Largest Pecan Show In State Goes Into Last Day With Over 269 Enteries Here

OAMING ANGER By Ronald Waters

CHEMICAL MAGIC - was demonstrated before the Ranger Lions Thursday noon by George Rushton, and the Lions roared their approval.

Rushton was sharp, as usual, in the game of repartee that was dispersed throughout. He started out by saying. "No sense trying to explain these (chemicals). All you have to do is watch and enjoy it." There was no use, George. We're still mystified.

Later, when asked how the colors of the chemicals were changed, he replied, "That's a professional secret."

He even went in for a "mind reading act" by telling District Governor "Pop" Garrett and Lion Sweetheart Barbara Mauldin what numbers they had writ-

Claus got the name of Saint Nick, it's really the other way around: Santa Claus is a corrupted form of

The early English children, this country, adopted the legend-ary Christmas figure from the Dutch, but they had trouble pro-nouncing "Saint Nickolous." Some-Kalouf," and finally it was corrupted to "Santa Claus."

Perhaps you'll understand this better by repeating "Saint Nicholas" rapidly several times.

W. W. ROBERSON is writing about the "Ranger Pipe Line" now in the "Blue Blaze". He starts off very well.

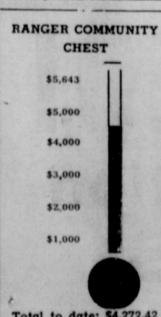

Should you come across the latest issue (December, 1958), read his piece, look at the snake killed by Verne Peterson, read "Ranger Gasoline" by Wynona Rushing, and read "On the Byas" by "Sailor" Byas. Or—to save you the trouble of borrowing a copy-we thought the latter was so good that we ruprinted it in today's Times.

GARDENIA looked mighty familiar, in her wrought iron cage, as part of the impressive display by the Ranger Iron Works in the Joseph Building window. One of her relatives must have invaded Roaming Ron's back porch the other night. Mmm-m. Wonder what the skunk thought as it (don't know if it's a he or she) viewed the people passing in and out at the Sixth Annual Pecan Show?
