

TRAINING SCHOOL

As one of the plans for reaching more people through Extension Work in 1932 a training school was planned in which local leaders would be given special instructions for conducting their meetings when the home demonstration agent is not present. Their regular monthly meeting was held at the Amherst Home Demonstration Club House Tuesday April 26th.

"Personality" was the subject for discussion and the following women appeared, on the program.

Personality—Mrs. Loyd Crosby, Amherst Club.

Why We Need to Give More Time to Personal Appearance—Mrs. Bill Day, Spade.

How Mental Attitudes Affect the Face and Body—Mrs. C. M. Owens, Olton.

How to Care for the Hair—Mrs. Ida Yandell, Rocky Ford.

How to Care for the Body Externally—Mrs. Adrain Jones, Blue Bonnet.

How to Care for the Body Internally—Mrs. C. M. Crawford, Blue Bonnet.

Effect of the Personal Appearance on Our Families—Miss Maye Moore, Hearts Camp.

Some 50 women representing 15 clubs were present for the meeting.

In order to find out how effective these schools are the home demonstration agent ask club women to give their reaction. Some of which follow:

"If I had to miss club or training school I would miss the club meeting," Mrs. H. C. Dennington, Friendship Club.

"I do not know how we could have our second meeting without the training school," Mrs. W. E. Logan, Blue Bonnet Club. of 18 varieties. Black eye and cream peas 63 containers, starchy vegetables 64 containers of corn, parsnips and sweet potatoes.

The emergency shelf has a total of 87 containers of the following: Pork and Beans, Chicken Gumbo, Chicken a la King, Homin, Wheat, Sandwich spread, Pudding, Seasoned pumpkin, Green Tomato Mince Meat, Tomato puree, Chicken and beef soup, 25 quarts in the form of scrapple, liver paste, roast. A grand total of 964 containers or 847 quarts made succulent vegetables 119 containers, consisting of 15 varieties, leafy vegetables 215 containers of 10 varieties; tomatoes 100 quarts sea foods 26 cans, fruit and fruit juices 97, consisting of 11 varieties, pickles, relishes, catsup, etc., 94 containers of 15 varieties, preserves jellies, jams etc., 83 containers that an eight month budget would be more beneficial than a six month budget. The simple reason is we had rather have plenty than not enough if garden time comes late.

It would be simple to have plenty of about six vegetables for your pantry, but would it be so simple then to have your family tire of them? That is one reason we provided and canned the following varieties: eat even though there has been depression. We feel the depression and know that it is true, but at least we are not eating of it. That means that our family is not doing without the foods that are so necessary for our physical well being.

Our home agent, Miss Mashburn helped us to make a food budget where by we could serve balanced meals throughout the period when gardens are not productive. We decided "Our meeting with out the agent is much more interesting since we get the help at training school." Mrs. W. C. Squires, Harts Camp.

Our 4-H Pantry Mrs. I. V. Fent, Sand Hill Club Our Slogan this summer has been "Four good months to provide for the eight lean ones" Now as we look at our harvest we see that we've certainly had a great one. The pantry shelves are loaded with oodles of head cheese, sausage, and pork up of 89 varieties.

The canned products are surrounded in their pantry with pumpkin, squash, citron, pea-

PLAINVIEW WILL HOLD PIONEER ROUND UP MAY 21ST.

This annual gathering of Pioneers of Hale County and the Plains will open at four o'clock Saturday afternoon, May 21st., with a parade in which cowboys, chuckwagons, covered wagons, top buggies, buckboards wagons and many old-time features will be displayed. All of the pioneers will ride in the parade.

From five o'clock until eight there will be an informal meeting and visiting of old friends, registration, special features, and during this time chuck will be served from the chuck wagon to all present.

Among the special features will be a style show of old customs, a display of old photographs of well known pioneers taken in the long ago, and a museum. The old-photo display was introduced last year and was declared by some of the old-timers to be the best part of the Round Up. The museum is a new feature to be introduced this year and will be made up of antiques and relics loaned for the occasion.

"A Pioneer Christmas," a short play written by the pioneer woman of Plainview will be the feature of the program. The stage will be arranged to depict a pioneer's home in the early nineties and a scene of early life will be presented. There will be singing, fiddling, and the usual pioneer entertainment.

A square dance will follow the program, and all who wish may participate.

An admission fee of twenty-five cents will cover all the features of the Round-Up, the supper, visiting hour, photo show, the museum, program and the square dance.

This is the Fourth Annual gathering of the pioneers to be held in Plainview and is sponsored each year by the Business and Professional Women's club, and each year it is growing in interest and attendance.

An invitation is extended to the pioneers and others interested in Lamb County to attend the Round Up.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. Doyle C. Morrow honored Mrs. J. M. White with a surprise birthday party Monday afternoon. Coffee and cake were served to the following guests: Mesdames J. M. White, G. L. Morrow, A. D. Linton, J. E. Campbell, John Hilliard, A. Massey and the hostess, Mrs. Morrow. Mrs. White was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts and good wishes for many more happy birthdays. —Contributed by Mrs. J. M. White.

Mr. and Mrs. John Briscoe and Mrs. Mrs. John Briscoe made the round trip to Lubbock Monday.

nuts, pop corn, pinto beans, black eye and cream peas, Irish potatoes, onions, sweet potatoes and apples.

Beef products of roast, meat loaf, chili and steak have been added as well as sufficient supply of American Cheese for our family.

We feel as though our 4-H pantry game is one of the most worth while on the farm. First from a health standpoint, second financially because we are saving at least $325.00. And in dollars and cents I can't figure what it will mean in the ease of planning and preparing meals.

I am sure that our pantry demonstration has helped others for they grow interested when they see the attractive products and want the recipes.

Some have come to see how the canned products are arranged according to the food value, while others have come to see how a model pantry was built.

But to us last of all to gaze into the loaded shelves and things surrounding them, gives us a feeling of security and thankfulness that can't be measured.

FRIENDSHIP NOTES

The Friendship Club entertained their husbands with a banquet supper Friday, April 29th., at the church. A nice time was enjoyed by all.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. W. R. Boyd is confined to his home the past two weeks with sickness, and trust that he will soon be well.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Owing to the depression of times and the many people who feel like they haven't sufficient clothes to wear to church, we take this method of making it possible for every one to go to church. The First Baptist Church of Sudan, has voted in regular session for all men and boys to wear their overalls, and the women and girls to wear their common print dresses, and this applies to one and all. Commencing the first Sunday in June. By that time the weather will be warm enough for the men to leave their coats and the women their hats at home.

Please cooperate and let us all worship together on one common level.—H. F. Cole, Pastor.

BACK TO SANITY

The best way of realizing how hysterical we got during the World War is to examine some of the emotions that possessed us then in the light of present-day developments.

Toward the close of the war, for instance, there was a widespread demand to "hang the kaiser." Perhaps few of us really wanted to see William Hohen zollern actually dangling from a gibbet, but there is no question that our wrath and indignation once focused almost entirely on him. We wanted him to be made to sweat, we wanted him to be punished very badly.

Now the leading citizens of the Virgin Islands have invited the ex-kaiser to come to their land and spend his declining years in their midst; and although Wilhelm declined the offer, it is safe to say that had he accepted, in all America voice raised in protest. We there would not have been one have in other words returned to sanity; and whether or not this invitation is accepted, the fact that it was issued shows how far we have got away from the hatreds of 1918.—Amarillo News.

BLUE BONNET

G. B. Counts who has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. W. T. Attaway left last week to visit his daughter, Mrs. Prince Young who lives at Tioga.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Lumpkin spent Thursday in Plainview.

Mesdames F. Z. Payne, Foster Lumpkin and R. H. Shaffer met with the Home Demonstration club at Amherst Tuesday.

THE OBLIGATION OF A CREDITOR

In discussing the half-baked or ill-adviced statements that have been made about South American securities during the great depression, an authority on that subject recently said:

"In spite of admitted over-lending and of other things which are well known, there is a large intrinsic value in Latin American securities now in the hands of the public. This fact cannot be too strongly emphasized. To sacrifice holdings, to enter into contractual relations which may prevent freedom of action, or to exchange securities for something of unknown value is the height of imprudence.

"The thing chiefly needed today is patience. Foreign creditors of United States enterprises have been patient, have suffered loss, but in the end have been satisfied in most cases. We forgot quickly, but in 1916 we owed foreign countries $5,500,000,000. From the earliest times our country was developed by the foreign capital, and our colonial plantations and mercantile projects were created with foreign money.

"During the long period of our national life the values of American securities had their ups and downs. Money was lost and also made. But the average was generally good. Ultimately the average will undoubtedly be similar for investment in Latin American securities.

"The United States today is a creditor nation and will have to obey the laws of creditor nations. In time, perhaps sooner than many suspects, the present stress and strain will be forgotten and we shall again be exporting capital in substantial quantities."

LABOR AND ROAD BUILDING

A recently completed study of the New Jersey Contractors' Association shows that 76 cents out of every dollar spent for road work goes to labor. Thirty-four cents is paid to labor directly on the project and 42 cents indirectly through the transportation and manufacture of supplies and equipment.

The experience of other states has been similar, which explains the efforts being made to expedite road building during the time of severe unemployment. It is interesting to note, in this connection, that more of the road dollar goes to labor when comparatively inexpensive highways—of the "road mix" type—are constructed, than in the case of main highways. Furthermore, the road dollar goes much further from the standpoint of the community when it is used for the road building in rural localities. For a very small cost per mile, first-class, all-weather roads can be built connecting farms and towns with existing main highways—and those secondary roads carry, figuratively speaking, a constant stream of dollars to the towns and farms reached. They bring tourists off the beaten path, stimulate small town business make it possible for the farmer to take his goods to market or shipping points at the most advantageous time. The nat-

COOPERATIVES SERVE

Cooperative marketing associations for farm products are not particularly new in this country, but some of the conditions under which they are forced to operate at this time are. The cooperative idea is inherently sound or it never could have stood the abuse and misuse of years as it has. Much of the progress of the movement is due to the vision of leaders founding successful marketing associations, according to Professor Drury, "because money return has been the sole measure of success."

Money values alone are no longer sure measures of worth. Through cooperatives, it is believed that American farmers may lead the way to a new type of civilization, based on a true sense of values. They are learning, through cooperation, that they must give as well as get. Something more deep-rooted than present money return must be the basis of organization of a cooperative marketing concern that expects to live and grow in the future.

Farmers must accept changes of the times. Industry is adjusting itself to meet new situations. Cooperative marketing offers a ready means of change from old methods to newer, sounder and more progressive programs for the disposal of farm products.

"Mounting taxes and government expenditures drive capital into tax-free bonds and all taxable property will eventually pass to government ownership."—Gen. James G. Harbord. This is a self-evident truth which one can prove by mounting tax charges against one's own property.

A pastor in neighboring town makes the statement that most of the criticism of churches and church members comes from people outside any church who are not informed, or are mis-informed. It has always been the practice of many people to criticize those things of which they know nothing, and it is seldom thought necessary to answer their criticism in any way.—McLean News.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Askew visited with the latter's sister, Mrs. J. B. Stratton in Lubbock, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stark spent Monday in Lubbock.

Mrs. W. R. McDaniel and children spent the week end at Olton with her parents.

Miss Opal Carter of Brownfield spent several days with her mother, Mrs. Anna Carter and family last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McKinley and daughter, Frances Lou, spent Sunday in Lubbock with relatives.

Mrs. Pal Merrett who has been suffering with her eyes for sometime, is having them treated by an eye specialist in Lubbock.

Some secondary roads are the nation's "food" roads—and that word is a good measure of their importance.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL NEWS

All the rooms are taking Music Memory work under the direction of their room teacher.

Mrs. Boyd is to have the chapel program Thursday evening.

The boys in the intermediate grades are organizing a 4-H Club. Mr. Adam is to be the director and much work is expected to be accomplished.

The Grammar School Choral Club, under the direction of Miss White, will sing at the P. T. A. meeting Thursday night.

Stop-Look-Listen

On Thursday night, May 17, the senior class will present their class play, "Fast Colors," in the High School auditorium. This play is filled with clever lines; the action is rapid; the suspense is great, but you'll be surprised when you learn really what the "Fast Colors" are. Now, there's Black and White. Then there's Green and Nature's own color. Then there is violet, and some of these see red at times. But do the "Fast Colors" run? You'll laugh at the colored lady, Dixie Jones, who is black though not Black. And can she show her emotions. You "aughta" hear her cry.

The entire cast is as follows: Pep White, W. D. Caldwell; Steve Black, Alvin Webb; These two youthful Americans are just out of business College, seeking employment of any kind. They bit on a get rich quick scheme.

Herbert Green, Clarence Weeks, who is a clever romantic young lawyer of 22.

Then there's Inspector Burke (Curry Lynch) that Dixie Jones (Sidney Gwin) would like to lock in the cellar.

Mrs. Whitney (Alta Mae Hicks) is a woman of large means but of poor vocabulary.

Violet Clifford (Lenora Payne), niece of Mrs. Whitney goes through a harrowing experience of—well, she's worth paying $50,000. Sounds like a ransom, doesn't it?

Margery Astor (Lou Weatherford) is Violet's friend—a modern girl in all respects.

Ethel Beggs (Jimmie DeLoach and Louise Nevins (Ida Rene Crane) are young business girls.

Fast Colors is fast—fast in moving, running, and fast in color.

Industry Must Go On

The wheels of industry must continue to turn—the World must be fed and clothed, and it must have some of those things to which we have become accustomed in modern life.

Conditions are not always the same, and at times it is difficult and discouraging, as it has been during the past several months. It is a period of adjustment to conditions that obtain now and will likely influence the future.

"Safety First," should be the keynote, and there is no better assurance of safety than in making our living at home and economizing where economy is possible.

We are assured of but one thing—that business conditions will be on a firmer foundation than ever before when at last this adjustment is complete.

Keep the wheels turning, but let your operations be safe and self supporting.
