COTTON JUMPS $2-50 PER BALE

New York, Aug. 24.—Cotton prices soared Wednesday under the heaviest wave of buying in more than a year and closed with all future deliveries well above the 8 cent mark for the first time since July, 1931. The advance was around $2.50 per bale.

The upswing followed publication of the Government weather report showing too much rain in sections where rain was not wanted with conditions favoring the boll weevil in large areas of the belt.

Buying for mills as well as for the Orient was heavy and continuous following the report.

P.-T. A. Conducting Summer Round-Up

The Parent-Teachers Association is conducting the annual Summer Round-Up this week. Physical examinations are being given to 63 beginners. The Association wants to thank Dr. Little and Mrs. Morrow for their help in the work.

Parents and teachers are coming to realize more and more the importance of the physical condition of our children, and the need of furnishing the school with as perfect material as possible.

A report will be sent soon to all parents of children who are entering for the first time this year. Please examine it carefully. If your child has a physical defect please see your family physician and have this corrected so that the child may get the most out of his school work.

FACTS ABOUT THE SUMMER ROUND-UP

The Summer Round-Up of the Children was inaugurated by the National Congress of Parents and Teachers in 1925. It is intended to rouse parents to a sense of their responsibility and to bring the pressure of public opinion to bear upon the need of providing the school with as perfect material as possible.

There is a need for such a campaign. The preschool period is a crucial time for the child. Many of the ills of later childhood, adolescence and adult life have their beginning in the interval between infancy and school age. Thousands of children have defective vision, defective hearing and other defects, many of which can be cured or relieved by early treatment.

The Summer Round-Up is not only an educational project; it is also a sound economic project because it prevents waste of educational effort with its attendant cost. Many children are repeaters because of some remediable defect, the correction of which might prevent this waste of time.

DUCK HUNTING PERIOD NOW EXTENDED SAYS GAME WARDEN

Avowed Nimrods of the South Plains area who have a real liking for hunting and the favorable results of it are not likely to be disappointed this year, according to O. D. Cardwell, deputy state game warden for this part of Texas who says present indications are that birds will be plentiful.

Reports to the effect that there are plenty of prairie chickens to be found in Gaines, Yoakum, Cochran, Terry and Hockley counties, while in the sand ranges of Lamb and Bailey counties there is also a good supply.

Heavy hails during the month of June is said to have killed several of the young birds, and in some sections, rising lakes resulting from frequent heavy rains, drowned many others, but notwithstanding this loss, the supply is thought to be much larger this year than for several years past. It is also reported there are plenty of chickens to be found in Wheeler, Hemphill, Roberts and other north plains counties.

People hunting out of their home county must have license, and these license will be on sale August 30. The prairie chicken hunting season lasts only four days, September one to four, inclusive, and the season bag is 10 birds.

It is also of interest to local hunters to know that the duck season in Texas has been extended from one to two months, through proclamation of President Hoover.

Duck hunting season in this section of Texas is from November to December 31.—Muleshoe Journal.

Sheriff Crim And Four Deputies Attempted To Arrest Four Bank Robbery Suspects After All Night Watch From Corn Field On Ranch 49 Miles Southeast of Portales; One Officer Killed And One Wounded As Suspects Open Fire; One Suspect Wounded; All Get Away But Two Are Later Arrested Near Tatum, New Mexico.

In a gun battle between peace officer and bank robbery suspects 49 miles southeast of Portales, New Mexico last Saturday morning about 7:30 Harve Bolan Plainview deputy was killed and Hollis a Portales deputy was critically wounded, while Lee Pebsworth bank robbery suspect, was also wounded.

Sheriff Bob Crim, Deputy Miller of Lamb county, Harve Bolan of Plainview, a special Lamb county deputy, R. L. Hollis and Frank Howard deputies Portales, Roosevelt county, New Mexico, went to the Lee Pebsworth ranch which is located 49 miles southeast of Portales to serve a grand jury warrant for the arrest of Henry Reed, Lee Pebsworth, Jack Sullivan, and A. C. Hunsucker for the robbery of the Olton bank about four weeks ago.

After the sheriff and five deputies had watched the house from a corn field back of the barn and corrals all night and Pebsworth and wife had come out to care for his cow, three of the deputies got between the house and the barn ordering Pebsworth to "stick his hands up." Instead, Pebsworth pulled the two guns which he was carrying on his hips and started shooting, killing Harve Bolan and critically wounding Hollis while the other Portales deputy got out of the stream of fire uninjured. In the exchange of shots Pebsworth was also injured but not fatally.

While the three deputies were trying to get Pebsworth three men who were stationed in the barn opened fire on Sheriff Crim and Deputy Miller. After the sheriff and deputy had used up all of their ammunition Miller went for help, while Crim went to his car in order to get the wounded and dead man and take them to town. Pebsworth and his men got to their car and left toward Tatum, N. Mex. Sheriff Crim got in his car and went up to the spot where Bolan was left dying and put him in the car along with Hollis and took them to Portales for first aid treatment. Bolan died about 20 minutes after they left the ranch.

Before leaving, Pebsworth went over to where Bolan was unconscious and took his Winchester and two pistols, also his watch. This stuff was later recovered after Pebsworth's arrest.

The officers notified the sheriff at Tatum that the suspects had gotten away. The sheriff at Tatum caught Pebsworth and Hedrick, after Pebsworth wounds had bled enough that he was seeking a physician. Two of the men got away.

Physicians in care of Hollis say that he has a chance to recover. Funeral rites were said for Harve Bolan at Plainview Tuesday of this week. Pebsworth was taken to a Clovis hospital and kept there for a few days but was removed to the Portales jail Tuesday night.

Bolan was 55 years old and had been a peace officer for the past 22 years, previously being chief of police at Plainview, and just recently accepting a position as special deputy for Lamb county. He is survived by his wife and several children.

Hollis of Portales is the father of Floyd Hollis local barber. He was wounded in the mouth and leg.

Pebsworth and two of his accomplices are also wanted for the robbery of the O'Donnell bank as well as a bank in Oklahoma.

Crew Working On Highway Number 7

About two and one-half miles of the rough grading on state highway No 7, has been done by the contracting company, out of Muleshoe, running east toward Sudan. Another crew will be put to work digging out, hauling and spreading the caliche base on that part of the highway where the grade has been formed.

Two water wells have been dug on the right-of-way of this road, one about two miles east of Muleshoe, and another four miles east of town. These wells will be placed under powerful pumps, a line of pipe laid along the right-of-way, with frequent hydrant openings, so the water will be readily available for wetting and packing down the caliche base as the material is hauled.

Among those who attended the Methodist revival in Amherst last Sunday night were Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Masten, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Masten, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Masten, Wesley Masten, and F. B. Talbott.

"When ya' feel sick all over and ya' can't eat nothin' and you're forced to hit the hay, ya' call a doctor-- don't ya'?" Why not apply that same principle to your business. A LESSON TO LEARN

It is beginning to look very much as if the end of the depression were just about in sight. The upturn probably won't be rapid, but it at least ought to be steady; and if at last it is at hand, the nation will be as truly thankful as if a long and arduous war had ended.

But there are one or two things the depression has taught us, and it is to be hoped that we can remember them after good times return. First and foremost, the depression has taught us that our utter-lack of any organized system to prevent recurrence of the unemployment cycle is almost criminally stupid.

Secondly, it has proved pretty clearly that our hit-or-miss way of taking care of the victims of the unemployment cycle is about as unsatisfactory as it possibly could be.

And when one ponders over these facts it is a little hard to understand why protest loudly against any plans for state old age and unemployment insurance.

The Ohio Chamber of Commerce the other day issued a blast on these allied subjects. It declared that such proposals are "socialistic" and it predicted that they would "undermine and weaken" the character of the people.

Now here is a point worth looking at.

Possibly the sturdy self-reliance of the wage-earner would suffer if the wage-earner knew that the state had instituted a system whereby he would be guaranteed a pittance if his factory had to shut down. But you might take a few minutes off, sometime, and consider whether our present system, or lack of system, is not even more fatal to self-reliance and ambition.

Go to the breadlines and see if the private charity that has got us through this depression has not "undermined and weakened" the character of its recipients. Go out with the social workers into the homes of families which have lived on free handouts for a year, or two years, and see what has happened there. Then ask yourself if a system of state unemployment and old age insurance could possibly be any more harmful.

THE FIRST NEWSPAPER

The first permanent newspaper to be published in America made its appearance on April 24, 1704, in Boston. It was called the Boston News Letter and was a far cry from the news sheets of the present day yet it remains as the foundation upon which are built all other papers which have been established since that time. Apparently, even in the days before the Declaration of Independence, when the colonies were hardly certain of their own existence and men and women were fighting to keep alive, they felt the need of "knowing what the rest of the world was doing." True, most of the "world" news was old before they heard it and their colonial news had also gone "stale." But the necessity of following current events was as strong then as now—perhaps due to the fact that a curiosity about our neighbor's business is not a characteristic peculiar to any time or any locality. It is universal. And beyond that, the establishment of this newspaper is interesting because it really forms the background for American journalism, good and bad. The News Letter may have been a queer little paper according to our standards, but after it have come some great, fearless publications. That is the important thing—Santa Barbara (Calif.) News.

MURRAY GIVES CROP ESTIMATE

The six counties in the crop production loan district for which P. F. Murray is supervisor of loans, will produce 178,000 bales in 1932, Mr. Murray said in an estimate made to the Dallas office of the federal crop production loan service.

Lubbock county, Mr. Murray estimates, will produce 60,000 bales; Hockley, 50,000 bales; Lynn, 40,000 bales; Terry, 20,000; Cochran, 5,000 bales and Yoakum, 3,000.

Last year Lubbock county produced 72,000 bales; Hockley, 63,000; Lynn, 52,000; Terry, 33,000; Cochran, 4,900 and no report for Yoakum because the county does not have a gin. Federal census reports for 1929 show Yoakum county that year produced 2,400 bales. Cotton is ginned in Terry county—Lubbock Avalanche.

AUTO ACCIDENTS ARE INCREASING

The complete 1931 accident "picture" is an interesting study in contrasts.

Motor vehicle deaths numbered 33,500—a new high record. Accidents were the second most important causes of death in men, heart disease being first. On the other hand, industrial plants reduced employees' injury frequency rates 38 per cent in two years, and railroad crossing accidents declined 10 per cent.

In the past decade, industry has made amazing strides in preventing accidents and in lessening their severity. Part of this has been accomplished by improved guarding of machinery. The larger part, however, has resulted from a new spirit of safety first that has been instilled into workers and management alike. Precisely the opposite has occurred on our highways. Recklessness grows, rather than slackens; improvements in cars breed more deaths and injuries, not less.

What has been done in industry can be done with automobile driving. Just as industrial management disciplines the heedless worker who endangers others, so must the state discipline the heedless driver. If industrial workers can learn the gospel of accident prevention and take it to heart so that it becomes a part of their mental operations so can the automobile driver learn care, competence and courtesy.

It is time to take drastic action to make our streets and highways safe.—Industrial Review

TEXAS LIVESTOCK VALUES INCREASE OVER $14,000,000

Recent upturns in livestock prices have increased the value of Texas' 6,127,000 cattle nearly $10,000,000 and Texas 2,088,000 hogs more than $4,000,000, it is estimated by John C. Burns, manager of the Texas Livestock Marketing Association of Ft. Worth. Cattle have shown an average increase of $2.60 per head and hogs $2 each.

There is no indication of a surplus of beef cattle for normal consumptive demands, in the opinion of Mr. Burns, who points out that the total number of beef cattle in the United States in 1932 is approximately 38,000,000 as compared with 49,870,000 in 1920, a decrease of more than 10,000,000.

"To offset this, however," says Mr. Burns, "there has been an increase of more than 3,000,000 milk cows during this period, there being 21,130,000 in 1920 and 24,379,000 in 1932. "The total pig population of the nation is about the same as 12 years ago, there being 59,511,000 in 1932 and 60,149,000 in 1920.

"Production of sheep has risen considerably, there being 53,912,000 in 1932 as compared with 40,643,000 in 1920. Texas grows nearly twice as many sheep as any other state, a total of 7,312,000, while Wyoming is second with 4,128,000 and Montana third with 3,820,000.

"The competition of low grade beef from dairy cattle emphasizes the importance to maintaining the quality of beef cattle at a high standard and raising the average grade. It also emphasizes the importance to both the beef industry and to the consuming public of the grading and stamping of beef carcasses."

LOCAL MAN FALLS FROM TRAIN NEAR OKLA. CITY

While Glen and Cecil Holland were en route to Tahlequah, Oklahoma, on August 20, Glen fell from a train near Oklahoma City. He was taken to an Oklahoma City hospital where three toes were amputated.

CO-OP LIVESTOCK BUSINESS DOUBLES OVER 1931 PERIOD

Another bright spot on the business horizon is the semi-annual report of the Texas Livestock Marketing Association of Ft. Worth showing an increase of 56 1-2 per cent in total cars of livestock handled during the first six months of 1932 as compared with the same period of 1931.

Since starting operations in October, 1930, the Association's subsidiary, the National Finance Credit Corporation of Texas, has made loans to Texas livestock men totalling $7,225,294.44. Both organizations are owned and controlled by Texas livestock men.

"Producers, by operating their own marketing associations," said Manager John C. Burns, "are learning more about marketing methods, practices and demands. It is encouraging them to produce the grade of livestock demanded by the buying trade."

Jack Lenderson and Arthur Shuttlesworth returned last week from Las Vegas where they visited T. J. Finley who was attending the New Mexico Normal University.

Just take Bisma-Rex! Relief is prompt and complete. And its comfort lasts. That's because Bisma-Rex contains ingredients that counteract acid and gas—protect the stomach and assist digestion. Try it!
