Rangers Game to Climax Homecoming

Parking Meters at Stake in Monday Election

ROAMING THRU RANGER WITH RON...
By Ronald Waters

MISCALCULATED my average for the season. Not that it matters much. It's still low! Earlier I stated that the average was 65 percent. Any mathematician could have told you that 26 and one-half games out of 39 averages 67.9 percent, but I'm not a mathematician so I'm going to call it 68 percent.

If you wonder where that 26 1/2 comes from—it results from a tie game earlier in the season.

IT'S TIME to recognize my junior high school "informers." Keeping me posted on the junior high football team, the Paps, are J. B. O'Shields and Jimmy Burnett. (Jimmy is in high school.)

High school reporter is Mike Herrington, who is doing a very fine job.

WE'RE NOT patting ourselves on the back but the Ranger Times was the first business firm in town to make a return to the Community Chest.

Only mention this to urge all other firms to make returns as soon as possible.

ROSCOE HOPPER, president of the local chest, is urging everyone in Ranger to get their cards in right away. Eastland has already pulled in close to $1,000. We beat them last year, and I think we can do it again!

THETA TAU HOUSE—that's the new name of the "Girls' Dormitory." Now, perhaps, the Athletic Dormitory (formerly called the "Cell Block") will be re-named something fancy like: Delta Tau Delta or Rangers' (Continued On Page Four)

Services Set Sunday For Mrs. Laura Crabb

Funeral services for Mrs. Laura Crabb, 84, a former resident of Ranger, will be held in Killingsworth Funeral Chapel Sunday at 3 p.m. with the Rev. K. C. Edmonds, pastor of the Eastside Baptist Church, officiating.

Burial will be in Evergreen Cemetery. (Continued On Page Two)

Residents to Vote At the City Hall

Ranger residents will go to the polls Monday to decide the parking meter issue, voting on whether or not the city ordinance authorizing the use of parking meters shall be repealed.

City Commissioners called the election on Friday, Sept. 12, upon receiving petitions bearing more than sufficient signatures to warrant it.

For the first time since April of '57, a city-wide election will draw residents to the polls. The box is set up in the City Hall and will be open from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. Monday. Earlier, the Young School Box was abolished by the County Commissioners.

G. B. Rush will be election judge. He will have a number of assistants—Buford Anderson, Mrs. Henry Davenport, Mrs. Allen Rushing, Mrs. H. C. Croom, and Mrs. Frank Arrendale.

FOR THE METERS

The Mayor and City Commissioners are willing that the people be allowed to express their views on the matter and this group believes that if the citizens are in possession of full information regarding operation of the meters they will not want the meters removed.

Statement of Mayor

Since a distorted and incorrect statement concerning the Parking Meters has been issued in the form of a circular, I would ask every citizen to study this statement.

The cost of parking the meters is inflated, exaggerated and incorrect. The cost of ticket books and office supplies exaggerated very much and incorrect. If you would like to know the correct cost of this operation it is always available at the City Hall at any time.

This circular states that the total income from Parking Meters for 9 years is $63,628.49.

Total expense for 9 years (including approximately 50 percent depreciation), $35,665.69.

You take the expense from the income. The answer will not be $10,951.38 as stated on the circular.

We, on the City Commission, are in position to know the facts concerning the net revenue from Parking Meters and this information is always available.

Be sure to vote the way you see fit Monday, October 20th.

W. F. Creager, Mayor

For that reason the following information has been compiled.

Since the meters were installed in July of 1949 they have taken in revenues totaling $66,140.57. During that same period receipts from loading zone and parking permits have totaled $2,417.92, making a total revenue of $68,558.49. (Continued On Page Four)

Against the Meters

Spokesmen who would like to see the removal of meters feel the same way as others who are for the meters: they would like the public to decide the issue. Both sides believe that the public should be satisfied.

Advocates against the meters feel that their presence in Ranger is hurting business and especially out-of-town business.

As one spokesman indicated, the parking meters are driving away customers and irritating them. This seems to be the main objection raised.

Many out-of-town people have not only objected to the meters but have refused to come back to shop in Ranger when they received a parking ticket—according to statements of local merchants.

Since the removal of meters, it has been impossible to determine if local business has increased or not due to their absence. Business in Ranger is better, but many other factors such as the season and influx of workers have affected the trend. Some out-of-town shoppers have been brought into Ranger, due to the lack of meters, according to reports.

One spokesman believes that farmers are especially sensitive to the use of meters in town.

When Ranger did have parking meters, some have indicated that local and area people would drive out of town—especially to Gorman and Rising Star, where there are no meters.

Ranger can draw in these out-of-town shoppers, several business men believe, if the city has no meters. It will be a drawing card, they say, because Eastland and Cisco do have meters that are working.

Everyone seems to agree that "more customers and more business will make a better town." Some believe that the need of (Continued On Page Four)

Activities Are Set For Exes

Homecoming Events

Ex-students of Ranger College begin Home - Coming festivities Saturday by attending open house from 3 until 5 p.m. at Theta Tau House, the girls' dormitory.

Next on the agenda is the Homecoming football game between Ranger College and Henderson County Junior College at 8 p.m. Saturday with the Homecoming Queen Miss Joyce Beal, to be presented at half-time.

After the game—students, ex-students, and visitors are invited to a dance at the Student Union Building from 10:30 p.m. to midnight.

The concluding ex-student affair will be a coffee from 7:30 until 9:15 Sunday morning, at the banquet room of Ranger Hall, the college cafeteria. A business meeting of the Exes has been called by the president, Norman Huffman, at 8:30 a.m. All ex-students are urged to be present at this meeting for the election of officers.

Present officers include Richard Cox, vice president; Mrs. O. C. Warden, secretary; treasurer, Miss Marjorie Maddocks, publicity director.

Present officers include Richard Cox, vice president; Mrs. O. C. Warden, secretary; treasurer, Miss Marjorie Maddocks, publicity director.

Girl's Dormitory Is Re-Named Theta Tau House

The girls' dormitory has been given the official name of Theta Tau House. Since the establishment of the dormitory in 1950, it has always been called simply "Girls' Dormitory."

Girls, who are dormitory residents this year, and Mrs. K. A. Jameson, girls' counselor, presented a petition to the Board of Regents, requesting that it be given the name of Theta Tau House.

The dormitory was re-dedicated and completely re-decorated during the summer, and the girls with Mrs. Jameson wish to express their appreciation to Dr. Price R. Ashton and the Board of Regents for the new look given their campus home.

Also they wish to extend sincere thanks to Mrs. F. P. Braschler, Sr., for donating new draperies for the living room and to Mr. and Mrs. Morris Newnam for providing a washing machine for the dormitory. (Continued On Page Four)

Ex-students at Ranger College and a good crowd of football fans are expected to be on hand to see the Rangers clash with the Henderson County Junior College Cardinals from Athens Saturday night at 8 in Bulldog Stadium.

For many the game will be the climax of homecoming activities, underway at the college.

Halftime Ceremonies

Colorful half-time ceremonies will be one of the highlights of the Homecoming game featuring the Rangeanns, a drill team under the direction of H. A. Lotsepeich, presenting two routines and making background formation of a "J" for the presentation of the Homecoming Queen, Miss Joyce Beal of Albany.

Miss Beal's escort is Kerby Wells, president of the Student Council of Ranger College. Miss Beal's attendants will be the runners-up in the election, Miss Carol Sanders of Ranger, escorted by James Knickerbocker of Dallas, treasurer of the Student Council; Miss Betsy Teinert, escorted by Doug Roark of Quannah, vice president of the Student Council; and Miss Barbara Mauldin, escorted by Robert Pope of Tyler.

Dr. Price R. Ashton, president of Ranger College, will crown Miss Beal.

An added attraction for the entertainment of the queen and her court is a special number, a fire-baton routine by Misses Glenda and Jackie Givens of Knox City.

Tough Game

It promises to be a tough game for the Rangers, who will be defending a 2-2 record, as will the Cardinals. Henderson has lost to two powerhouses in the South. They lost to Texarkana Junior College, last week, by a score of 19-0, a team rated third in the South, Tyler, 28-6.

Ranger lost to Navarro (rated fifth in the South) by 26-6 and to the powerful Cameron Aggies 27-0. They have defeated Paris Junior College 15-0 and Murry State 14-6. No comparative games have been played by the teams, although the Cardinals ran over Cisco 23-8, and the Rangers will take on the Wranglers next Saturday. (Continued on Page Two) yards—10 more yards than the Bulldogs picked up on the ground. It was their second biggest passing game of the year, having previously earned 181 yards against the Dublin Lions.

Anderson connected with seven aerials and Wolford caught six. Bert Young, right half, connected with the other two.

Ranger Bulldog fans went wild with excitement as the final whistle blew, and many were of the opinion that they had just seen the best Bulldog game of the year. For the Bulldogs could do no wrong. Despite heavy penalties, the local team made few mistakes and exhibited a well-balanced team in downing the Winters' team.

In the opening quarter, when Winters held the ball most of the way, the Bulldog line stopped a long drive downfield (on the Ranger 11). After that, the Ranger team no longer seemed to fear the Blizzards (who had been picking up fast yardage).

Big surprise of the night was Jake Basham, going back into the fullback's slot after being out with injuries for about five weeks. It was Basham's second full game of the season, and he made it known that he was in there—accounting for two touchdowns.

District 7-AA

While the Bulldogs were earning their first district win, the Cisco Lobos looked impressive downing a tough team from Ballinger 32-14. At the same time, Coleman slipped past Eastland 24-19.

First Quarter

Following the kick-off, the Blizzards took the ball on the Winters 15 and began a long drive down the field—picking up yardage on almost every play. They gained five first downs before finally being stopped on the 11-yard line

There the Bulldog line had stopped their advance for four plays with a Winters' pass falling incomplete on the last try.

Basham p'cked up three yards on the Bulldogs' first offensive play at the local worked their way down to the Winters' 48-yard line before they were stopped in the second quarter.

Second Quarter

After regaining the ball, the Blizzards failed to pick up a first down, and the Bulldogs posed a scoring threat on the five-yard line. Two passes fell incomplete, however, and it was Winters' ball again.

The Blizzards picked up one first down and were forced to punt 42 yards downfield. Charles Wolf, right end, returned the punt seven yards and set the Bulldogs up again.

King connected with Jerry Anderson, halfback, and to Wolford on three beautiful passes—good enough to get the Bulldogs down to the Winters' 20.

From there—Anderson caught a 20-yard pass and went over for the first tally. The kick was no good, and the Bulldogs led 6-0 with only seconds remaining in the first half.

Third Quarter

After colorful half-time activities in which both bands performed, the Bulldogs came back strong to cap off a long drive with another TD.

The second score came when Basham romped around right end, from the 12-yard line. A pass for the extra points fell incomplete, and the Bulldogs led 12-0.

Again the Blizzards took the ball and made their way down deep into Bulldog territory (on the 15), but again the Bulldog line held and Ranger regained the ball.

Soon they were forced to punt, however, and Winters began their second long drive of the quarter. Following a 35-yard pass, the Blizzards made it down to the one yard line and went over, on the next play, for their first score.

It was Quarterback Jerry Danson making the tally and Jimmy Largent, halfback, accounting for the extra two points. The score stood at 12-8.

Fourth Quarter

When the Bulldogs took the ball at the beginning of the quarter, they showed that they meant business as fast as their passes would get them there. The powerful drive on the ground helped, too, and the (Continued on Page 2)

Personality of the Week

By Jonell Penney

The Personality of the Week for this week is Jimmy Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Clark of Newcastle. Jimmy is a sophomore, undecided yet as to major field, though he is interested in agriculture and physical education.

He attended Newcastle High School and was active in many fields. He held an office in FFA all four years of high school. He lettered four years in basketball and football and was in track two years. Jimmy was class favorite in his senior year.

This is Jimmy's second year at Ranger College. Last year he played end on the football team and guard on the basketball team and lettered in both sports. He was also a freshman favorite. This year Jimmy is one of the co-captains of the football team. He is secretary of the Purple Spurs, the men's social club recently organized.

Jimmy is a congenial, friendly young man who takes an active part in school activities. He is a tall young man with brown hair, bluish-grey eyes, and a ready smile. He has an attractive personality and gets along well with others. He is both an athlete and a leader.

Thursday, Oct. 16, the Methodist Church entertained the students at Ranger College with a "hamburger party."

Supper consisted of hamburgers and hotdogs, homemade ice cream, and cake. They were served by Dr. and Mrs. Price Ashton, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Hopper, Mr. and Mrs. James Radloff, Rev. Lively Brown, Mrs. Don Elliott and Mrs. R. A. Jameson.

The supper was concluded with a sing-song on the lawn north of the Student Union Bldg. The invocation was given by Rev. Brown.

Wednesday, Oct. 15, was "blue jean" day at the college. Classes were dismissed at ten, and the e students divided into groups with faculty leaders for a general campus clean-up. A prize of $5 was awarded to Coach David Slaughter and his group for the clean-up job on Newell Hall.

Dawell Criswell should be awarded a medal for his quick action in rescuing the Homecoming Queen, Joyce Beal. The cheerleaders led in a series of yells, and impromptu pep talks were made by various students and faculty members.

James Knickerbocker was master of ceremonies. Special numbers were given by Maxine Vandergriff, who played an accordion solo, "Blue Tango." Jimmy May Miller and Drayton Headen, who sang a duet, "Sweet Hour of Prayer." Jesse Prestridge, who sang a solo "All the Way," a n d James Knickerbocker and Drayton Headen, who sang a duet, "Tom Dooley."

Head Coach Tommy Steigleder, of the Cardinals, claims that he will win the Texas Conference this year. This is the first season of play for the Rangers in the Conference, and the game will mark their second conference game.

Team No. 1 will hold a 46-pound advantage on the line. The Rangers' backfield will outweigh Henderson by a total of 25 pounds. It'll be a different story, however, for the line on Team No. 2, which will be outweighed by a total of 26-pounds. The Ranger backs on Team No. 2 will outweigh the Cardinals backs by 45 pounds.

Weight may or may not mean very much when the two teams clash on the field, however. For it may be speed and good ball playing that will make the difference between a win or a loss.

In the Rangers' last game, Coaches David Slaughter and Jim Puryear put two "remodeled" teams into action and picked up 135 passing yards in 10 of 18 tries. They are expected to stay on the ground this game, however.

Henderson boasts a team that is good at pass interceptions. They also are better manned, powerful and well-balanced.

Rangers have concentrated on offensive plays during their last two weeks of work-outs, and they are expected to be better prepared for the game than the Cardinals. While the Henderson team was playing Texarkana last week the Rangers were resting.

From all appearances, then, the Rangers will be ready for this game. With lots of team spirit and hard playing—they will be out for a win Saturday night.

bringing the total through Sept. 1, 1958 to $66,140.57. Revenue from the meters of $68,558.49.

Expense of repairs, supplies, and replacements have totaled, during that period, $1,762.03, which leaves a net total of $66,796.46. That figure does not include salary expense for the portion of time that a patrolman has spent on the enforcement of the meters, nor does it include money received from fines for violations.

These figures were taken from the audit reports for each of the years from 1949 through 1958 made by Certified Public Accountants, and citizens are personally invited to verify the figures if they desire.

A great many people have held the belief that the meters were not legal because the people had never voted on them. Under the laws of the State and Government, the governing body of any incorporated city or town has the power and authority to enact ordinances and rules regulating traffic within the limits of such city or town, without specific approval of the citizenship; however, at the time the meters were installed in Ranger nine years ago, the City Commission, fully believing that the people should be allowed to vote on them, installed the meters on a six-month's trial basis during which time the people, through the newspaper were constantly advised of the fact that the meters were on trial, and that if the people so desired they could petition the Commission to hold an election at the end of the six-month's period. Since the Commission was never so petitioned, there was no election.

Eastland and Cisco installed parking meters at approximately the same time. In both towns elections were held, and in each case the people voted almost three to one to keep the meters. At the time meters were installed it was virtually impossible to find a parking place on Main St., particularly in the Ghoslon Hotel Block, the Commercial State Bank Block, and around what was at that time the Piggly Wiggly Grocery, now the Worth Food Mart. In the year 1950 there were slightly over 1,100 cars registered in Ranger. In the present year, 1958, meters in Ranger has passed, and that with more competition with area towns — the meters are more detrimental than beneficial. Opposition to the meters states that the city will probably not raise taxes to make up for the deficit to be felt by the lack of meters. They based this opinion on the fact that property evaluation and taxes were raised last year by the commissioners. At the present time the city tax rate is $2.50 per $100 evaluation — the State limit. While the rate can not be increased, city taxes can be, by an increase in evaluations of property.

Total figures on meter receipts, circulated in Ranger, show the figures up to April 30, 1958 at $63,628.49. Meter receipts since that time have totaled $2,512.08.

there were slightly over 2,100 cars registered in Ranger. If parking were a problem in 1949, it would be approximately double so today.

City authorities do not like to issue tickets for overparking. They had rather have money placed in the meter than to assess a penalty.

Following are figures compiled by certified public accountants: Parking meter income over the past nine years has totaled $66,140.57. Loading zones and permits total $2,417.92. Total expenses, over that period, are $1,762.03 net including expense for salaries of the meter man. This item was charged to Police salaries, since he performed other Police duties in addition to working meters. Nor does the revenues include fines for violations (credited to Police fines).

Biggest year for parking meter receipts was from May 1, 1950 to April 30, 1951 during which time a total of $10,019.37 was received. Loading zone and permits were also higher for that time, totaling $458.92. Expenses of that year are listed at $139.25. Meter receipts from May 1 to Sept. 1 of 1958 total $2,512.08. Loading zones and permits total $45 for that period and expenses are listed at $46.

Meters were installed as a measure to control parking and to benefit shops and shoppers, but if removed the loss of revenue to the City would be a severe blow. Payments for the new lake has placed the City under a severe financial strain, and since expenses have been pared to the very minimum—any loss of revenues would have to be offset by a new source, or addition.

The present Commission and Mayor, realizing the financial condition of the City waived the $10 per meeting per member provided for under the City Charter. This will mean that when they have finished their term of office next April 30, they will have actually donated to the City the sum of approximately $5,000. Should the people chance to vote the meters out, the sacrifice of the money justly due them would have gone for nothing.

THEY'RE HERE! That's the 1959 Chevrolet and Ford which went on display this week in Ranger. The Chevrolet attracted a good crowd of spectators at Anderson's Chevrolet Co. and the Ford brought in a good crowd of people at Campbell Ford Sales, Inc., with the grand opening.

Already here, too, is the 1959 Pontiac at Bagwell Motor Co.

MONDAY marks the day that will decide, perhaps for all time, the question of parking meters in the city.

Won't try to influence your vote. The important thing is TO VOTE. Let's get this settled now so it won't hang over our heads any longer.

EXES — please note that the Rangers have won two games this season and lost two, which is not a bad record considering the tough schedule.

The football team still faces two of the toughest teams in the nation — Texarkana and Tyler this season. See ya' at the game.
