Three Maple Flavored Marvels!

Smart hostesses have discovered that maple and cream combine perfectly for year 'round desserts. Pour maple-blended syrup over a dish of ice cream...sprinkle with nuts...and enjoy a "bit 'o heaven"! Maple Sherbet is another "easy" dessert: just mix a cup of maple-blended syrup with a cup of buttermilk, about a table-spoon of lemon juice and a dash of salt. Freeze about 2 hours, then beat until smooth, but not melted. Fold in one cup of whipped cream and freeze again. Serve with more maple-blended syrup—often!

cup maple-blended syrup 1 cup whipping cream 1 teaspoon vanilla Chopped canned salted nuts 3 egg yolks, well beaten Few grains of salt 3 egg whites

Heat syrup in top of double boiler. Pour hot syrup slowly into beaten egg yolks, stirring constantly. Return to double boiler and cook over hot water until mixture is thickened and will coat a silver spoon. Remove from heat. Cool to room temperature. Meanwhile add salt to egg whites and beat until stiff but not dry. Fold egg whites into syrup mixture. Whip the cream; add vanilla. Add to syrup mixture. Pour into freezing trays of refrigerator and freeze until firm. Serve with salted nuts as garnish, if desired. Makes 8 servings.
