

ROAMING THRU RANGER WITH RON... By Ronald Waters

YOUNG PEOPLE are taking over everything! They have the energy, the enthusiasm, the get-up-and-go spirit needed to accomplish big things in a big way.

Is it any wonder, then, that the young people of Ranger make a large percentage of the news?

They make news in Houston, San Antonio and Dallas—too. You read about teenage knifings, shootings, and street brawls on page 10 or so of the newspapers.

But when you read about young people in Ranger—they are nearly always engaged in some worthwhile project.

Take the Jimmy Arrendale Hospital Fund Drive—for instance—with the young Rangers helping to make it a success. And the Ranger Rogues—an organization made up entirely of young men—doing their bit to help, too. (NOTE: We're not saying how old is "young").

Teen Town would make any city in Texas (no matter how small or large) turn green with envy. It is undoubtedly one of Ranger's finest organizations. And activities there, certainly succeed at keeping the teenagers occupied and happy.

Happy? Well—almost happy, anyway. For there is usually an over-abundance of either girls or boys—and they never come out even!

On a typical night—you may see Lloyd Capps beating most of his opponents at the ping-pong table. Wayne Ross getting in everyone's way. Johnny Chestnut wandering around and not doing much of anything. Tommy and Barbara Ford trying to "freeze" smiling Teddy Nedley (with Mike Sanders around someplace).

And there, too, you are likely to see petite, polite Sarah Johnson. Sandra Hallbrooks. Brenda Weavers. Peggy Neely, and others.

Oh yes, you'll see noisy Richard Guest, quiet Bobby Fron, short Richard Wilhelm, rambunctious David Webb, and scholarly Don Deffebach.

In the midst of all this apparent confusion is actually a thread of well-planned activities. And you have Mr. and Mrs. Homer Perry to thank.

We have sports, of course, and young people are primarily the principal participants, particularly in these parts.

But you read so much about sports, nothing more so about here!

ALMOST NECESSARY to say—juvenile delinquency can not exist in such a wholesome atmosphere.

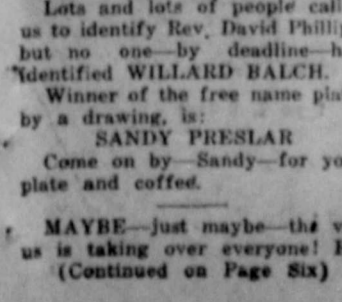

And Ranger can pat itself on the back for lack of teenage crimes and violence.

RANGER COLLEGE boasts the local "population" of young people considerably. And it offers a host of well-planned activities and worthwhile projects (besides study) for the students.

Look for things to pick up when the college starts the fall term!

After some fairly difficult cuts—decided to come up with an easy one.

The only difficult thing about it—you must come up with his true first name in order to qualify. (HINT: It's not Al, Alfred, Alton, or Alysius).

Lots and lots of people called us to identify Rev. David Phillips, but no one—by deadline—had identified WILLARD BALCH.

Winner of the free name plate, by a drawing, is:

SANDY PRESLAR
Come on by—Sandy—for your plate and coffee.

Program Set On Consumer Credit

Ranger College will present a program, with speakers of national note, on the subject of consumer credit, President Price Ashton announces.

The date will be Oct. 9 and businessmen and the general public, not only of Ranger but of all cities in the area, are invited.

There will be two sessions and they will be free. In the afternoon, there will be a speaker, a motion picture and a question-and-answer period and, at night, a completely different program will be presented: another speaker, another film and then a question-and-answer period.

The programs are being arranged through the cooperation of the Texas Consumer Finance Association, whose member companies are supervised by the State Banking Department and operate 142 local offices throughout the state, serving 174,000 families annually.

Boycott House of Dallas, executive vice president of TCFA, conferred with Dr. Ashton on the plans. House formerly was editor of newspapers in Ranger, Eastland and Cisco, and is also well-known for his books and other writings.

Students of Ranger College will attend the programs. Those enrolled in the branches in Breckenridge and Albany will be present or the night session, which is expected to attract most of the attendance on the part of the public.

Eastland County Demo Delegation Off to Convention

When the roll is called in San Antonio Saturday at the State Democratic Party Convention, Eastland County will be well represented.

Eastland County will have 15 votes this year, and 15 delegates who said they would attend the convention if elected, all announced they plan to go to the Alamo City.

Eastland County Delegates, honored under the unit rule, will go to San Antonio unopposed. They are expected to back Gov. Danie in all vital issues, however.

Two Oil Tries Are Located in Eastland County

Eastland County drew two oil tries this week.

W. H. (Bill) Hoffman of Eastland has staked the No. 12 J. V. Farhin as a regular field try four miles south of Eastland on a 91-acre lease. Location is 1600 feet from the north and 2930 feet from the west line of Section 27, Block 2, P&TC Survey. Proposed depth is 1350 feet with rotary.

The second try is the No. Joe Danaway, seven miles southwest of Cisco on a 160-acre lease. Proposed depth is 500 feet with cable tools. Location is in the BFIAC Survey. Operator is Vim M. Gamblin of Cisco.

Dial System Discussed In C-C Director's Meet

Plans for holding off conversion of the present manual telephone system in Ranger to a dial system were discussed by directors of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday night.

Meeting with William H. McAnally, Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. manager, directors voiced their opinion that a reasonable delay in the conversion would be advantageous.

McAnally said that a tentative date of March, 1960, had been set for the operation of a dial system and 1959 for construction of the building, but that construction could be delayed longer.

In 1957, the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. purchased a lot on the corner of Pine and Austin St. with plans to construct a building for the dial system. Later, a request was received from Ranger City Commissioners asking a delay in the conversion.

Directors joined in the request, Tuesday night, and voiced hopes that the conversion could be held off for as long as possible. McAnally agreed there appeared to be no hurry.

At the present time, there are 24 girls employed in the local office as telephone operators. Loss of the present system, which the directors consider efficient, would mean a loss in payroll.

No official action was taken by the board, since a quorum failed to show for the meeting.

Post Office Sold 12,396 One-Cent Stamps In "Rush"

Rangerites are continuing to buy large quantities of one-cent stamps at the post office, due to postal increases that went into effect last Friday.

Since Aug. 29, a total of 12,396 one-cent stamps have been sold. In the first four days of the "rush", a total of 9,000 one-cent stamps were purchased.

Mrs. Ella White, acting postmaster, described the situation as similar to the Christmas buying of two-cent stamps. Very few letters were returned due to insufficient postage, she stated.

Master's Degree Awarded to Mrs. James Morris

Mrs. James P. Morris, English and government teacher at Ranger College, received her M. A. degree in English at Western State College in Gunnison, Colo., last Friday, Aug. 1.

Mrs. Morris is a magna cum laude graduate of the college. Receiving her B. A. degree at the University of Texas, she worked three full summers on her master's degree.

Grass Fires Continue Here

Grass fires in Ranger and the area continued to plague volunteer firemen Tuesday and Wednesday. Volunteer firemen spent eight hours Tuesday fighting a huge grass fire, spreading across the ranges near Olden.

During this time, another truck was sent out to a small grass fire, on S. Oak St., at 1:15 p.m. Wednesday morning, a grass fire was reported on U. S. Highway 80.

Tuesday and Wednesday fires are part of a recent outbreak that has kept firemen busy.

Absentee Voting For Democratic 2nd Primary On

Absentee voting in the second Democratic primary got underway this week, and from all indications, the second primary will be a quiet affair.

Absentee voting will continue through Aug. 19. Voting will be done through County Clerk Johnson's office in the courthouse in Eastland.

Eligible to vote absentee are persons who will be out of the county on election day, and those who can not go to the polls because of physical disability.

Grass Fire Hits Ranges at Olden

A blazing pasture fire cut across about 250 acres of grazing land on the 12-Bar Ranch, Hamilton Ranch and the Moss Place—about two miles east of Olden—on Tuesday.

Flames burned about 200 acres of pasture land on the 12-Bar Ranch, leased by Pete Tindall, about 100 acres of the Hamilton Ranch, leased by J. D. Harrell, and about 45 acres of the "Moss Place", owned by C. Pat Moseley. Fences were also damaged in the path of the fire.

A small corner of the "Butler Place" was reported damaged by the flames. Dr. Dick Hodges of Ranger owns the farm, but said he failed to discover fire damages Tuesday afternoon.

Governor Says Rotary Is Beyond Definitions

"Rotary is outside the scope of definition for it means many things to many people," Ira Kersnick, governor of District 579, told Ranger Rotarians Wednesday noon on his official club visit.

At the luncheon meeting, the speaker stressed the size of Rotary International and mentioned the International conventions and assemblies. Countries from all over the world make up the organization, he said, that gives efficient service to all.

In answer to the question: How big is Rotary? Kersnick answered it is "As big as it dares to be—as big as the men in it." He pointed out that Rotary is something different to every person within it, it is the "Sum of achievements of every man... who was ever a Rotarian," he added.

When you joined this Rotary Club, you joined the Rotary Clubs of the world," he illustrated. "You are indeed a citizen of the world."

Gov. Kersnick arrived in Ranger Tuesday afternoon and visited with Virgil Elliott, president, and Dewey Cox, Jr., secretary. He is past president of the For: Worth Rotary Club (Downtown group) and one of the 258 district governors supervising the activities of more than 9,800 clubs with a membership of 462,500 persons in 110 countries.

Winds changed the course of the fire, from south to north, reports Tindall, and spread the fire onto the Hamilton Ranch and "Moss Place." The flames a d sparks jumped over the railroad tracks, he said, and spread into the high pasture grass.

He expects the land to be usable again, in about two years.

Tindall joined Harrell and Moseley, in expressing their gratitude to volunteer firemen of the three towns. Without their help, more damage would have been incurred, they said.

Auto Insurance Rate Increase Not As Noticeable As Four Cent Stamp

Postal increases were the only thing that Eastland County citizens had to face beginning Aug. 1.

Auto insurance rates for Texas were raised effective August 1. These increases result directly from an increasing number of automobile collisions, higher costs of repairs, larger medical costs, and higher jury awards in actions for damages.

The average rate increase, state-wide for all classes combined, is approximately 19 percent for liability insurance and approximately 17 percent for collision insurance on private passenger cars. It is emphasized that these percentages are only the average increases, are based on Texas experiences alone, and will vary widely among the different rating territories of the State and among the different classes of insured.

The State Board of Insurance, as required by law, has set these rates after a public hearing in Austin on June 20, and after careful study of statistics collected on automobile losses in Texas.

"Even after these increases become effective, liability rates in Texas still are below the majority of other states, and Texas has the lowest rate among the eight states having the largest number of registered motor vehicles. The increases in rates is necessary because of the highest underwriting costs in history. Over the nation leading stock automobile insurance companies last year paid out $114.70 for every $100 received in policy premiums."

Oliver Wesley, Ranger contractor, assisted firemen by clearing out a fire lane for the trucks and aided in combatting the flames by dumping dirt with a bulldozer. M. L. McMinn of Olden also assisted on the Tindall ranch, with a tractor.

About 100 acres of grazing land were damaged in the blaze on the Hamilton Ranch, leased by Harrell. A fence on the east end and north side of the 215-acre ranch was also damaged. Harrell said that he had not determined the full extent of the damage Wednesday morning.

Between 40 and 45 acres were burned on the Moseley farm, consisting of 320 acres. The fire spread over the farm from the Tindall and Hamilton places.

Moseley said he first noticed the fire about 10 a.m., but that it had not reached his farm until about 3:30 p.m.

He lost about one and one-half miles of fence in the blaze. The fence between the Hamilton Ranch and "Moss Place" was also damaged.

Volunteer firemen in Ranger, Eastland and Cisco spent some time Wednesday cleaning their equipment and drying out hoses.

PEANUTS ALREADY?—Yep, you're right. These peanuts are some of last year's crop. Looking them over are Sandra Kirkland, county Home Demonstration agent, left, and Nancy Weathers, assistant agent. These nuts were entered in last year's county fair. If Eastland County can get an inch or two of rain this month, this year's crop will really be worth remembering, farmers agree.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

By BOYCE HOUSE

One sight I wanted to see in New York was the monument in honor of the man from whom Fort Worth was named.

But the guide-book made no mention of this nor did the conductor on the sight-seeing bus. And since my time was limited and New York is a pretty good-sized place in which to conduct a search, I reluctantly marked that item off my agenda.

On Memorial Day morning, I walked along Fifth Avenue. The street—ordinarily choked with crowds and traffic—was now, because of the holiday, strangely silent and deserted. It made one feel like an explorer who, in the middle of a jungle, comes upon the palaces of a deserted city.

In Madison Square, I saw the statue of Farragut ("Damn the torpedoes") and was surprised to learn from the inscription that the great Union admiral was born near Nashville, Tenn. The monument bore a large wreath inscribed "Grand Army of the Republic." Then I came to the statue of William Seward, secretary of state in Lincoln's cabinet then the lordly figure of Roscoe Conkling, who made a magnificent speech, placing the name of Grant before the Republican Convention in an effort to gain him a third term nomination. Next I came to the World War veterans' monument, adorned with garlands placed there by the American Legion.

And then I happened to glance across to a little park that was a triangle where three streets met and a word smote my sight: "Perote." It was at the top of a tall monument. Below that word were others: "Puebla", "Cerro Gordo", "Chapultepec."

I thought, "Here in New York, I find a monument to the War with Mexico—something that so far as I know, not even Texas has!"

Hurrying over, I found on the next side of the memorial, these words: "Under this monument lies the body of William Jenkins Worth, born in Hudson, N. Y., March 7, 1794, died in Texas, May 7, 1849."

Chiseled into the column were single words, each with significance in the career of this military figure, who served in the War of 1812, in Indian wars, (he subdued the Seminoles of Florida, who had seemed unconquerable), and in the War with Mexico—each word standing for a chapter in his truly remarkable career: "Contra", "Churubusco", "West Point", "Molindo del Rey", "Monterey", "San Antonio", "City of Mexico."

And so on Memorial Day, one Texan stood with uncovered head at the grave of the man for whom Fort Worth is named.

Milk Program Now Revised, Ready to Operate

COLLEGE STATION—The special milk program, recently revised and extended by Congress for three years, is ready to operate under the new regulations in Texas.

Applications are already pouring in under the new setup, reports John J. Slaughter of Dallas, who is in charge of the program for the Agricultural Marketing Service in Texas and six other states.

During the last fiscal year more than 51½ million half pints of milk were served to Texas children under the special milk program. Consumption is expected to go even higher this year.

Any organization may participate if it sponsors non-profit activity for care and training of children and submits a positive plan to encourage increased consumption of milk by children in its care. The program includes children of high school age or under.

AS IT LOOKS FROM HERE

By OMAR BURLISON
17th District

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Members of Congress from cotton producing areas agree on one thing—certainly there is a need for new legislation.

The Senate has passed a bill which, in effect, permits two choices for farmers. One is to have increased acreage with lower price supports, and the other is to reduce acreage and maintain higher support prices. The Senate Bill also junks the present concept of "parity" and substitutes a loan value based on the past three years.

At the present, the House Committee on Agriculture is not looking with favor upon the Senate Bill and is attempting to produce one of its own. It is certainly hoped that some constructive measure can be produced before the Congress adjourns. It is the last chance for a farm bill in this session.

This past week, the House of Representatives passed H. R. 10, known as the Jenkins-Keogh Bill, providing that self-employed people, such as those engaged in the professions, druggists, barbers and others, be allowed to have their own retirement fund. The Bill provides that a self-employed person may defer income taxes on 10 percent of his income up to $2500 a year, but more than $50,000 in a lifetime, as a "set aside" for old age. This measure seems only fair to those people who are not eligible for Social Security under the present law.

On May 15, this column predicted that the Administration would again ask Congress for authority to increase the Government's permanent debt limit.

The President has now asked Congress to increase the temporary debt from the present ceiling of $280 billion to $288 billion, and the permanent debt ceiling from $275 billion to $285 billion.

Recreation is becoming one of the biggest businesses in the United Americans will spend approximately $40 billion for recreation in 1958. This figure represents one-seventh of all spending. It is called a depression-proof business.

One reason given for the continuous increase in pleasure spending is bigger and better pensions, earlier retirement, long vacations and short weekends. Another reason is the common practice of business paying for vacations, fishing trips, etc., for its customers.

A recent survey by Business Management Magazine shows that sales executives use this method extensively in dealing with buyers and prospective buyers.

A serious problem is being created by this switch in the habits of our people. Outdoor recreational areas are becoming scarce and crowded. Recreation with any privacy is almost a thing of the past in the North and the East. States with water boundaries have reserved only comparatively small areas for the public. Likewise, Federal reserved areas are being taxed beyond capacity in most places during the vacation season.

A guess, but watch for the Army to attempt to shoot a rocket to the moon within the next forty days. The Air Force may even try it sooner. It will cost a lot of money.

It's an old American Custom—

... for people to lose things including their eye glasses and title papers. We later find our glasses on our noses but we seldom, if ever, find our abstracts. There is really no excuse for losing anything we have if we will be careful. Right now we are in the process of losing our Freedom, and will if we don't arouse ourselves and fight. We can make you another abstract if you lose yours, but if you lose your Freedom it's gone forever. Freedom has a high price!
