Flocculent May Remove Sediment From Playa Lakes

Tests conducted recently in this area indicate that a commercial flocculent, Separan AP-30, may prove successful for removing sediments from playa lake water used for groundwater recharge. Application of the flocculent reduced the amount of silt plus clay entering a recharge well in a 24-hour period by 49 percent.

During the test, which consisted of a 24-hour recharge period, the flocculent was added at a constant rate of 0.7 ppm to the water at the inlet pipe in the lake. The irrigation pump was operated for one hour at the end of the recharge period. Samples were taken of the unflocculated water at the pipeline intake and of the flocculated water at the well inlet. All samples were mixed for a minimum of 3 minutes, and no dispersant was added. The sediments in the flocculated samples were determined in only two categories: sand and silt plus clay.

There was an increase in sediments in the untreated water about 4 hours after the test was started. This sediment increase was caused by an increase in wind velocity. A correspondingly smaller increase in sediments occurred in the treated water. The smaller increase in the sediments in treated water indicates that the flocculent may be more efficient when used in water containing higher amounts of sediments. The total silt plus clay flocculated from the water that entered the well, using Separan AP-30, was 1,576 pounds, or 49 percent of the total sediments in the water.

Results from this test indicate that, under more favorable conditions, Separan AP-30 may prove to be a successful flocculent for removing sediments from playa lake water used for ground water recharge. More tests are planned for the future in which conditions will be varied to determine if more efficient results may be obtained.

These studies were conducted cooperatively by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station and the Soil and Water Conservation Research Division of the USDA.

Lightning Kills Brother of Local Man in Amarillo

Mr. Glenn M. Forson, of Amarillo, a brother of Claude Forson of Dimmitt, was killed instantly Saturday when he was struck by a bolt of lightning at his home while preparing to leave on a weekend trip to his cabin in Taos, New Mexico.

He was pronounced dead on arrival at Northwest Texas Hospital. He was killed during a minor thunderstorm and electrical storm which broke out over west Amarillo about 6 p.m.

Forson was standing about 10 feet from the house between the family car and an elm tree. The lightning bolt missed both the car and tree and struck Forson directly.

Two holes, located about 8 feet apart, were torn in the lawn turf. He was lying between the holes when ambulance drivers arrived. One trouser leg was ripped from the victim and disintegrated by the electrical charge.

Clods of lawn turf were found more than 10 feet away and an overhead garage door which was open at the time was covered with dirt erupted by the bolt. The door was in a horizontal position about seven feet above the ground.

Mrs. Forson told neighbors her husband was alone in the yard when the lightning struck. She was coming out of an inside garage doorway.

Mr. Forson, 58, was a mechanic for the Santa Fe railroad. He was born January 27, 1902 in Clifton, Texas, and had lived in Amarillo for 40 years. He had been employed by the railroad 38 years.

Lions Hear How Boys Ranch Has Become "Shirt Tail to Hang on to"

"Giving homeless and wayward boys a shirttail to hang onto" is the job of Boys Ranch at Tascosa and working with these boys and for this organization is one of the highest callings I think a man can have.

This was a sentiment expressed Tuesday at the Dimmitt Lions Club by Mr. Ray Noblitt, prominent recently retired Clarendon businessman. Mr. Noblitt was making the speech as part of his effort to gain small monthly cash pledges from area businesses and individuals for Boys Ranch, located about 70 miles north of here at Tascosa.

Castro County voters rang up a decisive approval Saturday in the new hospital bond election.

The vote was 640 to 369, an almost two-to-one majority. The opposed vote stunned even the most optimistic hospital backers when the tabulating was finished Saturday evening about 8 o'clock.

Rural areas, definitely anti-hospital in the 1958 election, either approved or wound up with a scant majority of disapprovals in the election. Frio, North Nazareth, Sunnyside, and Bethel voted for the issue and Jumbo tied.

Biggest majority of anti-hospital voting was at Hart where 26 were for and 129 against.

Absentee balloting netted 5 for, 7 against.

The approval was a mandate by the voters to the Commissioners Court to start the ball rolling for a new hospital building.

Since the election is contingent upon approval of the hospital for Hill-Burton federal assistance, the first step was to make application for the funds through proper state channels. This was accomplished Monday. Architects are readying plans to be submitted for approval or disapproval.

Methodists to Sponsor Youth Activities Week

Early-Day Resident Dies in New Mexico

Mr. Robert Merritt of Lake Arthur, New Mexico, died last week and funeral services were conducted at Lake Arthur Church of Christ at 2:30 p.m. Monday.

He was the uncle of Miss Hazel Merritt and John and Glenn Merritt and Mrs. J. M. Kendrick, all of Dimmitt.

Mr. Merritt resided in Castro County about 1908 or 1909 helping his brother Lint. He had lived for the past 40 years at Lake Arthur. His nephews were pallbearers.

Dimmitt's Boy Scout Troop 67 Returns from Weeks Stay at Camp

Troop 67 of Dimmitt returned Saturday from a weeks encampment at the South Plains Council's mountain camp at Tres Ritos, New Mexico. The camp is one of three camps that is operated and maintained by the South Plains Council for the use of the Boy Scouts in its District, The Tres Ritos Camp.

In their third year of operation, is the newest of the group.

Eleven scouts of Troop 67 enjoyed five days of camping out there the past week. The camp was open with 12 troops from other towns within the district participating in the camping activities.

There were friendships made with scouts of the other troops that will be renewed the latter part of this month when the troops gather at Lubbock for the Council Camporee. The climax of the weeks camping occurred on Thursday with a hike to Serpent Lake.

The hike was some ten miles and three thousand feet from and above the camp. All eleven of the Dimmitt scouts participated in the hike with some forty other scouts.

On Friday night at the closing campfire, the scouts that made the money is forthcoming, due to conditions set forth in calling the bond election.

There will probably be little action on the hospital issue for some time to come since absolutely nothing can be done until the government makes an announcement concerning Hill-Burton aid. Right now it's mostly a matter of wait and see with a grant of $225,000 at stake.

When it is constructed, the new Castro County Hospital will be adjacent to and southward of the present hospital. The new building can be completed throughout before the move is made from the old hospital. The Commissioners court has announced no plan for disposal of the old hospital building, a converted World War II surplus temporary-type building.

The drive was kicked off by a petition circulated jointly by the Dimmitt Jay-Cee-Ettes and Dimmitt Garden Club.

Wheat Market Quota Voting Here July 21

The annual Wheat Marketing Quota Referendum will be held on Thursday, July 21 at polling places over the county.

All growers who will produce more than 15 acres of wheat as grain in 1961 will be eligible to cast ballots in the referendum, which decides whether or not there will be marketing quotas for the 1961 wheat crop. Growers with less acres of wheat in prospect for 1961 are ineligible to vote since their grain will not be subject to marketing quota penalties.

Marketing quotas will be in effect for the 1961 wheat crop if two-thirds of the growers casting ballots favor their continuance. Also marketing penalties will apply to the excess wheat of growers not complying with their farm allotments, and price support at not less than 75 per cent of parity will be available.

If more than one-third of the voters oppose the quotas, no quotas or penalties will be in effect on the 1961 wheat crop and price support at 50 percent of parity will be available to producers who plant within their farm allotments.

Too Much Rain—Usually a large amount of rain in this country is depicted in photographs of lakes over roads, ditches running brimful of water and the like. But here is much less spectacular—but just as positive—evidence of the seven inches of rain which has fallen this month. It is an apricot which has burst open from too much water, a rare sight in this country. The group of apricots were grown on the J. O. Lions Hear How Boys Ranch Has Become "Shirt Tail to Hang on to"

"Giving homeless and wayward boys a shirttail to hang onto" is the job of Boys Ranch at Tascosa and working with these boys and for this organization is one of the highest callings I think a man can have.

This was a sentiment expressed Tuesday at the Dimmitt Lions Club by Mr. Ray Noblitt, prominent recently retired Clarendon businessman. Mr. Noblitt was making the speech as part of his effort to gain small monthly cash pledges from area businesses and individuals for Boys Ranch, located about 70 miles north of here at Tascosa.

Mr. Noblitt passed out a number of pledge cards to interested Lions and told others that those interested in financially helping the Boys Ranch program in the future need only write Cal Farley at Box 1891 in Amarillo and pledge cards would be forthcoming.

"It costs Boys Ranch about $15 a year to keep a boy in shoes," Mr. Noblitt said, "so a pledge of $5 a month will supply the shoes for four boys for a year, or a pledge of $2.50 a month will buy shoes for two boys, and so on. Just a little helps us out considerably."

Noblitt first traced the reason for delinquency in the portion of his talk about the reason for Boys Ranch. He pointed out that 40 percent of the homes in the United States are without Christian influence.

"Too many parents in our homes have forgotten their basic marriage vows. As a result, there is no love, no understanding, no tolerance and appreciation between the husband and wife.

"The result is," he continued, "that when the first child is born, the parents do not have the frame of mind to properly start teaching the child from the first day he is laid in the cradle.

"Too often there is bickering, quarrels, and loud voices between the parents, and the child grows up through the early years of life surrounded with that environment.

He has little or no respect for either parent because either one or both accuse the other of too many things in front of the children. As a result the youngster feels insecure, respects neither parent, and is started on the road of juvenile delinquency of one degree or the other.

"The youngster, as such, enters school at six years of age as either a delinquent or a potential delinquent, Noblitt declared, and for that reason there is a need for Cal Farley's Boys Ranch and a forced need for reformatories and penitentiaries. With each year, he pointed out, the population of these penitentiaries becomes more and more from members of the teen-age group, or youth from 17 to 20 years of age.

"Right now, today," Noblitt declared, "in each 24 hour period, there are over 5,500 teen-age boys and girls arrested because of some infraction of the law, these infractions being anything from running a stop sign to the worst crime of which you can think."

All that is needed to be done, the speaker said, is to read the daily newspapers to appreciate the range of horrible crimes these teenagers commit—the result of broken and delinquent homes.

"At Boys Ranch," Noblitt told the club, "we teach the boys to understand the meaning of the word 'no.' Boys are taught to mind. They are kept busy. There are 261 boys at the Ranch right now. Half of them are from the 'better' group, and half from the 'bottom of the barrel'—boys who are in serious trouble with the law at the time they arrived at the Ranch. In many instances, they have been already sentenced to reformatories.

When Cal Farley started Boys Ranch 21 years ago, he had but one thought in mind, Noblitt explained, and that was to save these boys from the reformatory and eventually the penitentiary.

"We have a complete school of 12 grades," Noblitt went on, "over 30 adults are on the staff, which includes 27 school teachers. These are dedicated people—they have to be. We teach 14 vocational subjects so that when a boy leaves we know he is qualified, if he never goes any further in his education, to make an outstanding living for himself and to be a credit to society."

Any of the boys who desire to attend college have that chance, the speaker explained, either through being adopted, and expenses paid for by various civic organizations, or, if no other way is possible, Boys Ranch will see that they attend college.

In the educational program, one thing is not forgotten, Noblitt said, and that is complete spiritual training. There is a full time chaplain who is head of this training. The boys have church and Bible School to attend, and Bible school classes are held of an evening through the week.

The dormitories, which are the homes for the boys, each houses 36 youngsters, with a man and wife in charge. The Ranch never hires a man and woman as manager of a dormitory unless they have one or more children of their own.

"Most of the boys in each dorm," Noblitt reported, "have hardly ever, throughout their lifetime, known the care and love of a mother. The dorm mother becomes in a way a real mother to them because she treats them, cares for them, with the same love and affection she does her own children."

Noblitt has been associated for over 35 years with Farley, during and after the founding of the Ranch. His recent retirement from operating his own successful business has given him the opportunity to give his service on behalf of the boys who now call Boys Ranch home. Of the more than 1,600 boys who have lived at the Ranch since its founding, only four have run afoul of the law after leaving.

Flocculent May Remove Sediment From Playa Lakes

Tests conducted recently in this area indicate that a commercial flocculent, Separan AP-30, may prove successful for removing sediments from playa lake water used for groundwater recharge. Application of the flocculent reduced the amount of silt plus clay entering a recharge well in a 24-hour period by 49 percent.

During the test, which consisted of a 24-hour recharge period, the flocculent was added at a constant rate of 0.7 ppm to the water at the inlet pipe in the lake. The irrigation pump was operated for one hour at the end of the recharge period. Samples were taken of the unflocculated water at the pipeline intake and of the flocculated water at the well inlet. All samples were mixed for a minimum of 3 minutes, and no dispersant was added. The sediments in the flocculated samples were determined in only two categories: sand and silt plus clay.

There was an increase in sediments in the untreated water about 4 hours after the test was started. This sediment increase was caused by an increase in wind velocity. A correspondingly smaller increase in sediments occurred in the treated water. The smaller increase in the sediments in treated water indicates that the flocculent may be more efficient when used in water containing higher amounts of sediments. The total silt plus clay flocculated from the water that entered the well, using Separan AP-30, was 1,576 pounds, or 49 percent of the total sediments in the water.

Results from this test indicate that, under more favorable conditions, Separan AP-30 may prove to be a successful flocculent for removing sediments from playa lake water used for groundwater recharge. More tests are planned for the future in which conditions will be varied to determine if more efficient results may be obtained.

These studies were conducted cooperatively by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station and the Soil and Water Conservation Research Division of the USDA.

This was a sentiment expressed Tuesday at the Dimmitt Lions Club by Mr. Ray Noblitt, prominent recently retired Clarendon businessman. Mr. Noblitt was making the speech as part of his effort to gain small monthly cash pledges from area businesses and individuals for Boys Ranch, located about 70 miles north of here at Tascosa.

Mr. Noblitt passed out a number of pledge cards to interested Lions and told others that those interested in financially helping the Boys Ranch program in the future

County Hospital Bond Issue Election Passes

Castro County voters rang up a decisive approval Saturday in the new hospital bond election.

The vote was 640 to 369, an almost two-to-one majority. The lopsided vote stunned even the most optimistic hospital backers when the tabulating was finished Saturday evening about 8 o'clock.

Rural areas, definitely anti-hospital in the 1958 election, either approved or wound up with a scant majority of disapprovals in the election. Frio, North Nazareth, Sunnyside, and Bethel voted for the issue and Jumbo tied.

Biggest majority of anti-hospital voting was at Hart where 26 were for and 129 against.

Absentee balloting netted 5 for, 7 against.

The approval was a mandate by the voters to the Commissioners Court to start the ball rolling for a new hospital building.

Since the election is contingent upon approval of the hospital for Hill-Burton federal assistance, the first step was to make application for the funds through proper state channels. This was accomplished Monday. Architects are readying plans to be submitted for approval or disapproval.

County officials are optimistic about an early word from the state administrators of Hill-Burton funds and expect an answer either late this summer or in early fall. This route will take longer than if the county were building the hospital without help, but it will mean that the federal government will match, dollar for dollar, the $225,000 put up by the county for the construction. This assistance will naturally permit the county to build twice as fast a hospital.

There was never any concerted drive to put the election over, other than a get-out-the-vote campaign Saturday in Dimmitt.

Application for the federal funds was made to Dr. J. E. Peavy, head of the State Department of Public Health. The hospital cannot be constructed unless the federal

Wheat Market Quota Voting Here July 21

The annual Wheat Marketing Quota Referendum will be held on Thursday, July 21 at polling places over the county.

All growers who will produce more than 15 acres of wheat as grain in 1961 will be eligible to cast ballots in the referendum, which decides whether or not there will be marketing quotas for the 1961 wheat crop. Growers with less acres of wheat in prospect for 1961 are ineligible to vote since their grain will not be subject to marketing quota penalties.

Marketing quotas will be in effect for the 1961 wheat crop if two-thirds of the growers casting ballots favor their continuance. Also marketing penalties will apply to the excess wheat of growers not complying with their farm allotments, and price support at not less than 75 per cent of parity will be available.

If more than one-third of the voters oppose the quotas, no quotas or penalties will be in effect on the 1961 wheat crop and price support at 50 percent of parity will be available to producers who plant within their farm allotments.

Polling places will be at Community Grain Elevator, Easter; Flag Grain Elevator, Flag; Harmon-Toles Elevator, Arney; Lindsey Grain Elevator, Nazareth; Farmers State Bank, Hart and the ASC office in Dimmitt.

The program is being shown at the Dimmitt High School Auditorium and begins at 8 p.m. It plays Thursday and Friday, July 14, 15.

The program will begin with Hi Neighbor by the Chorus and the 1920's section of the program will kick off with The Charleston, followed by a number by The Singing Golehons—Noel, Oleta, Ann and Kathy. Artistry in Rhythm will be by Mrs. Keith Howard and money is forthcoming, due to conditions set forth in calling the bond election.

There will probably be little action on the hospital issue for some time to come since absolutely nothing can be done until the government makes an announcement concerning Hill-Burton aid. Right now it's mostly a matter of wait and see with a grant of $225,000 at stake.

TOO MUCH RAIN—Usually a large amount of rain in this country is depicted in photographs of lakes over roads, ditches running brimful of water and the like. But here is much less spectacular—but just as positive—evidence of the seven inches of rain which has fallen this month. It is an apricot which has burst open from too much water, a rare sight in this country. The group of apricots were grown on the J. O. Ayers farm two miles west of Dimmitt and the photo was taken by J. O. Ayers, Jr.

Braddock-Backus Vows Read July 7 In Holy Family Church at Nazareth

Miss Joan Braddock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Braddock from Nazareth and Hubert Backus son of Mrs. Helen Backus, also of Nazareth were united in marriage at 10:00 o'clock nuptial high mass in Holy Family Catholic Church July 7th. Rev. Peter Mershen officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, was attired in a gown of schiffli embroidered tulle over taffeta. The fitted bodice featured a scalloped neckline embellished with iridescents and long tapered sleeves. The full bouffant floor length skirt featured schiffli embroidered tulle over taffeta.

Her veil was attached to a crown trimmed with pearls.

Proceeding the bride were Misses Dorothy and Marilyn Braddock, sisters of the bride as bridesmaids, and Mrs. Arnold Huseman, sister of the groom as matron of honor.

They were identically attired in street length dresses of light green and orchid of flocked nylon over taffeta. A square neckline formed a V in the back of the molded bodice. A cummerbund with a large bow in back highlighted the full skirt.

Emmeine Huseman, niece of the groom was flower girl. She was attired in a yellow nylon dress with full skirt and puff sleeves. They all wore small hats matching their dresses and white shoes and gloves.

They carried nosegays of green, orchid and yellow carnations with matching streamers.

The groom wore a black suit, his attendants Edmond and Francis Backus, brothers of the groom, wore white dinner jackets with black trousers, all wore white carnation boutonnieres.

Ushers were Richard Hoelting and Alvin Kleman.

In the evening a reception was held in the Nazareth Community Hall for relatives and friends followed by a dance.

The bride and groom both attended Nazareth High School. After a wedding trip to South Texas they will make their home on a farm 3 miles west and 4 miles north of Nazareth.

'Lukewarm Church' Topic of Sermon

"The Lukewarm Church" will be the sermon topic of Minister Bedford W. Smith, of the First Christian Church, at the 10:50 a.m. service on July 17, closing the series on "Jesus' Letters to the Seven Churches of Asia." On July 10 the sermon was on "The Church of the Open Door." The 7:00 p.m. topic will be "Praying for a Revival." Last Sunday's topic was on "The Answered Prayer."

Minister and Mrs. Kenneth Woodborn of Hartshorne, Oklahoma, former missionaries of "The Klamath Mountain Mission of southeastern Oklahoma, will begin a two-week revival with the First Christian Church on Sunday, September 4. The Church's first daily Vacation Bible School will begin on Monday, August 8th. Other advances of this congregation, four and a half months old last week when the Board met, include a budget set-up increasing the Church's giving to missions four-fold and relieving the West Texas New Mexico Evangelizing Assn. for the Ministers' car expense starting August 1st. The Assn. will continue paying the Minister's salary while the congregation takes care of all other needs. The healthy record of stewardship of the local church plus some outside offerings by friends of the Church that have come in from time to time has made this possible and desirable.

Why "take chances" with a $1,500 investment?

This load of groceries is just one of the 52 or more carts full which the average family buys each year to the tune of about $1,500.

An expenditure of this size merits mighty careful treatment when it comes to converting it into the family's meals.

So why risk cooking failures? A completely automatic, "kitchen-engineered" GAS Range-free standing or built-in-is your best assurance of consistent cooking success.

THANKS FRIENDS FOR YOUR PATIENCE

AFTER A MULTITUDE OF DIVERSITIES AND DIFFICULTIES, IT IS WITH A SENSE OF PRIDE AND SATISFACTION THAT WE, THE MANAGEMENT, EMPLOYEES AND CONTRACTORS, ANNOUNCE THE COMPLETION OF INSTALLATION WORK OF OUR DIAL TELEPHONE SYSTEM.

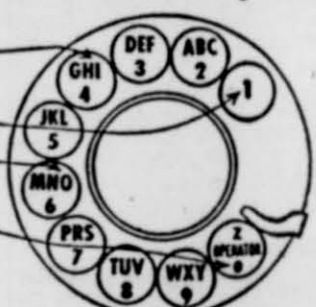

In addition to the expected difficulties, bugs if you please, incident to the change-over to our Dial System, we were plagued by additional malfunction in our telephone system due to the excessive rainfall immediately after our switch to dial. This was the case in many neighboring towns, who also had wet cable trouble.

We believe that we have most of the bugs out of our telephone system, and urge our customers to notify us at the slightest appearance of trouble in your telephone.

Again THANKS for your every consideration.
