shocked as anyone else about Ranger beating Hamilton in bidistrict play. You fans who made the trip out McCamey way noticed that instead of the Ranger colors on the visitors goal posts, Badger fans had red and white, Hamilton's school colors.

And we never could figure out the wind in that stadium. Streamers hanging from the goal posts were flying in opposite directions, both floating toward the 50-yard line.

Here's what Gorman Progress editor Gene Baker had to say

Returning to Gorman Monday I learned of the death of Editor Norman Wright of Ranger, Later in the day I picked up a copy of Sunday's Ranger Times and read in his last column in which he complimented me on my know ledge of peanuts and hoped that I did not take offense at his and Editor's Moore's comments from (Continued on Page Four)

For youngsters, the Cookie Tree is fun. The tree itself is cut from a square of white plastic foam which you can get at the variety store or florist shop. First, cut a flat tree shape, then two half trees. These halves can be attached to the flat tree shape with rounded toothpicks to form a four-sided tree. The base is a five inch circle of foam. Attach the assembled tree to the base with toothpicks. Put glitter on the edges of the branches with white plastic slipe.
