

ROAMING THRU RANGER WITH RON... By Ronald Waters

A YEAR OF CHANGE—that's 1959 and that's likely the way history books will regard the year.

We have seen—already—two states admitted to the union, causing the flag-makers considerable consternation.

This brings to mind an ad we saw recently in the Dallas Morning News. It seems that a business man was worried because he had a good supply of 49-star flags on hand, until someone suggested selling them for "collector's items".

But we are wandering from our point. THIS IS a year of change in Ranger. Before the end of the year—we should all see a new dial telephone building, a completed Interstate 20 in the County, an archway entrance to Ranger College.

We hope to see more business on Main St. Capps Studio is the latest addition on the street. And we might even see every store filled.

Ranger is losing a lot of its prominent citizens this year, and we can only hope that they are replaced by men of equal caliber, who do their bit to aid the march of progress.

Gone are the Walter Arterburns and W. H. (Bill) Stevensons. This year has seen some prominent Rangers pass away. And we understand that several other outstanding figures in the community are planning on moving away this year—including Coach Harold Barrett.

Progress means change, but not all changes are progress.

FORT WORTH Anglers were sold on Lake Leon Sunday afternoon. Two directors of the Anglers Club, sponsoring the fishing contests to be held at the lake next month, caught 12 bass averaging over three pounds each during their stay in Ranger.

This is just one of many recent catches at the lake. With the first signs of spring showing, after the season made a noisy appearance, the fish are beginning to bite down at the lake.

The Fort Worth Club picked Lake Leon out of their choice of lakes all over the country. In the past—the fishing tournament has been held at Possum Kingdom. This event marks another change for '59.

EXPECT progress, look for change, hope for progress and prepare for progress... then progress is bound to come.

Commissioners Face Deputy Pay Problem Again

Eastland County Commissioners faced a problem which isn't new to them Monday. For the second meeting in a row the County was asked by Sheriff J. B. Williams to raise the pay of his chief deputy.

When the meeting ended no raise had been given, but none of the Commissioners ever got around to opening saying "no" to the Sheriff either.

For the most part the meeting consisted of County Judge John Hart and the four commissioners sitting on one side of the table looking at the Sheriff, with Sheriff Williams sitting on the other side of the table looking back at them.

At one point in the meeting, Judge Hart, to break the silence, urged, "Now let's not all talk at once."

Taking the meeting as a whole, here is how each commissioner expressed himself: J. B. (Tip) Arthur, Precinct 1—Reasoning that the county budget was set up to include $9000 for payment of deputies salaries of the Sheriff's Department, Arthur voiced approval of a $40 a month increase for the Sheriff's chief deputy. He based his opinion on the fact that the Sheriff, working (Continued on Page Four)

Auction Tonight to End Livestock Show

Animals shown in the Eastland County Livestock Show, which was held Friday and Saturday at County Livestock Raisers Association showgrounds, will be sold tonight in a special auction at the Eastland Livestock Auction Barn.

Clinton Ray Humphreys of Eastland showed the grand champion steer in the show Saturday, to repeat for the third straight time. His 1,140 pound Hereford, which was bred by Frey Wylie of Moran, took top honors.

Reserve champion of the show was a calf shown by Billy McCloskey, also of Eastland. His calf was bred by Arthel Henson of Abilene. Calves were judged on a packer basis. Out of 23 entries, five graded prime.

Ed Schaefer of Rising Star showed the champion fine wool ewe and the Rising Star FFA Chapter the champion fine wool ram.

Larry Morrow of Carbon showed the champion Angora goat and Ed Schaefer of Rising Star had the champion buck.

In the Hereford Cattle Division, breeding classes, the champion heifer, one to two years, was shown by Jimmy Johnson of Cisco. The reserve champion was shown by Wince Graham of Eastland. The champion bull, six months to one year, is owned by Gayle Chaney of Eastland and the reserve champion by Lewis Mitchell of Strawn. Lewis Mitchell of Strawn showed the champion bull, one to two years, and the reserve champion was shown by Joe Harrison of Gorman.

Kenneth Pence had the champion fine wool fat lamb.

Grand champion in the Fat Hog Division was a Yorkshire shown by Butch Cooper of Oden. The reserve champion was owned by Weaver Calloway of Cisco. It was a duroc Jersey.

Richard Wehlein of Ranger had the grand champion cow in the Dairy Cattle Division and the champion bull was shown by Frank Wise of Rising Star.

In the breeding classes of swine, Duroc Jersey, sows of any age, Larry Morrow Jr. of Carbon had the champion.

Champion in the All Other Breeds class was shown by Milford Herwick Jr. of Ranger. Larry Morrow of Carbon had the reserve champion.

Plans Made For Fishing Rodeo

Plans for the fishing rodeo of the Fort Worth Anglers Club, to be held at Lake Leon on April 19, were outlined by representatives of the Eastland and Ranger Chambers of Commerce and members of the Fort Worth club meeting in the Ranger Chamber of Commerce office Sunday afternoon.

Ranger and Eastland agreed to sign up members and entrants for the fishing tournament. Membership in the Fort Worth Club is required before a person can participate in the fishing events.

Membership cards and entry blanks for anyone in the area who wishes to compete are now available at the Chambers of Commerce in Eastland and Ranger. They will be made available at boat docks, bait houses and sporting good stores in the area at a later date.

A total of 24 trophies will be presented to individual members of fishing teams competing in the contests. They will be awarded for best bass and crappie catches. First, second and third place trophies will be awarded for the biggest fish and the largest string of fish.

Ranger and Eastland agreed to contact merchants for other prizes to be awarded in the contests. They also agreed to sell advertising for "The Fisherman", official publication of the Fort Worth Anglers Club.

Entry fee is $2 per member and two anglers will fish to a boat as a team. Membership fees are an additional $2 each.

The group asks that skiing on the lake be suspended Saturday and Sunday, April 18-19, as a (Continued on Page Four)

By Mrs. Cubian Perry

Fishing is getting good again, so we have been told— The very first fish I ever caught I jerked the pole so hard and high that the poor lil' fish bursted wide open on the pond bank. You know how some ponds have real high banks.

That was in South Texas where the ranchers build their ponds to catch all the rainfall possible—as there are few creeks and the rivers are far apart.

Well, there I "Sot", dreaming of catching a real live fish when down went the cork, line, tip of fishing pole and of course me, half asleep. Homer yelled "you got a fish"—the kids screaming, the dog barking. I brought that fish out "kerplunk" into the bank. Result, one very dead fish!

I moved over under some willows, and do you know I caught another and put it in top of the trees?

How's that for smart fishing? But I am learning a little each year. Now I just throw them into the boat dock ceiling, that is, some times once a year and in very good years maybe three.

Now way back there in the greener years, I thought to surprise the family with a baked fish for supper (not dinner). It was about one o'clock when the fresh fish truck came by the house (in East Texas), and the man told me how to bake the fish but he left out how to clean the scaly thing.

And at five, when Homer came home, I had an area about the size of a doughnut scaled with the aid of my very best eyebrow tweezers. My fingers bleeding, my dandruff up at the fish man for selling me a tough old fish, but what did it was when Homer took a knife and scaled the thing with about two strokes... Boy, that did it for sure. My pride popped George T. Guess, Ranger representative of Northwestern National Life Insurance Company has just completed a two-week course in advanced underwriting at the company's Home Office Agents' Training School at Glenwood, Minn.

Northwestern National's Home Office School, staffed by recognized experts in life insurance sales and service work, is held four times a year—the latest session being the 60th in 15 years.

The school is designed to equip its graduates with a broad knowledge of the many fields in which life insurance is put to use today—including family protection, business life insurance, pension, and profit sharing plans and group life and casualty insurance.

Upon completion of his training, Guess was assigned specific sales and service responsibilities in the Ranger area under the direction of Devon E. Keeling, manager of the North Texas agency at Dallas.

Capps Studio Opens on Main St.

Capps Studio has moved into a new location, 111 Main St., completely redecorated inside.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Capps opened in the new location Monday after moving from their former studio, located at 104 S. Rusk. They are leasing the building that last housed the Langston Barber Shop. It measures about 25 by 60 feet.

Inside are two dark rooms, a work room, camera room and display room. At a later date, the Cappspian to build a kitchen in the back of the studio.

A photographer for the past 32 years, Capps started taking pictures commercially in 1927. From 1924 to 1941 he operated a studio in the 300 block of Main St. Later, the studio was located on Austin St. (for two years) and on Rusk (for 14 years).

COACH HAROLD BARRETT I to Big Lake

Harold Barrett to Coach In Big Lake Next Season

Harold Barrett, football coach at Ranger High School for the past four years, is accepting a position as head football coach at the Reagan County High School in Big Lake.

Barrett said he would start a summer sports program in the West Texas town, June 1. Details of the contract, to be signed by Barrett with Superintendent C. O. McKinney, were not announced. However, Barrett indicated that he would receive a higher salary, would probably select his own assistant and would teach several classes in the system.

Barrett came to Ranger in 1955 as assistant coach to Boone Yarbrough. That same year, they led the Bulldogs to the quarter finals. In 1957, when Barrett was head coach, the Bulldogs captured the bi-district title. During the past season, the Bulldogs took a 5-5 record and came in third in District 7-AA standings, winning two conference games.

"These past four years have been very enjoyable ones," said Barrett. "I appreciate working with the administration, school members and towns people," he added.

A graduate of Hardin-Simmons University in 1953, with a B. S. degree, Barrett earned his M. E. degree there while serving as freshman coach.

O. C. Warden, line coach for the Bulldogs this past season, says he plans to retire from the coaching field in order to spend more time with his administrative duties as principal of Hodges-Oak Park Elementary.

Barrett said the Big Lake position offers an advancement, with tremendous possibilities. They have a lot of potential in a fine system, he added. The Reagan County Ovis participate in Class A football.

Mr. and Mrs. Barrett had a son born to them on St. Patrick's Day in Ranger General Hospital. They have two other children. Mrs. Barrett has taught at Hodges-Oak Park for a year and a half.

Dr. Ashton to Discuss Bill

Dr. Price R. Ashton, president of Ranger College, is appearing before the U. S. Senate Committee on Labor and Public Welfare this week in Washington, D. C., explaining his views on Senate Bill 1138 benefiting post-Korean veterans.

Dr. Ashton left Ranger Tuesday afternoon, taking an airplane at Carter Field. He expects to return Friday morning. Senator Ralph Yarbrough asked him to appear before the committee and subcommittee.

Dr. Ashton said he would express his opinion on the bill, which he heartily endorses, and tell how he thinks the people regard the bill. He believes that a graduating senior, taken into service, deserves the benefit assistance as much as others being aided under the education bill, recently set up to offer loans to teachers and able students.

"The Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act of 1959 has as its purpose the establishment of a balanced program of readjustment assistance for the benefit of post-Korean veterans (those persons who first entered active military duty in the Armed Forces between Jan. 31, 1945 and July 1, 1953).

Under the bill four major types of readjustment assistance, patterned closely after the aids in the GI Bills for veterans of World War II and the Korean conflict, would be made available to post-Korean veterans. These are:

1. Education or vocational training assistance.

2. Vocational rehabilitation training for veterans with service-connected disabilities.

3. Guaranty and direct loan assistance for the purchase of (a) homes, including homes or farms, and (b) farm lands, livestock, machinery, etc., to be used in farming operations conducted by the veteran.

4. Mustering-out payments.

According to the provisions of the proposed bill, the veteran must be a member of the armed forces of the United States, and have been discharged or released from service under conditions which entitle him to a readjustment benefit.

Unprotected Land Damaged by Wind

By Eastland Work Unit Staff The rewards of practicing conservation on "sandy land" were not evident during the sand storm Friday March 20.

Conservation farmers who strip cropped their peanut fields and planted cover crops after peanut harvest had little or no soil movement from high winds. These men are also very careful with all crop residues, keeping them on or near the surface for wind protection and soil improvement.

Severe wind erosion damage took place on adjoining fields which were not protected with the above vegetative conservation practices. The moving sands which accumulate along fence rows and public roads are lost from production and in many instances damage public and private property. Heavy soil loss either from wind erosion or water erosion does not point to a permanent agricultural which is so essential to our society.

When the soil is gone, man must go and the process does not take long. It is well that a man should be known by the soil he keeps. No one can afford soil erosion. Live as if we were going to die tomorrow and farm as if we were going to live forever. We must bear in mind that our children and grandchildren must have productive soil to live.

Farmers and ranchers have started the new year off with a "bang" in so far as applying conservation practices are concerned. Eleven landowners recently completed farm ponds for livestock water and another fifteen are in the process of building ponds. Five landowners have completed approximately 14 miles of terraces and three are now in process of constructing terrace systems.

A good terrace system, supplemented with a vegetative program is a must on many farms. Terracing may well be regarded as a "necessary evil" to many landowners, yet without them, many fields will be lost from production due to excessive gully and sheet erosion. A properly constructed terrace system during the drought years often times held enough additional rainfall in place to mean the difference between a fair crop and a complete failure. During excessively rains these same terraces take runoff water off the land in an orderly manner to protected outlets.

Both your ASC County Committee and supervisors of your local Soil Conservation District wish to encourage all landowners to apply conservation practices based on the needs of their lands.

Federal cost share and technical assistance are available for this important job.

Student Council members of Ranger High School will go to Comanche Wednesday for a visitation day, returning a visit to the Comanche group made here last semester.

The 16 council members plan to make the trip to obtain ideas on the methods and activities of the Comanche Student Council.

Covered Sugar-

with a cold) I caught a fish—Ma, did things happen to me in a hurry! The fish was caught in the eye, not in the mouth as is the usual way, the reel came loose from the rod. The rod, reel and I fell to the bottom of the boat. Don't ask me why, but I grabbed the line and hand over hand pulled the fish into the boat.

It was the most beautiful red fish you ever saw and it weighed two and a half pounds. I You should have seen that line! It looked like a ball of twine after a kitten had played with it a couple of days.

Homer then explained what a buck lish really was, AND it only took him two hours to get it back in place on the reel! Since then I get out my own tangles, AND he says you don't get much fishing done BUT you don't have time to get bored.

Any one for going fishing with me?

Gone are the Good Old Days

... when grandfather boasted that he bought bananas at a nickel a dozen and his farm from the State with only one deed in the chain of title. Today the chain may contain hundreds of transactions and as it lengthens defects multiply and enlarge. The abstract is the only means yet devised that attempts to reveal these defects and place them in position for correction. That's why more and more people are demanding an abstract when they buy real estate.

Christian Church Will Celebrate Maundy Service

Maundy Thursday will be celebrated at the First Christian Church with a traditional Candle-Light Communion Service. Candles will be lighted by Meses Rozelle Hatton, Linda Hatton, and Diane Farmer.

Mrs. Jack Barker will present the special music. The pastor, Jack Barker, will present a meditation based on the experiences of those who were present at the original "Last Supper."

This service will begin at 8 p. m., and all members and friends of the church are urged to enter into the spirit of the Easter Season through participation at that time.

Why didn't you sell me!

Some day you may be real mad at us

We wish we had time to sit down with everybody in this town and tell 'em personally about the many kinds of modern, inexpensive insurance which most people should carry nowadays.

You—for instance—may be pretty sore at us some day if you have a fire, a windstorm, burglary or a boiler explosion, or if you are sued for damages, or lose a diamond ring or a fur coat or a suitcase full of clothes, or sustain some other serious loss against which we could have insured you if we had tried to sell you.

We can't be out selling everybody in town all the time, so won't you help us sell you what you need. Ask us to survey your insurance policies soon and to tell you of any gaps.

BIG HELP
in a small space

Combination ELECTRIC WASHER-DRYER

36 INCHES OR LESS

If your home is compact, with limited room for additional appliances, you'll welcome the space-saving convenience of an Electric Washer-Dryer. It both washes and dries clothes in one compact unit that can be installed in a width of 36 inches or less. Because of its compactness, the Electric Washer-Dryer fits into most kitchens or utility rooms, regardless of size. In some homes today, it finds a place in the bathroom, handy to the clothes hamper and linen closets. For big help in a small space, check the advantages of an Electric Washer-Dryer!

Commissioners—

F. M. Bennett, Precinct 2 (Gorman)—Voiced opposition to "picking out one individual deputy" for an increase in pay. Said if the budget would allow it he would favor an across the board increase for all chief deputies.

R. L. (Bob) Carter, Precinct 3 (Rising Star)—Agreed with Bennett.

Carl Lamb, Precinct 4 (Cisco)—Said he was in sympathy with the Sheriff, but reasoned that when one chief deputy's pay is raised, "We are going to face this same thing with every chief deputy."

Judge Hart—Urged the Sheriff to wait for awhile, saying that an across the board increase for chief deputies might be possible a little later.

Sheriff Williams pointed out that the two chief deputies pay only recently. Both chief deputies in the Tax Assessor-Collector's office got raises.

He also maintained that his chief deputy works seven days a week, and is on call 24 hours a day, while all other deputies work a 40 hour week.

Commissioners Lamo, Bennett and Carter said the other increase was an emergency since one deputy resigned and the man selected to replace him could not be secured at the same rate of pay. He insisted, Commissioners pointed out, that the other chief deputy in the Tax Assessor's office be paid at the same rate he would be.

(Actually one of the chief deputies increased pay is paid out of a special fund by the Tax Assessor himself and the Commissioners Court did not increase his pay.)

Sheriff Williams and Commissioner Arther replied that, considering the difference in hours and work, the Sheriff's request was more "nearer justified" than "the other raise was."

The discussion ended when no motion was made.

Dr. Ashton is to request that a group of veterans between World War II and the Korean conflict, who received no benefits, be included in the bill. He said that he would also request that those who let their benefits expire before taking advantage of them be given another chance to do so.

Eligible veterans could gain their educational entitlements through school courses, cooperative courses (combining school and on-the-job training), correspondence courses and flight training, on-the-job training and institutional-on-farm training (on a full-time) basis.

Training allowances would vary from $110 to $160 a month, according to the number of dependents, as set up in the bill. A vocational rehabilitation trainee would receive a minimum subsistence allowance of $65 a month.

Musterling-out pay is set at $100 for each eligible person.

ATTEND THE CHURCH OF OUR CHOICE EACH SUNDAY

Plans—

(Continued from Page One) safety factor. Fort Worth Club members present were Andy Anderson, president; George Keelan, A. M. "Monty" Montgomery and Dick Durmon, chairman of the Fishing contests. Eastland representatives attending were Bruce Pipkin, Lewis Tines, Gordon L. Smith and H. J. Tanner, manager of the Chamber of Commerce. Ranger representatives were D. C. Arterburn, Morris George, Boone Yarbrough and R. V. "Rip" Galloway, Chamber of Commerce manager. Also present was Eb Richardson, lake warden.
