ROAMING THRU RANGER WITH RON...

By Ronald Waters

RANGER'S BENEFIT Tournament required the participation of a good many organizations and a host of volunteers. They are to be commended.

Ranging from the sublime to the ridiculous, basketball play was a lot of fun for the teams and fans. At moments the game was extremely funny, and at others—deadly serious.

On the basis of comparative scores, here's the way the teams finished:

1. Olden Independents
 2. Ranger Independents
 3. Basketeers
 4. Volunteer Firemen
- Any of the top three teams were capable of taking the tournament. Both the Ranger Independents and the Basketeers claim to have had their "off night" (when they lost), but Olden was consistently good and the Firemen were under-manned the last night.
- Olden's star — Don Slatton of Eastland — was the outstanding player of the tournament. He gained a total of 46 points in two games, and seemed incapable of missing a shot.

HERE'S HOW the top players came out in scoring honors:

- Don Slatton—46
- Carol Richardson—37 (with 33 points in one game.)
- Ronald Carroll—22 (in three games.)
- Jerry Bean—21
- Jerry Underwood—21 (in one game)
- Rod Carter—21
- Tommy Edwards—20
- Charles "Toad" Tibbels—18
- Randall Hoover—18
- Dale Slatton—17

VOLUNTEER WORKERS included the following:

- BOY SCOUTS on hand to receive donations for the March of Dimes were: Craig Loper and Jerry Bob Warden of Troop 10; David Webb and Tommy Robinson of Post 16; and Joe Pete Miller, Pat Miller, Neal Storey, Dwight Hamilton and Steven Lilley, from Den 2 and 3 of Cub Pack 34.
- FFA BOYS — poppin' pop corn for the March of Dimes were on hand, but Roaming Ron failed to get all their names.
- REFEREES—J. B. O'Shields and Jimmy Burnett, Jack Tyrone, James Knickerbocker and James Pope, Jimmy Hogan and Tommy Fonville.

INTERSTATE 20 signs are up in Eastland County, now marking the route along side the U. S. Highway 80 signs. Quite attractive, the new markers are red, white and blue.

ANOTHER essay by an English student of Mrs. Lillie Robinson, appearing in "Young America Speaks", published by the National Essay Association, appear below:

Clouds

By Jimmie Burnett
White clouds drifting in a blue summer sky call to nearly every one's imagination. When you watch them for a moment, they seem to take on familiar shapes, such as images of men or animals. They seem to race one another across the sky. This fantasy is very interesting.

Sometimes we see small, white, woolly clouds in a blue sky. We see droopy, low-hanging clouds. There are towering, billowy masses of cotton-like clouds. There are long stringy pieces of clouds. We see clouds floating along in a scale-like pattern.

Most beautiful of all clouds are those that linger in the sky during sunset. They shine brightly and have fascinating colors of red, orange, pink, or gold.

The world would be incomplete without clouds to inhabit the sky.

Abilene Bar Favors 11th Court Move

The Abilene Bar Association has gone on record as unanimously favoring the moving of the 11th District Court of Civil Appeals from Eastland to Abilene.

And the Association got assurances from Rep. Leon Thurman of Anson this week that "there is a bill on my desk for the court of civil appeals move."

According to the Abilene reporter, the Abilene Bar also discussed, but took no stand, on removal of Shackelford County from the 42nd District Court. The Reporter-News did not reveal what the discussion about Shackelford County might have concerned, but Abilene attorneys blocked a Senate bill in the last Legislature which would have added Shackelford County to the 91st District Court in Eastland.

A discussion concerning the removal of Fisher County from the 104th District in Abilene was also discussed by Abilene attorneys. Finally the Bar resolved against removal of Fisher County, but proponents of the move reasoned that the Abilene Bar should go on record as not opposing the loss of Fisher so that civic leaders in that area of the civil appeals district would support the Abilene move to gain the Appeals Court.

J. A. Bates Resigns From School Board

J. A. Bates, president of the Board of Education of the Ranger Independent School District, resigned from the Board at the regular board meeting Friday. Morris George was appointed to fill his unexpired term.

Bates, who is field superintendent of the Lone Star Gas and Producing Company's Gasoline Departments, has been a member of the board since 1949. During this time Bates has been chairman of the board for five years.

As field superintendent, Bates duties have required him to be out of the local area much of the time. This is the reason for his resignation. However, he has missed but few meetings of the school board, often having to drive many miles to be able to attend.

A sincere thanks of appreciation was given Bates by the other members of the board for his "faithful and excellent work done during his 10 years as a member of the School Board."

Rangers Blast Cisco, 110-67 For Second Win

Going over the 100 mark for the first time in several seasons, the Ranger College Basketeers blasted the Cisco Jr. College Wranglers 110-67, Monday night in the Recreation Building.

The Rangers probably played the best basketball game of this season, demonstrating remarkable ball-handling ability. They now hold a 2-2 Texas Conference record, getting ready to face Henderson County in a return match this Friday, there. Henderson downed the Rangers earlier.

Fans roared their approval when Bill Phillips reached the 100 mark for the Rangers, on a free shot.

With a rejuvenated ball club, made up of several new promising players, the Rangers started a "win-streak" Monday night while taking their second game victory since 1957.

Bob Sullivan, at forward, led the Rangers — sinking eight goals and three free shots for 19 points. He fouled out in the final period of play, gaining 16 points each were: Jerry Larned, guard, who displayed some "sneaky" passing ability and sank seven goals and two free shots; Jim Hamilton, guard, a transfer student from Hardin - Simmons University; and Don Russell, center, with a six-four record.

High-point man for Cisco was Bill Wright who earned 20 points with five goals and 10 free shots. Second was Chuck Wadley with 18. Bill Moore scored 12 points and Frank Upp, nine.

Report on Ranger Boy Is Presented Here ...

(Editor's Note: Here is a complete report on Mark Calhoun, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. (Bill) Calhoun of Ranger, who has been confined in the Children's Hospital of Texas in Dallas for two weeks suffering from Rheumatoid Arthritis. H. B. Dempsey, a former Ranger resident now living in Dallas, sent the report, presented below.)

Report On Mark Calhoun
To those of you who know little six-year-old Mark Calhoun, we would like to give you an on-the-spot report since his mother, who maintains a constant vigil at his bedside, has so little time to write even those included in the immediate family.

Mark has been confined in the Children's Hospital of Texas, at 2306 Wilborn St., in Dallas, for two weeks suffering from Rheumatoid Arthritis, a disease affecting the muscles and joints of the body. Although not considered a rare disease by some, few cases in number come through the Children's Hospital in Dallas.

quently, young people who unfortunately contract the disease must battle it with particular physical exercises, mental attitude, proper diet and careful living habits. Much time is required to completely overcome this disease and its effects. The medicines used in these cases are only to relieve the severe pain that develops during stages of high temperature in the body.

Mark has suffered this tremendous pain during intervals for the past six weeks. During these six weeks, Mark's body has dwindled to a thin 45 pounds. However, recently his appetite has improved to the extent he can and does take nourishment during times when his fever subsides to near normal. The many Doctors in attendance are finding difficulty in finding a pain-relieving medicine that does not affect Mark's body in some degree. One tried, affected the skin so that a rash developed over the body; another caused pus blisters to develop adjacent to the

Man's Smallest Enemies

Tiny Virus Causes Many Ills From Common Colds to Polio

(Editor's Note: This is the first of three articles on viruses, the harm they cause, what is being done about them, and even what good they may do, by Dr. Henry W. Kumm, chief of virus research for the National Foundation. Dr. Kumm spent 23 years on the investigation of malaria, yellow fever and polio while with the Rockefeller Foundation.)

By HENRY W. KUMM, M.D., Chief of Virus Research, The National Foundation

So far as we know now, viruses are man's smallest enemies and among the most deadly. Invisible to the naked eye, and difficult to see even with the best optical microscopes, viruses have caused man sickness, pain, death and crippling since the dawn of history.

Everyone is familiar with the effects of viruses. We have all had common colds, which are due to viruses. We may know someone who has been crippled by the virus of polio. We have heard of yellow fever, hepatitis and smallpox. These are all due to viruses that attack man. There are other viruses that attack lower animals and plants. These may be serious, for disease can devastate a food supply as it destroys the health of a man.

We are apt to think of viruses as essentially the same from one day to another and from one year to another. But this is not so. Many viruses are constantly changing their characteristics—growing more or less harmful.

Here is a recent example. Influenza has been known for many years. Each year it causes some deaths. But after the First World War something happened to the influenza virus. It became more deadly. And it killed 20 million people in an epidemic that encircled the world.

When Vaccine Was Developed The development of the Salk vaccine through research supported by your March of Dimes is well known. At the time the vaccine was developed, polio was an increasing disease. One year's incidence might drop from the year before, but over a period of years the disease was gradually crippling more and more people. How far it would have gone without the vaccine no man can tell.

Thus, in studying virus diseases, scientists are not dealing with a static problem. They know that a virus disease that is rare today may become common tomorrow. They are dealing with an ebb and flow of nature that no one understands. This is why research into even rare virus diseases is necessary, for these ailments may be tomorrow's epidemics.

Furthermore, research into one virus often turns up information which may help the understanding of others. A great deal that we know about viruses, for example, has come from studies of a particular virus that causes what is known as mosaic disease of tobacco plants. Not very many people are worried about this disease as such, but studies of the virus that causes it have contributed to the fight on polio and to efforts to control all virus disease in man.

Likewise, March of Dimes-supported work on polio has contributed to our understanding of other viruses. Techniques developed in connection with polio are now being applied to the study of mumps and measles. An experimental vaccine against viruses allied to the common cold has already been produced by government scientists, using procedures developed by Dr. Salk for the polio vaccine.

Progress Being Made Progress is being made against viruses and it is important. Not only does it bring us closer to control of the virus diseases for which we still have no answer, but it is helping us to understand other health problems as well.

Virus disease is a major phase of the expanded program of the National Foundation. Other areas of March of Dimes activity are polio, arthritis and birth defects.

(The second article by Dr. Kumm will discuss questions for which answers are sought through virus research.)

Further, research into one

At such time when the many specialist Doctors have reached a decision on the proper treatment for pain, Mark will be moved to the home of his mother's sister, Hazel Dempsey on 1121 Rueta St., at Grand Prairie.

To those few of you who have sent cards and letters to Mark, we want to express our grateful thanks. He enjoys your cards very much and they will contribute in a big way to his recovery more rapidly.

Since his mother, Arlene (Stevens) Calhoun has no one, here, to relieve her consistent attention to Mark for very long at a time, she cannot reply to all your cards and letters, but, rest assured—Mark will receive and enjoy them.

We would like very much to express our sincere appreciation for the many visits to the hospital here by Mrs. Inez Belknap (formerly of Ranger) and girls. Mark looks forward to their visits. We feel we can move Mark to Grand Prairie address Saturday, Feb. 7.

New Inexpensive Party Dessert

With so many of us on limited budgets these days, there's nothing quite so welcome as a bright new dessert that's as inexpensive as it is delicious. These Dessert Kabobs are really different and require very little fussing and fixing.

All you need to prepare Dessert Kabobs are individual jelly sandwiches from your grocer's ready-to-eat cake department, marshmallows, cherries and miniature marshmallows. You merely cut the jelly sandwiches into wedges, toast, and put the wedge on a skewer topped by a cherry and miniature marshmallow. Here's the recipe:

Dessert Kabobs

Individual jelly sandwiches (one for each kabob)
Miniature marshmallows
Long wooden skewers
Maraschino cherries

Cut jelly sandwiches into quarters. Arrange cake wedges on wire rack atop a cookie sheet or baking pan. Preheat oven to 425 degrees (hot). Place pan in top third of oven (about six or seven inches from the top) and allow cake pieces to toast very quickly. Watch constantly as it only takes a minute. Turn as necessary to brown evenly. Remove from oven. Plunge a long wooden pick through a miniature marshmallow and then through a well-drained cherry, and finally into a well-anchored styrofoam ball or a grapefruit. Serve at once while still warm.

YOUR SOCIAL SECURITY

(Editor's note: This is the 10th in a series of 10 articles.)

Another change in the law affects children who became disabled before age 18. Under the old law, they were not eligible for benefits unless proof could be shown that they were receiving at least one-half of their support from the parent upon whose social security record the child's benefit would be based. Proof of support is no longer required. A disabled child is now considered dependent on his parents under the same rules followed in the case of children qualifying for social security benefits under 18. Applications for childhood disability cases which were rejected because of lack of proof of dependency should be refiled promptly at the social security district office.

Under the 1958 Amendments, disability benefits may now be paid for months as far back as 12 months before application, of all other requirements for qualifications are met, but in no case for any month before July 1957. One requirement is that the applicant must have been disabled for at least 6 months; no payment can be made in any case before the seventh month of a worker's disability. If you applied for disability benefits after December you need not apply again. Your back payments will be paid to you automatically.

And speaking of automatic payments, if your social security disability benefits have been reduced or denied entirely because you are getting some type of Federal or State disability payment, you will now start receiving your full social security disability benefits. Social security disability payments to you will no longer be affected by the amount of such other disability payments. It is not necessary for you to do anything about it. You will receive your full social security disability payments automatically, beginning with the benefits for August 1958.

Grasshoppers To Be Hoppin' Again

COLLEGE STATION — Grasshoppers are likely to be more widespread in the west and midwest this summer but are expected to be less destructive than in 1958.

A USDA-State survey made last fall showed almost 23 million acres with enough grasshoppers to damage crops and grass. The effective chemical treatment of 5 million infested acres last summer not only saved crops and grass but is now paying dividends in fewer grasshoppers.

The total acreage infested in Texas is placed at 3,460,000, according to Texas Agricultural Extension Service entomologists. The heaviest infestations were found in the two northern tiers of counties in the Panhandle and those along the Oklahoma line on the eastern side of the area.

In the South Plains area only spotted infestations were found by the surveyors. The infestation in the north central area was listed as light and these counties primarily are those located adjacent to and including the Red River Valley from Childress eastward to Grayson. Other light infestations were noted in McLennan, Coryell and Lampasas counties in central Texas and in the river bottom-

VETERANS NEWS

GI Bill training opportunities have been extended by a new law to World War II and Korean War veterans whose military discharges have been changed from "dishonorable," "undesirable" and the like to "honorable," Mr. Edward P. Onstot manager of the VA regional office in Dallas, Texas announced today.

The law gives World War II veterans whose discharges have been changed four years to start training under the World War II GI Bill.

Korean War veterans will have three years to begin training under the Korean GI Bill.

Mr. Onstot explained that one of the basic requirements of both GI Bill is a discharge under conditions other than dishonorable.

lands of Johnson, Ellis and Navarro counties.

The entomologists point out that weather conditions between now and hatching time will have a strong bearing on the number of "hoppers" which emerge from egg beds found during the survey last fall. Cool, wet weather with heavy rains during the spring hatching season could greatly reduce the "hopper" population, say the entomologists. Predators and grasshopper parasites could also have a pronounced effect on the infestations, they add.

A check will be made next spring during the hatching season by determining the areas where control measures may be needed. Farmers and ranchers in the areas where infestations could cause trouble are advised to keep a close watch on the egg beds during the hatching season.
