Cookies Children Can Make

On days when children are at home and the weather rest for them. The results can be fun, too, for cookie baking may interest for them. The results can be fun, too, for cookie baking may lead to an impromptu party.

A recipe that is just right for such a baking spree for children is Banana Walnut Specials. The ingredients are only four; plain cookie mix, a banana, allspice and walnuts.

Look for the new transparent package in which Diamond Walnuts are now being marketed. After much research, saran was selected as the packaging material because of its fine protective qualities. Walnuts will keep well and are guaranteed fresh in the new package. Also, the packages are marked in ½, ¾, 1¼ and 2½ cup amounts. This helps the homemaker to select recipe amounts from the grocer's shelf. If the package of walnuts is only partly used, carefully fold back the edges of the saran and refrigerate. This will help keep the shelled walnuts fresh until used.

Here is the recipe for Banana Walnut Specials.

Personality Of The

Week As this week's Personality the Week, we have chosen Patsy Shaffer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Debs social club this year.

C. L. Shaffer of 305 Mesquite Street. Besides attending Ranger College, where she is majoring in the cone. She is a striking brunette who can be say a street is as attractive as she is likable.

The scripture is found in 1st Samuel, chapter one.

Training Union begins at 6:30.

Rev. Ralph Perkins, pastor, said phone company as a telephone op-

A fine dancer, Patsy has a deep love for music, which has played a big part in her life throughout her schooling. She was a member of the high school band for five years. Her music has followed her to college, where she has been a member of the Rangeanns, a preision march group. She has been a lieutenant of the group for two years. Besides being a member of the Rangeanns, she is a member of the chorus, of the Delta Tau Chap-ter of Phi Theta Kappa, national onor society, and the Debs.

Now in her sophomore y e a r,

How do you feel about burglars?

It's foolish to own fine things and then worry about their being stolen.

Let us and America Fore worry about that for you.

Let us write an America Fore policy for you which will take the sting out of loss of household goods, personal effects, clothing, jewelry, furs, silverware, etc. It covers burglary, robbery, theft and MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEAR-ANCE (which is considered to be theft.)

It also may include holdup and theft away from home, and covers all members of your immediate family residing with you. And you'll be mazed how little this Family Theft policy costs. Ask us.
