ROAMING THRU RANGER WITH RON... By Ronald Waters

PLEASE NOTE — the new column in today's Times. And we take pleasure in presenting "Covered Sugar" by Mrs. Homer Perry of Breckenridge Road. For a long time now we have been envious of "Gray Matter" which fills up almost one-fourth of the Eastland Telegram at times. But now our worries are over—we have covered sugar!

This column will concern everything from rats to Ranger. Be sure to read today's mouse story!

VOLUNTEER FIREMEN are really keeping busy right now in the midst of the seasonal activities. They are releasing the ten turkeys to be given away this afternoon, after decorating the downtown streets.

New Christmas decorations certainly helped to brighten things up. Looks like the local merchants are lagging behind area towns, however, in decorating their store windows. Only a few shopping days left to Christmas!

RECIPES FOR MEN — I bet that's the last thing you expected to see here. But, after much careful deliberation and just a lot of hesitation, with serious contemplation—we present recipes especially designed for bachelors and men who have to cook when the wife is away...

Eggs A La Catsby
Take one egg from a hen or the refrigerator. Tap gently with a knife until it cracks. Pick up the shell and be sure that the "goo" spills out the crack into the frying pan (not the hand).

Melt butter in the frying pan first for best results. Now scramble the egg with a knife or fork, adding salt and pepper for flavoring. (Green peppers also season eggs deliciously, so I've been told). Soft boil the egg or gently fry it sunny-side up, if preferred.

Now take the egg and place it on a plate so you can see the sun of the yolk. Add a generous portion of catsup and stir. If you don't like this you can always try instant coffee, and feed the egg to the dog or cat.

Hot Mexican Lunch
Discovered this one by accident. When you try it—it'll be one of the best meals you've ever had—if you like that sort of thing.

It's easy to prepare, too. First take a can of jalapenos (bean dip to you Texans); which is better if kept cold in the refrigerator, and mix it with the contents of a can of refritos (fried beans). The beans may or may not be fried, but are easily prepared cold. Add seasoning, such as pepper and green peppers.

In mixing, add about one part of jalapenos to four or five parts of refritos. Use seasoning sparingly, remembering that the food is naturally "hot."

This produces a very palatable plate good with Fritos, corn chips or crackers, and makes a wonderful party snack.

Look for future recipes by Roaming Chef Ron!

John T. England Rites Set Sunday
John T. England, 77, formerly of Ranger, died at 7:30 a.m. Friday at Rains Rest Home in Fort Worth. He had been in the home for some time.

Funeral will be held at 4 p.m. Sunday at Killingsworth Funeral Chapel, with the Rev. K. C. Edmonds, pastor of the Eastside Baptist Church, officiating. Burial will be in Pioneer Cemetery here.

10 Turkey Give-Away Set From 2-4 p.m. Today

A large crowd of local area persons is expected to be downtown today (Saturday) for the turkey give-away, set every half-hour from 2 to 4 p.m.

Ten turkeys will be given away, with two going away every 30 minutes to whomever is able to catch them. They will be released from the top of downtown buildings, according to a schedule given below.

Turkey Schedule
2 p.m.—South side of the 100 block of Main St.
2:30 p.m.—North side of the 200 block of Main St.
3 p.m.—South side of the 300 block of Main St.

Members of the Ranger Volunteer Fire Department will release the turkeys from the top of different buildings. Parking meters will be sacked all day Saturday.

First event of the Fall Campaign was the "Treasure Hunt" held earlier. The turkey give-away was planned by merchants to occur shortly before Thanksgiving, which comes next Thursday. Santa Claus will arrive in downtown Ranger, via helicopter, as the third special event, on Saturday, Nov. 29.

Big turkeys have been furnished by Morris Newman, James Ratliff and Aubrey Kincaid, all turkey producers.

DAVID SLAUGHTER goes into football final

JIM PURYEAR assistant coach

Rangers Up Against Top-Rated Texarkana

Hobbling into action, the Ranger College Rangers will face the Texarkana College Bulldogs, there, in the last game of the season tonight (Saturday).

The badly crippled Rangers will romp into action with plenty of spirit and determination, but they will be up against one of the top-rated teams in the nation. Already the brave Rangers have fell before two of the top powers—Tyler and New Mexico Military.

Will they fall again? Not if determination makes the difference. However the Texarkana team will be playing a good hard game for the benefit of the scouts, if nothing else, who will be spotting the Bulldogs for a spot in the Hospitality Bowl in Gulf Port, Miss.

Head Coach David Slaughter said that a bowl game is out of the picture for the Rangers, although they have come in second in the Texas Conference a year and just finished their most successful season in five years.

Texarkana has the best junior college team that Coach Jim Puryear has seen. They're top on running, fast and big, with a well-balanced team, he said.

The Rangers will go into the game with five top players out with injuries. At last report, Jerry Blakely and Dick Maxwell were inflicted with the virus. Both will probably start, however.

On the injury list are Wylie Wyman, who consequently is losing his chance at All-American All-Star; Doug Arnold, at center; Jack Waggoner, quarterback for the No. 2 team; Don Geisendorff, tackle; and Doug Roark, guard.

George "Buzz" Boynton, a standout in the backfield all season, has been nominated for the Third Annual National Junior College Football Award.

Maxwell will lead the No. 1 Team, made up of Sophomores, into action, and James Brock, quarterback of the No. 2 team, will lead off the bunch of Freshmen.

The Texarkana game will mark the only time this season that the Rangers have split into units by classification. The change makes a big difference in the line-ups.

Ranger College stands with a 4-4-1 season record and a 2-1-1 conference record before going into the non-conference tilt.

The football boys, leaving town early this morning, expect to return Sunday afternoon. Perhaps they will bring back a victory.

Joint Thanksgiving Services Are Set

Joint Thanksgiving worship services will be held by all local churches making up the Ministerial Alliance this Sunday in the First Methodist Church at 7:45 p.m.

Rev. J. C. Atkins, president of the Ranger Ministerial Alliance and pastor of the Church of God, will bring the message for the service.

Combined choirs from the various churches will present a variety of music under the direction of Mrs. D. T. Wier. At the organ will be Mrs. F. P. Brasher, Jr.

Rev. D. A. Lambert, Church of the Nazarene, will give the invocation. The welcome will be extended by Rev. Lively Brown, pastor.

Responsive scripture reading will be led by Rev. Ed Scarborough, Second Baptist, and Rev. Ralph Perkins, First Baptist, will give the Thanksgiving prayer.

Jack Barker, pastor of the First Christian Church, will give a scripture reading. Rev. K. C. Edmonds, pastor of the Eastside Baptist Church, will be in charge of the Thanksgiving offering.

Following the sermon will come the benediction by Rev. J. E. Lamb, Pentecostal Church.

The public, made up of churches of all faiths, is invited to attend the joint service.

Officers for the Masquers of Ranger College for the current school year have been elected.

The nominating committee composed of Sherry Baker, and Ruth Miller, both of Ranger, and James Knickerbocker of Dallas suggested candidates for various offices, and the following officers were elected:

President: James Knickerbocker of Dallas.
Vice President: Dawell Criswell of Asperment.
Secretary - Reporter: Glenda Givens of Knox City.
Treasurer: Ruth Miller of Ranger.

Student Council Representative: Betsy Teinert of Albany.

The Masquers is the dramatics club of the college. Members are now at work on a one-act play to be presented in the near future. A three-act play will be cast early in December for presentation in January.

Funeral for Mrs. Dewane Max Motes is set for 2 p.m. Saturday in the Temple Baptist Church of Abilene with the Rev. Melvin Byrd, pastor, officiating.

He will be assisted by the Rev. W. E. Hallenbeck, pastor of the Church of God in Eastland. Burial will be in Eastland Cemetery under direction of Elliott's Funeral Home.

Covered Sugar

Fishing is good, hunting is good, to see how very brave they are to attack and hold the home front.

Mrs. Lillian Blodoe sets milk out for her cats. The cats bring in the rodents, dip them in the milk and have a two-course feast.

Mrs. H. C. Montgomery caught a thimble mouse entering her front door and ushered him right out the same door.

The Swovelands keep two fly swatters and just bat them back and forth until he just gives up and says "Life's not worth living."

David Alloups find them playing in and out of their panel-rat heating system, and just scream them to death.

Harmen's have ten cats and as many traps, and are trying to work out a market for the pelts, but so far no takers.

This little verse was written long ago and you can plainly see the writer never lived in Ranger during the mouse boom.

Sunday Rites Are Set For Mrs. Blankenship

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday at Killingsworth Funeral Chapel in Ranger for Mrs. W. H. Blankenship, 96, formerly of Lubbock and Ranger, who died about 7:15 a.m. Friday at Sunnydale Nursing Home in Abilene, where she had been a patient for about 20 months.

The Rev. J. A. Bell, assistant pastor of the First Methodist Church of Abilene, will officiate. Burial will be in Pioneer Cemetery in Ranger.

Born Aug. 5, 1862, in a covered wagon in Indian territory of Oklahoma on the way to Texas, she had formerly lived in Abilene for five years until 1934. Her husband was an employe of T&P Railway in Abilene at the time. He died in 1948.

She had lived in Ranger for several years prior to moving to Abilene.

Before entering the nursing home, Mrs. Blankenship had lived with a daughter in Lubbock for six years.

The body will lie in state at Killingsworth Chapel from 11 a.m. Saturday (today) until time for the services.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. George F. Kenyon of Lubbock; two sons, Fred of Abilene, and John of Ranger; 12 grandchildren and several great-grandchildren.

"MON GENERALE"—Gen. Charles de Gaulle, shown in a recent photo, is the man many French affectionately call "Mon Generale." Leader of the Free French after the fall of his country to the Germans in the early stages of World War II, De Gaulle came back to assume leadership over the liberated country. Shortly after he quit in disgust at the bickering splinter parties in the National Assembly. Now, at 67, he's back, ready to take over control of the Republic, "if the people wish, as in the preceding great national crisis." But the man who once referred to himself as a "modern Joan of Arc" had many obstacles to overcome before he could attain this position.

Mrs. Gene Marshall left Sunday at 8 p.m. for Abilene where she boarded a plane for Ogden, Utah. Mr. Marshall will meet her in St. Louis. He is with the Internal Revenue accounting department and they will be in Ogden for several weeks. Mrs. Marshall has been at the bedside of her mother, Mrs. W. L. Andrus, who is now a patient in the Blackwell Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Griffin and Michael of Berger are weekend guests in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Andrus and Mrs. Maude Griffin. Mrs. Aubrey Griffin will remain for sometime to be at the bedside of her mother.

Mrs. Ella Logan of Corpus Christi was a weekend visitor in the home of her mother and sister, Mrs. Argie Pritchard and Mrs. Ethel Stahl.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Boucher were in Stolon and Fox the first of the week. They carried Mrs. Boucher's brother, C. E. Vaughn, home and visited in Post with her sisters, Mrs. C. J. Mangum and Mrs. Mattie Vaughn. Her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Cegburn of Lubbock, spent Tuesday with them in the home of Mr. Vaughn.

Mr. and Mrs. Odell Hogan of Takoka spent the weekend with his father, T. E. Hagan. They returned home Monday and Mr. Hogan went with them for an extended visit.

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Gray had as their guests over the weekend their children and grandchildren. Visitors included Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Maddocks and daughters, Perry and Majorie, of Denton; Mrs. James Mathews and son, James Cray, of Corpus Christi; Mr. and Mrs. Preston Lightfoot of Sweetwater; and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Dixon of Austin. Mr. and Mrs. Gray celebrated their 61st wedding anniversary.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Riley over the weekend were Mrs. Tony Inmatteo, Gene and Neil of Fort Worth and Miss Pat Tippet of Dallas.

Rev. and Mrs. W. M. Mustin of Los Angeles, Calif., Mrs. Willie Harvey of Wichita Falls, Ed Pritchard of Fort Worth and Austin Pritchard of Houston were visiting with relatives in Gorman Sunday. Mrs. Mustin and Mrs. Harvey are sisters of Ed Austin. Rev. Mustin is a retired minister. These people are all former citizens of the Midway community. They are cousins of Mrs. T. A. Thompson and Mrs. Ethel Stahl and niece and nephews of Mrs. Argie Pritchard.

Mrs. D. B. Raney.
Mrs. L. A. Eudy, who has been very ill, has been slightly improved the past few days. Her daughter, Mrs. Florence Bauman, of Los Angeles and son, Riley Eudy of Coleman, have returned to their homes. Other relatives have also visited her.

Congratulations go to some of our young people. Charles Veale, who is a Senior in Ranger High School and a member of the Bulldogs, was awarded a trophy as Lineman of the Year.
Linda Truesdall, who is a sophomore in Breckenridge High School and a leader in the Pep Squad, was a candidate for Homecoming Queen. Buddie Langford, president of the Sophomore class was her escort in the ceremonies.
Buddie Langford was also chosen as Sophomore Favorite. Portia Truesdall, who formerly lived here, was also chosen a Sophomore Favorite.

The young people of the New Hope Baptist Church were awarded the banner at the Cisco Association Youth Rally at the First Baptist Church of Ranger Saturday night for the largest percentage of attendance.
Mrs. Ida Raney accompanied her son and family, Weldon Leonard, for a week-end visit to relatives at Dallas. She visited her brother, Tom Bradford. Another brother, Richard Bradford of Graham, visited Mrs. Raney last week. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Miller of Ranger were visitors to his parents Sunday and attended Sunday morning services at New Hope Baptist Church.
Peggy and Brenda Howton visited.

Proper Machinery And Balance Make Farming Profits

Profitable farming today not only requires adequate machinery and equipment to make labor most productive, but it also requires a balance between the capital invested and the labor which goes into the farm business.
It has never been more true that "you must spend money to make money." It is possible, however, to spend money without adding to income. At the same time, many farmers can profitably spend more for machinery, especially if they can increase their volume of business and lower their costs per unit of product. The big questions farmers should ask themselves are:
1. Which costs should I increase and which should I cut?
2. Which costs can I cut that will not cut my income?
3. Which machines, if any, are not essential for my farm business?
The Texas Agricultural Extension Service has released a bulletin that will help answer these questions. It discusses factors to consider before buying machinery, how to cut machinery costs, selecting a machine, when to trade, along with cost-cutting tips and other related topics. Cecil Parker, farm management specialist and W. L. Ulich, agricultural engineer, are the authors.
This publication is available from local county agents or the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas. Ask for MF-281.

South African Rock Lobster Tails Lush Eating

Rock lobster tails served with potato salad and tangy dip are enticing.

For a very special late supper party on the Sunday evening buffet get-together, lobster tails give a touch of elegance.

The two following recipes are very easy to prepare and result in de luxe eating.

Rock Lobster Platter With Tangy Dip

Six South African rock lobster tails, 1/2 tablespoon dry mustard, 1/2 tablespoon salt, 1 tablespoon sugar, 1 tablespoon flour, 2 egg yolks, 1/4 cup vinegar, 1/4 cup milk, 2 tablespoons butter.

Place frozen lobster tails in kettle of cold salted water. Bring water to boil and boil tails for 2 minutes. Drain immediately and drench with cold water. Cut away thin underside membrane and carefully remove tails from

BY DOROTHY MADDOX shells in one piece. Chill. At serving time, arrange tails on mound of potato salad and serve with tangy sauce.

Sauce: In a saucepan, mix together mustard, salt, sugar and flour. Beat egg yolks until creamy and add dry ingredients. Add vinegar and milk. Cook over low flame, stirring constantly, until thickened (about 3 minutes). Remove from fire and add butter. Cool, then chill in refrigerator.

South African Bowl Salad

Six South African rock lobster tails, 1 cup celery, diced; 1/2 cup green pepper, diced; 4 tablespoons minced scallions, 1/2 cup mayonnaise, 1/2 teaspoon salt, dash pepper, 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard, 1/2 teaspoon aromatic bitters, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 1/2 cup packaged precooked rice, 1/2 cup rock lobster broth.

Drop frozen lobster tails into boiling salted water and cook for 10 minutes. Drain immediately, reserving 1/2 cup broth for rice. Drench tails with cold water and cut away thin underside membrane. Remove tails from shell in one piece and slice into bite-size rounds.

Cook rice according to package directions, using lobster broth in place of water. Chill rock lobster meat and rice while dicing celery and green pepper and scallions. Mix mayonnaise with seasonings and toss all ingredients together. Chill well.

Charles Fox and Betty Napier Reign As Royalty at Olden High School

By DEELORES J. COOPER Charles Fox and Betty Napier were crowned king and queen of the annual Autumn coronation was held in the high school gymnasium.

As Elizabeth Fox struck the first note of the professional march, Duke Gregory Fox and Duchess Cathy Hooks, representing the first grade, entered the aisle, which was trimmed in Autumn leaves. The remainder of the royal court followed down the aisle which led to the royal courtroom.

Representatives of the Second through Eighth grade were: Duke Bobby Cagle and Duchess Sharon Holladay, second grade; Duke Wade Thomas and Duchess Nancy Miller, third grade; Duke Larry Miller and Duchess Connie Fox, fourth grade; Duke Monty Hood and Duchess Carolyn Thomas, fifth grade; Duke Tommy Duncan and Duchess Diana McBridge, sixth grade; Duke Ronald Patton and Duchess Darle Cooper, seventh grade; a Duke Raymond Fox and Duchess Caroline Covington, eighth grade.

High school representatives were, Prince Homer Thomas and Princess Daisy Stewart, ninth grade; Prince Bennie O'Brien and Princess Betty Cook, tenth grade; Prince Leroy Yarbrough and Princess Judie Brown, eleventh grade; and Prince Jerry Colburn and Princess Patsy Fox, 12th grade.

Pages for the occasion were Charlene Rodgers and Deelores Cooper. Gail Thomas and Patricia Moseley were flower girls. Crown bearers were Mary Sue Jackson and Randy Keller and train bearers were Margaret Huckaby and Picky Robinson.

Gary Fox, representative of the basketball teams of Olden, crowned King Charles and Queen Betty was crowned by the King. A bouquet of roses was presented to the Queen by Cindy Fox, representative of the student body.

A short program was presented before the Royal Club and was concluded by the seniors' announcement of the dedication of the yearbook. The "Hornet's Nest" of 1959 will be dedicated to Mrs. Nona Lockhart, cafeteria supervisor for many years.

First Baptist Announcements

Rev. Ralph Perkins, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will bring the message Sunday morning on the theme, "The Security of the Believer." Rev. Perkins said, "Christ makes every provision for his children."

Special music and congregational singing will precede the morning message.

Training Union will meet from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m.

There will be no regular worship service Sunday evening. After Training Union, members will go to the First Methodist Church to participate in the joint worship service.

The nursery will be open at both churches.

Christian Science

Recognition of man's true nature as God's spiritual image and likeness is a central theme of the Lesson Sermon entitled "Soul and Body" which will be heard in Christian Science services Sunday. From the King James Version of the Bible will be read the following (II Corinthians 5:1): "For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."

Also bringing out man's spiritual nature is this passage to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:

"Rightly understood, instead of possessing a sentient material form, a man has a sensationless body; and God, the Soul of man and of all existence, being perpetual in His own individuality, harmony, and immortality, imparts and perpetuates these qualities in man,—through Mind, 'not matter' (280-25-30).

Second Baptist Announcements

"Those Who Oppose Jesus" will be the topic of the Sunday school lesson Sunday morning at 9:45 a.m. at the Second Baptist Church. The morning worship service begins at 11:00. Herbert Watson of Hardin - Simmons University will direct the music. Training Union starts at 6:15 p.m. Immediately following Training Union, members will go to the First Methodist Church to take part in the joint Thanksgiving services.

Are You in Orbit Now?

... is another way of asking, are you on the right track? The way we vote reflects our thinking and the way we think reflects our whole character. And by this standard, what a confused and careless people we sometimes appear to be! For example, the person who loses his abstract is careless, and the one who buys real estate without an abstract what about his thinking? The moral is, stay in orbit and out of trouble!

RETURNS FROM VISIT
Mrs. W. A. Robinson has returned from a visit with her sister, Mrs. R. M. Smith, of Oklahoma City.

J. D. Lauderdale New Member Of School Board

J. D. Lauderdale, veteran Cisco school teacher, has been appointed by the Eastland County Board of Education to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. J. R. Burnett, also of Cisco, who resigned recently. Announcement of the board change was made today by H. R. Garrett, county superintendent.

there since that time, except for six years when she lived in Eastland while serving as county school superintendent.

In addition to serving on the county school board and as county school superintendent, Mrs. Burnett has a license to practice law, taught school in Eastland County almost 20 years, has written a book entitled, "Bible Study Made Easy," and has taught a Sunday School class in the First Baptist Church for over 50 years. She is a graduate from Cisco High School and attended the University of Texas.

Lauderdale has lived in Cisco since 1920 when he moved there from Stephens County where he attended the Harpersville School in Breckenridge. He is married and has one child.

Serving on the County School Board is a new experience for Lauderdale although he has shouldered other civic duties. He has been president of the Chamber of Commerce and president of the Rotary Club. He is a vice-president of the First National Bank of Cisco.

Other members of the board are Dr. P. M. Kuykendall of Ranger, I. C. Inzer of Eastland, Jay Koonce of Rising Star and Glynn Kirk of Gorman. The board meets quarterly.

THE DISAPPEARING "MAN'S WORLD"—Woman has invaded another time-honored retreat of the male—the pool hall. Here Masako Katura, the First Lady of billiards, dazzles male onlookers with her skillful performance in Chicago. She caroms one ball off another on the table and the first ball jumps up to knock the third ball off the top of bottle.

Banquet Details Will Be Made

Lions approved a plan Thursday to hold the annual football banquet for members of the high school and college football teams on a Thursday night, in place of a regular noon meeting of the group.

The date and other details of the banquet will be worked out by James Townzen, Dr. W. P. Watkins and Charles Milliken.

Dr. Watkins suggested selling tickets to business men, who would at the same time buy tickets for the players. He also suggested that football boys come without dates.

Milliken reported on plans outlined by directors in an earlier meeting. He said that the Lions Club would plan a pancake supper in January and a community program or minstrel show in February.

Mimeographed copies of program assignments will be available, at a later date, for members of the Lions Club.

Lion Dr. Watkins tested the intelligence of members at the Thursday-noon program. He presented a general test to the group and offered a prize to the highest score. Achieving the highest score on the test, with a grade of 74, was Lion Dr. Douglas Mims.

Those who made a grade, between 60 and 70 were average, Dr. Watkins explained, and from 70 to 80 were superior.

Mrs. Murray In Ft. Worth Hospital

Mrs. Blanche Murray of Ranger was hospitalized at St. Joseph's Hospital in Fort Worth Thursday after breaking her arm in a fall. I GIVE YOU TEXAS

By BOYCE HOUSE

Richmond is a city of charm, glory and greatness.

I knew I was going to like Richmond from the very first impression which was gained when I breakfasted, on arrival, at the Holloway House. A meal of real biscuits—I thought they quit making genuine ones during Woodrow Wilson's first term); an egg, blindfolded, and greasiness; hot cakes, sent to the table under glass to keep them hot; and coffee—all of his for 53 cents!

A taxi-driver said he was from Alameda County which (he asserted) had a region known as Shiftless Hollow whose moonshining used to abound. A revenue man asked a boy, "Will this path take me to the still?" "Yes," the lad replied, "but it won't bring you back."

Edgar Allan Poe lived in Richmond and what is probably the city's oldest house (built about 1685) is known as the Poe shrine. The small rock structure, with three gables, houses some of his manuscripts and items connected with his life.

In an old cemetery is the grave of the woman who inspired the lines:

"Helen, thy beauty is to me
Like those Nereid barks of Yore,
That gently, o'er a perfumed
sea,
The weary, wayworn wanderer
 bore
To his own native shore."

"On desperate seas long wont to roam,
Thy hyacinth hair, thy classic
face,

Thy Naiad airs, have brought me home
To the glory that was Greece
And the grandeur that was Rome.

A stroll in the business region will take you past the house where Lee lived after Appomattox and you will see St. Paul's Episcopal Church where Jefferson Davis and Lee worshipped. It was while Davis was attending a service here that a courier brought the news that Petersburg had fallen, which meant that Richmond would have to be evacuated.

The day I was there was the 150th anniversary of Davis' birth. The windows of Cokesbury's book store featured a large Confederate flag and volumes about Davis and the War between the States.

In the paper that day was a letter from a lady who urged that, when the higher postage rate becomes effective, people combine a "3" with a "1" so as not to have to use a Lincoln four-cent stamp.

Pecan Show—

Guest will arrange for representatives to appear on a television show in Abilene, representing the Chamber and the Pecan Growers Association.

In charge of decorating are Galloway, Lloyd Bruce, D. C. Arterburn and Herrington.

The County Home Demonstration Council will sponsor the bake sale and contest, as they have done in the past. The 1947 Club will sponsor the Pecan Queen contest. Named to be responsible for gaining workers at the Pecan Show were Wallace, Dudley, Lloyd Bruce, Haby, and T. C. Wylie. Workers may alternate on Saturday, Dec. 13, but should have five men present at all times.
