

ROAMING THRU RANGER WITH RON... By Ronald Waters

EVERY NOW AND THEN I like to come out with a column especially for my young readers. Of course, everyone who reads this is young—more or less. Indubitably! (See, I even know how to spell it.)

Charles Veale, a Ranger FFA member, showed three first-place winners in the Stephens County Livestock show held in Breckenridge Saturday. (We have "young" readers, there, incidentally.)

THIS IS Boy Scout Week, and the local Scouts are observing the 49th Anniversary of the organization in America.

STUDENT COUNCIL members met today to plan a benefit tournament for the March of Dimes. Details will be announced later.

SENIOR PLAY CAST members have been announced. Read story on this page. Directors are Mrs. Helen Hagaman and Mrs. Anna McEver.

FRIDAY THE 13th is tomorrow and that's a lucky day—we hope. The day will see the District 7-AA finals in basketball. It will see an awful lot of black cats prowling the streets of Ranger, and a lot of other cats and kittens going to the midnight preview in a neighboring city.

KEEP READING this column—all of you "young" readers. Roaming Ron is glad to have you!

Free Spending Is Hit By Banquet Speaker

Federal free spending was hit by J. C. Bullion, director of agencies in charge of the Southwest Division of the American National Insurance Co., in his talk—given before 200 persons attending the Annual Chamber of Commerce Banquet Tuesday night.

3 tablespoons sugar

1 cup pineapple juice

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

By BOYCE HOUSE

The most lavish entertainment I ever received was in Port Arthur. I was to speak at the ladies' night dinner of the Lions Club and, next night, to the Elks and their wives.

Dr. Desmond Secrest, who had arranged the engagements, was aided and abetted by other Lions—I'm a Lion myself—and the red carpet was really rolled out. A group met me in Houston and we drove to Port Arthur. At the Goodhue Hotel, I was ushered into a suite—yes, sir, a suite and it had a balcony—and I mean balcony, for it would easily hold eight persons.

We drove out to a beach cafe and had barbecued crab, the specialty of the house.

Next day, there was a cruise on a luxury craft. But the crowning event was a dinner at a lodge on a bayou—a campfire (for lighting, as the night was mild), a dinner composed of French dishes, and stories afterward. Some 50 of the leading citizens of Port Arthur were there.

I felt embarrassed at all this attention—but I sure did like it.

In the slack city of Deadmons during the oil boom, every bit of space was utilized. Hotels built upper-story porches over the sidewalk and filled these porches with cots. An oil man who went through the boom 1918-1920 said he had a cot on a second story porch and he was always nervous for fear that when a sidewalk gun-fight broke out (and they did, every now and then in the wild towns), a bullet would come up through the floor.

Learned men scoffed at the idea that there had ever been such a city as Troy. But a businessman, who did not have enough learning to know that Troy was only a myth, dug and found its ruins. In fact, he found the ruins of five

Here's How Valentine's Day Got Its Name

St. Valentine's Day has long challenged historians to explain how a Christian saint became identified with a pagan custom of exchanging tokens of love.

The answer may be simply that somebody got his ABC's mixed up, because at one time the letters "V" and "W" frequently were interchangeable in popular speech.

Among the Normans, the word "galantin" referred to a lover of Troys, one on top of the other.

Chambers of Commerce are overlooking an opportunity to get wide publicity for their cities. In the old days of boxing, there were "Harlem Tommy" Murphy; Leach Cross, always referred to in the sports pages as the Brooklyn dentist, and Jim Flynn, the "Pueblo fireman." One of the greats of his time was "Packey" McFarland, whose monicker was a constant reminder that he came from the packing-house district of Chicago.

High-Producing Cows are Usually Most Profitable

College Station.—Raising domestic rabbits for meat is becoming increasingly important in Texas. While rabbit production in the state does not compare with that of some areas in the United States, annual production of fryer rabbits definitely is increasing. With continued growth of cold storage locker plant facilities, cooperative marketing of fryer rabbits in volume is expected to result.

The Texas Agricultural Extension Service has published a bulletin entitled "Rabbit Raising." Author is Edwin H. Cooper, extension wildlife management specialist.

Cooper points out that rabbits can be produced in a small space and with inexpensive equipment. They can be raised on a back lot where space is limited or they may be raised on farms. With the medium and large meat breeds, under good management, it is possible for one rabbit doe to produce four and sometimes five litters per year or 60 to 75 pounds of dressed fryers.

The bulletin offers suggestions and advice on such topics as selecting a breed, housing and equipment, care and management, feeding, slaughtering and preparation and diseases. It is available free of charge from local county agents or the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas. Ask for B-128.

Trespassing Is Chief Violation Of State Hunters

AUSTIN — Trespassing continues to be the principal violation committed by hunters, according to the monthly arrest report of the director of law enforcement of the Game and Fish Commission. During December, 1958, there were 129 hunters who "crossed over the fence" to hunt on private property.

a close second, with 124 arrests. The night hunting arrests were heaviest because of deer hunters who insisted on getting their venison with the use of headlights.

Next in line of violations were hunters and fishermen who failed to get their licenses. There were 103 such violations, with 58 hunters involved.

Most of the other hunting violations involved deer. There were 25 persons fined for killing spike bucks; 15 for killing doe deer; 13 killing deer in closed season. Numerous other minor violations also were recorded.

The 715 persons arrested by game wardens during December paid fines totaling $20,925.78 and court costs $1,280 for a total of $22,205.78.

Among the cases made by the wardens, there were 15 dismissals and 15 who served jail sentences. In two cases fines were suspended. Three defendants were found not guilty.

UNCLE SAM ROCKETS AHEAD IN SPACE AGE — Coming up: from Cape Canaveral, Uncle Sam's pioneer rocket and missile base, another attempt to orbit the moon, and continued tests of intercontinental-type ballistic missiles on the long, overwater range. From Vandenberg Air Force Base, new, West Coast missile-space facility: launchings of test vehicles for "Project Discoverer." It will pave the way for recently announced "Project Mercury," the program to put a man-carrying satellite in orbit around the earth. Target date is two or more years away. Newsmap, above, shows general directions toward which satellite launchings take place from both bases. Vandenberg launchings of satellite vehicles would be over polar regions. Satellites would pass over portions of the earth not covered by Cape Canaveral launchings, which encompass a broad band north and south of the earth's equator.

ATTENDS BEAUTY SHOW
Mrs. C. F. Chesnut of Vie's Beauty Salon attended the All State International Beauty Show in the Adolphus Hotel in Dallas over the weekend.

AS IT LOOKS FROM HERE

OMAR BURLESON, M. C.
17th District, Texas

Washington, D. C.—Aside from subjects of day to day interest or personal matters on which help is needed, the bulk of my mail at the present concerns the fiscal affairs of our Government.

Specifically, people write me about balancing the Budget, reducing expenditures and the reduction of taxes.

The president has presented a $77,000,000,000 Budget to the Congress. It is supposed to be a balanced Budget. To be a balanced Budget, however, many "ifs" are involved.

(1) If the nation's economic trend takes a sharp upturn in order to increase individual and corporate tax payments.

(2) If the Congress Grants the President's request to increase the Federal gasoline tax by 1 1/2 cents per gallon.

(3) If the Congress again grants the President's request to raise the price of first class postage stamps from 4 cents to 5 cents.

(4) If some sort of "General Services" tax, mentioned by the President but not spelled out in any detail, is enacted by the Congress.

(5) If all Government agencies guard against expanding existing programs, and this includes the Defense Department which is never sure when and where the next crisis is coming from—but one is almost sure to occur.

(6) If the people will ask less—not more—in the way of Federal projects, services and programs from the Federal Government.

To meet the requirements of a $77,000,000,000 Budget with all these "ifs," the President recommends a continuation of present individual income taxes, and extension of corporation profits and excise taxes upon the expiration date of June 30 of this year.

He also recommends a plan for taxing income of life insurance companies, a plan for taxing co-operatives in a different way than at present, and an amendment specifying treatment of the process computing percentage depletion in the case of mineral products.

There are indications that the President may make further tax recommendations to the Congress before very long.

Facing the facts, Congress is very limited in its choice or reducing expenditures of this Government. This is especially true if we consider it is necessary to devote about 60 percent of the entire cost of Government for national defense. This leaves 40 percent for all other purposes. Interest on the national debt accounts for another 10 1/2 percent. This leaves 29 1/2 percent. Veterans' benefits take 6 1/2 percent, and we have not yet paid for international affairs, which are equal to almost 3 percent. Commerce and housing comes to 2.9 percent, and agriculture 7.6 percent. Add a 2.2 percent for natural resources, and a little over 5 percent for labor and welfare, and we still have not paid for general government expense. This item comes to 2.2 percent, and an allowance of 0.1 per cent for contingencies finishes the total in costs of government.

This is not to say that all these figures become sacred, even national defense; but such programs as that for veterans, or the public debt, the farm program, and so forth, are fixed obligations for which the Congress must automatically make appropriation.

There is one thing certain—if the Budget is to remain in any sort of near balance, the Congress certainly can not launch out on more huge spending programs. There are already proposals in the mill for expenditures of between 4 and 5 billion dollars not included in the Budget to pay for such programs. This will mean one of two things. Either taxes will have to be increased or more deficit financing. As everyone knows, the burden is already heavy, and deficit financing contributes to more inflation.

In a way, the answer is simple, but putting it into effect is something else. As individuals, most of us pretty nearly live within our means. It is common sense that the Government should do the same. It could be done if we had the will to discipline ourselves to it.

Price Is Not Always A Guide To Quality

COLLEGE STATION — Men's sport shirts, women's street dresses and girls' school or sports dresses take a big share of the clothing dollars in most family budgets. Extension clothing specialists say these items deserve special attention when you shop, because the many new fabrics, finishes, colors and styles make the job of selection pretty confusing.

Price is not necessarily a guide to quality. Specialists say it pays to look for a label that gives information on fiber content, care needed, color fastness and shrinkage. A sales person whom you know well can give you much helpful information that will assure greater

Miss Dorothy Joyner, James Ryon Married In Candlelight Ceremony

Miss Dorothy Elizabeth Joyner became the bride of James Samuel Ryon Saturday evening, February 7, at 7 o'clock in a candlelight ceremony in the Second Baptist Church in Ranger.
The bride is the daughter of Mrs. J. L. Joyner of 301 N. Austin Street, Ranger, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Ryon of Deadmons.
The Rev. Edward L. Scarborough, pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony, which was read before a background of greenery. Twin arches covered with jade foliage and holding lighted white tapers were flanked by baskets of white gladioli.
Wedding music was presented by Miss Sherry Baker, pianist, and Mrs. Betty Barnes, vocalist. Musical selections were: "Too Young," "Because," "The Lord's Prayer," "Walk Hand In Hand With Me," and the traditional Wedding March. The Receptional was played as the bridal party left the church.

Miss Joyce Joyner, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her dress of pink nylon was fashioned with a scoop neckline and a full skirt. She wore pink accessories and a white carnation corsage.
Leon Rodgers of Ranger served as best man.
Given in marriage by her uncle, Willard Freeman of Fort Worth, the bride wore a ballerina-length dress of blue chiffon over taffeta. Her jacket of blue lace was piped with satin. She carried a bouquet of white french carnations and gardenias atop a white Bible.
Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of the bride's mother. The bride's chosen colors of blue and white were carried out in the decorations. The table was laid with a white lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of blue Dutch iris in a crystal container. Miss Beverly Veale and Mrs. James Brown served the three-tiered wedding cake, which was topped with a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Ed Freeman and Mrs. Willard Freeman ladled punch.
For a brief wedding trip, the bride chose a black faille suit with black and white accessories. She wore the gardenias from the bridal bouquet.
The couple are making their home at 230 Hill Avenue, Ranger.
The bride is a 1956 graduate of Ranger High School and is employed at Southwestern Bell Telephone Company. The groom attended Deadmons High School and is employed in Deadmons.
Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Ryon and family and Mr. and Mrs.

Willard Freeman and family, all of Fort Worth; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Throne and Jackie, and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Roberson, all of Dallas; Mrs. James T. Brown and Buddy of Van Horn; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Freeman and Brenda of Abilene; Mrs. J. W. Ryon, Paul and Clyde L. Johnson, and James Royce Yancey, all of Deadmons; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Tucker and boys of Gorman; and Julia Freeman of Glen Rose.

The person investing in real estate may act quickly, oftentimes unwisely, hereby overlooking the hole in the deal which in this case is a bad title. Dairy Studies Made in State COLLEGE STATION—"Would it pay me to raise and develop my own herd replacements?" "How much does it cost to raise a dairy herd replacement from birth to her first lactation?"

These questions are often asked by dairymen. As a result, two experimental tests were initiated at the Tyler experiment station in an attempt to answer them. The first study was started in 1950 and the second in 1955. Additional data on cost of herd replacements were collected from dairy farms in Northeast Texas through the East Texas Dairy Study during 1954-57.

The average cost of raising Jersey herd replacements at the Tyler station was $157 per heifer from birth to first lactation. The average age of the 22 heifers at first calf was 2 years, 4 months and 16 days and their average weight was 818 pounds. The estimated value of these replacements at first calf was $250 each.

The East Texas Study was conducted on 607 Jerseys on 32 farms and on 32 Holsteins on two farms. The average cost of raising replacements was $148 per head for Jerseys and $179 per head for Holsteins.

The average total cost of Jersey replacements for both the Tyler Station and the East Texas Study was $153 per head. A complete summary of these tests may be obtained by ordering MP-307, "Dairy Herd Replacement Costs," from local county agents or the Agricultural Information Office, College Station.

Manning—Chevy panel hustles over highway to St. Petersburg.

Chevy panel steps lively in Florida...runs day and night, delivers 19.3 miles per gallon!

This '59 Chevy panel is on the go, morning, noon and night; it covers as much as 187 miles a day... runs so constantly that its engine never cools off completely. Yet Mr. Clark Farber, the Tampa Tribune's circulation manager, reports that the truck is delivering 19.3 miles per gallon!

This year, the light-, medium- and heavy-duty trucks of the 1959 Chevrolet Task-Force fleet are out to whip anything that comes their way—and they've got what it takes to do it!

Take the panel pictured above, for example. Powered by the '59 Thriftmaster 6 with new economy-contoured camshaft, it's building a sensational economy record, despite the sizzling pace of its work. That's typical of the way Chevrolets of all sizes are turning-to on the most challenging jobs in America. The way they're made, with tough-built truck components, they make the hardest hauls look easy!

If you have a job that puts a truck on its mettle, see your Chevrolet dealer!
