WHAT'S...

COOKING?

By NORMAN WRIGHT

If you good people of Ranger haven't already had a lecture on why you should vote for Amendment No. 4 in the coming general election on November 6, you're about to get one.

That amendment concerns the schools and the school teachers of this state, and it is so necessary that it pass that every man and woman and child in the state ought to be out in their shirt sleeves from now until election day working for its passage.

The sad truth is, Texas is on the verge of losing every school teacher it has, because they are quitting at the rate of 7,000 a year, especially the younger ones, because other lines of business offer them much more than they can find in the teaching profession.

The Gilmer-Aikin legislation passed a few years ago helped to school teachers a little bit, but Texas still ranks 24th in the nation in the matter of teacher pay.

The 4th Amendment is not designed to raise the pay of school teachers, although somewhere, soon, something is going to have to be cooked up to make the financial end of school teaching a little more attractive.

The 4th Amendment is designed, rather, to help the school teachers a little further on down the line by improving their retirement benefits.

As it now stands, a teacher can put 5 per cent of her own salary into the teacher retirement fund up to a salary of $3600 a year. The new amendment would allow a teacher to put 6 per cent of her salary into the fund, up to a salary of $8400 a year.

As you can see, this isn't raising anybody's pay. Rather a teacher will actually have less take home pay at the end of the month than she has now, but it will help to provide for a better retirement program. The new amendment would also provide for death and survivors' benefits comparable to what is now offered in private industry.

Whether the 4th Amendment will attract new teachers into the profession is doubtful, but it will at least help to hold some of those we have, and will help to cut down on the alarming rate at which they are quitting the classrooms.

To show you how serious the situation is, Texas will have 350,000 brand new pupils in school by 1960, this being over and above the number that is in school now. This is not guess-work. These children are already born and here, and are only waiting to become of age.

This means that Texas must have 43,000 brand new teachers, over and above what we have now, by 1960. And we are certainly not getting them. In order to meet our teacher shortage to handle these 350,000 new children, we're going to have to gain 14,333 teachers a year between now and 1960 and we'll never do it by losing them at the rate of 7,000 a year.

Our teacher retirement program is so inadequate and the pay scale so unattractive that we cannot even recruit teachers from other states. By and large they shun Texas like the plague.

The last retirement legislation that was passed for the benefit of school teachers was in 1937 when they were making an average of $80 a month. About what a hot black would get. And they were not even getting the $80 a month, because...

MAYOR OF ARLINGTON

Tom Vandergriff Banquet Speaker

T. J. (Tom) Vandergriff, Mayor of Arlington, perhaps the fastest growing small city in the United States, and certainly one of the most strategically located from an industrial and manufacturing standpoint, will be speaker for the 1920 Club Community Improvement Banquet scheduled for Thursday evening, November 2, at the First Methodist Church here.

Civic leaders here feel if there ever was a man who could give Ranger a "shot in the arm," it is Vandergriff. He has been instrumental in building Arlington from a cow pasture to one of the most important industrial cities in Texas, and he has had to fight Dallas and Fort Worth every step of the way in doing it.

A list of Vandergriff's civic accomplishments would fill an entire page in Who's Who. Among other things he was named president of the Arlington Chamber of Commerce at the age of 23, and was the only man in the history of Arlington to be elected to a second term in that office.

He was elected president of Arlington Community Chest in 1951 and has been re-elected to that post every year since. He has been named Arlington's "Citizen of the Year," and has been signally honored by the Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce as one of the "Five Most Outstanding Young Men in Texas."

Vandergriff is a State Director of the Texas Good Roads Association and District Chairman of the Texas Methodist College Association. He was only recently appointed to the Board of Trustees of Southern Methodist University, being one of the youngest men ever appointed to such a position by a major university. He is now only 30 years of age.

Sponsors of the Community Improvement Banquet are extremely anxious that every man and woman in town interested in the future of Ranger, take advantage of the opportunity to attend the banquet and hear this outstanding young man, whose city has grown from a population of 8,000 to 35,000 during his years as mayor.

Banquet tickets are going fast. They have been placed on sale at Swaney's Pharmacy and Crawford Rexall Drug, and are also available from any member of the 1920 Club. Tickets are $1.50 each, and a turkey dinner will be served.

Shrine Circus Preview To Be Held At Gorman

In order to stir up interest in the approaching annual Fort Worth Shrine Circus, a free show will be staged at the Gorman High School auditorium on Tuesday night, Oct. 23, at 8:00 o'clock, featuring Moelah Temple's "Merry Men of Minstrel" with a cast of 50 entertainers.

The people of Ranger and all surrounding areas are invited to attend this gigantic free show, a fore-runner of the famed "Circus" which is to be held at Fort Worth (Continued on Page Two)

WELCOME EX'S

RANGER JUNIOR COLLEGE

EDITOR'S NOTE

In as much as scores of Ex-Students will be picking up copies of The Times around town today in order to check on their Schedule of Events and other things, we are deviating from our ordinary way of doing things and are including several items of Saturday news in our "Sunday" paper.

We should also like to announce to all Ex-Students that we have placed a hundred or more copies of last Thursday's paper, which carried a full coverage of the Homecoming, in the Student Union Building at the college, where you can pick up a copy to take home with you.

Hope you have a good time, and please try to stay out of jail.

Dr. Ashton Says Welcome

Welcome Ex-es!

The faculty and student body join me in extending a hearty welcome to you, the Ex-es of the past 30 years, as you return to the campus for the Thirtieth Annual Homecoming Celebration at Ranger Junior College.

With pride we salute the sons and daughters of our Alma Mater for their many worthwhile accomplishments that make us so proud of them.

With humility we appraise the growth of Ranger Junior College that has made possible the progress of the present.

We invite you to participate in all of the activities planned for you. Get acquainted with new faculty members and students, and visit with old friends on the campus.

We're glad you came!

Price R. Ashton
President R.J.C.

Schedule of Events Saturday

Herewith is a schedule of all Saturday's events, beginning at 4:15 p.m. This is a revised schedule, and most of the events have been moved back 15 minutes later than originally announced. College officials are particularly anxious that line-up time for the parade be strictly observed so that the parade itself may start exactly on time.

All Ranger Churches Invite Ex'es Sunday

A special invitation is extended to the many Ex-Students of Ranger Junior College, who will remain in town overnight, to attend the Churches in Ranger Sunday.

Local pastors invite all Ex'es not only to attend church services but Sunday School classes as well, and all other church programs that are scheduled during the Homecoming season.

First Baptist Of Carbon Wins Award

The First Baptist Church of Carbon has been named winner of the annual Town and Country Achievement Award sponsored by the Cisco Baptist Association, it has been announced.

The Rev. Roger Butler, pastor, will receive a parchment scroll and the church a metal plaque which can be displayed in a prominent position outside the building.

Purpose of the achievement program is three-fold:

1. To stimulate interest and initiative in town and country church work.
2. To recognize outstanding achievements by pastors and churches.
3. To help Texas Baptists realize their responsibilities not only to their own local church and community, but to the nation and the world as well.

Ranger High's Toughest Foes Win Handily

What are considered to be Ranger High School's toughest foes in conference play this year won handily Friday night with Ballinger swamping Cisco 53-18, and Coleman trouncing Winters 19-7.

However, in the Ballinger game, Cisco had nine first string players sidelined on account of injuries or illness. Otherwise, the score might have told an entirely different story.

The Bulldog's next game is with Cisco and will be played here next Friday night, at which time it is expected that most of Cisco's sidelined strength will have recovered.

After a week of curtailed activity on account of an open date, the Bulldogs are due for some fast and furious polishing this coming week.

Mario Benitez To Preach At First Baptist

Bro. Mario Benitez, pastor of the Mexican Mission, will fill the pulpit at the First Baptist Church here Sunday, it is announced. Bro. Benitez is an interesting and inspiring speaker and everyone is cordially invited to attend the morning service and hear him. He holds a Ph.D. degree, and teaches a class in philosophy at TWC, Fort Worth.

Eastland County Dairy Ass'n To Meet In Ranger

The Eastland County Dairy Association will meet at the Ranger Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday night, Oct. 23 at 8:00 o'clock, it has been announced.

E. R. Eudaley, feeding specialist of Universal Mills will be principal speaker and will talk on feeding dairy herds.

The Chamber of Commerce will serve coffee and cookies and all members of the association are urged to attend.

Red Carpet Is Out; Glad You Are Here

If Ranger had a Red Carpet handy, it would be spread all over town today to welcome hundreds of Ex-Students of Ranger Junior College to the Thirty-First Annual Homecoming Celebration. But in the absence of such a glamorous touch of royalty, Ranger citizens hold the same sort of welcome in their hearts, anyway, and they're glad to see you all back, every last one of you.

The schedule of events between now and game time tonight is a tight one, but all Ex-Students are invited to make as many rounds as possible among their friends so they may be welcomed personally by the home folks.

Big event of the day, of course, is the football game tonight between the Rangers and the Plowboys, and everybody around here is pulling for another upset victory like the one of last year.

Public Invited To Open House At Boys Dorm

As a special feature of Homecoming at RJC, the public is cordially invited to attend Open House of the new W. P. Newell Dormitory for Boys, Dr. Price Ashton has announced.

The Open House will be held after the Parade Saturday afternoon and will continue until shortly before game time. College personnel and students will receive the public at the new dormitory on the campus, and coffee and cookies will be served.

Just such a thing is very likely to happen, too. One of the outstanding coaches in the Pioneer Conference said this week that Ranger Junior College had enough dangerous football potential that it was capable of downing any junior college in the state on any given Saturday night, and when all of the Ranger combinations were clicking the team was sudden dynamite to anybody who had the misfortune to be facing them at that particular time.

The Stephensville Daily Empire, hometown newspaper of the Plowboys, this week had the following to say about the game Saturday night:

Tarleton's Plowboys will face an inspired Ranger Junior College team at Ranger Saturday night in the Plowboy's opening Pioneer Conference game. It'll be homecoming on the Ranger JC campus.

If past games, particularly in the last six years are any indication, then Saturday's contest will be a close one. Seven points has been the largest margin between the two schools since 1950.

The series dates back to 1927 with Tarleton owning nine wins against two for Ranger. A scoreless tie was recorded in 1932.

In Halfback J. D. Hanson, Ranger has the fastest man in the Pioneer Conference. The Eastland lead clocked last spring at the 100 yard dash at 9.7 seconds.

The Rangers also boast a deceptive ball handler in Quarterback Douglas Jordan of Rusk.

Plowboy Athletic Director H. A. (Sandy) Sanford, after scouting Ranger Saturday night, said early this week, "Tarleton definitely will have a tough game this weekend. Ranger has a good team, one with a big line and a fast backfield. Also, they'll be fired up for us since it's their homecoming."

The Plowboys will hope to keep their undefeated record intact with the hard-running Fullback Theon Theford, the strong passing arm of Quarterback Jerry Flemmons and a host of fast, deceptive halfbacks.

Theford, who weighs 195 lbs., had a field day last week against the Hardin - Simmons University Freshmen. He carried the ball 77 times to score two touchdowns and gain 161 net yards. He has now scored 30 points in five games.

The Plowboys should be at near top strength for the first time in three weeks. Only doubtful starter is Halfback Bobby Walls, a 153-pound speedster from Big Lake, Walls suffered a knee injury in the H-SU Freshman game.

Tarleton's record is four wins, one tie, and no losses, while Ranger has one win and three losses. The results through the years:

THEY MAY EXPLODE: Pictured above is the RJC 1956 football squad which has been described by one Pioneer Conference football coach as possessing so much power and speed and deception that they're capable of exploding on any given Saturday and trouncing any Junior College team in the State of Texas. Homecoming fans and all local partisans who are pulling for a Ranger victory over the Plowboys Saturday night are hoping that this is the "given Saturday" that coach had in mind, and that the lads from RJC come across with another upset like they pulled in 1955 when they beat the Plowboys 13-6. A record-breaking crowd is expected to witness the battle here.

Largest Task-Force Fleet Bows in '57

Largest and most versatile fleet of commercial vehicles ever produced by Chevrolet, the company's 88 truck models for 1957 include 43 husky medium-duty. A representative of the group is this 2-ton stake truck with dual rear wheels. More powerful engines, coupled with advances in safety, durability and performance are outstanding features of the new line to be shown Oct. 19.

New Chevrolet Trucks Ready

Boasting three husky new V8 engines coupled with advances in safety, durability and performance, Chevrolet's 1957 trucks to be displayed at dealer showrooms, Friday, October 19, rank as the most powerful and versatile the company has ever built.

The line ranges from pickups and sedan deliveries to giant tandems capable of performing on or off the highway, and has been expanded to an all-time high of 88 models on 22 different wheelbases.

Two new forward control models — offering greater hauling capacity for bottled beverages, dairy products and a variety of other delivery operations — have broadened the fleet to meet 95 per cent of all trucking requirements.

Mettle of the new vehicles was demonstrated last summer in a secret pre-announcement test up the American Automobile Association's punishing 1,523-mile Alcan

Highway. Certified by officials of action (AAA), six trucks representing a cross-section of the fleet negotiated the tortuous mountain route into the heart of Alaska in less than 45 hours, lopping off more than a day from the time required by vehicles that normally ply North America's fabled "last frontier."

Powering a cargo-laden two-ton model on the run was Chevrolet's new 175-horsepower Super Taskmaster V8, a 283-cubic-inch engine which is pound-for-pound one of the most powerful truck V8s yet introduced.

Paired with this compact power plant as standard equipment on many of the models is the new Taskmaster V8 which packs 160 horsepower. The third new engine, a high-torque 322-cubic-inch V8 called the Super Loadmaster, delivers 210 horsepower — a full 15 horsepower higher than any previous Chevrolet truck. Offered as standard equipment on the larger heavy-duty models is the 195-horsepower Loadmaster V8 introduced last year. Combined with four engines available on light-duty and small medium-duty models — three six-cylinder engines and a 155-horsepower V8 — the selection of truck engines for 1957 comes to a total of eight, two more than last year.

In addition, a wide selection of passenger car engines is available on the sedan delivery.

Teamed with Chevrolet's impressive lineup of truck engines are eight truck transmissions, including an automatic drive for virtually every model. Optional on bigger trucks and school buses is Chevrolet's revolutionary six-speed Powermatic transmission with a built-in retarding device that gives down-hill speed control without use of brakes.

What's Cooking-

cause most school districts in Texas were broke and all of the pay vouchers were as hot as a stove lid and couldn't be cashed anywhere.

We, ourselves, taught school for one year along about that time and never did see any cash money during the nine months term. One good brother and sister in the community gave us a room to sleep in, and fed us red beans and corn bread, and accepted some worthless vouchers at the end of the school term for their pay, hoping that maybe they would get something out of them somewhere, sometime. We took what vouchers we had left and traded them for a down payment on an old car, and that is what we received for nine months work.

When we married a few years later, our bride had been teaching school for nine months in our home town. She had also traded worthless vouchers for her room and board, and at the end of school she took what vouchers she had left and traded them to a hardware man there in town for a bicycle for her little brother and that became her total pay for a year's work.

School teachers are not much better off now. Ordinarily it takes a little more for a teacher to live than the average man or woman. The very nature of a teacher's profession requires that she have a few more clothes than the average person. She must look nice and neat seven days a week in all kinds of weather. Most school teachers have to hire extra help at home. All of them have to keep up their own education by taking advance studies periodically in order to keep up with the times. When a money-raising campaign comes around a teacher is not allowed to contribute according to her means. Somebody comes along and says "we've got you down for so much," and she pays and keeps her mouth shut.

School teaching is the hardest job in the world, bar none. It goes on seven days a week and far into the night, long after everybody else has gone to bed. If a school teacher wakes up in the morning with a bad cold and bursting headache she drags herself off to school when an ordinary person would stay in the bed and call a doctor, and she rides herd over a bunch of younguns that would be chased out of the house by their own mothers if they felt as rotten and as under the weather as the poor school teacher.

If voting for the 4th Amendment will allow a school teacher to live a little better and have the necessities of life in her old age after devoting a lifetime to the service, then all of us need not only to vote FOR the Amendment, but to work hard for its passage.

Police Set For Traffic Job

Ranger police are all set for handling a lot of traffic here Saturday night, with the Parade featuring special attention Saturday afternoon and the football crowds coming in for their share a week later. Police Chief Pounds said his department was all set for it and expected everything to run smoothly.

Nothing unusual happened at the police department overnight, except that two men were picked up and charged with being drunk.

Royal Neighbors of America Convention Held In Wichita Falls

The Royal Neighbors of America Oil Belt district convention was held Tuesday, Oct. 16, in Wichita Falls in the Texas room of the Holt Hotel.

Registration began at 9 a.m. and at that time cookies and coffee were served.

The meeting was called to order by Clara Long, orator, of the Wichita Falls camp. Louise Scott of Wichita Falls introduced the following state and district officers, Mrs. Velma Hawkins of Wichita Falls, president; Mrs. Anna Mae Shroter of Gainesville, vice president; Mrs. Doris Cook of Graham, past president; Mrs. Lemmie Burkett of Graham, chafecellor; Mrs. Imogene Stewart of Wichita Falls, secretary; Mrs. Leona Arterburn of Ranger, marshal; Mrs. Della Rushing of Ran-

Roll call was answered with a color in the home by Mrs. J. E. Matthews and Mrs. T. J. Anderson. Mrs. B. A. Tunnell acted as leader and introduced Dr. Ashton and Mrs. M. H. Hagaman, who gave a very interesting talk on Women's Responsibility as Voters.

Members present were: Mmes. Anderson, Hagaman, Hamrick, Tunnell, Matthews, A. W. Brazda, Charles Hummel, R. A. Jameson, J. F. Killingsworth, W. C. Lumms, C. E. May, Sr., J. P. Morris, Saule Perlestein, G. B. Rush, George Rushton, Miss Vivian Simmons and Miss Anna McEver.

Debra Shook Has Birthday Party

Little Miss Debra Shook blew out the three candles on her third birthday cake Thursday afternoon at a party held in her home.

After Debra had opened her presents and the celebrators had played in the back yard, the cake, which was inscribed with "Happy Birthday Cowgirl" and ice cream was served to: Janice, Sharon and Sandra Crawford, Daisy and Danny Dugson, Mary Alice Johnson, Bruce and Donnina Shook and the honoree.

Debra is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Shook. Her birthday is Nov. 2, but she is moving from Ranger and celebrated early so she could be with all her little friends.

Ranger camps. The retiring march was by the Donna Mae camp of Abilene.

The meeting was closed with the singing of "God Be With You 'Til We Meet Again."

Those attending from Ranger were: Leona Arterburn, Della Rushing, Virgie Edwards, Eleanor Horton, and their deputy of Eastland, Cora Hooper.

ROUND-UP on the CAMPUS at Ranger Junior College

At Homecoming time our thoughts always turn to students of former years and we are happy to have a fairly complete report of the 1956 graduates of Ranger Junior College.

Arlena Ash Foreman, J. P. Bartley, Mary Ann Wallace and Billy Huff are enrolled in Texas Tech in Lubbock.

Sue and Don Wiggins are in Denton, where Don is attending North Texas State College, as are Elton Ables and Ralph Frank.

Jimmy Arrendale, Roddy Carter, Barbara Emerson, Diane Ervin and Dub and Diane White are in San Marcos attending Southwest Texas State College.

Jo Ann Crider and Richard Johnson are in school in the University of Texas.

Ed Bawcom is in West Texas State College at Canyon, and James Falk is in SMU in Dallas.

Bucking the Line of Scrimmage-

... if we may borrow from football parlance, is the sort of exercise that toughens fibre and prepares the participant for heavy duty ahead. As in sports, so it is with those who attain success in life. The weak falter while the strong survive. Getting the job done is reaching a goal first, a sure demand of the public in business life. Some call it success, but we like to think of it as a lot of hard work. In a nutshell, that's it!
