Farm Census Field Work Now Underway

Field work in the 1959 Census of Agriculture got underway locally on Nov. 18 when a force of census takers will start visiting every farm in the area, it was announced today by Field Director James W. Stroud of the Census Bureau's regional office at Dallas.

Farm census questionnaires have been mailed to all farm operators. The census takers will visit all local farms to collect the questionnaires and, if necessary, assist the farmer in filling out the report form.

The 1959 Census of Agriculture is the 17th in a series of nationwide farm censuses, the first of which was conducted in 1840. The Census of Agriculture is taken at five-year intervals to provide up-to-date statistical information about the nearly five million farms which supply food and raw materials for manufacture of goods used by the people of the United States, now numbering about 178 million. The current census will yield information on the number and size of farms, acreage and harvest of crops, livestock production and inventories, selected farm facilities and equipment and selected farm expenditures.

The field director emphasized that all information about individuals and their farm operations furnished to the Census Bureau is held in absolute confidence under Federal law. It is used only to provide summary figures such as totals, averages, and percentages. The information on an individual report cannot be furnished to any one other than sworn Census employees and thus cannot be used for investigation, taxation, or regulation.

A training session will be held at Cisco and will be conducted by the crew leader Neil McAnally, who recently attended a five day census training course.

The training course will cover the use of the Census questionnaire, Census definitions, interviewing, and map reading. Emphasis will be placed on the importance of locating every farm and obtaining complete and accurate information. The census takers will conduct some actual interviews as part of the training.

Census takers scheduled to take the training include: Tom Hart, Howard Ingram, Joan Hubbard, Gerold Tucker, Helen Collins, Ann Justice, La Verne Maynard, Ruby Lutzon, Oral Strahan, Wallace Henry, W. O. Cantwell, C. G. Uffelman, Henry Edna Hord, Daphne Floyd, Lorene Harris.

SUNDAY DEVOTIONAL

OUR HERITAGE
By Ralph Perkins
pastor First Baptist Church

A very blunt answer, "The Lord Jesus Christ has been left out of the lives of the individuals who make up our great cosmopolitan nation." These sacred institutions no longer appeal to the multitudes, except for commercial gain, political greed, or social aggrandizement.

The "family altar" where parents and children draw aside to read God's word, pray, and meditate is no longer the center of the home.

Sunday attendance upon worship in the Churches of the land is too often replaced with commercial amusement or personal desires. Children are compelled to attend public schools, after a fashion, but Sunday school only if they want to go.

Church members who claim the name of Jesus as their Saviour and compromise by placing secular institutions and organizations ahead of Christ and His church, need to reveal the Holy Bible and find that in God's word the first and great commandment is:

"Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy strength, and all thy heart, and all thy mind, and with all thy soul . . . this is the first and the great commandment, the second is like unto the first, and thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself."

The "proverbial fly in the scriptural ointment" is that too many are placing the first commandment last but the love of God has to come first. Jesus is not a second rate religionist. He is the Saviour, the Son of the Living God.

God has not changed. Neither the Cross nor Resurrection, has (Continued on Page Two)

Cisco Is Bi-District Champs

The Cisco Lobos won the bi-district championship from De Leon 31 to 6 in Ranger Friday night, to get the chance to meet Stanford next week in the regional playoff. Stanford won their Bi-district game over Quana 43 to 18.

The power and speed of the Lobos met strong opposition in the fighting De Leon defense. The pinpoint accuracy of quarterback Delbert Schaefer, who completed 11 of 17 passes, helped the Lobos call up a 24 to 0 halftime lead. They matched the Bears in one touchdown each in the final half. Cisco received the opening kick-off and took less than two minutes to take the scoring lead. Charles Lipsy rolled the final 11 yards for the score. Duane Hale ran the extra points over.

Gay Ann Daskevich Weds Gene Bagwell November 14

Miss Gay Ann Daskevich became the bride of Gene L. Bagwell Saturday evening, November 14, at 7:00 o'clock in St. Rita's Catholic Church in Ranger. The Rev. Mark Van Hemelryck of Ranger officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Joe Daskevich of 812 Young Street, Ranger, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Holman M. Bagwell of 628 Pine Street, Ranger.

The church was decorated with baskets of white gladioli, flanked by twelve-branch candelabra holding white lighted candles.

Miss Marinell Shokey of Ranger, organist, played "Because" preceding the ceremony. Other selections were the traditional wedding marches, "The Lord's Prayer," and "O Promise Me."

Miss Dawn Loper of Ranger attended the bride as maid of honor. Miss Loper wore a street length dress of pink crystalline and a tiara of pink carnations. Miss Betty Ann Yeager was flower girl. Ring bearers were Bobbie Daskevich, brother of the bride, and Mary Louise McGee, cousin of the bride.

Joe Dan Watson of Lefors, Texas, cousin of the groom, served as best man. Ushers were Dan Cruise, Jerry Don Cantrell, John Hagsman, and Charles Wolford, all of Ranger. Johnny McGee of Ranger, cousin of the bride, was candle lighter.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a street length dress of white organza over tulle. Her shoulder length veil of white tulle was trimmed with pearls. She carried a bouquet of white gardenias and white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Community Club House. The bride's table was covered with a white cutwork cloth and centered with an arrangement of pink carnations, flanked by pink candles. Silver appointments were used. Punch and the three-tiered white wedding cake, which was topped with a miniature bride and groom, were served.

The bride is a graduate of Ranger High School and attended Ranger College. In high school, she was a member of the Sub Deb Club. She was Ranger High School football sweetheart in 1958, and Ranger College football sweetheart for 1959.

Thank-You Note To Brother

Dear Mrs. Post: I would like your opinion on the following matter: When my husband's mother died, he sent a very beautiful floral piece to the funeral. Soon after the funeral, his sister who took care of the acknowledging the flowers, sent my husband a thank-you note for the flowers he sent. I thought this very strange seeing as he is himself a member of the family, and in my opinion this acknowledgment made him seem an "outsider." Are members of the family sent thank-you notes?

Answer: No, thank-you notes are not usually sent to members of the immediate family, but because your sister-in-law was over-punctilious in writing to everyone who sent flowers does not mean she considers her brother an "outsider."

A Stranger Cuts In
Dear Mrs. Post: Recently at a dance a young man cut in who was a stranger. I didn't know whether I had to go on dancing or whether it would have been permissible for me to refuse.

Answer: At a very small informal private dance, given either by an individual host or hostess or by a fraternity or sorority, the friendliness of your host is considered an introduction. But at any public, or large formal dance, a man may not cut in on a girl to whom he has not been introduced. She would therefore be right in refusing, if she is sure she has never met him—but she must be sure

Otherwise, to refuse to let any one who has been introduced to her cut in, is an unforgivable rudeness.

Including Absent Husband
Dear Mrs. Post: The husband of a friend of mine is serving with the armed forces overseas. In sending a Christmas card to her house, do I address it to her alone or to Mr. and Mrs. even though he is thousands of miles away?

Answer: Address it to Mr. and Mrs. and your friend will probably tell her husband of your card when she writes to him.

Propriety In Age
Dear Mrs. Post: I am a widow in the late sixties and live alone. My children are married and live out of the state. I am very lonely. About a year ago I met a man who lives in this same apartment house. He is a widower and approximately my same age. He has been very kind to me, taking me for rides, to dinner, to the movies, etc. My life would be desolate without him. Neither of us want to marry again because of family reasons. This man would like to go to the coast and has asked me to go with him. I would share expenses and we would register at hotels and motels separately, en route. Would such a trip be proper?

Answer: In view of your ages, I do not see how anyone could criticize you for taking the trip you describe.

Exchanging Christmas Cards
Dear Mrs. Post: Is it necessary to send Christmas card to all those who send us cards? Every year we receive cards from quite a few people whom we haven't seen in years. In the past we have always sent cards in return. This year I would like to cut down on my Christmas list and thought of eliminating these names. My husband does not feel that it is the right thing to do and says that as long as these people continue to send us cards we are obligated to send them cards in return. I would like your views on the matter.

Answer: As long as you continue returning these people's Christmas cards, they will probably continue sending them to you. My advice is to simply stop sending your cards and thus put an end to this exchange.

While Man Pays The Check
Dear Mrs. Post: When I am having dinner in a restaurant with a man friend, where am I supposed to stand to wait for him while he pays the check?

Answer: You just walk slowly towards the door and wait, exactly as you do when he goes to the box office to buy theatre tickets.

Mrs. Post offers readers leaflets on a variety of subjects concerning etiquette. If you would like to have her leaflet E-1, entitled "Do You Know Your ABC's in Manners" (Quiz for Girls and Boys of High School Age), send 10 cents in coin to Dept. E. P., care of this newspaper to P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. (Released by The Hill Syndicate)

De Leon played a better game than the score indicated, having several good drives stopped by crippling penalties. David Coan gave the Cisco defense a lot of trouble with his powerful running.

How to Make Your Home Say "Merry Christmas"

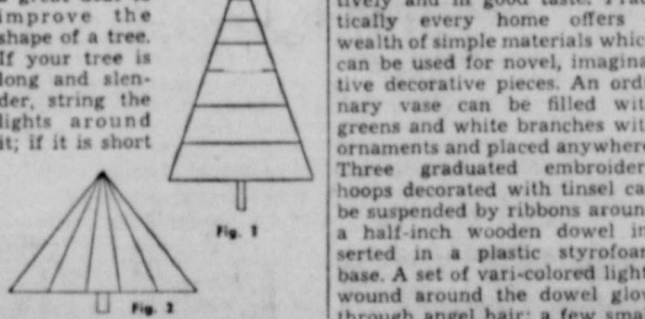

Christmas, with its magic of colored lights, is one time when the individual really comes into his own. With the same basic materials, and the same general ideas to express, it is a source of continual wonder to see the vastly different effects which can be created. And, it is not necessary to go to a great deal of expense to create something which is lovely to look at and which says "Merry Christmas" to all who see it.

Keeping a few simple rules in mind and giving your imagination free rein, you can make your Christmas decorating a project in which the whole family can share, giving everyone a feeling of satisfaction in his own individual contribution.

Selecting and Caring for Tree
For many of us, the tree itself will always be the central figure in any decorating scheme. Selecting it, bringing it home, visualizing it in its dressed and lighted glory—all add to the sense of anticipation.

Select a tree that is full and beautifully shaped. As soon as you bring the tree home, stand it in a pail or tub filled with water until you are ready to set it up and trim it. This will prolong the life and appearance of the tree, keep the needles from falling and minimize the danger of fire.

Trimming Your Tree
Lights can do a great deal to improve the shape of a tree. If your tree is long and slender, string the lights around it, if it is short and squat, string them in vertical rows, from top to bottom. (See Fig. 1 and Fig. 2.) Don't guess at the number of lights you need for your tree. Professional decorators use this formula: Multiply the height of the tree by the width of the branches at the base, then multiply by three. A tree seven feet tall, and five feet wide at the base thus would have 105 lights.

Don't limit yourself to conventional Christmas lights. Lamps which simulate ice crystals or snow balls are now available and produce a very interesting appearance. Consider also the flashing, twinkling or bubbling lights which give the effect of motion and are particularly appealing to children.

Start at the Top
Trees should always be trimmed from the top down. The Angel, Star, Spear or other tree-top piece should be put in place. Then the lights should be strung, top to bottom. Reflectors and halos add much to the brilliance of lights.

Keep in mind, too, the candles, lamps, angels, snow globes, Santa Claus figures and other "ready-made" decorations which are available. They can be combined with greens, ornaments, ribbons and other materials with very good results. This idea is particularly adaptable in window treatments where both imagination and a safe, convenient light source are most desirable.

Your House a Christmas Card
We have all experienced that warm glow of good feeling and fond memories which can come from just glancing at a house which seems to wish the whole world a "Merry Christmas."

Here too, safety must be the watchword. All outside wiring must be rubber-insulated and heavy-duty—#12 or #14 cord is best. A permanent, protected outdoor type receptacle is the most satisfactory current source. Lacking that, you can use a porch or garage light. Should that not be convenient, an indoor light socket can be used safely in this manner—get a board about six to nine inches wide, cut to fit snugly under any window. Drill a hole in the board, put it in position and close the window so that it meets the board. The outside wire can then be run through the hole and connected to an indoor socket. Brace lock the window with a stick (See Fig. 4).

One of the most attractive, and least expensive, means of outdoor lighting is to run strings of lights along the eaves or roof edge. Ordinary drive rings, available at any hardware store, can simplify the job enormously. U-shaped, the drive rings can be affixed to the under-edge of the roof, and the lights threaded through them. The same technique can be used in outlining doors and windows with lights. The drive rings will keep them in position, prevent sagging or uneven effects. (See Fig. 5.)

Christian Science
 The supreme power of God will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday.
 Keynoting the Lesson - Sermon entitled "Soul and Body" is the Golden Text from Psalms (66:8, 9): "O bless our God, ye people, and make the voice of his praise to be heard: which holdeth our soul in life, and suffereth not our feet to be moved."
 Selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include this statement of the supremacy of God, Soul: "God is infinite, the only Life, substance, Spirit, or Soul, the only intelligence of the universe, including man" (330:11-12).
 From the King James Version of the Bible, the following will be read: "Bless the Lord, O my soul. O Lord my God, thou art very great: thou art clothed with honour and majesty" (Psalms 104:1).

AROUND RANGER COLLEGE CAMPUS
By Ranger College Journalism Class

Impressions of Homecoming
The consensus among both students and Exes is that 1959 Homecoming was a highly successful one, one that all who attended will remember with pleasure. Comments of students and Exes about the occasion were glowingly enthusiastic, as shown by the following expressions:

Robert Halencak, freshman: I thought our Homecoming was a success. Cold weather plagued a few, but as a whole the student body did a fine job in its preparation. The parade, though not lavish, had some clever ideas, and the townpeople made a fine turnout on that cold day. Their efforts were much appreciated by the college.

Boone Yarbrough, sophomore: The town and school seemed to unify and work together as one group. It was a real success.

Jerry Blakeley, a 1958 Ranger now at North Texas: I really enjoyed Homecoming and was impressed with changes and improvements around the campus. I'm really proud of our team also.

Doug Arnold, 1958 Ranger now of Strawn: This Homecoming was surely different from last year's, with the parade and all. Too bad the weather wasn't as good as the spirit.

Jackie Waggoner, sophomore: Last year Homecoming was just another day to play football, but this one was really a ball. I'm not the least bit emotional, but I got that old college spirit. Thanks to Dr. Nickick, this was a real Homecoming to be proud to attend.

Mrs. TheBerga, librarian: I thought it was very good.

Betsy Telbert, sophomore: I think it was a great success, and I think everyone enjoyed it.

Overheard: The funniest, cleverest entry in the parade was the Call Block entry, Wayne Gravely, in football uniform combined with balster, gun and cowboy boots. He was riding a horse which carried this sign: Rangers Will Ride Tonight.

Mrs. J. P. Morris: Except for the extreme cold weather, I thought the Homecoming was a success. Many Exes were undoubtedly prevented from attending because of the weather.

What's new in insurance?

You may think he's joking

The insurance business is so substantial and so conservative, that you may think it forgets to "bring out improvements."

Don't fool yourself. Insurance has improved just as much in recent years as motor cars and washing machines and television.

There are many new protective ideas in policies of the America Fore Insurance Group which we represent.

One reason you should consult us is that we make a business of keeping up with every new feature of modern insurance coverage.

IT'S THE LAW in Texas. A public service bureau of the State Bar of Texas.

LAWYER TALK Many persons feel that the "whereases", "aforesaid", and other legal verbiage used by lawyers are intended only to confuse and confuse the layman.

YOU NEED Life Insurance Protection. Tommy Guess, Northwestern National Life Insurance Company.

draft them in such a way as to exclude all ambiguities. In the last analysis, a legal document means what some court at some future time shall declare that it means.

Most any paragraph of non-legal language contains numerous ambiguities. When a lawyer refers to the "deed aforesaid", he is referring to the deed mentioned in a prior portion of the instrument.

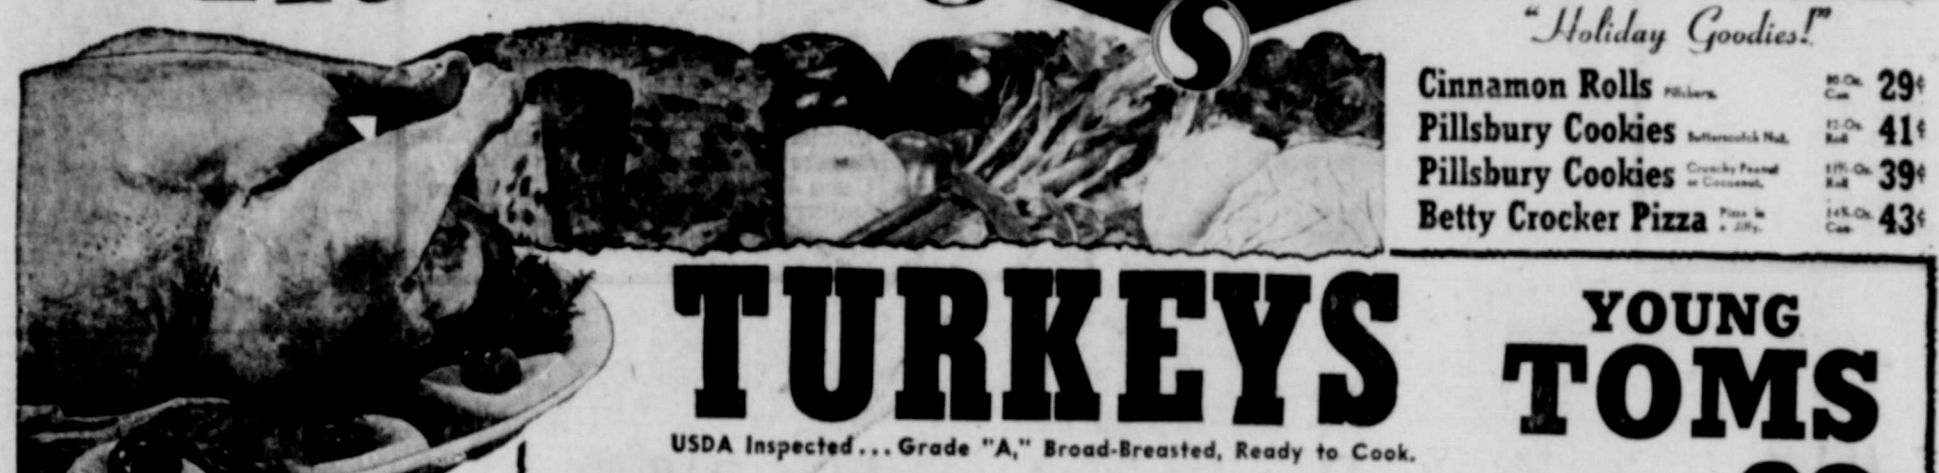

Another reason why lawyers use legal language is historical in nature. Thus most deeds declare that the grantor "by these presents does grant, sell, and convey" the land in question to the grantee.

As a consequence, the lawyer, in the interest of his client, naturally uses the time-tested language instead of experimenting with new language.

(This column, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

The molasses-and-raisin flavor of spicy Ginger Nuts will make a hit with youthful cookie connoisseurs on your holiday guest list.
Baking and eating holiday cookies are two activities children love. Plan your baking sessions so the youngsters can help mix, bake and decorate.
Even if your helpers eat all they make, you'll know that cookies made with enriched flour give important amounts of three B-vitamins and food iron. When guests arrive, nothing brings as much pleasure as a tray of assorted holiday cookies, your own home-baked specialties and your baker's.

Ginger Nuts

- | | |
|------------------------------|---|
| 3 cups sifted enriched flour | 1/2 cup dark molasses |
| 1/2 cup sugar | 1/2 cup melted shortening |
| 1/2 teaspoon soda | 1 egg, beaten |
| 1/2 teaspoon salt | 1/2 cup raisins |
| 1 teaspoon cinnamon | 1/2 cup plain or colored sugar, or decorates (2 1/2 ounces) |
| 1/2 teaspoon ground cloves | |
| 1/2 teaspoon ground ginger | |

Sift together flour, sugar, soda, salt and spices. Add molasses and shortening to beaten egg. Add raisins to flour mixture and stir to coat raisins with flour. Add liquid to dry ingredients and stir with a spoon, then knead by hand until well blended. Roll dough into pieces the size of large marbles. To decorate, roll each piece in plain or colored sugar or multi-colored decorates. Place on ungreased baking sheet and bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 10 to 12 minutes. Makes 6 to 7 dozen cookies. These will keep up to 4 weeks.

Cookies may also be left plain before baking. Then, while cookies are still oven-warm, shake them in a paper bag with confectioner's sugar until coated. These make attractive cookie "snowballs."

tients. Formerly they were sent only to tubercular hospitals, but this year they will be made available for patients in mental hospitals and special schools.

Wherever possible the hides should be sent to L. M. Rathbone, Austin taxidermist, who will handle them out to the tanneries.

Hunters should rub salt on the green hides before sending them in. If the hides cannot be delivered direct to the taxidermist they should be left with the nearest frozen food locker plant. These locker plants then will route them to Austin over motor freight lines which have agreed to handle them when they are marked "charity."

On hides west of the Pecos, they should be routed to the Russell Williams Frozen Food locker on N. Grand Street, Odessa. From there they will be picked up by Omar Drilling of San Angelo and routed into Austin.

From Austin they will go to tanneries, and then be sent to the hospitals for use of patients in handcraft.

The entire operation is on a cost-free basis, under direction of the Board of Hospitals and Special Schools.

PEANUT DAMAGE LIGHT

With the return of fair, dry weather, receipts of peanuts at the local market were again heavy this week. Receipts through Saturday of last week were totaled in excess of three million pounds. Damage from the recent rains was not as heavy as might have been feared with grades running fair. An average of two percent damage to peanuts harvested during the recent rainy spells was estimated.

FALCON, the New-size Ford. delivers the value and cuts the budget!

Handling that's really a breeze. The all-new, new-size Falcon parks on a dime... turns on one, too! You'll be able to steer with power steering ease... without power steering. You'll be able to stop as though you had power brakes... without power brakes.

Room for six—and all their luggage. No doing without in the Falcon! There's hip, shoulder, knee, and head room galore! Both two- and four-door models are a cinch to enter. Then, thanks to the Falcon's front-mounted engine, there's luggage space aplenty for everyone.

Up to 30 MPG on regular gas, too. And the Falcon actually crossed the country without any oil added. Speaking of thrift, the Falcon's finish never needs wax. Its aluminum muffler normally lasts up to twice as long.

Sweet performance from Ford's most modern Six. A full 90 hp. You'll have to feel the pickup and responsive power to believe it! And each Falcon Six is electronically balanced, while running under its own power, for top smoothness.

New luxury interiors. Upholsteries are truly quality-made... materials you'd expect to find in cars costing twice the money. Seats are chair high. The front seat cushion is foam padded. And the Falcon rides smooth as silk... corners on rails.

Proved over 3,000,000 miles. To top off 3 years of testing, a fleet of the new-size Falcons has just been proved over every mile of numbered Federal highway. With no doubt, the world's most experienced new cars
