with Mrs. C. O. Terrell as president.

The periument history of the club perfectly describes the organization of the local unit. The past but ever-looking forward to the future.

"The club itself came into exist ence because of the dynamically new era in the history of Ranger. A quiet little village had suddenly become an exciting City of Flowing Gold. The minds of men became more alert and active in dealing and intermingling with new and shrewd minds coming from every part of the country. Likewise the women who had always sought the cultural things of life were more active in seeking an outlet for their expression of idealization of the real. "So in the epoch of changing thought, the New Era Club was ister of the previously organized 1920 Club.

Mrs. M. H. Hagaman and Mrs. O. L. Phillips especially, brought about the organization of the New Era Club when they began to see that their limited membership of 35 would not accompate all the women of Ranger who were seeking a way to study for intellectual culture, for social enjoyment, (Continued on Page Two)
