsel for the US Senate Internal Security Subcommittee.

NOW SERVING as a college attorney for US Senate committees, Morris views moral pollution as one of today's major political issues.

"Article 2, Section III of the Constitution ... is a wonderful bulwark" against official sanctions of moral variance, he said. "If any branch of our government overreaches itself, another branch can pull it back."

On the withdrawal of US troops from Vietnam and the training of native troops to take over the war, Morris said Vietnamization "is working, but even if it works beyond everyone's expectations, you haven't solved the problem of Southeast Asia."

ROBERT MORRIS ... GOP Senate candidate

Morris claimed that Congressman Bush "is appealing to the Yarborough vote" and said the campaign issues he is stressing himself will help "win over" the 600,000 Texans who voted for American Party candidate George Wallace in the last presidential election.

THE ISSUES Morris stressed at Thursday's meeting were defense, internal security, moral pollution, Vietnamization of the war, and the Senate seniority system.

He said the US had a 100-1 nuclear superiority over the USSR during the 1962 Cuban crisis and only a 4-1 superiority in 1965.

"We no longer have this superiority," he said. "It takes four years to initiate any new nuclear system, so for the next six years the USSR is going to be holding a big stick over us."

HE OUTLINED the Communist "plan of conquest" in non-Communist nations, and said the plan in the US "has now reached the terror stage with bombings."

He added, "My adversary, George Bush, doesn't know what I'm talking about. He told the Dallas Times-Herald that we have no internal security problem in the US. We certainly differ there."

Morris, who speaks softly but firmly with the accent of his native New York state, is a former

'Mellerdrammer' on tap at DJHS

"I'll do it!" wails the pure but desperate heroine. "I'll go out into the cold, cruel world, alone and friendless, for my chee-eld's sake."

THIS IS a heart-riveting line from an old-fashioned "mellerdrammer" to be presented Tuesday night by the Dimmitt Junior High School Speech Dept.

Curtain time is 8 p.m. in DJHS auditorium.

Name of the melodrama is "For Her Chee-ld's Sake," written by Paul Loomis and directed by Mrs. Zetty Hawkins, DJHS speech instructor.

TICKETS are 75 cents for adults, 50 cents for students and 25 cents for pre-school children.

The cast includes Halley Fuller, Debra Dove, Delese Kay, Ronnie Heathington, Rhonda Dowse, Ann Welch, JoAnn Smith, Johnny Rodriguez, Sarah Glover, Delynda Stanton, Rhenea Baker and Jaci Johnson.

Stage hand for the production is Primitivo Sanchez.

Storm damage mop-up begins

By MRS. JACK RISTER
Volunteer work parties started Monday morning cleaning up the debris at several Bethel community farms that received heavy damage Friday night from the tornado which hit Lazbuddie earlier, and from the 100-mph winds that preceded the tornado.

THE TORNADO left a wide path of twisted sheet metal, barrels, boards and machinery parts scattered across plowed fields in the community.

Hardest hit were the farms of Clayton Graef and Milton Bagwell, which were invaded by the tornado.

The Bagwells lost several trailers, a barn, chicken house, grainery and two-thirds of their stacked hay bales, and received damage to their cattle feeding pens. At the Graef farm, the tornado destroyed the three-car garage and took the roof off the utility room of the house, uprooted large elm trees and demolished a tall evergreen hedgegrove, destroyed a grainery and caused heavy damage to a feeded barn and several other outbuildings.

At the Bruegel place the storm smashed one chicken house and overturned another one, and also flipped a 5,000-gallon water storage tank.

Tornado-whipped winds destroyed a barn on the Charles Wales farm.

THE TORNADO snapped power poles near the George Sides farm and laid one pole across the Clovis Highway, Donald Gilreath, driving his family home after Friday night's Roundup Talent Show in Dimmitt, ran into this pole with his car.

OLIVER HAIL was admitted to Plains Memorial Hospital last Wednesday and Mrs. Hail's mother, Mrs. Rich, has also been in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bagwell visited her Aunt, Mrs. Benny Whiteside, in Levelland Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Moss Howell have been helping their daughter and family move from Tulla to Drumwright, Oklahoma this week. Mrs. Vern Lust visited Grandmother Bagwell and Mrs. Martin last Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Lust visited Monday night with the Glenn Lust family of Lazbuddie.

Mrs. M.C. Martin and her son Bill McClenny, attended funeral services for her brother, M. H. Raye, 89 of Soper, Oklahoma. Services were Saturday at 2:30 p.m. in the Boswell, Okla., Church of Christ. Mr. Raye's survivors include 10 children, several grandchildren, two sisters and one brother.

MRS. M. C. MARTIN and Bill McClenny visited her sister, Mrs. Edna Christies of Texarkana, Sunday morning.

Warda McElroy and Birdie Rister were in Hereford, Tuesday afternoon on business. Mrs. Bud McElroy, and Mrs. Jack Rister visited Mrs. L. H. Hooper Wednesday Mrs. McElroy celebrated her birthday with Mother Hooper's fried chicken dinner.

ner. On her way home we visited Mrs. J. D. McElroy and Wayne, Mrs. James Osborn and children, and Mrs. Velma Duncan and Steven of Levelland.

FRANCIS VASSAUR closed down the Tam Anne Cafe recently.

Mrs. Earl Lust worked at the desk and gift shop of the hospital Friday.

Bethel Home Demonstration Club members attended a District THDA meeting in Hereford Thursday Mrs. Jack Ingram, and Mrs. Earl Lust attended.

MR. AND MRS. James Welch spent 10 days in Kansas City, and attended a Church Conference. James's mother, Mrs. May Lawhorne, stayed with the children.

Mark Welch, went to a spelling contest Saturday in Lockney.

Tim and Mark Lust visited their grandparents; the Vern Lusts. Their brother, David, was in the hospital for a check-up.

Coalition blasts House group for 'sellout' of grain program

An angry steering committee of the Coalition of Farm Organizations met in Washington, D.C., last Thursday and issued a statement calling action by the Livestock and Grains Subcommittee of the House Agriculture Committee on the wheat and feed grains program "completely unacceptable" and a "sell-out" of the grain producers of the nation.

THE subcommittee over-rode its chairman, Congressman Graham Purcell (D-Tex.), in approving (by a 9-8 vote) amendments proposed by Congressman Page Belcher (R-Okla.) that scrapped the concept of parity in the price support program and removed the floor under the market price that has in the past been provided by commodity loans. Belcher said the amendments were the recommendation of the Nixon Administration.

Southerners on the subcommittee joined with Belcher, and the key to the outcome was provided by Congressman W. R. "Bob" Poage (D-Tex.), chairman of the House Agriculture Committee, who supported the Administration amendments and cast the deciding vote.

Also voting for the Administration amendments, along with Belcher and Poage were Congressman Bob Price (R-Tex.), one other Republican and five other Democrats.

Voting with Chairman Purcell against the amendments were three other Democrats and four Republicans.

The subcommittee action would set loans at 80 to 100 percent of average world market prices. "THIS totally removes the price supporting feature of loans," said the Coalition. "Loan levels should be related to parity, not world market prices, if they are to have a beneficial effect on farmer income from the market place."

The subcommittee action would provide income guarantees on domestic wheat at $2.77 per bushel and for corn at $1.35 per bushel on 50 percent of base acreage.

"This action effectively sets a ceiling on income," said the Coalition. "Regardless of how high production costs go, the farmer cannot expect any increase in income. It is unthinkable that Congress would decide that a farmer deserves only $2.77 per bushel (which is less than parity) on only 43 percent of his wheat, and 76 percent of parity on half of his corn. Yet that is what this subcommittee is recommending." The Coalition said that it was alerting its members in 32 general farm, commodity and cooperative organizations throughout the nation on the recommendations of the subcommittee.

Responding Monday to the Coalition's charges, Congressman Poage said he voted in favor of the Administration's amendments because he felt the original price-support proposals would not stand a chance in the urban-dominated Congress. He said he felt his "city cousins" in Congress would be more likely to support the Administration's proposals.

The view from your library

By MARY EDNA HENDRIX
County Librarian

Last week was National Library Week and we continued it through Monday here, since the Friends of the Library were having their annual meeting Monday night.

WE SERVED refreshments in the library on Wednesday, Friday and Saturday. A few extra people came in during the week, including some men, but the storm Friday probably kept some from coming into the library.

I called the principal of each school in Dimmitt to announce that all overdue books could be brought in without charge during National Library Week. I do hope we can get most of these books in before our summer reading program starts.

Cookies and punch were served to 12 children during the "Children's Story Hour" Friday. I read "The Magic Train at Sad Monkey," by Bud and Mary Brim of Canyon, and "The Mouse and the Elephant" by Barbara Walker of Lubbock.

On KVII-TV's "Coffee Break," Betty Carnahan announced the Library Family of the Year for Amarillo, and the Amarillo newspapers carried a story on the family. I would like to do the same for the Castro County Library next year. We have several mothers bringing their children in each week, but very few fathers. This family in Amarillo was chosen on the number of books as well as the type of books that they read. So, mothers, start checking out some books for father to read!

FTC makes new 'coupon' rules

New rulings from the Federal Trade Commission say that coupons enclosed in consumer products may contain no expiration date. If a date is necessary, it must be such as to allow purchasers of the product at least six months to redeem the coupon.

THE RULING resulted from complaints by homemakers that the coupons too often have expired before the product ever left the grocer's shelf, reports Gwendolyn Clyatt, Extension consumer marketing specialist with Texas A&M University.

Manufacturers who state on the outside of a package or in their ads that a coupon is enclosed also must clearly define the limits of the coupon.

Soil chemist advises against cutting back on fertilizers

Farmers should not risk less production in 1970 by not fertilizing, advises C.D. Welch, Extension soil chemist.

"LOW YIELDS in 1969, the high cost of credit, uncertain weather conditions and other conditions affecting the uncertainty of agricultural programs have probably influenced the decision of farmers to wait and fertilize near planting time," Welch said.

During October, November and December, 1969, only 398,777 tons of fertilizer were spread on Texas farms. This compares with 606,334 tons in the fourth quarter of 1968. The 1969 fourth quarter total is approximately 35 percent less than in 1968, Welch said.

Soil samples submitted during the fourth quarter of 1969 were comparable to 1968 numbers for the same period, Welch said. However, both were down from previous years, he continued.

SOIL SAMPLES submitted from October through December of 1969 totaled 5,091. The highest number of samples submitted was in December with 1,913.

The five leading counties in number of samples submitted during the fourth quarter of 1969 were Wharton, Washington, Bell, Harris and Lamb. In addition, 66 water and 102 soil samples were analyzed for salinity.

"Farmers should try to fertilize before planting, whether soil samples have been taken or not," Welch urged. "Soil samples may then be submitted and side dressings can be applied if needed."

THE VETERANS Administration announced earlier this year that 4,100 more than last year—were studying in colleges and pursuing on-the-job training.

Sutan + atrazine lets your corn grow free

Your corn grows free from all major grasses and weeds. Free from the growth stress that weeds cause. Free to develop strong, vigorous roots that reach down to make maximum use of soil nutrients and moisture. Free from extra cultivations, possible root damage and free of trashy fields at harvest time.

This season, use dependable, economical Sutan plus atrazine on all your corn acreage. Stop the toughest grasses and weeds—nutgrass, wild cane, foxtails, fall panicum, Johnsongrass seedlings, crabgrass, annual morningglory, lambsquarters, pigweed, ragweed, nightshade and others that lower your profits. Mix Sutan plus atrazine in the soil as you prepare your seedbed. There's no need to depend on unpredictable rainfall to move the herbicide into the weed seed zone. Sutan and atrazine will be waiting to control weeds as they sprout. Used as directed, Sutan controls weeds without leaving harmful residues in the soil. Free yourself from work and worry... see us today for your supply of Sutan.

Kiwanians help with TV series

The Kiwanis Club of Dimmitt is participating in a unique TV series on "You and the Law."

THE SERIES is made up of 10 half-hour panel shows designed for successive weekly airing via TV stations in the US and Canada. Each show consists of a panel of college students who engage in a dialogue with an expert on law, justice or a closely related field.

Host for the series is Raymond Burr, famous movie and TV star.

The series is designed for public service airing by TV stations in communities where there are Kiwanis Clubs. The stations and clubs work together on the project. Cost of the show itself is borne by groups of clubs which act as sponsors, and the cost of the air time is borne by the individual TV stations on a public service basis.

Journalism study grant available

BALLINGER — West Texas Press Association is looking for another winner in its $800 newspaper scholarship contest.

Applications in the 1970 contest will be received from high school seniors until May 8. Richard H. Perry, chairman of the scholarship committee, has announced.

Applications should be sent to Richard H. Perry, The Ballinger Ledger, Box 111, Ballinger, Texas 76821. Announcement of the winner will be made by May 20.

West Texas Press Association, which started the newspaper scholarship in 1956, has four students in college this year. One will graduate this spring.

Rules for the scholarship contest have been mailed to high school principals and to newspaper editors or publishers of the West Texas Press Association area towns, who will be glad to help with the necessary application details.

Interested students should talk with their principal or editor and start immediately to prepare the application.

All applicants must be in the upper 25 per cent of their class, must have demonstrated ability in newspaper journalism and a desire for a newspaper career.

The winner will receive $200 per year ($100 per semester) for each of the four years of college, providing satisfactory academic requirements are met.

Eleven West Texas colleges and universities have been designated for scholarship winners by WTPA. These are Abilene Christian College, Angelo State College, Hardin-Simmons Uni-

Conservation

Prepare now for new grass

By LARRY O. STARNES

Perhaps you have an area which needs to be, or that you would like, to plant to grass.

Now is the time to make the necessary preparations. For both irrigated and dryland plantings, the initial step is to work up a good, clean seedbed. The next step is to plant the grass if it is to be irrigated or plant a forage type cover crop to use as protective residues for dryland grass seedlings, planted in the fall and winter.

GRASS SEEDING dates and rates vary with the species, so you should check with someone to be certain of the correct procedures to follow. Most grass seed companies and your Soil Conservation Service have this information available for the asking.

Selection of a species is very important since many grasses are limited by climate and soils.

Such things as season of use, type, age, and size of grazing animals, amount of irrigation water available, if any, fertilizer requirements, and even the degree of management a person is willing to give, should be considered when choosing the proper species for your farm.

VETERANS 65 or older with non-service connected disabilities and who do not draw pensions, are still required to certify that they are unable to pay for VA hospitalization, but no longer have to disclose financial details to enter a VA hospital.

ACT 1 Is Coming!

To some farmers, our service is a lot of bull.

We often lend money for one bull or to finance an entire herd. But to other farmers, a PCA loan means fertilizer, feed, or seed. It fixes fences and re-roofs barns. It remodels kitchens, pays medical bills, and sends your kids to college.

In the more-than-thirty years PCA offices have served farmers — and farmers exclusively — we've never turned down a qualified loan request for any sound farm operating need.

And there's no limit to how much is available from PCA. That's up to you and your farm's capacity to produce. Our financial assistance can run anywhere from less than $100 to more than a million.

When you need short-term or intermediate-term money to make your farm more productive, more profitable, or a more pleasant place to live, contact your local PCA office. You'll deal with people who are both farmers and financial specialists, and who are geared to give you prompt service.

PIONEER 820

TWO FOR THE MONEY

Pioneer brand hybrids set the yield pace wherever grain sorghum is grown. Here are two performance proved varieties you can count on for this area. 820 is an old reliable, full-season heavyweight that consistently yields in the 8 to 10 thousand pound range with good fertility and water. 845 is a relatively new medium-maturity hybrid that yields like most full-season varieties. It has produced over 10,000 lbs. per acre in an official Texas A & M yield test. Pick the Pioneer brand hybrid that fits your requirements best. Then see your Pioneer dealer right away and get the seed you need for this year's crop.

'Friends' elect Mrs. Keating; hear details of ranch museum

Mrs. Irene Keating of Dimmitt was elected president of the Castro County Friends of the Library at the group's annual meeting Monday night in the courthouse assembly room.

SHE SUCCEEDS Mrs. Nancy Ross as president of the two-year-old library service organization. Other officers elected were Mrs. Shirley Wise, vice-president; Mrs. Reta Welch, secretary; and Mrs. Roxie Louder and Mrs. Rita Hartman, directors.

SPEAKER for the annual meeting was Jerry L. Rogers, director of the new Ranch Headquarters branch of Texas Tech University Museum.

Purpose of the Ranch Headquarters Museum, Rogers explained, is to obtain and preserve examples of dwellings and other ranch buildings belonging to each geographical area and each decade of Texas ranching history from its beginning by the Mexican empresarios, who received land grants along the gulf coastal plains in the 1830's, and as it spread northwestward across Texas by 1890.

Slides illustrating the buildings which have been acquired and will be moved to the Texas Tech Ranch Headquarters were shown. Among them are a log cabin built in 1836 on a Mexican grant of 3,000 acres in DeWitt County near Gonzales; a double log cabin with dog trot, two fire places and shed rooms built in 1853 south of Mason by Lewis Martin as headquarters of a 50,000-acre ranch; the JOLY Ranch house, a rock structure built about 1873 by George R. Jowell as a ranch house and fort in Palo Pinto County; a dugout from the Matador Ranch, constructed about 1881; a two-story dugout, original headquarters of Col. C. C. Slaughter's Silver Lake Ranch, which became a line camp when new headquarters were constructed; a box and strip house from Col. Slaughter's Long S Ranch; a rock bunkhouse from the R. B. Masterson J Y Ranch; a carriage and saddle house from the U Lazy S Ranch near Post; a meat and milk house, called the "Buttery," built by Col. Charles Goodnight on the J A Ranch of John Adair in 1880; a grainery built in 1890 on the Spur Ranch; a blacksmith shop built in 1878 by the Snyder brothers, early buffalo hunters and ranchers, near Colorado City; and a large barn built shortly before 1900 on the Dan Waggoner Ranch near Vernon.

THE TEXAS Tech University Ranch Headquarters Foundation is now trying to raise $400,000 with which to move these structures, Rogers said. One can become a member of the Ranch Headquarters Foundation by contributing as little as $5.

Susan Parish

Lions Sweetheart to go for title

Susan Parish, 1970 Dimmitt Lions Club Sweetheart, will compete in the District 2T-1 queen contest in Pampa this weekend while members of the local club are attending the district Lions convention.

HEADING the Dimmitt delegation will be Boss Lion Lynn Polson, along with Ralph Glover, district cabinet member.

Miss Parish, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Parish, is to report Friday afternoon for registration. Later in the day, she and the other Lions Club sweethearts from throughout the Panhandle will attend a tea, take a shopping tour, attend the opening banquet and go to a get-acquainted party.

After an early awakening and rehearsals Saturday morning, the district queen candidates will compete for the title at 3:15 p.m. THE WINNER will be presented at the Governor's Banquet Saturday evening, and will be the guest of honor at the Queen's Ball following the banquet. Escorts for all contestants will be provided by Clarendon Junior College.

FFA boy buys registered Berk

Randy Gilliland of the Dimmitt FFA recently purchased a registered Berkshire boar from an Oklahoma FFA member.

THE TWO-year-old Berkshire, "Lynnewood Nugget" was farrowed at the Lynnewood Berkshire farms in Illinois. The Oklahoma FFA member bought him when he was six months old at the National Berkshire Conference in Kansas City, Mo.

The future for the young Berkshire looks promising, for several of his pigs have placed high in the Oklahoma stock shows.

Gilliland will be using the boar for his FFA project. The boar also will be available for use by area FFA members.

More about: Victims

of wrecked machinery, far-flung walls and roofs, broken boards, twisted tin and bent steel fencing — all covered with scattered hay.

The tornado cut a swath between the Bagwell home and a Harvestore elevator that stands at the west end of a 500-head feedlot.

It demolished a chicken house, a storage barn and two 1,000-bushel grainaries; ripped three forage wagons from their axles and hurled them over the feedlot; sucked part of the metal roof off a large work barn; and damaged the Harvestore elevator, the steel feedlot fence and a central feeder.

WHILE hurling the sheet metal, walls, roofs and wagons around the farm, the tornado covered the entire wreckage with loose alfalfa hay. The twister lifted eight levels of baled hay off one huge stack and completely demolished a smaller haystack, causing "hay-drifts" against all the feedlot fences and across the farmyard.

Oddly, the tornado left one end of the small storage barn standing. That's where the Bagwells' six children keep the halters and grooming equipment for their 4-H calves.

And a small tractor inside the blown-away storage barn "didn't have a scratch on it," Bagwell noted.

"WE WERE lucky we didn't have any cattle in the feed yards," he said. "If I had had those pens full of cattle, I'd hate to think what my losses would have been."

The chicken house that was destroyed is a scant 100 feet from the Bagwell boys bedroom — a large mobile home that adjoins the main house.

"We were a little afraid," the boys said. "The trailer house was shaking and we heard something hit, but we just thought it was a high wind."

ALTHOUGH Mrs. Bagwell was asleep and the children were in bed when the tornado hit, Bagwell was still up, watching TV and keeping an eye on the weather.

"The high wind died down for 20 or 45 minutes and we thought things had calmed down for the night when the tornado hit," he said.

"Just a minute or two before it hit, the electricity went off," he explained. "I looked out but couldn't see anything, it was so dark."

WHEN the tornado hit, he said, it was "mainly a roar — the wind was making such a roar that I couldn't hear anything else."

Mrs. Dagwell said, "I woke up when I heard something hit the house. It was the TV antenna."

At the Bagwell farm, the tornado was accompanied by half an inch of rain.

BUT AT the Hrabal farm, hail came with the funnel.

"I slept right through it," Jim Hrabal admitted, "but my wife was awake and she almost had a heart attack. She said it was a pretty good roar, and a lot of small hail came with it."

Hrabal, too, felt lucky after the tornado had passed.

"I don't think it was on the ground when it hit our place," Hrabal said. "If it had been on the ground it would have done a lot more damage. And if it had been 100 yards to the north it would have played havoc with the house. I think we were right on the fringe of it, and caught the winds surrounding it."

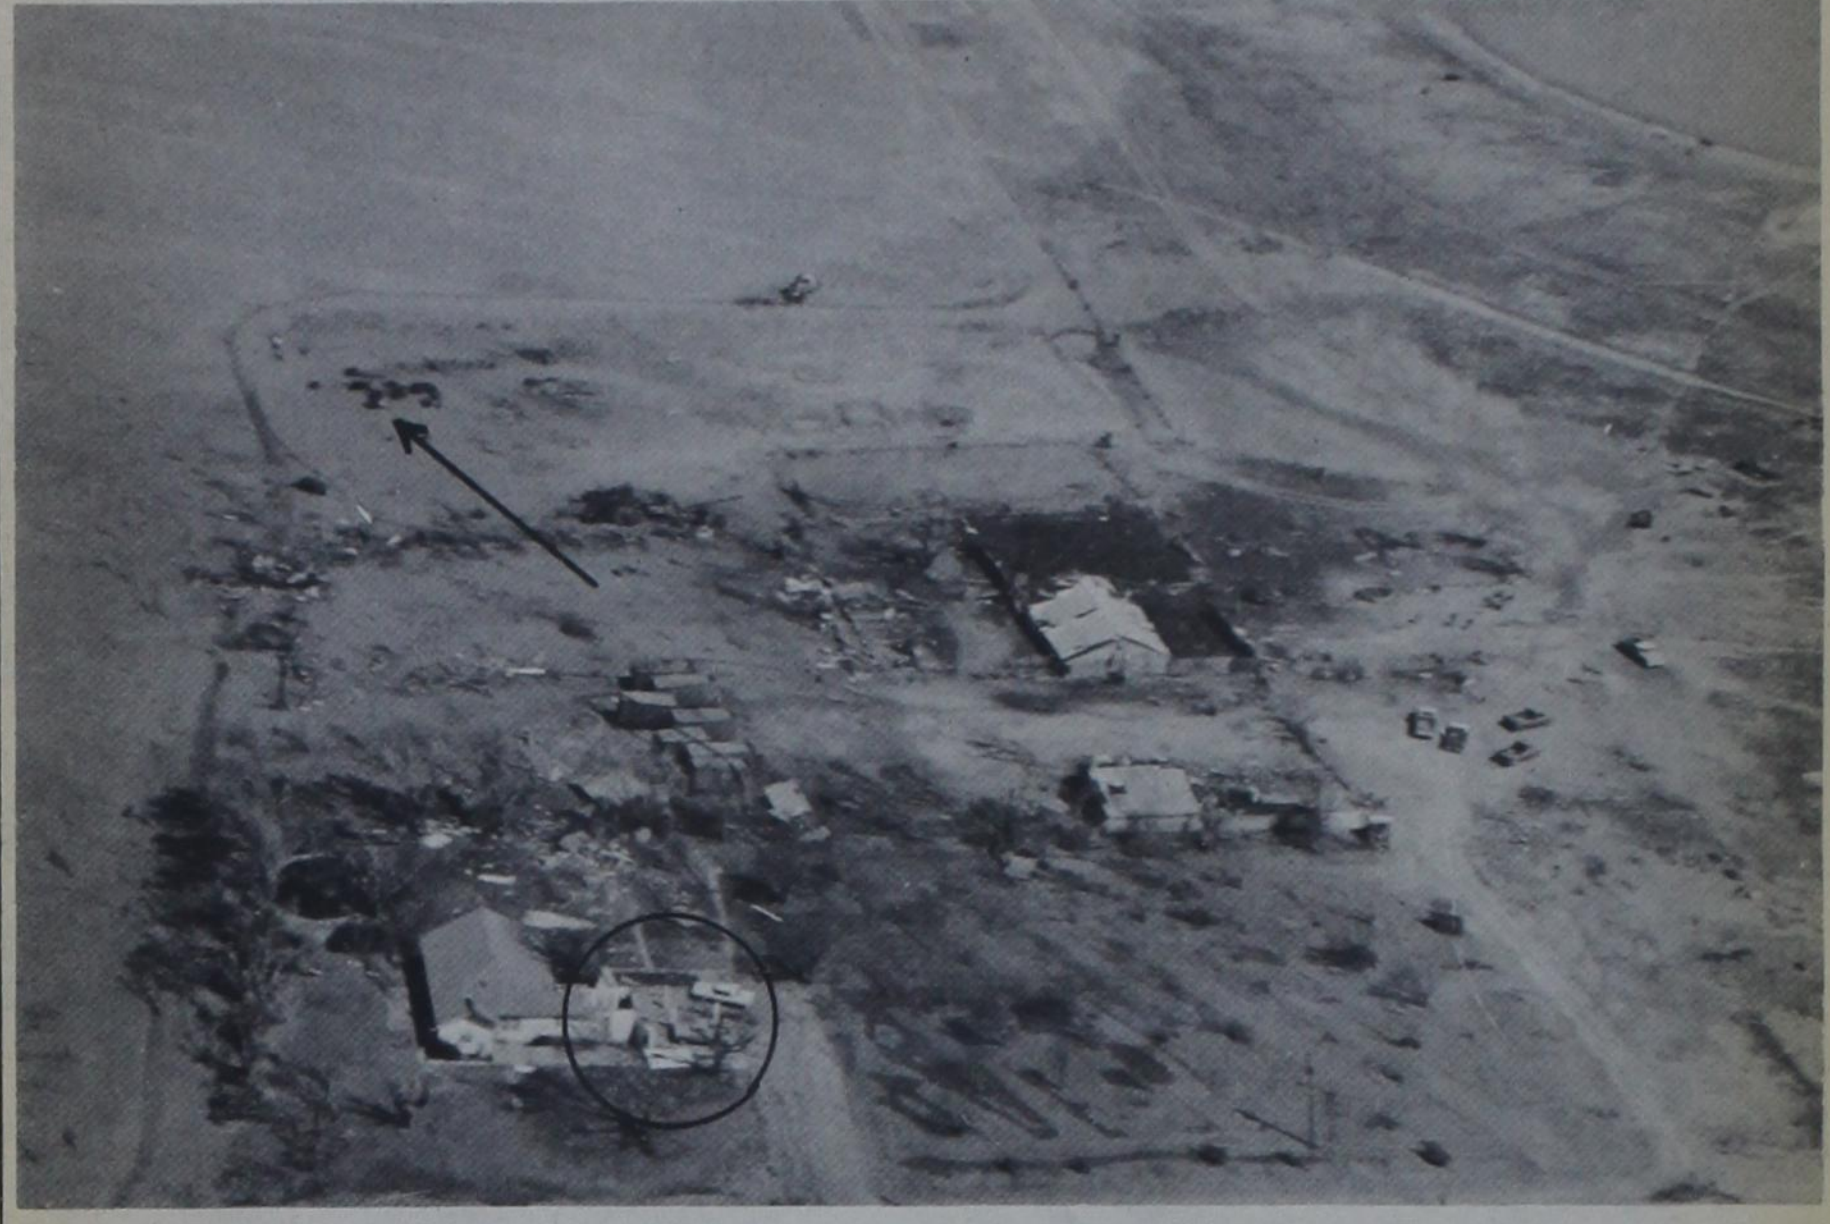

AT THE Hrabal farm the funnel blew down a horse shed, destroyed a water tank, damaged a diesel tank and twisted a large antenna tower.

"That antenna tower was braced with angle iron, and it broke the angle iron," Hrabal reported.

He added, "Evidently, when it broke, or got 50 to 100 yards past the roof, it went back up — I couldn't find any evidence of it being on the ground beyond that point."

DAMAGE at the Markley farm was less — an open-face barn facing south was blown away, a cow was killed when the barn went over, and shingles peeled from the Markley home.

However, the tornado left its rolling card with a telltale piece of evidence: an auger on the inside wall of the barn was wrapped around a telephone pole, above the transformer, 50 yards away.

poles in the middle, completely leveled two houses, and left a trail of twisted sheet metal, irrigation pipes, walls and roofs, farm machinery and tree limbs across the county's well-groomed fields.

Aerial tracking revealed the first signs of the tornado five miles southwest of Lazbuddie, where it snatched a dozen or more power poles and scattered a self-propelled irrigation system. The funnel strewed irrigation pipe like drinking straws across fields as it crossed State Highway 214 a mile south of Lazbuddie. It hit two farm homes 1 1/2 miles east of the community on the Hart-Lazbuddie Highway, taking the roof off of one and reducing the other to a heap of burned rubble.

THE TORNADO struck two more farms in Parmer County before invading Castro. It caused heavy damage at the Clayton C. Graef and Milton Bagwell farms and moderate damage at the J. L. Hrabal and Wendell Markley farms. For detailed damage report, see accompanying story.

Twisted metal from Graef's barn was scattered in a path that came within one-fourth of a mile of the Charles Wales home, where an open-front barn was blown away. And debris from the Bagwell farm was dropped in a trail across Mrs. Kay Roberts' land, farmed by Donald Gilreath.

Other farmers along the tornado's path — George Sides, Glen Odum, David Cole, Carl King, Loy Stone — reportedly caught debris from the tornado in their fields.

Width of the tornado's "garbage path" ranged from 50 to 300 yards.

Golf tourney starts Friday

Ninety to 100 golfers are expected to take part this weekend in the Castro County Country Club's Tournament.

GOLFERS will choose their own partners and the two-man teams will play 36 holes — 18 Saturday and 18 Sunday — for low ball honors. Entry fee is $40 per team, and merchandise prizes will be awarded to the first three places in each flight.

Flights will include eight teams each, and flight pairings will be determined by the lowest handicap of the two partners on each team.

Entry deadline is 5 p.m. Friday. Those wishing to enter should contact Bud Posey, club professional, at 647-4502.

Following the 36-hole tournament will be a buffet dinner for all players and their wives at the clubhouse Saturday at 8 p.m.

Activities group to meet Tuesday

The Castro County Activities Committee will meet Tuesday night in the courthouse assembly room, with delegates expected from all the county's organized communities, clubs and organizations.

THE committee will hear a report on Friday night's Roundup Talent Show and will start making plans for the 1970 Castro County Roundup and Old Settlers Reunion, to be held in August.

However, the Activities Committee isn't just for planning the August Roundup," President Melvin Barton said. "It's for county-wide activities throughout the year."

19 enter Miss Dimmitt pageant; proceeds going to DeVaney fund

Dimmitt's Jaycees plan to use their proceeds from the 1970 Miss Dimmitt Pageant to start a fund for Elvon DeVaney, victim of Bright's Disease.

DEVANEY, a long-time Jaycee who was named Dimmitt's "Outstanding Young Man" this year for his civic and youth work, entered Parkland Hospital in Dallas last week to be outfitted and trained for an "artificial kidney" machine.

"Elvon has meant a lot to our community, and the Jaycees have decided they want to start this fund as an expression of our appreciation to him," said Jaycee President Don Nelson. "He will have to use this machine indefinitely, and it's expensive to buy and operate. We're asking the help of all who have benefited from Elvon's unselfish service."

A "DeVaney Emergency Fund" is being started at the First State Bank of Dimmitt, Nelson added.

DEVANEY is expected to be in Parkland Hospital three months. Then, with the use of the machine in his home, he will be able to resume a fairly active life.

All Jaycees are now selling tickets to the Miss Dimmitt Pageant at $2 for adults and $1 for students and children.

The pageant will feature 19 contestants, almost twice as many as last year.

"WE HAVE a group of very talented girls entered this year, and they should put on quite a show," Pageant Chairman Bob Farrer said after entries closed Saturday.

The pageant will be held in DHS auditorium May 2, with "Cow Pokes" cartoonist Ace Reid of Kerrville as the master of ceremonies. Theme of the pageant will be "Pizzazz '70."

The auditorium will be open Saturday afternoon at 1:30 so contestants can rehearse their talent acts informally, Farrer said. Dress rehearsal will be Sunday afternoon, starting at 1:30, and talent eliminations will be held Monday night at 7.

ONLY JUDGES and stage workers will be allowed in the auditorium during the talent eliminations. The talent judges will pick the top acts to perform in the pageant itself, with a separate talent trophy to be awarded to the highest scoring act on pageant night.

Girls entered in the 1970 Miss Dimmitt Pageant are Rita Vick, Marilyn McLeroy, Teena Proffitt, Toni Teague, Trudi Elder, Linda Ellis, Beverly Hill, Jeanne Petty, Vicki Carpenter, Diane Dyer, Sara White, Vicki Winders, Marla Mayfield, Susan Parish, Kathy Merkle, Leisa Dannevik, Cindy Scroggin, Alona Hudson, and Jill Braafladt.

Furniture aimed at young singles

Furniture now come in mini, midi and maxi styles, a size to fit middle-sized, large-sized or tiny living quarters.

BONNY OLSEN, Extension housing and home furnishings sales, says the mini-scaled furniture is suited especially to young single persons who live in minimized apartments. This is one answer for the young single's furniture problems.

Another answer is to buy furniture with more than one use... let one piece do the work of two. Interchangeable furniture permits more flexibility, promotes the uncluttered look and saves the young person money.

Here are some furniture ideas from Mrs. Olsen:

A COMMODE with drawers and drop-down compartment can be used in the living or bedroom. It is interchangeable as a wall chest or bedside stand and can hold books, magazines, records, or shirts and sweaters.

A little table with a gallery on three sides could hold the hall telephone, a living room lamp or items used at bedside.

A wall unit which is finished on all sides can stand free as a room divider and serve as a storage unit to hold books and art objects.

A VERY unusual piece which is a bachelor's special is an ottoman that can be made into a single bed. It has a rattan base in two sections which telescope together so the two cushions stack for use as an ottoman. It converts from seat to bed by means of two locking hooks.

The last item for young single persons is a chest-desk with spacious drawers and a top which opens to disclose a desk with pigeon holes and slide-out writing surface.

Sidney Birkenfeld

NHS lad to go to Boys State

Sidney Birkenfeld will represent Nazareth High School at the 1970 session of Texas Boys State in Austin June 6 to 13.

THE SON of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Birkenfeld of Nazareth, Sidney is now president of the Nazareth Chapter of FFA, has been a class officer for three years, and was voted class favorite as a sophomore. He has played guard for three years and is a member of the Nazareth Catholic Youth Organization.

He will be sponsored by Nazareth American Legion Post 528.

37 area bands competing here

Dimmitt's teenage population has just taken a 3,000-percent jump.

ALL THOSE youths you see today in colorful uniforms are here for the Region I Spring Band Concert and Sight-Reading Contest. They represent 37 bands throughout the Panhandle-Plains.

The annual spring contest started Wednesday morning and will end Thursday afternoon. Each band will perform a 25-minute concert in the DHS auditorium, then will go to the school's band hall for its sight-reading tests.

DHS Band Director Ralph Smith said the concerts are open to the public. Each band is allotted 25 minutes of concert time in the auditorium, and visitors are seated between concerts.

Dimmitts High School's Bobcat Band performed its concert numbers Wednesday morning at 11:30.

Judges will post the bands' individual ratings throughout the day in the DHS foyer.

E. B. Noble is new Boss Lion

City Manager E. B. Noble was elected Tuesday as the new president of the Dimmitt Lions Club.

NOBLE will succeed Lynn Polson as boss Lion.

Elected to serve with Noble during the coming year were Chet Braafladt, first vice-president; Barry Love, second vice-president; Sid Stewart, third vice-president; Doug Proffitt, secretary; Jodie Minnick, treasurer; Earl Parish, Lion tamer; Bob Caddell, tail twister; and Walt Hansen, Bill Williams, W. J. Hill and Charlie White, directors.

Hughes girls' parents visit

Van Earl and Waurayne Hughes met their daughter, Javan, in San Angelo Friday and toured John Glenn Junior High, a school with a new approach in public education and a greater development of each student's abilities. The tour was conducted for the education department of Dallas Baptist College, where Javan is a junior.

MR. AND MRS. Hughes went on to Austin, where they were honor guests at the annual "Old South" celebration held by the Kappa Alpha fraternity. One of the special events was a luncheon Saturday afternoon on the terrace of the Kappa Alpha fraternity house, where the Hughes' daughter, Karyn, was presented as one of the "Thirteen Southern Belles."

The girls were presented wearing dresses typical of the Old South.

Marketing quota expected soon

Marketing quotas for the 1971-72 wheat crop may be announced in April because the Agricultural Act of 1965, as amended, ends with the 1970 crop, Jim Elder, chairman of the Castro County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, said this week.

THE 1965 act suspended marketing quotas for wheat producers only while the act was in effect, Elder said. In the absence of new legislation, wheat programs revert to provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended.

Under the 1938 act, the Secretary of Agriculture must determine before April 15 each year whether or not a national wheat marketing quota should be in effect for the following marketing year — in this case, the 1971 crop.

If the secretary determines that a marketing quota is needed, a referendum of wheat producers would then be necessary before Aug. 1. Marketing quotas must be approved by at least two-thirds of the eligible producers who vote. Quotas would then limit wheat acreage a farmer can plant for market without penalty.

THE LAST time a similar situation arose was in 1965, Elder said. That year the secretary proclaimed a wheat marketing quota referendum on April 14, 1965, but it was delayed by congressional resolutions and the 1965 Agricultural Act became law the following November.

ACT 1 Is Coming!

100-mph winds rips windows, blows down signs and trees

When Friday night's fierce southeast wind gusted to 100 mph, store windows and signs started giving way.

WHIPPED by a concentrated pressure system southwest of Dimmitt, the wind was a prelude to the tornado that slipped northeast across the county later Friday night.

Apparently, Dimmitt was catching the counter-clockwise whirl on the outer fringe of the low. At the same time winds were gusting from 70 to 100 mph in Dimmitt.

Hart was experiencing a breeze of only 20 mph.

Most of the wind damage was done between 8:20 and 8:35 p.m. Friday. Dimmitt Super Market lost two large plate-glass windows, Cobb's Department Store lost two and the Bruegel Shopping Center lost one. All the blown-out windows faced south.

A LARGE evergreen tree that has served as a landmark for years on the courthouse lawn was uprooted by the fierce wind, as was a 40-year-old tree near the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norville Birdwell.

Castro County Grain Co. lost a sign, a signpost at Dimmitt 66, Inc., toppled over and a nearby metal sign was blown out of its frame.

During the same time, small twisters may have been spinning off the same storm system that spawned Friday night's tornado, judging from freak occurrences on two farms near the tornado's path.

AT THE farm home of Fred Bruegel Sr., two chicken houses were flipped and a 2,000-gallon water tank was overturned at about 10 p.m. — an hour before the tornado crossed US 86 three miles west of the Bruegel home.

At the Walter Schilling farm 2 1/2 miles northwest of Dimmitt, a wellhouse was blown away and the irrigation motor was moved off its foundation.

Other farmers in the wind's path lost barns — especially those with open-faced metal barns that faced south and caught the full brunt of nature's attack.

AT Dimmitt High School auditorium, the annual Roundup Talent Show had just started when the violent windstorm hit its peak. But the sponsors decided to go on with the show rather than panic the 300 people in the crowd. Almost half of the out-of-town performers who had entered the talent contest stayed home because of the weather.

Many local residents became concerned and sought shelter when white clouds touched the ground and began drifting through the city and countryside as the wind stayed at a steady 70-80 mph.

Intermittent rain accompanied the driving wind.

THE STORM produced a pair of heroes when Cobb's Department Store's windows blew out.

Jeanette Seely, a part-time employee of the store, and Ann Vandell were driving past when Cobb's windows crashed inward. The two high school girls entered the store through one of the broken windows and quickly moved eight heavy tables of piece goods and several towel tables 20 to 30 feet back into the store to keep the cloth goods from being ruined by the wind and rain.

Miss Seely also notified another store employee of the mishap.

"THOSE two girls had all those tables moved back by the time we got there," said Al Jackson, the store's owner-manager. "Usually, it's hard for a couple of grown men to move those things."

"I never saw two girls accomplish so much," Jackson's wife added.

Prices generally lower this week on eggs and pork

Shoppers this week will find lower egg prices, lower pork price and an abundance of fresh fruits and vegetables in the grocery store.

MOST economically priced produce are apples, oranges, grapefruit, strawberries, cantaloupes, celery, cabbage, carrots, potatoes, asparagus, dry yellow onions, green onions, turnips and mustard greens, according to Extension Consumer Marketing Specialist Gwendolyn Clyatt.

The Texas A&M University specialist adds that grade A large size eggs offer the most economy and quality at the egg counter.

Look for best beef values on arm and blade pot roasts and steaks, ground beef, round steaks and roasts, and beef and calf liver. Pork values include end-cut loin roasts and chops, shoulder roasts and steaks, hams and picnic.

Fryer chickens remain a bargain in most meat departments.

Miss Wilson

June 21 date set

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew H. Wilson of Friona announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Margaret, to Charles Kuntz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kuntz of Dimmitt.

WEDDING vows are to be exchanged Sunday, June 21 at 3 p.m. in the First United Methodist Church of Friona, with all friends of the couple invited.

Miss Wilson and Kuntz are both former students of South Plains College, Levelland. She is now a junior in the Methodist Hospital School of Nursing in Lubbock, and he is a junior government major at Texas Tech.

They plan to make their home in Lubbock and continue their schooling after their marriage.

FHA girls attend state convention

Six Dimmitt High School FHA girls and two sponsors are in Austin this weekend for the state convention of Future Homemakers of America.

LEAVING Wednesday afternoon to attend the convention were Leisa Dannevik, Karen Baldrige, Teresa Underwood, Debbie Hansen, Brenda Seely and Loll Ortiz-Reclat, along with their sponsors, Mrs. Joanne Snider and Mrs. Estella Hottel, DHS home-making teachers.

The convention will begin tonight (Thursday) in Austin Municipal Coliseum, and will end Saturday.

Women

We elected our new officers last week. They are Florene Leinen, president; Jo Ann Roberts, secretary-treasurer; Mary Acker, senior vice-president; Margie McGowan, junior vice-president; Thelma Smith, conductress; Beth Cook, chaplain; and Geraldine Davis, guard.

WE ARE coming to the end of another year, and let's all attend those meetings the second Monday night of each month. We need you!

We completed our year's honor roll requirement, which was a donation to the Health and Happiness Fund. Our Loyalty Day program is coming up May 1 — let's all fly our flags and help keep America safe and beautiful. Installation date will be announced later. Installing officer will be Eupha Mae Griffin of our auxiliary, who is the District 13 president.

Future Homemaker chapters in DHS hold special 'FHA Week' observance

Dimmitt High School's two chapters of Future Homemakers of America held their annual "FHA Week" observance last week with a full slate of activities.

THE SPECIAL activities, usually held during National FHA Week, were postponed a week this year because of schedule conflicts with other school activities, sponsors explained.

Dimmitt High School has two FHA Chapters—Megalai Adelphi (Big Sisters) for junior and senior girls, sponsored by Mrs. Joanne Snider; and Mikrai Adelphi (Little Sisters) for sophomore and freshman girls, sponsored by Mrs. Estella Hottel. Both chapters joined together for FHA Week activities.

THE girls started the week by attending Sunday morning worship services together at the First United Methodist Church. Each year during FHA Week the girls attend a different church en masse.

MONDAY WAS "Red and White Day," designating the chapter's chosen colors, and the girls were required to wear dresses in red and white. Those who forgot had to wear ribbon-tied eggs around their necks.

Monday also started "Twirp Week," in which dating customs were reversed. Girls had to get licenses to talk to boys, and any girl caught talking to a fellow without her license pinned to her clothing was fined 10 cents for each infraction. "Twirp Week" climaxed Friday night with the girls asking boys for dates, picking them up and paying the way.

The apple sauce story

By IRENE KEATING
Home Demonstration Agent

Mesdames Nell Ingram, Bucna Lust, Oneida Hutto, Rachel Cleaver, Bobbie Damron and I attended the District I Texas Home Demonstration Association meeting in Hereford last Thursday. We had a very interesting meeting and were very inspired by the talks.

APRIL has been declared Apple Sauce Month. Apple sauce, as you probably know, is made from a carefully controlled blend of two to five varieties of choice cooking apples.

We have processing plants now in 37 states, located in four principal regions: (1) The Appalachian area, embracing Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland and southern Pennsylvania; (2) Western New York State; (3) The Sebastopol and Watsonville districts of California; and (4) Michigan.

Also growing in importance as a processing area is the Northwest, which is known for its fresh fruit.

APPLESAUCE, as you know, adds moisture and texture to breads, stuffings and a variety of cakes. It has a sweet, tangy flavor that makes it a natural ingredient or accompaniment to many meat, vegetable, salad and relish recipes.

What you may not realize is that the apple itself, although dating back some 2,000 years, was not found on the North American continent by early voyagers. Colonists brought apple seeds with them, though, and with soil and climate that complemented the seeds, apple trees and crops flourished.

Processed apple products have been a part of the American grocery store food scene for more than 50 years. Here are some good applesauce recipes:

FUDGY APPLESAUCE CAKE
One third cup softened shortening, butter or margarine
1 cup sugar
2 eggs
1 cup unsifted flour
One third cup cocoa
1/2 teaspoon soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon allspice
1/2 cup chopped nuts
1 cup applesauce
1/4 cup milk

Beat fat and sugar together until creamy. Beat in eggs. Combine dry ingredients and mix well. Add nuts. Add dry ingredients to creamy mixture with the applesauce and milk. Stir until blended. Pour into a greased nine inch square baking pan.

Bake at 350 degrees about 45 to 50 minutes, or until surface is firm when touched lightly. Cool before cutting.

APPLESAUCE CAKE
One third cup softened shortening, butter or margarine
1 and one third cup sugar
1 egg
1 and two thirds cup flour
1 tablespoon baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon cloves
1/2 teaspoon allspice
1 and one third cups applesauce
two thirds cup raisins
one third cup chopped nuts

Beat fat and sugar until creamy and fluffy. Beat in the egg thoroughly. Mix dry ingredients together. Stir dry ingredients into creamy mixture alternately with applesauce until well blended. Stir in raisins and nuts. Pour batter into a greased and floured 9 inch square pan, and bake at 350 degrees for 50 minutes. If desired, sift a tablespoon of confectioner's sugar on top of warm cake.

APPLESAUCE DROP COOKIES
(5 dozen)
1/2 cup softened shortening, or margarine
1 cup sugar
1 egg
1 cup unsifted flour
1 tablespoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon cloves
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1 cup applesauce
1 cup raisins
1 3/4 cups quick rolled oats

Mix thoroughly and drop by teaspoonfuls onto greased baking sheet. Bake at 375 degrees about 15 minutes, or until lightly browned.
