The Times is looking for a young lady named Linda who a young lady named Janice, and M. H. Hagaman and Mrs. T. J. hoped her teacher didn't catch Anderson. Mrs. F. P. Brashier has · her. We're looking for a Linda who got her foot hurt.

If you're the one, honey, come been on down here to the office and Clubs. get your purse. It was found by a man named Jimmy Lovell of Fort Worth, who is a big shot with the West Texas Chamber of Comnerce, and who was in Ranger Tuesday. He brought it in here and we said we'd try to find you. Mighty pretty shade of lipstick men of the banquet.

means of dealing with a young lad from Cisco named Benji Lipsey by game time Friday night, but here is a fellow whom Ranger football fans will have to look at quick if be speaker at the dinner. will have cooked up ways and they want to see him.

He is one of these "here he comes, there he goes" deals, and when somebody hands him a football about the only thing left to · be seen is a blue streak to indicate where he passed by. In Cisco's game with Ballinger last week, Lipsey only turned in one run of 57 yards, and only threw one pass for 45 yards, and only ran for three touchdowns, but that was because nine of his team-mates were sidelined. This guy is a tricky runner, too. We saw him play it one game last year, against Eastland, and when he got the ball we never saw him again until the referee went and found him for Lipsey's jersey No. is 40. You can read it and (shudder) weep!

We hope whoever runs that concession stand at the ball games manages to have some coffee ready during the half Friday night. They ran out at the RJC-Tarleton game and a lot of fans missed the coronation waiting for coffee which never did get ready by the time we had to take off when play was resumed. That cold weather must have accounted for the brisk demand.

Doleful Senators Due Shock When Ike Wins, Fears Doc

One of the states that the state of the states will fold up of its own above new the states will fold up of its own above new the states will fold up of its own above new the states will fold up of its own accord. That's what I understand from listening to the visit-spoken cuss, but he'r a good doctor. At least, he's the best one in town, being the only one, and our people always call him when they get sick whether they like his politics or not.

The other day several of us were standing around in front of the draft and do away with the

"Of course, they know how to correct the situation overnight. Elect Adlai, and let him wholish the draft and do away with the post office, talking politics—some Eisenhower men and some for Stevenson—when Doc walked up looking glum. One of the Stevenson men said: "Hey, Doc, what's the trouble, did lke justeall you in some bad news?"

Doc Brown said no, he hadn't heard from lke this week, but he was worried.

"Not about Ike, you understand," he told the Stevenson fellow. "Ike has got it made. Even the Stevenson people are beginning to admit that. Poor old Adlai isn't going to get any farther in this race than he could throw Kefauver's coonskin cap with the tail cut off.

"The ones I am worried about are these out-of-state senators who are coming down here to Texas to tell us how to vote. I sure feel sorry for those boys. It must be tough to face life with their attitude.

How can I be sure when a ne How much should I spend on house has sufficient electrical lighting fixtures for my new outlets for my family's needs?

First of all, visualize your furnishings, both new and old, in each room. If possible, measure furniture and make cutout patterns to scale. Then, if you don't have a set of plans for your house, borrow them from your builder. Arrange furniture on plans to help locate the outlets so you can enjoy balanced lighting with furniture arrangements and others where you'll really need them. This helps avoid finding yourself with out-lets behind heavy pieces of furniture such as sofas, beds or refrigerators. Be sure to show your cutouts and plans to your ing where outlets should be

Dads' Day Is November 3 At Texas Univ.

News from in and around Ran ger is that several families from this area will attend Dads' Day and Homecoming at the University of Texas in Austin on Saturday, Nov. 3. The Homecoming Celebration is almost as old as the University. but it is only the ninth annual event celebrating Dads' Day.

Climax of the whole thing will be the afternoon football game between the Longhorns and Southern Methodist University Mustangs, and newly - elected Dads' officers will be introduced before the kickoff.

Other highlights of the day will be the awarding by the Dads' Day Association of trophies to the most outstanding boy and students at the university, and ar informal coffee for mothers in the Rare Books Library during which an hour long program will be staged by university students.

A noon barbecue is scheduled for Freshman Field, and a dance Saturday evening in the Student Union Building. The Longhorn Band will play a concert at the barbecue, and specialty acts will be included on the program.
