No, it's not over. College games are still scheduled as late as Nov. 29, and high school teams are going into the playoffs. Of course, the bowl games will wind up the season.

Football fans can still get behind regional champions- such as Cisco, Abilene or Breckenridge and support (or follow) them all the way. Cisco plays Gran-bury for the bi-district championship at Brownwood next Saturday. This is the first district title Cisco has won in 31 years, so I think we should support the Loboes ov at least wish them good luck on their hazardous trip to the state semi-finals, (Because I think they'll go that
