

As I See Ranger

By Gene Townsend

Ranger is a fortunate town in not having many juvenile delinquency problems. The town, as a whole, helps to contribute to the things that help make this possible. Through the many youth organizations and the many people working with the youth of Ranger, activities for the training of young people in better ways of life have been a prominent factor in providing for this situation.

An article from the Houston Chronicle further explains why Ranger is fortunate on this subject. The article reads in part: "For a long time 'slum conditions' and 'bad neighborhoods' have been cited by social workers as the major cause of juvenile delinquency and adult criminality."

"These hackneyed phrases have now been heavily downgraded. Two Harvard law school researchers, Prof. Sheldon Glueck and his wife, Dr. Eleanor Glueck, after an intensive study, have found that the prime causes of delinquency and criminality are two factors which will not sit comfortably on the individual — family life and parental attitudes toward children."

"Whether the family is close to each other, and whether the parents take an interest in the child, enters more into the picture than does the neighborhood where a child is raised. The child's school record rates next to his family life in predicting behavior."

Studied with these factors in mind, children of 8 years can be spotted as future troublemakers almost as certainly as an adult criminal type can be detected, the researchers find. The 'social prediction table' the Gluecks evolved (Continued on Page Two)

Bulldogs Chilled By Blizzards Big Blow

The Winters Blizzards came back Friday night after a hard fought scoreless first half to blank the Ranger Bulldogs 22-9.

The Bulldogs showed determination and desire for a win in the first half of the game, stopping everything that Winters pulled out of the bag. But in the second half the same tricks were pulled out of the same bag, but the Bulldogs couldn't stay on the field with the fired up Blizzards.

The first half saw a Winters drive stopped on the 25 yard line, then the Bulldogs took charge of the game for two quarters. Mounting drives carrying to the 15 and the 2 yard line but couldn't find the scoring punch needed to drive the ball over.

The Game In Figures

Ranger	Winters
9 First Downs	13
69 Yardage Rushing	211
113 Passing Yardage	35
4 of 9 Passes Comp.	3 of 9
1 Passes Int. By	4
4 for 38 Punts, Ydg.	2 for 38
4 Fumbles Lost	3
8 for 80 Penalties	4 for 40

Quickly after the first half, Winters went charging into the end zone with the first score. Johnny Caskey, quarterback, went over on a keeper and William Grissom, halfback, ran the conversion.

After the kickoff William Grissom intercepted a Ranger pass on the 40 yard line and was in the open all the way for the second score. Johnny Caskey ran the two points over.

In the opening minutes of the fourth quarter, Winters jumped on a Ranger fumble and soon turned it into a score with Dalton Attaway, fullback, making the last two yards. The try for conversion was not good.

The first half saw some fine defensive work turned in by the Ranger line. Tackles made by Jim Robinson, Dean Richey, Tommy Ford, Ronnie Duskevich and James Henry kept the Blizzards well controlled. The same boys were playing the second half, but couldn't stop the power of the Winters backs.

SUNDAY DEVOTIONAL

By Rev. Ralph Perkins, Pastor of the First Baptist Church. THE SCRIPTURES SPEAKS OF JESUS

As a Saviour, "And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name Jesus; for he shall save his people from their sins. God knowing the nature of man, knew that man had to be redeemed with incorruptible things, and God sent His son in the form of a man, and yet without sin."

As The Son of God, "And to a voice from heaven, saying, 'This is my beloved son in whom I am well pleased.' As Saviour and Son of God, the 'Spiritual Birth' John 3:3,5, 'Except a man be born again... Except a man be born of water and of Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God.'"

A Relationship, there is a relationship between "father and son" "mother and child", and likewise the "Spiritual Birth" brings man into a spiritual relationship with God through the Lord Jesus Christ. The Bread of Life, Jesus tells us that man is not to live by bread alone, but by the material things of life. That man is to "seek first the kingdom of God" and not the carnal, material, unless things that perish, but the eternal qualities, those sublime characteristics of the Almighty.

As The Water of Life, for Jesus said, "But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst..." We are told that the most horrible kind of physical death is that of dying from thirst. Likewise the most tragic death is a soul dying without Christ as his Saviour. The death of the "wicked", "unsaved", out of relationship with God, because they refused to accept "his beloved Son" as Saviour. Jesus said, "the wicked will be cast out, 'Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels.' Matt. 25:41. Too Often People fail to realize that the Holy Bible is very plain and clear about whose child a per-

Gold Star Ranges To Be Displayed

Sparkling new stars in the gas range firmament will be featured by local appliance dealers throughout October and November during the fall range campaign conducted in cooperation with the Lone Star Gas Company.

They are gas ranges qualifying for the striking new Gold Star Award sponsored by the American Gas Association. This distinctive award certifies that a manufacturer's range meets at least 28 standards of cooking perfection plus two of five optional features of convenience and operating efficiency.

The Gold Star Award range is the homemaker's assurance of the fastest, coolest, cleanest, most modern, most carefree and economical cooking she ever thought possible, providing the ultimate in performance and customer satisfaction.

Also featured during the campaign will be the motorized rotisseries which give an outdoor flavor to foods cooked indoors and add variety to menu planning. A chart giving rotisserie cooking time and baking information will be distributed free by gas range dealers and Lone Star. The rotisserie and other aspects of the campaign will be featured in newspaper, radio, television and other sales and promotion media. These sales promotion projects will point out that the "rotisserie is another miracle of modern gas, giving a flame-kissed flavor to meats and poultry while providing smoke-proof, clean, cool, fast cooking." The rotisserie, the American Gas Association points out, will be a Gold Star Award range requirement next year.

Special prices, discounts and a n d trade-in allowances will be offered during the campaign. Lone Star will conduct a window display contest for dealers during the two-month sales drive. Cash prizes will be awarded to winners in each merchandising area of the company.

The dealers will be required to feature Gold Star Award ranges in their window contest displays. To make certain she is buying the world's most modern range, one which offers all of the newest convenience features, a homemaker should look for the Gold Star Award. It is a striking star in the center of a circle, the perimeter of which has the following inscription in bold letters: "Gold Star Award—American Gas Association." It can be found in two places: a 3-4 inch metal seal permanently affixed to the front of the range and a removable five-inch paper seal located on the oven door.

work at Ranger College. Jimmie May Miller, the daughter of Mrs. Alberta Miller, is majoring in education. A leader in high school, she also takes an active part in college affairs. She was a Rangesman last year; she is a Deb, a cheer leader, and a member of Phi Theta Kappa, of which she is reporter, and a member of the college chorus. She sang with the girls' trio, the Mello-Dees, last year.

Ruth Miller, an elementary education major, is also interested in music. She played with the college duo-piano team last year, and she has been in the college chorus two years. She also belongs to the Debs and to the Masquers, and is a pledge of Phi Theta Kappa. She is the daughter of the C. E. Millers.

As I See-

"Bad neighborhoods do present problems, of course. So do broken homes. But these are not insurmountable, as the millions of good citizens reared under such conditions attest. Parental love and interest in children, and firm, not harsh but kind discipline most often make the difference between producing a criminal and a good citizen—as many have believed all along."

If this article has touched on the true reason for the cause of the majority of juvenile delinquents, then we can see why Ranger is in the minority in delinquent cases. Ranger is a town that loves its children and gives them the love and home training that they need. The civic organizations and the public schools provides them with the training that they need to keep them headed along the right lines.

The Bridegroom's Parents
Dear Mrs. Post: My only child is going to be married some time this winter. As his mother, I would like to know what my duties are at the wedding, and also the duties of my husband.

Answer: You are led up the aisle by the head usher to your seat in the front pew on the right, your husband follows behind you and takes his place beside you. The bride's mother takes her place and wedding procession starts. At the reception you will probably be asked to receive, standing beside the bride's mother. Your husband may stand in the receiving line beside you, but he need not if he does not wish to, and actually he has nothing more to do than any other guest.

Wearing Fraternity Pin
Dear Mrs. Post: I am going to be bridesmaid in my cousin's wedding and would like to know if it is socially correct to wear a fraternity pin on my dress during the ceremony and reception. Since I will not be having a diamond ring (I plan a wide wedding ring) the pin is significant as an engagement and I would like to wear it, if proper.

Answer: You may properly wear your pin.

A Bread and Butter Letter
Dear Mrs. Post: Two months ago my husband and I went to visit my son and his wife who live in a distant city. We stayed with them two weeks and had a very enjoyable visit. When we left we told them we had a wonderful time and thanked them profusely, but I did not write a bread and butter note to my daughter-in-law when we returned home. Some weeks later I heard through my daughter that my son's wife was very much upset over my not writing and thinks me very unappreciative. It never entered my head to write a note of thanks after visiting in the house of my own son. Will you please tell me if a note was necessary in this case, and if so, shall I write one now after all this time?

Answer: Your daughter-in-law really shouldn't be upset, but the fact that she is shows that it would have been wiser to have written her, if not a bread and butter letter, one about your trip home in which you would have mentioned how much you enjoyed staying with her. I do advise writing her that you are distressed to learn that she thinks that you haven't appreciated her hospitality and assure her that you do very much.

To Avoid Tactless Questions
Dear Mrs. Post: My fiancée was killed in an automobile accident about a month ago. Is it proper for me to continue wearing my engagement ring and, if so, on what hand should I wear it?

Answer: It is entirely proper for you to wear it, but it would be best to place it on your right hand to prevent people from asking when you are going to be married.

An Afternoon Concert
Dear Mrs. Post: Will you please tell me if it would be proper for the conductor of an orchestra to wear a tuxedo at an afternoon recital? Is it possible that, since he is part of a show, this might be an exception to the rule of "tuxedo only after six o'clock"?

Answer: The conductor of an orchestra may certainly wear evening clothes even at an afternoon concert.

EVER ADD UP WHAT YOU COULD LOSE?

You have perhaps often added up what you are worth. Ever add up what you COULD LOSE? It might perhaps be several times what you are worth.

Example: you may injure somebody, and the law may take all you're worth and attach your future income for years to come.

Example: your house may burn and it may cost you twice its original price to replace it.

Sometimes add up all the losses you MIGHT have and you'll see that you are under-insured at many points — against theft, fires, lawsuits, embezzlement, interruption of business, etc.

Gloomy? Well, the purpose of the America Fore insurance policies we write is to end this kind of gloomy thinking.

THE INSTALLATION OF A CLEANER FOR FARMERS' STOCK PEANUTS

We are now able to custom clean your peanuts for you before they are graded. Peanuts which are not eligible for loan because of excess foreign material can now be made eligible by cleaning.

Here's the way it works. The peanuts are emptied into an elevator which takes them up to the cleaner. The cleaner will remove most of the sand, rocks, sticks, leaves, etc. They are sampled as they leave the cleaner. Another elevator takes them to an overhead bin which will hold them until the entire load has been cleaned.

The clean peanuts are then loaded into a truck and weighed prior to selling. Your grade and weight are determined on clean peanuts.

The cost of cleaning will be much less than the penalty for excess foreign material. It will pay you to see us before selling your peanuts.
