County Cancer Goal Is Set At $2,500

Mrs. Roscoe Hopper of Ranger, will lead the 1958 Cancer Crusade in Eastland County, it was announced this week at local headquarters of the American Cancer Society in Abilene.

The educational and fund-raising drive will begin April 1.

As chairman of the local campaign, Mrs. Hopper will direct the raising of $2,500, the quota for Eastland County. The goal of the county-wide campaign is $30,000,000.

The money will be used to push the war on cancer on three fronts: research, education, and service.

"The whole program of the ACS is directed toward saving lives, countless lives when the mystery of cancer is solved and the disease brought under control," Mrs. Hopper said. "But our annual campaign is also an intensive effort to save lives here and now. I refer to the 75,000 who die needlessly of cancer every year. They die simply because the disease isn't diagnosed in time.

Palo Pinto Soil District Sponsors Tour

There will be a field tour to observe root plowing of mesquite and seeding to adapted grasses March 27 at Strawn. It is sponsored by the Palo Pinto Soil Conservation District.

"From the beginning of our history we have always joined together to solve our problems. This century of medical achievement bears witness to what can be accomplished by voluntary agencies—with the indispensable aid of volunteer workers, the cooperation of the medical profession, a n d the financial support of the public.

"I ask our good citizens here in Eastland County to bear in mind the recent victory against polio which was bought-and-paid-for by the generosity of the American people.

"Eventually we can do the same generous public support" with cancer, if we get the same

"When our volunteers knock on doors and ring bells on Cancer Control Day, April 15, they will urge every adult in every household to get that checkup we have been talking about.

"They will leave leaflets that explain why a regular health examination is the best protection against needless death from cancer—the number two disease killer in the United States.

"But our volunteers, calling on friends and neighbors, will also ask for that check! There is a cue in the phrase 'friends and neighbors'—it suggests our American way for getting things done.

Research Work On Phone Set-Up Still Underway

Research work on a tri-city appeal for a one-telephone hookup for Eastland, Ranger and Cisco is still being conducted by Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., W. H. McAnnally, district manager, revealed Thursday.

McAnnally said the Dallas Bell office is still conducting a study of the request. He anticipated that it would be three or four months before the company is ready to go before the city commissions of the three towns to tell what action the company is willing to take.

Under a plan first proposed by the Eastland Rotary Club and later backed by the Eastland Lions Club and the Cisco Rotary Club, Eastland, Ranger and Cisco residents would be able to phone each other without going through a dial operator and without paying a long distance charge.

Rifle Contest Set By Area Four-H

A 4-H county elimination rifle contest will be held Saturday beginning at 9 a.m. at the Cisco National Guard armory, Curtis L. Roase, assistant county agricultural agent, announced today.

Boase said contestants may use any .22 caliber rifle with metallic sights (open or peep rear sights) capable of being loaded one round at a time, except auto-loading and tubular magazine rifles.

The auto loading and tubular loading rifles are barred for safety reasons. Entrants must provide their own rifles and ammunition. A box of 50 shells, shorts o r longs, will be needed.

Seventy eight 4-H boys have been invited to participate. Contestants must have been 13 years old or older on Jan. 1. The four high scoring contestants will go to the District contest at Turlington April 19.

Letters from parents with their signature, giving their permission to enter the contest, must be turned in by each boy.

Boase urged boys to remove the bolt from their rifles before loading it in their car. He said the bolt should be kept separate from the rifle until boys reach the range. Participants are not to load their rifles until told to do so at the range. They should point the barrel toward the ground at all times. Any boy not following instructions will be barred from the contest.

Indifference Big Problem Of Upper Leon Soil Conservation

A group of farmers who were tired of seeing their land misused banded together in 1941 to organize the Upper Leon Soil Conservation District.

Today the District comprises some 5000 farms and ranches and 1746,412 acres in Eastland, Comanche and Erath counties.

Actually the district was formed under State authority in an election held Dec. 14, 1940. Since organization it has been enlarged by 338,790 acres in 12 annexations. Approximately 57 percent of the land is cultivated and 43 percent is pasture and rangeland. Of the 5000 to 5300 operating units in the District 3,015 of these owners and operators are District co-operators.

Members of the Board of Supervisors are B. B. Hickman, Rising Star; F. M. Spurlin, Route 2, Eastland; W. J. Pritts, Route 1, Comanche; Wade George, Route 2, DeLeon; and H. W. Turney, Route 7, Dublin.

The District's first supervisors were T. E. Castleberry, Eastland; J. B. Eberhart, Rising Star; T. E. Hughes, Dublin; J. H. Huddleston, DeLeon; and W. J. Fritts.

The District cooperates with local, county, State and Federal agencies in seeing that soil conservation practices are made available.

Efforts of the District have not been small, nor have results. In 1957, 1549 cooperators applied one or more conservation practices. Since 1941, 121,359 acres of contour farming has gone into the District's books.

In that same period 148,815 acres have been planted to cover crops and 3,385 farm ponds have been constructed, 297 of them in the past year. Other practices such as strip cropping, brush control, pasture planting, rotation grazing, fish pond improvement, field terracing and many others also have impressive figures.

What problems face the District. The annual report best explains that. "The attitude and understanding of the people is a factor that needs our constant attention and will remain so for years to come. The constant changing of land ownership, complications arising out of the many agricultural problems, and indifference on the part of some landowners makes the need for informational programs a continuing thing.

"We have been highly successful in getting the leadership in the towns in our District interested and informed about the program and the aims and problems of the District.

UPPER LEON DISTRICT—More than 1,300,000 acres of farm and ranch land is included in the Upper Leon Soil Conservation District. The District, first organized in 1941, serves some 5000 farms and ranches located in Eastland, Comanche and Erath Counties.

LIBRARY WEEK... College Students Pick Best Books

By Wanda Payne and Donna Blackwell
RC Journalism Students

A cross section of Ranger College students indicates that reading tastes are varied.

Twenty students were interviewed and asked to give reasons for the choice of a favorite book or author.

Both Gerald Cross and Leon Walker say that "Peyton Place" is their favorite book because it is true to life. Because of Ernest Hemingway's vivid imagination, Walker thinks he is tops among authors. Cross' favorite is John Steinbeck because of his literary style.

"Northwest Passage" is Charles Clark's choice among books because it is good history and adventure. Jack London is Clark's favorite author.

Bill Lyle prefers "Call of the Wild" because it is adventurous. He likes Mickey Spillane because of his realistic manner.

"For Whom the Bells Toll" is David Hale's selection because it tells of the people of whom he has very little knowledge. Hemingway and Guy de Maupassant are Hale's favorite authors.

Ronnie McPherson's favorite book is "From Here to Eternity", chosen because it is exciting, and O'Henry is his pick of authors because O'Henry's stories always have a surprise ending.

"Battle Cry" is James Gordon's favorite. He likes the exciting story it contains. Wally Cox is Gordon's favorite author.

Charles Bonney likes "Life of the Astor, Lenox and Tilden Foundations" because it is a story of industry's achievement in telling industry's story during the week.

Purpose of the special week, as set forth by Governor Daniel's proclamation, is to improve the understanding of Texas' citizens of industry's contributions to the state economy.

Proclaimed by Governor Price Daniel as an official observance throughout the state and recognized by both houses of the Texas Legislature, Texas Industrial Week is sponsored state-wide by the Texas Manufacturers Association, and locally by chambers of commerce.

The official signing of the Governor's proclamation took place in Austin.

The chambers of commerce officially participating in the observance compete each year for one of four plaques awarded by TMA for outstanding achievements in telling industry's story during the week.

Purpose of the special week, as set forth by Governor Daniel's proclamation, is to improve the understanding of Texas' citizens of industry's contributions to the state economy.

First Baptist Announcements

Only three services remain in the revival at the First Baptist Church. Everyone is invited to hear Rev. Howard Jones bring the closing messages.

Rev. Ralph Perkins said, "Bible centered, Holy Spirit led, these gospel messages will challenge the souls of men."

Jesus N. Sutton is directing the music program. A choir of some twenty-five voices have thrilled the congregation each evening with the finest of gospel music.

Rev. Perkins said, "A goal of 325 has been set for Sunday school. The goal will be reached only with the full cooperation of the entire membership. Illness and absenteeism will have to be reckoned with, and each member and visitor available should help make this goal a reality Sunday morning."

"A Training Union goal of 150 has been set for Tuesday night. The goal will be met only with a full attendance of the membership and visitors. Bring your family this Lord's day and worship with us."

Christian Science

How spiritual perception of God's power brings freedom from bondage to materialism will be a topic dealt with at Christian Science services Sunday.

Keynoting the Lesson - Sermon on "Matter" is the Golden Text from I John (2:16): "All that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be read the following (277:29): "Nothing we can say or believe regarding matter is immortal, for matter is temporal and is therefore a mortal phenomenon, a human concept, sometimes beautiful, always erroneous."

Selections from the Bible will include the following (Isaiah 40:8): "The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: but the word of our God shall stand for ever."

DETOURING AROUND FINANCIAL TANGLES—

. . . has long been a basic characteristic of the successful man. Young men seldom do and few of his older brothers. To avoid many of the pitfalls blocking successful careers, save something regularly, don't mortgage income beyond its capacity to absorb, make a Will, provide adequate life insurance for yourself and family, keep all properties insured, and guard against faulty titles in buying real estate. These are a few of the fundamentals which, if followed, will detour you around many financial tangles.

Social Security Notes

(Editor's Note: This is the second in a series of articles on your Social Security program compiled by C. M. Vaden, Jr., Field Representative of the Able-Handed Social Security Office.)

How do you get credits to become eligible for Social Security payments?

You build up social security credits by working in covered work pay Self-Employment tax on net earnings possible you must have worked a certain length of time. This time is measured in "quarters of coverage." A quarter of coverage corresponds to a calendar quarter of a year—January, February and March is the first quarter—April, May and June the second, etc.

1. You get one quarter of coverage for each quarter in which you are paid $50 or more in wages for most kinds of work.

2. You get four quarters of coverage for each year in which you pay Self-Employment tax on net earnings from self-employment of $400 or more.

3. A farm worker gets one quarter of coverage for each $100 of creditable farm wages paid him during a year. Of course, you can never have more than four quarters of coverage in any one year.

If you work for a railroad and do not work long enough to be eligible for a Railroad annuity, the time you worked on the railroad can count for Social Security quarters of coverage.

If you were in military service from the beginning of World War II up to Jan. 1, 1957, you get credit for quarters of coverage for the time you spent on active duty. These quarters of coverage are used to determine eligibility for Social Security payments. They are not used to determine the amount of your Social Security Payment.

The first few pages of the booklet "Your Social Security" will give you more complete explanation of "quarters of coverage." Write for your free copy—Social Security Administration, P. O. Box 1641, Abilene.

Carbon School News

By LINDA COLLINS
Telegram School Reporter

Say, it has been quite some time since I have told all about dear 'ole C.H.S.

Everything for the juniors at Carbon has been cooling off for almost two weeks now. We have had time to rest a little. But in a rather short time will be getting to work on the junior and senior banquet. The date has not been set at the present but it will not be too far in the future.

Oh, yes, speaking of banquets the First Baptist Church here gave the juniors and seniors of C.H.S. a wonderful banquet Friday night. It was a great success. Everyone seemed to enjoy it.

Rev. Charles Wood of Cisco was guest speaker, and a good one too. He spoke on "Love." He gave several hints about love. With him were four lovely girls from Cisco. They sang three songs. We were glad to have the Cisco guests, who presented a lovely program.

The senior girls, Dorothy Simmons, Ann Mangum, Nancy Norris, and Wanda May, sang "Catch A Falling Star" which coincided with the star-light theme of the banquet. Paty Jackson was their accompanist.

The highlights of a banquet is always the meal and what a delicious meal it was. A meal of orange juice, chicken and dressing, green beans, corn, hot rolls and butter, ice tea, fruit salad, ice cream and cookies was served.

Five of the sophomore girls were waitresses for the banquet. The five girls were Linda Eaves, Colleen Campbell, Faye Simmons, Delores Johnson and Annie Mae Stephenson.

The juniors and seniors would like to take this opportunity to thank the ladies of the Baptist Church for such a fine banquet. We would like to say "Thanks" in a big way.

Good times have sure been in store around the campus these past few weeks. Monday, March 3, the juniors were honored at a Hobo Party given by the seniors. Have you ever seen a bunch of real hobos? We sure looked like the real hobos. Everyone had a real good time, thanks to the Seniors and their sponsor.

Speaking of Seniors, they have sure been busy practicing on Compare 'em and see. The closer you look at Chevrolet and the other low-priced cars, the faster Chevy comes off as the biggest buy in its field. Big in size. Extra big in value!

Look at Chevrolet's fresh new '58 look. This one's all new—lower, wider and a full nine inches longer. Look at the fine craftsmanship of the only Body by Fisher in the low-price field. Sample Chevy's spirited performance. Feel its solid, smooth big-car ride. Add up all you get and weigh it against Chevrolet's low price and long-famous economy. You'll find that nothing else near the price offers more for your money. Your Chevrolet dealer will prove it.

You'll get the best buy on the best seller!
