LAKE LEON'S
BIRTHPLACE
A Tribute To Ranger's
Progressive Thinking

37TH YEAR

PRICE FIVE CENTS

★ Column One ★

A man called a dozen of his creditors together to tell them that he was about to go into bankruptcy.

"I owe you over a hundred thousand dollars," he said, "and my assets aren't enough to pay you five cents on the dollar. So I guess you'll have to forget about what I owe you unless (with a feeble smile) you want to cut me up and divide me."

"Say, I move we do it," one creditor cried. "I'd like to have his gall."

Virgil Moore who just returned to edit the Eastland Telegram from Hereford, where he held a similar job for the past year, came back with the fury of one of the sand storms that followed him into the Eastland County area.

He had hardly been back at his job a week when he wrote Sunday, "We hate to take this dig at Ranger, especially since the Times editor, Lee Harr, was kind enough not to complain about the Telegram's new slogan, 'Home of Lake Leon.' But we just can't pass this up. Why, Editor Harr, were the mighty Bulldogs not entered in the District track meet? Or do you folks just enter the sporting events you figure you can win?"

"Two will get you one we hear something about football after that."

Moore doesn't really have a chip on his shoulder just over the fact that Ranger has no track squad. It goes back to sometime last year when sign boards leading into Eastland began displaying the "Home of Lake Leon" slogan, at which time we printed a few disparaging remarks over the affair. What Eastland wants the world to know is that they conceived and single handedly built the lake.

But not so. This has prompted the slogan "Birthplace of Lake Leon" at the top right hand corner of the Times.

The Telegram has, in the past year taken their wrath on The Times. The Telegram is a graphic tab on the page of Eastland. For instance, when we made these remarks over the "Home of Lake Leon" affair, deep wells were heard all over Eastland County from the Eastland direction.

The situation has boiled for nearly a year and now has spewed into the open. If the writing had been published while Moore was still in the saddle in Eastland, we would have heard the repercussions sooner. However, the real dig in Moore's most recent writing is hidden from only those who know and understand Moore best.

His article possibly was incited through the Chamber of Commerce.

However, we feel that we can stand his journalistic onslaught, as we believe that we adequately copied with Norman Wright, also of the Telegram, last year. The odd part was that we drew support from Jerry Clarke down in Gorman, who suddenly jumped in to the picture from the sidelines attacking Wright with his might.

In fact since these running arguments have been in progress, both Moore and Wright have their first time to draw support from outside interests.

A few months ago, Royce Phillips who we associate with Phillips Transport Co., purchased a beautiful pair of seven-power "Nighthawk" binoculars. They adequately reproduce their name for with just the slightest glow of light, the binoculars pick up objects for miles off even on the darkest nights. Of course, they are also effective in the daytime.

But the point is that when he first noticed his new glasses, they brought "ohs and ahs" from people who he showed them to.

In fact he was so concerned with their delight over the glasses that he simply stated, "I'll get you a pair."

A new pair, just like the ones he displayed are, now in possession of the police department, an outright gift from Phillips.

A wave of hub-cap stealing has grown through the city within the last two weeks. No particular type seems to be in demand any more than others, though these taken recently were off fairly new cars.

Police have been unable to apprehend anyone during the actual theft. However, the police problem of having so much territory for one patrol car to cover still exists.

It is only a simple matter for the thief to wait until the patrol car crosses the tracks in the opposite direction from which they have spotted a prospective automobile.

By the time the police car gets (Continued on Page Two)

Dr. Jolly received a second honor, when he was installed as president of the society for the coming year. Other officers installed are Dr. Ted Ellinger, vice president, Abilene, and Dr. Grady Jolly, secretary-treasurer, Abilene.

Football Weather?

Rangers To Rebuild In Spring Training

With football as scientific as it has become today and with so much responsibility shifted from the coach to the quarterback Ranger Junior College football fans have a two-halfback problem. For there, J. D. Hanson, one of the fastest cornerbacks in the entire Pioneer Conference, Wood, who also possesses an abundance of speed, powerful Harold McCurry will be vying for starting positions.

Paving Finished On Ranger-Gorman Road

The 3 1/2 mile link of Farm Road between Ranger and Gorman has been completed and is ready for use, R. V. Galloway, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, said today.

Along with the 3 1/2 mile stretch, finishing touches are also being added to the 2 1/2 miles of Farm Road 571. Rolling equipment is still settling the paving base, but the road has been opened, according to Galloway.

The stretch of highway, which practically opens a new route to Gorman, DeLeon and that area is reached at the end of Blundell Street and goes through Cheaney, Alameda and into Gorman.

Joe Jones, a 225-pound Ranger product seems certain to fill one of the vacant tackle holes, but the graduation of both Bill McCurry and Joe Rosentritt have left one stall open.

Ends life halfbacks are fairly plentiful with Buddy Hightower, Jim Mangun and Don Mitchell returning for service, but then again at guard replacements will be sought for both starting positions.

Coch Hestand summed up the two-week spring training period like this, "We will stress the fundamental skills of football such as blocking, tackling, etc., and physical condition. We will be trying to develop more of a forward pass offense to supplement the split-T running attack."

Probably one of the traits sought most in the quarterback who gets the starting call next fall will be his passing abilities, one of the Rangers' biggest weaknesses during the past season.

With a large bevy of receivers on the field, the Rangers' passing attack was among the poorest in the league.

Odell Christian Free On Bond
Odell Christian, Fort Worth Negro who is charged with assaulting an elderly Ranger Negro woman, was free on $1500 bond Tuesday.

Christian made bond late Monday night in an appearance before Justice of the Peace J. M. Boggs. He is expected to go before the Grand Jury Wednesday.

Generally speaking, a person placed in jail stays pretty much out of trouble, but such is not the case of three DeLeon men and a fourth man from Eastland who were placed in the Ranger elik shortly after midnight Monday morning for being drunk in the city.

After the four were jailed, they attempted to effect a jail break by tearing huge portions out of the jail's ceiling. Standing on top of the bunk in the cells, the four pulled out sections of tin from the ceiling.

Radio operator Charlie Isbell heard the group involved in their "carpentry work" and summoned patrolman Don Indler who herded the group into individual cells for the rest of the night.

Other than the minor charges, now each of the group faces "destruction of private property" charges and driver of the car will be charged with driving while intoxicated.

WSCS of First Methodist Met Mon. For Mission Study on Peace

Members of the WSCS of the First Methodist Church met April 16 at the church for the fourth session on the mission study on peace.

Mrs. A. W. Brazda, president, presided over the short business meeting and led the opening prayer.

Mrs. Mike Alexander had charge of the program on "United Nations". Mrs. W. M. Brown gave the devotional on "Festival Faith". The scripture was taken from the Old Testament.

After the devotional the group sang, "The Kingdom is Coming." Rev. Bruce Weaver added to the interest of the program by showing slides and giving descriptions of work being done by the United Nations, which is known as "Technical Assistance." Fifty-one nations agreed upon a cooperative effort toward a future where good neighbors believe in the dignity and worth of a human being, would live together in peace, achieving social progress and better standard life in larger freedom. The first assembly of the new organization has been held—specialized agencies established fight ancient enemies of man which are, ignorance, hunger, and insecurity.

The president dismissed the group with prayer.

Robin Group Has Meeting

The Robin Group of the Blue Birds met Monday in the Methodist Church. The meeting was opened with a "Songfest" which was led by Mrs. Richard Bonney and Bill Creager.

During the meeting plans were made for a puppet show which is to be held in the near future.

Refreshments of punch and brownies were served to the following: Sara Cooper, Kathy Covington, Miriam Poyner, Barbara Dawson, Dana Alexander, Jan Watkins, Barbara Ann Isabelle, Pat Townsend, and the leaders, Mrs. W. H. Clem and Mrs. C. E. May, Jr.

Revival At First Baptist Church Continues

Evangelist Freddie Gage continues to bring the challenging message of "Salvation by Grace" in both morning and evening messages in the First Baptist Church.

Seventeen united with the church Sunday, six upon profession of faith and baptism and eleven by letter. Monday night two by profession and baptism and two by letter.

Sunday night two men surrendered for special service. Glenn Clifton, for the ministry, and J. B. Houghton, Sr. for special service. The evening services are at 7:30 p.m. with Singer Jimmy Shelton singing and directing the music. His beautiful baritone - tenor voice is thrilling all who hear him sing.

People have come from out of the city to hear this famous evangelist from: Breckenridge, Cisco, Eastland, Gorman, Cross Plains, Rising Star, Carbon, Caddo, and many surrounding communities.

Freddie believes and preaches the same messages that Jesus gave in the New Testament. Messages of repentance, confession, regeneration, and salvation, sanctification, the new birth. He believes as the Bible teaches that hell is a real place for those who are not saved by the atoning death of Jesus who was crucified on Calvary's cross in order that those who came unto him with humble and repentant hearts might have the power of God upon them to change, transform, and renew the old sinful soul.

There is a welcome for all and a request from all the Christian people in our city to pray that God will pour out his power to convict and convince the people of our city that sin is real, damning and destructive. That Jesus is the light of the world, and the power of God unto salvation.

The nursery is open for little ones. Morning services are at 7 a.m. with breakfast being served and the services closing before 8 a.m.

Speaking on the Subject of Quality—
... it is always an appreciative compliment when so many of our customers tell us they like our abstracts. They must for many of them have been doing business with us for more than 33 years, and still are. There is no secret attached to this expression of confidence. A quality product produces confidence. And we are proud that we have both—the confidence of a host of customers and a quality product to sell them.

AS IT LOOKS FROM HERE

By OMAR BURLESON

WASHINGTON, D.C.—A number of counties and towns in the 17th Congressional District are this year celebrating their 75th Anniversary. Among them are Abilene and Taylor County, Mesquite, Cisco and my home town of Anson, and there may be others. Comanche County is celebrating its centenary, and Erath County and Stephenville celebrated their first hundred years in 1954.

It will be a year of rejoicing in the achievements of the pioneers of a passing era in American history. It has been an era of frontiers, of Indian wars, of log houses, churches in the wilderness, of new towns, the coming of railroads and the passing of the stage coach. All these things and much more.

Remembering these things of the past should give us a greater appreciation of the present and future. We only need to look about us to see new schools, wide and straight highways, better services of all kinds, to know that we have made rapid but sustained progress. Perhaps we have neglected some things also; perhaps we have neglected to treat the soil better and to conserve our natural resources, which have given us life to pursue these other things, which have brought us more comfort, more conveniences, and better living generally.

On the occasion of these anniversaries we might remember Solomon's admonition: "Remove not the ancient landmarks which thy fathers have set." We need to sip again at the fountain of inspiration which results from the vision, selflessness, spirit of adventure and accomplishments all associated with the pioneering of the Western frontier. At the same time, we should leave our own landmark, and none could be better than to conserve the land for future generations. It would be a sorry landmark indeed to leave gullies, waterless streams, and dissipated soil.

We have come a long way since our grandparents' days in West Texas. Particularly has rural life been improved, according to these statistics: There are 111 thousand farms in Texas having telephones, 269 thousand have electricity, 80 thousand have television, 200 thousand have running water, 93 thousand have home freezers. In spite of these encouraging figures, people are leaving the farm. The instability of the farm economy is bound to be a principal reason. Much sicker civilizations than ourselves in the process of being eliminated from its national life.

Republican Congressman Leslie Arends of Illinois came up with this one recently, entitled "A Congressman's Lament."

"Among life's dying embers, These are my regrets: When I'm right no one remembers, When I'm wrong no one forgets."

Annual Exposition Power Show Set May 3-5

A wonderland of engineering and science marvels will be shown at the University of Texas' annual Exposition and Power Show May 3-5.

The theme of this year's extravaganza will be "Automation Through Engineering." Visitors will see baffling stunts and educational displays of latest technological progress, including models of launching sites for space rockets. Other displays will include clouds seeded to produce rain, an artificial tornado which whirls across a miniature countryside, and an automatic cigarette lighter which actually lights and puffs a cigarette and offers it to the bystander.

Power show visitors may match wits with an electronic tic-tac-toe wizard, lift a heavy weight merely by moving their hands near a motor, and see hundreds of other entertaining and enlightening wonders of science.

The exhibits will be displayed Friday, May 4, from 6 to 10 p.m. at various University buildings. Guide service and maps will be available to visitors unfamiliar with the campus.

JACK FARRELL, MGR. FORT WORTH, TEXAS

Margaret Ann Bourland Weds Robert Hallowell

Mrs. Robert Glenn Hollowell

Wedding vows were read for Margaret Ann Bourland and Robert Glenn Hollowell, both of Abilene, Sunday, April 15, in the Central Presbyterian Church in Abilene at 3 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. (Leon) Bourland of Eastland and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Glenn A. Hollowell of Abilene.

Dr. Paul Southern, head of the Bible Department at Abilene Christian College and minister of the 16th and Vine Streets Church of Christ in Abilene, read the double ring ceremony before a white altar centered with a white wrought iron prayer bench. Bouquets of white gladioli and stock interspersed with candelabra burning white cathedral tapers formed a semi-circle around the altar. White satin bows and plumes marked the family pews.

Mrs. Gordon Weir was organist and Mrs. Dan Sorrells sang "Where Ere You Walk" by Handel and "Consecration" by Manney.

David Hunt of Dallas was best man and Fern Hart of Abilene served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Russell Lee of Midland and Clara Beth Coats of Abilene. Eleanor Taggart of Abilene and Richard Bourland, brother of the bride, lighted candles.

James K. Graham of Austin and Abilene and Sidney Howe of Abilene were ushers and Evan Duval of Lubbock and Bill Hollowell of New Orleans, Louisiana, brother of the groom were groomsmen.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a bridal gown of Chantilly lace and tulle over satin which extended in chapel train. The bodice was styled with lace scallops forming a portrait neckline. Double rows of tulle ruffles were around the bottom of the bouffant skirt. Accents were alternating rows of lace and tulle ruffles at the sides and front of the skirt.

Her veil of imported illusion was gathered to a semi-shell embellished with iridescent sequins and seed pearls. She carried a cascade of white camellias intertwined with strands of English ivy. She wore blue garters borrowed from Melbagen Club of Abilene and carried a handkerchief belonging to Mrs. E. D. DeLafosse, grandmother of the bridegroom.

Miss Hart wore a pale blue sleeveless waltz length dress of organza over taffeta cummerbund formed an empire waistline and the bodice had a scoop neckline. A bow of taffeta was attached to the cummerbund in back. Her headpiece was a circle of matching net with pale blue chenille dots forming a crown and she carried a crescent of orchid gladioli. Her satin shoes matched her dress.

Mrs. Lee and Miss Coats wore dresses identical to Miss Hart's with orchid matching headpieces and satin shoes.

Miss Taggart wore a white cotton dress with neat pink floral print, made with a scooped neckline. Her flowers were a wristlet of pink gladioli.

Mrs. Bourland, mother of the bride, wore a pink linen sheath dress with matching lace jacket with medallions dotted in rhinestones with white accessories. Her hat was a pink straw pillbox trimmed with deep pink velvet.

Mrs. Hollowell, mother of the groom, wore a powder blue linen and lace sheath dress with all matching blue accessories. Her shell hat of blue straw was decorated with blue beads and clear sequins. Both the mothers wore corsages of cattleya orchids.

The bride's table was covered with white net and lace over satin. A formal arrangement of white stock and carnations in a silver epergne centered the table, appointed in silver. White tapers burned in silver candelabra on the table. Bouquets of white gladioli and stock were used to decorate the entertaining room.

The ring wedding cake was decorated by the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. DeLafosse.

Betty McDermott poured punch and Dorothy Daugherty served the cake at the bride's table.

Guests were registered by Mrs. Andrew Werner. Others in the house party were Molly Brock, Miss Taggart and Betty Sue Bourland of Eastland, sister of the bride.

For a wedding trip to Mexico City, the bride traveled in a melon-red three piece ensemble, including a straight skirt, boxy jacket with large square collar and white blouse, polka dotted in melon red. Her cartwheel hat was white lace. She wore white accessories and a corsage from her bridal bouquet.

After April 29, they will be at home at 1218 Buccanee Dr.

The bride is employed in the woman's department of The Abilene Reporter-News. She is a member of the Business and Professional Women's Club, Abilene Community Theater and American Association of University Women.

She was graduated from Texas Technological College with a bachelor of arts degree in journalism, and Eastland High School.

Hollowell is associated with Tippet & Gee, consulting engineers. He was graduated from Texas A&M College with a bachelor of science degree in mechanical engineering. He was graduated from Abilene High School in 1945. Serving for 26 months in the Army as a first lieutenant, he spent a year's tour of duty in Europe.

The rehearsal dinner was hosted Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. John Ward, 1397 Elmwood Dr., uncle and aunt of the bridegroom. The couple presented gifts to wedding attendants.

Assisting in serving at the rehearsal dinner were Mrs. L. S. Hollowell, Mrs. L. S. Hollowell Jr. of Quannah, aunt of the bridegroom, Mrs. E. W. Hollowell, aunt of the bridegroom, Mrs. DeLafosse, Mrs. C. T. DeLafosse of Borger, aunt of the bridegroom.

The bride was feted at a pre-nuptial gift party in Eastland, hosted by Mrs. Lee Horn, Mrs. W. E. Brashier, Mrs. M. P. Herring, Mrs. Gerald Wingate and Mrs. W. W. Walters Sr., in the Horn home.

Mrs. James Sherrill and Mrs. Jack Horn served and Betty Sue Bourland registered guests. A miniature bridal couple under an arch, garlanded with blue, pink and white carnations centered the refreshment table. Appointments were silver and crystal. Pink tapers lighted the table.

Mrs. Harold A. MacDougall and her daughter, Nancy McMeans of Abilene honored Mrs. Hollowell with a breakfast March 10 at Richard's restaurant in Abilene. Those from Eastland attending were the bride's mother, Mrs. Leon Bourland and her sister Betty Bourland.

March 17, Mr. and Mrs. Hollowell were entertained with a couples' party in Abilene. Molly Brock and Martha Hobgood were hostesses for the party which was carried out with a St. Patrick's Day theme.

A gift tea in the Garden Rooms of the Windsor Hotel in Abilene, April 3 complimented Mrs. Hollowell. Hosts were Mrs. George Callihan, Mrs. Millard Heath, Mrs. Bill Smith, Eleanor Taggart and Fern Hart. Mrs. Bourland, mother of the bride, and Betty Bourland, sister of the bride assisted in the receiving line.

The bride was honored with a "press conference" April 7 in the Abilene Woman's Club. Hostesses were Kathryn Duff, Clara Beth Coats, Dorothy Daugherty, Myrtle Fowler, Martha Hobgood and Betty McDermott, staff members of the Abilene Reporter-News.

Mrs. F. B. Altman honored Mrs. Hollowell with a luncheon in her home in Abilene March 21. The hosts presented the honoree with hand embroidered madeira linen pillow cases.

Speaking on the Subject of Quality—

... it is always an appreciative compliment when so many of our customers tell us they like our abstracts. They must for many of them have been doing business with us for more than 33 years, and still are. There is no secret attached to this expression of confidence. A quality product produces confidence.
