Early the next morning the thirty-four students will be taken to Clovis where they will be placed on the bus to continue their trip, There are presently 54 families who have asked to keep a student overnight. These reservations are being handled by superintendent Paul Hilburn, who said this week that since there were already more amilies signed up than necessary t was doubtful if any more were needed. He indicated that some of those who had asked for a student night be away on a vacation or be otherwise unable to take the young ster, but the twenty extra famlies would surely be plenty.

The foreign students will be takng part of an expense-paid six weeks trip over the United States where they will spend each stor much as they will in Dimmitt.
