RANGER'S CHAMPION

BOBBY CULPEPPER the fighting gamester is shown sitting up in the station wagon of J. B. Craig, just before departure at about 5 a.m. last Thursday morning for Amon Carter field near Fort Worth. The picture was snapped by the Times editor-photographer in front of the Ranger police department. Contributions to the "Bobby Culpepper Fund" by local and area residents made it possible for her to be flown to Boston, Mass. where a Harvard university assistant professor of surgery will perform a delicate operation as recommended by her doctors. Her address is: Bobby Culpepper, New England Center hospital, Boston, Mass.

Donations Continue For Culpepper Fund; Print Doctor's Letter

With funds continuing to trickle in, the Bobby Culpepper Fund has received a total of $1628.61 at press time Tuesday.

With the local manager, W. H. Stevenson, of Montgomery Ward cooperating, it is expected that several dollars more will be forthcoming from proceeds of the company's 84th anniversary cake contributions. The cake after being played at the local store, will be sent to King's cafe where diners will be given an opportunity to contribute to the fund. Brownie King, the proprietor of the cafe has stated that he will furnish free coffee to all cake-eaters.

Two letters, one from Bobby and one from her aunt, Mrs. Mad Vick have been received. The letters stated that the preliminaries are being conducted and Ranger's game little champion is being built up in order to undergo the operation.

Of interest to contributors, friends, the morbidly curious and rumor mongers, the following letter is being published:

Dear Bobby:

"I have had a lot of trouble since I last saw you. My father-in-law died in his sleep last week and at the same time my mother-in-law was out of town on an extended trip to Canada and it was with extreme difficulty that we finally located her. Since then we have gone through with the various ordeals incident to a tragedy of this sort and I have neglected my correspondence.

"I wish again to acquaint you with the difficulties entailed in the performance of an operation of the kind that you desire. The mere anastomosis of the ileum to the remaining rectum is not particularly difficult. The difficulty lies in the fact that it is essential that this rectum be cut away down

County Tax Renditions Listed At $20,949,790

Slight Increase Noted; Rendered Roll Sets Record

Approval of a total tax rendition of $20,949,790 was made Monday by Eastland county commissioners.

The rendition is slightly higher than last year's, despite several tax cuts. New renditions were credited with pushing the figure above last year's $19,948,280.

A breakdown shows that Eastland countians are due to pay $206,564.48 in state, county and school taxes. State taxes will total $69,926.57, county taxes are listed at $167,598.33 and school taxes at 69,039.58.

A spokesman for the Tax Assessor - Collector's office said that the county this year had its biggest rendered roll and the smallest unrendered roll in the county's history. Total increase in actual taxes due is approximately $12.

Annual county budget hearing will be held Oct. 24, at the regular meeting of the Court.

In other business, the Court approved regular monthly bills. All members were present except J. B. (Tip) Arthur, who is on his vacation. R. L. (Bob) Carter, newly elected commissioner from Rising Star who will take office Jan. 1, also met with the Court.

A Fiend on the Loose!

A fiend is on the loose in Ranger! A sadistic person is roaming the streets of the town—he or she may be your neighbor. He is a menace to society and must be apprehended.

A dog poisoner is running wild in the Young addition, at the present time. Your guess is as good as the next one where he will strike on the next foray.

About three weeks ago, rumor had it that the killer was on the loose but nothing definite could be obtained and The Times did not publish anything concerning his activities. Police stated that they "knew nothing about it" at that time and had not heard anything until the Times newsman sought information.

Friday, Sept. 7, Acting Chief Ed Freeman of the city police told the newsman that the poisoner was definitely on the loose—that a dog had been poisoned since he became the acting head of the department. The regular chief is on vacation.

A woman resident of the Young addition complained to police that day that her child's pet had been poisoned.

The acting police chief stated that he would place all men of the department on the alert and would use every facility at his command in an effort to arrest the culprit.

The poison is being used in the form of contaminated meat, it was stated. The poisoner, therefore is a potential murderer. Suppose—just suppose—that a tiny toddler should be out in his yard playing and came upon a piece of the poisoned bait. Child-like, he would, in all probability, put it in his mouth if his mother or dad were not close by—and then—he would die.

Throwing poison out where children might reach it and thus cause a tragedy, is a fiendish act and no mercy should be shown the guilty one when he is apprehended.

If a dog needs killing—shoot it—or call the police department and they will either dispose of it or see that it is taken to an animal shelter for safety.

But to throw poison in the reach of an innocent child is enough to give even a hardened criminal the "shakes" at night.

Still, there are people that will do anything to satisfy their sadistic yearnings—but we, for one, do not hold with potential murderers—don't wait until it is too late.

Any resident that has suspicions of any person around the neighborhood is urged to contact the Ranger police department without delay and they will take it from there. Dog poisoners—child killers!

Crappie Head Leon Catches Over Weekend

D. J. and W. G. Walker of Ranger strung 30 crappie some of which weighed up to two pounds.

Garrison said that appointments will be made to fill the additional positions authorized by the last Texas legislature and to fill existing vacancies caused by promotions and resignations.

County to be Represented At State Fair Turkey Show

Work on selecting and log hauling turkey grown by county 4-H club boys under the Kincaid Turkey program will begin next week, County Agent J. M. Cooper announced today.

Cooper said that turkeys would be selected to represent Eastland county at the State Fair in Dallas Oct. 4.

"We regret that it will be necessary to select the turkeys on school days, but our Saturdays are already scheduled," the county agent explained. "If boys can't be at home those days, perhaps their dads can help."

Cooper said that everyone of the birds would be handled in making the selections of three hens and three toms.

"If the turkeys show any signs of lice, blue bugs or if they are not properly finished fat we will have to pass them up," he warned.

The schedule of making selections is as follows:

Wednesday morning, Sept. 19 — Billy Charles Caraway, Kokomo; and Gene Snider, Gorman.

Wednesday afternoon — Larry Campbell, New Hope and Jerry Lee Yates, Gorman.

Ward's to Celebrate 84th Anniversary; Do Good Deed

According to W. H. Stevenson, manager, the local store of Montgomery Ward & Co. will join other stores throughout the nation in marking the 84th years of its founding with an anniversary sale beginning Wednesday, Sept. 12.

Along with other Ward stores across the country, the local branch will spotlight a birthday cake on its main floor. Price reductions in every department will be featured during the anniversary event.

A Montgomery Ward launched his mail order business in 1872 in a 12 x 14 ft room in Chicago. In the past 84 years the firm has grown into a nation-wide business with 164 retail stores, 365 catalog stores, 15 metropolitan phone units and 10 mail order houses serving customers all over the world.

Wards continued solely as a mail order business by chance for 46 years before the first retail store came into being. In 1926 three "merchandise exhibits"—forerunners of today's catalog stores—were opened as an experiment to stimulate mail-order buying. People were not content merely to look, but insisted on buying the samples. Thus Wards first retail store was born.

The company's growth and its position in the merchandising world today is attributed to rigid adherence to A. Montgomery Ward's original policy of high quality merchandise and customer values.

Cake at King's

The huge birthday cake after being on display in the local store will be transported to Brownie King's cafe in the 100 block of Main street.

The cake will be served to customers of the cafe, and a receptacle will be provided for contributions, in which the diners may drop donations, which in turn, will be turned over to the Bobby Culpepper Fund. King's will serve free coffee with the cake, it was stated.

Contributions will be deposited to the Bobby Culpepper Fund which staged a drive last week in an effort to secure $1500 for an operation of the stricken mother.

The fund went well over the top and contributions continue, to trickle in. People know that more than the bare expenses will be needed and have responded nobly. Stevenson, the local manager, decided that by placing the anniversary cake for public consumption and donating the proceeds to a worthy cause, much good would be realized for the fund. The cake will be at King's on Thursday and a report of the proceeds realized will be published in The Times.

LIQUID METAL FUEL—

A new liquid metal that flames in the air appears to have application as a rocket fuel, or as a possible igniting agent for rocket and jet engines. The name of the liquid metal—a law breaker—is aluminum trimethyl.

SHREDDER—

It was quite evident Friday night that the Badgers coaching staff spotted the weakness in the Bulldog line. At the opening of the third quarter, Merkel proceeded to shred the 'Dogs line, in fact they chopped it up something awful, never relinquishing possession of the "hog-hide" for the entire period. It would appear, from the pressbox, that the tackle spots need stiffening if the local lads are to be in the "win" column this season.

CALORIES RULE—

With low-calorie ice milk—or creamless ice cream—selling well in several areas, it seems consumers' shapes are re-shaping the food business.

Good ideas may go unrewarded because advanced at inappropriate times.

Who could have predicted the popularity of blue jeans among the teenagers? Surely not the designer, who followed the California gold rush over a century ago.

He brought from New York to San Francisco a bundle of canvas for tents and awnings. When a miner asked him for material to make tough, lightweight pants, he took him to a tailor and tried out the canvas. It was a big success. Millions of blue jeans have been sold.

No tangible results are ready for publication, at this time, it was said — if and when any concrete evidence is "safely wrapped up" it will be released for publication, according to the officers.

IT STILL HOLDS—

Pass no more judgments upon other people, so that you may not have judgment passed upon you. For you will be judged by the standard you judge by, and men will pay you back with the same measure you have used with them.

Why do you keep looking at the speck in your brother's eye, and pay no attention to the beam that is in your own? How can you say to your brother, "Just let me get that speck out of your eye," when all the time there is a beam in your own? First get the beam out of your own eye and then you can see to get the speck out of your brother's eye.

More people are expected to see the 1956 World Series than any other in history. The reason is simple: more television sets.

It's all good clean fun and everyone gets pretty emotional about it before it's all over. If you're one of these casual observers of the national pastime, you will find that a series game is quite similar to the ancient cowboy movies that will be ditched as long as the series lasts. Essentially, it is a contest between the good guys and the bad guys—only sometimes the bad guy wins.

It may be that you find yourself in constant disagreement with the umpire. This could be caused by several things: your set may be out of order, the cameras may not have picked up the play or your eyes are playing tricks on you. Try using eye drops, (it will help ease the strain of several hours of TV concentration), and maybe things will be a little clearer. In any event you will quickly discover that umpires are not an easily discouraged group and the same representatives of this blighted profession will show up at the start of the next day's hostilities.

I don't see any excuse for shabby rooms, shabby clothes or shabby neighborhoods.

Moderate Grazing Has Paid In Great Plains Grazing Tests

COLLEGE STATION — Moderate grazing of land in the Great Plains region is more profitable in the long run than either too-heavy or too-light grazing. Twenty years of research at the U.S. Range Livestock Experiment Station, Miles City, Montana, says A. H. Walker, extension range specialist, has furnished the proof.

On the heavily grazed land, 1 cow to 23 acres, 71 percent of the cows produced calves. These made an average daily gain of 1.5 pounds, and pounds of calf produced per cow at weaning averaged 268. This amounted to 11.6 pounds of calf per acre. Cows on moderately grazed range produced an 86 percent calf crop; gained 1.8 pounds daily and their calves averaged 428 pounds at weaning. Calf pounds produced per acre was 12.1. One cow to 31 acres was considered moderate grazing.

In the light grazing experiment, 93 percent of the cows produced calves; average daily gain was 1.9 pounds; calves weighed 438 pounds at weaning which meant 10.5 pounds of calf produced per acre. Under light grazing one cow was run on 39 acres.

Heavy grazing not only resulted in smaller calf crops and lighter gains but also caused injury to the range over a long period. It also reduced the vigor of range plants, causing a shift from the better native tall grasses to the less productive short grasses. Trampling left the soil less permeable to moisture and left little grass residue for soil cover and for maintaining soil structure and fertility.

Light grazing, though good for conserving soil resources, did not give the ranchman the most from

GIVE YOUR LIVING ROOM THE Light Touch

Light adds glamour and spaciousness to rooms. A lighted valance like this provides indirect light on ceiling plus dramatic down light on drapes and wall.

End table lamps should be the right height for easy seeing—39 to 42 inches from the floor to bottom of shade. Use a 150-watt or 50-100-150 watt bulb.

Accent lighting with recessed or ceiling mounted spotlights brings out focal points of beauty. Lighted wall brackets may be used for the same purpose.

See your home in a new light

Light is the life-giving ingredient that brings out the colors and texture of the furnishings you chose so carefully in decorating. Good lighting fills the room with cheerfulness . . . eliminates uneven gloomy backgrounds . . . adds an atmosphere of warmth and friendly hospitality. With attractive lamps and fixtures properly placed, it's easy to light your living room for beauty as well as eye comfort. The free booklet, "See Your Home in a New Light," tells you how. Phone, write or come by our office for your free copy.

A tribute to the American housewife

"Just a housewife" is a title we hear too often. That's about like saying "just a doctor" or "a company president." The job you're doing as a housewife is of the most important anybody is doing in America today.

Who is mainly responsible for your family's health?
It's you—the housewife. Routine national health record testifies to the good job you're doing on his score.

Who sets your family standing in your community?
You do. You not only set an attractive home for your family and plan the entertainment, you make most of the outside social contacts in church, club community. How far would the charitable operations of these groups be without your help?

And your family financial standing depends as much upon your ability to manage money as it does your husband's ability to earn it. Your family savings program is as your responsibility as it is your husband's.

That's why so many men today are urging their husbands to invest in U. S. Savings Bonds. They know that the principal invested in Bonds is not subject to market fluctuations. And the returns are sure—average 3% interest, compounded semi-annually when held maturity (9 years and 8 months). With the automatic extension feature, Bonds will continue to pay that same high interest for 10% more. That means $1.80 in returns for every $1.00 invested.

Remember, you can your family win financial security tomorrow—by encouraging yourself and to invest regularly in Savings Bonds today.

And the next time hear someone say "just a housewife," stick up your chin and step up for the job you're doing. Where would your family or your country be without you?

For the things in your life, be ready

First Baptist Revival Closes

The fall revival conducted in the First Baptist church last week was climaxed with a Sunday service that saw large crowds in Sunday school, Training Union and in the worship services. There were ten additions to the church.

The Evangelistic committee, W. J. Arterburn, Wilson Guest, and R. V. Robinson supervised a "basket dinner" for the members, college students and faculty.

The Brotherhood under the leadership of A. W. Warford, J. B. Houghton, gave direction to the preparation of the festivities. Dr. Price Ashton gave a word of appreciation to the church. A. W. Warford extended greetings to the group. Jackie Fryar led in songs and special music.

Country Echoes vs. Bill Tucker

Tuesday's high wind in this vicinity raged terrific proportions. Some farms had outbuildings damaged and all loose pieces of sheet and tubs, oil cans and what he you scattered. Some hail fell knocking out the cotton, where he was cotton open.

Ernest Brown reported damage to the eeg and wall paper during the storm. The force of the strong wind sagged the canvas, tearing the tacks, and letting the pastoose. The house was insured.

A week of spiritually rich experienced Christian fellowship brought large attendance of membered visitors to each service.

Rainfall only amounted to a scant half-inch.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Karnes, Judy and Pat, from Denton were week end visitors in the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brown. The family had supper Saturday night with another daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wofford and son, Jim Bob, in DeLeon. The Karnes were en route home after a vacation trip to the Valley and old Mexico. Mrs. Karnes works and assists the head dietitian at North Texas State College.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Iley's children were visitors at various times throughout the week. Mr. and Mrs. Milton LaGow, and Howard and Wayne Iley and their families from Fort Worth, and Mrs. Cicero Arnold and family of Temple.

Mrs. Iley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Govan of Gorman also visited them Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Deal, and her brother, Arthur Lockhart, of Ranger, visited the Bill Tuckers Sunday afternoon. They report more rain in that neighborhood. In fact Cheaney reports around two inches, in places.

Judy Deal is visiting with the LaCroy family in Lamesa this week. Arthur Lockhart, a World War I veteran, reported back to the Veteran's hospital on Tuesday for check-up and further treatment.

Things are bound to be better over the John Tucker way. Every-

Junior Exhibits To Bring Special Cash Awards

WACO — Attractiveness of junior livestock exhibits will bring special cash awards at the Heart of Texas fair in Waco, Sept. 29 through Oct. 5.

In the junior show, there will be first and second place awards in each of three divisions: steer show, dairy show and lamb show. The awards are offered for Future Farmer chapters and 4-H clubs. Neatness of the exhibit will be an important factor. A total of $60 is offered — $12.50 for each of the three first places and $7.50 for each of the second places.

Herdsmen's prizes also are offered in the beef cattle and the dairy cattle shows, the two first prizes being $12.50 and the two second place rewards being $7.50. Banners also will be given to the winners in these contests in the junior and open shows.
