

As I See Ranger

By Gene Townsend

In our story on the election of football captains for the Ranger High School Bulldogs we stated that Tommy Ford was a two-year letter man. We wish to correct this. Tommy is a three-year letterman on the Bulldog team. Tommy and Homer Montgomery were elected by the team as captains for the 1959 Bulldogs.

There seems to be more deer hunting this year than ever before. A lot of hunters have had pretty good luck in getting their deer. But then there is some that haven't had such good luck. One fellow here in town got up early opening morning and drove about 20 miles out to the place where he was going to hunt. It was still a little dark when he arrived at his destination and he wrapped up real good to wait for the shooting light. He woke up about seven o'clock and had to be back to work by eight. That is a hard way to catch up on one's sleep. But there is one consolation, Ronald, there might not have been a deer wandering by while you were asleep.

And speaking of deer hunting, Bobby Daskevich came by the office Saturday morning with a three-point buck he had killed on the Dickie Hodges ranch. He shot it with a 243 Winchester at 146 yards. That is pretty good shooting. Bobby is in the sixth grade at Young School.

C. B. Pruet brought an interesting article down to the office a few days ago. This was taken from the U. S. News.

"Two hundred new industrial jobs will mean the following to a community:

- 393 homes
- 320 new autos
- 32 retail stores
- 24 professional men
- 18 school teachers
- 22 additional class rooms
- 1.5 million dollars in life insurance

Child Welfare Club Will Collect Toys

The Child Welfare Club each year collects toys that children have out-grown and discarded, for distribution to children that are not able to have toys of their own. The Club is now ready to start collecting these toys.

They have placed a box in the Chamber of Commerce office for the toys to be deposited. They urge everyone who has discarded toys to leave them there. Toys that have been broken and the broken parts are still available are also welcome. If the toy can still be repaired the Welfare Club can still use it.

Mrs. D. D. Pickrell, Mrs. W. H. Clem and Mrs. Ira Wolford are in charge of the toy collection. They urge everyone to help in collecting a good number of toys for the needy children.

Marketing Quota for Peanuts Is Revealed

The U. S. Department of Agriculture has announced a national marketing quota of 934,000 tons and a national allotment of 1,610,000 acres for picking threshing for the 1960 peanut crop according to the Southwestern Peanut Growers Association.

The marketing quota is subject to approval by growers voting in the Dec. 15 referendum. The referendum will be on quotas for the 1960-61 and 62 crops of peanuts. Whether or not peanut marketing quotas are approved in the referendum, the 1960-peanut acreage allotment will remain in effect as a means for price support.

Legislation provides that the average quantity of peanuts harvested for nuts during the five years immediately preceding the year in which the quota is proclaimed, adjusted for current trends and prospective demand conditions. However, the quota must be sufficient to provide a national average allotment of at least 1,610,000 acres.

In determining the marketing quota for the 1960 crop of peanuts, a "normal" yield of 1,610 pounds

Ranger Man Wins Fight Over Cancer

O. L. Justice of Ranger recently returned from the Anderson Clinic in Houston where he went through the final checkup, after five long years of periodical checkups, and emerged a cured cancer patient.

It all started over five years ago. On September 10, 1954, Justice underwent surgery by the late Dr. A. W. Brazda, and was told by Dr. Brazda to go to a cancer specialist, either at the Anderson Clinic at Houston, the Mayo Clinic or a Clinic in California.

On October 11, 1954, it was made possible by M. E. Newnham for Justice to enter the Anderson Clinic in Houston. After a three month stay in the Clinic, he returned home. For the first six months he returned to the Clinic once a month for examinations. Then for the next two years the examinations were made each three months, and each four months for the following two years. The fifth year, an examination each six months was necessary. On his last trip to the Anderson Clinic, Justice was proclaimed a cured cancer patient.

Justice will return to Houston once each year from now on for a medical checkup, because he knows that the best way to fight cancer is to spot it early and have it treated while there is still time for it to be cured.

Until recently, one fourth of all those with cancer were saved — by surgery, x-ray or radium. Today, one third are being saved. But one-half — literally tens of thousands more — could have been saved through earlier diagnosis and better treatment.

There were 15 people in the group that Justice was with in the Anderson Clinic. Today there is five of those 15 people that are cured patients.

Justice said "there is hope for cancer patients. Everyone should follow the advice of the American Cancer Society and watch for any danger signal that might indicate cancer. If cancer is spotted in time it is treatable in most cases."

The American Cancer Society says fight cancer with a checkup. Go to your family doctor for a health checkup once a year, for the sake of yourself and your loved ones.

An examination may detect cancer before signs appear that are obvious to you.

At the time when cancer is "silent", before it talks through signals, it is most curable. A regular checkup is your best insurance against cancer.

There are 40,000,000 Americans now living whom cancer will strike if present rates continue. This is why the search for an ultimate cure is so urgent. With your aid, 1,000 scientists are pressing the search from coast to coast.

Some encouraging developments so far: new surgical techniques, radiation with atomic chemicals and supervoltage machines, promising drugs, data on the relationship between cancer and hormones, cancer and viruses, better understanding of both the normal and the cancerous human cell.

Such places as the M. D. Anderson Clinic in Houston, which is an extension of the University of Texas Medical School is carrying on these research projects.

The American Cancer Society is the organization that makes it possible through everyone's help to continue this research and fight for cancer patients. The Eastland County Unit of the American Cancer Society recently elected officers. They are: A. D. Jenkins of Rising Star, president; Mrs. Rancie Hopper of Ranger, vice president; and Mrs. Louis Weber of Rising Star, secretary. They will conduct the American Cancer Society program through the coming year. And it is through your help in this program that people like our O. L. Justice are today living a happy, normal life.

Peruvian Ambassador To Ranger College

By Lesia R. Mobley

"One of the things that impresses me most about the United States in general and Texas in particular is the facility you have in traveling from place to place," said Armando Diaz, when interviewed. Armando is a Ranger College freshman from Chorrillos, Lima, Peru. Registering a week late as a pre-dental student, he is making up for lost time by meeting an 18-semester-hour schedule. Included in this undertaking are two courses in science, one in government and one in English. To understand what this means to Armando, one has only to imagine oneself in his country attending a college where all courses and conversations are conducted in Spanish.

This young man has a fine preparatory background for college work. At home in Lima, he attended both parochial and military schools. The curriculum of the military school was approximately that of our American high school, and Armando was distinguished both by high scholastic ability and active participation on the soccer and rifle teams. His final year at Guadalupe Military School was crowned by seeing his rifle team acclaimed as the best in the nation.

His plans of entering the Scripps

Funeral Services Held Friday for J. T. Cooper

Funeral Services were held at 10 a. m. Friday in Abilene for J. T. Cooper, a native of Scranton and a former Eastland resident.

Mr. Cooper, 45, died early Wednesday morning in Midland after suffering a heart attack. He was in Midland on a business trip for Thomson Enterprises, for whom he was employed as an accountant.

Born Aug. 12, 1913 in Scranton, he married Beanie Marlow at Fort Worth in 1934. He had been a resident of Abilene for eight years, having moved there from Eastland.

Services were held in Elliott's Chapel of Memories with Rev. John A. English, pastor of the Abilene First Methodist Church, officiating. Burial was in Elmwood Memorial Park.

Survivors include his wife; one son, Tommy, a student at Texas Tech; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Cooper of Eastland, and one brother, W. R. of Eastland.

Funeral services were Russell Hill, Ed Booth, Bill Walters, Red Graham, Ross Kemp and G. A. Flummer.

ence University of Lima were interrupted by a student strike at that school, and since he had friends attending colleges and universities in Texas, Armando decided to come to the United States to further his education. This was a courageous decision, for he is the first member of his family to attend school out of Peru. His father owns farmland on which he raises cotton, which is "harvested entirely by hand, as machinery would be too costly," said Armando.

The high cost of labor in the United States has brought about a complete reversal of this situation. Two older sons of the Diaz family are engaged in cotton growing along with their father, Armando being the first son to choose a professional career. From Ranger College, he intends to go to Texas University to complete his training and then plans to practice dentistry in his homeland.

A popular student, he is liked and admired by both classmates and faculty. This neat, attractive young man is friendly, courteous, and interested in everything about him.

Many things in this country must seem strange to him, not the least of which will be cold weather at Christmas time, for in his country December is as warm as our July. He has made no definite plans for spending this first Christmas away from his family, but "It is too far for me to go home," he says.

Ranger College is glad to have Armando as a student and good-will ambassador and hopes he will encourage his fellow Peruvians to come here in the future.

Farm Census to Bring Statistics More Up to Date

The 1955 Census of Agriculture, now under way in Eastland County, will bring up to date farm statistics last collected in 1954, when the farm census revealed the following facts:

The value of products sold in 1954 by farm operators was $3,691,791. The value of all crops sold was $1,146,230 and included $1,087,653 for field crops, $14,367 for vegetables, $41,250 for fruits and nuts, and $2,450 for horticultural specialties. The value of all livestock and livestock products sold was $2,545,246 and included $343,298 for dairy products, $856,296 for poultry and poultry products, and $1,543,774 for livestock and livestock products.

Rangers Blast Cisco With 40 pts. In 2nd Half

The Ranger College Rangers blasted the Cisco College Wranglers in a second half burst of scoring Saturday night to win the arch rivalry game 47 to 15.

The Rangers came from behind in the second half and scored 40 points in a dazzling show of offensive skill with Bill Phillips, Jim Brock, Dean Faulkenberry, Jackie Waggoner and Prentiss Gidney turning in brilliant performances.

The Ranger defense completely stopped the Wranglers in the second half after they had run up a 15 to 7 lead in the first half. The line crashing of James Stamford led the hard-hitting Ranger's line, with Phillip Reed, James Hokinson, Vernon Singleton, Clyde Smith, Bobby Lauderemik, Wayne Cromer and Jim Hamilton combining to throw up a solid wall that the Wranglers had trouble penetrating.

Ranger received the opening kickoff and quickly began to move the ball toward a quick score. Bill Phillips, halfback started things off with a 66 yard scamper down to the Cisco 15 yard line only to have it called back for an off-side penalty. Prentiss Gidney, fullback, then took over to pick up 59 yards on two carries helping to move the ball down to the Cisco 3 yard line where the Rangers fumbled and Cisco took over. Jackie Ubanks completed a long pass and the receiver was in the open, but Jim Hamilton caught him from the

Tom McGlothen Dies Thursday In San Antonio

Tom McGlothen of San Antonio, father of Mrs. Earl Blackwell of Ranger and brother of Mrs. B. W. Burnett and Mrs. Nora Weaver, both of Ranger, died at his home Thursday at 8 p. m.

Funeral services will be at 3 p. m. Saturday in San Antonio. Mr. McGlothen, a former resident of Cross Roads Community, is well known in Ranger. A retired farmer, he has lived in San Antonio for a number of years.

County Pecan Growers Win Brown Honors

Eastland County pecan growers won a fair share of honors at the Brown County Pecan Show held at Brownwood last Friday and Saturday by capturing 16 ribbons and the reserve champion plaque, according to word from County Agent J. M. Cooper's office.

A total of seven of the 16 were first place honors.

C. E. Smith, Rising Star grower, got a first place with his Success variety, a first place with his Halbert, a second with Delmas and a third place in the unnamed seedling division.

B. B. Freeman, Rt. 1, Ranger, took a first place with his Comanche entry. This went on into the finals and took the reserve championship of the show. This is a fairly new variety, developed by the research folks and is a cross between Success and Burkett. It looks a lot like a Burkett according to Cooper.

Fleming got a second with his Williams, second with his San Sabu, a third with his Stuart and Western Schley and a first with his Wichita, also a new variety of pecans.

Lee Lieske, Rt. 2, Cisco, whose orchard is in the Nimrod Community too, a first with his John Garner and a second with his Texas Prolifer.

Don Alexander also of Rising Star took first with his Eastern Schley and Texas Prolifer, third with his Knomad and second place with his unnamed seedling.

led on the Ranger 21 yard line. Cisco stalled at this point and the Rangers began to move again. Jim Brock, quarterback, scored from the one yard line to climax a 70 yard drive. Gidney and Phillips contributed runs of 22 and 27 yards in the drive. Kenneth Hart kicked the extra point.

Cisco dominated the second quarter by quickly scoring with a pass play from Jackie Ubanks to end Don Holden good for 53 yards. Ubanks passed to Charles Lawrence for the two extra points. Cisco came back after recovering an on-side kick and moved the ball 48 yards with Ubanks scoring from the one yard line. Glenn Hatton kicked the extra point. That ended the half with Cisco leading 15 to 7.

The Rangers came roaring back after the half with Brock taking the kickoff back 41 yards to the Cisco 35. Phillips capped this drive with a three yard plunge into the end zone. Brock ran the two extra points to tie the game at 15 all.

Phillips came back minutes later with a 71 yard scamper on a pitchout. The try for extra point was no good.

Still in the third quarter the Rangers took over after a short punt by the Wranglers and Phillips broke loose for another TD on a 27 yard run only to have it called back on a penalty. A 21 yard pass from Brock to Hamilton set up the score with Brock scoring from 14 yards out on a roll-out. Again the kick was not good.

Shortly after the fourth quarter began Jackie Waggoner found running room and sped 47 yards for another tally. Phillips kicked

Chartered Bus Trip Planned For Mexico Game

Ranger College plans to charter a bus to Monterrey, Mexico for the game there Saturday.

The tickets on the bus will be $16 round trip. Expenses while in Mexico will run about $4.00 for room and three meals per day. Anyone interested in making the trip can call Coseh Jim Puryear at the college for further information.

It is anticipated that there will be extra seats on the bus other than the college students, and the public is invited to go on the trip. The deadline for tickets on the bus will be Tuesday morning.

Little known facts about Texas boundaries.

(Editor's note: This is the sixth in a series of articles outlining the numerous boundary conflicts dating back to 1716, pointing up little known facts which shaped the Texas of today.)

Texas fought hard for Greer County but finally lost to Oklahoma. In 1890 Congress created the Territory of Oklahoma out of a portion of the Indian Territory which was bounded on the west and south by Texas.

In the same breath it decreed that a law suit be filed in the U. S. Supreme Court to settle the controversy as to who owned Greer County, Texas.

In March, 1896, the Supreme Court ruled that the Treaty of 1819 called for TRUE 100th meridian as the boundary line and not the surveyor's mistake. The court specified the south bank of the south fork.

This has seems to have gone un-noticed at the time but it did evoke howles of anguish later when big oil money was at stake.

In 1901 Congress authorized another attempt to pin down the meandering meridian and several surveys followed.

"The area was rapidly taking on the aspects of Root Hill cemetery with the various markers erected by the different surveyors," Wilson notes.

In 1906 Oklahoma was admitted as a state and a new face and voice was added to the dispute. Texas announced in 1919 her the extra point. Cisco mounted their only threat late in the fourth quarter and moved the ball down to the Ranger 7 yard line only to lose it on fourth down. The Rangers took over and fumbled on the 15 and Cisco again failed to make a first and Kenneth Hart returned a punt back to the Cisco 41 yard line. Phillips ran for 33 and then took a pass from Brock in the end zone for eight yards and a score. The try for extra point was no good.

Dean Faulkenberry capped the scoring with a 54 yard Statue of Liberty play and a 4-yard reverse play. Hart kicked the extra point to give the Rangers a convincing 47 to 15 victory.

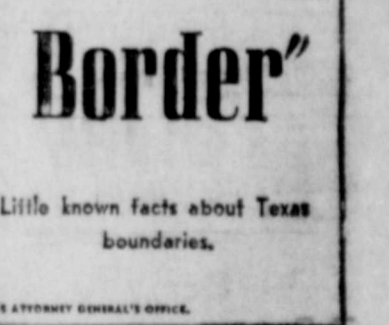

Herman Brawner In Alaska With Marines

Taking part in Exercise "Totem Pole," being conducted on Kodiak Island in Alaska is Marine 1st Sgt. Herman H. Brawner of 1061 Pershing St., Ranger, of the First Marine Division from Camp Pendleton, Calif.

The division arrived at Kodiak, Nov. 15, aboard Navy ships making the 3,000 mile journey from California in 12 days.

The large scale operation will be highlighted by simultaneous raids on Kalsin, Iethams, and Pasagshak Bays at Kodiak.

Return date for the Marines to Camp Pendleton is scheduled for Dec. 10.

Little known facts about Texas boundaries.

intention to sue Oklahoma. But Oklahoma filed first, attempting to establish the boundary along the Red River.

Texas counterclaimed and sued for the location of the line constituting the eastern boundary of the Texas Panhandle and the western line of Oklahoma.

Rather than confront the task of deciding which of the many meridian locators was right, the U. S. Supreme Court said the true 100th meridian remained yet to be discovered and named the man to discover it—Samuel S. Gannett.

Gannett styled himself a geodetic and astronomic engineer. Gannett ran the line once again marking it with monuments, from the south bank of the south fork of the Red River to the northern most Texas boundary.

Out of all this Texas gained a strip of land over three quarters of a mile wide and 133 miles long located along the tier of counties forming the eastern boundary of our Panhandle but lost Greer County.

The remark of an old Oklahoma nester indicates how the hard fight had affected the lives of the local citizens.

"I ain't moved an inch in 16 years on 50 years but I've lived in one Injan territory, two states and three dad-gum counties."

And, bless him, he had.

A Married Woman's Name
Dear Mrs. Post: Will you please tell me how to correctly handle the following situation: We have recently moved to a small town. I have always called myself Mrs. John Brown, and cannot bear to be called Mrs. Jane. As far as I can tell most of the women here prefix Mrs. to their own first names. My question is, how can I join in community activities and avoid having Mrs. tacked on to my Christian name in club listings. The problem is further complicated by the fact that my husband holds a rather important position in this small town, so I must be very careful not to give the impression of being a snob. Is there a tactful way to cope with this problem?

Answer: Your wish to be known as Mrs. John Brown is definitely correct. But as a newcomer you cannot set yourself up as a critic of an established community custom without endangering your popularity. You can give your own name as Mrs. John Brown but if they do not choose to follow this form in their listings, then I am afraid you will have to submit to Mrs. Jane—at least until you have become an established member of the community, and then explain that you happen to dislike your own name and do like to be called by your husband's.

Nurses' Graduation
Dear Mrs. Post: Recently we attended a nurses' graduation which was held in a well-known church in this city. As the graduates marched in to the church to the professional played by the church organist, the members of our party stood up along with a few others, while the majority remained seated.

Answer: You were correct in showing courtesy to the graduates by standing.

Inserting Letter in Envelope
Dear Mrs. Post: Will you please tell me the correct way to insert a letter, or note, into the envelope? Should the folded edge be inserted first or the open edge?

Answer: The folded edge is inserted first.
Who Is It Please?
Dear Mrs. Post: Lately I have moved into an apartment house that has a telephone connection between each apartment to the street vestibule and a buzzer system that enables me to open the front door. Will you please tell if "Hello" is the proper way to answer this telephone when the bell rings?

Answer: "Hello" is never unsuitable, but it would be more practical to say, "Who is it, please?" A friend then answers, "Mrs. Smith to see Mrs. Jones." Or if she recognizes your voice, she says, "Mary, this is Sally!

Can you see me?" You then answer, "Yes, indeed!" and release the door. Or explain that you are hurrying to go out, or to finish something, and ask, "Won't you come tomorrow?" or whenever.

Cherry Pits
Dear Mrs. Post: A guest in our house recently disposed of cherry pits by dropping them into her cupped hand and then onto the side of the plate. As this person is someone whose table manners I have never questioned, I feel that perhaps I have been doing the wrong thing all my life and accordingly, instructing my children incorrectly. We have always dropped the pits into the spoon and conveyed them to the side of the plate. Will you please tell me which way is the right one?

Answer: Either way is all right, but dropping the pits into the cupped hand is somewhat better table manners because less conspicuous.

A Nephew Marries
Dear Mrs. Post: My husband's sister's son is going to be married soon to a divorced woman. They are not having a reception of any kind. My husband thinks we should send them a wedding present, but I do not feel that a wedding present is necessary under the circumstances. What do you think?

Answer: Whether they have a reception or not, you would be expected to send a wedding present to your husband's nephew.

Mrs. Post offers readers leaflets on a variety of subjects concerning etiquette. If you would like to have her leaflet E-16, entitled "Table Rules of Importance," send 10 cents in coin to Dept. E. P., care of (name of newspaper), P.O. Box 99, Station G, New York 13, N. Y. Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail.

IT'S THE LAW
in Texas
A public service feature of the State Bar of Texas

GOING BROKE

The word "bankruptcy" came from the Latin "banca" (a tradesman's table) and "ruptus" (broken).

Under old English law a bankrupt was a trader who hid himself or did other things to defraud his creditors.
Under the Roman law creditors could cut up the bankrupt's body and each take his due share. Other laws would put the debtor in prison or in chains, allow whipping and hard labor. East Indian creditors could sell the debtor and his family into slavery forever.

In the Middle Ages a bankrupt was a criminal. Later he got some rights: Though creditors could force him to turn over all his

New Flavor Combination With Sweet Potatoes

Sweet potatoes go with holiday menus like turkey and cranberries. There is something highly attractive about a serving of this vitamin-rich food that adds color and flavor to any special meal.
Ideas for variation in the preparation of sweet potatoes are welcomed by most homemakers. Here is one new idea which varies ingredients as well as method of preparation. Mix and blend the ingredients in this recipe early in the day when you are not hard pressed for time. Place sweet potato mixture in a buttered baking dish that also can be used for serving. Wrap the dish snugly in saran film and refrigerate until time to put the dish in the oven. The plastic film will keep the food moist and good until time to heat for serving. This is a time and worry saving way of adding a variation to the meal. The flavor and color of this sweet potato dish will be enjoyed by all at mealtime.

California Sweet Potatoes
2 cans sweet potatoes No. 2 1/2 1 cup chopped walnuts
4 tablespoons butter 1 cup finely chopped dates
Milk if needed
Mash and whip the sweet potatoes using some of the liquid. Add milk if still too dry. Blend in butter and season with salt. Add chopped walnuts and dates. Spread in a buttered casserole. Bake in moderate oven 350° F. about 30 minutes or until lightly browned and heated through. Serve with baked ham. Makes 6-8 servings. Prepare this recipe in advance, wrap in saran and refrigerate until time to put in the oven.

goods, he would escape prison. The basic concepts of our bankruptcy laws are: (1) Prorate the bankrupt's assets among his creditors, (2) discharge him from most of his debts, and (3) "grub-stake" him by exempting certain things from the creditor's reach.
The English wanted to discourage extravagance, yet they saw that a debtor's misfortune could trap him. So the early bankruptcy laws grudgingly were only for actual tradesmen. Others had to take their medicine.
Our Constitution gives Congress power, first used in 1800, "to establish a Uniform . . . Law on the subject of bankruptcies."
After Congress had passed and then repealed three laws it passed our present bankruptcy act in 1898. It amended the act in 1938 to refine liquidation and rehabilitation procedures.
Today the act relieves the debtor through liquidation, or reorganization and rehabilitation. His creditors have always worried about the debtor, but now the state through law has declared the public concern in putting him back on his feet.
The Supreme Court has said that the act aims to "relieve the honest debtor from the weight of oppressive indebtedness, and permit him

Always First For The Holiday Feast

Roast turkey for holiday dinners is traditional. The fragrance of the succulent bird with spicy stuffing never fails to put the appetite of friends and loved ones in a special whirl. Platter garnish is appropriately simple... spiced whole pears and salad greens complement the turkey in color, texture and flavor.

With today's high quality bird grown especially for flavor, tenderness, juiciness and meatiness, even the inexperienced can be assured excellent results if these easy steps are followed. If the turkey purchased carries handling and cooking information on the wrapper or insert sheet, follow those instructions.

To Roast Turkey

Choose a shallow open pan which allows the heat to circulate around the bird, roasting it evenly. A rack at least 1/2-inch high raises the bird off the bottom of the pan, keeping it out of the juices.

- 1. Have bird completely clean, inside and out. Rinse with cold water. Pat dry. (Turkeys may be roasted unstuffed or stuffed.)
2. Turn on oven at 325°F to preheat.
3. Rub cavity of bird lightly with salt. Omit salting if turkey is stuffed.
4. Fill washbone area (neck) with stuffing, if used.
5. Fasten neck skin to back with skewer.
6. Stuff cavity lightly, if stuffing is used.
7. Push drumsticks under band of skin at tail; or tie them to tail.
8. Brush skin with fat.
9. Place on rack in roasting pan and place in preheated slow oven. Do not pour off water, or cover.
10. If desired, baste or brush occasionally with pan drippings, fat or oil - especially any dry areas. When turkey is 3/4 done, cut trusting cord or bridge of skin at drumsticks. Roast until tender. Turkey is done when meat at thickest part of drumstick feels very soft when pressed between protected fingers.

This timetable is a guide to the approximate total time for stuffed turkeys. If turkey is not stuffed, allow 1/2 to 1 hour less total roasting time depending upon size. Always complete roasting in one continuous cooking period.

TIMETABLE - 325°F (slow) Oven

Table with 3 columns: Weight (6 to 8 lb, 8 to 12 lb, 12 to 16 lb), Time (3 1/2 to 4 hours, 4 to 4 1/2 hours, 4 1/2 to 5 1/2 hours), and another column (16 to 20 lb, 20 to 24 lb, 7 to 8 1/2 hours).

a miniature gold turkey carried out the Thanksgiving theme. Appointments were of silver.
