A Small City with Big Industry - A Bright Spot for New Industry

RANGER, TEXAS, SUNDAY, MARCH 13, 1960

AROUND THE CAMPUS

. Personality of the Week By Brenda Brooks

It is very unusual to find in col lege a girl who is majoring in math, especially one that thinks all math courses are easy, but Ranger College has such a girl. Miss Odus Faye Carwile, attractive and vivacus sophomore, has chosen math as her major field with a minor in physics. After fininshing Ranger College, she plans to enter Texas Technological College at Lubbock.

A 1958 graduate of Ranger High

School, she has been an enthus-lastic participant in college activities. In addition to being a Phi Theta Kappa pledge, she is an active member of the Debs, Choir, Rangeanns, Masquers, and annual staff. A frank and plain-spoken person, she is interested in dram-aties and plays as a hobby. Another hobby is sewing. She makes most of her own clothes and sews for la. Though domestically inclined, she also takes part in several sports, during the summer she likes go swimming and water skiing. Odus Faye is interested in life and people around her, When asked her philosopsy of life, she re-plied, "I believe that everyone in life has a definite purpose, and I hope to be able to find and fulfill my purpose. I have always striven do the best possible on every- ship.

thing that I attempt." Neat in appearance, she is a blue-green-eyed, brown - haired young lady, who stands five foot five in hes tall. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Carwile of
