Wanda Gollehon Annual Queen

"I crown you, Wanda, Annual Queen for 1948". Thus Mr. Vestle crowned Wanda Gollehon, the 4th Dimmitt High School, at the Press Club Banquet, Friday night at 8:30

Preceeding Wanda to the throne were princess Pat Youts, escorted by Royce Dowell, princess Pat Tate escorted by Vernon Burns, princess Ruth Sheffy escorted by Harry Hance, princess Marlene Rothwell escorted by Bobby Warren, princess Charlotte Cowan escorted by Dub Parks, and princess Leah Taylor escorted by Jack Zeigler. The attendants wore gowns of pastel shades, and carried nosegays of sweetpeas.

Queen Wanda was escorted to the throne by Neil Coventry. She was attired in a white gown, and carried a boquet or red roses.

Little Beverly Blaine followed the procession carrying the Queen's Crown on a white cushion.

The Study Hall was the center of activity carrying out the green motif to symbolize St. Patricks Day. Green candles and Bobcat annuals decorated the tables. The menu consisted of: Castro News Cocktails, Hart Harvester Ham, Hereford Brand Beans, Shamrock Irishman Potatoes, Sudan Hornets Salad, Amarillo Daily Cake, Canyon Eagle-s-Cream, Tulia Herald Tea, Lubbock Avalanche Rolls.

With Neil Coventry as Editor nan. of the Bobcat Tales, the paper went to press before the eyes of those who attended. Reporter Wade Thompson covered a Democratic Convention, but was unsuccessful in making the headlines. Harold Brannan related how Dimmitt won the Sinton basketball game at Austin. Johneen Bice gave her impression of Jo Stafford's singing 'Serenade of the Bells."

Reporters Junior Fulfer and Jackie Miller gave their version of a banquet they had attended. Still Editor Neil was not impressed

The girl reporters, Joyce Carpenter and Charlotte Cowan, grew quite excited over a murder they had witnessed, but as Neil said "anyone can commit murder."

The "real" headlines were made when Mr. Lawrence announced the Annual Staff and Bobcat Tales Staff for 1948 and 1949.

The paper had gone to press once more and that was "30" for the news, as another Press Club banquet came to a close.

What Goes on In the Field of Sports

The intramural girls and boys basketball tournament ended last Friday. The boys tournament was won by the Wolves who were captained by Wayne Davis. The Beavers and Demons tied for second place, while the Coyotes won fourth. Each team played seven games and the Wolves lost only one, having an average of 857 points. Some very close games were played between the boys teams.

The girls' tournament was won b ythe Reds, who were captained by Zelma Hershey. The Blues were second, Whites, third; and Yellows, fourth. These boys' teams will have an intramural volleyball tournament starting Tuesday. There wil be a winners and losers bracket, where no team can lose over two games and have a chance for the championship. The track boys have started working out and will have their first meet at Hereford Thursday, March 25 at 3:00

Their Deeds Found Them Out

Wednesday afternoon, March 17, Coach Blaine topped off the chapel program by proudly presenting the boys who finished their football career this year with their Annual Queen in the history of beautiful purple-and-silver jackets as their final rewards for their grand job.

"Glamour"

Do you want beauty, charm, poise, and a completely new personality? If so, try "Glossap's Miracle Lotion." The seventh grade presented the play "Glamiour" in chapel Wednesday. The characters were:

Mrs. Vanderwalker-Helen Ben-

Mrs. DeWitt-Mitzi Wilson Ruby, the maid-Mary Smith Pauline, the cook-Katy Coke The milkman—Billy Gregory The plumber-Kenneth McDer-

The Policeman-Kenneth Fulfer The salesman-Bobby Jones The radio announcer-Jackie

The story begins in the living room of Mrs. DeWitt's home where she and Mrs. Vanderwalker are having a chit-chat about how silly these radio commercials are-Beauty lotion, Miracle Creams, etc.

Stealing the play was Mary Cathryn Smith playing Ruby, the A Junior Basketball tournament maid. She and Pauline, the cook, or good. Our task is to guide this were very much interested in something that would make them atvertisement of Glossop's Miracle Lotion, they decided to try it They The teams entered in the Junior got the lotion in a gallon jar for $9.50 and tried it. They can't see any difference, but every man that comes in is completely bowled over by their glamour. When a threeway fight between the plumbre, salesman and milkman occurs, Ruby is elated because she has always dreamed of men fighting over

> The committee arranging the details and directing the play were: Jacqueline Cartwright, Yvonne Bearden, Jackie Copeland, and Decimae Dennis.

Also on the program preceeding the play were: Mary Smith singing a solo, and Pat Carpenter making a great hit with her version of four piano solos.

> Knee deep in good green grass is the way dairymen like to see their cows. Lots of green grass means lots of milk, and lots of mfilk, and lots of milk means more money to the dairyman, Gibson says. But there isn't good green grass all through the year, so the dairy farmer has to turn to plenty of good hay and silage. Most of the mare feeding concentrates too, but the whole job can't be done with concentrates.

There is only about a fifth as much milk produced in the winter as in the summer time, Gibson says. A good many dairymen see the value of having hay and silage on hand when the pastures are gone. When the cows have lots of good grass, they won't eat nearly as much hay and silage. But there isn't a year-round supply of grass Enough feed for the cows all
