

Eastland County Plans Super Country Club Layout

Plans to build the new Lone Cedar Country Club as a county-wide project at Lake Leon were called "one of Texas' most ambitious country club projects" Sunday by Jim Trinkle, Fort Worth Star-Telegram sports writer.

Trinkle made the statement in a featured story under a three-column headline in Sunday's Star-Telegram. His story follows:

"If present plans jell, Eastland County's Lake Leon will be the backdrop for one of Texas' most ambitious country club projects this fall.

"On gently rolling woodland hard by the picturesque lake, Eastland County sports enthusiasts have bought 129 acres to build a dream on.

"Only it isn't a dream any more.

"We were told we couldn't build a golf course and clubhouse on Lake Leon," says Oil Operator Jack Chamberlain, "so we're going right ahead with our plans."

"Construction of the Lone Cedar Country Club clubhouse will begin in October. The complete building program has been outlined over a five-year span but depending on growing county enthusiasm, may be finished in half that time.

"After the clubhouse is completed, men and machines will turn to the rest of the project, the golf course, swimming pool, boat docks, gun club, tennis courts and duck blinds ("one of the finest duck landings in West Texas"), says Neil Day of Eastland. "Lone Cedar School used to be an old landmark in Eastland County, thus the club's name. It will be located off Lone Cedar Road.

"The original plan had its inception in a holding company of 62 recreation - bent Eastland County citizens - 20 each from Eastland and Ranger, 10 apiece from Cisco and Gorman and two from Strawn.

"From the first our plans were to go first class," says Dr. Jim Whittington, "and we've kept that as our target. Our aim is to have one of West Texas' finest courses. How can we miss?"

"The site was a natural. Lake Leon is a beautiful lake, seven miles long and three miles wide at its extremities.

"First the land was bought, then a right of way through which to build a one-mile road to the property. The road was built.

"An Abilene engineering firm was called in and aerial photographs made of the terrain. Specialists planned the club and laid out the course.

"The $150,000 clubhouse will look to the southeast across the lake, facing into the prevailing wind. Four thousand feet of the club property skirts the lake and three of the holes on the proposed 18-hole course are on the lake.

"The course will play 6,394 yards and carry a par of 71. The land is well timbered with oak, mesquite and live oak trees.

"Some day," one spokesman said this week, "if Ranger, Cisco, and Eastland will pool resources for one big invitational golf tournament instead of the three separate events they have now, we can draw one of the best amateur fields in Texas to one of the best tournaments in the state."

"The club is only minutes away from Eastland, Ranger, Gorman, Cisco and Strawn. The latter city is the farthest at 16 1/2 miles.

"Golf isn't the main attraction. That's why all other sports facilities are receiving equal attention.

"We know Eastland County, to date, has had inadequate recreational attractions for the young people," said Jack Chamberlain Jr., "and many have been leaving after finishing school.

"With this club available to members and families, there will be more incentive to stay. The country's future rides on its youngsters."

"And with Eastland County's forward-thinking citizens running interference for the youngsters, the future looks good."

From the Quill of Bill

Eastland County's super layout, when completed, will be something to behold.

The persons responsible for the whole deal can be well proud of what they have accomplished once the "dream" has come true. It'll be one of the best things which ever happened to Eastland County. Citizens, 20 from Ranger and Eastland, 10 from Cisco and Gorman, two from Strawn, first had the brainstrom. Now it has actually become a reality.

The club will be called the Lone Cedar Country Club. Construction of the clubhouse is slated to begin in October, and present estimates figure the layout to be completed in five years. However, if enthusiasm continues to grow, it'll be ready in half that time.

The site is a natural. Lake Leon, another Eastland County "dream come true," is a perfect location. One can't find a better one.

A one mile road to the property, which has already been purchased, is completed. Engineers then went to work and specialists planned the course.

The clubhouse itself will be a dilly. Present plans call for a $150,000 building which will face southeast. A big chunk of the club property skirts the lake. Three holes are on the lake. The course is 18 holes.

Par on the 6,394 yard course will be 71, a challenge to anyone. Timber won't be scarce either.

The mutual distance away from all towns involved makes it perfect. Strawn is the farthest, and it's just a hop, skip and a jump from there.

Officials aren't going head over heels for golf either. A swimming pool, boat docks, a gun club, tennis courts, and a duck blind for one of the finest duck landings in West Texas will be built and organized.

Quite a deal, huh?

The world could use more tough old birds like the retired British colonel who was seated in his usual chair at a London club, listening with growing irritation to the boastful reminiscences of a group of ex-RAF pilots. "It's all very well for you whippersnappers to talk," he rumbled finally, "but your show was child's play compared to the Boer War. The hot sun beating at your brain; the sand burning up your feet; the Fuzzy-Wuzzies attacking you night and day. Why, in one day alone, I had to hand-to-hand encounter with ten of the blighters. Killed eight of them. The other two impaled me with a spear through my chest to a rubber tree. Hung there for three days."

"One of the pilots said politely, 'Gad, sir, that must have been painful.'"

"Not particularly," answered the colonel. "Only when I laughed."

There's an old tale up in the Panhandle about the pig that swallowed a bottle of nitroglycerin. He rubbed against a building and caused an explosion that flattened four city blocks. "It sure was upsetting," mourned the pig owner. "For a couple of days we had a mighty sick pig on our hands."

The rain, it seems, has fizzled out.

After the more than two-inch frog strangler which drenched Ranger (not doing too much good, I may say), it's tried a couple of times. Each time it rained enough to get the ground wet.

Every time it got to coming down good it quit.

We'd like to see Lake Leon full just once; up in the Panhandle they don't know what rain looks like—only snow.

Last winter when 29 inches of the white stuff covered Hereford, the paper carriers were all snowed in. The subscribers, it looked like, would have to read their papers a little later than usual.

But the industrious boss, the news editor, the advertising manager, and this writer thought the combined efforts of the whole staff would get the papers out. (Continued on Page Two)

All-Stars Slam Graham

The stout pitching arm of Dean Richey and booming bats meant victory at last for a determined Ranger Little League nine in the Little League playoffs at Olney. The Ranger crew had been turned away without a victory in last year's playoffs, but they were not to be denied this year. Their 16-7 win over Graham came after Breckenridge had eased by Olney, on the strength of a one-inning outburst.

Despite the seven Graham runs, Ranger moundsman Dean Richey was touched for only five bingles. After a shaky first inning, he allowed only two base hits. He issued only three bases on balls while going the distance.

Graham used three twirlers in a vain effort to silence the Ranger bats. But Ranger boomed out twelve base hits, four of them for extra bases.

The Ranger bunch will clash with Cisco, who drew a first round bye, tonight (Tuesday). Ranger managers Bradshaw and Garrett went not decided on their mound choice for the contest.

Things indeed looked dim for Ranger in the top of the first inning. This was the only inning which saw Graham put together more than one of their five base hits. After Jimmy Riley was out on a soft liner to shortstop Billy Johnson, Jim Bob Bennett went to first on a walk. Doug Quinn lashed out a single. Buddy Gresham followed with another base hit to score Bennett with the first run of the game. Quinn raced home with the second Graham lally when Jimmy Perneck grounded to Billy Johnson. Gresham taking second. Russell Reed delivered a double to send Gresham home with the third Ranger run.

Richey settled down, twirling consistent baseball from then on. He yielded two runs in the third and fourth innings but got out of the innings with less damage than expected.

County Promises Aid To Firemen

A $250 a month appropriation for the five fire departments in Eastland County was approved Monday by Eastland County Commissioners.

Approval came after representatives of the five departments met with the Court and asked financial aid to help fight fires in rural areas. The Court, on a motion by J. M. Bennett, voted to give each department $50 a month for the next three months. At the end of that time, the Court will try to work out a permanent solution, the fire fighters were assured.

Fire Chief Billy Jack Johnson represented Eastland at the meeting; Fire Chief Charlie D. Isbell represented Ranger; Fire Chief Bill Burton, Rising Star; Fire Chief J. D. Thompson, Gorman; and Fire Chief L. E. Sublett, Cisco.

Johnson served as spokesman for the group. He pointed out that so far this year the five departments have made 42 rural calls.

"Citizens of the five towns have had to pay the cost of this protection," he asserted, "through city taxes." He went on to say that he realized that getting money was a problem for the county, "but the city has the same problem."

Johnson said that Eastland alone has spent over $9000 this year on fire protection. Commissioners said they realized the problem the firemen faced, and suggested the three month plan since the "next three months will be the worst three months of the year." Representatives of the five departments all voiced appreciation for the appropriation, but all said a permanent solution needed to be reached. Commissioners pointed out that the county's general fund is low and that unless the reallocation amendment which is to be voted on in November is passed, "we don't know where we would get the money."

Also meeting with the Court was J. Swadon of Meridian. He is a specialist in repairing and refinishing marble, and offered to rework all of the marble inside the courthouse for just under $2000. Commissioners voted to take the offer under study and give an answer at their next meeting.

All commissioners, except Henry Carter, were present for the regular Court meeting.

Today Is Last Day To Vote Absentee

Today is the last day to vote absentee in the first primary election. County Clerk Johnson Smith said that some 150 ballots had been mailed out so far. All must be returned by noon Saturday.

That compares to about 100 absentee voters two years ago and 280 in the last presidential election. Smith said he expected the number to swell to about 200 before the day is over, and said he "would be available" anytime until the midnight deadline.

Like everywhere in the State, the political picture has taken the front this year. Candidates were still busy Tuesday trying to stir up interest, which has lagged considerably here.

Times publisher Joe Dennis announced today that the paper would be printed late Saturday night and delivered Sunday morning so that complete results of the county and state races can be given. The big election board will again be up on the south side of the square in Eastland.

Observers were pointing out

Texas Electric Top Executives To Visit Here

A dinner and meeting will be held by top executives of Texas Electric Service Company in Eastland in the conference room of the Texas Electric Building Tuesday night, Frank Sayre, district manager, announced today.

On the annual tour of the entire system are J. B. Thomas, president; R. K. Hanger, Emory Cantey, Beeman Fisher, W. P. Portwood, F. W. Rogers, G. W. Bean, C. W. Goue, O. G. Carlson, R. W. Seip, W. D. Maddrey, O. S. Hockaday, W. E. Payne, R. B. Hulsey, W. H. Harrison, Vance Gillmore, L. M. Curry and D. E. Luckey.

The group will visit the Leon Plant and offices in Eastland, Ranger, DeLeon, Gorman, Graham, and Breckenridge, according to Sayre.

The district manager will be in charge of the dinner. On the program for addresses are President Thomas, Sayre and others from the Eastland office.

Following the inspection of facilities in this district, the executive group will visit the Wichita Falls District next week.

"WATERFRONT" STAR HEADING THIS WAY — Preston Foster, seen by 11,000,000 viewers each week in the nation's No. 1 TV film series, "Waterfront", will be a featured attraction, in person, at the Heart of Texas Fair rodeo in Waco, Sept. 29-Oct. 5. "Waterfront" adventures of a tough captain, is a favorite with all members of the family. Foster is famous also for his Westerns and other motion pictures. Eddie Dean, movie-radio-TV recording star, also will appear in person at the H.O.T. rodeo.

Monday Services For Mr. Phillips

Services for O. L. Phillips, a former resident of Ranger, were held Monday at 10 a. m. Mr. Phillips passed away Friday, July 20, in Tulsa, Okla.

For many years Mr. Phillips was in the drug business in Ranger and later was associated with the West Texas Hospital.

He is survived by two sons, Jimmie of Tulsa, Okla., and Dick of California, and four grandchildren.

The Rev. Herman Boyd, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Ranger was in charge of funeral services. Pallbearers were Bob Earnest, James Rawliff, Earl Conner Jr., Charley Hamilton, Leslie Hagaman, and John Bates.

Holmes Favors Legalized Racing And Intergration

(Editor's Note: This is the sixth and last of a series of articles written by the candidates for governor for this newspaper.)

By J. J. HOLMES

My friends, I want to evaluate the candidates in this governor's race. One of the candidates has had a government job for some years, of which he was voted into by the people of Texas. Now he is leading to be brought back to Texas. What?

One other candidate has been put up by a certain group three times and they have about three million dollars invested in him to date. Now do you want that crowd to have a good investment, or do you want to rid this state of crooked politics. Two of the candidates are new at the game and I know not what they are mixed up in. One candidate was governor and senator at one time. His record speaks for itself.

The only man in this race to vote for is J. J. Holmes. This is my second try, and I have the solution for most of our troubles. I want to bring new people to this (Continued on Page Two) them the confidence they needed for the victory. They trailed only briefly one time throughout the entire contest.

To lead off the first Terry Townzen cracked a single and took second when the ball was bobbled in left field. Bobby Koenig gave Ranger their first run when he singled Townzen home. Billy Johnson and Charley Ferguson both walked to load the bases before Dean Richey struck out. A walk forced in a run, and Teddy Neeley drove in another with a base hit.

Neither team was able to count in the second, but Graham recaptured the lead in the top of the third with a pair of runs. Ranger third baseman Terry Townzen turned in the fielding gem of the night on Buddy Gresham's hard smash in this inning, but Townzen's throw sailed over first baseman Joe Barker's head. Following Gresham, Jimmy Pernock hit another to Townzen, which he fielded and this time threw into right field trying to get Gresham at second. Gresham went in to score. Two more errors, one on pitcher Dean Richey and the other on first baseman Barker, sent Pernock home.

That was it for Graham. Two Ranger outbursts put the lead well out of reach. The first of these outbursts came in the bottom of the third when seven runs crossed. Charley Ferguson walked to lead off the inning. Teddy Neeley also walked behind him. Teddy Neeley's single loaded the bases. Then catcher David Webb and second baseman Richard Cosby clouted back to back singles for two runs. Neeley was forced at home on Joe Barker's grounder, but the bases remained loaded. Townzen forced in the third run of the inning with a base on balls. Bob Koenig slapped a single for another run. Billy Johnson's double is good for two more, and Charley Ferguson followed with another smash to

I wish it were possible to tell all the people at one time what is in my heart for the State of Texas. I know the promises that are being made to the public, and I know that they can not keep those promises. Some of you people said last time: "Who is this fellow Holmes? I do not know him." Former Ranger Man, Midland Girl To Wed

Mrs. Dan Edgmon of Midland has announced the approaching marriage of her daughter, Pat, to Miley E. Williams, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Miley E. Williams, Sr. of Midland, formerly of Ranger.

The couple will be married at 8 p.m. August 31 in the chapel of the First Baptist Church in Midland. Miss Edgmon, who was graduated from Midland High School, is a student in the Lubbock School of Nursing, which is affiliated with Texas Technological College. Now employed with the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, the prospective bridegroom was graduated from Ranger High School, attended Ranger Junior College and served in the United States Army.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL

Mr. Roy Smith, who has spent the past 17 months in the hospital at Kerrville, is now home with his wife. He plans to spend about two weeks in Ranger and then go to his old home place in Colorado, where he plans to visit for a month and then return to Ranger.

Mrs. Alan Charles Williams . . . recent bride

Dorothy Thompson and Charles Williams Exchange Vows In Kermit

An arch of 48 orchid candles across the altar of the First Baptist Church in Kermit flamed softly above banks of greenery accented with Vanda orchids to set the scene for the formal wedding of Miss Dorothy Bea Thompson and Alan Charles Williams at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Four baskets of orchid stock were arranged among the greenery. The reserved pews were marked with orchid stock and orchid satin bows.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Lewey, Kermit. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Williams, Kermit.

Organ music for the wedding was played by Miss Rika Applegate of Monahan, accompanist for her sister, Miss Sue Applegate, who sang "Beloved," "It Is Morn" and "Wedding Prayer." Miss Applegate also accompanied Bobby Liles of Mexia who sang "The Lord's Prayer."

The double ring vows were read by the Rev. Joe S. Allen, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Kermit.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a wedding crown of rose patterned Chantilly lace over dresden white taffeta. The long sleeved Empire bodice was accented by a portrait neckline outlined by a tracery of seed pearls and complemented by a yoke of silk illusion frosted by an oval collar of lace and pearls. The regal skirt flowed from the princess silhouette in circular fullness to a sweeping hemline and court train. Her veil of silk illusion fell in tiers from a Baronet cap of lace and pearls.

She carried a satin covered Bible topped with white phaenomena orchids surrounded by stephanotis and lily of the valley with showers of white satin picoté ribbon.

Mrs. Doyle Tow of Conroe, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and Miss Pat Williams of Midland, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. Miss Jill Williams, younger sister of the bridegroom, was junior bridesmaid. Bridesmaids were Miss Goldia Beth Skiles, Mexia; Miss Emily Harris, Conroe; Miss Dorcas Scott, Miss Jerry Dixon and Miss Alice Crouch, all of Kermit.

The bride's attendants all were dressed in waltz-length crystalline dresses, each a different shade of orchid from palest mauve to deepest purple. They wore matching picture hats and carried orchid illusion fans with sprays of Vanda orchids accented with satin leaves and showed with streamers of satin picoté ribbons to match their dresses.

Miss Frances Guillet, Andrews, and Miss Jo Lynn Allen, Kermit, were candlelighters. They were attired in orchid crystalline dresses over taffeta and wore wristlets of Vanda orchids with orchid shower ribbons.

Little Miss Pamela Tow of Conroe and Sherry Williams of Eunice, N.M., were flower girls. They wore pale mauve floor-length frocks of crystalline over taffeta with net hats and carried orchid illusion baskets of flowers. Donnie Phillips of Kermit served as ring bearer.

Mike Williams, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Groomsmen were Doyle Tow of Conroe, Rob Etheridge of Huntsville, Don Kay Brown, Jack Krodell, Bill Storey, Bobby Spiers and Robert Garner, all of Kermit. Ushers were Kenney Culbreth of Hearne, Herman Hodges of Silsbee, Keith Clark of Kermit and Sam Vest of Monahan.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Lewey was gowned in pale orchid lace. Mrs. Williams, mother of the bridegroom, wore a dress of purple lace over mauve taffeta. Both wore corsages of Vanda orchids.

After the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Lewey honored the bride and bridegroom at a reception in the Kermit Community Center. The bride's table was laid with a white organdy cloth over mauve and held a large white American Beauty cake made in five tiers. The square bottom tier was separated from the next round tier by columns, and swans and was topped with a corsage of orchids. The second tier was separated from the third by columns, swans and a smaller corsage of orchids. Atop the cake were wedding bells.

Centerpiece for the table was an old model car carved from white styrofoam and trimmed with gold paper and gold paper lace. The car, which held a miniature bride and groom, had a garland of lilies of the valley over the windshield, lovebirds on the radiator, a "just married" sign on the spare tire at the rear, and a bow of white ribbon. The car was on a circle of styrofoam which turned as it played The Wedding March. The centerpiece was placed on a mirror reflector surrounded by Vanda orchids.

Two punch tables, flanking the bride's table, were laid with white linen and centered with the bridesmaids' bouquet. Fruit punch was served with the cake. Members of the house party were Mrs. A. D. Ensey, Odessa; Mrs. Conard Reeves, Midland; Miss Nancy Hall, Miss Shirley Hamlett, Mrs. Bob McNeely and Mrs. Ronald Slaughter, all of Kermit.

For her wedding trip, the bride changed into an imported mauve cotton sheath dress with matching French designed velvet hat, pale mauve gloves, black suede shoes and bag and an orchid corsage.

After the honeymoon in Colorado, Mr. and Mrs. Williams will live at home in Kermit at 405 South Avenue D.

Wash Job on Your Car Is Easy If You Follow Tips

By Mary Lou Chapman

We have a brother who is absolutely the laziest boy imaginable when it comes to anything resembling physical exercise. The other afternoon we were exulting because good weather had arrived at last and since it was Saturday we proclaimed we were going to wash our car for a change and really get it clean.

"No," we said. "It's fun. And you're going to help."
 "I can't visualize it," he said. "We moved the car into a shady spot, because it's supposed to be bad for the finish to wash a car in the hot sun. Our brother, Charlie, started to curl up under the tree. We uprooted him and told him to hold the hose while we turned on the water, and to please aim at the car. This was to loosen the caked-on dirt."

Miss Chapman
 "Never wipe a dirty car with a dry cloth," we cautioned Charlie. "The dirt won't come off, but the paint will." He replied that our know-it-all attitude was obnoxious, but he hosed the car down nicely.

Special Detergent Needed
 Meanwhile, we unearthed a pail, filled it with water and a special auto detergent, because ordinary soap leaves scum that dulls the finish, although we didn't bother to tell this to Charlie as he was deeply engrossed in the rinsing detail.

Starting with the top of the car, we lathered the detergent foam on with a sponge, working in small sections so that the drying detergent would not cause streaks. Charlie got really cooperative and rinsed the suds off after us and airily pointed out the dirty spots we'd missed.
 After finishing one side of the car, Charlie noted that the water in the pail was losing its foam and getting dirty, so he went off and got some more clean water and detergent for the other side of the car... all in the best tradition of auto washing, we thought silently. Chrome trim and windows all got the same treatment. The four wheels were last, as the water from above drips on them.
 By this time Charlie had his shoes and socks off, and was standing in mud to his ankles. From the shade of the nearest tree we watched as he took a clean, damp chamois skin and polished the car finish to a high luster.
 (Fashion writer, artist, and TV personality, Miss Chapman is a native of Detroit and has spent the last several years working with automobile stylists, designers and engineers at Chrysler Corporation.)

MOTOR MAIDS

Travel Safely by 'Signs of Life'

By Jeanne Smith, Dodge Safety Consultant

PLAN TO DO any motor traveling this summer? Chances are you'll at least get away for a few weekends. And your chances of enjoying a safe trip may depend upon your knowledge of "The Signs of Life."

Throughout the country "The Signs of Life" are the six standard road sign shapes, recommended by state highway officials and traffic engineers. Each has a specific and important meaning.

William L. Marvin, traffic engineer for the Michigan State Highway Dept., says, "Regulation road sign shapes have been uniformly accepted so that motorists traveling from state to state can quickly identify them. On the highways, as well as in the cities, they are posted for your protection. Recognize them, and above all, respect them."

Miss Smith

OCTAGON (red with white lettering) means come to a full stop and be sure the way is clear before proceeding. Older octagonal stop signs, painted yellow with black lettering, have the same meaning.

TRIANGLE (yellow with black lettering) is the newest of the standard signs. It reads "Yield Right of Way" and requires the driver to slow down or stop if necessary to give right of way to cross-traffic at intersections.

RECTANGLE (white with black or other color lettering) states the law; i.e., parking restrictions, speed limits, turning and passing regulations, etc.

DIAMOND (yellow with black letters) warns of dangerous or unusual road conditions ahead, including curves, side roads, one lane bridges, intersections, hills, dips, bumps, school zones, etc.

ROUND (yellow with black "X" and "RR") indicates a highway-railroad crossing 300 to 500 feet ahead.

CROSSBUCK (tall white railroad crossing sign with black lettering) is erected within 15 feet of a highway-railroad crossing.

Our neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Broom came a calling, bringing a big bucket of cream peas, while we were busy getting the cotton hoed over, and they were a treat indeed. They report their little grandson at DeLeon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wofford, has recovered after an illness of several days during last week.

Our hats are off to another good neighbor, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Lasater, who invited us to a fish fry on Saturday night at Frank Gray Park. We accepted the invitation, seeing as how we had not been to a good fish fry in a long time. The large catch of fish was brought from San Angelo by Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Woody and son James David, who were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Julius Underwood in Gorman. With them was a grandson, Doyd Norris, of Fort Worth.

Mr. Woody is a nephew of E. L. Lasater and Mrs. Underwood.

Other relatives who enjoyed the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Eulon Lasater and family; Mrs. Lou Evelyn Rogers and family; Mr. and Mrs. Almus Lasater and sons; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Joiner and family; Mr. and Mrs. Billy Tucker and sons from Crane, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tucker.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron Black, of Arlington spent Saturday night with her aunt Mrs. Lee Anglin, and Mr. Anglin. On Sunday they attended church services at Cheaney and visited the John Tucker family.

Other Cheaney church visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Graham Compton and children, of Weatherford. Mr. Compton brought the morning sermon. They were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Butler. The Comptons and the Butlers will leave this week on a vacation trip to Durango, Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. Ike Yancey and children, of Meridian, were visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. Lee Yancey, and came to Cheaney for church service.

Also Mr. and Mrs. Jack Blackwell and children, of Ranger, and Mrs. Curtis Blackwell and Jackie, of Ranger — and ourselves.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rose of Roaring Springs visited Saturday with his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. John Love. They were on the way to College Station.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Love and Tommy, of Odessa also visited the John Loves, bringing Loresta and Joy Love home from a visit last week in Odessa.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy A. Tucker of Crane are spending a few days with their parents the Fred Joiner and Bill Tucker families. Their small son Dale Edward Tucker is scheduled for surgery at St. Joseph's Hospital in Fort Worth on Thursday morning, for reconstruction of a cleft lip.

Mrs. Agnes Alexander and children left Monday for their home in Belle Garden, Cal. after visiting with brothers and sisters near Gorman and DeLeon since July 4. Mrs. Alexander is the former Agnes Joiner.

Jerry Iley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Iley, spent last week in Ft. Worth, visiting his brothers Wayne and Howard Iley. Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Iley brought Jerry home and spent the week-end here. The Iley's all enjoyed ice cream together on Sunday night.

Recent visitors in the Hatley Dean and Ben Freeman homes were Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Clayton, and Mrs. Etta Brittain, niece and sister of Mrs. Freeman and Mrs. Dean.

Mrs. Eva Underwood, who spent the past two weeks with the Milton Underwood family in Ranger, returned to her farm home Sunday. Although blind, she gets around in the home without the help of anyone, and is quite another matter when she visits away from familiar surroundings. She has an 89th birthday August 21. Let's send her a gift or card shower. Her address is Mrs. Eva Underwood, Route 1, Ranger, Texas.

The Arthur Loves are enjoying a new house on their farm near Alameda. It is a small 4-room home which they moved from Ranger and will add on another bedroom as time permits. Miss Minnie Walton of Brownwood, and niece of Mr. Love spent last week with them and helped with the moving into the new house.

BURKETT Vs. OUR DISTRICT COURT

Mr. Burkett, who is a candidate for representative of this the 76th District, in his political propaganda, promises the people of the district many reforms and new laws which he contends would be to the advantage of the public, but we notice he does not discuss a subject that was an issue two years ago when he was making a campaign for the same office. At that time, he advocated the abolishment of the 91st District Court and proposed to annex Eastland County to the 90th District, including two other counties. Fortunately, for the district, and especially Eastland County, Mr. Burkett was not elected. Surely, the people of Eastland County do not want their district court abolished and will not be willing to vote for any candidate who has made the abolishment of the Court an issue in his campaign

You will recall that four years ago while Mr. Burkett was serving his fourth term in the Legislature, he introduced a private bill to abolish the 91st District Court; you will also recall that more than two thousand qualified voters of Eastland County signed a petition requesting Mr. Burkett to withdraw his bill, but despite this petition by nearly one-third of the voters of Eastland County, Mr. Burkett wholly ignored it and persisted in his efforts to abolish the court.

Our present representative, Paul Brashear, has ably represented the district and every part of it. For the people of Eastland County, he introduced a bill maintaining the Court and adding additional counties. This bill passed the House but died in the Senate.

We, the friends of the 91st District Court, urge the voters to support Mr. Paul Brashear in the coming election for a second term.

ON PLEASING PEOPLE

It was Montaigne who remarked that a "man had need of tough ears to hear himself freely judged." Regardless of how careful and conscientious a man may be, someone is almost always sure to misunderstand his actions and attitudes and utterances. When he is liberal with his means, someone will almost surely suggest that he is overly extravagant. If he is conscientiously careful with his money, someone will almost surely say that he is miserly. If a person's views are more liberal than ours, we may brand him as being "too liberal." If his views are more conservative than ours, we may assume that he is "too conservative." When a person favors our position, we may refer to him as fair-minded. When he opposes our position, we probably pronounce him prejudiced. And in all honesty must we not admit the possibility of our condemning in an enemy what we condone in a friend. And the chances are that we ourselves do many things that we resent in others. And if a person does nothing, people will find fault with what he doesn't do; if he does something they will find fault with what he does do. And while part of the people may applaud what we do part of the time, it is more than probable that part of the people will surely disapprove what we do at any time. When, therefore, we are attempting to please other people (or when other people are attempting to please us,) we must remember that no mortal man ever lived (and that includes all of us) who has ever pleased anyone all the time—not even himself. No matter what course a person pursues, someone will wonder why he didn't do something different. And so about the best we can do is to conduct ourselves conscientiously according to our best knowledge and sincere convictions and keep our minds always honestly open to the possibility of our own errors—and hope that other men will forgive us our mistakes as we forgive them theirs. And remember always that a man has need of "tough ears" to hear himself freely judged by others.

I have conducted this campaign in the only manner I know, forthright, honest, and above board.

You are well acquainted with my viewpoints. I stand ready to serve you in Washington. Your vote is a vote for State rights, abolishment of the income tax law, a fair deal for the farmer and the working man, for home government, individual liberties, a strong foreign policy, and true and honest representation of the average man and woman who pay most of the government's bills. God bless each and every one of you.

TEXAS GETS 22% INCREASE IN SCHOOL LUNCH FUNDS

COLLEGE STATION — Texas public schools will get about 22 percent more funds from the U.S. Department of Agriculture than last year to serve noonday meals under the National School Lunch Program.

The increase of $859,453 brings the total to $4,686,808 for the coming school year.

This announcement was received recently by Dr. J. W. Edgar, Commissioner of Education, Texas Educational Agency.

This office of the Agricultural Marketing Service deals with the states in this region on the National School Lunch Program.

Slaughter explained that the 22 percent increase in the Texas allotment was the result of an increase of $16,700,000 over last year's appropriation by Congress.

Federal funds are shared by the states on the basis of the number of children between the ages of 5 and 17, inclusive, and the need for assistance in the state as indicated by the relation of the per capita income of the United States to that of the state.

Slaughter praised the Texas Educational Agency for the way it has developed and administered the school lunch program.

DAN KRALIS

Candidate for U. S. CONGRESS
U. S. Representative
Democratic Ticket
17th Congressional District

an was born in an average family when the dead of World War I were being listed in the newspapers throughout the country. His father was a fireman on the railroad. His mother came from a farm family.

Young Dan took great enthusiasm in his history studies, at the age of eleven he debated on the cause of the South. At fifteen he was called "Johnny Reb" and more often "Old Hickory." History and research revealed to him that slavery was not the instrumental cause of the Civil War but rather an after-thought promulgated by Northern radicals. Greedy Northern industrialists were out to crush the stable agricultural economy of the South by hook or crook.

In fact, the slaves in the South were being rapidly freed by the Southerners themselves and many Negro families insisted on staying with the Plantation owners and did not want their so-called "freedom." Given time, all the Negro population in the South would have been freed by 1870. Robert E. Lee freed his slaves before the Civil War.

Few people know that the Emancipation Proclamation applied only to freeing the slaves in those states in the Confederacy. The slaves legally were still slaves in the slave states who fought on the Union side.

At the age of 21 young Dan moved to Alabama, the deep South, and pursued his studies of the Southern Cause, the reconstruction period. He relived every terrible moment, visiting the ruins, and recognizing the pathetic conditions even 77 years after the ending of the Civil War.

Young Dan stood before a Federal Bureaucratic meeting in Birmingham and told those in charge that instead of spending the taxpayers' money in useless conversation, they better go about the job they were hired to do and do it right. He walked out of the meeting which broke up soon thereafter following his suggestions.

Dan is the type of fellow that, at the age of 16, rang the school bell twenty minutes early to allow one hundred cold and shivering children to go inside of a warm building. He incurred the wrath of the principal but also his everlasting admiration.

He was captain of the basketball team, baseball team and track team — He was elected President of his Senior class by acclamation. He played in the band and acted in the school plays.

He worked his way through high school and college. He worked as a ditch digger, truck driver, steel mill worker, and farm hand.

He was the type of fellow who went on a college geological field trip with no money to pay for his food. When the professor offered to pay for the meals, Dan said he was just sick and didn't feel like eating. Dan went on the field trip for two days, and without food. In fact, Dan and his brother Frank lived for two weeks while attending college on fifty cents worth of rice and onions. He had one short suit, and two pair of trousers.

Dan is not ashamed of his background. He loves America and he loves the South.

Dan is a loyal Texan and needless to say an ardent student of Texas history. He points to other present Texas United States Representatives, including Sam Rayburn; not to mention past great Texans like Sam Houston, Bowie, and Crockett and many others who are all adopted Texans like himself.

Dan Kralis is so conscientious about the platform he is running on that he decided to refuse all campaign donations although he needs campaign funds badly. He has exhausted his finances to present his viewpoints to the voters. Dan Kralis feels that he represents all the people and not a selected few. He believes in statesmanship and not backroom politics.

This is the type of man you will vote for on July 28th — fearless, persistent, reasonable, open-minded, a man's man, a true representative of the people, self made, and a loyal American and true Texan.

Once again we are at the cross roads in history and the destiny of men.

The issues are identical with those preceding the Revolutionary War, The Civil War, and a greater issue is also before us. The issue involving the very existence of the American Way of life now threatened by global regimentation fostered by "one worlders" and "intellectual do gooders" who would have us reduce our individuality to a biological social pattern found in the Communist system so efficiently practiced by the higher insects ants, bees, etc., and not so efficiently practiced by the Russians.

Men like Dan Kralis stand out as pillars of hope to stay the onslaught of this mad rush toward insane oblivion.

IT'S THE LAW
In Texas
A Lawyer's View

FINDERS KEEPERS?

"Finders keepers, losers weepers." Is this old rhyme true or false? Lawyers say it is not always strictly accurate under the law. It is sometimes rather difficult to define the rights of a finder in court.

There are some rather fine distinctions and exceptions to the "finders keepers" maxim that have plagued the courts — and finders — for generations. In the first place, the finder is not entitled to keep the property unless the original owner is not known and cannot be located. Neither may he keep it unless the object is truly "lost," and not merely "mis-laid."

In general, property is legally "lost" when parted with involuntarily — through accident, neglect, forgetfulness or any other unintentional circumstance. Property is not lost in the legal sense when voluntarily left by the owner, intending to pick it up later—even though he fails to do so. Such property is "mis-laid."

Thus, if one loses a watch on the street by having the clasp break, not knowing where or when it was dropped, it is legally "lost." The same is true of a fountain pen falling through a hole in one's pocket unobserved. In such cases, the finder owns what he has found against all but the true owner.

On the other hand, a package left on the seat of a bus is "mis-laid" rather than lost. In one southern state, a pocketbook left in a barbershop by a customer was held to have been "left," not "lost." The barber was arrested and convicted of larceny when he spent the money that was in it.

Under the law the finder of either lost or mis-laid property should make a "reasonable effort" to find the real owner.

Americans Being Returned to Family Living

BY EDNA MILES

THE advent of the car took the family out of the home. Television, some researchers seem to think, has brought it back into the home.

There still is a need, however, for things the family can do together in addition to watching a form of entertainment. The Victorian parlor readings, family teas and songfests were equaled, in this country, by picnics, marshmallow roasts and singing on the front porch to the strains of a ukelele. But that was years ago.

One firm feels that it may have a contribution to the trend in a new, small, apartment-sized chord organ to make the learning process easy and painless, there's simple "picture music" that makes it possible for any member of the family to play a tune with as little as half an hour's practice.

In playing, one finger of the right hand plays the melody while one finger of the left presses buttons to add full, rich chords. Further, there is now "touch-response" percussion for effects resembling marimba, xylophone, guitar, banjo and orchestra bells.

Harmony in the home is no longer a thing of the past. Once more in tune with family living, Americans are rediscovering the pleasure of group activity. Easy-to-play, chorded organ carries the tune for revival of family singing.

Eastland - Callahan and Shackelford Counties

Pd. Pol. Adv.

July 18, 1956

To Voters of Eastland County, Eastland County, Texas

Dear Friends:

This letter is in behalf of my father's candidacy for the office of County Tax Assessor and Collector.

Most of you know my father personally. I feel certain that you regard him with the highest esteem even as I do. It is impossible for me to enumerate his contributions to my life. He taught me the meaning of honesty and integrity. He taught me devotion to God and concern for the welfare of my fellow man. He has never had wealth so far as money goes. However, what greater wealth could a father give to his son than the lasting, fundamental values of life which my father imparted to me both by precept and example?

I am not the only one to whom he imparted such valuable concepts of life. There are hundreds of men and women whom he taught in school in Eastland County who will bear testimony to the tremendous contributions he made to their lives.

The scripture teaches that a man is known by his fruits. My father has six sons. Four of them are college graduates. One of these holds a graduate degree from the largest seminary in the world. Not because my father was able to buy an education for his son, but because he instilled in them the determination to make their own way through school. Three of his sons are Baptist ministers. One is a school teacher. One is a chemist. One is a leader in industry. Four of his sons have served in the armed forces of their country. At least four of them are recognized leaders in the civic, educational, and spiritual life of the community. They are assets to society. They are his fruit. His for the office he seeks. He now holds that office. There can be no doubt as to his qualification for his appointment to it. He was appointed to it because of his ability and his qualifications.

The part of wisdom is to continue to use one who has already proven himself. It is not wise to lay aside such an one in preference to one who is not already tried and proven. I have the greatest confidence in the wisdom of the voters of Eastland County.

Let me put it this way. If you are satisfied with the work my father has done, vote for him. If you are not satisfied with his work, I could not ask you to vote for him. The matter is in your hands. Do what is right.

Yours sincerely,

Grady N. Allison,

4-H State Fair Honor Award Winners Named

COLLEGE STATION — Twenty-four outstanding Texas 4-H club members have been named to receive 1956 State Fair Honor Awards. Selection is on the district basis and nominations are based on the member's record of achievement over a period of three or more years including leadership, community activities, excellence in demonstrations conducted and overall Remaining unclaimed, the property sometimes goes to this custodian, sometimes to the finder. The distinction here appears to be whether the place it is found is private or semi-private, or a place used by the general public.
