Ranger College Rangers pulled few "punches" while pulling a host of surprises out of the bag Saturday night as they trounced the Murry State Aggies of Oklahoma 13-6, using two completely remodeled teams.

The new combinations clicked perfectly on offense and the two teams also demonstrated impressive defensive play. Coach David Slaughter announced, before the game, that he was starting two teams with many changes in line-up.

REPRESENTING THE MOST progressive change in Pontiac Motor Division's 51-year history is the Catalina Vista. The contoured Vista-Panoramic windshield and large, wrap-around rear window provide unparaled vision for driving safety.

Pontiac Makes Its Local Debut Thursday

Unmatched in beauty and unprecedented in fresh styling approach, the 1958 Pontiac debuts with 14 all-new, breath-taking body styles, on display Thursday at Bagwell Motor Co. on Highway 80 east.

From every angle, clean, tasteful styling highlights the dynamic new cars. A 60 per cent greater area Vista-Panoramic windshield extending into the roof and a large wrap-around rear window, lend a spectacular effect of aircraft design.

Dual head lamps mounted in twin grilles, wrap-around two-bar bumper, and a V-shaped hood design extending rearward from the grilles, are predominant features of the front view. The Pontiac or Bonneville name in gold script adorns the chromed rectangular grill work on the left side.

Both received scholarships in the amount of $100.

and the unthinking insurance agent often have one thing in common. They may be most vulnerable where they least expect it. Consult your local, capital stock insurance agent for a complete analysis of all your insurance needs. ## I GIVE YOU TEXAS

By BOYCE HOUSE

Fans used to play a colorful part in the American scene in the summer-time. This was of course in the days before air-conditioning.

In churches you would see dozens of cardboard fans (on a handle) bearing the name of a local merchant or the undertaker, in motion as the minister spoke.

W. J. Bryan and the other orators of political or Chautauqua gatherings piled a palm-leaf fan favor while seated on the platform during the introducer's speech.

A good many girls had Japanese fans, made of silk bearing a

Injury Results From Collision

A head-on collision at the junction of Highway 80 and Tiffin Rd. resulted in minor injuries and heavy car damage Saturday night about 7:45.

Injured was Jimmy Needham, 16 son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Needham who was treated for cuts inside his mouth and other abrasions and bruises at Ranger General Hospital and released. He was driving a '53 Dodge.

Held for investigation, following the accident, was a 31-year-old Stephenville man who was driving a '53 Ford west on Highway 80. Reports indicated that authorities were trying to locate a woman who was in the car with him but disappeared after the collision.

Both cars were heavily damaged.

Youths Failing To Register For Selective Service

Some state draft boards are complaining that an increasing number of youths are registering late under provisions of the Selective Service law.

Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director, reminded draft-liable men Tuesday that it is their duty under the law to inform themselves as to the proper time to register.

Several misconceptions about the legally required time to register cause most of the late-comers, Colonel Schwartz thinks. There is some belief among young men that they can wait until they are 18½ years old to register.

As a matter of fact, the law requires that a man register on his 18th birthday, or within five days thereafter, Colonel Schwartz pointed out that all males born since August 30, 1927, are legally obligated to be registered under existing law, except those not yet 18.

Some young men think that membership in the National Guard or the Reserves excuses them from registration, but it does not.

If a young man joins the regular services for full-time duty before he is 18, he does not have to register when he is 18 if he is still in service.

But when he gets out, the law requires that he go to a draft board and register within 30 days. For example, if he joins the Army at 17 and stays in 10 years, he must register for the draft at age 27. The law would not obligate him for further service currently, but it obligates him to register.

Draft registration in Texas is expected to reach about 66,000 in 1958.

pite to the summer heat. Pink-bricked dressing rooms adjacent to the pool will allow swimmers to change from sport clothes to swim suit without having to enter the club house. Those who wish only to sun themselves will enjoy the broad terraces surrounding the pool.

AROUND RANGER COLLEGE CAMPUS

By Ranger College Journalism Class

Congratulations to the Rangers for a good, hard-fought game against Murry State College of Oklahoma last Saturday evening. School spirit is high, and the student body is solidly behind the Rangers.

The Rangeans are also to be commended for a creditable performance. Their routines were well coordinated and executed, and the purple and white pompoms that they used Saturday evening added both variety and color to the show.

An addition to the Rangeann roster is Miss Glenda Maye Smith, daughter of Mrs. Jake Simpson of Matador. Miss Smith, who enrolled in the college last week, is staying in the girl's dormitory.

There were many out-of-town visitors present for the Murry State College of Oklahoma-Ranger game Saturday evening, Oct. 4.

Doug Davis had as his guests his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Davis, of Rule. Lyndon Harris' guests were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Harris of Haskell, and Miss Maurice Tidwell of Munday.

Also present were James Stanford's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Stanford of Breckenridge; Barbara Mauldin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Mauldin, of Abilene; Mattye Jo Bentley's aunt Mrs. Lucille Stoker of Weatherford; and Wilma Edward's mother, Mrs. W. P. Edwards of Olden.

Rangers-

They lost their chances, too, on a fumble but rebounded—again—when Maxwell intercepted an Aggie pass three plays later. This set the Rangers up on the Murry 48-yard line and they began their second successful drive down the field.

Again the Rangers offensive worked beautifully as they penetrated to the 12-yard line and sent in their Team No. 2.

Wayne Cromer, left end, made a one-handed catch on a five-yard pass from Waggoner, good for the second TD. The conversion kick was made good by Leo Savell, left half, and the score stood at 13-0. A Murry fumble was recovered on the 20-yard line in Aggie territory, but following a penalty the Rangers were shaken up by a pass intercepted by the Aggies.

Third Quarter The second half continued to see the Aggies fumble, recovered by the Rangers on the 30. And another see-saw battle resulted, seeing the Rangers first pass intercepted by Murry and the Aggies fumbling again after regaining the ball.

The battle continued for the rest of the quarter, with both teams playing strong defensively and the ball changing hands.

Team No. 2 took the ball on the Ranger 20 and picked up three first downs before the end of the quarter.

Fourth Quarter A 20-yard pass from Waggoner to Bill Phillips, playing his first game at the right half back's position, set the Rangers up on the two-yard line.

They failed to score, however, on the fourth try when a pass to Jerry Cantrell fell incomplete.

Team No. 1 returned to the game to stop the Aggies from gaining a first down.

The ball changed hands back and forth, again, and the No. 1 team fumbled three times and the Aggies twice failed to make it a first.

Following the last fumble, the Ranger's No. 2 team went into action but lost their chance when the Murry team intercepted another pass.

This set the Aggies up on the 24-yard line in Ranger territory, and they quickly took advantage of their position, completing a 24-yard pass from Quarterback Jerry Greenwood to Halfback Jim Anquoe good for six points. The pass attempt was blocked by Cromer.

Ranger took the ball on the Ranger 46, following the kick-off, and made their way down to the Aggie 20. But time ran out before they could complete their drive.

Keeping statistics on the game were Bobby Fran and Oscar DeWolfe.

Pontiac-

Bonneville models are distinguished by a crown emblem on the front door panel, four simulated vents on the rear fender, a chromed molding outlining both rear fender flight vanes and the Bonneville name in gold script in the top corner of each rear fender.

New wheel discs, featuring 38 embossed struts slanting outward from a five-inch hub are standard on all Bonneville and Star Chief models, and optional with the Catalina.

Impressive tail gate design and full chrome decor around the rear window are standard with the Bonneville Safari. A wide block letter Bonneville name plate, bordered by two stars, ornaments the area between tail lamps. The tail gate contains the Safari name in script at the center which divides the upper moulding.

Star Chief models also feature extra width tail lamps. A distinctive wide crest emblem is centered on the deck lid. As on the Bonneville, an indented ribbed section centered below the deck lid, displays the Pontiac name in block letters.

Simplified styling also marks the rear view of Pontiac's Catalina series. Narrow tail lamps and a lettered Pontiac name plate on a 16-rib panel below the deck lid contribute to the sleek, clean lines characteristic of this series.

Catalina Safari station wagons are distinguished in the rear by the Safari name in modernistic letters, situated centrally between stainless steel upper mouldings. Pontiac letters, set on a background of indentations, grace the lower panel.
