Peanuts Up, Crop Is 90% Planted, Looks Good, Rain Needed

WHAT'S...

COOKING?

By NORMAN WRIGHT
This is the darndest story you ever read!

Up until now our one great pride and joy has been the fact there has been no vandalism in Ranger for a long time. It had always been one of our chief points of bragging when we got on the subject of Ranger kids.

But what was brought to light here last Thursday was enough to make a person sick all over just to look at it.

There were some eight or nine youngsters involved, but thank heavens they could not be classed as Ranger Teen Agers, our favorite people, because the kids ranged in age from 7 to 12.

The fully furnished, although vacant house, at 511 Melvin, in which Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Pennington had their furniture stored, was raided by these kids over a period of about three weeks and everything in it was all but totally destroyed.

The Penningtons had lived here until going to Grand Prairie recently, where they are working, and they simply locked the house leaving their things in it including all of their furniture and most of their clothing.

A neighbor had been noticing the kids going in and out of the house for fully three weeks before she finally decided to call the police department. Chief Pounds and officer Don Butler went out to investigate and found total destruction in every room in the house.

Just to mention a few things, a beautiful cabinet radio was turned over and all the insides hammered out of it. A $200 Kroehler living room suite was ripped open with knives and all the stuffing pulled out and scattered over the floors. A handsome blonde hardwood bedroom suite was severely damaged and the contents of all the drawers scattered over the room. Not only that, but the clothes in the drawers and the clothes in the closets were torn to pieces.

Such destruction was continued all over the house, and stolen were sets of expensive silverware and china, many pieces of chinaware including figurines and other ornamental pieces, full sets of dishes and one electric guitar and one regular type guitar, just to mention a few of the things that were missing.

The neighbor who had finally called the police, told Chief Pounds that the kids were very young, some of them Mexicans and some of whom she recognized as living in the housing project.

The Mexican children lived in the near vicinity of the razed house and they were the first to be questioned by the chief. They are said to have admitted going into the house, and the Mexican mother showed the chief some of the silverware and other things.

Any time from now on, starting right now, Eastland County is ready for another rain.

That is the word from T. C. Wylie, head of Ranger Peanut Company, who gets up before breakfast each morning and personally takes the temperature of every peanut plant in the area.

Both Wylie and Curtis Boase, assistant county agent, reported today that 95 per cent of the peanut crop is planted and the biggest part of it is up and looking hale and hearty. Boase said that judging from the stand, every peanut placed in the ground must have come up.

Strange as it may seem, the very small portion of land that is not yet planted is in places that are still too wet to plant, even though the rest of the land is now needing rain. And in some portions of the county, some land is not planted because it is too dry to plant.

Wylie said one farmer returned several bags of peanuts to him last week because his land was too dry to plant at the present time. Wylie also said that he had completely sold out of peanut seed.

Farmers are going to have a hard time planting any more land to peanuts because there are not going to be any seed available, it is said.

Almost everybody, including the farmers, the county agent's office and others connected with the peanut industry, are in full agreement that a good rain would be worth a lot right now.

Farmers had tough luck with their wheat and oats, and it is said about 40 per cent of the crop was not gathered because the stalks got knocked over before enough machinery could be found to get to them. A lot of the grain crop is flat on the ground, too low to pick up with the combines.

The spring rains, however, resulted in just about all the grass and hay that farmers can bale, and they are going at that right now running in fifth gear.

Peanut Growers' Annual Meeting Set for July 10

Annual membership meeting of the Southwestern Peanut Growers' Association will be held Wednesday, July 10 at the home office in Gorman, Ross Wilson, manager, reminded peanut growers of Texas and Oklahoma today.

The meeting will begin at 10 a. m. "If you have placed pay-in in the government loan since 1952, and if you now receive the Association newspaper, you are a current member and you are eligible to attend this meeting." (Continued on Page 6)

Over 325 To Eat Bar-B-Q Chicken At Baptist Meet

A total of 325 reservations have actually been made for "barbecue chicken and all the trimmings" that will be served during the Baptist Association Brotherhood outing being held this afternoon and night at Lake Leon.

Boating and other recreation will take place from 5:30 to 8:00 o'clock when the formal program begins. Eating will take place as people arrive from 6:30 to 7:30.

A. W. Wimpey, assistant secretary for the Baptist Brotherhood of Texas, a man who has entertained thousands in Madison Square Garden, the Hollywood Bowl, Chicago Stadium and other places, will have charge of the evening's entertainment.

At some point during the evening's events, officers for the new association year will be elected. A. W. Warford, associational president, has been general director for the outing. He has been assisted by J. B. Houghton of Ranger, local president, and Harold Hill of Eastland, president of the Eastland Brotherhood.

LITTLE LEAGUE YANKEES: The Yankees are currently last in the Little League standings, but they're having as much fun as anybody playing ball and are gaining a lot of experience. Every game they play is better than the last one, and they won their first game of the season Monday. Front row, left to right, are Bobby Daskevich, Tommy Lenzi, Tommy Duncan, Lee Ausburne, Joe Tidwell, Jimmy Hogan and Pete Huerta. Back row, Manager James Townzen, Melton Kennedy, Buddy Harper, Terry Townzen, David Sutton, Terry Sutton, Butch Seymour and assistant manager Ray Hogan. Ranger Little Leaguers to Invade Ft. Worth Ball Park Wed. Night

Dozens of Ranger's Little League baseball players, together with players from the Minor League, will invade LaGrave Field at Fort Worth Wednesday night, July 3, for "Little League Night."

In addition to seeing the Fort Worth Cats play the Oklahoma City Indians, Ranger youngsters have entered all the contests being staged for benefit of Little Leaguers, and confidently expect to come home with some prizes.

Entered in the contests are: WHEEL BARROW RACE: (two per team) Bobby Owens and Arthur Merritt of the Indians, David Sutton and Buddy Harper of the Yankees, L. H. Pounds and Arthur Mendoza of the Dodgers and Mike Sanders and Billy Young of the Giants.

3-LEGGED RACE: (two per team) Billy Matthews and Rickie Cantrells of the Indians.

WATERMELON EATING: (two per league) Ronnie Hinds and Donnie Gore of the Indians.

ACCURACY THROW: (one per league) Charlie De Los Santos of the Indians.

DISTANCE THROW: (one per league) David Lockwood of the Indians.

BURLAP SACK RACE: (one per team) Alec Garcia of the Indians, Pete Huerta of the Yankees, Butch Seymour of the Dodgers and Jackie Grissom of the Giants.

PIE EATING CONTEST: (one per league) Richard Guest of the Dodgers.

BLINDFOLD RACE: (one per league) Douglas Browning of the Yankees.

GIGANTIC STAMPEED RACE: (one per team) John May of the Indians, Jimmy Hogan of the Yankees, Dennis Holmes of the Dodgers, and Brady Goodwin of the Giants.

All of the youngsters will travel in private cars driven by parents of the players, and inasmuch as they must be in Fort Worth not later than 6:30, it is said they will leave here somewhere between 2:30 & 4:00 Wednesday afternoon. All cars and players have been asked by the Fort Worth ball club to wear their full uniforms. Players will be admitted free to the evening's festivities, but the parents will have to pay, according to word from Fort Worth. A special rate has been provided at LaGrave Field for use of the players and their parents.

Everything Plans to Close for Fourth

Whatever You Need, Get It Wednesday...

Teen Town Mothers Bake Sale Tomorrow

Once again the Teen Town Mothers Club extends an invitation to everyone to attend their

Bake Sale which will be held on Wednesday, July 3, at Worth Food Mart in order to complete the money needed to attach an annex to the Teen Town building can be raised through this sale.

Everyone is asked to contribute something to the sale if they possibly can, and to bring it to Worth's early Wednesday morning. The sale will continue all day long, or until the supply of baked goods is sold out.

In the last sale, the mothers raised about $75, and about $100 more is needed to move the annex and hook it on to the Teen Town building and to make needed repairs on it. The old field house in Bulldog Stadium has been donated to the Mothers Club, but it will have to be moved, attached to the building at Teen Town, hooked up with water and lights and all repairs made, including a paint job.

The annex will make more room for Teen Town equipment, a set of game tables, will provide a small space to be used as a kitchen by the mothers in preparing refreshments for activities during the school year.

The bake sale will give everyone an opportunity to stock up on pies and cakes for the Fourth, more especially if they are planning an outing, or expecting company.

Thursday, July 4, is one of the few days on the calendar when everything in Ranger closes up lock, stock and barrel, and whatever it is that residents need to tide them over the holiday had better be laid in on Wednesday.

The time has come to buy extra bread and extra milk and to check the coffee can because those items are going to be mighty scarce after the stores close Wednesday night.

And if a person runs out of one of these bare necessities of life he is not going to get much relief by driving to another town hunting them because they are all going to be closed, too.

Some of the highway establishments will probably remain open as life savers for a lot of people. Drug stores are not even going to bother with opening up. None of the merchandise stores will be open, there will be no mail delivery, and many of the cafes have announced they will close.

As always, enough policemen will remain on duty to put you in jail if you don't watch out, and one of the biggest aggregations of highway patrolmen to be assembled this year will be on the highways to try to prevent people from killing themselves.

In almost every case in these cities, big manufacturing plants will dismiss their employees for the week at quitting time Wednesday afternoon and they will not have to report back until Monday. As a result, thousands of people will be taking a 4-day holiday and the National Safety Council has predicted a traffic death toll of 555. The old record was 491 set in 1954 when the last 4-day Fourth of July holiday was held.

Other freemen attending the convention from Ranger will be Len Rushing, Jack Mace, Paul Foville, L. R. Conn and Lonzo Stephens.

Following the pump race, a banquet will be served by the Mineral Wells firemen, after which a business session will be held.

Funeral services for Mrs. Reuben Beck, 41, will be held at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow, Wednesday, at the First Baptist Church in Ranger with the Rev. Paul Stephens, pastor of the Second Baptist Church of Daytown, officiating, assisted by the Rev. Ralph Perkins.

Burial will be in Evergreen cemetery under direction of Killingsworth Funeral Home.

Mrs. Beck passed away at 12:40 a. m. July 1 in San Jacinto Memorial Hospital at Baytown after suffering several months with cancer.

The former Doris Lorain Mullins, Mrs. Beck lived in Ranger from 1936 to 1942. She was married in 1937 to Reuben E. Beck of Palo Pinto. She was a member of the Second Baptist Church of Mayville, Okla.

Survivors include her husband and two sons, Richard D. and Bobby Joe, and one sister, Mrs. A. Dunn of Phoenix, Arizona.

Funeralbearers will include E. V. Robinson, Leonard Pounds, Cecil Pounds, Phillips Kribbs and N. E. Landers.

Masonic Lodge To Install New Officers July 4

All members of the Ranger Masonic Lodge are urged to be present for a special meeting on Thursday evening, July 4, at 7:30, at which time the new officers will be installed.

New officers include E. E. Ford, Worshipful Master; Willard Pugh, Senior Warden; Murray Peterson, Junior Warden and Robert Bailey, Secretary.

All other Masons in the vicinity are extended an invitation to attend.

Yankees Win No.1 Beat Dodgers 12-2

Box score in the Giant-Indian game was as follows:

Team	W	L	Pct.	GB
Giants	8	3	.727	-
Dodgers	7	4	.636	1
Indians	6	5	.545	2
Yankees	1	10	.090	7

Ranger's Little League Yankees jumped into the win column Tuesday night when they chalked up their first victory of the season, defeating the second place Dodgers by the top-heavy score of 12-0.

In the other game the league leading Giants got a licking at the hands of the Indians by a score of 8-5.

Nobody changed positions in the standings, but the Giants came down several percentage points and show a loss of three games instead of two. The Dodgers maintained their place of one game behind, and the Indians climbed up a notch now being only two games behind instead of three. The Yankees, of course, jumped into the win column and now have a second record of one win and 10 losses.

Huerta started on the mound for the Yanks and was relieved by Seymour in the 4th. Townzen came on in the 5th. Peterson started for the Dodgers and was relieved by Pounds in the 4th, with Jones also coming on in the 4th.

Gore started for the Giants in their game, to be relieved by Jowers in the 5th. Santos started for the Indians and was relieved by Owens in the 4th.

Leniency, But Americans' Rights Issue Is Not Foreign Courts'

In an effort to alleviate the public outrage over the Girard case, a Washington official has asserted that on the whole, foreign courts trying American servicemen for off-duty violations have been more lenient than American courts-martial would have been in the same cases. There even was an intimation that foreign courts are superior to ours.

The magazine Time also goes to great length to attempt to prove that the status of forces treaties are working out "amazingly well," and some other American publications have strained themselves trying to apologize for the administration policy that brought them into being.

But whether the courts of our allies are more lenient than our own courts-martial is not the issue. Nor is the issue whether our relations with our allies are more cordial as result of the treaties. The issue is the constitutional rights of Americans.

The Constitution—remember?—sets forth the manner in which Americans will be tried and by whom. Like civilians, a soldier is to be tried under forms he comprehends in a language he understands, by his fellow Americans, and under regulations which still guarantee his rights.

A subsidiary issue is this: Our servicemen are discriminated against in comparison with State Department personnel stationed abroad. Servicemen have to go where they are sent; the striped pants boys can resign if they don't like an assignment. But the State Department exempted its personnel from the status of forces agreements, while putting G. I.s under the jurisdiction of foreign courts.

While many figures in Congress and the administration are exercised over "civil rights," a spokesman for the State Department asserts that turning Girard over to the Japanese court was a "political decision not subject to judicial review." That has an ominous sound, like Hitlerism.

No one, neither the President, the secretary of state, nor the secretary of defense has the right to deprive an American of his constitutional rights. Yet this is being done under treaties. We need an amendment to make invalid any treaty which conflicts with the Constitution.

PICNICS ARE FUN

From time immemorial picnics have had a special heart-warming significance for all of us—the very thought of a picnic stirs the spirit in us all. Because picnics are fun.

Whether it be a boy and girl in love, wanting nothing but to be alone with each other and commune with the great outdoors; old-timers seeking the informality of a get-together in congenial surroundings; or a group of pre-school tots—the appeal of a picnic is universal.

Time was when great plans and preparations had to be made far in advance for such a gala event. In recent years, however, modern innovations in transportation, refrigeration and accessories have contributed greatly to the ease and convenience of that "spur-of-the-moment" impulse to get out into the country, or the beach, for that relaxing, joyous release from the work-a-day world.

Choose Setting
But a picnic consists of more than just a hamper of food and a place to eat it. No matter how enchanting the location, it cannot help but be enhanced by an attractive setting. And what could enhance the surroundings better than gay, useful, practical paper napkins.

Today, paper napkins are endorsed by experts on etiquette for even the most formal dinners. How much more useful—yes, necessary, these paper napkins are for informal entertaining and especially picnics. We are prone to take things like "good old paper napkins" for granted. But while we are think-

Infant Death Rate Reduced By Medical Advance

NEW YORK — Medical advances of the past half-century meant the difference between life and death to 300,000 of the four million babies born last year in the United States, Health Information Foundation reported recently.

In an issue of Progress in Health Services, its monthly statistical bulletin, the Foundation said that 108,000 infant deaths were registered in the U. S. in 1956, a rate of 26.1 per 1,000 live babies. Had the infant mortality rate of 1915 prevailed during 1956, the Foundation added, another 300,000 babies would not have lived to celebrate their first birthday.

The outlook for today's infants is especially bright once the first week of life is past. The current mortality rate for the last 51 weeks of infancy is 10 per 1,000 live babies, or only one-seventh of the 1915 rate. By contrast, the Foundation pointed out, the mortality rate for the first week is 16.7 per 1,000 births, a decline of less than 50 percent in 40 years.

"Many diseases that formerly took high tolls of infants after their first week have been largely brought under control and in some cases eliminated," the Foundation said. "In general, these are the diseases associated with inadequate sanitation, poor hygiene, poverty and low standards of living. The record has been nearly as good among the digestive diseases . . . Infant deaths from respiratory diseases have declined by almost three-fifths."

Behind this saving of 300,000 lives, said the Foundation's president, George Bugbee, lie two major factors—the medical progress. Despite the good record, Mr. Bugbee added, there is room for further improvement. "It is likely," he said, "that further strides will be made in the future, but that the success of medical science will continue to depend on better understanding and liaison between hospitals and doctors on the one hand and the public on the other . . . By and large, infant mortality rates are highest among the socio-economic groups who today show the least inclination or ability to use modern medical services and modern health practices. However, there is latitude for improvement in all income groups—improvement which can come only as public's "increased willingness to take advantage of this progress."

Most U. S. mothers, he said, "have amply shown" their interest in receiving good prenatal care, in having their babies in the hospital rather than in the home, and in making sure their children get preventive medical care after birth.

Sermon Topic Announced for Wed. Service

Rev. Ralph Perkins of the First Baptist Church announced today that the Wednesday evening Bible study and prayer meeting has been of great interest these past several weeks. There has been special music, congregational singing, testimonials and Bible study. The pastor has been bringing messages related to the every-day life that are important in the life of every Christian, as well as the non-Christian. "God's Salvation" according to God's plan. "God's Election - Call" according to the Holy Spirit power of the Almighty, not man's works. "In Relationship to God," the things that God demands, not the cast off of man's unwanted left overs. "The Faith of Abraham" was a challenge to every heart.

Wednesday evening the pastor will bring the message on "Judas." We hear much about the betrayer of Jesus, Brother Perkins stated. Everyone in the city ought to hear this message.

Beginning at 6:30 is the Sanctuary Choir, directed by J. N. Sutton. The Sunday school lesson is taught by Mrs. Perkins at 7:15. At 7:45 the Officers and Superintendents of the entire Sunday School meet with Mr. Stephens leading this period. Mr. Sutton will direct

Mrs. James Townzen led the opening prayer and presided over the business meeting.

Mrs. Tom Heestand and Mrs. Virgil Elliott gave the devotionals, Stranger Within the Gates.

The closing prayer was led by Mrs. Tom Heestand.

Those attending were: Mmes. Townzen, Heestand, Elliott, James Ratliff, C. E. May, Jr., George Rushton, Glen Williams, Morris Campbell and Mrs. Milliken.

INVITED TO REUNION

Lt. Lloyd M. Huffman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Huffman, is being transferred from Augusta, Ga. to Ft. Bliss, Texas, Sunday, July 7th, a reunion will be held in the Trinity Park recreation building in Fort Worth. All friends of Lloyd are cordially invited to attend.

this week in the absence of Mr. Stephens. The Nursery is open for these services.

Tip for Summer Remembrances

A favorite flower of summer, the delphinium, is used exclusively in this floral arrangement by Alys Wayne, official stylist for the Florists' Telegraph Delivery Association. Inspired by another symbol of the summer season, the antique gold sunburst in the background, the FTD designer used the fresh white stalks of delphinium as rays from the pale blue delphinium at the heart of the arrangement. Crisp, newly-cut flowers have a cooling effect and are the perfect gift for sending by wire to your weekend or vacation-time hostess and to friends and business associates around the world.

Art Guild Holds Installation Program In Sweetwater June 22

The Roof Garden of the Blue Bonnet Hotel in Sweetwater, Texas, was the setting on Saturday, June 22, for the installation of officers and members of the newly founded West Texas Chapter No. 4 of the Porcelain Art Guild, Incorporated.

Members of the Dallas Guild were in charge of the installation program which was held at 1:00 p.m. The meeting was opened by Mrs. Lois Robinson of Lamesa, the president of the new chapter. Mrs. Robinson introduced Mrs. Donnell of the Dallas Chapter, who was in charge of the installation program. Mrs. Donnell congratulated the founding members of the fourth chapter in the State of Texas, and presented to Mrs. Robinson a gavel, ornamented and inscribed in silver.

Just as there are many ingredients and much work that go into the painting of a beautiful piece of china, Mrs. Donnell stated that it is so with the founding of a new organization, in order to keep up the interest and to develop and encourage a finer appreciation for more cultural and social living. The founding of the Guild will add to the good of the community and will assist in the development of the talent of our younger artists and citizens of each community. Other members from Dallas assisting in the program were: Mmes. Patterson, Granberry, Werner, Cook, Cain, and Mathews.

Officers installed were as follows: President, MRS. L. E. Robinson, of Lamesa; First Vice President, Miss Merle Allen, Sweetwater; Second Vice President, Mrs. W. B. Little, Lubbock; Third Vice President, Mrs. N. E. Landers, of Ranger; Fourth Vice President, Mrs. G. W. Smith, Sweetwater; Fifth Vice President, Mrs. James H. Kistner, of Midland; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Jayne Houston of Stanton; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Earl Connell, Sweetwater; Treasurer, Mrs. H. F. Compton, Abilene; Historian, Helen Dawley, Ranger; Parliamentarian, Mrs. Olie Roberts, Colorado City.

Mrs. Pruitt Reed of Colorado City was appointed as auditor, and Mrs. Earl Connell of Sweetwater was appointed as reporter.

Prior to the 1:00 o'clock meeting, a buffet luncheon was held in the hotel dining room for the Dallas club members and founding members. China painted by the Dallas women was on display throughout the program.

Approximately 70 members were in attendance. Member towns in West Texas are: San Angelo, Lamesa, Odessa, Roscoe, Big Spring, Eastland, Odem, Midland, Levelland, Ranger, Ballinger, Stanton, Abilene, Stanton, Breckenridge, Colorado City, O'Donnell, Lubbock, and Sweetwater.

WEEKEND GUESTS

It Wasn't Your Fault—

... that the party with whom you are dealing to buy real estate did not get an abstract but it will be your fault if you trade with him without an abstract. What about the title? One authority on titles puts it this way: "Titles were good yesterday, only fair today, but worse tomorrow." Better get an abstract when you buy real estate of any kind. It's safer, more business-like and a sure sign of good judgment.

Stark ruins of Fort Griffin, a key military post in driving hostile Indians into government reservations and pushing the frontier westward, occupy one part of Fort Griffin State Park on U. S. Highway 283 between Albany and Throckmorton. Other attractions are the State Longhorn Herd, a typical ranch house and shaded picnic spots along the Clear Fork of the Brazos River.

Trim Evergreens But Avoid That Crew Cut Look

June and early July are good times for shearing decorative evergreens, but the week-end gardener should avoid giving some kinds that crew-cut look.

Fine growing ones often take severe cutbacks, although overzealous use of pruning shears may invite withering sunscald, B. D. Stamp, field representative of the Davey Tree Expert Co. warns. With coarse-growing evergreens like pine, spruce and fir, the haircuts should be adroit and conservative, if needed at all. This means trimming only about half to two-thirds current growth.

The lush, lacelike foliage of yews, arbovitae, falsecypress, junipers and hemlocks can more easily be shaped to desired form and size. That's because new shoots are formed freely from last year's wood and sometimes from two-year-old wood.

Even in the case of the finer, indeterminate growing evergreens, sheared plants should be allowed to expand slightly with some new growth from year to year.

All pines, spruces and firs are determinate in growth. Most kinds will respond nicely if they are allowed to develop naturally. Some few exceptions, such as Mugo pine and a few varieties of dwarf spruce, will lend more beauty to the home landscape with annual shearings.

To preserve the pyramidal shape of Christmas tree types, the general trimming rules for coarse growing evergreens should be observed.

"Play Ball" Is Good Slogan For Motorists

"Play Ball" That cry will echo across the country all summer as millions of Americans play baseball. The players will range all the way from professionals in the major leagues to boys playing on Little League diamonds, on sandlots, in parks, or wherever they can get a team together.

Watching the games will be millions of other people. These rabid rooters will make the rafters ring with the special language of baseball like "Kill the umpire," or "We want a homer."

Many of these fans are also motorists who come to the contests in their cars to cheer their favorite teams. These drivers could learn a lesson from the lingo of baseball. Here are a few baseball phrases that will help the average fan avoid accidents and be "safe at home."

Batter-up — Millions of motorists are battering up their cars every year as they crash them into other vehicles, trees, bridges and obstructions. Most of these accidents could be prevented by following the rules of good driving.

Curve — Watch out for sharp, sudden curves found on many roads. Many aren't marked properly, especially for night driving.

Screw ball — Avoid this kind of driver who shows off or stunts in his car, takes part in drag races in the highway or dangerous road games.

Rule book — All players have to obey the rules of baseball. Drivers should learn rules of the road and traffic laws.

Play ball — Observe proper motoring manners as well as following the letter of the law. Play ball with other drivers by being courteous — and careful.

Signs — Obey all traffic signals and signs. They can save your life by warning you of hazards ahead. New modern signs that can be seen at night help motorists get to and from night baseball games.

Park — Be careful to park correctly along city streets. Don't park on the highway. Be alert when getting out of a parked car.

Twin killing — An accident in which more than one person was fatally injured.

High ball — Driving too fast. Some 3 out of 10 drivers in fatal accidents are breaking the speed law.

Pitcher — The one-armed driver who pitches woo while wandering down the highway paying more attention to his girl than the road.

Foul — Other drivers will yell "Foul" if you don't follow traffic rules and safe driving practices.

Out — You'll be out both time and money — as well as your

Judges At Work In Community Improving Moves

College Station.—The district winners are now being selected in two programs which are continuing to gain favor with the rural communities of Texas. According to Reagan Brown, extension rural sociologist, the number of entries in the 10-year old Neighborhood Improvement program reached an all-time high of 205 for the 1956-57 year.

Brown said the entries came from 87 counties and that 25 were in the program for the first time and that 78 of the neighborhoods entered were in these 25 new counties. He reminds that judging on the state basis in this program will get underway on May 6. The top five neighborhoods in the state will be selected from among the 14 district winners which are now being determined. Farmer Stockman magazine sponsors in cooperation with the Extension Service the neighborhood program.

The second, the Community Pasture Improvement program, which is open to counties in Extension Districts 4, 5, 8, 9, 10 and 11, has entries from 41 communities. Judging to determine district winners is also underway in this program, said Brown. Co-sponsor with the Agricultural Extension Service of the pasture program is the Texas Plant Food Educational Society.

Brown, in commenting on observations made during the past few months, said, "When communities organize and set goals, things begin to happen. I don't know exactly what it is unless it is an urge brought on by a desire to be among the first in the community to reach the family goal. Once the ball starts rolling, action seems to become contagious and the shoulders go to the wheel and the community rebuilding job is well on its way. It takes a lot of work, but I have never yet talked with community leaders who didn't say the improvements made were worth hundreds of times more than the efforts expended. Cooperation and willing workers make the difference."

And this final reminder from Brown, there is still plenty of time to enter both programs for 1957-58, but since records are so important, he suggests that entries be submitted early so proper records can be kept. Local extension agents can supply details on both programs, he said.

health — if you're injured in an auto accident.

Police Activity Picks Up Over Past Week-End

Activities in the Ranger Police Department picked up some over the past weekend when two Ranger minors were picked up Saturday and charged in Justice of the Peace Charles Hobbs' Court with possession of beer, after which they were turned over to county officers. Also on Saturday one man was picked up for being drunk and lodged in the City Jail.

Sunday, officers were called to one section of the city to pick up a Mexican woman who was charged with being drunk and disturbing the peace. She was later fined $15.70 and released. One man was picked up for being drunk in a car and was released after payment of a $35 fine.

Another man was picked up and put in jail as a result of a pick-up order issued from Mineral Wells. The gent was wanted for passing hot checks, and he was turned over to Mineral Wells officers.

SUNDAY GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Louen Burnett and daughters of Fort Worth visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Burnett.

which, she said, the kids told her they found at the city dump.

The Mexican children also named some more children in the housing project who were mixed up in the affair, and some more children living on the east side of town—nine in all, from 7 to 12 years of age.

A lot more of the stolen household articles were found and friends of the Penningtons were called in to identify it, and finally Mrs. Pennington came in herself, after being called from Grand Prairie.

Now, if you were the Chief of Police, what would you have done in a case like that? According to the present laws, he couldn't lay a finger on any of the children. Indeed, as the laws stand now, he couldn't lay a finger on any of the parents. But the Chief did round up all the parents and took them to the house. He said "I just want you to see what your children have done." And since the kids had already owned up to it, what would you have done then if you had been a parent?

Well, at any rate, according to the Chief, the parents have agreed to pay for the stuff or to replace it. Some have agreed to pay off now, and others are going to pay by the month.

Now we don't know who these children are and we don't want to know. We didn't ask their names and we didn't ask for the names of the parents. In this case we decided it was the better part of wisdom to know nothing whatsoever about who was involved.

We just hope that other kids and other parents don't get into such a mess as this.

And there was even some more vandalism Friday night of this past week. Somebody broke into the Premier Club, which is owned by 40 individuals employed by the Premier Oil Refining Company. The club is located on the North shore of Lake Leon near Arterburn's cabin at a place called Dark Hollow.

Premier employees, who own the club individually, as the oil company has nothing at all to do with it, have been very generous to private groups wishing to use its facilities, yet it was broken into. In this case, happily, the damage was nothing to compare to what happened to the Penningtons. The vandals stole the seats off of the toilets and the covers off of the water tanks back of the toilets. Whatever they wanted with those things nobody knows, but they took them, after breaking in the door.

Let's all keep wide awake, and report to the officers any sign of vandalism at the first sight of it. Don't wait three weeks as was the case in the Pennington debacle before reporting prowlers about a place. Do it quickly before any damage can be done. You would want your neighbor to do that much for you.

Times to Print Again Tomorrow

Everyone is reminded that the Times will print its Thursday paper tomorrow, Wednesday, July 3, in order that our employees may take off on the Fourth of July. Announcements which usually are handed in for Thursday's paper will have to be in our office by 8 a. m. Wednesday to get in Wednesday's paper. They can not possibly be handled after that time, and only short ones of an emergency nature will be accepted.

Gorman Couple Dies In Crash Near Granbury

GORMAN — A prominent Gorman couple was killed Monday when their automobile and a pickup truck crashed near Granbury. Dead were Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Laminack. Funeral services were still pending this morning waiting arrival of the bodies at Higginbotham Funeral Home in Gorman. A daughter of the Laminacks and their granddaughter were also critically injured in the accident.

Mr. Laminack was an elder in the Gorman Church of Christ, and served as song leader.

Peanut Producers To Elect Director For Dist. No. 2

An election has been set for July 10 for the purpose of naming a director of District No. 2 for the Southwestern Peanut Growers Association at the home office in Gorman.

According to the rules of the election, it is said that only one name can be printed on the official ballot, and if any other person is to be elected to the directorship, his name must be written in on the ballot.

One group of peanut producers is pushing a write-in campaign for Lee Starr of Cisco, son of W. R. Starr who was founder of the Association.

In a paid political ad running elsewhere in today's Times and other papers throughout District No. 2, "Friends of Lee W Starr" are urging producers to write in his name in ink on the official ballot and mail in to the home office in Gorman not later than July 7.

Duard B. Warren is the Candidate whose name is printed on the ballot.

Family Life Versus TV

COLLEGE STATION — How is television affecting your family life?—To take stock, Mrs. Eloise Johnson, extension family life specialist, suggests a family conference on the matter. Consider the amount of reading being done by each family member, the quality of school work done by the children, the play and sleep habits of the family, and the amount of time the family spends talking together.

The U. S. Childrens Bureau lists six ways that you can use television to help the members of your family.

Study the programs that your children like best and notice how they react to them. There may be clues to emotional needs that parents can help fill, such as more new experiences in actual life and more active normal friendships.

Share the programs with your older children. Discuss the stories and help them realize the difference between phoney and real-life situations.

Guard against radio and television as a child's only outlets for natural impulses for aggressiveness.

Notice if your children seem to fall back on TV because there is nothing better to do. Encourage children to choose programs that sharpen their curiosity about important things such as science, travel, and the lives of worthwhile people.

expect a decrease in production with a corresponding increase in price. Prices, he adds, should be much stronger during the latter part of 1957 and the first four months of 1958.

Because of economic stress in the broiler industry, many cases of hatching eggs for broiler purposes may be switched into the channels of trade. This would increase the supply of market eggs and could influence future prices. The extent to which this may happen will depend upon the demand for broiler hatching eggs. Currently, broiler hatchings and placements in the nation are running ahead of the 1956 figures, says McHaney.

Egg Prices Are Due To Improve

College Station.—Egg production in Texas has dropped only slightly during recent months while total production in the nation was up by two percent. Too, points out Extension Economist John G. McHaney, stored holdings for all kinds of eggs on April 30 were greater than on the same date a year ago.

Cold storage holdings on April 1, 1957 were below the five-year average with the exception of shell eggs which were 8.6 percent above the average. But, points out McHaney, 88.9 percent more shell eggs were in storage in April 1957 than a year ago.

The outlook for improved prices in the months ahead is good, says the economist. Commercial hatchery output of egg-type chicks in Texas for the first four months of 1957 was 23 percent below the output for 1956. In the nation, the drop was 21 percent for the same period and eggs in incubators on May 1 numbered 7 percent fewer than a year ago.

Based on this background, McHaney says, it is reasonable to

Mrs. Dan Sparks Buried Saturday In Breckenridge

Funeral services for Mrs. Dan Sparks, 91, were held Saturday in Breckenridge after her death here Thursday night.

Services were held at the Satterwhite Funeral Home there with burial in Breckenridge Cemetery.

A member of the Assembly of God Church, Mrs. Sparks had lived in Eastland for 14 years.

Survivors include her husband; two sons, Jim Sparks of Eastland and Tom Sparks of Denison; and four daughters, Mrs. W. J. Sparks of Henderson, Mrs. W. S. George of Eastland, Mrs. Luke Davis of Olney and Mrs. W. E. Neighbors of Baird.

VISITING PARENTS

A-2c Johnny Swinney, who is stationed at Williams Air Force Base in Chandler, Arizona, is at home visiting his parents this week.

Use television to bring your family close together. When members must choose programs, share some and give up some, they learn to appreciate each others interests and rights.

Peanut Growers—

The meeting is expected to end shortly after noon, according to Wilson. A complete report of the past year's work will be given and the 1957 peanut program for the Southwest will be discussed. Officers will also be elected.

A large number of growers from Texas and Oklahoma are expected to attend.

DON'T BUY ANY CAR BEFORE YOU DRIVE A CHEVY... ITS BEST SHOWROOM IS THE ROAD.

Beauty in motion—Chevrolet Bel Air Sport Sedan with Body by Fisher.

Here's why Chevy's best showroom is the road!

Because Chevrolet's sleek good looks, its advanced features, are only part of the story. The big bonus is its remarkable roadability, the crisp precision handling that has posted an entirely new standard for cars in every price class. There are reasons for this, of course: Chevrolet's balanced weight distribution that takes excessive loads off the front wheels, the wide stance of outrigger rear springs, Ball-Race steering, spherical-joint front suspension. Sure, you can admire the sculptured lines in the showroom. But Chevy's a car specifically designed for beautiful motion—you have to travel in this one to know just how terrific it is. Try it, this week!
