A Small City with Big Industry - A Bright Spot for New Industry

RANGER, TEXAS, THURSDAY, MAY 22, 1958

ROAMING THRU RANGER WITH RON... By Ronald Waters

We "shoot" people almost every day, put them in a "morgue" and have our copy to get in by a set DEADLINE. I "shrink" heads and peep some people almost "to death" for news.

This is a pretty macabre business for all you future journalists!

Graduation draws closer and a whole week of busy activity lies ahead for high school and college students. Final exams are "just around the corner", so I suppose this is "Dead Week". At least, it looks like a busy week coming up.

NEW FASHION: Doug Rouark and a group of Ranger College football boys have shaved their heads about as close as an onion. Yule Brynner would probably be jealous!

A letter received, here, from Simjian and Co. in Iran asks for a year's subscription to the Times in this manner:

"We shall be very much obliged to you if you subscribe us for one year to Times."

They also ask for four copies of every issue for 1958 and 1959, but Simjian gives no hint of what he wants with the newspapers.

Heard that some cows owned by Morris Newman got away. I don't know if this is funny or not. But I bet it isn't to Morris.

Explorer Post 16 will plan several exciting activities for boys between the ages of 14 and 18 this Friday evening at 7 in the Scout Cabin. So bring your plans and come on out!

Every-time we turn around we hear a new fish story. One pulled over a man in a boat. That was the one that got away. If this keeps up, we might even "break-down" and go fishing ourself!

The last student poem to be included in this column appears below. Others, not printed here, will appear in the special graduation edition of the Times, next Sunday.

This one's by Judy Craig.

Summer Morning After A Rain

I woke one summer morning;
The day was bright and new.
The rain had washed each little leaf

The rain had come without warning
But quickly bade us adieu.
A rainbow reminded us of grief
The grass perked up and said,
"I'm clean!"

That had become a blessing anew.
The janquils answered, "Yes, and very green!"
But above all, the day exclaimed,
"I'm new and ready for you to claim!"

114 Students To Graduate

About 114 students in the junior high and elementary schools will participate in graduation exercises Friday, May 30, in the high school auditorium.

A total of 58 junior high school students will graduate into high school. Hodges Oak Park is graduating 32 Sixth Graders into junior high, and Young Elementary is graduating 24 from the Sixth Grade.

Exercises will start at 10 a.m. for the elementary schools, and the junior high graduation will follow about 10:45 a.m. Friday.

O. C. Warden, principal of Hodges Oak Park, and Morris Jeffries, principal of Young Elementary, will present diplomas to the graduating students.

The presentation of honor students will be made by Rose Deffenbach. Dan Whitaker will direct the Sixth Grade band in several musical numbers.

Sylvia Robinson will play the processional on the piano, and Cookie Falls, the recessional.

The invocation will be given by Rev. Ralph Perkins, pastor of the First Baptist Church, and the benediction by Rev. K. C. Edmonds, pastor of the Eastside Baptist Church.

In junior high school exercises, diplomas will be awarded by Charles Garrett, principal. Each teacher will recognize all students.

Eb Richardson To Be Manager Of Concessions

Eb Richardson, Lake Leon warden, will manage concession stands during the July Fourth celebration planned at the Lake.

Joint fire departments of Ranger and Eastland turned down an offer to run the concessions in a meeting Monday night.

R. V. Galloway, manager of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce, and Herb Tanner, manager of the Eastland Chamber of Commerce, were empowered by chamber members to offer Richardson the concession management in case the fire departments turned it down.

College Graduation, RHS Baccalaureate Set

Services Set In Auditorium

Good Luck and Best Wishes To All of Ranger's Graduates!

92 Degrees To Be Awarded

Baccalaureate services for Ranger High School's graduating seniors are set in the high school auditorium this coming Sunday at 8 p.m. with R. L. Craig, minister of the Eastside Church of Christ, bringing the principal address.

Corene Sutton, senior, will bring scriptural thoughts for graduates. In charge of the processional and recessional will be Sue Watson. The invocation will be given by Rev. Bill Vaughn, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, and the benediction given by Rev. Ed Seabrook, pastor of the Second Baptist Church.

The congregation will sing "Holy, Holy, Holy" and the class will sing "Whispering Hope". A cornet solo will be given by Jackie Neeley, accompanied by Ann Robinson.

The annual Senior Class Day program is set this Friday at 2:45 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

Memorial Day graduation services are planned for the seniors on May 30 at 8 p.m. in the auditorium. Don Deffenbach, salutatorian, and Ann Robinson, valedictorian, will address the class.

G. B. Rush, superintendent of schools, will make the presentation of awards, and J. A. Bates, president of the board of education, will award diplomas. Charles Garrett, principal, will present the class.

Annabach Deffenbach will be in charge of the processional and recessional. The invocation will be given by Rev. James Elson, pastor of the First Methodist Church, and the benediction by Jack Barker, pastor of the First Christian Church.

A piano solo will be given by Betty Gail Gardeshire, and the class will sing "Hail to the Bulldogs" and the Alma Mater.

Master Masons To Meet Here

Master Masons and high-ranking Masonic visitors will convene in Ranger Masonic Lodge Friday at 7:30 p.m. Fred F. DeVaney, grand secretary of the Grand Royal and Select Masters, will be the principal speaker.

A good crowd is expected to be on hand for this event.

DeVaney is a Baptist minister, who is now serving as Prelate in the Knight Templar at Waco. He has held many Masonic posts.

Graduation at Carbon Planned

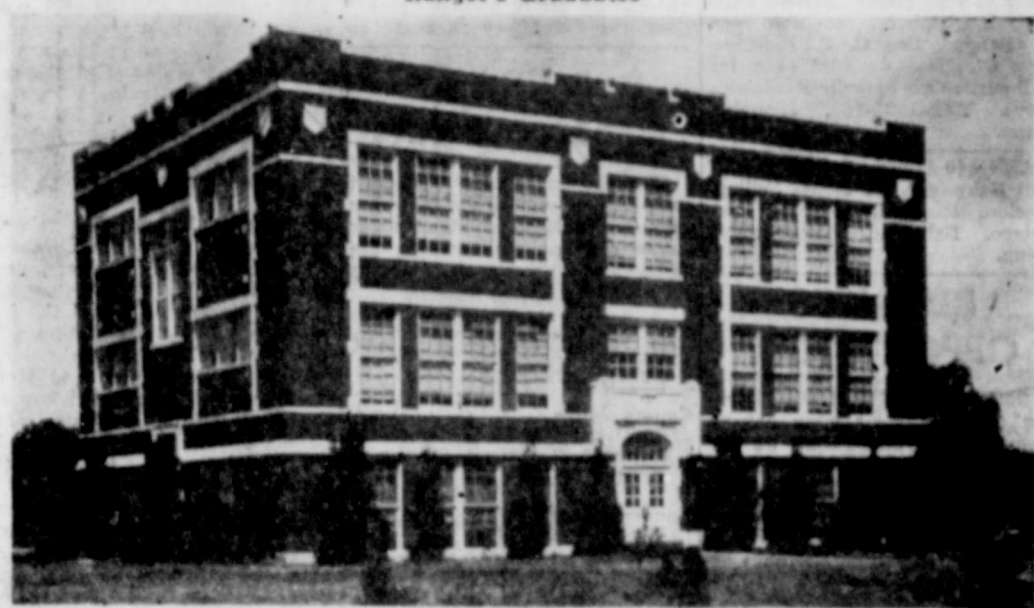

Carbon High School Baccalaureate services will be held Sunday morning, at 11 at the Carbon Methodist Church.

The Rev. Richard Smith III, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Eastland, will preach. The Rev. Roger Butler, pastor of the Carbon Baptist Church, will give the invocation; and Mitchell Embry, minister of Carbon Church of Christ, will give the benediction.

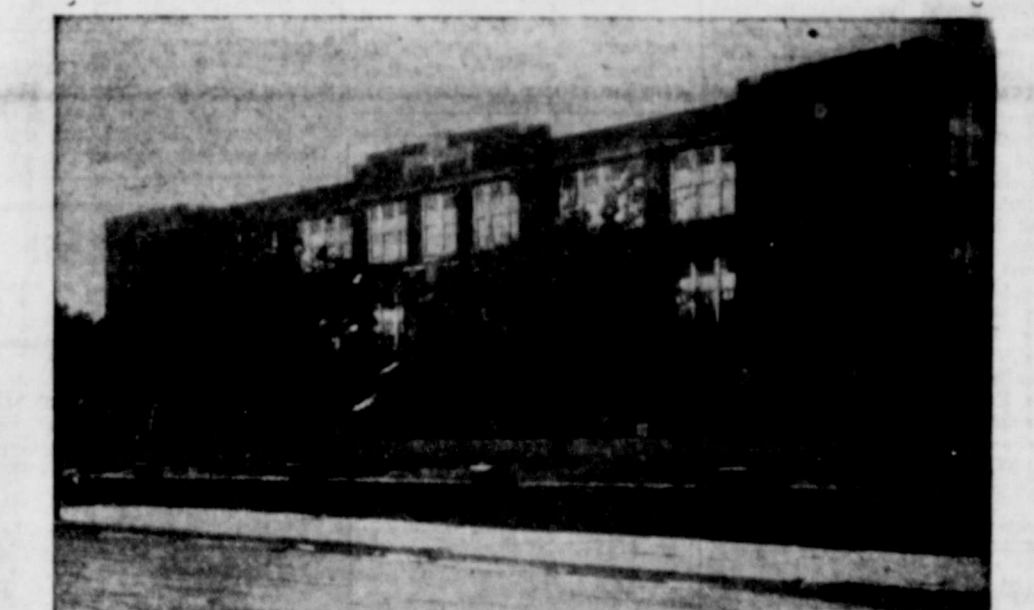

Mrs. Grover Hallmark, accompanied by Mrs. Charles Atkinson, will sing "Spirit of God". Miffie Bone and Maxie Stacy, both juniors, will play the processional and recessional. Betty Bond, Zelma Hendricks, Jerry Glover, and a n d Mickey Rogers, all juniors, will usher.

Graduation exercises will be held Monday evening, May 26, at 8 in the school auditorium. Faye Thompson, junior, and Faye Simmons, sophomore, sisters of two of the graduates, will light the candles. Glenn Justice, president of the Board of Education, will give the invocation; Rev. B. A. May, father of one of the graduates, will pronounce the benediction.

The salutatory will be given by Marvin Lee, and the valedictory will be given by Ann Mangum. Ronald Services, school principal, (Continued On Page Three)

RANGER COLLEGE—Seniors will be leaving behind them a lot of memories connected with this building and other buildings on the campus. They will have fond memories of many varied activities, as well, when they bid their "adieu" Sunday during graduation. (Photo By Capps)

RANGER HIGH SCHOOL—Will seem empty next year without the outstanding group of graduating Seniors. Soon, it will be almost vacated as school draws to close and 48 Seniors leave. Lower class men will be glad to leave for the summer, but just as glad to come back for the Fall. (Photo by Capps)

Science Projects Now On Display

Annual projects of the biology and general science classes at the high school are on display in the old B. F. Goodrich store, downtown, by Sweetbriar.

Projects were made by students of Mrs. D. L. Penney. About 20 of the 113 made are on display, including an oil well working model by David Pickrell and another by Jimmy Hamilton.

A crystal radio set by Ronnie Duskevich and Alex Eakin, are among the displays. Biology exhibits include the different stages of frogs, by Charles Veale, and Jim Wells. Two aquariums, illustrating the balance of nature, are also on display.

Double Header Set Tonight

In the second series of baseball games of the season the Indians will play the Giants and the Dodgers take on the Yankees in Little League Park this evening beginning at 6:30.

The Indians lost their first game to the Dodgers by a score of 18-9, and the Giants beat out the Yanks in their first game to the tune of 14 to 4.

A good crowd is expected to be on hand for the second double-header.

Senior Day Program Open to Public Fri.

Seniors returned Wednesday evening from their annual trip to find themselves in the midst of activities starting with the Senior Day Program Friday afternoon at 2:45 in the high school auditorium. Parents and the public is invited to attend the program. Ample seating room will be available downstairs, Charles Garrett, principal, said.

The planned program will feature talks by Richard Spindle, class president David Wharton, student council president, who will read the class will, and Judy Craig, who will read the class prophecy. Faye Halliday, who is listed honorable mention in the annual anthology of the High School Poetry Association, will read the class poem.

Jean Bankston will be in charge of the processional and recessional. The invocation will be given by Dale Cozart, and the benediction by G. B. Rush, superintendent.

A girls duet, consisting of Judy Craig and Jimmie May Miller, will sing, and the class will sing the school song and "Graduation Bells."

Baccalaureate services are set Sunday at 8 p.m. and graduation exercises will take place Friday, May 30, in the auditorium at 8 p.m.

Four "wet backs" were being held in the city jail Wednesday morning, before being turned over to officials.

They were to be flown to Brownsville and turned over to Mexican Government officials by members of the Border Patrol.

Associate of Arts Degrees will be awarded to 92 candidates at Ranger College graduation services Sunday night at 8 in the First Methodist Church.

State Senator Floyd Bradshaw, of the twenty second legislative district, will be the principal speaker. He will be introduced by Dr. Price R. Ashton, college president.

Dr. Ashton said this is "One of the finest classes we've ever had, academically speaking." Their grades are somewhat higher than the average class, he said. Dr. Ashton considers this an exceptional class.

Addresses will be given by Beth Calvert, valedictorian and Elpidia Gonzales, salutatorian. Lawrence Ray Clayton will bring the scholarship address.

The processional will be led by George W. Alford with Mrs. James Preston Morris acting as marchal. The invocation will be given by Rev. Jack Barker, pastor of the First Christian Church.

Ranger College Singers will sing the anthem, "Sanctus", directed by Henry Lutzpach and accompanied by Mrs. Lutzpach. They will also sing "O Divine Redeemer", following the address.

Judson R. Hardy, head of the mathematics department, will recognize honor students, including Summa Cum Laude (Calvert) and Magna Cum Laude graduates (Gonzales and James Frederick Holtwick). A total of 27 other graduates are honor students (Cum Laude).

Dean David B. Allsup will present the graduating class to be awarded diplomas by Mrs. Don Elliott, registrar.

The benediction will be given by Rev. Ralph E. Perkins, pastor of the First Baptist Church. The recessional will be led by Alford.

"The Ranger" Is Distributed

A total of 275 copies of "The Ranger" arrived and were distributed to students at Ranger College Tuesday afternoon.

The annual has been prepared by staff members, directed by Mrs. R. L. Hamrick.

A new feature of the annual this year is departmental activities picturing scenes from different classes in action. Another feature are the drawings, illustrating Spanish scenes, by Charles Bonney, art editor.

In a white leatherette cover, the annual has a large color photo engraving of Newall Hall inside the covers. Included in the 140 pages are 14 pages of local advertising and six pages of area advertising (including Albany, Breckenridge, and Graham).

Co-editors of the annual are Mary Lou Wright and Elpidia Gonzales. Business managers are Doris Nabors and Donna Blackwell.

Car Damaged In Accident Here

A '58 Mac truck, driven by a Fort Worth man, collided with a '51 Chevrolet, driven by Ralph Roberts of Ranger, Tuesday morning west on Highway 80, resulting in heavy damages.

The truck was unable to stop in time to avoid colliding with the back of the car, after skidding several feet. No one was injured. Damages to the truck amounted to about $150 and the car was a total loss.

The Fort Worth driver was given a ticket for failure to control speed to avoid collision.

The accident occurred near Grants Grocery Store while both cars were traveling east.

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health. HENRY A. HOLLE, M.D., Commissioner

Suppose your youngster swallows a substance you know is poisonous. The label is missing and you don't know the antidote. All you know is the name of the product.

Grim supposing? Yes, but it happens every day to adults as well as children. How would you react? You should call your doctor at once, but what would he do? He must know exactly how much of what is in the poison before he acts. And time is all-important.

If your community had a poison control center, the problem would be much simplified. By checking a master index the center could give your doctor a quick run-down on ingredients in the substances. If necessary the child could be rushed to the center for emergency treatment with special equipment.

Unfortunately there was only one complete local center in Texas, operating in Austin's Brackridge Hospital, until Galveston, Houston, and Fort Worth established poison information centers more recently.

This clearly is a dangerous situation. The State Department of Health, through its Division of Occupational Health, for over a year has been seriously intent on encouraging formation of poison control centers wherever there is local willingness.

The Department will furnish free an index information file, together with periodic supplements. Additionally, the Department offers counsel in organizing a center, and will make the resources of its extensive toxicological available. The Division itself serves as a poison information center on an around-the-clock basis.

A complete local poison control center does three things: 1. It keeps information instantly available on compositions of poisonous materials, together with antidotes. It keeps up to date with a reference library on toxicology, and maintains a master index of poisons.

2. It maintains all emergency drugs, oxygen equipment, catheters, tubes, syringes, needles etc., for immediate life-saving use in treating poisoning cases. A treatment center is usually located in a local hospital emergency room.

3. It conducts continuous public education on the hazards of literally thousands of poisonous agents available on today's market. Educational activities might be handled by persons other than the information or treatment staff.

For maximum usefulness, information and treatment phases must be operated 24 hours a day, supervised by a competent physician.

There you have it—a realistic, inexpensive plan for coping with the everconstant danger of ac-

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Quinn and children of Goldsmith spent the weekend here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Quinn, who returned home with them on Sunday for an extended visit.

C. R. Wier is spending this week in Fort Worth with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Young of Longview and Mr. and Mrs. John Carl Young of Snyder spent Saturday night with their sister and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Belyeu. The Youngs were here to attend the funeral in De Leon of Mrs. John Tate. B. E. Belyeu also attended the funeral.

Mrs. Stell Joiner and daughter, Mrs. Bob Mears of Arlington, left for Odessa to be with another daughter and sister, Mrs. Arden Parker who was to undergo surgery early this week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Roberts and his mother, Mrs. Roberts of Grandbury were in Lueders Friday night to attend graduation exercises of George Autrey McIntosh, grandson and nephew of the Roberts.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Keith and Vicki of Cisco spent Sunday afternoon with his mother, Ethel Keith.

Mrs. Mack Keith and son, Michael James, and a girl friend, Betty Ward of Monahans, spent several days here with Mrs. Keith's parents, the H. Rainey and Ethel Keith.

"I Wanted to be Sure-

... that's why I have come to you for help. I have never had an abstract to my place and now I am in trouble". That is the testimony of a recent customer and is a repeat of many such testimonies we have had in our 55 year experience in abstracting Eastland County land titles. It's certainly a compliment to have the confidence of so many people and we want to keep that confidence by seeing to it that every customer gets a quality product.

VISIT IN FORT WORTH

Mrs. L. J. Burnett and Jimmy visited Mr. and Mrs. Billy Ray Burnett and family and Mr. and Mrs. Louen Burnett and family in Fort Worth over the weekend.

They also attended the Air Show held at Carswell Air Base in honor of Armed Forces Day.

First Methodist WSCS Meets at Church Monday

The WSCS of the First Methodist Church met Monday, May 19, at the church. Mrs. A. J. Ratliff, president, presided over a short business meeting.

The opening prayer was led by Mrs. Archie Robinson. Gifts of appreciation were given to Mrs. J. A. Johnson and Mrs. F. S. Pearsall by Circle No. 2.

Mrs. Arthur Deffebach was in charge of the program. She also gave the meditation from Ecclesiastes 11:22, Matthew 17:20, John 4:5-14, and John 15:5-8.

A skit was presented by Mmes. Deffebach, W. F. Creager, and A. W. Brada. The skit, "A March of Mission Dollars," was given in three scenes: "Just One Woman"; "One and One Make Two"; and "Then There Were Three." Mrs. J. L. Turner led the closing prayer.

Hostesses at the meeting were Mmes. B. A. Tunnell, J. A. Johnson and J. F. Killingsworth.

Mrs. M. L. King Presents Book Review for Columbia Study Club

The Columbia Study Club met in the home of Mrs. Price Ashton Tuesday, May 20, at 3:30 p. m. for the last meeting of the club year.

Mrs. J. E. Matthews, club president, presided over a short business meeting, at which time the following officers were elected for the coming year: Mrs. A. N. Larson, president; and Mrs. Frances Jameson, secretary and treasurer.

Mrs. M. L. King reviewed "Red Carpet for Mamie," a biography of Mrs. Eisenhower written by Alden Hatch.

The refreshment table was laid with a white linen cutwork cloth. An arrangement of bluish carnations and silver leaves in a crystal and silver epergne centered the table.

The hostess was assisted in serving by Mmes. James P. Morris, Jameson, J. E. Matthews, E. E. Crawford, and David D. Pickrell.

The following members were present: Mmes. Crawford, L. H. Hagaman, Jameson, King, Larson, Matthews, Morris, Stanley McAnelly, L. R. Pearson, Pickrell, and D. T. Wier.

Guests included: Mmes. R. L. Hamrick, Ernen Haby, Margaret Theberge, M. H. Hagaman, William McGrath, J. E. Morgan of Dallas, and Miss Vivian Simmons.

Ladies Meet for Bible Study

The ladies of the Merriman Baptist Church met Tuesday afternoon at 1:45 for a weekly Bible study.

Mrs. Jack Walker, hostess, led the opening prayer. The devotional, the 7th chapter of Leviticus, was presented by Mrs. A. E. Dawson.

Refreshments of coffee and cake were served to the following: Mmes. Bonnie Rodgers, W. S. Vinson, G. D. Falls, C. J. Cole, Dawson, Ruby Ainsworth, J. W. Vinson, Owen Falls, and Walker.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many dear friends for their words and deeds of kindness in our time of sorrow in the passing on of our beloved wife, mother, grandmother, and sister. May our Lord bless all of you.

AS IT LOOKS FROM HERE

By OMAR BURLESON
17th District

OMAR BURLESON
17th District
WASHINGTON, D. C.— Strain at a knot and swallow a camel. Remember the William Heikkila case?— He was the man who was ousted out of the Country to his native Finland immediately after the high courts had denied him relief on his deportation case.

Heikkila came to the United States in 1906. He registered as an alien in 1940, and admitted he was a member of the Communist Party. He waited until 1945 to file his first application for citizenship.

In 1949 he was first ordered deported and has been appealing ever since.

After the supreme court had denied appeals in 1952, 1953 and 1955, he started all over again. This means that as long as all the foreign hoodlums and Communists have money to hire lawyers to keep their case in court, they can not be deported.

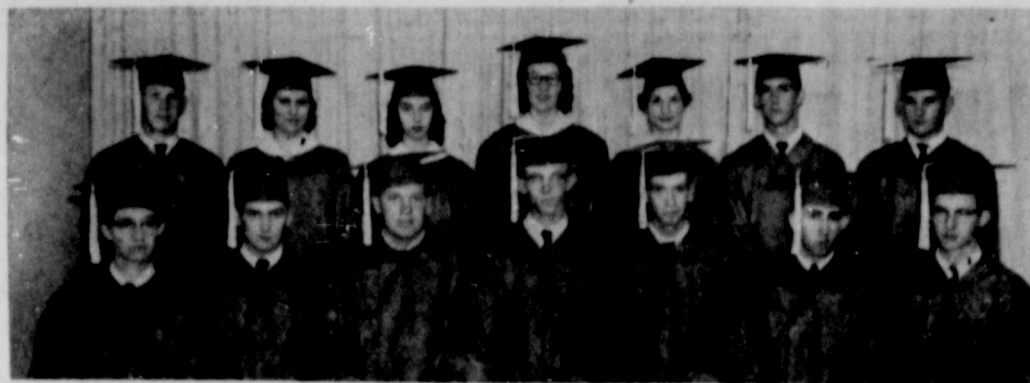

As of about a year ago there were between 7,000 and 8,000 orders for deportation, but not a one of them deported.

In many instances the native country will not receive them. More than half the cases now pending are people from Communist countries behind the Iron Curtain.

What can be done with the person ordered deported from the United States when his native country will not issue the documents for this Country to deliver him? The answer is absolutely nothing.

At the same time, there is a hue and cry from many highly respected organizations and many good people to open our doors to more and more expellees and refugees.

Kidney Slow-Down May Bring Restless Nights
When kidney function slows down, many folks complain of nagging backache, head-aches, dizziness and loss of pep and energy. Don't suffer restless nights with these discomforts if reduced kidney function is getting you down—due to such common causes as stress and strain, over-exertion or exposure to cold. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages. Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. While often otherwise caused, it's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief from these discomforts—lessen the 15 tubes of kidney tubes and filters. Rush out "Katie, Get Doan's Pills today!"

Since 1945 the United States has admitted an estimated 500,000 escapees, and in addition, between 70,000 and 75,000 have been admitted under regular immigration quotas. They have been admitted under the Displaced Persons Act and under the so-called Refugee Act of 1953. Under the President's authority, a flood of so-called Hungarian refugees were admitted in 1956 and 1957. Still more are coming.

Our government knew little or nothing about these people when they were admitted. At this time we do not know where many of them are, or what they are doing. Yet, we drag one deportation through the courts for ten years and raise a hullabaloo by trying to get one man out of the Country immediately after the court has decided his case and before his lawyer can file another.

Our government has already found some of these refugees we've imported to be Communists and some criminals. If all of them proved to be Communists and criminals, we could do nothing about a single one. But we continue to bring them in and continue efforts to deport others. Repugnant gnats and palatable camels!

Floating Pool To Be Moved to Location Friday

Early morning risers Friday may get an opportunity to see a once in a lifetime sight.

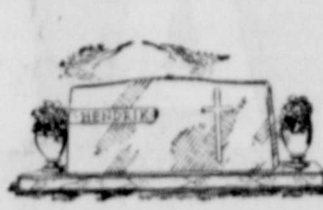

Victor Cornelius, who is having a "floating swimming pool" built at Lake Leon, plans to float the pool to its location by his lake home Friday morning at about 7 a.m.

The pool is being built just below the dam and will be floated into location on barrels.

New Officers Are Installed At New Era Club Luncheon Saturday

Members and guests of the New Era Club were honored at a spring luncheon held in the Woman's Club in Abilene on Saturday, May 17, at 12:30 p.m. Hostesses were Mrs. W. W. Mitchell and Mrs. Alex Roberson.

The dining room of the club was decorated with arrangements of snapdragons, yellow roses, Louisiana iris, larkspur, and pansies to carry out the club colors of purple and gold. Individual corsages of pansies in club colors were presented to those attending.

Mrs. W. A. Lewis, club president, extended greetings to the guests and members. The invocation was given by Mrs. W. F. Creager.

Following the luncheon, reports were given by all officers and committee chairmen.

Mrs. L. L. Bruce, club historian, gave the club history for the year. Mrs. Lewis presented Mrs. Ruby Springer, who was in charge of an installation service entitled "Under His Wings."

The following officers were installed for the coming year: Mrs. George Robinson, president; Mrs. J. A. Johnson, first vice-president; Mrs. Myrtle George, second vice-president; Mrs. Addie Harris, treasurer; Mrs. Charlie Garrett, recording secretary; Mrs. L. L. Bruce, corresponding secretary; Mrs. J. L. Turner, publicity chairman; Mrs. Richard Henderson, historian; and Mrs. W. D. R. Owen, parliamentarian.

Following the installation ceremony, the new president Mrs. Robinson made a brief talk and read a list of committees for the coming year.

Mrs. Arthur Deffebach, on behalf of the club members, presented a gift to Mrs. Lewis as a token of appreciation for her outstanding work as president of the club. The following were present:

Mrs. Carl Heinlen, Buck Wallace, Mae Carr, Lee Russell, Peggy Blanton, A. W. Warford, Mildred Brooks, V. V. Cooper, Carl Lummus, W. F. Creager, Drennon Daves, A. W. Brazda, Arthur Deffebach, James Ellison, Vernon Deffebach, B. S. Dudley Sr., R. S. Dudley Jr., Gaston Dixon, Addie Harris, N. E. Landers, H. H. Oliver, Bruce, Roberson, and Mitchell.

Hope Centered On Ranger During World War 1

(Editor's Note: This is the second part of "The One and Only Ranger," which first appeared in the American Petroleum Institute "Quarterly.")

Gordon's company had balked at continuing down when the McCleskey well had only a showing of gas at 3,200 feet. Just a month prior the Walker well, a gasser, had been the first "failure" on the Ranger acreage at about the same depth. What the country needed was oil, not gas. But on his own responsibility Gordon had gone deeper with the McCleskey well. First it had been McCleskey No. 1, then Davenport No. 1, then Haganman No. 1. And now, in May, 1918, the shooting of the England well added another gusher! The stampede was on.

The evening before I arrived at Ranger I'd watched the flower of our youth from Ellington Field, an Army Air Force base, kid the pretty cigar-stand girl in the lobby of the Fort Worth Hotel. I'd seen her sadly tear up an IOU when a couple of boys gave her the news of another training "flying crane" casualty. The war was close to Fort Worth; it was close to Ranger. For in remote Ranger, as shortage talk grew louder, might lie the salvation of the Allied forces. Wildcatting over this large area of North Central Texas had been stimulated by a shortage that had carried the basic Oklahoma-Kansas grade price from $1.40 a barrel early in January, 1917 to $2.25 in March, 1918.

Sweat, hunger, but mainly thirst, beset the doubled-up guests at Ranger's "hotel," the Bryant, across from the T & P station. Guests, temporary and permanent, were pouring in on specials from Fort Worth. Normally a crossroads hamlet of some 800, Ranger was topping 2,500, not counting the men going into outlying oil-and supply-company camps. The town was beginning to have problems of housing, water supply, sanitation. The fact that it had 50 town officers, but was administered by county officials, didn't help.

What these people had prayed for in vain for three years was rain. What they seemed to be getting was a cloudburst of oil.

Under the terms of their agreement, the owners who had pooled their acreage with the committee negotiated separate royalty agreements with the contracting company. However, you didn't need to have a well come in on your property to make a good-sized lump. The few leases around Ranger not previously pledged at a few cents an acre were being offered as high as $1,000 an acre. A lease on 2 1/2 acres was closed at $10,500, with a 90-day drilling clause. In fact, the lease was being priced right out of the market. So was the royalty. One fractional royalty offer was for a 1-1,056th interest at $10 an acre.

In consequence, stories of fortunes garnered by the not-so-long-ago embattled inhabitants were going the rounds. For 40 of his newly three-acre-and-ten years, McCleskey had lived on and farmed his little parcel of 40 acres. But now—ever since his chickens had been discolored—he had been realizing $200 to $500 a day.

"Doc" Charles Edwin Terrell doubled as village druggist and family doctor. He'd settled in Ranger way back in 1884 and had brought a couple of generations of that area's children into the world. Everybody was happy to hear that "Doc" Terrell had struck it rich.

Petmaster C. P. Davis was reputed to have made from $75,000 to $100,000. His brother, Bob, a businessman, recently "had sold a half-interest in a royalty for $17,000."

Everything that "Silvertop" Hazlett had been predicting about North Central Texas seemed to be coming true—everything except that it was a poor wildcat's paradise.

Only the big companies could pay those prices. They began to bid against each other for huge blocks of Texas & Pacific Coal Company leases. They moved in with drilling programs limited only by war restrictions on manpower, on steel, and by the acute shortage of water for drilling purposes.

Impressions I took away from

New Soil Program In Palo Pinto

Palo Pinto county has been designated as one of the counties in the Great Plains Conservation Program.

The supervisors of the Palo Pinto district met in a called meeting Friday, May 9 and made formal request to have the county activated.

The program includes cost sharing up to 80 percent credit and technical assistance in soil and water conservation, crop insurance, weather studies, research and education. Based on a conservation plan worked out by the farmer or rancher the program approved by the contracting agency.

It includes changes in land use, wind and water erosion control measures, such as terracing, seeding, brush control, cross fencing, water development and management practices. Plans of operation will include needed land use changes, needed cropping and grazing systems, soil and water conservation measures. The plan will call for carrying out all measures in a period not to exceed 10 years, however the contract with the secretary of agriculture cannot be less than 5 years.

The contracting officer of the Soil Conservation Service will certify all performance and the ASC committee will make all payments. The contract is binding and if the place sells the contract goes with the place, or refunds will be made by the government.

Under the plan crop land acreage allotments will not be decreased by any action in carrying out the program. Contact your local Soil Conservation Service or Bill Sanders, Metcalf Gap, W. A. Edwards, Santo, A. L. Cranford, Perrin, J. T. Hubbard, Hockabay and W. O. Dawson, Ranger, for further information regarding this new program.

VISIT HERE WEDNESDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Chet Sykes and children of Columbus, Ohio, and Mrs. Ed Ward and children of Waco were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Judson Hardy Wednesday.

Ranger included the big companies praying with the farmers for rain, and harassed leaseholders praying for a couple of dry holes to bring about sensible prices. Another was the realization of the overwhelming problems which the good citizens of Ranger faced. They were moving vigorously to incorporate the town, to form a Chamber of Commerce, to cope with the hazards, sanitary and fire, that threatened terrible devastation because of the shack slums and suburbs a-building and the wells crowding in and spewing gas and oil.

Another impression: When I was at Ranger one saw the strange incongruity of influx and exodus—the eager boomers dropping out of the sky contrasted with the sad, heart-breaking recession of discouraged landowners. Not all the land in that vast area was being grabbed at or drilled on.

LOOK...a FORD with Air Conditioning costs less than many medium-priced cars without it!

Depend on Ford to find a way to bring air conditioning within reach of nearly every new car buyer

If you ever have said, "Some day I'm going to own a car with air conditioning" ... here is the most welcome news in a long while: A comparison of manufacturers' suggested retail delivered prices shows that a 58 Ford with air conditioning costs less than many medium-priced cars without it!

So why wait?

Your Ford Dealer is ready now to show you just how pleasant ... how comfortable ... how fatigue-free your summer driving can be in an air-conditioned Ford. No matter how high the temperature soars, you'll ride cool and comfy as an arctic polar bear!

Something else you'll appreciate almost as much as Ford's air conditioning is its spirited performance. Ford offers you a Thunderbird-powered V-8 engine that is new from oil pan up ... new from machined combustion chambers to silent-working hydraulic valve lifters. It's the Thunderbird's own V-8 so naturally it gives the Thunderbird's own special brand of V-8 skedaddle—up to 300 horsepower—worth of it!

Just team this V-8 with Ford's all-new Cruise-O-Matic Drive transmission and you'll get as much as 134 better gas mileage. It's like getting back 134 on every gas dollar!

So add it all up: low-cost air conditioning. Thunderbird CO. thrifty operation. Can any other car offer you so much real value? Then why not see your Ford Dealer today? He'll show you how to stop perspiring and start living!
