Team To Be Weakest In Many Years

High School Bulldogs Must Rebuild In '57

High schools throughout this section of West Texas who have been dreaming of the day when they could give the Ranger High School Bulldogs a trouncing will probably get their wish when football season gets under way this fall, if the sad prediction of head coach Harold Barrett comes to pass. Barrett said the 1957 football team would be the weakest Ranger has had in many a year due to the heavy losses last season, and due to the lack of reserves that

Cow-Sitting Pays Off For Ranger Youth

One of the most lucrative summertime jobs we've heard of in a long time turned up here recently when a road contractor working near Ranger came to town looking for a cow-sitter.

David D. Pickrell Is Re-Elected Director WTCC

David D. Pickrell of Ranger was re-elected as director of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at a meeting held in Abilene Tuesday.

Others from Eastland County to be named to the board of directors include Grady Pipkin of Eastland, and Anton White of Clovis.

Twenty Chamber of Commerce managers from West Texas also met in Abilene Tuesday to draw up recommendations for the industrial development department of the WTCC, which include:

1. That all businesses interested in industrial development designate representatives to meet and discuss various programs throughout the region. This would make the exchange of ideas easier, and would let the WTCC function as a coordinating agency.

2. That the WTCC coordinate survey teams to visit companies over the U. S. known to be planning expansion.

Mrs. J. H. Goodrum Dies Early Today

Funeral services are pending for Mrs. James H. Goodrum, 74, of Ranger, who passed away at 7:20 this morning, Thursday, at Ranger General Hospital.

Final rites are being arranged by Killingsworth's Funeral Home. Mrs. Goodrum, the former Alice Pugh, was born Dec. 14, 1882, in Waller, Texas, and was married Dec. 20, 1917 in Waller to James H. Goodrum who survives her. She had lived in Ranger since 1924.

Mrs. Goodrum's father, the late R. L. Pugh, was a constable in Ranger before and during the oil boom.

Survivors besides her husband include one daughter, Miss Fannie Lee Goodrum of Ranger, and one sister, Mrs. G. W. Rust of Monticello, Calif.

Fire Chief Charlie Isbell said today that grass fires in Ranger were going to have to stop or else we would wake up one of these days with a serious calamity on our hands.

"We've had several close calls this week," Isbell said, "and every one of these grass fires can be prevented."

The chief said most all of them were caused by residents burning trash around their garbage cans. He said most people went out to their garbage cans, emptied their trash, set it on fire and went back into the house. Loose scraps of burning paper blow over into the dry grass and by the time the fire is discovered it is so far out of hand the fire department must be called.

The chief suggested three things that homeowners could do to stop unnecessary fires: first, clear away all high grass to a good safe distance from where garbage is burned; second, put a screen over the can in which it is being burned, and third, stand there and watch the fire for a few moments until all signs of danger are over.

The chief explained that not only could residents be held responsible for damage done to other peoples' property due to a fire they had set, but their carelessness is expensive for the fire department and takes it off the job in case something really serious should demand its attention.

Chief Isbell said he wanted to emphasize, though, that the fire department wanted to be called as quickly as it is discovered that a grass fire is out of hand. "Don't wait," he said. "The quicker we can get to it the better. Don't hesitate to call us just because you hate to do it. That's what we're here for and we want to be called. But just do everything you can to prevent the fire from breaking out in the first place."

Rev. R. E. Perkins Named to Baptist Trustee Group

Rev. Ralph Perkins, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Ranger, has been named to a committee to select trustees for the Decatur Baptist College at Decatur, it has been learned here.

Members of the committee, appointed by the committee on committees of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, will name Baptist leaders to fill vacancies developing in the board of trustees this year.

The school is one of 11 Texas Baptist schools owned and operated by the convention. Assets of the schools are now estimated at $42 million dollars, an increase of $10 million during the past three years.

Total income for the 1956 fiscal year was estimated at $13 million for the schools. Total endowment funds are now about $15.5 million.

Combined enrollment for the fall term of last year was over 12,000 students. The 11 institutions include three universities, seven colleges and one academy.

WHAT'S...

COOKING?

By NORMAN WRIGHT

For some reason or other we feel that Ranger and Eastland missed the boat this year by not having some sort of July 4 celebration at Lake Leon. The way it turned out, Cisco and Breckenridge stole the show.

Perhaps it is just as well, though, that the two towns took a breather this year, but we certainly feel that they should get together next year and put on a show that will long be remembered. The lake and the area both deserve promotion, and the publicity in order to stay up in the limelight where they should be.

There are all sorts of things that could be arranged for a Fourth of July celebration on Lake Leon that would bring a lot of people in here.

In the first place, July 4 next year falls on Friday, so everybody will have the whole weekend off, not just some of them as was the case this year with the holiday falling on Thursday.

One thing that could be staged would be a fishing rodeo beginning, say on Sunday, June 29, and culminating on Friday, July 4. Fish caught during that time could be properly registered at designated places and prizes given for the biggest crappie, the biggest bass, the biggest catfish, the biggest crappie strings, etc. It would result in a lot of people going fishing and when folks get fishing they spend a lot of money.

More and more people are buying boats each year, and there should, of course, be several types of boat racing events, not only for the professionals, but for plain old family type boats with families doing the racing. Those things are more fun than a barrel of monkeys.

We've seen them before, and some poor Joe with six kids in his boat gets a head start over the guy with only two kids. The handicapping is all worked out in advance, and everybody has a lot of fun.

We imagine quite a bit of excitement could be worked up by having some boat races between Eastland and Ranger racers, making it unlawful, of course, for either town to carry torpedoes.

There are people all over the country who will drop anything they are doing and travel many a mile to get into a ski race, and those things should certainly be on the menu.

And, of course, there is the traditional bathing beauty revue. We haven't had one of those things around here in a long time, now, and next year (Continued on Page 6)

Scott M. Nobles Buried Today In Carbon Cemetery

A 73-year-old Carbon man, Scott Monroe Nobles, died of a heart attack Tuesday at the Eastland Livestock Auction Farm Cafe.

Mr. Nobles had lived in Carbon since Dec. 25, 1914, when he married the former Miss Maude Gay of that town.

Services were held this morning at 10:30 in the Carbon Baptist Church with Rev. Lee Fields officiating. Mr. Nobles was born Aug. 24, 1883 in Mississippi.

Eastland County Singing Meet At Kokomo Sunday

The Eastland County Singing Convention will be held all day Sunday, July 14, at Kokomo, it is announced by Mrs. Claude Fuller.

It is said that a big number of well known singers will be there, and all singers in the county are invited, as well as everyone who is interested in good singing.

Globe Starts Clearance Sale Friday Morning

The Globe Clothiers, widely known store for men and boys in Ranger, starts its summer clearance sale Friday morning which features sharp markdowns on summer merchandise in every department all over the store.

Calvin Lipkin, manager, said such items as men's suits, sport shirts, slacks and leisure wear had all been severely reduced in price in order to clear the shelves and racks for the fall merchandise which has already begun to arrive.

"Nothing but the highest blue-ribbon quality is offered, that's all we have in the store," Lipkin said. "All of this merchandise needs to be worn right now, and it will be just as good next year, too," Lipkin said.

FLINN (Canaris Photo) Faye Houston Becomes June 29

There would be the biggest aggregation of players out for football this year than at any time since he has been here, and that fact alone spoke good for the future.

Barrett said the old men he had returning were all good men, but there just weren't enough of them. Ranger lost seven boys in the backfield alone this past season, and those returning this season, to form the nucleus of a new backfield, include Jake Basham, a junior, halfback; Charles Wofford, junior, quarterback; David Wharton, senior, fullback; Jerry Underwood, senior, halfback; and Lee King, junior, halfback and quarterback.

One new man, Jerry Fricke, a senior who has moved here from Olney, will also be in the backfield, but he will not become eligible until after the 5th game, due to the year's residence requirement.

In the backfield, the kicking and throwing will fall upon Charles Wofford, and King is also a pretty good passer.

Bulldogs Hurt Worse

All of the teams in Ranger's district, the Bulldogs were hurt worse than any of them by graduation. Winters lost eight starters, but Winters had a whole of a "B" team that was fully as good as the "A" team, and this crowd will be on hand intact.

Cisco didn't lose but two men, Beni Lipsey and one more. Balmier was left with the nucleus of a fine club, and Coleman, last year's champs, should be in the Southwest Conference. They've got everything, according to Barrett. (Continued on Page 6)

NO MUSCLES NEEDED, it says later: The above is a picture sent out by a press agent for Fairbanks, Morse & Co. He put a pretty girl in the picture thinking some editor would be dumb enough to fall for the bait and put it on Page One. What the press agent is trying to get over to you is not the girl, but the fact that Fairbanks, Morse has invented an electric starter for lawn mowers with gasoline engines, replacing the conventional rope starter. It can be operated by either a 12-volt battery, or a plug-in attachment for a 110-volt a-c outlet. Oh, well, we had to have something for Page One, and she looks cool.

The expansion program for Teen Town which has been worked for so hard and so long by members of the Teen Town Mothers Club is due to get under way within a few days and it is not coming a minute too soon if attendance at the Youth Center lately can be used as a criterion of what to expect when school starts again.

Last Tuesday night more than 60 youngsters crowded the building and membership is growing by leaps and bounds as last year's Sixth Graders, who will be Seventh Graders next school term, continue to join up and enter into the activities.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Perry, Teen Town supervisors, said the old building, as it was, simply would not hold them when the new school term and football season gets under way.

The Mothers Club, which succeeded in finding an old building which was given to them for the purpose of making an annex to the present building, has enough money on hand, they think, to move the building, hook it on to Teen Town, and then reconstruction it, provided they get a lot of volunteer help in the task.

The building, which is part of the old field house that is being removed from Bullock Stadium, will be hooked on to the back of the present Teen Town building, forming a "T". The biggest portion of the new addition will be used for additional space for the youngsters, and a small portion of it will be partitioned off into a kitchen.

Workers from Premier Oil Company are going to dig the outline for the new foundation for the annex, and it is said that Featherlight Corp. is going to furnish materials to build the foundation. As soon as this is completed, the building will be moved to the site and placed on the foundation and properly hooked on to the present building.

A thorough refinishing and repainting job of the new part will have to be accomplished before it is ready for use, and all of this (Continued on Page 6)

President's State Responsibility Appeal Contradicts Own Course

The nation's governors, in annual conference in historic Williamsburg, cannot be blamed for displaying polite skepticism when President Eisenhower made his appeal for a return to state responsibility in areas of expenditure which the federal government has been taking over in recent years.

For the President's own 1958 budget is filled with increases in domestic spending programs of the grants-in-aid variety, including an entirely new one calling for federal aid in school construction. And in the same speech in which he urged the governors to open up the way for federal tax reduction by reassuming some of these burdens Washington has taken over in recent years, he plumped for adoption of the school program.

No wonder the speech, much of which was a splendid statement of traditional American principles, drew light applause only at one point. No wonder the reaction of the governors was cool, and some expressed doubts as to how serious the speaker was.

The President's proposal that a joint committee be created to handle this problem got only lukewarm acceptance. The committee would determine the fields that might be turned back in whole or in part to the states for financing an drecommend appropriate adjustments in federal and state revenues.

There is, of course, a far simpler course that might be adopted. That is, for Congress to reject such new grants-in-aid programs as federal aid to education and drastically reduce expenditures on others. No task force is needed to help in accomplishing that.

The state and the taxpayers would be the gainers from such action. For, as the President truly said, "The elimination of the federal overhead—stopping, in other words, the 'freight charges' on money being hauled from the state to Washington and back (a bill, we remind you, that is always collected in full)—would save the taxpayer a tidy sum."

And another thing, before the states start taking over a lot of their old responsibilities, the moguls in Washington are going to have to start leaving some of the money in the states so they can handle their own responsibilities. Before the states can take back anything, Washington has got to give back some money, first.

Pete Brashier Goes to Market

Pete Brashier returned to Ranger Wednesday after spending the first part of the week going through the furniture markets in Dallas. Brashier was buying to fill regular stock, and was also making selections to be shipped in the fall.

Brashier said he had never been seen so many new and beautiful things for the home offered any furniture market. He said the changes had been amazing, well as the new uses of color.

Teen-Town extends its open invitation for more of the new Seventh Graders to join up this summer, as the fee is only 50 cents, and they will be thoroughly acquainted with everyone by the time school starts.

All the new Seventh Grade mothers are urged to join the Mothers Club and to help with the program during the rest of the summer and next fall.

"It's just hard to recognize furniture anymore," he said.

Peanut Association Gets Two Directors

By-Laws Changed At Annual Convention

GORMAN.—Members of the Southwestern Peanut Growers' Association elected 15 new members of the Board of Directors at their annual membership meeting held Wednesday in the King Theater in Garwood, and amended their by-laws so that no member of a marketing cooperative could ever become a member of the Board of Directors.

H. H. Hudson, Okla., president of the Association, presided over the meeting. Following the regular meeting some 100 grower members attended a barbecued chicken dinner served at the Brown Jug Cafe.

D. B. Warren was re-elected director of District 1, and E. A. Walker is new District 1 Director. Warren polled 422 votes to Lee W. Starr's 24. Starr was a write-in candidate. Walker got 279 votes. E. O. Henderson had 25 and D. B. Warren, E. N. Higginbotham and Dean Gardner each had one.

Minutes were read and approved of last called meeting of the members held April 3, at Dallas. Statement of Financial Condition at end of fiscal year 1956 was reviewed by SWPGA auditor Don Parker.

Ross Wilson, SWPGA manager, gave report on SWPGA's operations for past year.

Upon recommendation of the Board of Directors growers amended Article II of the By-Laws of the Association by adding Section 12 to Article II, said Section 12 to read as follows:

"No member of a marketing cooperative shall ever be or become a director of Southwestern Peanut Growers' Association."

An expression of thanks by Wilson was extended to Hubert Cusick and George Hollifield for use of the King Theater. Wilson also commended them for their efforts and promotion of Southwest Spanish peanuts.

R. C. Langley, superintendent of West Cross Timbers Experiment station, announced successful work being done at Experiment Station on peanuts. He discussed diseases of peanuts, planting methods and fertilizer distribution. Langley explained that due to late planting season a field trip would not be of much value to growers at this time. However, he said he would be happy to have a field trip later in the summer and fall.

Members of the SWPGA Board of Directors present were H. H. Hudson, president, Holdenville, Okla.; D. B. Warren, secretary, Wevoka, Okla.; and Milton Archer, Gliding.

Hudson said he was sorry to have to announce that J. E. Britte, Pleasanton, vice president of the Association and charter member of the Board, was seriously injured in a car accident en route to Gorman for the meeting. Mr. and Mrs. Britte both were hospitalized in Medical Arts Hospital, Brownwood, and the seriousness of their condition could not be determined at this time. He expressed regrets that Britte could not be in the meeting.

W. B. Starr of Cisco, was recognized at this time. Starr was the first manager of SWPGA.

As Times Goes Marching On-

... more and more land titles become involved in an endless chain of normal, every-day events precipitated by marriage, divorce, lunacy, illegitimacy, birth, death, the hidden heir and many other natural and unnatural happenings within the family circle. Thanks to time it has a tendency to cure some titles with possession a controlling influence, but wrecks and changes the status of many others. Your abstract is a safeguard—keep it up to date.

should be a good time for one. Bathing revues always bring out the press, with cameras and television, sometimes, and we can always use all the publicity we can get.

If Ranger and Eastland planned a show good enough, it would be a simple matter to get the Humble Oil Company people out here with their TV cameras for a film to be used on their "Texas in Review" program, and other TV stations, always on the lookout for news and events, could also be got out here for some real coverage that would mean a lot to the area and to the lake.

It might just be possible that the new Lone Cedar Country Club would be ready for an Open House about that time, and the whole thing could be worked in together perfectly.

As a fishing resort, Lake Leon will be even better known next year than it is now. As a matter of fact there would be plenty of people out there right now doing a lot of fishing if the thing would only clear up.

Also, by this time next year there should be plenty of new, hard-surfaced roads all around that lake, all of the camps should be greatly improved and there might even be a few more new camps added to the scene.

Maybe we can figure out some way to apply to Eisenhower's foreign relief for the U-bahngis in South Africa and get a little money for some picnic tables.

Red Caps-

Pickrell II, John Perkins and Billy Johnson.

There are others on the roster of both teams whose names the Times does not have at the present time.

To be brutally frank about the matter, the Pony League Teams feature some of the finest young ball players in Ranger today, they have a beautiful new ball park, all are handsomely fitted in colorful uniforms and all are playing a regular summer schedule with Cisco and Eastland, but they are getting absolutely no support in the way of spectators.

The boys are especially anxious to have some of the Ranger people out to see them play in this one particular game tonight, Thursday, which will get under way about 7:30. There is plenty of parking space, and plenty of seats in the grandstand. There is no admission charge, except that at some point during the game some of them "pass the hat" and if anybody wants to play in a quarter or something to help pay expenses it will be appreciated.

Ranger citizens who enjoy a lively hometown baseball game are urged to attend this one tonight. It is cool and pleasant under the lights and nobody has heard a mosquito in weeks. An evening of real enjoyment is promised.

But Barrett promised that Ranger was not going to roll over and play dead. He said he and coach Dave planned to work with the boys like they were champions, with an eye on the future and on the purpose of getting as much experience as possible and winning every game they could, if any. He said if they didn't win 'em, it would not be because they were not trying.

Bill Herrington Newest Member of Hospital Board

Eastland County Commissioners filled a vacancy this week on the County Hospital Board when they named W. J. (Bill) Herrington of Ranger as the seventh member of the Board.

Herrington's appointment was clinched when County Judge John Hart broke a two-two Court vote in his favor. Herrington was nominated by Commissioner Bob Carter of Rising Star. Carter and Commissioner Ed McCantley of Cisco voted for him and Commissioners P. M. Bennett of Gorman and J. B. (Tip) Arther of Precinct 1 (Eastland, Ranger and Olden) voted for Jim Edson of Eastland. Arther nominated Edson. Reason for the two nominations stemmed from the fact that Arther and Carter had both approached men asking them if they would accept the position. The two commissioners acted without knowledge that the other had contacted anyone. Both sides agreed either man "would make a fine Board member."

Other members of the board are Dr. A. W. Brazda, Dr. W. P. Watkins, Morris George and Floyd Killingsworth, all of Ranger; and Don Parker and Bernard Hanna, both of Eastland.
