CUT THE WEEDS IN SUDAN

It is generally conceded that mid-summer, and that means month of July and August, are, from a health standpoint, the most dangerous in the year.

This is largely due to the fact that insect life is at this time showing its greatest activity in the carrying of disease germs.

Then, too, the tendency to grow careless in the matter of eating is more general than in months when fresh fruits and vegetables are not so easily obtained.

But there is a sure cure for every ill if it can only be found and in the matter of preventing epidemics of disease in mid-summer science has found one.

It consists in methods so simple that every family in Sudan can afford to adopt it and put it into practice. It consists in nothing more or less than keeping the weeds cut about the premises and on vacant lots. If this is done the breeding places of most of the dangerous, disease-carrying insects is destroyed.

Wiping out the weeds and the wet unsanitary places; immediate and positive destruction of garbage and a generous use of lime or other disinfectant about barns and out houses means wiping out the greatest of all disease-carriers, the mosquito and the fly. With them out of the way health of any community is pretty well safeguarded.

There is no reason in the world why this program cannot be carried out by every community. If an epidemic of disease strikes the community it is certain to be carried out.

But why wait until the epidemic comes? Why not prevent its coming by wiping out the very things that make it possible? The time to lock the stable is before the horse is stolen. The time to cut the weeds is now.

PANHANDLE'S BIGGEST WHEAT FARMER BROKE

Plainview.—Hickman Price world's largest individual wheat farmer, met his creditors with characteristic straight-forwardness, told them he was broke and at the end of his rope, and placed his future activities entirely in their hands.

The man who made history in 1931 when he produced more than 500,000 bushels of wheat on 22,000 acres of Panhandle land, invited his creditors to meet him here. He laid all the cards on the table. He told of how he had spent more than $250,000, every dime he had, in effort to put over his project of wheat farming on a big-business basis.

Mr. Price reiterated his belief in his program of wheat farming on a big scale saying that a number of events over which he had no control were responsible for his failure and that the plan was essentially sound and workable.—Southwest Plainsman.

ODD—But TRUE

BWARE OF FEVER

A number of cases of Typhoid fever is reported in Littlefield and Lubbock. Let's not have typhoid in Sudan or surrounding country.

The disease can be controlled by immunization and cleanliness. Typhoid fever is transmitted principally by the fly, therefore, let's destroy all of their breeding places—toilets, cow lots, and make our premises sanitary.

It would be wise for all who have not been immunized against this disease within three years, to be vaccinated. The ages of from four to 45 are most especially advised to be immunized.—Contributed.

C. M. T. C. BOYS RETURN

Five Sudan boys who have been attending C. M. T. C. at Fort Sill, Oklahoma for the past month returned home Sunday afternoon after a thirty day encampment.

The boys left camp at 9 Saturday morning expecting to arrive home in their "whoopie" in the early hours of the next morning. But the boys had not calculated on having any trouble. After several puncturing, and several pistons changing holes with one another, and the loss of a rod or two they did not arrive in Sudan until 1:30 Sunday afternoon, and had the appearance of real mechanics.

Joe Carter, Burnice Brothers, Forrest Weimhold, and Bill Fraim were members of the Field Artillery while Winifred Wells was in the infantry.

Joe Carter won the medal for the best pistol marksman in camp; also made the riding squad as well as the driver for the casings. Burnice Brothers was a member of the gunning squad which won first place in the field artillery. Bill Fraim was student sergeant of the detail in the Battery. Winifred Wells and Forrest Weimhold received certificates of merits for being band members.

Burnice Brothers, Joe Carter and Forrest Weimhold were recommended for third year White Courses in the Field Artillery; Winifred Wells for third year White Course in the Infantry; Bill Fraim was recommended for a Field Artillery Second Lieutenant in the R. O. C.

That conditions in Sudan are improving is indicated by the recent addition of two new business houses. Dill's Cash Grocery, Located in the Higginbotham-Bartlett building and the King Drug store now opening in the McGlamory building. Two more new business institutions are in prospect for Sudan in the near future.

PARENT-TEACHERS ASS'N.

The Lamb County Council of the Parent-Teacher Association has postponed its regular quarterly meeting until the first Saturday in September. On this date, September 3rd, the Council will meet at the school building in Amherst at 2:30 o'clock and all council members and any others interested in P. T. A. work, are urgently requested to attend.

These council meetings provide the best possible means of keeping in touch with this most important work—Parent-Teacher work—in Lamb county. Any one who is at all interested in the welfare of the children and young people of our county should know of the aims and the accomplishments of Parent-Teacher work. It is the one national organization which works with two of the most important influences in the life of a child—the home and the school. These two factors go hand in hand and the P. T. brings the workers in both together.

Again let us cordially invite you to attend the council meeting at Amherst Saturday, September 3rd at 2:30 p. m.

SUDAN SCHOOL TO OPEN EARLY

Owing to the fact that we always have to lose sometime from school during crop gathering time our school will open the fall term on August 15th. For the last year or two we have taught on Saturday and holidays to make up lost time but that has proven to be unsatisfactory to a large majority of the patrons.

Please take notice, Monday, August 15th, 1932.

COUNT YOUR CHANGE

There's no argument in this editorial. It's merely a collection of facts, incontrovertible, eloquent facts that confound those who profess to see America slipping down into a state of effortless despair.

Total bank savings today exceed $29,000,000,000, equal to more than $1,000 for every family in the land. Savings depositors number 52,000,000, nearly two per family.

The number of Americans owning stock has increased almost 40 per cent since 1929. A group of 102 companies had 5,539,036 stockholders at the end of the boom year had 7,675,143 stockholders at the beginning of this year.

One company alone today has over 665,000 stockholders, a gain of more than 195,000 since the boom. This company has assets exceeding $3,200,000,000.

Our total stock of gold is $4,000,000,000. No other country ever possessed so much. Britain, for example, has only $588,000,000. Currency in circulation aggregates $5,464,000,000 or $700,000,000 more than in the boom.

Last year $16,500,000,000 worth of new life insurance was written.

Total insurance now carried is estimated at $109,000,000,000, or not far short of $1,000 for every man, woman and child in the United States. Policies in force total 127,800,000.

Such . . . is enjoyed by the people of no other nation in the world.

Our total national wealth, estimated at $329,700,000,000, is greater than that of a dozen Continental European countries combined.

The income of the American people comfortably exceed $1,000,000,000 a week.

The per capita income here is far greater than in any other land.

There are still six or seven persons gainfully employed for every person idle.

No fewer than 25,800,000 automobiles are owned by Americans. . . This total is almost three times the number owned by all the rest of the world.

Americans possess far more telephones (19,500,000) than all other countries. . . Radios . . . multiply . . . over 16,545,000 unapproached by any other people.

How many new domestic mechanical refrigerators have been bought, would you guess? A grand total of fully 3,750,000, at an estimated expenditure approaching $2,000,000,000. . . In no other part of the globe do half as many homes enjoy such a luxury—Americans are rapidly coming to regard it as a necessity.

A recent survey of 29 typical small towns revealed that 71 per cent of the inhabitants own electric homes, that 88 per cent had electric light, 72 per cent baths 51 per cent had electric washers, 55 per cent had radios, 41 per cent had vacuum cleaners.

There are more families in America than any other land that can afford to and do send their children to high school and college. In no other land do so many average families have the means to enjoy foreign travel. . . .

The movie still attracts a weekly average attendance of 75,000,000. . . .

The percentage of our agricultural population who, despite deflation, are acquiring domestic comforts, conveniences, labor-saving devices, improved machinery, the use of better roads, is constantly increasing.

Today more than 700,000 farms are electrified, representing an increase of 400 per cent in eight years, and the total is being swelled rapidly.

In industrial communities hard manual toil is being steadily abolished by the introduction of machinery. Each American worker now has at his command five horsepower, a record not even remotely approached outside our boundaries.

The average working day a generation ago was ten to twelve hours. The standard in this generation is eight hours. . . . The work-week used to consist of six . . . days. Now it is five and one-half days, with five day a week coming into vogue.

Never in the past was America so well equipped as it is today to resume an epochal forward march. Not only have we changed from debtor nation to the greatest creditor nation on

The members of the O. E. S. were pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. G. G. Hazel, Tuesday afternoon, honoring Mrs. L. R. Wood who is leaving soon for Rotan.

Our worthy Matron, Mrs. Peachey gave each member a task, that of embroidering a quilt block. All worked and talked, so the afternoon passed pleasantly and too soon.

Mrs. Hazel prepared a beautiful book and each member contributed a message of good wishes to Mrs. Wood.

After serving delicious refreshments of ice cream and angel food cake, Mrs. Hazel presented the memory book to Mrs. Wood with the best wishes of all the chapter.

We are sorry to lose such a faithful member but we are sure she will find a welcome waiting for her in Rotan Chapter.

THE SICK MAN

Citizens should not let their church dues lapse. It's the only insurance they've got against fire in the next world.—Exchange.

An old story goes something like this: A preacher and a doctor once met to administer to the needs of a very sick man. The doctor felt the man's pulse while the preacher offered up a prayer for the man's soul. Both did what they could for the sick man and went on their way to help other patients in need of medicine for body and soul. But contrary to all expectations, the sick man got well. Several months later the doctor and the preacher again met to do all they could for a man who was very seriously ill. While waiting for the "change" that was to be life or death for the sick man, the conversation turned to the case of the other man they had visited. The doctor was still unpaid and the preacher feared for the soul of the brother who had been so near the dividing line between earth and the hereafter. They somehow both agreed that it might have been better if the patient had gone hence. There was no hope of collecting the bill nor saving the sinner. Don't neglect your doctor nor your preacher nor the editor who may some day have to write your obituary after the doctor and the preacher have gotten through with their part of the job.—Higgins News

J. B. MARLOW WILL SUPPORT MRS. FERGUSON

J. B. Marlow, state campaign manager for Tom F. Hunter in the first primary gubernatorial race, announced Saturday that he will support Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson for the Democratic nomination for governor at the second primary August 27. Mr. Marlow's statement is as follows: "In one of the most interesting elections, just ended, I was campaign manager for the Honorable Tom F. Hunter, and had it not been for the metropolitan press absolutely refusing to recognize him as one of the three outstanding candidates in the race for governor, and had they given him the publicity he was entitled to, there is no question but that he would have been in the run-off, and could have defeated either of the other two candidates, and would have made Texas a great governor.

"The great race he made is a splendid tribute to Mr. Hunter and his many supporters, and I am sure thousands of voters regret having passed up an opportunity to put a real man at the head of our state government. However, it is late now to complain, and all we can do is to choose between Mrs. Ferguson and Ross Sterling; and, believing that it will be to the best interest of a majority of the people of this state, I shall vote for Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson.

"I hope this statement will answer the many inquiries I have been receiving as to the stand I will take in the run-off on August 27.

CANNING PLANTS A'ND AND FREE CANS
INCREASE CANNING

Three community canning plants in Eastland county supplemented by sanitary tin cans furnished by the county commissioners to any family not able to buy containers is resulting in the biggest canning season the county has ever had according to Miss Ruth Ramsey home demonstration agent. A cannery started at Cisco May 23 has been used by 125 families working under the direction of Mrs. E. M. Oney of the Friendship Home Demonstration Club, and more than 10,000 cans of food have been put up.

After operating two weeks the cannery at Ranger had been used by 52 families who preserved more than 4000 containers of home-grown food. The canning plant in Eastland is available for general use but has also the object of furnishing a place for charity canning. People with surplus products make contributions of food, merchants furnish the cans, and families on charity do the canning under supervision.

More than 5000 cans were supplied free by the Commissioners' court to families short on cash the first ten days the offer was made. Each borrower signs an agreement to can only under supervision of home demonstration agent or home demonstration club member, and to return within 10 days half the total products canned as repayment to the court for the cans. The county's share is to be used for charity next winter.

ROAD DOLLARS FOR LABOR

The bulk of the money to build roads is spent for labor, either on the job or in the preparation of materials.

More of the road dollars goes to labor when comparatively inexpensive roads are built than in the case of $40,000 a mile super-highways. The secondary or farm-to-market road is thus the best means of providing employment—and at the same time it is the road most needed. Rural areas have, largely been left outside of the good roads movement in the past. Thousands of farms and villages are situated within a short distance of fine modern highways—with no means of reaching them during bad weather.

When all-weather, bituminous surfaced roads can be secured at from $3,000 to $6,000 a mile, road building might be called insurance for social and economic progress in the future. It results in better business, stimulated agriculture, a fuller life for millions of people. And at this time, with material prices at the lowest levels in many years, and with a vast army of men in need of work, it produces better fruit than at any other time within living memory.

MAKES DISCOVERY ON KILLING FLIES

The Herald man was called to the residence of W. A. Bell late Sunday afternoon to witness the destruction of thousands of flies, a pest that the town is fairly overrun with this year, on account of much rain, we presume. Also no doubt to the presence of many cows and hogs in the city, but the flies seem to be even worse in the rural districts.

Mr. Bell had purchased 15c worth of formaldehyde (guess that's the way to spell it) and put a teaspoon full of it in a saucer about half full of sweet milk. In the milk some bread can be placed slightly protruding from the mixture for the flies to light on. They will do the rest. The end of the porch where the saucer was setting was literally covered by these insects, and they were piled in heaps around the saucer. Of course some will contend that this will draw flies from the other fellow's premises, but if each family in the city would do this, in a week's time flies would be very scarce. Of course each will have to take precaution with this poison where there are children or pets of any kind by placing it up out of reach.—Brownfield Herald

Summer Boarder—"Oh, I'd just love to be a farmer, to live with the blue sky overhead!"

If it is O. K. for Uncle Sam to sell printing, why not extend a good thing and insist that he add to his line and thus serve a much larger number of post office patrons? Why not add a grocer's apron to the printer's apron Uncle Sam now wears? Why not sell breakfast foods, evaporated milk, butter, shoes, drugs, dry goods, clothing, etc. over the postoffice counter—Maderia, Ohio, News.

An editor in a neighboring state has just received a capital prize of $1,000 from one of the big magazines for giving the best answer to the following question: "What my town needs most." The editor's answer was: "Six or eight funerals, rightly placed."—Pointers.

DEPUTY TAX COLLECTORS

At the present time the electric industry must hand over to the tax collector more than one dollar out of every four of net earnings. It pays more in taxes than the total cost of coal used to make power.

To a certain percentage of our citizens this will have a pleasing sound—milking the corporations to "benefit" the public.

The only trouble is that the electric industry cannot pay taxes except as it collects them from the consumer. It is in the business of selling power. To make and transmit that power costs a certain amount of money. Onto that is added necessary profit. The result is the customer's bill. Whenever costs rise, because of higher taxes labor or material, these increases are reflected in the bill for service.

No the electric industry does n't pay taxes. Neither do the railroads, the insurance companies, the oil industry or any other business. They are merely made to act as the government's agents, taking money from their customers and passing it on indirectly. We are the ones who struggle under a growing burden of "indirect taxation" and suffer from waste, extravagance and unnecessary activities of government which follows in its wake as more money is continually collected to expand the bureaucratic machine.

C. C. (Doc) Breedlove, of Baileyboro, driving a truck Monday afternoon for D. Warren, turned it over while rounding a curve on Highway No 7. The brakes were too lose he staeed. The truck was badly damaged while Breedlove had both hands severely lacerated from the broken windshield glass.

Be glad when you meet a crank. He may give you a suggestion that will make you a self-starter.

The Methodist Revival closed Sunday night after two weeks of good preaching by Rev. Haymes, pastor of the First Methodist church of Lubbock. Several conversions were reported.

Mrs. Joe Haymes and children of Lubbock motored over Friday evening and were guests of Rev. and Mrs. W. P. Micklen.

Mr. and Mrs. Stone and family have moved into the E. Lam property, formerly occupied by the Mitchell family.

Drew Lewis of Dallas was in town this morning and paid the News office a very pleasant call. Mrs. Lewis and little son, Billy have been visiting her parents. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jiant. Mr. Lewis came after them and they will all return home in a few days.

I take this means of thanking my friends who assisted me in the hoeing of my cotton crop.—Mrs. R. E. Russ.

Dr. and Mrs. Foote, and daughter, Miss Faye, returned from Bolder, Colorado where they have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. McSpadden

Working for You

There is one community force that is working every week for every one i nthe community. It works for the merchant against the peddler. It works unceasingly for the schools, civic clubs, chamber of commerce, social clubs, and everything of this caracter.

Your home newspaper realizes that everyone must prosper if we are to have a worth while community. There is no worthy object that can not expect support from the home paper.

You can help your paper in its fight for a better community by being a regular subscriber and speaking a good work to your neighbor. Business men can help by patronizing its printing and advertising departments.

Communities do not, as a rule, grow much in advance of their newspaper, which should make it to the interest of everyone to see that the newspaper receives all the encouragement possible. This newspaper is striving to lead the way to better things for Sudan, and has no malice toward anyone; but believes in the principle of giving every man his just dues.

If you are not now a subscriber, but are depending upon borrowing your neighbor's copy, or buying an occasional copy, we invite you to join our list of progressive subscribers.

The subscription price is only $1.50 per year, any where in Texas.
